(2) In determining whether or not sufficient protests have been filed in the proposed district to prevent further proceedings, property owned by local government and school districts is considered the same as any other property in the district.

(3) The governing body may adjourn the hearing from time to time.

Section 9. Resolution creating district — power to order improvements. (1) Before ordering any of the proposed improvements, the governing body shall pass a resolution creating the district in accordance with the resolution of intention introduced and passed by the governing body.

(2) The governing body has jurisdiction to order improvements immediately upon the occurrence of one of the following:

(a) when no protests have been delivered to the county clerk within 30 days after the date of the first publication of the notice of the passing of the resolution of intention;

(b) when a protest is found by the governing body to be insufficient; or

(c) when a protest is overruled.

Section 10. Governing body to administer district. (1) The members of the governing body are ex officio commissioners of the district formed under the provisions of [sections 1 through 34] and have jurisdiction over the system within the district. The governing body is responsible for the proper functioning and maintenance of the system.

(2) The governing body is responsible for the condition and maintenance of all publicly owned roads, streets, alleys, land, parks, or other thoroughfares within the boundaries of the district affected by the construction or maintenance of the structures under control and jurisdiction of the district.

Section 11. Change of boundaries — limitations. (1) The governing body may by resolution make changes in the boundaries of a district as they consider reasonable and proper but may not delete any portion of the proposed area if the deletion will create an island of included or excluded lands.

(2) The governing body may not delete any portion of the proposed area that is contributing or may reasonably be expected to contribute to the pollution of any watercourse or body of water in the proposed area.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2), it is conclusively presumed that an area that is within 1,500 feet of a proposed or existing sanitary sewer is contributing to the pollution of a watercourse in the proposed area.

Section 12. Applicable provisions of laws relating to rural improvement districts. The provisions of 7-12-2101, 7-12-2106, 7-12-2107, 7-12-2110, 7-12-2115 through 7-12-2120, 7-12-2131 through 7-12-2140, 7-12-2153, 7-12-2154, 7-12-2161 through 7-12-2165, 7-12-2166(2), 7-12-2168(2), 7-12-2169, and 7-12-2171 through 7-12-2174 pertaining to rural improvement districts apply to [sections 1 through 34] unless in conflict with the provisions of [sections 1 through 34].

Section 13. Adequate records to be maintained. The records of the district pertaining to the collection of the operation and maintenance tax levied and the records of the district pertaining to expenditures for construction of the system must be kept and maintained in the office of the treasurer of the local government where the district is located. These records must include but not be limited to a list of individual property that is delinquent in payment, together with the name of the owner or owners of the property.

Section 14. Assessment of costs. To defray the cost of installing and maintaining the system under the provisions of [sections 1 through 34], the governing body shall adopt the following method of assessment:

(1) The governing body shall assess the entire cost of the improvements against the entire district.

(2) Each lot or parcel of land assessed in the district is to be assessed with that part of the whole cost that its area bears to the area of the entire district, exclusive of streets, avenues, alleys, and public places.

Section 15. Status of federal property within district. Whenever any lot, piece, or parcel of land belonging to the United States fronts upon the proposed work or improvement or is to be included within the district the governing body shall in the resolution of intention declare that the lots, pieces, or parcels of land must be omitted from the assessment to be made to cover the cost and expenses of the work or improvement, and the cost of the work or improvement in front of the lots, pieces, or parcels of land must be paid by the local government from its general fund.

Section 16. Restriction on assessments following change of boundaries. Nothing in [section 11] permits the assessment of the cost of the system against the lands remaining in the district after a boundary change at a higher rate per square foot than the rate per square foot that would have been assessed if the entire cost of the improvements as estimated in the resolution of intention had been assessed against each lot and parcel of land included within the boundaries of the district as described in the resolution of intention unless a new resolution of intention to recreate the district is adopted and a hearing is held on the new resolution after notice as required for the original resolution of intention.

Section 17. Resolution to assess and levy tax for making improvements. (1) To defray the cost of making improvements in the district, the governing body shall by resolution levy and assess a tax upon all property in the district created for the purpose of the system by using as a basis for the assessment the method provided for by [sections 1 through 34].

(2) The resolution must contain a description of each lot or parcel of land, with the name of the owner, if known, and the amount of each partial payment when made and the day when the payment becomes delinquent.

(3) The resolution, signed by the governing body, must be kept on file in the office of the local government clerk.

Section 18. Term of assessment for costs of construction. The payment of the assessment to defray the cost of constructing any improvements in the district may be spread over a term of not more than 20 years, with payment to be made in equal installments.

Section 19. Notice of resolution to assess and levy tax for making improvements — protest. (1) A notice, signed by the local government clerk and stating that the resolution levying a special assessment to defray the cost of making the improvements is on file in the office of the clerk and is subject to inspection, must be published at least once in a newspaper published nearest to where the special improvement is to be made.

(2) The notice must state the time and place in which objections to the final adoption of the resolution will be heard by the governing body.

Section 20. Hearing on protest. (1) The time for the hearing on protest must be not less than 5 days after the publication of the notice required by 7-13-126.

(2) At the time fixed, the governing body shall meet and hear all objections and for that purpose may adjourn from day to day. The governing body may by resolution modify the assessment in whole or in part. A copy of the resolution, certified by the clerk of the local government, must be delivered to the local government treasurer within 2 days after its passage.

Section 21. Assessments and other charges as lien. A special assessment made and levied to defray the cost and expenses of the work for the system, together with any percentages imposed for delinquency and for cost of collection, are a lien upon the property upon which the assessment is made and levied, from and after the date of the passage of the resolution levying the assessment. The lien may only be extinguished by payment of the assessment, with all penalties, costs, and interest.

Section 22. Charges for services. (1) The governing body may by ordinance or resolution establish just and equitable rates, charges, and rentals for the services and benefits directly or indirectly afforded by a system operated by, controlled by, and under the jurisdiction of a district formed under [sections 1 through 34].

(2) The rates, charges, and rentals must be as nearly as possible equitable in proportion to the services and benefits rendered and may take into consideration the quantity of water supplied, the amount of sewage produced and its concentration, water pollution qualities in general, and the cost of disposal of sewage and storm waters.

Section 23. Authorization to use federal funds. The governing body may apply for and receive from the federal government, on behalf of the district, any money that may be appropriated by congress for aiding in local public works projects. The governing body may borrow from the federal government any funds available for assisting in the planning or financing of local public works projects and repay the loan out of the money received from the tax levy provided for in this part.

Section 24. Charges for costs when federal funding is sought. Notwithstanding any other section of [sections 1 through 34] or a limitation imposed in [sections 1 through 34], when the governing body has applied for funds pursuant to [section 23], the governing body may adopt a system of charges and rates to require that each recipient of services pays its proportionate share of the costs of operation, maintenance, and replacement and to require industrial users of services to pay that portion of the cost of construction of the system that is allocable to the industrial user.

Section 25. Resolution to establish service charges — hearing — limitations and tax levy. The governing body may, subject to the provisions of Title 69, chapter 7, by resolution and after public hearing:

(1) establish the rates, charges, and rentals in amounts sufficient in each year to provide income and revenues adequate for the payment of the reasonable expense of operation and maintenance of the system;

(2) establish an additional charge for the operation and maintenance of a system and a plant; and

(3) levy and assess a tax upon the taxable valuation of each and every lot or parcel of land and improvements in the district, not in excess of 2 mills on each dollar of taxable valuation, to provide sufficient revenues for the reserve fund in the amounts necessary to meet the financial requirements of the fund as described in [sections 28 through 33].

Section 26. Hearing and notice on tax levy for operation and maintenance. (1) Not less than 30 days prior to the date of making the levy for operation and maintenance of the system, the governing body shall hold a public hearing on the resolution.

(2) Notice clearly setting forth the subject matter of the hearing must be given by the governing body by publication as provided in 7-1-2121, and notice must also be posted in three public places within the district.

Section 27. Preparation and filing of district budget. (1) Not less than 30 days prior to the date of the public hearing on the resolution, the governing body shall prepare and file in the office of the clerk of the local government in which the district is located and in the office of the governing body a complete, detailed budget for operation and maintenance of the system, showing all income and expenditures for the year prior to the hearing and all estimated income and expenditures for the next ensuing year in which the levy is assessed.

(2) The provisions of law relating to local government budgets and expenditures must be complied with by the district.

Section 28. Authorization for reserve fund. The governing body may, in order to secure prompt payment of any district bonds issued in payment of the cost of improvements for the district and the interest on the bonds as it becomes due, create, establish, and maintain by resolution a fund, to be designated as the "reserve fund", for each issue of bonds.

Section 29. Sources of money for reserve fund. (1) For the purpose of providing money for the reserve fund, the governing body may in its discretion, from time to time, transfer to the reserve fund from the operation and maintenance fund of the district an amount as may be considered necessary or as may be agreed upon with the holders of the bonds.

(2) Whenever there is money in the bond fund that is not required for payment of a bond of the district or interest on the bond, as much as is necessary to pay the loan referred to in [section 31] must, by order of the governing body, be transferred to the reserve fund.

Section 30. Transfers to reserve fund considered as loans. The amount or amounts transferred under [section 29] must be considered as loans from the operation and maintenance fund to the reserve fund.

Section 31. Loans from reserve fund to bond fund as lien. (1) Whenever a loan is made to the bond fund from the reserve fund, the reserve fund has a lien for the amount of the loan on:

(a) the land within the district that is delinquent in the payment of its assessments;

(b) unpaid assessments and installments of assessments on the district, whether delinquent or not; and

(c) money coming into the bond fund to the amount of the loan, together with interest on the loan from the time it was made at the rate or percentage payable by the bond or of interest on the bond for which the loan was made.

(2) If after all the bonds of the district have been fully paid and all money remaining in the bond fund has been transferred to the reserve fund, there still remains a debt from the district to the reserve fund, the governing body may foreclose the lien upon property within the district owing unpaid assessments to the district for the purpose of paying off the loan to the reserve fund.

Section 32. Limitation on repayment of loan to reserve fund. Nothing in [sections 28 through 33] permits the repayment of a loan to the reserve fund at any time unless all interest accrued on the bonds has been fully paid and all principal agreed to be paid in accordance with the redemption schedule as may be provided in the resolution or resolutions authorizing the bonds has been paid.

Section 33. Covenants to use and maintain reserve fund. (1) In connection with the issuance of district bonds, the governing body may undertake and agree:

(a) to issue orders annually authorizing loans or advances from the reserve fund to the fund maintained for the payment of the bonds in amounts sufficient to make good any deficiency in the bond and interest accounts to the extent that money is available; and

(b) to provide money for the reserve fund pursuant to the provisions of [sections 22 and 25] by establishing and collecting rates, charges, and rentals for services and benefits in amounts sufficient to provide net revenues in excess of the current costs of operation and maintenance of the system and sufficient to maintain a balance in the reserve fund as the governing body may agree to and undertake.

(2) The undertakings and agreements authorized by subsection (1) are binding upon the local government as long as any bonds or any interest on the bonds remains unpaid.

Section 34. Acquisition of private water supply system. (1) If a franchise has been granted to or a contract made with any person or corporation and the person or corporation has established or maintained a system of water supply or has valuable water rights or a supply of water desired by the district for supplying the district with water, the governing body granting the franchise, entering the contract, or desiring the water supply shall, by the passage of a resolution, give notice to the person or corporation that it desires to purchase the plant, franchise, or water supply of the person or corporation.

(2) The governing body passing a resolution as provided in subsection (1) may purchase the plant, franchise, or water supply upon terms agreed to by the parties.

(3) In case agreement is not reached in accordance with subsection (2), the governing body may take the plant, franchise, or water supply by eminent domain in accordance with Title 70, chapters 30 and 31.

Section 35. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 34] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 7, chapter 13, and the provisions of Title 7, chapter 13, apply to [sections 1 through 34].

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 283

[SB 283]

AN ACT REVISING THE ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS OF THE METAL MINE RECLAMATION LAW; EXPANDING THE SCOPE OF ENFORCEMENT ACTIONS TO INCLUDE VIOLATIONS OF A LICENSE OR PERMIT; CLARIFYING THAT THE COMMISSIONER OF STATE LANDS MAY SUSPEND THE PERMIT OF AN OPERATION CREATING AN IMMINENT DANGER TO THE HEALTH OR SAFETY OF PERSONS OUTSIDE THE PERMIT AREA; AMENDING SECTIONS 82-4-303, 82-4-361, AND 82-4-362, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 82-4-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-303. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Abandonment of surface or underground mining" may be presumed when it is shown that continued operation will not resume.

(2) "Board" means the board of land commissioners or a state employee or state agency as may succeed to its powers and duties under this part.

(3) "Commicsioner" means the commissioner of state lands provided for in 2-15-3202.

~~(3)~~(4) "Cyanide ore-processing reagent" means cyanide or a cyanide compound used as a reagent in leaching operations.

~~(4)~~(5) "Department" means the department of state lands.

~~(5)~~(6) "Disturbed land" means that area of land or surface water disturbed, beginning at the date of the issuance of the permit, and it comprises that area from which the overburden, tailings, waste materials, or minerals have been removed and tailings ponds, waste dumps, roads, conveyor systems, leach dumps, and all similar excavations or covering resulting from the operation and which have not been previously reclaimed under the reclamation plan.

~~(6)~~(7) "Exploration" means all activities conducted on or beneath the surface of lands resulting in material disturbance of the surface for the purpose of determining the presence, location, extent, depth, grade, and economic viability of mineralization in those lands, if any, other than mining for production and economic exploitation, as well as all roads made for the purpose of facilitating exploration, except as noted in 82-4-310.

~~(7)~~(8) "Mineral" means any ore, rock, or substance, other than oil, gas, bentonite, clay, coal, sand, gravel, phosphate rock, or uranium, taken from below the surface or from the surface of the earth for the purpose of milling, concentration, refinement, smelting, manufacturing, or other subsequent use or processing or for stockpiling for future use, refinement, or smelting.

~~(8)~~(9) "Mining" commences when the operator first mines ores or minerals in commercial quantities for sale, beneficiation, refining, or other processing or disposition or first takes bulk samples for metallurgical testing in excess of aggregate of 10,000 short tons.

~~(9)~~(10) "Ore processing" means milling, heap leaching, flotation, vat leaching, or other standard hard-rock mineral concentration processes.

~~(10)~~(11) "Person" means any person, corporation, firm, association, partnership, or other legal entity engaged in exploration for or mining of minerals on or below the surface of the earth, reprocessing of tailings or waste materials, or operation of a hard-rock mill.

~~(11)~~(12) "Placer deposit" means naturally occurring, scattered or unconsolidated valuable minerals in gravel or alluvium lying above bedrock.

~~(12)~~(13) "Placer or dredge mining" means the mining of minerals from a placer deposit by a person or persons.

~~(13)~~(14) "Reclamation plan" means the operator's written proposal, as required and approved by the board, for reclamation of the land that will be disturbed. The proposal shall include, to the extent practical at the time of application for an operating permit:

(a) a statement of the proposed subsequent use of the land after reclamation;

(b) plans for surface gradient restoration to a surface suitable for the proposed subsequent use of the land after reclamation is completed and the proposed method of accomplishment;

(c) the manner and type of revegetation or other surface treatment of disturbed areas;

(d) procedures proposed to avoid foreseeable situations of public nuisance, endangerment of public safety, damage to human life or property, or unnecessary damage to flora and fauna in or adjacent to the area;

(e) the method of disposal of mining debris;

(f) the method of diverting surface waters around the disturbed areas where necessary to prevent pollution of those waters or unnecessary erosion;

(g) the method of reclamation of stream channels and stream banks to control erosion, siltation, and pollution;

(h) maps and other supporting documents as may be reasonably required by the department; and

(i) a time schedule for reclamation that meets the requirements of 82-4-336.

~~(14)~~(15) (a) "Small miner" means a person, firm, or corporation that engages in the business of mining or reprocessing of tailings or waste materials that does not remove from the earth during any calendar year material in excess of 36,500 tons in the aggregate, that does not hold an operating permit under 82-4-335 except for a permit issued under 82-4-335(2), and that conducts:

(i) an operation resulting in not more than 5 acres of the earth's surface being disturbed and unreclaimed; or

(ii) two operations which disturb and leave unreclaimed less than 5 acres per operation if the respective mining properties are:

(A) the only operations engaged in by the person, firm, or corporation;

(B) at least 1 mile apart at their closest point; and

(C) not operated simultaneously except during seasonal transitional periods not to exceed 30 days.

(b) For the purpose of this definition only, the department shall, in computing the area covered by the operation, exclude access or haulage roads that are required by a local, state, or federal agency having jurisdiction over that road to be constructed to certain specifications if that public agency notifies the department in writing that it desires to have the road remain in use and will maintain it after mining ceases.

~~(15)~~(16) "Surface mining" means all or any part of the process involved in mining of minerals by removing the overburden and mining directly from the mineral deposits exposed, including but not limited to open-pit mining of minerals naturally exposed at the surface of the earth, mining by the auger method, and all similar methods by which earth or minerals exposed at the surface are removed in the course of mining. Surface mining does not include the extraction of oil, gas, bentonite, clay, coal, sand, gravel, phosphate rock, or uranium or excavation or grading conducted for on-site farming, on-site road construction, or other on-site building construction.

~~(17)~~(18) "Unit of surface-mined area" means that area of land and surface water included within an operating permit actually disturbed by surface mining during each 12-month period of time, beginning at the date of the issuance of the permit, and it comprises and includes the area from which overburden or minerals have been removed, the area covered by mining debris, and all additional areas used in surface mining or underground mining operations which by virtue of mining use are susceptible to erosion in excess of the surrounding undisturbed portions of land.

Section 2. Section 82-4-361, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-361. Violation — penalties — waiver. (1) A person who violates any of the provisions of this part, the rules or orders adopted under this part (except 82-4-339), the provisions of any license or permit, or the conditions of a small-miner exemption shall pay a civil penalty of not less than $100 or more than $1,000 for the violations and an additional civil penalty of not less than $100 or more than $1,000 for each day during which a violation continues and may be enjoined from continuing such violations as provided in this section. These penalties are recoverable in any action brought in the name of the state of Montana by the attorney general in the district court of the first judicial district of this state in and for the county of Lewis and Clark or in the district court having jurisdiction of the defendant.

(2) The attorney general shall, upon the request of the department, sue for the recovery of the penalties provided for in this section and bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction against an operator or other person violating or threatening to violate an order adopted under this part.

(3) The civil penalties provided for in this section may be waived for a minor violation if it is determined that the violation does not represent potential harm to public health, public safety, or the environment and does not impair the administration of this part. The board shall adopt rules to implement and administer a procedure for waiver of a penalty under this subsection."

Section 3. Section 82-4-362, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-362. Suspension of permits — hearing. (1) If any of the requirements of this part, the rules adopted under this part, or ~~the~~ a license, permit, or reclamation plan ~~have~~ has not been complied with within the time limits set by the department or board or by this part, the department shall serve a notice of noncompliance on the licensee or permittee or, if necessary, the commissioner shall order the suspension of the permit. The commissioner may order immediate suspension of a permit whenever he makes a finding that a violation of this part, the rules adopted under this part, or a license or permit, including the reclamation plan, is creating an imminent danger to the health or safety of persons outside the permit area. The notice or order must be handed to the licensee or permittee in person or served by certified or registered mail addressed to the permanent address shown on the application for a license or permit. The notice of noncompliance must specify in what respects the operator has failed to comply with this part, the rules adopted under this part, or the reclamation plan.

(2) If the licensee or permittee has not complied with the requirements set forth in the notice of noncompliance or order of suspension within the time limits set therein, the permit may be revoked by order of the board and the performance bond forfeited to the department. The licensee or permittee is entitled to a hearing before the department on the revocation of a permit or license or the forfeiture of a performance bond if a hearing is requested within 30 days after service of notice as provided in subsection (1). The notice must state when those measures may be undertaken and must give notice of opportunity for a hearing. If a hearing is requested within the 30-day period, the permit or license may not be revoked and the bond may not be forfeited until a final decision is made by the department.

(3) If a permittee fails to pay the fee or file the report required under 82-4-339, the department shall serve notice of this failure, by certified mail or personal delivery, on the permittee. If the permittee does not comply within 30 days of receipt of the notice, the commissioner shall suspend the permit. The commissioner shall reinstate the permit upon compliance."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 284

[SB 304]

AN ACT EXTENDING THE VALIDATION OF CONVEYANCES RECORDED AFTER DEFECTIVE EXECUTION; AND AMENDING SECTION 70-21-309, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 70-21-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"70-21-309. Validation of conveyances recorded after defective execution — notice imparted. (1) Any instrument affecting real property, provided no action is pending as of October 1, ~~1983~~ 1991, to set such instrument aside, which was, previous to January 1, ~~1983~~ 1991, recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder shall be deemed to impart after that date notice of its contents to subsequent purchasers and encumbrancers, notwithstanding any technical defect, omission, or informality in the execution of the instrument or in the certificate of acknowledgment thereof or the absence of any such certificate; but nothing herein shall be deemed to affect the rights of purchasers or encumbrancers previous to January 1, ~~1983~~ 1991.

(2) Duly certified copies of the record of any such instrument may be read in evidence with like effect as copies of an instrument duly acknowledged and recorded."

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 285

[SB 315]

AN ACT ALLOWING THE EXECUTION OF A JUSTICE'S COURT JUDGMENT OUTSIDE THE COUNTY IN WHICH THE JUDGMENT WAS OBTAINED WITHOUT HAVING TO FILE AN ABSTRACT OF THE JUDGMENT IN DISTRICT COURT; DISAPPROVING RULES 21C AND 23(2), MONTANA JUSTICE AND CITY COURT RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE; AMENDING SECTIONS 25-31-913 AND 25-31-914, MCA; REPEALING SECTIONS 25-31-911 AND 25-31-912, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 25-31-913, MCA, is amended to read:

"25-31-913. Issuance of execution by clerk of ~~district~~ justice's court. From the time of docketing in the clerk's office, execution may be issued thereon by the clerk to the sheriff of any county in the state ~~in the same manner and with like effect as if issued on a judgment of the district court~~."

Section 2. Section 25-31-914, MCA, is amended to read:

"25-31-914. Lien on real property. The judgment rendered in a justice's court creates ~~no~~ a lien upon any lands of the defendant ~~unless such abstract is filed as aforesaid in~~ upon the filing of a transcript of the original docket, certified by the clerk of the justice's court, with the office of the clerk of the district court of the county in which the lands are situated. When so filed and from the time of filing, the judgment becomes a lien upon all real property of the judgment debtor, not exempt from execution, in such county, owned by him at the time or which he may afterwards and before the lien expires acquire. The lien continues for 6 years unless the judgment be previously satisfied."

Section 3. Disapproval of rules. Pursuant to Article VII, section 2, of the Montana constitution, Rules 21C and 23(2), Montana Justice and City Court Rules of Civil Procedure, are disapproved.

Section 4. Repealer. Sections 25-31-911 and 25-31-912, MCA, are repealed.

Section 5. Applicability. [This act] applies to proceedings begun after October 1, 1991.

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 286

[SB 335]

AN ACT REVISING EXCAVATION PROCEDURES NEAR UNDERGROUND FACILITIES; REQUIRING THAT ENTITIES AND PERSONS THAT HAVE THE RIGHT TO BURY UNDERGROUND FACILITIES BE MEMBERS OF ONE-CALL NOTIFICATION CENTERS; EXEMPTING PUBLIC AUTHORITIES FROM LIABILITY FOR IMPROPER OR UNAUTHORIZED INSTALLATIONS MADE BY OTHERS; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 69-4-501, 69-4-502, 69-4-503, AND 69-4-504, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 69-4-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-4-501. Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to this part:

(1) "Business day" means any day other than Saturday, Sunday, or a legal local, state, or federal holiday.

(2) "Emergency" means:

(a) any condition that constitutes a clear and present danger to life or property; or

(b) a customer outage.

~~(1)~~(3) "Excavation" ~~shall mean and include any ditch, trench, cut, hole, or change in grade~~ means any operation in which earth, rock, or other material in the ground is moved, removed, or otherwise displaced by means or use of any tools, equipment, or explosives. The term includes but is not limited to grading, trenching, digging, ditching, drilling, augering, tunneling, scraping, and cable or pipe plowing and driving. Excavation does not include surface road grading maintenance or road or ditch maintenance that does not change the original road or ditch grade or flow line.

(4) "Identified but unlocatable underground facility" means an underground facility that has been identified but cannot be located with reasonable accuracy.

(5) "Locatable underground facility" means an underground facility that can be field-marked with reasonable accuracy.

(6) "Mark" means the use of stakes, paint, or other clearly identifiable material to show the field location, or absence, of underground facilities, in accordance with the current color code standard of the American public works association. Marking must include identification letters indicating the specific type of underground facility, and the width of the facility if it is greater than 6 inches.

(7) "One-call notification center" means a service through which a person may request a marking of underground facilities.

~~(2)~~(8) "Person" ~~shall mean and include~~ means an individual, partnership, firm, joint venture, ~~or~~ corporation, association, municipality, governmental unit, department, or agency, and includes any trustee, receiver, assignee, or a personal representative thereof ~~the employer of an individual~~.

(9) "Reasonably accurate" means location within 18 inches of the outside lateral dimensions of both sides of an underground facility.

~~(3)~~(10) "Underground facility" ~~shall mean~~ means any ~~item of personal property~~ facility ~~which shall be~~ buried or placed below ground for use in connection with the storage or conveyance of water, sewage, electronic, telephonic or telegraphic communications, cablevision, fiber optics, electric energy, oil, gas, or other substances ~~and shall include~~. The term includes but is not ~~be~~ limited to pipes, sewers, conduits, cables, valves, lines, wires, manholes, and attachments to the ~~aforesaid~~ listed items."

Section 2. Section 69-4-502, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-4-502. Information to be sought before excavation — *notification — exception. (1) No person shall make or begin any excavation in any public street, alley, right-of-way dedicated to the public use, or utility easement without first obtaining information concerning the possible location of any underground facility from each and every public utility, municipal corporation, or other person having the right to bury such underground facilities within the public street, alley, right-of-way, or utility easement.

(2) Every public utility, municipal corporation, or other person having the right to bury underground facilities shall file with the county clerk and recorder in each county where the underground facilities are located, the name, address, and telephone number of the person or persons from whom the necessary information may be obtained unless a one-call notification center is available.

(3) (a) A public utility, municipal corporation, underground facility owner, or person having the right to bury underground facilities must be a member of a one-call notification center covering the service area in which the entity or person has underground facilities.

(b) Subsection (3)(a) does not apply to an owner or occupant of real property where underground facilities are buried if the facilities are used solely to furnish services or commodities to that property and no part of the facilities are located in a public street, alley, or right-of-way dedicated to the public use."

Section 3. Section 69-4-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-4-503. ~~Procedure to secure information~~ Notification — marking. (1) ~~Any person seeking information concerning the location of any underground facility must do so by request in person, in writing, or by telephone~~ At least 2 but not more than 10 business days before beginning any excavation, the excavator shall notify, through a one-call notification center, all owners of underground facilities in the area of the proposed excavation of the scheduled commencement of the excavation. If a one-call notification center service is not available, notice must be provided individually to the owners of underground facilities within the area of the proposed excavation.

(2) ~~The person from whom such information is sought must record the nature and the date of the request and advise the person seeking the information of the location of any underground facility in writing, if so requested, or by marking the location with stakes or paint or by other clearly identifiable markings. The person providing the information must respond no later than the end of the normal business hours of the second full business day following the date of receipt of the request, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays excluded~~ Upon receipt of the notice provided for in this section, the owner of the underground facility shall provide the excavator with reasonably accurate information as to the owner's locatable underground facilities by surface marking the location of the facilities. If there are identified but unlocatable underground facilities, the owner of the facilities shall provide the excavator with the best available information as to their locations. Excavators may not excavate until all known facilities have been marked. Once the facilities are marked by the facility owner, the excavator is responsible for maintaining the markings.

(3) Upon receipt of notice from the excavator, the facility owner shall respond within 2 business days by marking the facility. An excavator may not begin excavating before the marking is complete or before he is notified that marking is unnecessary.

(4) A facility owner may request the excavator to mark the area to be excavated. If an excavator discovers an unmarked underground facility, the excavator shall stop excavating in the vicinity of the facility and notify the facility owner or the one-call notification center."

Section 4. Section 69-4-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-4-504. Information to be part of architects' and engineers' plans. (1) Architects and engineers designing projects requiring excavation in or adjacent to any public street, alley, or right-of-way dedicated to public use or utility easement shall obtain information from the owners of underground facilities and then make ~~said~~ the information a part of the plan by which the contractors operate. The owners of the underground facilities shall provide substantially the same information as required by 69-4-503.

(2) Nothing in this section shall excuse any person from the obligation imposed by 69-4-502(1)."

Section 5. Public authority — liability. A public authority, as defined in 18-1-201, that has jurisdiction over a right-of-way is not liable for improper or unauthorized installations made by persons or entities other than the public authority or those acting at its discretion.

Section 6. Codification instruction. [Section 5] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 69, chapter 4, part 5, and the provisions of Title 69, chapter 4, part 5, apply to [section 5].

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 287

[SB 356]

AN ACT TO REGULATE THE PLACEMENT OF MAILBOXES AND NEWSPAPER DELIVERY BOXES ON PUBLIC HIGHWAY RIGHTS-OF-WAY; AND AMENDING SECTION 60-6-101, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 60-6-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"60-6-101. Highway encroachments — immediate removal. (1) If any highway under the jurisdiction of the highway commission is encroached upon by a fence, building, structure, sign, marker, mailbox, newspaper delivery box, or other obstruction, the department of highways may give notice in writing to the person erecting or maintaining such encroachment requiring the same to be removed.

(2) The department shall adopt rules pertaining to the accommodation of mailboxes and newspaper delivery boxes on public highway rights-of-way. The rules must ensure that the location and construction of mailboxes and newspaper delivery boxes conform to the rules and regulations of the U.S. postal service.

~~(2)~~(3) If the encroachment obstructs and prevents the use of the highway for vehicles, the department may immediately remove the same without the notice required by 60-6-102."

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 288

[SB 364]

AN ACT TO ALLOW VIDEOTAPED TESTIMONY OF A VICTIM TO BE USED FOR THE PROSECUTION OF ANY VIOLENT CRIME IF THE VICTIM IS UNDER 16 YEARS OF AGE; AND AMENDING SECTION 46-15-401, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 46-15-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-15-401. When videotaped testimony admissible. For any prosecution commenced under 45-5-502(3), 45-5-503, 45-5-505, or 45-5-507 and for the prosecution of any offense arising from the same transaction, as defined in 46-11-501, or for prosecution of any offense against the person provided for in Title 45, chapter 5, involving a victim who is under 16 years of age, the testimony of the victim, at the request of such victim and with the concurrence of the prosecuting attorney, may be recorded by means of videotape for presentation at trial. The testimony so recorded may be presented at trial and shall be received into evidence. The victim need not be physically present in the courtroom when the videotape is admitted into evidence."

Section 2. Coordination instruction. If Senate Bill No. 51 is passed and approved and if it includes a new section entitled "Videotaped testimony", which appears at page 177, line 10, of the second reading yellow copy, then that section is amended by inserting in the first sentence, after "45-5-507", the words "or for prosecution of any offense against the person provided for in Title 45, chapter 5, involving a victim who is under 16 years of age" and [section 1 of this act], amending 46-15-401, is void.

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 289

[SB 423]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF STATE TO SELL COPIES OF THE CORPORATE INFORMATION LIST; AUTHORIZING THE SECRETARY OF STATE TO ADOPT RULES SPECIFYING THE FEE TO BE CHARGED FOR THE LIST; EXEMPTING THE LIST FROM THE MAILING LIST PROHIBITION OF STATE LAW; AND AMENDING SECTION 2-6-109, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 1] authorizes the secretary of state to adopt rules setting fees to be charged for the sale of the corporate information list. It is the intent of the legislature that the fees should be commensurate with the costs of producing the list. Existing fees may be modified to the extent necessary to conform to this statement of intent and [section 1].

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Sale of corporate information list — rulemaking authority. The secretary of state may offer for sale to private or public entities the corporate information list developed by the secretary of state. The information on the corporate information list must be limited to the information available on the corporate information computer system maintained by the secretary of state. If the list is offered for sale, the secretary of state shall adopt rules under the Montana Administrative Procedure Act specifying the fee to be charged for the list.

Section 2. Section 2-6-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-6-109. Prohibition on distribution or sale of mailing lists — exceptions — penalty. (1) Except as provided in subsections (3)~~, (4), (5), and (6),~~ through (7), in order to protect the privacy of those who deal with state and local government:

(a) no agency may distribute or sell for use as a mailing list any list of persons without first securing the permission of those on the list; and

(b) no list of persons prepared by the agency may be used as a mailing list except by the agency or another agency without first securing the permission of those on the list.

(2) As used in this section, "agency" means any board, bureau, commission, department, division, authority, or officer of the state or a local government.

(3) Except as provided in 30-9-403, this section does not prevent an individual from compiling a mailing list by examination of original documents or applications which are otherwise open to public inspection.

(4) This section does not apply to the lists of registered electors and the new voter lists provided for in 13-2-115 and 13-38-103, to lists of the names of employees governed by Title 39, chapter 31, or to lists of persons holding driver's licenses provided for under 61-5-126.

(5) This section shall not prevent an agency from providing a list to persons providing prelicensing or continuing educational courses subject to Title 20, chapter 30, or specifically exempted therefrom as provided in 20-30-102.

(6) This section does not apply to the right of access either by Montana law enforcement agencies or, by purchase or otherwise, of public records dealing with motor vehicle registration.

(7) This section does not apply to a corporate information list developed by the secretary of state containing the name, address, registered agent, officers, and directors of business, nonprofit, religious, professional, and close corporations authorized to do business in this state.

~~(7)~~(8) A person violating the provisions of subsection (1)(b) is guilty of a misdemeanor."

Approved March 29, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 290

[HB 111]

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT AUTHORIZATION FOR PRESCRIPTIVE AUTHORITY OF NURSE SPECIALISTS LIES WITH THE BOARD OF NURSING; AMENDING SECTION 37-8-202, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-8-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-8-202. Organization — meetings — powers and duties. (1) The board shall meet annually and shall elect from among the nine members a president and a secretary. The board shall hold other meetings when necessary to transact its business. A majority of the board constitutes a quorum at any meeting. The department shall keep complete minutes and records of the meetings and rules and orders promulgated by the board.

(2) The board may make rules necessary to administer this chapter. The board shall prescribe standards for schools preparing persons for registration and licensure under this chapter. It shall provide for surveys of schools at times it considers necessary. It shall approve programs that meet the requirements of this chapter and of the board. The department shall, subject to 37-1-101, examine and issue to and renew licenses of qualified applicants. The board shall conduct hearings on charges ~~which~~ that may call for discipline of a licensee, revocation of a license, or removal of schools of nursing from the approved list. It shall cause the prosecution of persons violating this chapter and may incur necessary expenses for prosecutions.

(3) The board may adopt and the department shall publish forms for use by applicants and others, including license, certificate, and identity forms and other appropriate forms and publications convenient for the proper administration of this chapter. The board may fix reasonable fees for incidental services, within the subject matter delegated by this chapter.

(4) The board may participate in and pay fees to a national organization of state boards of nursing to ~~assure~~ ensure interstate endorsement of licenses.

(5) (a) The board may define the educational requirements and other qualifications applicable to specialty areas of nursing. Specialty areas of nursing are those that require additional professional education beyond the basic nursing degree required of a registered nurse. Additional education must be obtained in courses offered in a university setting or its equivalent. The applicant must be certified by a specialty area certifying body. Specialty areas of nursing include nurse practitioners, nurse-midwives, and nurse-anesthetists.

(b) The board of nursing and the board of medical examiners, acting jointly, shall adopt rules regarding authorization for prescriptive authority of nurse specialists. If considered appropriate for a nurse specialist who applies to the ~~boards~~ board for authorization, prescriptive authority must be granted.

(6) The board shall establish a program to assist licensed nurses who are found to be physically or mentally impaired by habitual intemperance or the excessive use of narcotic drugs, alcohol, or any other drug or substance. The program must provide assistance to licensees in seeking treatment for substance abuse and monitor their efforts toward rehabilitation. For purposes of funding this program, the board shall adjust the license fee provided for in 37-8-431 commensurate with the cost of the program."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 291

[HB 146]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF INVESTMENTS TO PAY ADMINISTRATIVE COSTS FROM NONEXPENDABLE TRUST FUNDS; AMENDING SECTION 17-6-201, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 17-6-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-6-201. Unified investment program — general provisions. (1) The unified investment program directed by Article VIII, section 13, of the 1972 Montana constitution to be provided for public funds shall be administered by the board of investments in accordance with the prudent expert principle, which requires any investment manager to:

(a) discharge his duties with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence, under the circumstances then prevailing, that a prudent person acting in a like capacity with the same resources and familiar with like matters exercises in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character with like aims;

(b) diversify the holdings of each fund within the unified investment program to minimize the risk of loss and to maximize the rate of return, unless under the circumstances it is clearly prudent not to do so; and

(c) discharge his duties solely in the interest of and for the benefit of the funds forming the unified investment program.

(2) Retirement funds may be invested in common stocks of any corporation provided that no investment may be made at any time which would cause the book value of such investments in any retirement fund to exceed 50% of the book value of such fund or would cause the stock of one corporation to exceed 2% of the book value of such retirement fund.

(3) (a) Nothing contained in this section prevents the investment in any business activity in Montana, including activities that continue existing jobs or create new jobs in Montana.

(b) The board is urged under the prudent expert principle to invest up to 3% of retirement funds in venture capital companies. Whenever possible, preference should be given to investments in those venture capital companies which demonstrate an interest in making investments in Montana.

(c) In discharging its duties, the board shall consider the preservation of purchasing power of capital during periods of high monetary inflation.

(4) The board has the sole authority to invest state funds. No other agency may invest such state funds. The board shall direct the investment of state funds in accordance with the laws and constitution of this state. The board has the power to veto any investments made under its general supervision.

(5) The board shall:

(a) assist agencies with public money to determine if, when, and how much surplus cash is available for investment;

(b) determine the amount of surplus treasury cash to be invested;

(c) determine the type of investment to be made;

(d) prepare the claim to pay for the investment; and

(e) keep an account of the total of each investment fund and of all the investments belonging to such fund and a record of the participation of each treasury fund account therein.

(6) The board may:

(a) execute deeds of conveyance transferring all real property obtained through foreclosure of any investments purchased under the provisions of 17-6-211 when full payment has been received therefor;

(b) direct the withdrawal of any funds deposited by or for the state treasurer pursuant to 17-6-101 and 17-6-105;

(c) direct the sale of any securities in the program at their full and true value when found necessary to raise money for payments due from the treasury funds for which the securities have been purchased.

(7) The cost of administering and accounting for each investment fund shall be deducted from the income therefrom~~, except that such costs of the nonexpendable trust funds shall be paid from income otherwise receivable~~

~~from the pooled investment fund, and the amounts required for this purpose shall be appropriated by the legislature from the respective investment funds~~.

(8) (a) The director of the department of administration annually may prepare a statewide cost allocation plan to distribute program costs incurred by state agencies that are funded through the general fund to the programs served by the agencies. Except as provided in subsection (8)(b), the cost to an agency of providing services to a program funded through an account in the state special revenue fund as defined in 17-2-102 must be deducted by the board from the account's investment earnings according to the statewide cost allocation plan. Amounts deducted by the board must be credited to the general fund.

(b) No deduction for program costs as provided in subsection (8)(a) may be made if an account's cash on hand is pooled for investment in the treasury cash account defined in 17-6-202."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 292

[HB 161]

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES TO ISSUE CLEAN-UP ORDERS TO APPROPRIATE UNITS OF STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT IN INSTANCES IN WHICH THE STATE OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT HAS APPROVED AN ACTIVITY THAT THE DEPARTMENT HAS REASON TO BELIEVE IS LIKELY TO CAUSE POLLUTION OF STATE WATERS; AND AMENDING SECTION 75-5-601, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-5-601, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-5-601. Clean-up orders. (1) The department shall issue orders to ~~any~~ a person to clean up any material ~~which~~ that he or his employee, agent, or subcontractor has accidentally or purposely dumped, spilled, or otherwise deposited in or near state waters and ~~which~~ that may pollute them.

(2) If a unit of state or local government, including but not limited to a local board of health, county commission, governing body of a municipality, or state agency, has granted a permit or license to a person to discharge waste or has otherwise authorized an activity that involves the placement of waste and the department has reason to believe that the waste is causing or is likely to cause pollution of state waters, the department may issue an order to the unit of state or local government to take measures to ensure that the wastes causing or likely to cause the pollution are cleaned up.

(3) The department may include in an order issued to a county commission pursuant to subsection (2) a request that the commission create a sewer district in the geographic area affected by the order for the purpose of establishing a public sewer system in accordance with the petition and election procedures provided by 7-13-2204 and 7-13-2208 through 7-13-2214."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 293

[HB 191]

AN ACT ADOPTING THE UNIFORM CONFLICT OF LAWS — LIMITATIONS ACT; PROVIDING FOR A METHOD OF DETERMINING THE APPLICABLE STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS WHEN OTHER STATE LAWS ARE INVOLVED IN A CIVIL PROCEEDING IN MONTANA; AND AMENDING SECTION 27-2-104, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1 through 7] may be cited as the "Uniform Conflict of Laws — Limitations Act".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 7], unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Claim" means a right of action that may be asserted in a civil action or proceeding and includes a right of action created by statute.

(2) "State" means a state, commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, a foreign country, or a political subdivision of any of them.

Section 3. Conflict of laws — limitation periods. (1) Except as provided by [section 5], if a claim is substantively based:

(a) upon the law of one other state, the limitation period of that state applies; or

(b) upon the law of more than one state, the limitation period of one of those states chosen by [sections 1 through 7] applies.

(2) The limitation period of Montana applies to all other claims.

Section 4. Rules applicable to computation of limitation period. If the statute of limitations of another state applies to the assertion of a claim in Montana, the other state's relevant statutes and other rules of law governing tolling and accrual apply in computing the limitation period but its statutes and other rules of law governing conflict of laws do not apply.

Section 5. Unfairness. If a court determines that the limitation period of another state applicable under [sections 3 and 4] is substantially different from the limitation period of Montana and has not afforded a fair opportunity to sue upon, or imposes an unfair burden in defending against, the claim, the limitation period of Montana applies.

Section 6. Existing and future claims. [Sections 1 through 7] apply to claims:

(1) accruing after October 1, 1991; or

(2) asserted in a civil action or proceeding more than 1 year after October 1, 1991, but do not revive a claim barred before October 1, 1991.

Section 7. Uniformity of application and construction. [Sections 1 through 7] must be applied and construed to effectuate the general purpose of making uniform the law with respect to the subject of [sections 1 through 7] among states enacting it.

Section 8. Section 27-2-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"27-2-104. Application of this state's statutes of limitations — actions against nonresidents. ~~Where~~ When a cause of action ~~which~~ that does not involve the title to or possession of real property within the state accrues against a person who is not then a resident of the state, an action ~~cannot be brought thereon in a court of the state against him or his personal representative after the expiration of the time limited by the laws of his residence for bringing a like action except by a resident of the state and in one of the following cases:~~

~~(1) where the cause of action originally accrued in favor of a resident of the state;~~

~~(2) where, before the expiration of the time so limited, the person in whose favor it originally accrued was or became a resident of the state or the cause of action was assigned to and thereafter continuously owned by a resident of the state~~ is governed by [sections 1 through 7]."

Section 9. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 10. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 7] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 27, chapter 2, and the provisions of Title 27, chapter 2, apply to [sections 1 through 7].

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 294

[HB 203]

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE DEFINITION OF "REGULATED LENDERS" TO INCLUDE A MUTUAL OR STOCK INSURANCE COMPANY; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 31-1-111 AND 70-32-221, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 31-1-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"31-1-111. Definition of regulated lender. The term "regulated lenders" as used in 31-1-112 means:

(1) a bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association, trust company, credit union, credit association, consumer loan licensee, development corporation, ~~or~~ bank holding company, or a mutual or stock insurance company organized pursuant to state or federal statutory authority and subject to supervision, control, or regulation by:

(a) an agency of the state of Montana; or

(b) an agency of the federal government;

(2) a subsidiary of an entity described in subsection (1);

(3) a Montana state agency or a federal agency that is authorized to lend money;

(4) a corporation or other entity established by congress or the state of Montana that is owned, in whole or in part, by the United States or the state of Montana and that is authorized to lend money."

Section 2. Section 70-32-221, MCA, is amended to read:

"70-32-221. Homestead subject to execution for certain judgments — separate acknowledgment required. (1) If a borrower borrowing money from a regulated lender, as defined in 31-1-111, ~~a mutual or stock insurance company regulated by any state,~~ or a farm credit system lender encumbers real property that otherwise would qualify as a homestead under Title 70, chapter 32, the ~~financial institution~~ lender shall require the borrower to sign a written statement acknowledging that the real property is not exempt from execution as a homestead because under 70-32-202 it is subject to execution or forced sale to satisfy a judgment obtained on a debt secured by a mortgage or other encumbrance on the premises. The written acknowledgment may be in a document separate from, or may be included in, the loan agreement or loan documents and must be printed in capital letters of not less than 10-point boldfaced type and signed separately by the borrower.

(2) The ~~financial institution~~ lender shall retain a copy of the acknowledgment provided for in subsection (1) until the mortgage or other encumbrance is paid or otherwise satisfied or discharged unless the acknowledgment is of record in the office of the clerk and recorder."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 295

[HB 290]

AN ACT ALLOWING DISTRICT COURT CLERKS TO MAINTAIN RECORDS ON A COMPUTER SYSTEM.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Maintenance of records. The clerk of the district court may maintain the records required by statute on a computer system.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 3, chapter 5, part 5, and the provisions of Title 3, chapter 5, part 5, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 296

[HB 311]

AN ACT ALLOWING FINES, PENALTIES, AND FORFEITURES COLLECTED BY JUSTICES' COURTS FOR VIOLATIONS OF DRUG LAWS TO BE PAID INTO THE DRUG FORFEITURE ACCOUNT; CLARIFYING DISTRIBUTION OF MONEY COLLECTED BY DISTRICT COURTS AND JUSTICES' COURTS; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 3-10-601 AND 46-18-235, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 3-10-601, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-10-601. Collection and disposition of fines, penalties, forfeitures, and fees. (1) Each justice of the peace shall collect the fees prescribed by law for justices' courts and shall pay them into the county treasury of the county wherein he holds office, on or before the 10th day of each month, to be credited to the general fund of the county.

(2) All fines, penalties, and forfeitures that this code requires to be imposed, collected, or paid in a justice's court must, for each calendar month, be paid by the justice's court on or before the 5th day of the following month to the treasurer of the county in which the justice's court is situated, except that they may be distributed as provided in 44-12-206 if imposed, collected, or paid for a violation of Title 45, chapter 9 or 10.

(3) The county treasurer shall, in the manner provided in 15-1-504, distribute money received under subsection (2) as follows:

(a) 50% to the state treasurer; and

(b) 50% to the county general fund.

(4) The state treasurer shall distribute money received under subsection (3) as follows:

(a) 23% to the state general fund;

(b) 10% to the fish and game account in the state special revenue fund;

(c) 12.5% to the state highway account in the state special revenue fund;

(d) 36% to the traffic education account in the state special revenue fund;

(e) 0.6% to the department of livestock account in the state special revenue fund;

(f) 16.9% to the crime victims compensation account in the state special revenue fund; and

(g) 1% to the department of family services special revenue account for the battered spouses and domestic violence grant program."

Section 2. Section 46-18-235, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-18-235. Disposition of money collected as fines and costs. The money collected by a court~~, except money collected by a justice's court,~~ as a result of the imposition of fines or assessment of costs under the provisions of 46-18-231 and 46-18-232 shall be paid*:*

(1) by a district court to the county general fund of the county in which the court is held, except that:

~~(1)~~(a) if the costs assessed include any district court expense listed in 3-5-901, the money collected from assessment of these costs must be paid to the department of commerce for deposit into the state general fund to the extent the expenses were paid by the state;

~~(2)~~(b) if the fine was imposed for a violation of Title 45, chapter 9 or 10, the court may order the money paid into the drug forfeiture account maintained under 44-12-206 for the law enforcement agency which made the arrest from which the conviction and fine arose; and

~~(3)~~(c) if the fine was imposed for a violation of 45-5-206, 50% of the amount collected~~, except for fines collected by a justice court and distributed pursuant to 3-10-601,~~ must be deposited in the state special revenue fund for use of the department of family services in the battered spouses and domestic violence grant program created by 40-2-401~~.~~; and

(2) by a justice's court pursuant to 3-10-601."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 297

[HB 588]

AN ACT TO PERMIT A RESIDENT WHO HAS A VALID DRIVER'S LICENSE ISSUED BY ANOTHER STATE TO SURRENDER THE LICENSE IN EXCHANGE FOR A MONTANA DRIVER'S LICENSE OF THE SAME CLASS, TYPE, AND ENDORSEMENT UPON PAYMENT OF THE REQUIRED FEES AND TO EXEMPT A RESIDENT WHO OBTAINS A MONTANA DRIVER'S LICENSE IN THIS MANNER FROM THE ORDINARILY REQUIRED WRITTEN OR ACTUAL DRIVING EXAMINATIONS; AMENDING SECTION 61-5-110, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-5-110, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-110. Examination of applicants. (1) The department shall examine every applicant for a driver's license, commercial vehicle operator's endorsement, or motorcycle endorsement, except as otherwise provided in this section. Such examination shall include a test of the applicant's eyesight, his ability to read and understand highway signs regulating, warning, and directing traffic, his knowledge of the traffic laws of this state, and shall include an actual demonstration of ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in the operation of a motor vehicle, quadricycle, or motorcycle. The examination for the commercial vehicle operator's endorsement may include additional items.

(2) Within 90 days of receipt of an application for a commercial vehicle operator's endorsement, the department shall give an examination for endorsement to the applicant in the county where the applicant resides.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by law, a resident who has a valid driver's license issued by another state may surrender that license for a Montana license of the same class, type, and endorsement upon payment of the required fees. A resident who obtains a Montana driver's license in this manner is exempt from the written examination and actual demonstration of the operation of a motor vehicle provided for in subsection (1) but is not exempt from the eyesight test or, in the case of commercial drivers, any examination required by federal regulations."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 299

[HB 771]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE AGRICULTURAL WAREHOUSE, COMMODITY DEALER, AND GRAIN STANDARDS ACT; REVISING USE OF THE $30,000 EXEMPTION; PROVIDING A PENALTY FOR FRAUD; ELIMINATING USE OF A COMBINATION SCALE WEIGHT TICKET AND WAREHOUSE RECEIPT; ESTABLISHING A TIME LIMIT FOR ISSUING A WAREHOUSE RECEIPT; REQUIRING A PRODUCER TO REQUEST A WAREHOUSE RECEIPT; ALLOWING THE POOLING OF AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES IN STORAGE TO COVER SHORTAGES; ALLOWING THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TO SEEK REMEDY IN THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT; CHANGING THE AGGREGATE LIABILITY OF SURETY BONDS FROM CUMULATIVE TO NONCUMULATIVE; ELIMINATING THE ABILITY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE TO SET BOND AMOUNTS BY RULE; PROVIDING REMEDIES FOR COMMODITY DEALER DEFAULTS; REQUIRING COMMODITY DEALERS TO KEEP RECORDS; PROVIDING FOR CLAIMS ON THE BOND BY AN INJURED PERSON; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 80-4-402, 80-4-429, 80-4-525, 80-4-527, 80-4-538, AND 80-4-604, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 80-4-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-402. Definitions. As used in parts 4 through 7 of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Agent" means any person who contracts for or solicits any agricultural commodities from a producer or warehouseman or negotiates the consignment or purchase of any agricultural commodity on behalf of any commodity dealer.

(2) "Agricultural commodity" means any grain, beans, safflower, sunflower seeds, tame mustards, rapeseed, flaxseed, leguminous seed, or other small seed, and other agricultural commodities designated by rule of the department.

(3) "Bond" means the bond required to be filed by part 5 or 6 of this chapter and includes any equivalent established by department rule, as provided in 80-4-504 and 80-4-604.

(4) "Commodity dealer" means any person who engages in a business involving or, as part of his business, participates in buying, exchanging, negotiating, or soliciting the sale, resale, exchange, or transfer of any agricultural commodity in the state of Montana. The term does not include:

(a) a person engaged solely in storing, shipping, or handling agricultural commodities for hire;

(b) a person who buys agricultural commodities from a licensed commodity dealer*;* ~~or~~

(c) a person who does not purchase more than $30,000 worth of agricultural commodities from producers during a licensing year; however, once a person exceeds the $30,000 exemption, he shall obtain a license and is not eligible for the exemption for the succeeding year;

~~(c)~~(d) a person who is the producer of agricultural commodities that he actually plants, nurtures, and harvests; or

~~(d)~~(e) a person whose trading in agricultural commodities is limited to trading in commodity futures on a recognized futures exchange.

(5) "Credit sale contract" means a contract for the sale of an agricultural commodity when the sale price is to be paid at a date after delivery of the agricultural commodity to the buyer and includes but is not limited to those contracts commonly referred to as deferred payment contracts, deferred pricing contracts, or price-later contracts.

(6) "Department" means the department of agriculture provided for in 2-15-3001.

(7) "Depositor" means any person who deposits an agricultural commodity in a warehouse for storage, processing, handling, or shipment or who is the owner or legal holder of an outstanding warehouse receipt or who is lawfully entitled to possession of the agricultural commodity.

(8) "Director" means the director of the department of agriculture.

(9) "Grain" means all grains for which standards have been established under the United States Grain Standards Act (7 U.S.C. 71 through 87) and all other agricultural commodities, such as mustard, oil seed crops, or other crops which may be designated by rule of the department.

(10) "Grain Standards Act" means the United States Grain Standards Act (7 U.S.C. 71 through 87) ~~as that act reads on July 1, 1983~~.

(11) "Inspector" means any person so designated by the director to assist in the administration of parts 4 through 6 of this chapter. The term includes warehouse auditors or examiners.

(12) "Official grain inspectors" means any official personnel who perform or supervise the performance of official inspection services and certify the results thereof, including the grade of the grain.

(13) "Official grain samplers" or "samplers" means any official personnel who perform or supervise the performance of official sampling services and certify the results thereof.

(14) "Official grain standards" means the standards of quality and condition of grain that establish the grades defined by the Grain Standards Act.

(15) "Official grain weighers" means any official personnel who perform or supervise the performance of class X or class Y weighing services and certify the results thereof, including the weight of the grain.

(16) "Person" means any individual, firm, association, corporation, partnership, or any other form of business enterprise.

(17) "Producer" means the owner, tenant, or operator of land in this state who has an interest in and receives all or part of the proceeds from the sale of agricultural commodities produced on that land.

(18) "Public warehouse" or "warehouse" means any elevator, mill, warehouse, subterminal grain warehouse, public warehouse, or other structure or facility in which, for compensation, agricultural commodities are received for storage, handling, processing, or shipment. The term includes facilities which commingle commodities belonging to different lots of agricultural commodities.

(19) "Receipt" means a warehouse receipt.

(20) "Scale weight ticket" means a load slip or other evidence of delivery, other than a receipt, given to a depositor by a warehouseman licensed under the provisions of part 5 of this chapter upon initial delivery of the agricultural commodity to the warehouse.

(21) "Station" means a warehouse located more than 3 miles from the central office of the warehouse.

(22) "Subterminal warehouse" means any warehouse at which an intermediate function is performed in which agricultural commodities are customarily received from dealers or producers and where the commodities are accumulated prior to shipment.

(23) "Terminal grain warehouse" means any warehouse authorized by a grain exchange to receive or disburse grain on consignment as presented by the rules and regulations of a grain exchange.

(24) "Warehouseman" means a person operating or controlling a public warehouse.

(25) "Warehouse receipt" means every receipt, whether negotiable or nonnegotiable, issued under part 5 of this chapter by a warehouseman, except scale weight tickets."

Section 2. Section 80-4-429, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-429. Penalty. (1) Except as otherwise provided, any person who violates any provision of parts 4 through 6 of this chapter or rules promulgated thereunder or who impedes, obstructs, hinders, or otherwise prevents or attempts to prevent the director or his duly authorized representative in the performance of his duty under parts 4 through 6 of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not to exceed 6 months or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or both.

(2) A person who refuses to permit inspection of licensed premises, books, accounts, records, or other documents required by parts 4 through 7 of this chapter or who uses a scale weight ticket or credit sale contract that fails to satisfy the requirements of parts 4 through 7 of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(3) A person acting as a commodity dealer or warehouseman who knowingly sells warehouse-receipted agricultural commodities that he is not authorized to sell or who fails to pay for purchased agricultural commodities is guilty of a felony."

Section 3. Section 80-4-525, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-525. Scale weight tickets — form — issuance. (1) Scale weight tickets must be bound in books of convenient size and must be numbered consecutively. The original scale weight ticket must be delivered to the person from whom the agricultural commodities are received. One carbon copy of each scale weight ticket must remain as a permanent record.

(2) A scale weight ticket must be issued for each load of agricultural commodity received by the warehouseman.

(3) A scale weight ticket may not be issued or held in lieu of a warehouse receipt. The retention of scale weight tickets in lieu of warehouse receipts by the owner of the grain is at the owner's risk.

(4) There must be plainly printed across the face of such scale weight ticket issued by the warehouseman, in bold type, the words "THIS IS NOT A WAREHOUSE RECEIPT. IT MUST BE EXCHANGED FOR A WAREHOUSE RECEIPT IF GRAIN IS HELD IN STORAGE".

~~(5) There must be plainly printed across the face of a combination scale weight ticket and warehouse receipt issued by the warehouseman, in bold type, the words "COMBINATION SCALE WEIGHT TICKET AND WAREHOUSE RECEIPT".~~

~~(6)~~(5) All scale weight tickets must be signed by the warehouseman or his agent.

~~(7) When scale weight tickets are exchanged for warehouse receipts, the scale weight tickets must be surrendered to the warehouseman.~~

~~(8)~~(6) All scale weight tickets must be converted into cash or warehouse receipts on demand."

Section 4. Section 80-4-527, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-527. Warehouse receipt — issuance. (1) A warehouse receipt is a receipt issued by a licensed warehouseman on a form containing all the information required by 80-4-526.

(2) No warehouse receipt may be issued except for an agricultural commodity actually delivered to a warehouse for storage.

(3) All warehousemen are required to issue a warehouse receipt for each lot of agricultural commodity received for storage or make payment for the agricultural commodity.

(4) A warehouse receipt that does not in fact represent an agricultural commodity actually delivered into a warehouse for storage and the origin of which cannot be traced to the actual delivery of the grain represented:

(a) is not legal and is of no value;

(b) has no claim on the agricultural commodity stored in a warehouse; and

(c) has no claim on the warehouseman's bond.

(5) All agricultural commodities in a warehouse belong to the holder of outstanding warehouse receipts except those commodities that are in excess of the total of all outstanding storage obligations. An outstanding warehouse receipt is a warehouse receipt that has not been returned and paid in full on the basis of grade, quality, and quantity by the warehouseman issuing it.

(6) If for convenience the holder of two or more warehouse receipts covering like agricultural commodities wishes to combine them, the new receipt so issued must state the fact that it was issued in lieu of existing receipts. An assembly or recapitulation statement must be made whenever receipts are so combined, and the number or other identification of the statement must be referenced on the new combined receipt. The assembly sheet must be kept on file in the warehouse office. Each canceled receipt must have stamped across its face "Canceled by No. __" (showing the number of the new combination receipt).

(7) A warehouseman who is a grower and conducts such an enterprise may receive his own grain and issue warehouse receipts for agricultural commodities, in the same manner and without discrimination, as though the warehouse and growing enterprises were of separate ownership. However, the warehouseman shall report to the department all warehouse receipts issued to himself as a grower.

(8) When warehouse receipts are prepared on duplicate or triplicate forms, the original copy is the warehouse receipt and must be given upon request to the person storing the agricultural commodity covered by such receipt. The other copies shall have plainly printed across the face the words "duplicate", "triplicate", or "nonnegotiable".

(9) Each warehouse receipt issued must show the amount of cash or value of any merchandise the warehouseman has advanced on the agricultural commodity represented by the receipt, but such notation may not be construed as fixing the date of sale of such grain.

(10) All warehouse receipts must be numbered consecutively as issued by each warehouseman.

(11) Warehouse receipts must be issued when storage is charged but no later than 30 days after delivery unless agreed to in writing by both parties."

Section 5. Section 80-4-538, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-538. Warehouse shortage — remedies. (1) For purposes of this section, whenever a warehouseman stores agricultural commodities of different kinds, a receipt holder has a claim against all commodities in storage, regardless of their kind, under his receipt.

(2) Whenever it appears, after an investigation, that a warehouseman does not have in his possession sufficient agricultural commodities to cover the outstanding warehouse receipts, scale weight tickets, or other evidence of storage liability issued or assumed by him or when a warehouseman refuses to submit his books, papers, or property to lawful inspection, the department may give notice to the warehouseman to comply with the following requirements:

(a) to cover such shortage;

(b) to give an additional bond as requested by the department; or

(c) to submit to such inspection as the department considers necessary.

~~(2)~~(3) If the warehouseman fails to comply with the terms of such notice within 24 hours from the date of issuance of the notice or within such further time as the department may allow, the department may petition the district court of the first judicial district, Lewis and Clark County, or the district court in the county where the licensee's principal place of business is located, as shown by the license application, for an order:

(a) authorizing the department to seize and take possession of any or all agricultural commodities in the warehouse or warehouses owned, operated, or controlled by the warehouseman and of all books, papers, and property of all kinds used in connection with the conduct or the operation of the warehouse business and any materials that pertain in any way to that business; and

(b) enjoining the warehouseman from interfering with the department in the discharge of its duties as required by this part.

~~(3)~~(4) Upon taking possession, the department shall give written notice of its action to the surety on the bond of the warehouseman and may notify the holders of record, as shown by the warehouseman's record, of all warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets issued for agricultural commodities to present their warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits for inspection or to account for the same. The department may thereupon cause an audit to be made of the affairs of the warehouse, including but not limited to the agricultural commodities of which there is an apparent shortage, to determine the amount of shortage and, if possible, to compute the shortage as to each depositor as shown by the warehouseman's records. The department shall notify the warehouseman and the surety on his bond of the amount of the shortage and notify each affected depositor by sending notices to the depositor's last-known address as shown by the records of the warehouseman.

~~(4)~~(5) The department shall retain possession of the agricultural commodities in the warehouse or warehouses and the books, papers, and property of the warehouseman until such time as:

(a) the warehouseman or the surety on the bond has satisfied the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits;

(b) the surety on the bond has satisfied all such claims pro rata, if the shortage exceeds the amount of the bond; or

(c) the department is ordered by the court to surrender possession.

~~(5)~~(6) If during or after the audit provided for in this section or at any other time the department has evidence that the warehouseman is insolvent or is unable to satisfy the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, the department may petition the district court for the appointment of the department to operate or liquidate the business of the warehouse.

~~(6)~~(7) At any time within 10 days after the department takes possession of any agricultural commodities or the books, papers, or property of any warehouse, the warehouseman may serve notice on the department to appear in the district court of the county in which the warehouse is located, at a time to be fixed by the court, and show cause why the agricultural commodities, books, papers, and other property should not be restored to his possession.

~~(7)~~(8) All necessary expenses incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered in a separate civil action brought by the department in district court or recovered at the same time and as part of the seizure action filed under subsection ~~(2)(a)~~ (3)(a).

~~(8)~~(9) As a part of the expenses so incurred, the department is authorized to include the cost of adequate liability insurance necessary to protect the department, its officers, and others engaged in carrying out this section.

~~(9)~~(10) The department shall set by rule the time limits for:

(a) notification of its action on the surety bond of a warehouseman;

(b) the holders of warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets to provide to the department such evidence of deposit; and

(c) satisfaction of the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits."

Section 6. Section 80-4-604, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-4-604. Bonding requirement amounts — cancellation. (1) An applicant for a license to operate as a commodity dealer shall, before a license may be issued, file with the department a surety bond or its equivalent, as established by department rule, payable to the state. The aggregate ~~annual~~ liability of the surety may not exceed the sum of the bond.

(2) ~~Unless set by department rule, the~~ The bond for a commodity dealer may not exceed 2% of the value of the agricultural commodities purchased by the commodity dealer from the producer during the previous 12-month period. The bond for all new applicants is 2% of the estimated value of all agricultural commodities to be purchased during the coming 12-month period. ~~The department may by rule require a greater percentage in each instance.~~ The minimum amount of bond required by any commodity dealer is $20,000, and the maximum is prescribed in 80-4-405.

(3) A surety shall notify the commodity dealer and the department by certified mail at least 60 days prior to the cancellation of the bond. The liability of the surety covers purchases made by the commodity dealer during the time the bond is in force. A commodity dealer's bond filed with the department is continuous until canceled by the surety upon 60 days' notice; however, such cancellation does not terminate any liability of the surety incurred prior to the date of cancellation."

Section 7. Commodity dealer defaults — remedies. (1) If the department finds that a commodity dealer has failed to comply with the terms of a written contract or has failed to pay for a commodity purchase under an oral agreement in the manner and within the time provided in 80-4-608, the department may petition the district court of the first judicial district, Lewis and Clark County, for an order authorizing the department to seize and take possession of:

(a) any agricultural commodities in the facilities owned, operated, or controlled by the commodity dealer;

(b) all books, papers, and property used in connection with the operation of the commodity dealer business; and

(c) any material that pertains in any way to that business.

(2) If during or after an audit or at any other time the department has evidence that the commodity dealer is insolvent or is unable to satisfy the claims of all commodity dealer creditors covered by the bond, the department may petition the district court of the first judicial district, Lewis and Clark County, for the appointment of the department to operate or liquidate the business of the commodity dealer.

Section 8. Records. (1) A commodity dealer shall provide evidence of delivery, such as scale tickets, for all agricultural commodities purchased from a producer.

(2) A commodity dealer shall keep daily position records or their equivalent showing purchases, deliveries, or payments to producers.

Section 9. Claims on bond by injured person. A person injured by the breach of an obligation for which the bond is given may file a claim with the department. Claims will be accepted only from producers and for agricultural commodities grown in Montana.

Section 10. Codification instruction. [Sections 7, 8, and 9] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 80, chapter 4, part 6, and the provisions of Title 80, chapter 4, part 6, apply to [sections 7, 8, and 9].

Section 11. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 300

[HB 816]

AN ACT SUBJECTING RECREATIONAL VEHICLES, INCLUDING MOTOR HOMES, TO THE PROVISIONS OF THE AUTOMOBILE LEMON LAW; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 61-1-132 AND 61-4-501, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-1-132, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-1-132. Recreational vehicle. The term "recreational vehicle" as used in 61-4-101 through 61-4-105, 61-4-501, and 61-10-141 includes travel trailers as defined in 61-1-131, motor homes as defined in 61-1-130, and other self-propelled vehicles originally designed or permanently altered to provide temporary facilities for recreational, travel, or camping use."

Section 2. Section 61-4-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-501. Definitions. For purposes of this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Collateral charge" means all governmental charges, including but not limited to sales tax, property tax, license and registration fees, and fees in lieu of tax.

(2) "Consumer" means the purchaser, other than for purposes of resale, of a motor vehicle that has not been brought into nonconformity as the result of abuse, neglect, or unauthorized modifications or alterations by the purchaser, any person to whom the motor vehicle is transferred during the duration of an express warranty applicable to the motor vehicle, or any other person entitled by the terms of the warranty to the benefits of its provisions.

(3) "Incidental damage" means incidental and consequential damage as defined in 30-2-715.

(4) "Manufacturer" has the meaning applied to that word in 61-4-201.

~~(4)~~(5) "Motor vehicle" means a vehicle, including the nonresidential portion of a motor home as defined in 61-1-130, propelled by its own power, designed primarily to transport persons or property upon the public highways, and sold in this state. The term does not include ~~a motor home as defined in 61-1-130,~~ a truck with 10,000 pounds or more gross vehicle weight rating~~,~~ or a motorcycle as defined in 61-1-105. Motor vehicle does not include components, systems, fixtures, appliances, furnishings, accessories, and features that are designed, used, and maintained primarily for residential purposes.

~~(5)~~(6) "Reasonable allowance for use" is an amount directly attributable to use of the motor vehicle by the consumer and any previous consumers prior to the first written notice of the nonconformity to the manufacturer or its agent and during any subsequent period when the vehicle is not out of service because of nonconformity. The reasonable allowance for use shall be computed by multiplying the total contract price of the vehicle by a fraction having as its denominator 100,000 and having as its numerator the number of miles that the vehicle traveled prior to the manufacturer's acceptance of its return.

~~(6)~~(7) "Warranty period" means the period ending 2 years after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of a new motor vehicle or during the first 18,000 miles of operation, whichever is earlier."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 301

[HB 819]

AN ACT PROMOTING STATE-TRIBAL COOPERATION IN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT; PROVIDING FOR INDIAN REPRESENTATION ON THE TOURISM ADVISORY COUNCIL; REQUIRING THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE TO WORK WITH TRIBAL GOVERNMENTS IN PROMOTING TOURISM AND ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 2-15-1816, 90-1-104, AND 90-1-105, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-15-1816, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-15-1816. Tourism advisory council. (1) There is created a tourism advisory council.

(2) The council is composed of not less than 12 members appointed by the governor from Montana's private sector travel industry and includes at least one member from Indian tribal governments, with representation from each tourism region initially established by executive order of the governor and as may be modified by the council under subsection (5).

(3) Members of the council shall serve staggered 3-year terms, subject to replacement at the discretion of the governor. The governor shall designate four of the initial members to serve 1-year terms and four of the initial members to serve 2-year terms.

(4) The council shall:

(a) oversee distribution of funds to regional nonprofit tourism corporations for tourism promotion and to nonprofit convention and visitors bureaus in accordance with Title 15, chapter 65, part 1, and this section;

(f) approve all travel research programs prior to their being undertaken*; and*

(g) encourage regional nonprofit tourism corporations to promote tourist activities on Indian reservations in their regions.

(5) The council may modify the tourism regions established by executive order of the governor.

(6) The department of commerce shall adopt such rules as may be necessary to implement and administer Title 15, chapter 65, part 1, and this section."

Section 2. Section 90-1-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-1-104. Functions of department of commerce — recreational development. The department of commerce shall:

(1) exercise state responsibility for that part of recreational planning and development which is directly related to private investment in recreational facilities;

(2) assemble and correlate information which may influence the development of recreational enterprises and disseminate it to persons, firms, or corporations interested in constructing or maintaining recreational facilities open to the public; ~~and~~

(3) serve as an ombudsman for the tourism industry and recreationists in all matters concerning the management and regulation of the level of Flathead ~~lake~~ Lake; and

(4) coordinate the promotion of Indian tourism activities in the state in cooperation with the seven tribal governments and the coordinator of Indian affairs."

Section 3. Section 90-1-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-1-105. Functions of department of commerce — economic development. The department of commerce shall:

(1) provide coordinating services to aid state and local groups and Indian tribal governments in the promotion of new economic enterprises and conduct publicity and promotional activities in connection with new economic enterprises;

(2) collect and disseminate information regarding the advantages of developing agricultural, recreational, commercial, and industrial enterprises within this state;

(3) serve as the state's official liaison between persons interested in locating new economic enterprises in Montana and state and local groups and Indian tribal governments seeking new enterprises;

(4) aid communities and Indian tribal governments interested in obtaining new business or expanding existing business;

(5) study and promote means of expanding markets for Montana products;

(6) encourage and coordinate public and private agencies or bodies in publicizing the facilities and attractions of the state;

(7) explore the use of cooperative agreements, as provided in Title 18, chapter 11, part 1, for the promotion and enhancement of economic opportunities on the state's Indian reservations."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 302

[HB 829]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT ELECTORS IN UNITED STATES SERVICE WHO ARE ABSENT FROM THE STATE MAY REGISTER TO VOTE AND VOTE BY ABSENTEE BALLOT UP TO NOON ON THE DAY BEFORE CERTAIN ELECTIONS; AMENDING SECTIONS 13-2-212, 13-2-301, AND 13-13-271, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 13-2-212, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-2-212. Registration of electors in the United States service. (1) ~~Any~~ An elector in the United States service who is absent from the state and the county of which he is a resident may register by mailing to the election administrator:

(a) the registration form, filled out and signed; or

(b) the federal post card application, filled out and signed.

(2) The form of the federal post card application, which may be used both as an application for registration and for a ballot, shall be prescribed by the secretary of state.

(3) An elector in the United States service who is absent from the state and county of which he is a resident may register to vote by federal post card application and vote by federal write-in absentee ballot for the next primary or general election up to noon on the day before the election."

Section 2. Section 13-2-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-2-301. Close of registration — procedure. (1) The election administrator shall:

(a) close registrations for 30 days before any election, except as provided in 13-2-212(3); and

(b) publish a notice specifying the day registrations will close on radio or television as provided in 2-3-105 through 2-3-107 or in a newspaper of general circulation in the county at least once a week for 3 weeks before the close of registration.

(2) Information to be included in the notice shall be prescribed by the secretary of state.

(3) An individual who submits a completed registration form to the election administrator before the deadline provided in subsection (1)(a) is allowed to correct a mistake on the completed registration form until 5 p.m. on the 10th day following the close of registration, and thereafter the qualified elector is eligible to vote in the next election."

Section 3. Section 13-13-271, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-13-271. Federal write-in absentee ballot — qualifications. (1) An elector qualified by 13-2-211 who fears his regular absentee ballot might not arrive in time to vote and return to the election administrator of the county of his residence and registration may also vote a federal write-in absentee ballot.

(2) The federal write-in absentee ballot is available to military personnel and civilians overseas through the same source that provides federal post card application forms and is only valid for federal elections.

(3) ~~The~~ Except as provided in 13-2-212(3), the elector shall apply for a regular absentee ballot as provided in 13-13-212(2) not less than 30 days before the general election."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 303

[HB 840]

AN ACT REGULATING THE IMPORTATION OR SALE OF NOXIOUS WEEDS THAT MAY HARM MONTANA'S HORTICULTURAL, AGRICULTURAL, FORESTRY, LIVESTOCK, WILDLIFE, OR NATIVE PLANT COMMUNITIES; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 7-22-2101, 80-7-701, AND 80-7-702, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-22-2101, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-22-2101. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means a district weed board created under 7-22-2103.

(2) "Commissioners" means the board of county commissioners.

(3) "Department" means the department of agriculture provided for in 2-15-3001.

(4) "District" means a weed management district organized under 7-22-2102.

(5) "Native plant" means a plant endemic to the state of Montana.

(6) "Native plant community" means an assemblage of native plants occurring in a natural habitat.

~~(5)~~(7) (a) "Noxious weeds" or "weeds" means any exotic plant species established or that may be introduced in the state which may render land unfit for agriculture, forestry, livestock, wildlife, or other beneficial uses or that may harm native plant communities and ~~which~~ that is designated:

(i) as a statewide noxious weed by rule of the department; or

(ii) as a district noxious weed by a board, following public notice of intent and a public hearing.

(b) A weed designated by rule of the department as a statewide noxious weed must be considered noxious in every district of the state.

~~(6)~~(8) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or state or local government agency or subdivision owning, occupying, or controlling any land, easement, or right-of-way, including any county, state, or federally owned and controlled highway, drainage or irrigation ditch, spoil bank, borrow pit, or right-of-way for a canal or lateral.

~~(7)~~(9) "Supervisor" means the person employed by the board to conduct the district noxious weed management program and supervise other district employees.

~~(8)~~(10) "Weed management" or "control" means the planning and implementation of a coordinated program for the containment, suppression, and, where possible, eradication of noxious weeds."

Section 2. Section 80-7-701, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-7-701. ~~Embargo against introduction of noxious weed seed from other states~~ *Regulation of importation or sale of noxious weeds. (1) As used in this section:

(a) "native plant" means a plant endemic to the state of Montana; and

(b) "native plant community" means an assemblage of native plants occurring in a natural habitat.

(2) ~~If the department believes that movements~~ The department may regulate or prohibit the importation or sale of grain, plants, seed, tubers, nursery stock, ~~hay, straw,~~ fruit, or other materials containing noxious weed seed or plants ~~dangerous or inimical to the horticultural or agricultural industries are about to be introduced into the state, it may advise the governor. The governor shall, by proclamation, declare an embargo against~~

~~the importation or shipment of the grain, plants, tubers, nursery stock, seed, hay, straw, fruit, or other materials into the state, except~~ harmful to Montana's horticultural, agricultural, forestry, livestock, wildlife, or native plant communities ~~under restrictions established in this part and provided in the rules adopted by the department.~~"

Section 3. Section 80-7-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-7-702. ~~Rules for enforcement of interstate embargo~~ Rulemaking authority. The department of agriculture shall adopt all necessary rules ~~in the enforcement of an embargo proclaimed~~ for the regulation of the importation or sale of materials as provided in 80-7-701. The department in adopting the rules may provide for the establishment of inspection stations, the appointment of inspectors, the establishment of the inspection fees, the issuance of certificates, the methods of transporting and packaging, the regulation of nursery stock commerce, and other rules and procedures necessary to carry out 80-7-701 through 80-7-704."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 304

[HB 938]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE LIABILITY PROTECTION FOR PHYSICIANS SERVING AS OFF-LINE MEDICAL DIRECTORS FOR EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES AND TO PHYSICIANS AND NURSES WHO GIVE MEDICAL INSTRUCTIONS TO MEMBERS OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES; DEFINING THE TERM "OFF-LINE MEDICAL DIRECTOR"; AMENDING SECTION 50-6-302, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 50-6-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-6-302. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Aircraft" has the same meaning given in 67-1-101. The term includes any fixed-wing airplane or helicopter.

(2) "Ambulance" means a privately or publicly owned motor vehicle or aircraft that is maintained and used for the transportation of patients. The term does not include a motor vehicle or aircraft owned by or operated under the direct control of the United States. The term also does not include air transportation services, such as charter or fixed-based operators, regulated by the federal aviation administration, that offer no special medical services or provide only transportation to patients or persons at the direction or under the supervision of an independent physician.

(3) "Board" means the board of health and environmental sciences, provided for in 2-15-2104.

(4) "Department" means the department of health and environmental sciences, provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 21.

(5) "Emergency medical service" means a prehospital or interhospital emergency medical transportation or treatment service provided by an ambulance or nontransporting medical unit.

(6) "Medical control" means the function of a licensed physician in providing direction, advice, or orders to an emergency medical service provider.

(7) "Nontransporting medical unit" means an aggregate of persons who are organized to respond to a call for emergency medical service and to treat a patient until the arrival of an ambulance. Nontransporting medical units provide any one of varying types and levels of service defined by department rule but may not transport patients.

(8) "Off-line medical director" means a physician who is responsible and accountable for the overall medical direction and medical supervision of an emergency medical service and who is responsible for the proper application of patient care techniques and the quality of care provided by the emergency medical services personnel. The term includes only a physician who volunteers his services as an off-line medical director or whose total reimbursement for those services in any 12-month period does not exceed $5,000.

~~(8)~~(9) "Patient" means an individual who is sick, injured, wounded, or otherwise incapacitated or helpless. The term does not include a person who is nonambulatory and who needs transportation assistance solely because that person is confined to a wheelchair as his usual means of mobility.

~~(9)~~(10) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, association, corporation, company, group of individuals acting together for a common purpose, or organization of any kind, including a governmental agency other than the United States."

Section 2. Liability protection. (1) A physician or registered nurse licensed under the laws of this state who gives instructions for medical care to a member of an emergency medical service without compensation or for compensation not exceeding $5,000 in any 12-month period and whose professional practice is not primarily in an emergency or trauma room or ward is not liable for civil damages for an injury resulting from the instructions, except damages for an injury resulting from the gross negligence of the physician or nurse, if the instructions given by the physician or nurse are:

(a) consistent with the protocols and the medical control plan approved by the department in licensing the emergency medical service; and

(b) consistent with the level of certification or licensure of the emergency medical services personnel instructed by the physician or nurse.

(2) An off-line medical director is not liable for civil damages for an injury resulting from the performance of his duties, except damages for an injury resulting from the gross negligence of the director.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Section 2] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 50, chapter 6, part 3, and the provisions of Title 50, chapter 6, part 3, apply to [section 2].

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 305

[HB 957]

AN ACT RECOGNIZING THE OFFICIAL NAMES OF THE MONTANA VETERANS' HOMES AS THE MONTANA VETERANS' HOME AND THE EASTERN MONTANA VETERANS' HOME; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 53-1-202 AND 53-1-402, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-1-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-1-202. Institutions in department. (1) The following institutions are in the department:

(a) Montana state hospital;

(b) Montana veterans' home ~~at Columbia Falls~~;

(6) Eastmont human services center."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 306

[SB 66]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE LICENSURE OF NATUROPATHIC PHYSICIANS; ESTABLISHING A BOARD OF NATUROPATHIC PHYSICIANS; PROVIDING FOR EXEMPTIONS; PROVIDING FOR SPECIALTY PRACTICE CERTIFICATION; PROVIDING CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND CIVIL REMEDIES; GRANTING THE BOARD RULEMAKING AUTHORITY; AND PROVIDING EFFECTIVE DATES.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [sections 7 and 10] grant to the board of naturopathic physicians rulemaking authority to implement the provisions of this bill. It is the intent of the legislature that the board, at a minimum, adopt rules:

(1) specifying the scope of practice of naturopathic medicine;

(2) establishing license application and examination procedures, fees, and criteria for minimal educational and clinical requirements;

(3) developing procedures for the issuance, renewal, suspension, revocation, and reciprocity of licenses and procedures for certificates of specialty practice; and

(4) establishing investigatory procedures for processing complaints.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] may be cited as the "Naturopathic Health Care Practice Act".

Section 2. Legislative finding — purpose. (1) The legislature finds that a significant number of Montanans choose naturopathic medicine for their health care needs and declares that naturopathic medicine is a distinct health care profession that affects the public health, safety, and welfare and contributes to public freedom of choice in health care.

(2) The purpose of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] is to provide standards for the licensing and regulation of naturopathic physicians in order to protect the public health, safety, and welfare; to ensure that naturopathic health care by qualified naturopathic physicians is available to the people of Montana; and to provide a means of identifying qualified naturopathic physicians.

Section 3. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Approved naturopathic medical college" means a college and program granting the degree of doctor of naturopathy or naturopathic medicine that:

(a) is accredited by the council on naturopathic medical education or another accrediting agency recognized by the United States department of education;

(b) has the status of candidate for accreditation with the accrediting agency; or

(c) has been approved by the board after an investigation that determines that the college or program meets education standards equivalent to those established by the accrediting agency and complies with the board's rules, which must require as a minimum a 4-year, full-time resident program of academic and clinical study.

(2) "Board" means the board of naturopathic physicians established in [section 9].

(3) "Department" means the department of commerce provided for in 2-15-1801.

(4) "Homeopathic preparations" means substances and drugs prepared according to the official Homeopathic Pharmacopoeia of the United States, which is the standard homeopathic text recognized by the United States food and drug administration.

(5) (a) "Minor surgery" means the use of:

(i) operative, electrical, or other methods for the surgical repair and care incidental to superficial lacerations and abrasions, superficial lesions, and the removal of foreign bodies located in the superficial tissues; and

(ii) antiseptics and local anesthetics in connection with the methods.

(b) Minor surgery does not include general or spinal anesthetics, major surgery, surgery of the body cavities, or specialized surgeries, such as plastic surgery, surgery involving the eyes, or surgery involving tendons, ligaments, nerves, or blood vessels.

(6) "Naturopathic medicine", "naturopathic health care", or "naturopathy" means a system of primary health care practiced by naturopathic physicians for the prevention, diagnosis, and treatment of human health conditions, injury, and disease. Its purpose is to promote or restore health by the support and stimulation of the individual's inherent self-healing processes. This is accomplished through education of the patient by a naturopathic physician and through the use of natural therapies and therapeutic substances.

(7) "Naturopathic childbirth attendance" means the specialty practice of natural childbirth by naturopathic physicians that includes the use of natural therapeutic substances, ophthalmic antibiotics, oxytocin (pitocin), and minor surgery, as set by board rules. The term does not include a forceps delivery, general or spinal anesthesia, or a caesarean section.

(8) "Naturopathic physical applications" means the therapeutic use by naturopathic physicians of the actions or devices of electrical muscle stimulation, galvanic, diathermy, ultrasound, ultraviolet light, constitutional hydrotherapy, and naturopathic manipulative therapy.

(9) "Naturopathic physician" means a person authorized and licensed to practice naturopathic health care under [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19].

(10) "Topical drugs" means topical analgesics, anesthetics, antiseptics, scabicides, antifungals, and antibacterials.

Section 4. Practice of naturopathic health care. (1) Naturopathic physicians may practice naturopathic medicine as a limited practice of the healing arts as exempted in 37-3-103(1)(n), with the following restrictions. A naturopathic physician may not:

(a) prescribe, dispense, or administer any legend drug as defined in 50-31-301 except for whole gland thyroid, homeopathic preparations, and oxytocin (pitocin), provided that the naturopathic physician may administer but may not prescribe or dispense oxytocin (pitocin);

(b) administer ionizing radioactive substances for therapeutic purposes;

(c) perform surgical procedures except those minor surgery procedures authorized by [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19]; or

(d) claim to practice any licensed health care profession or system of treatment other than naturopathic medicine unless holding a separate license in that profession.

(2) Naturopathic physicians may prescribe and administer for preventive and therapeutic purposes the following natural therapeutic substances, drugs, and therapies:

(a) food, food extracts, vitamins, minerals, enzymes, whole gland thyroid, botanical medicines, homeopathic preparations, and oxytocin (pitocin);

(b) topical drugs, health care counseling, nutritional counseling and dietary therapy, naturopathic physical applications, therapeutic devices, and nonprescription drugs; and

(c) barrier devices for contraception, naturopathic childbirth attendance, and minor surgery.

(3) Naturopathic physicians may perform or order for diagnostic purposes a physical or orificial examination, ultrasound, phlebotomy, clinical laboratory test or examination, physiological function test, and any other noninvasive diagnostic procedure commonly used by physicians in general practice and as authorized by [section 10(2)].

(4) Except as provided by this subsection, it is unlawful for a naturopath to engage, directly or indirectly, in the dispensing of any drugs that a naturopath is authorized to prescribe by subsection (2). If the place where a naturopath maintains an office for the practice of naturopathy is more than 10 miles from a place of business that sells and dispenses the drugs a naturopath may prescribe under subsection (2), then, to the extent such drugs are not available within 10 miles of the naturopath's office, the naturopath may sell such drugs that are unavailable.

Section 5. License required — titles restricted — enjoining unlawful practice. (1) Except as provided in [section 6], a person may not practice naturopathy without a valid and current license issued by the board as provided in [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19].

(2) (a) A naturopathic physician licensed under [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] may use the prefix "Dr." or "doctor" as a title.

(b) Only a naturopathic physician licensed under [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] may use any or all of the following titles or terms:

(i) "doctor of naturopathy", "doctor of naturopathic medicine", "naturopath", "naturopathic physician", and the abbreviation "N.D." when used to imply any of these titles; or

(ii) "naturopathic medicine", "naturopathic health care", "naturopathic", and "naturopathy".

(c) The titles and terms in subsection (2)(b) identify naturopathic physicians and are restricted to describing and identifying licensed practitioners and their practice. A person who uses these titles and terms to represent himself or his practice to the public without being licensed pursuant to [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] is in violation of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19].

(3) A violation of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] may be enjoined by the district court on petition by the board.

Section 6. Exemptions. (1) [Sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] recognize that many of the therapies used by naturopathic physicians, such as the use of nutritional supplements, herbs, foods, homeopathic preparations, and such physical forces as heat, cold, water, touch, and light, are not the exclusive privilege of naturopathic physicians, and their use, practice, prescription, or administration by persons not licensed to practice naturopathic medicine is not prohibited by [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19].

(2) [Sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] do not restrict or apply to the scope of practice of any other professions licensed, certified, or registered under the laws of this state.

Section 7. Naturopathic childbirth attendance — certification for specialty practice — requirements. (1) A naturopathic physician may not practice naturopathic childbirth attendance without first obtaining from the board a certificate of specialty practice. The board shall adopt rules setting forth the requirements to be met in order to certify naturopathic physicians for the specialty practice of naturopathic childbirth attendance.

(2) In order to be certified for the specialty practice of naturopathic childbirth attendance, a naturopathic physician shall:

(a) pass either a national standardized supplemental examination in naturopathic childbirth attendance provided by the national naturopathic profession licensing organization or another specialty examination approved by the board;

(b) complete a minimum of 100 hours in any one or in any combination of the following upon approval by the board:

(i) course work in naturopathic childbirth attendance;

(ii) an internship in naturopathic childbirth attendance; or

(iii) a preceptorship in naturopathic childbirth attendance; and

(c) have assisted in a minimum of 50 supervised births, including prenatal and postnatal care, under the direct supervision of a licensed naturopathic, medical, or osteopathic physician with specialty training in obstetrics or natural childbirth attendance. The 50 supervised births required under this subsection (c) must include 25 births that document the naturopathic physician as the primary birth attendant.

Section 8. Public health duties of naturopathic physicians. Naturopathic physicians have the same authority and responsibility as other licensed physicians with regard to public health laws, reportable diseases and conditions, communicable disease control and prevention, recording of vital statistics, health and physical examinations, and local boards of health, except that the authority and responsibility is limited to activities consistent with the scope of practice described in [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19].

Section 9. Board of naturopathic physicians. (1) There is a board of naturopathic physicians.

(2) The board consists of three members appointed by the governor.

(3) The members are:

(a) one member of the public; and

(b) two naturopathic physicians who have been residents of Montana for 3 years prior to being appointed. These members must be licensed under [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19], except during the initial transition period of 1 year after [the effective date of sections 9, 10, 11, and 22].

(4) The board is attached to the department of commerce for administrative purposes only as prescribed in 2-15-121.

(5) The board is designated as a quasi-judicial board for purposes of 2-15-124, except that a member of the board need not be an attorney licensed to practice law in this state.

Section 10. Powers and duties of board. The board shall:

(1) adopt rules necessary or proper to administer and enforce [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19];

(2) adopt rules that specify the scope of practice of naturopathic medicine stated in [section 4], that are consistent with the definition of naturopathic medicine provided in [section 3], and that are consistent with the education provided by approved naturopathic medical colleges;

(3) adopt rules prescribing the time, place, content and passing requirements of the licensure examination, which may be composed of part or all of the national naturopathic physicians licensing examination;

(4) adopt rules that endorse equivalent licensure examinations of another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or a foreign country and that may include licensure by reciprocity;

(5) adopt rules that set fees, commensurate with costs, for application, examination, licensure and other administrative services;

(6) approve naturopathic medical colleges as defined in [section 3];

(7) adopt rules for the investigation of complaints against naturopathic physicians, for hearings on complaints, and to impose disciplinary action against naturopathic physicians found to be in violation of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19];

(8) investigate individuals falsely claiming to be naturopathic physicians and act in cooperation with county attorneys to enforce the provisions of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19];

(9) adopt rules that establish, approve, and routinely review a continuing education curriculum and accreditation for naturopathic physicians that is required for license renewal;

(10) issue certificates of specialty practice;

(11) issue temporary licenses as provided for in [section 13]; and

(12) adopt rules that, in the discretion of the board, appropriately restrict licenses to a limited scope of practice of naturopathic medicine, which may exclude the use of minor surgery or the legend drugs allowed under [section 4].

Section 11. Board meetings. (1) The board shall meet at least once annually.

(2) Special meetings may be called by any two board members or the chairman.

(3) All members must be present in order to conduct board business.

Section 12. Qualifications for licensure. A person is qualified to be licensed to practice naturopathic medicine in Montana if he:

(1) is of good moral character as determined by the board;

(2) is a graduate of an approved naturopathic medical college; and

(3) has passed an examination prescribed or endorsed by the board for the licensure of naturopathic physicians.

Section 13. Application for licensure — examination — temporary license. (1) A person who desires a license to practice naturopathic medicine in Montana shall apply to the department in the manner and form prescribed by the board. The application must be accompanied by the license fees, the application fees, and the documents, affidavits, and certificates necessary to establish that the applicant possesses the qualifications prescribed by [section 12]. The burden of proof is on the applicant, but the board may make an independent investigation to determine whether the applicant possesses the necessary qualifications and whether the applicant has committed unprofessional conduct that would be basis for licensure denial. At the board's request, the applicant shall provide necessary authorizations for the release of records and information pertinent to the board's investigation.

(2) A person who applies for licensure but who has not passed a licensure examination prescribed or endorsed by the board shall apply to the board for authorization to take the prescribed licensure examination. The application for examination must be accompanied by the examination fee. If the board finds that all other qualifications for licensure except that of examination have been met, the board shall authorize the applicant to take the licensure examination.

(3) A person who has actively engaged in the practice of naturopathic medicine in Montana prior to [the effective date of sections 9, 10, 11, and 22] and who is a graduate of an approved naturopathic medical college may continue to practice naturopathic medicine until the board reviews his qualifications if he applies to and receives from the department a temporary license by October 1, 1991. The department shall issue a temporary license to a qualified applicant. The board shall, within 6 months of October 1, 1991, review the qualifications of each temporary licensee and either authorize the department to issue a license to a person qualified under [section 12 or 14] or extend the temporary license for a term of no more than 1 year to allow the practitioner to pass the prescribed examination. A person who is not a graduate of an approved naturopathic medical college may not be granted a temporary license.

Section 14. Licensure by endorsement. (1) The board may authorize the department to issue to an applicant a license by endorsement if the applicant produces evidence satisfactory to the board of:

(a) a valid license or certificate issued to the applicant on the basis of an examination by an examining board under the laws of another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or a foreign country, whose licensing standards at the time the license or certificate was issued were, in the judgment and according to the rules of the board, acceptable for endorsement for granting a license to practice naturopathic medicine; or

(b) (i) an inactive license or other certificate of examination issued to or for the applicant by a naturopathic examining board under the laws of another state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or a foreign country, whose examination standards at the time the license was granted or the examination was passed were acceptable for endorsement in the judgment and according to the rules of the board;

(ii) the fact that he has not been disciplined or had his inactive license suspended or revoked for malpractice;

(iii) the fact that he has been actively engaged in the practice of naturopathic medicine for at least 1 year in a state or territory of the United States, the District of Columbia, or a foreign country, that does not license naturopathic physicians;

(iv) the fact that he is a graduate of an approved naturopathic medical college; and

(v) his good moral character.

Section 15. Issuance of license. If the board determines that an applicant possesses the qualifications required by [section 12], the department shall issue a license to the applicant to practice naturopathic medicine.

Section 16. Denial, suspension, or revocation of license — grounds. The board may refuse to issue a license or may suspend or revoke a license issued pursuant to [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] or take disciplinary action against licensees for one or more of the following causes:

(1) conviction, as shown by a certified copy of the record of the court, of a felony or a violation of any state or federal law regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any controlled substance, subject to Title 37, chapter 1, part 2;

(2) being adjudicated incompetent or seriously mentally ill;

(3) sustaining a physical or mental disability that renders further naturopathic practice dangerous to the public;

(4) habitual intemperance with alcohol or habitual addiction to the use of a controlled substance to such an extent as to incapacitate the person from the proper performance of professional duties;

(5) malpractice;

(6) engaging in dishonorable, unethical, or unprofessional conduct, as defined by the rules of the board, that may deceive, defraud, or harm the public;

(7) obtaining or attempting to obtain by fraudulent misrepresentation a license to practice naturopathy;

(8) advertising by means of knowingly false, misleading, or deceptive statements;

(9) advertising, practicing, or attempting to practice under a name other than the person's own;

(10) using any false, fraudulent, or forged statement or document or engaging in any fraudulent, deceitful, dishonest, or immoral practice, as defined by the rules of the board, in connection with the licensing requirements of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19];

(11) violation of a provision of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] or the rules adopted by the board.

Section 17. Denial, suspension, or revocation of license — procedure. (1) Upon receipt of a complaint alleging violation of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] or the rules of the board, the board shall investigate the complaint and, according to its findings and the board's rules, shall either dismiss the complaint or take appropriate action to enforce [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19].

(2) (a) The board shall meet or hold a hearing as necessary at the time and place set pursuant to board rules. The board may continue the hearing from time to time as it determines necessary.

(b) At the hearing, the board must receive evidence upon the subject under consideration and shall accord the person against whom the complaint is filed a full and fair opportunity to be heard in his defense.

(3) After consideration, the board shall adopt a resolution finding that the licensee has either violated or not violated the provisions of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] or the rules of the board.

(4) If the board finds that a violation has not occurred, the board shall dismiss the complaint. If the board finds that a violation has occurred, it shall:

(a) revoke his license;

(b) suspend his right to practice naturopathy for a period not to exceed 1 year;

(c) suspend its judgment of revocation upon terms and conditions it determines;

(d) place him on probation; or

(e) take other disciplinary action as provided by board rules.

Section 18. Reinstatement of license after period of suspension — revocation. (1) Upon the expiration of the term of the suspension, the board may reinstate a license if the suspended licensee furnishes the board with satisfactory evidence that he is then of good moral character and conduct; is restored to good health, if applicable; and has not practiced naturopathy in the state during the term of suspension.

(2) If the board is not satisfied that the licensee is then of good moral character and conduct or restored to good health or if the evidence shows that he has practiced naturopathy in this state during the term of suspension, the board may, after notice and hearing, revoke the license.

Section 19. Enforcement — penalty. (1) A county attorney shall prosecute a person charged with violation of any of the provisions of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19].

(2) A person who violates any of the provisions of [sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, is punishable by a fine not exceeding $500 or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 6 months, or both.

Section 20. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 21. Codification instruction. (1) [Section 9] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 2, chapter 15, part 18, and the provisions of Title 2, chapter 15, part 18, apply to [section 9].

(2) [Sections 1 through 8 and 10 through 19] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 37.

Section 22. Effective dates. (1) [Sections 9, 10, 11, and this section] are effective on passage and approval.

(2) [Sections 1 through 8 and 12 through 21] are effective October 1, 1991.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 307

[SB 214]

AN ACT INCREASING THE DOLLAR AMOUNTS SUBJECT TO CIVIL JURISDICTION IN JUSTICES' COURTS, THE SMALL CLAIMS DIVISION OF JUSTICES' COURTS, AND CITY COURTS; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 3-10-301, 3-10-1004, AND 3-11-103, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 3-10-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-10-301. Civil jurisdiction. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) and in 3-11-103, the justices' courts have jurisdiction:

(a) in actions arising on contract for the recovery of money only if the sum claimed does not exceed ~~$3,500~~ $5,000, exclusive of court costs;

(b) in actions for damages not exceeding ~~$3,500~~ $5,000, exclusive of court costs, for taking, detaining, or injuring personal property or for injury to real property when no issue is raised by the verified answer of the defendant involving the title to or possession of the real property;

(c) in actions for damages not exceeding ~~$3,500~~ $5,000, exclusive of court costs, for injury to the person, except that, in actions for false imprisonment, libel, slander, criminal conversation, seduction, malicious prosecution, determination of paternity, and abduction, the justice of the peace does not have jurisdiction;

(d) in actions to recover the possession of personal property if the value of the property does not exceed ~~$3,500~~ $5,000;

(e) in actions for a fine, penalty, or forfeiture not exceeding ~~$3,500~~ $5,000, imposed by a statute or an ordinance of an incorporated city or town when no issue is raised by the answer involving the legality of any tax, impost, assessment, toll, or municipal fine;

(f) in actions upon bonds or undertakings conditioned for the payment of money when the sum claimed does not exceed ~~$3,500~~ $5,000, though the penalty may exceed that sum;

(g) to take and enter judgment for the recovery of money on the confession of a defendant when the amount confessed does not exceed ~~$3,500~~ $5,000, exclusive of court costs;

(h) to issue temporary restraining orders as provided in 40-4-121(3).

(2) Justices' courts do not have jurisdiction in civil actions that might result in a judgment against the state for the payment of money."

Section 2. Section 3-10-1004, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-10-1004. Jurisdiction — removal from district court. (1) The small claims court has jurisdiction over all actions for the recovery of money or specific personal property when the amount claimed does not exceed ~~$2,500~~ $3,000, exclusive of costs, and the defendant can be served within the county where the action is commenced.

(2) A district court judge may require any action filed in district court to be removed to the small claims court if the amount in controversy does not exceed ~~$2,500~~ $3,000. The small claims court shall hear any action so removed from the district court."

Section 3. Section 3-11-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-11-103. Exclusive jurisdiction. Except as provided in 3-11-104, the city court has exclusive jurisdiction of:

(1) proceedings for the violation of an ordinance of the city or town, both civil and criminal;

(2) when the amount of the taxes or assessments sought does not exceed ~~$2,500~~ $5,000, actions for the collection of taxes or assessments levied for any of the following purposes, except that no lien on the property taxed or assessed for the nonpayment of the taxes or assessments may be foreclosed in any such action:

(a) city or town purposes;

(b) the erection or improvement of public buildings;

(c) the laying out, opening, or improving of a public street, sidewalk, alley, or bridge;

(d) the acquisition or improvement of any public grounds; and

(e) public improvements made or ordered by the city or town within its limits;

(3) actions for the collection of money due to the city or town or from the city or town to any person when the amount sought, exclusive of interest and costs, does not exceed ~~$2,500~~ $5,000;

(4) when the amount claimed, exclusive of costs, does not exceed ~~$2,500~~ $5,000, actions for:

(a) the breach of an official bond given by a city or town officer;

(b) the breach of any contract when the city or town is a party or is in any way interested;

(c) damages when the city or town is a party or is in any way interested;

(d) the enforcement of forfeited recognizances given to, for the benefit of, or on behalf of the city or town; and

(e) collection on bonds given upon an appeal taken from the judgment of the court in any action mentioned in subsections (4)(a) through (4)(d);

(5) actions for the recovery of personal property belonging to the city or town when the value of the property, exclusive of the damages for the taking or detention, does not exceed ~~$2,500~~ $5,000; and

(6) actions for the collection of a license fee required by an ordinance of the city or town."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 308

[SB 265]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THE RIGHT TO BENEFICIALLY USE, SELL, OR LEASE SALVAGED WATER; DEFINING "SALVAGE"; PROVIDING CRITERIA FOR APPROVAL OF CHANGES IN APPROPRIATION RIGHTS INVOLVING SALVAGED WATER; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 85-2-102 AND 85-2-402, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill in order to provide guidance to the department of natural resources and conservation concerning the adoption of rules to allow the appropriation, use, and change of use of salvaged water. The legislature directs the department of natural resources and conservation to adopt rules that promote the conservation and efficient use of water by implementing the provisions of this bill.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Salvaged water. It is the declared policy of the state in 85-1-101 to encourage the conservation and full use of water. Consistent with this policy, holders of appropriation rights who salvage water, as defined in 85-2-102, may retain the right to the salvaged water for beneficial use. Any use of the right to salvaged water for any purpose or in any place other than that associated with the original appropriation right must be approved by the department as a change in appropriation right in accordance with 85-2-402. Sale of the right to salvaged water must also be in accordance with 85-2-403, and the lease of the right to salvaged water for instream flow purposes must be in accordance with 85-2-436.

Section 2. Section 85-2-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-102. (Temporary) Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this chapter the following definitions apply:

(1) "Appropriate" means to:

(a) divert, impound, or withdraw (including by stock for stock water) a quantity of water;

(b) in the case of a public agency, to reserve water in accordance with 85-2-316; or

(c) in the case of the department of fish, wildlife, and parks, to lease water in accordance with 85-2-436.

(2) "Beneficial use", unless otherwise provided, means:

(a) a use of water for the benefit of the appropriator, other persons, or the public, including but not limited to agricultural (including stock water), domestic, fish and wildlife, industrial, irrigation, mining, municipal, power, and recreational uses;

(b) a use of water appropriated by the department for the state water leasing program under 85-2-141 and of water leased under a valid lease issued by the department under 85-2-141; and

(c) a use of water by the department of fish, wildlife, and parks pursuant to a lease authorized under 85-2-436.

(3) "Board" means the board of natural resources and conservation provided for in 2-15-3302.

(4) "Certificate" means a certificate of water right issued by the department.

(5) "Change in appropriation right" means a change in the place of diversion, the place of use, the purpose of use, or the place of storage.

(6) "Commission" means the fish and game commission provided for in 2-15-3402.

(7) "Declaration" means the declaration of an existing right filed with the department under section 8, Chapter 452, Laws of 1973.

(8) "Department" means the department of natural resources and conservation provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 33.

(9) "Existing right" means a right to the use of water which would be protected under the law as it existed prior to July 1, 1973.

(10) "Ground water" means any water beneath the land surface or beneath the bed of a stream, lake, reservoir, or other body of surface water, and which is not a part of that surface water.

(11) "Permit" means the permit to appropriate issued by the department under 85-2-301 through 85-2-303 and 85-2-306 through 85-2-314.

(12) "Person" means an individual, association, partnership, corporation, state agency, political subdivision, the United States or any agency thereof, or any other entity.

(13) "Political subdivision" means any county, incorporated city or town, public corporation, or district created pursuant to state law or other public body of the state empowered to appropriate water but not a private corporation, association, or group.

(14) "Salvage" means to make water available for beneficial use from an existing valid appropriation through application of water-saving methods.

~~(14)~~(15) "Waste" means the unreasonable loss of water through the design or negligent operation of an appropriation or water distribution facility or the application of water to anything but a beneficial use.

~~(15)~~(16) "Water" means all water of the state, surface and subsurface, regardless of its character or manner of occurrence, including but not limited to geothermal water, diffuse surface water, and sewage effluent.

~~(16)~~(17) "Water division" means a drainage basin as defined in 3-7-102.

~~(17)~~(18) "Water judge" means a judge as provided for in Title 3, chapter 7.

~~(18)~~(19) "Water master" means a master as provided for in Title 3, chapter 7.

~~(19)~~(20) "Well" means any artificial opening or excavation in the ground, however made, by which ground water is sought or can be obtained or through which it flows under natural pressures or is artificially withdrawn. (Terminates June 30, 1993—sec. 11, Ch. 658, L. 1989.)

85-2-102. (Effective July 1, 1993) Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this chapter the following definitions apply:

(1) "Appropriate" means to divert, impound, or withdraw (including by stock for stock water) a quantity of water or, in the case of a public agency, to reserve water in accordance with 85-2-316.

(2) "Beneficial use", unless otherwise provided, means:

(a) a use of water for the benefit of the appropriator, other persons, or the public, including but not limited to agricultural (including stock water), domestic, fish and wildlife, industrial, irrigation, mining, municipal, power, and recreational uses; and

(b) a use of water appropriated by the department for the state water leasing program under 85-2-141 and of water leased under a valid lease issued by the department under 85-2-141.

(3) "Board" means the board of natural resources and conservation provided for in 2-15-3302.

(4) "Certificate" means a certificate of water right issued by the department.

(5) "Change in appropriation right" means a change in the place of diversion, the place of use, the purpose of use, or the place of storage.

(6) "Declaration" means the declaration of an existing right filed with the department under section 8, Chapter 452, Laws of 1973.

(7) "Department" means the department of natural resources and conservation provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 33.

(8) "Existing right" means a right to the use of water which would be protected under the law as it existed prior to July 1, 1973.

(9) "Ground water" means any water beneath the land surface or beneath the bed of a stream, lake, reservoir, or other body of surface water, and which is not a part of that surface water.

(10) "Permit" means the permit to appropriate issued by the department under 85-2-301 through 85-2-303 and 85-2-306 through 85-2-314.

(11) "Person" means an individual, association, partnership, corporation, state agency, political subdivision, the United States or any agency thereof, or any other entity.

(12) "Political subdivision" means any county, incorporated city or town, public corporation, or district created pursuant to state law or other public body of the state empowered to appropriate water but not a private corporation, association, or group.

(13) "Salvage" means to make water available for beneficial use from an existing valid appropriation through application of water-saving methods.

~~(13)~~(14) "Waste" means the unreasonable loss of water through the design or negligent operation of an appropriation or water distribution facility or the application of water to anything but a beneficial use.

~~(14)~~(15) "Water" means all water of the state, surface and subsurface, regardless of its character or manner of occurrence, including but not limited to geothermal water, diffuse surface water, and sewage effluent.

~~(15)~~(16) "Water division" means a drainage basin as defined in 3-7-102.

~~(16)~~(17) "Water judge" means a judge as provided for in Title 3, chapter 7.

~~(17)~~(18) "Water master" means a master as provided for in Title 3, chapter 7.

~~(18)~~(19) "Well" means any artificial opening or excavation in the ground, however made, by which ground water is sought or can be obtained or through which it flows under natural pressures or is artificially withdrawn."

Section 3. Section 85-2-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-402. (Temporary) Changes in appropriation rights. (1) An appropriator may not make a change in an appropriation right except as permitted under this section and with the approval of the department or, if applicable, of the legislature.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) through (5), the department shall approve a change in appropriation right if the appropriator proves by substantial credible evidence that the following criteria are met:

(a) The proposed use will not adversely affect the water rights of other persons or other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved.

(b) Except for a lease authorization pursuant to 85-2-436 that does not require appropriation works, the proposed means of diversion, construction, and operation of the appropriation works are adequate.

(c) The proposed use of water is a beneficial use.

(d) The applicant has a possessory interest, or the written consent of the person with the possessory interest, in the property where the water is to be put to beneficial use.

(e) If the change in appropriation right involves salvaged water, the proposed water-saving methods will salvage at least the amount of water asserted by the applicant.

(3) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use of an appropriation of 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water unless the appropriator proves by substantial credible evidence that:

(a) the criteria in subsection (2) are met;

(b) the proposed change is a reasonable use. A finding of reasonable use must be based on a consideration of:

(i) the existing demands on the state water supply, as well as projected demands for water for future beneficial purposes, including municipal water supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum streamflows for the protection of existing water rights and aquatic life;

(ii) the benefits to the applicant and the state;

(iii) the effects on the quantity and quality of water for existing uses in the source of supply;

(iv) the availability and feasibility of using low-quality water for the purpose for which application has been made;

(v) the effects on private property rights by any creation of or contribution to saline seep; and

(vi) the probable significant adverse environmental impacts of the proposed use of water as determined by the department pursuant to Title 75, chapter 1, or Title 75, chapter 20.

(4) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use for a diversion that results in 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water being consumed unless:

(a) the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence and the department finds that the criteria in subsections (2) and (3) are met; and

(b) the department then petitions the legislature and the legislature affirms the decision of the department after one or more public hearings.

(5) (a) The state of Montana has long recognized the importance of conserving its public waters and the necessity to maintain adequate water supplies for the state's water requirements, including requirements for reserved water rights held by the United States for federal reserved lands and in trust for the various Indian tribes within the state's boundaries. Although the state of Montana also recognizes that, under appropriate conditions, the out-of-state transportation and use of its public waters are not in conflict with the public welfare of its citizens or the conservation of its waters, the following criteria must be met before out-of-state use may occur:

(b) The department and, if applicable, the legislature may not approve a change in appropriation right for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for use outside the state unless the appropriator proves by clear and convincing evidence and, if applicable, the legislature approves after one or more public hearings that:

(i) depending on the volume of water diverted or consumed, the applicable criteria and procedures of subsection (2) or (3) are met;

(ii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not contrary to water conservation in Montana; and

(iii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not otherwise detrimental to the public welfare of the citizens of Montana.

(c) In determining whether the appropriator has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of subsections (5)(b)(ii) and (5)(b)(iii) will be met, the department and, if applicable, the legislature shall consider the following factors:

(i) whether there are present or projected water shortages within the state of Montana;

(ii) whether the water that is the subject of the proposed change in appropriation might feasibly be transported to alleviate water shortages within the state of Montana;

(iii) the supply and sources of water available to the applicant in the state where the applicant intends to use the water; and

(iv) the demands placed on the applicant's supply in the state where the applicant intends to use the water.

(d) When applying for a change in appropriation right to withdraw and transport water for use outside the state, the applicant shall submit to and comply with the laws of the state of Montana governing the appropriation and use of water.

(6) For any application for a change in appropriation right involving 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water, the department shall give notice of the proposed change in accordance with 85-2-307 and shall hold one or more hearings in accordance with 85-2-309 prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. The department shall provide notice and may hold one or more hearings upon any other proposed change if it determines that a change might adversely affect the rights of other persons.

(7) The department or the legislature, if applicable, may approve a change subject to terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations as it considers necessary to satisfy the criteria of this section, including limitations on the time for completion of the change. The department may extend time limits specified in the change approval under the applicable criteria and procedures of 85-2-312(3).

(8) If a change is not completed as approved by the department or legislature or if the terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations of the change approval are not complied with, the department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, require the appropriator to show cause why the change approval should not be modified or revoked. If the appropriator fails to show sufficient cause, the department may modify or revoke the change approval.

(9) The original of a change approval issued by the department must be sent to the applicant, and a duplicate must be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(10) A person holding an issued permit or change approval that has not been perfected may change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use, or place of storage by filing an application for change pursuant to this section.

(11) A change in appropriation right contrary to the provisions of this section is invalid. An officer, agent, agency, or employee of the state may not knowingly permit, aid, or assist in any manner an unauthorized change in appropriation right. A person or corporation may not, directly or indirectly, personally or through an agent, officer, or employee, attempt to change an appropriation right except in accordance with this section. (Terminates June 30, 1993—sec. 11, Ch. 658, L. 1989.)

85-2-402. (Effective July 1, 1993) Changes in appropriation rights. (1) An appropriator may not make a change in an appropriation right except as permitted under this section and with the approval of the department or, if applicable, of the legislature.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) through (5), the department shall approve a change in appropriation right if the appropriator proves by substantial credible evidence that the following criteria are met:

(a) The proposed use will not adversely affect the water rights of other persons or other planned uses or developments for which a permit has been issued or for which water has been reserved.

(b) The proposed means of diversion, construction, and operation of the appropriation works are adequate.

(c) The proposed use of water is a beneficial use.

(d) The applicant has a possessory interest, or the written consent of the person with the possessory interest, in the property where the water is to be put to beneficial use.

(e) If the change in appropriation right involves salvaged water, the proposed water-saving methods will salvage at least the amount of water asserted by the applicant.

(3) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use of an appropriation of 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water unless the appropriator proves by substantial credible evidence that:

(a) the criteria in subsection (2) are met;

(b) the proposed change is a reasonable use. A finding of reasonable use must be based on a consideration of:

(i) the existing demands on the state water supply, as well as projected demands for water for future beneficial purposes, including municipal water supplies, irrigation systems, and minimum streamflows for the protection of existing water rights and aquatic life;

(ii) the benefits to the applicant and the state;

(iii) the effects on the quantity and quality of water for existing uses in the source of supply;

(iv) the availability and feasibility of using low-quality water for the purpose for which application has been made;

(v) the effects on private property rights by any creation of or contribution to saline seep; and

(vi) the probable significant adverse environmental impacts of the proposed use of water as determined by the department pursuant to Title 75, chapter 1, or Title 75, chapter 20.

(4) The department may not approve a change in purpose of use or place of use for a diversion that results in 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water being consumed unless:

(a) the applicant proves by clear and convincing evidence and the department finds that the criteria in subsections (2) and (3) are met; and

(b) the department then petitions the legislature and the legislature affirms the decision of the department after one or more public hearings.

(5) (a) The state of Montana has long recognized the importance of conserving its public waters and the necessity to maintain adequate water supplies for the state's water requirements, including requirements for reserved water rights held by the United States for federal reserved lands and in trust for the various Indian tribes within the state's boundaries. Although the state of Montana also recognizes that, under appropriate conditions, the out-of-state transportation and use of its public waters are not in conflict with the public welfare of its citizens or the conservation of its waters, the following criteria must be met before out-of-state use may occur:

(b) The department and, if applicable, the legislature may not approve a change in appropriation right for the withdrawal and transportation of appropriated water for use outside the state unless the appropriator proves by clear and convincing evidence and, if applicable, the legislature approves after one or more public hearings that:

(i) depending on the volume of water diverted or consumed, the applicable criteria and procedures of subsection (2) or (3) are met;

(ii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not contrary to water conservation in Montana; and

(iii) the proposed out-of-state use of water is not otherwise detrimental to the public welfare of the citizens of Montana.

(c) In determining whether the appropriator has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements of subsections (5)(b)(ii) and (5)(b)(iii) will be met, the department and, if applicable, the legislature shall consider the following factors:

(i) whether there are present or projected water shortages within the state of Montana;

(ii) whether the water that is the subject of the proposed change in appropriation might feasibly be transported to alleviate water shortages within the state of Montana;

(iii) the supply and sources of water available to the applicant in the state where the applicant intends to use the water; and

(iv) the demands placed on the applicant's supply in the state where the applicant intends to use the water.

(d) When applying for a change in appropriation right to withdraw and transport water for use outside the state, the applicant shall submit to and comply with the laws of the state of Montana governing the appropriation and use of water.

(6) For any application for a change in appropriation right involving 4,000 or more acre-feet of water a year and 5.5 or more cubic feet per second of water, the department shall give notice of the proposed change in accordance with 85-2-307 and shall hold one or more hearings in accordance with 85-2-309 prior to its approval or denial of the proposed change. The department shall provide notice and may hold one or more hearings upon any other proposed change if it determines that such a change might adversely affect the rights of other persons.

(7) The department or the legislature, if applicable, may approve a change subject to such terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations as it considers necessary to satisfy the criteria of this section, including limitations on the time for completion of the change. The department may extend time limits specified in the change approval under the applicable criteria and procedures of 85-2-312(3).

(8) If a change is not completed as approved by the department or legislature or if the terms, conditions, restrictions, and limitations of the change approval are not complied with, the department may, after notice and opportunity for hearing, require the appropriator to show cause why the change approval should not be modified or revoked. If the appropriator fails to show sufficient cause, the department may modify or revoke the change approval.

(9) The original of a change approval issued by the department must be sent to the applicant, and a duplicate must be kept in the office of the department in Helena.

(10) A person holding an issued permit or change approval that has not been perfected may change the place of diversion, place of use, purpose of use, or place of storage by filing an application for change pursuant to this section.

(11) A change in appropriation right contrary to the provisions of this section is invalid. No officer, agent, agency, or employee of the state may knowingly permit, aid, or assist in any manner such unauthorized change in appropriation right. No person or corporation may, directly or indirectly, personally or through an agent, officer, or employee, attempt to change an appropriation right except in accordance with this section."

Section 4. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 85, chapter 2, part 4, and the provisions of Title 85, chapter 2, part 4, apply to [section 1].

Section 5. Saving clause. [This act] does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, or proceedings that were begun before [the effective date of this act].

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 309

[SB 291]

AN ACT MAKING IT UNLAWFUL TO ATTEMPT TO TAKE A SIMULATED WILDLIFE DECOY; PROVIDING A PENALTY; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Attempting to take simulated wildlife decoy — penalty. (1) It is unlawful for a person to discharge a firearm or other hunting implement at a simulated wildlife decoy in violation of any state statute or commission rule regulating the hunting or taking of the wildlife being simulated when the decoy is being used by a certified peace officer.

(2) Upon conviction, the penalty for attempting to take a simulated wildlife decoy is the same as prescribed for unlawful taking of the actual wildlife being simulated.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 87, chapter 3, part 1, and the provisions of Title 87, chapter 3, part 1, apply to [section 1].

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 310

[SB 306]

AN ACT TO ELIMINATE CURRENT RESTRICTIONS REGARDING MEDICAID REIMBURSEMENT FOR THE SERVICES OF LICENSED PROFESSIONAL COUNSELORS; AMENDING SECTION 53-6-101, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-6-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-6-101. Montana medicaid program — authorization of services. (1) There is a Montana medicaid program established for the purpose of providing necessary medical services to eligible persons who have need for medical assistance. The Montana medicaid program is a joint federal-state program administered under this chapter and in accordance with Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended. The department of social and rehabilitation services shall administer the Montana medicaid program.

(2) Medical assistance provided by the Montana medicaid program includes the following services:

(a) inpatient hospital services;

(b) outpatient hospital services;

(c) other laboratory and x-ray services;

(d) skilled nursing services in long-term care facilities;

(e) physicians' services;

(f) nurse specialist services;

(g) early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment services for persons under 21 years of age;

(h) services provided by physician assistants-certified within the scope of their practice and that are otherwise directly reimbursed as allowed under department rule to an existing provider;

(i) health services provided under a physician's orders by a public health department; and

(j) hospice care as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(o).

(3) Medical assistance provided by the Montana medicaid program may, as provided by department rule, also include the following services:

(a) medical care or any other type of remedial care recognized under state law, furnished by licensed practitioners within the scope of their practice as defined by state law;

(b) home health care services;

(c) private-duty nursing services;

(d) dental services;

(e) physical therapy services;

(f) mental health center services administered and funded under a state mental health program authorized under Title 53, chapter 21, part 2;

(g) clinical social worker services;

(h) prescribed drugs, dentures, and prosthetic devices;

(i) prescribed eyeglasses;

(j) other diagnostic, screening, preventive, rehabilitative, chiropractic, and osteopathic services;

(k) inpatient psychiatric hospital services for persons under 21 years of age;

(l) services of professional counselors licensed under Title 37, chapter 23~~, if funds are specifically appropriated for the inclusion of these services in the Montana medicaid program~~;

(m) ambulatory prenatal care for pregnant women during a presumptive eligibility period, as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396a(a)(47) and 42 U.S.C. 1396r-1;

(n) any additional medical service or aid allowable under or provided by the federal Social Security Act.

(4) The department may implement, as provided for in Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended, a program under medicaid for payment of medicare premiums, deductibles, and coinsurance for persons not otherwise eligible for medicaid.

(5) The department may set rates for medical and other services provided to recipients of medicaid and may enter into contracts for delivery of services to individual recipients or groups of recipients.

(6) The services provided under this part may be only those that are medically necessary and that are the most efficient and cost effective.

(7) The amount, scope, and duration of services provided under this part must be determined by the department in accordance with Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended.

(8) Services, procedures, and items of an experimental or cosmetic nature may not be provided.

(9) If available funds are not sufficient to provide medical assistance for all eligible persons, the department may set priorities to limit, reduce, or otherwise curtail the amount, scope, or duration of the medical services made available under the Montana medicaid program.

(10) Community-based medicaid services, as provided for in part 4 of this chapter, must be provided in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted thereunder. (Subsection (2)(j) terminates June 30, 1991—sec. 4, Ch. 633, L. 1989; Subsection (3)(m) terminates June 30, 1991—sec. 15, Ch. 649, L. 1989.) "

~~(c)~~(3) the department of institutions provided for in 2-15-2301; and

~~(d)~~(4) the mental disabilities board of visitors provided for in 2-15-211."

Section 4. Section 53-21-124, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-21-124. Detention of respondent pending hearing or trial. (1) The court may not order detention of respondent pending the hearing unless requested by the county attorney and upon the existence of probable cause for detention. Counsel shall be orally notified immediately. Counsel for the respondent may then request a detention hearing, which shall be held forthwith.

(2) In the event of detention, the respondent shall be detained in the least restrictive setting necessary to assure his presence and assure his safety and the safety of others as provided in 53-21-120. A respondent may be detained in a jail or other correctional facility only if no appropriate mental health facility is immediately available for placement. When the respondent is detained in a jail or other correctional facility, the jail or other facility shall immediately notify the regional ~~central~~ office of the nearest community mental health ~~facility~~ center, as defined in 53-21-201, that a person detained in the jail or correctional facility is in need of an appropriate placement. Upon notification, the community mental health ~~facility~~ center shall identify an appropriate placement for the respondent, in accordance with the requirements of 53-21-120. Until a placement is identified, the community mental health ~~facility~~ center shall report on the status of the placement to the jail or correctional facility within every 12-hour period, including weekends and holidays. When an appropriate placement has been identified, the court must be promptly notified and the respondent must be transferred to that facility as soon as reasonably practical.

(3) If the respondent is detained, he shall have the right to be examined additionally by a professional person of his choice. Unless objection is made by counsel for the respondent, he shall continue to be evaluated and treated by the professional person pending the hearing."

Section 5. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 313

[SB 422]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT STATE LANDS MAY BE SOLD TO LOCAL GOVERNMENTAL UNITS; AND AMENDING SECTION 77-2-306, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 77-2-306, MCA, is amended to read:

"77-2-306. Who may purchase. (1) State lands shall be sold only to citizens of the United States ~~or to~~, persons who have declared their intentions to become citizens ~~or to~~, corporations organized under the laws of this state, or towns, cities, counties, or consolidated local governments of this state. No person shall be qualified to purchase state land who has not reached the age of 18 years. As far as possible to determine, the lands shall be sold only to actual settlers or to persons who will improve the same and not to persons who are likely to hold such lands for speculative purposes intending to resell the same at a higher price without having added anything to their value.

(2) State lands may be sold to any sovereign state of the United States or to any board of trustees or public corporation or agency of such state created by such state as an agency or political subdivision thereof. Said lands may be purchased in the quantities set forth in 77-2-307 for use by such state, board of trustees, public corporation, agency, or political subdivision for educational or scientific purposes.

(3) State lands located wholly within the exterior boundaries of the tribal government's reservation as recognized by the federal government may be sold to a tribal government as defined in 18-11-102. No sale involving land in excess of the acreage limitations in 77-2-307 may be made under this section without first consulting with the board of county commissioners of the county or counties in which the lands to be sold are located."

Approved April 1, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 314

[HB 76]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE WINE LAWS; REGULATING BUSINESS RELATIONS BETWEEN TABLE WINE DISTRIBUTORS AND SUPPLIERS; PROHIBITING CERTAIN ACTS BY SUPPLIERS; PROVIDING PROCEDURES FOR TERMINATION OF AGREEMENTS OF DISTRIBUTORSHIP; PROVIDING FOR TABLE WINE DISTRIBUTORS' OBLIGATIONS; ALLOWING DUAL APPOINTMENTS IN A SPECIFIED TERRITORY; PROVIDING REMEDIES FOR DISPUTES; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 16-1-106 AND 16-3-401, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

Because the department of revenue has rulemaking authority under 16-1-303(2)(m), a statement of intent may be necessary for [this act]. The department shall consider the rules and interpretations of the Washington Wholesaler/Supplier Equity Agreement Act, RCW 19.126.010, et seq., upon which many of the provisions of this bill are based. It is not intended that the department adopt any rule interpreting or implementing [section 3(3)], regarding the designation of sales territories for wine distributors by a winery.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. As used in this part, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Agreement of distributorship" means a contract, agreement, commercial relationship, license, or other arrangement for a definite or an indefinite period of time between a supplier and a table wine distributor that provides for the sale of table wine by the supplier to the table wine distributor.

(2) "Good cause" means failure by a table wine distributor to comply with reasonable business requirements imposed, or sought to be imposed, by a supplier under the terms of an agreement of distributorship if the requirements are imposed on other similarly situated distributors either by the terms of their agreements or in the manner of their enforcement by the supplier.

(3) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust, agency, or other entity and includes individual officers, directors, or other persons in active control of the activities of the entity.

(4) "Supplier" means a winery or an importer of table wines that enters into or is a party to an agreement of distributorship with a table wine distributor.

Section 2. Suppliers' prohibitions. A supplier may not:

(1) coerce, induce, or attempt to coerce or induce a table wine distributor to engage in an illegal act or course of conduct;

(2) require a table wine distributor to accept delivery of a product or other item or commodity that was not ordered by the wine distributor.

Section 3. Table wine distributor provisions. (1) A supplier or table wine distributor may not fail or refuse to reduce to writing an agreement of distributorship that provides for purchase of the supplier's products from the supplier by the table wine distributor.

(2) An agreement of distributorship must provide that:

(a) a supplier shall notify a table wine distributor in writing at least 60 days prior to termination of an agreement of distributorship unless a termination without notice is permitted as provided in [section 4]. The written notice must state the reasons for termination. Notice of termination is void if within 60 days of the notice the table wine distributor rectifies the deficiency stated as the reason for termination and if the deficiency was not stated as reason for termination in a notice previously voided under the provisions of this subsection.

(b) a supplier may not unreasonably withhold or delay approval of a sale or transfer of the ownership, management, or control of a table wine distributorship; however, a table wine distributor shall give a supplier no less than 60 days' prior written notice of any material change in ownership, management, or control.

(3) Within 60 days after entering into an agreement of distributorship, the supplier shall advise the department of the agreement by filing a copy of the agreement that must include the sales area or areas designated for the table wine distributor.

(4) If a supplier terminates an agreement of distributorship under the provisions of subsection (2)(a), the table wine distributor subject to the termination is entitled to compensation for the laid-in cost of his inventory. In the event of any termination of the agreement by the supplier other than termination for good cause or for any reason set forth in [section 4(3)], the distributor is entitled to compensation for the laid-in cost of his inventory and to liquidated damages based on the sales of the brand or brands involved, as may be provided in the agreement. If the supplier and the distributor are unable to agree on the amount of liquidated damages, the amount of liquidated damages must be determined by an arbitrator appointed under subsection (5) of this section.

(5) If undertaken in good faith by a supplier, a supplier may terminate an agreement of distributorship for a legitimate business reason not within the definition of good cause if an arbitrator appointed by the department finds, after hearing the supplier and the table wine distributor, that the termination is in the best interest of the table wine brand concerned. Arbitration under this section must be conducted under the provisions of Title 27, chapter 5.

Section 4. Supplier provisions. (1) An agreement of distributorship must provide that a table wine distributor shall:

(a) maintain the financial and competitive capability to efficiently and effectively distribute a supplier's products;

(b) maintain the quality and integrity of a supplier's products in a manner set forth by the supplier;

(c) exert the table wine distributor's best efforts to sell the supplier's wines;

(d) merchandise the products in retail stores as agreed between the table wine distributor and the supplier; and

(e) give a supplier not less than 60 days' written notice of the table wine distributor's intent to terminate an agreement of distributorship.

(2) As provided in [section 3], a supplier may terminate an agreement of distributorship based on a deficiency or other good cause by giving 60 days' prior written notice to the table wine distributor.

(3) A supplier may terminate an agreement of distributorship immediately and without notice if the reason for the termination is insolvency, assignment for the benefit of creditors, bankruptcy, or revocation or suspension for more than 14 days of a license to operate that is required by the state or the federal government.

Section 5. Dual appointments — equal support — alternate supplier. (1) A supplier may appoint one or more table wine distributors to distribute its table wines in a specified territory. If the supplier appoints two or more table wine distributors to sell its table wines in the same or overlapping territories, the supplier shall offer the same prices, delivery, terms, and promotional support to each table wine distributor.

(2) The holder of an all-beverages license under chapter 4, part 2, may, upon presentation of his license or a photocopy of his license, personally obtain from any distributor's warehouse a quantity of table wine that the licensee may agree to buy and that the distributor may agree to sell.

Section 6. Applicability. Within 60 days after [the effective date of this act] or within 60 days after the execution of a new agreement by the parties, whichever is later, an agreement of distributorship must be reduced to writing and an exact copy of the agreement must be filed with the department as a public document and must be available to any of the parties to a dispute. Upon filing with the department, the agreement becomes subject to the provisions of [this act].

Section 7. Injunction. A person injured by a violation of this part may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin further violations in addition to other remedies provided by law.

Section 8. Section 16-1-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"16-1-106. Definitions. As used in this code, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Agency agreement" means an agreement between the department and a person appointed to sell liquor and table wine as a commission merchant rather than as an employee.

(2) "Alcohol" means ethyl alcohol, also called ethanol, or the hydrated oxide of ethyl.

(3) "Alcoholic beverage" means a compound produced and sold for human consumption as a drink that contains more than 0.5% of alcohol by volume.

(4) "Beer" means a malt beverage containing not more than 7% of alcohol by weight.

(5) "Beer importer" means a person other than a brewer who imports malt beverages.

(6) "Brewer" means a person who produces malt beverages.

(7) "Department" means the department of revenue.

(8) "Immediate family" means a spouse, dependent children, or dependent parents.

(9) "Import" means to transfer beer or table wine from outside the state of Montana into the state of Montana.

(10) "Industrial use" means a use described as industrial use by the federal Alcohol Administration Act and the federal rules and regulations of 27 CFR.

(11) "Liquor" means an alcoholic beverage except beer and table wine.

(12) "Malt beverage" means an alcoholic beverage made by the fermentation of an infusion or decoction, or a combination of both, in potable brewing water, of malted barley with or without hops or their parts or their products and with or without other malted cereals and with or without the addition of unmalted or prepared cereals, other carbohydrates, or products prepared therefrom and with or without other wholesome products suitable for human food consumption.

(13) "Package" means a container or receptacle used for holding an alcoholic beverage.

(14) "Posted price" means the retail price of liquor and table wine as fixed and determined by the department and in addition thereto an excise and license tax as provided in this code.

(15) "Proof gallon" means a U.S. gallon of liquor at 60 degrees on the Fahrenheit scale that contains 50% of alcohol by volume.

(16) "Public place" means a place, building, or conveyance to which the public has or may be permitted to have access and any place of public resort.

(17) "Rules" means rules published by the department pursuant to this code.

(18) "State liquor facility" means a facility owned or under control of the department for the purpose of receiving, storing, transporting, or selling alcoholic beverages.

(19) "State liquor store" means a retail store operated by the department in accordance with this code for the purpose of selling liquor and table wine.

(20) "Storage depot" means a building or structure owned or operated by a brewer at any point in the state of Montana off and away from the premises of a brewery, and which structure is equipped with refrigeration or cooling apparatus for the storage of beer and from which a brewer may sell or distribute beer as permitted by this code.

(21) "Subwarehouse" means a building or structure owned or operated by a licensed beer wholesaler or table wine distributor, located at a site in Montana other than the site of such beer wholesaler's or table wine distributor's warehouse or principal place of business, and used for the receiving, storage, and distribution of beer or table wine as permitted by this code.

(22) "Table wine" means wine as defined below which contains not more than 16% alcohol by volume.

(23) "Table wine distributor" means a person importing into or purchasing in Montana table wine for sale or resale to retailers licensed in Montana.

~~(23)~~(24) "Warehouse" means a building or structure located in Montana owned or operated by a licensed beer wholesaler or table wine distributor for the receiving, storage, and distribution of beer or table wine as permitted by this code.

~~(24)~~(25) "Wine" means an alcoholic beverage made from or containing the normal alcoholic fermentation of the juice of sound, ripe fruit or other agricultural products without addition or abstraction, except as may occur in the usual cellar treatment of clarifying and aging, and that contains more than 0.5% but not more than 24% of alcohol by volume. Wine may be ameliorated to correct natural deficiencies, sweetened, and fortified in accordance with applicable federal regulations and the customs and practices of the industry. Other alcoholic beverages not defined as above but made in the manner of wine and labeled and sold as wine in accordance with federal regulations are also wine."

Section 9. Section 16-3-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"16-3-401. ~~Public~~ Short title — public policy — purpose. (1) This part may be cited as the "Wine Distribution Act".

(2) The public policy of the state of Montana is to maintain a system for the importation and sale of table wine by the state through state liquor facilities and provide for, regulate, and control the acquisition, importation, and distribution of table wine by licensed table wine distributors and the state.

(3) This part governs relationships between suppliers and table wine distributors, and because the legislature recognizes the public interest and the interests of suppliers and table wine distributors in the fair, efficient, and competitive distribution of table wine, this part is intended to:

(a) protect the table wine distributor's independence in managing his own business, including the establishment of selling prices; and

(b) encourage table wine distributors to devote their best efforts to the sale and distribution of the table wines they sell and distribute."

Section 10. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 7] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 16, chapter 3, part 4, and the provisions of Title 16, chapter 3, part 4, apply to [sections 1 through 7].

Approved April 2, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 315

[HB 333]

AN ACT AMENDING THE LAWS RELATING TO PAROLE ELIGIBILITY; MAKING ALL INMATES ELIGIBLE FOR PAROLE 120 DAYS

PRIOR TO THEIR ELIGIBILITY DATES WHEN THE CORRECTIONAL FACILITY HAS EXCEEDED ITS DESIGNED CAPACITY FOR 30 CONSECUTIVE DAYS; AND AMENDING SECTION 46-23-201, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 46-23-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"46-23-201. Prisoners eligible for parole. (1) Subject to the restrictions contained in subsections (2) through (4), the board may release on parole by appropriate order any person confined in the Montana state prison or the women's correction center, except persons under sentence of death and persons serving sentences imposed under 46-18-202(2), when in its opinion there is reasonable probability that the prisoner can be released without detriment to the prisoner or to the community.

(2) A convict serving a time sentence may not be paroled until he has served at least one-half of his full term, less the good time allowance provided for in 53-30-105; except that a convict designated as a nondangerous offender under 46-18-404 may be paroled after he has served one-quarter of his full term, less the good time allowance provided for in 53-30-105. Any offender serving a time sentence may be paroled after he has served, upon his term of sentence, 17 1/2 years.

(3) A convict serving a life sentence may not be paroled until he has served 30 years, less the good time allowance provided for in 53-30-105.

(4) A parole may be ordered only for the best interests of society and not as an award of clemency or a reduction of sentence or pardon. A prisoner may be placed on parole only when the board believes that he is able and willing to fulfill the obligations of a law-abiding citizen.

(5) ~~If~~ Whenever the department of institutions certifies to the board that the population at either the ~~Montana state prison exceeds~~ male or female correctional facility has exceeded its ~~design~~ designed capacity ~~of 744 by 96 inmates or that the population at the women's correction center exceeds its design capacity of 35 inmates and that the prison or the center has exceeded its capacity for a period of more than~~ for 30 consecutive days, the board shall consider ~~convicts in the institution in which the design capacity has been exceeded~~ the respective male or female inmates under the jurisdiction of the department eligible for parole 120 days prior to the eligibility dates provided for in subsections (2) and (3).

(6) Regardless of length of sentence, if the conditions of parole eligibility are met within the initial 12 months of incarceration at Montana state prison, the provisions of subsection (5) do not apply."

Approved April 2, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 316

[HB 407]

AN ACT TO SUBMIT TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF MONTANA AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE X, SECTION 9, OF THE MONTANA CONSTITUTION TO INCREASE THE MEMBERSHIP ON THE BOARD OF REGENTS TO EIGHT MEMBERS AND TO REQUIRE THE APPOINTMENT OF ONE NATIVE AMERICAN MEMBER.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Article X, section 9, of The Constitution of the State of Montanais amended to read:

"Section 9. Boards of education. (1) There is a state board of education composed of the board of regents of higher education and the board of public education. It is responsible for long-range planning, and for coordinating and evaluating policies and programs for the state's educational systems. It shall submit unified budget requests. A tie vote at any meeting may be broken by the governor, who is an ex officio member of each component board.

(2) (a) The government and control of the Montana university system is vested in a board of regents of higher education which shall have full power, responsibility, and authority to supervise, coordinate, manage and control the Montana university system and shall supervise and coordinate other public educational institutions assigned by law.

(b) The board consists of ~~seven~~ eight members, including one Native American member, appointed by the governor, and confirmed by the senate, to overlapping terms, as provided by law. The governor and superintendent of public instruction are ex officio non-voting members of the board.

(c) The board shall appoint a commissioner of higher education and prescribe his term and duties.

(d) The funds and appropriations under the control of the board of regents are subject to the same audit provisions as are all other state funds.

(3) (a) There is a board of public education to exercise general supervision over the public school system and such other public educational institutions as may be assigned by law. Other duties of the board shall be provided by law.

(b) The board consists of seven members appointed by the governor, and confirmed by the senate, to overlapping terms as provided by law. The governor, commissioner of higher education and state superintendent of public instruction shall be ex officio non-voting members of the board."

Section 2. Submission to electorate. This amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of Montana at the general election to be held in November 1992 by printing on the ballot the full title of this act and the following:

☐ FOR increasing membership on the board of regents to eight members and requiring the appointment of one Native American member.

☐ AGAINST increasing membership on the board of regents to eight members and requiring the appointment of one Native American member.

CHAPTER NO. 317

[HB 421]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THE CERTIFICATION AND TRAINING REQUIREMENTS FOR JUDGES OF COURTS OF LIMITED JURISDICTION; CLARIFYING THE QUALIFICATIONS FOR OFFICE OF JUDGES OF COURTS OF LIMITED JURISDICTION; REQUIRING THAT THE SUPREME COURT BE NOTIFIED OF THE ELECTION OR APPOINTMENT OF A JUDGE OF A COURT OF LIMITED JURISDICTION; AMENDING SECTIONS 3-1-1502, 3-1-1503, 3-6-202, 3-10-202, 3-10-231, AND 13-15-405, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 3-1-1502, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-1-1502. Training and certification of judges. Except as provided in 3-1-1503, no judge selected for a term of office ~~commencing on or after January 6, 1986,~~ may assume the functions of his office unless he has filed with the county clerk and recorder in his jurisdiction a certificate of completion of a course of education and training prescribed by the commission."

Section 2. Section 3-1-1503, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-1-1503. Exception — temporary certificate. (1) Section 3-1-1502 does not apply to a judge who has received a temporary certificate issued by the commission as provided for in subsection (2).

(2) The commission may issue a temporary certificate enabling a judge to assume the functions of his office pending completion of a course as required by 3-1-1502. The temporary certificate must be in a form and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by the commission.

(3) The commission may issue a temporary certificate only if:

(a) the judge is appointed or elected ~~for his first term~~ after the course is offered; or

(b) the commission grants an excuse because of a personal illness, a death in the family, or other good cause.

(4) The appointing authority for an appointed judge shall notify the commission of the person appointed, and the person appointed must be certified as provided in 3-1-1502 or this section prior to assuming office."

Section 3. Section 3-6-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-6-202. Qualifications — certification* — *training. (1) A municipal court judge must have the same qualifications as a judge of a district court, as set forth in Article VII, section 9, of the 1972 Montana constitution, except that a municipal court judge need only be admitted to the practice of law in Montana for at least 2 years prior to the date of appointment or election.

(2) A municipal court judge must be a resident and voter in the city in which he is elected at the time of his election.

(3) A municipal court judge must be certified as provided in 3-1-1502 or 3-1-1503 prior to assuming office.

(4) There must be two mandatory annual training sessions supervised by the supreme court for all elected and appointed municipal court judges. One of the training sessions may be held in conjunction with the Montana magistrates' association convention. Actual and necessary travel expenses, as defined and provided for in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503, and the costs of registration and books and other materials must be paid to the elected or appointed municipal court judge for attending the sessions by the city in which he holds or will hold court and must be charged against that city.

(5) Each municipal court judge shall attend the training sessions provided for in subsection (4). Failure to attend disqualifies a judge from office and creates a vacancy in the office. However, the supreme court may excuse a municipal court judge from attendance because of illness, a death in the family, or any other good cause."

Section 4. Section 3-10-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-10-202. Oath — ~~qualifications~~ proof of certification. (1) Each justice of the peace, elected or appointed, after he has received his certificate of election or appointment, shall, before entering upon the duties of his office, take the constitutional oath of office, which must be filed with the county clerk.

(2) Before the county clerk may file the oath, the elected or appointed justice must satisfy the clerk that he is ~~either:~~

~~(a) an attorney at law authorized to practice law in the state of Montana;~~

~~(b) a person who has held the office of justice of the peace within the preceding 5 years; or~~

~~(c) a person who has completed the orientation course of study held under the direction of the supreme court or has been excused by the supreme court~~ certified as provided in 3-1-1502 or 3-1-1503. ~~If a person is appointed after the course is offered, he must agree to take the course at the next offering and failure to do so will disqualify him.~~"

Section 5. Section 3-10-231, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-10-231. Circumstances in which an acting justice called in — by whom. (1) Whenever a justice of the peace is disqualified from acting in any action because of the application of the supreme court's rules on disqualification and substitution of judges, subdivision 1, 2, or 3, he shall either transfer the action to another justice's court in the same county or call a justice from a neighboring county to preside in his behalf.

(2) Within 30 days of taking office, a justice of the peace shall provide a list of persons who are qualified to hold court in his place during a temporary absence when no other justice or city judge is available. The persons listed must be of good moral character and have community support, a sense of community standards, and a basic knowledge of court procedure. The county commissioners shall administer the oath of office to each person on this list ~~within the ensuing 30 days or~~ as soon ~~thereafter~~ as possible after the person has received a waiver of training from the supreme court.

(3) Whenever a justice is sick, disabled, or absent, the justice may call in another justice, if there is one readily available, or a city judge or a person from the list provided for in subsection (2) to hold court for the absent judge until his return. If the justice is unable to call in a substitute, the county commissioners shall call in another justice, a city judge, or a person from the list provided for in subsection (2).

(4) During the time when a justice of the peace is on vacation or attending a training session, another justice of the peace of the same county shall be authorized to handle matters that otherwise would be handled by the absent justice. When there is no other justice of the peace in the county, the justice of the peace may designate another person in the same manner as if the justice were sick or absent.

(5) A justice of the peace of any county may hold the court of any other justice of the peace at his request."

Section 6. Section 13-15-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-15-405. Declaration or certification of results. (1) The board shall declare nominated or elected the individuals having the highest number of votes cast for each county and precinct office, except as provided in 13-10-204.

(2) The board shall proclaim the adoption or rejection of a county ballot issue.

(3) The board shall certify the results of the canvass of votes cast for individuals for political subdivision offices and for and against political subdivision ballot issues to the governing body of each political subdivision participating in the election.

(4) If there is a tie vote for a county office, an office of a political subdivision wholly within the county, a precinct office, or a ballot issue voted on only in that county or portion of that county, the board shall certify the vote to the election administrator.

(5) The board shall certify the results of the canvass of votes cast for justice of the peace, city judge, and municipal court judge to the supreme court in order to ensure compliance with 3-1-1502 or 3-1-1503."

Section 7. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 2, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 318

[HB 530]

AN ACT TO PROHIBIT DISABILITY AND LIFE INSURERS FROM EXCLUDING COVERAGE TO OR REFUSING TO CONSIDER AN APPLICATION FOR INSURANCE COVERAGE FROM ANY PERSON ON THE BASIS OF GENETIC CONDITION, DEVELOPMENTAL DELAY, OR DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITY; TO DEFINE UNLAWFUL DISCRIMINATION IN THE APPLICATION OF INSURANCE RATES OR TERMS OR IN THE ISSUANCE OF AN INSURANCE POLICY; TO DEFINE TERMS; AMENDING SECTION 33-18-206, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 33-18-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-18-206. Unfair discrimination prohibited — life insurance, annuities, and disability insurance. (1) No person shall make or permit any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and equal expectation of life in the rates charged for any contract of life insurance or of life annuity or in the dividends or other benefits payable thereon or in any other of the terms and conditions of such contract.

(2) No person shall make or permit any unfair discrimination between individuals of the same class and of essentially the same hazard in the amount of premium, policy fees, or rates charged for any policy or contract of disability insurance or in the benefits payable thereunder or in any of the terms or conditions of such contract or in any other manner whatever.

(3) An insurer may not refuse to consider an application for life or disability insurance on the basis of a genetic condition, developmental delay, or developmental disability.

(4) The rejection of an application or the determining of rates, terms, or conditions of a life or disability insurance contract on the basis of genetic condition, developmental delay, or developmental disability constitutes unfair discrimination unless the applicant's medical condition and history and either claims experience or actuarial projections establish that substantial differences in claims are likely to result from the genetic condition, developmental delay, or developmental disability.

(5) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Developmental delay" means a delay of at least 1 1/2 standard deviations from the norm.

(b) "Developmental disability" means the singular of developmental disabilities as defined in 53-20-202.

(c) "Genetic condition" means a specific chromosomal or single-gene genetic condition."

Section 2. Applicability. [This act] applies to disability or life insurance policies or contracts applied for, delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state on or after October 1, 1991.

Approved April 2, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 319

[SB 252]

AN ACT REVISING THE ALLOCATION OF FUNDS THAT MAY BE USED FOR DEVELOPMENT AND MAINTENANCE OF WILDLIFE HABITAT; REQUIRING A COMPREHENSIVE STUDY OF WILDLIFE HABITAT ACQUISITION, IMPROVEMENT, OPERATIONS, MAINTENANCE, AND DEVELOPMENT AND PRESENTATION OF THE STUDY TO THE 1993 LEGISLATURE; EXTENDING THE WILDLIFE HABITAT ACQUISITION PROGRAM UNTIL MARCH 1, 1996; AMENDING SECTION 87-1-242, MCA, AND SECTION 12, CHAPTER 598, LAWS OF 1987; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A CONTINGENT RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

WHEREAS, wildlife is a major historical, social, and economic resource of Montana; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the people, the wildlife, and the State of Montana to have a permanent wildlife habitat and conservation easement acquisition program; and

WHEREAS, sportsmen and others have demonstrated their commitment to wildlife by supporting, through license fees, the acquisition of wildlife habitat; and

WHEREAS, private landowners provide significant habitat for Montana's wildlife resources and have legitimate concerns regarding the operation and maintenance of neighboring lands acquired by the Fish and Game Commission for wildlife habitat; and

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the people, the wildlife, and the State of Montana that relations between landowners and sportsmen be cooperative and mutually respectful in nature and that the concerns of both landowners and sportsmen be taken into consideration in the formulation of a wildlife habitat and conservation easement acquisition program; and

WHEREAS, an independent and detailed study is needed to determine the character and application of the state's permanent wildlife habitat and conservation easement acquisition program.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-1-242, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-1-242. (Temporary) Funding for wildlife habitat. (1) The amount of money specified in this subsection from the sale of each hunting license or permit listed must be used exclusively by the commission to secure, develop, and maintain wildlife habitat, subject to appropriation by the legislature.

(a) Class B-10, nonresident combination, $77;

(b) Nonresident antelope, $20;

(c) Nonresident moose, $20;

(d) Nonresident mountain goat, $20;

(e) Nonresident mountain sheep, $20;

(f) Class D-1, nonresident mountain lion, $20;

(g) Nonresident black bear, $20;

(h) Wild turkey nonresident, $10;

(i) Class AAA, sportsman's, $7;

(j) Class B-11 nonresident deer combination, $200.

(2) Twenty percent of any increase after March 1, 1988, in the fee for the Class B-7 license or any license or permit listed in subsection (1) must be allocated for use as provided in subsection (1).

(3) Eighty percent of the money allocated by this section, together with the interest and income therefrom, must be used to secure wildlife habitat pursuant to 87-1-209.

(4) (a) ~~Twenty percent~~ Until March 1, 1991, 20% of the money allocated by this section must be credited to the account created by 87-1-601(5) for use in the manner prescribed therein for the development and maintenance of real property used for wildlife habitat.

(b) On and after March 1, 1991, 20% of the money allocated by this section must be used as follows:

(i) up to 50% a year may be used for development and maintenance of real property used for wildlife habitat; and

(ii) the remainder and any money not allocated for development and maintenance under subsection (4)(b)(i) by the end of each odd-numbered fiscal year must be credited to the account created by 87-1-601(5) for use in the manner prescribed therein for the development and maintenance of real property used for wildlife habitat. (Terminates March 1, ~~1994~~ 1996—sec. 12, Ch. 598, L. 1987.) "

Section 2. Comprehensive study required — report to 1993 legislature. (1) The department of fish, wildlife, and parks shall commission an independent comprehensive study of wildlife habitat acquisition, improvement, and development, to be funded in an amount up to $150,000 from money allocated under 87-1-242(3).

(2) The study must analyze the department's current wildlife habitat acquisition, improvement, operations, maintenance, and development program and develop a comprehensive plan for a permanent wildlife habitat acquisition, improvement, operations, maintenance, development, and land management program, including the use of conservation easements, leases, and fee title acquisition. The study must also include a comprehensive and detailed accounting of expenditures authorized by 87-1-242(4). The department shall ensure participation by the public, including landowners and sportsmen, in the development of the comprehensive plan. The study and plan must be completed by December 1, 1992, and presented to the 1993 legislature.

Section 3. Section 12, Chapter 598, Laws of 1987, is amended to read:

"Section 12. Effective date — termination date. This act is effective March 1, 1988, and terminates March 1, ~~1994~~ 1996."

Section 4. Effective date — contingent retroactive applicability. [This act] is effective on passage and approval and, if passed and approved on or after March 1, 1991, applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to funds allocated under 87-1-242(4) on and after March 1, 1991.

Approved April 2, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 320

[SB 297]

AN ACT ENABLING THE DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS TO PERMIT CERTAIN VEHICLE COMBINATIONS THAT WERE OPERATED BEFORE JULY 1, 1987; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-10-124, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-10-124, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-10-124. Special permits — fee — cranes. (1) As used in this section, "crane" means a self-propelled single-unit vehicle consisting of not more than four axles and used for raising, shifting, and lowering heavy weights by means of a projecting swinging arm.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3)(b), (3)(d), and (6), in addition to the regular registration and gross vehicle weight fees, a fee of $10 for each trip permit and a fee of $75 for each term permit issued for size and weight in excess of that specified in 61-10-101 through 61-10-110 must be paid for all movements under special permits on the public highways under the jurisdiction of the department of highways.

(3) (a) Except as provided in subsections (3)(b), (3)(d), ~~and~~ (6), and (7), term or blanket permits may not be issued for an overwidth vehicle, combination of vehicles, load, or other thing in excess of 15 feet; an overlength vehicle, combination of vehicles, load, object, or other thing in excess of 95 feet; and an overheight vehicle, combination of vehicles, load, or other thing in excess of 14 feet, or of a limit determined by the department. A vehicle, combination of vehicles, load, or other thing in excess of these dimensions is limited to trip permits. Special permits for vehicle combinations of more than two trailers or more than two units designed for or used to carry a load are not permitted except as provided in ~~subsection~~ subsections (6) and (7). Special permits for vehicle combinations may specify and special permits under ~~subsection~~ subsections (6) and (7) must specify highway routing and otherwise limit or prescribe conditions of operation of the vehicle or combination, including but not limited to required equipment, speed, stability, operational procedures, and insurance.

(b) A term permit may be issued to a dealer in implements of husbandry and self-propelled machinery for an overwidth or overlength vehicle referred to in subsection (3)(a). The fee for this permit is $75. This permit covers a period of 1 year and expires on December 31 of each year with no grace period.

(c) With payment of the appropriate gross weight fee required by 61-10-203 and with payment of the fee prescribed in subsection (2), allowable gross weight of a five-axle combination logging vehicle is 80,000 pounds.

(d) A term permit may be issued for any combination of vehicles that exceeds 95 feet in length but does not exceed 100 feet in length, except a truck-trailer-trailer or a truck tractor-semitrailer-trailer-trailer combination, for travel only on highways that are part of the federal-aid interstate system, as defined in 60-1-103, or on other highways within a 2-mile radius of an interchange on the interstate system in order to obtain necessary services or to load or unload at a terminal. When a terminal is beyond a 2-mile radius, the department may authorize travel between the terminal and the interchange. The fee for this permit is $125.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (3)(b), a permit may not be issued for a period of time greater than the period for which the GVW license is valid as provided in this title, including grace periods allowed by this title. Owners of vehicles licensed in other jurisdictions may, at the discretion of the department of highways, purchase permits to expire with their registration. A license required by the state governs the issuance of a special permit.

(5) The owner or operator of a crane with a gross vehicle weight of less than 80,000 pounds may purchase a 30-day special permit for overweight if the crane has a current special mobile equipment identification plate and if the department of highways has approved the configuration of the crane through a weight analysis completed within the same calendar year. The permit is not transferable, and the fee for the permit is $200.

(6) The department may issue special permits to the operating company for a truck-trailer-trailer or truck tractor-semitrailer-trailer-trailer combination of vehicles under the following conditions:

(a) the combination may be operated only on highways that are part of the federal-aid interstate system as defined in 60-1-103 and within a 2-mile radius of an interchange on the interstate system on other highways only in order to obtain necessary services or to load or unload at a terminal. When a terminal is beyond a 2-mile radius, the department may authorize travel between the terminal and the interchange.

(b) a combination of vehicles powered by a cab-over (tilt cab) type truck-tractor or a truck may not exceed overall length of 105 feet, inclusive of front and rear bumpers and overhang;

(c) a combination of vehicles powered by a conventional truck-tractor may not exceed overall length of 110 feet, inclusive of front and rear bumpers and overhang;

(d) no individual cargo unit of the combination may exceed 28 1/2 feet in length and 102 inches in width;

(e) gross weight fees under 61-10-203 must be paid on the truck or truck tractor for the declared registered gross weight of the special vehicle combination, but not to exceed the formula in 61-10-107;

(f) the combination must have a restricted route permit under 61-10-107(3) and a special overlength permit issued at a fee of $200 for a term permit or $20 for each trip permit;

(g) travel of the combination may be restricted to specific routes, hours of operation, specific days, or seasonal periods; and

(h) the department may enforce any other restrictions determined by the department to be necessary. The permit is not transferable, and the fee for the permit is $200.

(7) The department of highways may issue special permits under subsection (6) for vehicle combinations consisting of a truck-trailer-trailer if:

(a) the vehicle combination's overall length inclusive of front and rear bumpers is not more than 95 feet;

(b) a person, firm, or corporation applying for a permit under subsection (7) operated the truck-trailer-trailer combination before July 1, 1987;

(c) truck-trailer-trailer operations are restricted to the specified routes those vehicles operated on before July 1, 1987; and

(d) a person, firm, or corporation applying for a permit provides the department of highways with an affidavit designating the routes the vehicle operated on before July 1, 1987."

Approved April 2, 1991.

(b) In addition to the penalties specified in subsection (7)(a), upon conviction or forfeiture of bond or bail, the person shall forfeit any current hunting, fishing, and trapping licenses and the privilege to hunt, fish, and trap in Montana for not less than 18 months.

(8) It is unlawful and a misdemeanor for a person to purposely or knowingly assist an unqualified applicant in obtaining a resident license in violation of this section.

~~(7)~~(9) The department may bring an action to prosecute a violation of this section within 3 years of the date of application for licensure."

Section 3. Section 87-2-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-109. Carrying and exhibiting license and identification. (1) It is unlawful for ~~any~~ a person to whom a license or permit has been issued to fish for or take any fish or pursue, hunt, shoot, kill, or take any game bird or game animal or attempt to trap, trap, or take any fur-bearing animal in this state unless ~~he~~ the person has the license, licenses, or permit in ~~his~~ the person's possession at the time.

(2) It is unlawful to refuse to exhibit a license or permit and the identification used in purchasing a license or permit for inspection to a warden or other officer requesting to see it."

Section 4. Section 87-2-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-202. Application — stamp attachment — fee — expiration. (1) A wildlife conservation license ~~shall~~ must be sold upon written application. The application ~~shall~~ must contain the applicant's name, age, occupation, place of residence, post-office address, and the qualifying length of time as a resident in the state of Montana; state whether the applicant is a citizen of the United States or an alien; and be subscribed by the applicant. The applicant shall present a valid Montana driver's license, a Montana driver's examiner's identification card, or other identification specified by the department to substantiate the required information when applying for a wildlife conservation license. It is the applicant's burden to provide documentation establishing the applicant's identity and qualifications to purchase a wildlife conservation license. It is unlawful and a misdemeanor for a license agent to sell a wildlife conservation license to an applicant who fails to produce the required identification at the time of application for licensure.

(2) Hunting, fishing, or trapping licenses in the form of tags or stamps issued to a holder of a wildlife conservation license must be affixed to or recorded on the wildlife conservation license according to ~~such~~ rules ~~as~~ the department may prescribe.

(3) Resident and nonresident wildlife conservation licenses may be purchased for a fee of $2.

(4) Licenses issued ~~shall be~~ are void after the last day of February next succeeding their issuance."

(i) a transportation system by a municipality or transportation district as provided in Title 7, chapter 14, part 2; or

(ii) municipal bus service pursuant to Title 7, chapter 14, part 44;

(m) armored motor vehicles used exclusively for the transportation of coins, currency, silver bullion, gold bullion, and other precious metals, precious stones, valuable paintings, and other items of unusual value requiring special handling and security; ~~or~~

(n) the transportation of a commodity under an agreement between a motor carrier and an office or agency of the United States government~~.~~; or

(o) the transportation of handicapped or elderly persons provided by private, nonprofit organizations. As used in this subsection:

(i) "handicapped" means an individual who has a physical or mental impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities;

(ii) "elderly" means a person 60 years of age or older; and

(iii) "private, nonprofit organization" means an organization recognized as nonprofit under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) This chapter does not prevent bona fide leases, brokerage agreements, or buy-and-sell agreements."

CHAPTER NO. 323

[SB 383]

AN ACT TO REVISE CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT; AMENDING SECTIONS 39-71-116, 39-71-117, 39-71-118, 39-71-414, 39-71-431, 39-71-2311, AND 39-71-2339, MCA; REPEALING SECTION 39-71-2338, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-71-116, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-116. Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, words and phrases employed in this chapter have the following meanings:

(1) "Administer and pay" includes all actions by the state fund under the Workers' Compensation Act and the Occupational Disease Act of Montana necessary to the investigation, review, and settlement of claims; payment of benefits; setting of reserves; furnishing of services and facilities; and utilization of actuarial, audit, accounting, vocational rehabilitation, and legal services.

(2) "Average weekly wage" means the mean weekly earnings of all employees under covered employment, as defined and established annually by the Montana department of labor and industry. It is established at the nearest whole dollar number and must be adopted by the department prior to July 1 of each year.

(3) "Beneficiary" means:

(a) a surviving spouse living with or legally entitled to be supported by the deceased at the time of injury;

(b) an unmarried child under the age of 18 years;

(c) an unmarried child under the age of 22 years who is a full-time student in an accredited school or is enrolled in an accredited apprenticeship program;

(d) an invalid child over the age of 18 years who is dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of injury;

(e) a parent who is dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of the injury (however, such a parent is a beneficiary only when no beneficiary, as defined in subsections (3)(a) through (3)(d) of this section, exists); and

(f) a brother or sister under the age of 18 years if dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of the injury (however, such a brother or sister is a beneficiary only until the age of 18 years and only when no beneficiary, as defined in subsections (3)(a) through (3)(e) of this section, exists).

(4) "Casual employment" means employment not in the usual course of trade, business, profession, or occupation of the employer.

(5) "Child" includes a posthumous child, a dependent stepchild, and a child legally adopted prior to the injury.

(6) "Days" means calendar days, unless otherwise specified.

(7) "Department" means the department of labor and industry.

(8) "Fiscal year" means the period of time between July 1 and the succeeding June 30.

(9) "Insurer" means an employer bound by compensation plan No. 1, an insurance company transacting business under compensation plan No. 2, the state fund under compensation plan No. 3, or the uninsured employers' fund provided for in part 5 of this chapter.

(10) "Invalid" means one who is physically or mentally incapacitated.

(11) "Maximum healing" means the status reached when a worker is as far restored medically as the permanent character of the work-related injury will permit.

(12) "Order" means any decision, rule, direction, requirement, or standard of the department or any other determination arrived at or decision made by the department.

(13) "Payroll", "annual payroll", or "annual payroll for the preceding year" means the average annual payroll of the employer for the preceding calendar year or, if the employer shall not have operated a sufficient or any length of time during such calendar year, 12 times the average monthly payroll for the current year. However, an estimate may be made by the department for any employer starting in business if no average payrolls are available. This estimate is to be adjusted by additional payment by the employer or refund by the department, as the case may actually be, on December 31 of such current year. An employer's payroll must be computed by calculating all wages, as defined in 39-71-123, that are paid by an employer.

(14) "Permanent partial disability" means a condition, after a worker has reached maximum healing, in which a worker:

(a) has a medically determined physical restriction as a result of an injury as defined in 39-71-119; and

(b) is able to return to work in the worker's job pool pursuant to one of the options set forth in 39-71-1012 but suffers impairment or partial wage loss, or both.

(15) "Permanent total disability" means a condition resulting from injury as defined in this chapter, after a worker reaches maximum healing, in which a worker is unable to return to work in the worker's job pool after exhausting all options set forth in 39-71-1012.

(16) The term "physician" includes "surgeon" and in either case means one authorized by law to practice his profession in this state.

(17) The "plant of the employer" includes the place of business of a third person while the employer has access to or control over such place of business for the purpose of carrying on his usual trade, business, or occupation.

(18) "Public corporation" means the state or any county, municipal corporation, school district, city, city under commission form of government or special charter, town, or village.

(19) "Reasonably safe place to work" means that the place of employment has been made as free from danger to the life or safety of the employee as the nature of the employment will reasonably permit.

(20) "Reasonably safe tools and appliances" are such tools and appliances as are adapted to and are reasonably safe for use for the particular purpose for which they are furnished.

(21) "Temporary service contractor" means any person, firm, association, or corporation conducting business that employs individuals directly for the purpose of furnishing the services of those individuals on a part-time or temporary basis to others.

~~(21)~~(22) "Temporary total disability" means a condition resulting from an injury as defined in this chapter that results in total loss of wages and exists until the injured worker reaches maximum healing.

(23) "Temporary worker" means a worker whose services are furnished to another on a part-time or temporary basis to substitute for a permanent employee on leave or to meet an emergency or short-term workload.

~~(22)~~(24) "Year", unless otherwise specified, means calendar year."

Section 2. Section 39-71-117, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-117. Employer defined. (1) "Employer" means:

~~(1)~~(a) the state and each county, city and county, city school district, irrigation district, all other districts established by law, and all public corporations and quasi-public corporations and public agencies therein and every person, every prime contractor, and every firm, voluntary association, and private corporation, including any public service corporation and including an independent contractor who has any person in service under any appointment or contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written, and the legal representative of any deceased employer or the receiver or trustee thereof; and

~~(2)~~(b) any association, corporation, or organization that seeks permission and meets the requirements set by the department by rule for a group of individual employers to operate as self-insured under plan No. 1 of this chapter.

(2) A temporary service contractor is the employer of a temporary worker for premium and loss experience purposes.

(3) An employer defined in subsection (1) who utilizes the services of a worker furnished by another person, association, contractor, firm, or corporation, other than a temporary service contractor, is presumed to be the employer for workers' compensation premium and loss experience purposes for work performed by the worker. The presumption may be rebutted by substantial credible evidence of the following:

(a) the person, association, contractor, firm, or corporation, other than a temporary service contractor, furnishing the services of a worker to another retains control over all aspects of the work performed by the worker, both at the inception of employment and during all phases of the work; and

(b) the person, association, contractor, firm, or corporation, other than a temporary service contractor, furnishing the services of a worker to another has obtained workers' compensation insurance in Montana both at the inception of employment and during all phases of the work performed for the worker.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (3), a common or contract motor carrier doing business in this state who utilizes drivers in this state is considered the employer, is liable for workers' compensation premiums, and is subject to loss experience rating in this state unless:

(a) the driver in this state is certified as an independent contractor as provided in 39-71-401(3); or

(b) the person, association, contractor, firm, or corporation furnishing drivers in this state to a motor carrier has obtained workers' compensation insurance on the drivers in Montana both at the inception of employment and during all phases of the work performed."

Section 3. Section 39-71-118, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-118. Employee, worker, and workman defined. (1) The terms "employee", "workman", or "worker" mean:

(a) each person in this state, including a contractor other than an independent contractor, who is in the service of an employer, as defined by 39-71-117, under any appointment or contract of hire, expressed or implied, oral or written. The terms include aliens and minors, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, and all of the elected and appointed paid public officers and officers and members of boards of directors of quasi-public or private corporations while rendering actual service for such corporations for pay. Casual employees as defined by 39-71-116 are included as employees if they are not otherwise covered by workers' compensation and if an employer has elected to be bound by the provisions of the compensation law for these casual employments, as provided in 39-71-401(2). Household or domestic service is excluded.

(b) a recipient of general relief who is performing work for a county of this state under the provisions of 53-3-303 through 53-3-305 and any juvenile performing work under authorization of a district court judge in a delinquency prevention or rehabilitation program;

(c) a person receiving on-the-job vocational rehabilitation training or other on-the-job training under a state or federal vocational training program, whether or not under an appointment or contract of hire with an employer as defined in this chapter and whether or not receiving payment from a third party. However, this subsection does not apply to students enrolled in vocational training programs as outlined above while they are on the premises of a public school or community college.

(d) students enrolled and in attendance in programs of vocational-technical education at designated vocational-technical centers; or

(e) an airman or other person employed as a volunteer under 67-2-105.

(2) (a) If the employer is a partnership or sole proprietorship, such employer may elect to include as an employee within the provisions of this chapter any member of such partnership or the owner of the sole proprietorship devoting full time to the partnership or proprietorship business.

(b) In the event of such election, the employer must serve upon the employer's insurer written notice naming the partners or sole proprietor to be covered and stating the level of compensation coverage desired by electing the amount of wages to be reported, subject to the limitations in subsection (2)(d). A partner or sole proprietor is not considered an employee within this chapter until such notice has been given.

(c) A change in elected wages must be in writing and is effective at the start of the next quarter following notification.

(d) All weekly compensation benefits must be based on the amount of elected wages, subject to the minimum and maximum limitations of this subsection. For premium ratemaking and for the determination of weekly wage for weekly compensation benefits, the electing employer may elect not less than $900 a month and not more than 1 ½ times the average weekly wage as defined in this chapter.

(3) An employee, workman, or worker in this state whose services are furnished by a person, association, contractor, firm, or corporation, other than a temporary service contractor, to an employer as defined in section 39-71-117 is presumed to be under the control and employment of the employer. This presumption may be rebutted as provided in 39-71-117(4).

(4) For purposes of this section, an "employee, workman, or worker in this state" means:

(a) a resident of Montana who is employed by an employer and whose employment duties are primarily carried out or controlled within this state; or

(b) a nonresident of Montana whose principal employment duties are conducted within this state on a regular basis for an employer."

Section 4. Section 39-71-414, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-414. Subrogation. (1) If an action is prosecuted as provided for in 39-71-412 or 39-71-413 and except as otherwise provided in this section, the insurer is entitled to subrogation for all compensation and benefits paid or to be paid under the Workers' Compensation Act. The insurer's right of subrogation is a first lien on the claim, judgment, or recovery.

(2) (a) If the injured employee intends to institute the third party action, he shall give the insurer reasonable notice of his intention to institute the action.

(b) The injured employee may request that the insurer pay a proportionate share of the reasonable cost of the action, including attorneys' fees.

(c) The insurer may elect not to participate in the cost of the action. If this election is made, the insurer waives 50% of its subrogation rights granted by this section.

(d) If the injured employee or the employee's personal representative institutes the action, the employee is entitled to at least one-third of the amount recovered by judgment or settlement less a proportionate share of reasonable costs, including attorneys' fees, if the amount of recovery is insufficient to provide the employee with that amount after payment of subrogation.

(3) If an injured employee refuses or fails to institute the third party action within 1 year from the date of injury, the insurer may institute the action in the name of the employee and for the employee's benefit or that of the employee's personal representative. If the insurer institutes the action, it shall pay to the employee any amount received by judgment or settlement which is in excess of the amounts paid or to be paid under the Workers' Compensation Act after the insurer's reasonable costs, including attorneys' fees for prosecuting the action, have been deducted from the recovery.

(4) An insurer may enter into compromise agreements in settlement of subrogation rights.

(5) ~~If the amount of compensation and other benefits payable under the Workers' Compensation Act have not been fully determined at the time the employee, the employee's heirs or personal representatives, or the insurer have settled in any manner the action as provided for in this section, the department shall determine what proportion of the settlement shall be allocated under subrogation. The department's determination may be ap-~~

~~pealed to the workers' compensation judge~~ Regardless of whether the amount of compensation and other benefits payable under the Workers' Compensation Act have been fully determined, the insurer and the claimant's heirs or personal representative may stipulate the proportion of the third party settlement to be allocated under subrogation. Upon review and approval by the department, the agreement constitutes a compromise settlement of the issue of subrogation and may not be reopened by the department.

(6) (a) The insurer is entitled to full subrogation rights under this section, even though the claimant is able to demonstrate damages in excess of the workers' compensation benefits and the third-party recovery combined. The insurer may subrogate against the entire settlement or award of a third party claim brought by the claimant or his personal representative, without regard to the nature of the damages.

(b) If no survival action exists and the parties reach a settlement of a wrongful death claim without apportionment of damages by a court or jury, the insurer may subrogate against the entire settlement amount, without regard to the parties' apportionment of the damages, unless the insurer is a party to the settlement agreement."

Section 5. Section 39-71-431, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-431. Assigned risk plan. (1) Following the date on which the provisions of 39-71-2311 through 39-71-2320~~,~~ and 39-71-2337~~, and 39-71-2338~~ are implemented but no later than December 31, 1990, the commissioner of the department of labor and industry may order the establishment of and administer a plan to equitably apportion among the state fund, plan No. 3, and private insurers, plan No. 2, the coverage required by this chapter for employers who are unable to procure coverage through ordinary methods. In determining whether to order an assigned risk plan to be established, the commissioner shall consider the effect a plan would have on the availability of workers' compensation insurance and the need to provide competitive workers' compensation premium rates for employers in this state. If the commissioner orders the establishment of an assigned risk plan, it may not take effect until at least 6 months following the commissioner's order creating the plan.

(2) All plan No. 2 insurers and the state fund shall subscribe to and participate in the assigned risk plan.

(3) If an insurer refuses to accept its equitable apportionment under the assigned risk plan, the commissioner of insurance may suspend or revoke the insurer's authority to issue workers' compensation insurance policies in this state.

(4) If an assigned risk plan is established and in effect, the state fund, plan No. 3, is not required to insure any employer in this state requesting coverage, and it may refuse coverage for an employer, except for a state agency.

(5) If an assigned risk plan is established and in effect, an employer who is refused the coverage required by this chapter by the state fund, plan

No. 3, and by at least two private insurers, plan No. 2, may be assigned coverage by the commissioner under the assigned risk plan pursuant to the procedure established by the commissioner for the equitable apportionment of coverage."

Section 6. Section 39-71-2311, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-2311. Intent and purpose of plan. It is the intent and purpose of the state fund to allow employers the option to insure their liability for workers' compensation and occupational disease coverage with a mutual insurance fund. The state fund is required to insure any employer in this state requesting coverage, and it may not refuse coverage for an employer unless an assigned risk plan established under 39-71-431 is in effect. The state fund must be neither more nor less than self-supporting. Premium rates must be set at least annually at a level sufficient to ensure the adequate funding of the insurance program, including the costs of administration, benefits, and adequate reserves, during and at the end of the period for which the rates will be in effect. In determining premium rates, the state fund shall make every effort to adequately predict future costs. When the costs of a factor influencing rates are unclear and difficult to predict, the state fund shall use a prediction calculated to be more than likely to cover those costs rather than less than likely to cover those costs. Unnecessary surpluses that are created by the imposition of premiums found to have been set higher than necessary because of a high estimate of the cost of a factor or factors may be refunded by the declaration of a dividend as provided in this part. For the purpose of keeping the state fund solvent, it must implement variable pricing levels within individual rate classifications to reward an employer with a good safety record and penalize an employer with a poor safety record. An employer's payroll reporting and premium history and other relevant factors may also be considered in implementing variable pricing levels."

Section 7. Section 39-71-2339, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-71-2339. Cancellation of coverage — thirty days' notice required. The state fund may cancel an employer's ~~right to operate under plan No. 3 of the Workers' Compensation Act~~ coverage under this part for failure to report payroll or pay the premiums due or for another cause provided in the insurance policy. ~~When the state fund cancels an employer's coverage, it shall notify the employer of its intent to cancel the employer at least 30 days before the cancellation becomes effective.~~ Cancellation may take effect only by written notice to the named insured at least 30 days prior to the date of cancellation or, in cases of nonreporting of payroll or nonpayment of a premium, by failure of the employer to submit payroll reports or pay a premium within 30 days after the due date. The state fund shall notify the department of the names and effective dates of all policies cancelled. However, the policy terminates on the effective date of a replacement or succeeding insurance policy issued to the insured. Nothing in this section prevents the state fund from canceling an insurance policy before a replacement policy is issued to the insured. After the cancellation date, the employer has the same status as an employer who is not enrolled under the Workers'

Compensation Act unless a replacement or succeeding insurance policy has been issued."

Section 8. Repealer. Section 39-71-2338, MCA, is repealed.

Section 9. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 2, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 324

[SB 7]

AN ACT REPLACING THE UNIFORM FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCES ACT WITH THE UNIFORM FRAUDULENT TRANSFER ACT; EXTENDING FRAUDULENT CONVEYANCE LAWS TO PERSONAL PROPERTY TRANSFERS; DEFINING TRANSFERS CONSIDERED FRAUDULENT; PROVIDING REMEDIES AND DEFENSES; PROVIDING FOR LIMITATIONS OF CAUSES OF ACTION; AMENDING SECTION 53-5-401, MCA; AND REPEALING SECTIONS 31-2-301, 31-2-302, 31-2-303, 31-2-311, 31-2-312, 31-2-313, 31-2-314, 31-2-315, 31-2-316, 31-2-317, 31-2-321, 31-2-322, 31-2-323, 31-2-324, AND 31-2-325, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1 through 11] may be cited as the "Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 11], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Affiliate" means:

(a) a person who directly or indirectly owns, controls, or holds with power to vote 20% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the debtor, other than a person who holds the securities:

(i) as a fiduciary or agent without sole discretionary power to vote the securities; or

(ii) solely to secure a debt if the person has not exercised the power to vote;

(b) a corporation 20% or more of whose outstanding voting securities are directly or indirectly owned, controlled, or held with power to vote by the debtor or a person who directly or indirectly owns, controls, or holds with power to vote 20% or more of the outstanding voting securities of the debtor, other than a person who holds the securities:

(i) as a fiduciary or agent without sole power to vote the securities; or

(ii) solely to secure a debt if the person has not exercised the power to vote;

(c) a person whose business is operated by the debtor under a lease or other agreement or a person substantially all of whose assets are controlled by the debtor; or

(d) a person who operates the debtor's business under a lease or other agreement or controls substantially all of the debtor's assets.

(2) "Asset" means property of a debtor, but the term does not include:

(a) property to the extent it is encumbered by a valid lien;

(b) property to the extent it is generally exempt under nonbankruptcy law; or

(c) an interest in property held in tenancy by the entireties to the extent it is not subject to process by a creditor holding a claim against only one tenant.

(3) "Claim" means a right to payment, whether or not the right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated, fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, legal, equitable, secured, or unsecured.

(4) "Creditor" means a person who has a claim.

(5) "Debt" means liability on a claim.

(6) "Debtor" means a person who is liable on a claim.

(7) "Insider" includes:

(a) if the debtor is an individual:

(i) a relative of the debtor or of a general partner of the debtor;

(ii) a partnership in which the debtor is a general partner;

(iii) a general partner in a partnership described in subsection (7)(a)(ii); or

(iv) a corporation of which the debtor is a director, officer, or person in control;

(b) if the debtor is a corporation:

(i) a director of the debtor;

(ii) an officer of the debtor;

(iii) a person in control of the debtor;

(iv) a partnership in which the debtor is a general partner;

(v) a general partner in a partnership described in subsection (7)(b)(iv); or

(vi) a relative of a general partner, director, officer, or person in control of the debtor;

(c) if the debtor is a partnership:

(i) a general partner in the debtor;

(ii) a relative of a general partner in, a general partner of, or a person in control of the debtor;

(iii) another partnership in which the debtor is a general partner;

(iv) a general partner in a partnership described in subsection (7)(c)(iii); or

(v) a person in control of the debtor;

(d) an affiliate or an insider of an affiliate as if the affiliate were the debtor; and

(e) a managing agent of the debtor.

(8) "Lien" means a charge against or an interest in property to secure payment of a debt or performance of an obligation and includes a security interest created by agreement, a judicial lien obtained by legal or equitable process or proceedings, a common-law lien, or a statutory lien.

(9) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, organization, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(10) "Property" means anything that may be the subject of ownership.

(11) "Relative" means:

(a) an individual related by consanguinity within the third degree as determined by the common law;

(b) a spouse or an individual related to a spouse within the third degree as so determined; or

(c) an individual in an adoptive relationship within the third degree.

(12) "Transfer" means every mode, direct or indirect, absolute or conditional, voluntary or involuntary, of disposing of or parting with an asset or an interest in an asset and includes payment of money, release, lease, and creation of a lien or other encumbrance.

(13) "Valid lien" means a lien that is effective against the holder of a judicial lien subsequently obtained by legal or equitable process or proceedings.

Section 3. Insolvency. (1) A debtor is insolvent if the sum of the debtor's debts is greater than all of the debtor's property at a fair valuation and the debtor is generally not paying his debts as they become due.

(2) Property under this section does not include property that has been transferred, concealed, or removed with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors or that has been transferred in a manner making the transfer voidable under [sections 1 through 11].

Section 4. Value. (1) Value is given for a transfer or an obligation if, in exchange for the transfer or obligation, property is transferred or an antecedent debt is secured or satisfied, but value does not include an unperformed promise made other than in the ordinary course of the promisor's business to furnish support to the debtor or another person.

(2) A transfer is made for present value if the exchange between the debtor and the transferee is intended by them to be contemporaneous and is in fact substantially contemporaneous.

Section 5. Transfers fraudulent as to present and future creditors. (1) A transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is fraudulent as to a creditor, whether the creditor's claim arose before or after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred, if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation:

(a) with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the debtor; or

(b) without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation and the debtor:

(i) was engaged or was about to engage in a business or a transaction for which the remaining assets of the debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction; or

(ii) intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that he would incur, debts beyond his ability to pay as they became due.

(2) In determining actual intent under subsection (1)(a), consideration may be given, among other factors, to whether:

(a) the transfer or obligation was to an insider;

(b) the debtor retained possession or control of the property transferred after the transfer;

(c) the transfer or obligation was disclosed or concealed;

(d) before the transfer was made or obligation was incurred, the debtor had been sued or threatened with suit;

(e) the transfer was of substantially all the debtor's assets;

(f) the debtor absconded;

(g) the debtor removed or concealed assets;

(h) the value of the consideration received by the debtor was reasonably equivalent to the value of the asset transferred or the amount of the obligation incurred;

(i) the debtor was insolvent or became insolvent shortly after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred;

(j) the transfer occurred shortly before or shortly after a substantial debt was incurred; or

(k) the debtor transferred the essential assets of the business to a lienor who transferred the assets to an insider of the debtor.

Section 6. Transfers fraudulent as to present creditors. (1) A transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is fraudulent as to a creditor whose claim arose before the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation and the debtor was insolvent at that time or the debtor became insolvent as a result of the transfer or obligation.

(2) A transfer made by a debtor is fraudulent as to a creditor whose claim arose before the transfer was made if the transfer was made to an insider for an antecedent debt, the debtor was insolvent at that time, and the insider had reasonable cause to believe that the debtor was insolvent.

Section 7. When transfer made or obligation incurred. For the purposes of [sections 1 through 11]:

(1) a transfer is made:

(a) with respect to an asset that is real property other than a fixture, but including the interest of a seller or purchaser under a contract for the sale of the asset, when the transfer is so far perfected that a good faith purchaser of the asset from the debtor against whom applicable law permits the transfer to be perfected cannot acquire an interest in the asset that is superior to the interest of the transferee; and

(b) with respect to an asset that is not real property or that is a fixture, when the transfer is so far perfected that a creditor on a simple contract cannot acquire a judicial lien otherwise than under [sections 1 through 11] that is superior to the interest of the transferee;

(2) if applicable law permits the transfer to be perfected as provided in subsection (1) and the transfer is not perfected before the commencement of an action for relief under [sections 1 through 11], the transfer is considered made immediately before the commencement of the action;

(3) if applicable law does not permit the transfer to be perfected as provided in subsection (1), the transfer is considered made when it becomes effective between the debtor and the transferee;

(4) a transfer is not made until the debtor has acquired rights in the asset transferred;

(5) an obligation is incurred:

(a) if oral, when it becomes effective between the parties; or

(b) if evidenced in writing, when the writing executed by the obligor is delivered to or for the benefit of the obligee.

Section 8. Remedies of creditors. (1) In an action for relief against a transfer or obligation under [sections 1 through 11], a creditor, subject to the limitations in [section 9], may obtain:

(a) avoidance of the transfer or obligation to the extent necessary to satisfy the creditor's claim;

(b) an attachment or other provisional remedy against the asset transferred or other property of the transferee in accordance with the procedure prescribed by Title 27, chapter 18; or

(c) subject to applicable principles of equity and in accordance with applicable rules of civil procedure:

(i) an injunction against further disposition by the debtor or a transferee, or both, of the asset transferred or of other property;

(ii) appointment of a receiver to take charge of the asset transferred or of other property of the transferee; or

(iii) any other relief the circumstances may require.

(2) If a creditor has obtained a judgment on a claim against the debtor, the creditor, if the court so orders, may levy execution on the asset transferred or its proceeds.

Section 9. Defenses, liability, and protection of transferee. (1) A transfer or obligation is not voidable under [section 5(1)(a)] against a person who took in good faith and for a reasonably equivalent value or against any subsequent transferee or obligee.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, to the extent a transfer is voidable in an action by a creditor under [section 8(1)(a)], the creditor may recover judgment for the value of the asset transferred, as adjusted under subsection (3), or the amount necessary to satisfy the creditor's claim, whichever is less. The judgment may be entered against:

(a) the first transferee of the asset or the person for whose benefit the transfer was made; or

(b) any subsequent transferee other than a good faith transferee who took for value or from any subsequent transferee.

(3) If the judgment under subsection (2) is based upon the value of the asset transferred, the judgment must be for an amount equal to the value of the asset at the time of the transfer, subject to adjustment as the equities may require.

(4) Notwithstanding voidability of a transfer or an obligation under [sections 1 through 11], a good faith transferee or obligee is entitled, to the extent of the value given the debtor for the transfer or obligation, to:

(a) a lien on or a right to retain any interest in the asset transferred;

(b) enforcement of any obligation incurred; or

(c) a reduction in the amount of the liability on the judgment.

(5) A transfer is not voidable under [sections 5(1)(b) or 6] if the transfer results from:

(a) termination of a lease upon default by the debtor when the termination is pursuant to the lease and applicable law; or

(b) enforcement of a security interest in compliance with Title 30, chapter 9.

(6) A transfer is not voidable under [section 6(2)]:

(a) to the extent the insider gave new value to or for the benefit of the debtor after the transfer was made, unless the new value was secured by a valid lien;

(b) if made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the debtor and the insider; or

(c) if made pursuant to a good faith effort to rehabilitate the debtor and the transfer secured present value given for that purpose as well as an antecedent debt of the debtor.

Section 10. Extinguishment of cause of action. A cause of action with respect to a fraudulent transfer or obligation under [sections 1 through 11] is extinguished unless action is brought under:

(1) [section 5(1)(a)] within 2 years after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred or, if later, within 1 year after the transfer or obligation was or could reasonably have been discovered by the claimant;

(2) [section 5(1)(b) or 6(1)] within 2 years after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred; or

(3) [section 6(2)] within 1 year after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred.

Section 11. Supplementary provisions. Unless displaced by the provisions of [sections 1 through 11], the principles of law and equity, including the law merchant and the law relating to principal and agent, estoppel, laches, fraud, misrepresentation, duress, coercion, mistake, insolvency, or other validating or invalidating cause, supplement its provisions.

Section 12. Uniformity of application and construction. [Sections 1 through 12] must be applied and construed to effectuate the general purpose of making uniform the law with respect to the subject of [sections 1 through 12] among states enacting it.

Section 13. Section 53-5-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-5-401. Old-age assistance recovery. (1) Upon the death of any recipient of old-age assistance, the department of social and rehabilitation services shall execute and present a claim against the estate of ~~such~~ the person within the time specified in the published notice to creditors in the estate matter for the total amount of assistance paid under Chapter 82, Laws of 1937, as amended. ~~No~~ A claim ~~shall~~ may not be enforced against any real estate of a recipient while it is occupied by the surviving spouse or dependent as a home.

(2) Every transfer of property made by deed, grant, bargain, sale, or gift by any recipient of old-age assistance and recorded subsequent to his having received such assistance ~~shall be~~ is presumed to have been made without ~~fair consideration~~ value, as the term ~~"fair consideration"~~ "value" is defined by ~~31-2-303~~ [section 4], and with the intent to defeat the purposes of this section. These presumptions are disputable and may be controverted by competent evidence.

(3) If the federal law so requires, the federal government ~~shall be~~ is entitled to a share of any amounts collected from recipients or their estates in proportion to the amount ~~which~~ that it has contributed to the grants recovered, and the amount due the United States ~~shall~~ must be promptly paid by the state to the United States government. The remaining portion of the amount collected ~~shall~~ must be distributed to the state and county in proportion to the total amount paid by each."

Section 14. Repealer. Sections 31-2-301, 31-2-302, 31-2-303, 31-2-311, 31-2-312, 31-2-313, 31-2-314, 31-2-315, 31-2-316, 31-2-317, 31-2-321, 31-2-322, 31-2-323, 31-2-324, and 31-2-325, MCA, are repealed.

Section 15. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 through 12] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 31, chapter 2, part 3, and the provisions of Title 31, chapter 2, part 3, apply to [sections 1 through 12].

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 325

[SB 84]

AN ACT TO PROHIBIT A PERSON EMPLOYED OR ENGAGED BY A SCHOOL DISTRICT FROM INFLICTING CORPORAL PUNISHMENT ON A PUPIL; TO DEFINE CORPORAL PUNISHMENT OF PUPILS; TO CLARIFY SITUATIONS IN WHICH A PERSON WHO IS EMPLOYED OR ENGAGED BY A SCHOOL DISTRICT MAY USE PHYSICAL RESTRAINT ON A PUPIL; TO PROVIDE A FINE FOR UNREASONABLE

OR UNNECESSARY PHYSICAL RESTRAINT; TO PROVIDE AN AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE; AMENDING SECTION 20-4-302, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-4-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-4-302. ~~Power of teacher or principal over pupils — undue~~ Discipline and punishment *of pupils — definition of corporal punishment — penalty — defense. (1) ~~Any~~ A teacher or principal ~~shall have~~ has the authority to hold ~~any~~ a pupil to a strict accountability for ~~any~~ disorderly conduct in school, on the way to or from school, or during intermission or recess. ~~Whenever a principal shall deem it necessary to inflict corporal punishment in order to maintain orderly conduct of a pupil, he shall administer such corporal punishment without undue anger and only in the presence of a witness. Before any corporal punishment is administered, the parent or guardian shall be notified of the principal's intention to so punish his child; except that in cases of open and flagrant defiance of the teacher, principal, or of the authority of the school, the teacher or principal may administer corporal punishment without giving such notice.~~

(2) For the purposes of this section, "corporal punishment" means knowingly and purposely inflicting physical pain on a pupil as a disciplinary measure.

(3) A person who is employed or engaged by a school district may not inflict or cause to be inflicted corporal punishment on a pupil.

(4) (a) A person who is employed or engaged by a school district may use physical restraint, defined as the placing of hands on a pupil in a manner that is reasonable and necessary to:

(i) quell a disturbance;

(ii) provide self-protection;

(iii) protect the pupil or others from physical injury;

(iv) obtain possession of a weapon or other dangerous object on the person of the pupil or within control of the pupil;

(v) maintain the orderly conduct of a pupil including but not limited to relocating a pupil in a waiting line, classroom, lunchroom, principal's office, or other on-campus facility; or

(vi) protect property from serious harm.

(b) Physical pain resulting from the use of physical restraint as defined in subsection (4)(a) does not constitute corporal punishment as long as the restraint is reasonable and necessary.

~~(2)~~(5) ~~Any~~ A teacher in a district ~~not~~ employing neither a district superintendent ~~or~~ nor a principal ~~of~~ at the school where the teacher is assigned ~~shall have~~ has the authority to suspend a pupil for good cause ~~and to administer corporal punishment in the presence of a witness, without undue anger~~. ~~Where~~ When either a district superintendent or a school principal is employed, only the superintendent or principal ~~shall have~~ has the authority to suspend a pupil for good cause. Whenever a teacher suspends a pupil, ~~he~~ the teacher shall notify the trustees and the county superintendent immediately of ~~such~~ the action.

~~(3)~~(6) ~~It shall be the duty of any~~ A teacher has the duty to report the truancy or incorrigibility of ~~any~~ a pupil to the district superintendent, the principal, ~~or~~ the trustees, or the county superintendent, whichever is applicable.

~~(4)~~(7) ~~Any teacher or principal who shall maltreat or abuse any pupil by administering any undue or severe punishment shall be deemed~~ If a person who is employed or engaged by a school district uses corporal punishment or more physical restraint than is reasonable or necessary, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction of ~~such~~ the misdemeanor by a court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined not less than $25 or more than ~~$100~~ $500.

(8) A person named as a defendant in an action brought under this section may assert as an affirmative defense that the use of physical restraint was reasonable or necessary. If that defense is denied by the person bringing the charge, the issue of whether the restraint used was reasonable or necessary must be determined by the trier of fact."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 327

[SB 132]

AN ACT ALLOWING A MOTOR VEHICLE TO DRAW NOT MORE THAN THREE VEHICLES ATTACHED BY THE TRIPLE SADDLE-MOUNT METHOD UP TO 75 FEET IN OVERALL LENGTH; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-10-104, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-10-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-10-104. Length. (1) A single truck, bus, or any self-propelled vehicle, unladen or with load, may not have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, in excess of 40 feet.

(2) (a) When used in a truck tractor-semitrailer combination, the semitrailer may not exceed 53 feet in length, excluding those portions not designed to carry a load, except as provided by 61-10-124. When used in a truck tractor-semitrailer-trailer or a truck tractor-semitrailer-semitrailer combination, the semitrailer and trailer or the two semitrailers may not exceed 28 ½ feet each in length, excluding those portions not designed to carry a load, except as provided by 61-10-124. Truck tractor-semitrailer, truck tractor-semitrailer-trailer, and truck tractor-semitrailer-semitrailer combinations are not subject to an overall combination length limit.

(b) A stinger-steered automobile or boat transporter may not exceed 75 feet in length plus a maximum 3 feet of front overhang and 4 feet of rear overhang, except as provided by 61-10-124. "Stinger-steered automobile or boat transporter" means a truck tractor-semitrailer combination that has a fifth wheel on a drop frame located behind and below the rear axle of the truck tractor and that is designed and used for the transportation of vehicles or assembled boats or boat hulls.

(c) All other combinations of vehicles may not have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, in excess of 75 feet, except as provided by 61-10-124. If the combination consists of more than two units, the rear units of the combination ~~shall~~ must be equipped with breakaway brakes.

(3) A motor vehicle may not tow more than one motor vehicle, and a motor vehicle may not draw more than three motor vehicles attached to it by the triple saddle-mount method (that is, by mounting the front wheels of one vehicle on the bed of another, leaving only the rear wheels of the vehicle in contact with the roadway), nor may this combination have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, in excess of ~~65~~ 75 feet.

(4) A passenger vehicle or truck of less than 2,000 pounds "manufacturers' rated capacity" may not tow more than one trailer or semitrailer, nor may this combination have an overall length, inclusive of front and rear bumpers, in excess of 65 feet."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 328

[SB 198]

AN ACT AMENDING THE DISCRIMINATION LAWS TO CORRECT AN INCORRECT CITATION TO FEDERAL LAW; AMENDING SECTION 49-2-305, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

WHEREAS, section 49-2-305, MCA, of the Human Rights Act prohibits discrimination in housing; and

WHEREAS, that section exempts "housing for older persons" from the prohibitions against discrimination in housing based upon age and familial status; and

WHEREAS, the definition of "housing for older persons" refers to 42 U.S.C. 3605(b)(2)(C) and (3) of the federal Fair Housing Act; and

WHEREAS, this citation is incorrect and should read 42 U.S.C. 3607(b)(2)(C) and (3), which define "housing for older persons" under federal law.

THEREFORE, it is appropriate for the Legislature to amend section 49-2-305, MCA, to correct this citation error.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 49-2-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"49-2-305. Discrimination in housing — exemptions. (1) Except when the distinction is based on reasonable grounds, it is an unlawful discriminatory practice for the owner, lessee, manager, or other person having the right to sell, lease, or rent a housing accommodation or improved or unimproved property:

(a) to refuse to sell, lease, or rent the housing accommodation or property to a person because of sex, race, creed, religion, color, age, familial status, physical or mental handicap, or national origin;

(b) to discriminate against a person because of sex, race, creed, religion, age, familial status, physical or mental handicap, color, or national origin in a term, condition, or privilege relating to the use, sale, lease, or rental of the housing accommodation or property;

(c) to make a written or oral inquiry or record of the sex, race, creed, religion, age, physical or mental handicap, color, or national origin of a person seeking to buy, lease, or rent the housing accommodation or property; or

(d) to refuse to negotiate for a sale or to make a housing accommodation or property unavailable because of sex, race, creed, religion, age, familial status, physical or mental handicap, color, or national origin.

(2) A private residence designed for single-family occupancy in which sleeping space is rented to guests and in which the landlord also resides is excluded from the provisions of subsection (1).

(3) It is also an unlawful discriminatory practice to make, print, or publish or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice, statement, or advertisement that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination that is prohibited by subsection (1) or any intention to make or have such a preference, limitation, or discrimination.

(4) The prohibitions of this section against discrimination because of age and familial status do not extend to housing for older persons. "Housing for older persons" means housing:

(a) provided under any state or federal program specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons;

(b) intended for, and solely occupied by, persons 62 years of age or older; or

(c) intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit in accordance with the provisions of 42 U.S.C. ~~3605(b)(2)(C) and (3)~~3607(b)(2)(C) and (3) and 24 C.F.R. 100.304, as those sections read on October 1, 1989.

(5) The prohibitions of this section against discrimination because of age and familial status do not extend to rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than two families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of the living quarters as his residence.

(6) For purposes of this section, "familial status" means having a child or children who live or will live with a person. A distinction based on familial status includes one that is based on the age of a child or children who live or will live with a person."

Section 2. Retroactive applicability. [This act] applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to causes of action arising on or after October 1, 1989.

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 329

[SB 239]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING AS FELONIES THE SALE OF UNLAWFULLY TAKEN WILDLIFE AND THE POSSESSION OF UNLAW-

FULLY TAKEN WILDLIFE HAVING A VALUE OF MORE THAN $1,000; REVISING THE RESTITUTION PENALTIES FOR THE ILLEGAL KILLING OR POSSESSION OF CERTAIN WILDLIFE; DEFINING "LAWFULLY TAKEN WILDLIFE" AND "UNLAWFULLY TAKEN WILDLIFE"; AMENDING SECTIONS 87-1-111 AND 87-3-111, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions of lawfully taken wildlife and unlawfully taken wildlife. As used in [section 2] and this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Lawfully taken wildlife" means wildlife, as defined in 87-5-102, that is taken or possessed by hunting, fishing, or trapping in conformance with this title and the regulations adopted by the commission and the department under authority of this title.

(2) "Unlawfully taken wildlife" means wildlife that is not lawfully taken wildlife.

Section 2. Sale or possession of unlawfully taken wildlife — penalty. (1) A person commits the offense of sale of unlawfully taken wildlife if he purposely or knowingly sells, barters, purchases, or exchanges for anything of value or if he offers to sell, barter, purchase, or exchange for anything of value, unlawfully taken wildlife.

(2) A person commits the offense of possession of unlawfully taken wildlife having a value of more than $1,000 if he purposely or knowingly has actual or constructive possession of or transports or causes to be transported unlawfully taken wildlife having a value of more than $1,000. The value of the unlawfully taken wildlife must be determined from the schedule of restitution values set out in 87-1-111.

(3) A person who violates this section is guilty of a felony and upon conviction shall be fined not more than $50,000 or be imprisoned in the state prison for a term not to exceed 5 years, or both. In addition, a person convicted under this section or who pleads guilty to a violation of this section shall lose all hunting, fishing, and trapping permits and license privileges for a minimum of 3 years or up to a maximum of a lifetime revocation from the date of conviction.

Section 3. Section 87-3-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-3-111. (Temporary) Unlawful to buy, sell, possess, or transport fish or game — exceptions — penalties. (1) It is unlawful for any person to purchase, sell, offer to sell, possess, ship, or transport any game fish, game bird, migratory game bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal or part thereof protected by the laws of this state, whether belonging to the same or different species from that native to the state of Montana, except as specifically permitted by the laws of this state.

(2) The provisions of this section do not prohibit:

(a) the possession or transportation within the state of any legally taken fish, game bird, migratory game bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal or part thereof;

(b) the sale, purchase, or transportation of hides, heads, or mounts of lawfully killed game birds, game fish, fur-bearing animals, or game animals, except that the sale or purchase of a hide, head, or mount of a grizzly bear is prohibited, except as provided in 87-3-110; or

(c) the donation and sale of paddlefish roe as caviar under the provisions of 87-4-601.

(3) ~~Except as provided in subsection (4), any~~ Any person violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as provided ~~by law~~ in 87-1-102.

~~(4) Any person engaging in the activities prohibited in subsection (1) in furtherance of a scheme to traffic in the body parts of unlawfully taken species is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by a fine of $10,000 or imprisonment in the state prison for a term of 1 year, or both.~~ (Terminates June 30, 1993—sec. 5, Ch. 409, L. 1989.)

87-3-111. (Effective July 1, 1993) Unlawful to buy, sell, possess, or transport fish or game — exceptions — penalties. (1) It is ~~hereby made~~ unlawful for any person to purchase, sell, offer to sell, possess, ship, or transport any game fish, game bird, migratory game bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal or part thereof protected by the laws of this state, whether belonging to the same or different species from that native to the state of Montana, except as specifically permitted by the laws of this state.

(2) The provisions of this section shall not prohibit:

(a) the possession or transportation within the state of any legally taken fish, game bird, migratory game bird, game animal, or fur-bearing animal or part thereof; or

(b) the sale, purchase, or transportation of hides, heads, or mounts of lawfully killed game birds, game fish, fur-bearing animals, or game animals, except that the sale or purchase of a hide, head, or mount of a grizzly bear is prohibited, except as provided in 87-3-110.

(3) ~~Except as provided in subsection (4), any~~ Any person violating any of the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction ~~thereof~~ shall be punished as provided ~~by law~~ in 87-1-102.

~~(4) Any person engaging in the activities prohibited in subsection (1) in furtherance of a scheme to traffic in the body parts of unlawfully taken species is guilty of a felony and shall be punished by a fine of $10,000 or imprisonment in the state prison for a term of 1 year, or both.~~"

Section 4. Section 87-1-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-1-111. (Temporary) Restitution for illegal killing or possession of certain wildlife. (1) In addition to other penalties provided by law, a person convicted or forfeiting bond or bail upon a charge of the illegal killing or possession of a wild bird, mammal, or fish listed in this section shall reimburse the state for each such bird, mammal, or fish according to the following schedule:

(a) bighorn sheep, ~~mountain goat, caribou, buffalo,~~ grizzly bear, ~~moose,~~ and endangered species, ~~$1,000~~ $2,000;

(b) elk, mountain goat, caribou, bald eagle, and moose, $1,000;

[SB 329]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF HIGHWAYS TO ISSUE SOFT BODY ARMOR TO EMPLOYEES UPON APPOINTMENT AS PEACE OFFICERS; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-12-204, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-12-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-12-204. Identification badge and uniform — safety equipment. (1) Employees of the department engaged in the enforcement of this part shall wear and prominently display an identification badge or device with the employee's name and title shown on the identification badge or device. The department may authorize uniform dress for department employees engaged in such enforcement.

(2) The department may issue soft body armor to an employee engaged in the enforcement of this part upon request of the employee after the employee's appointment as a peace officer."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 334

[SB 398]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT A MINOR CONVICTED OF UNLAWFUL POSSESSION OF AN INTOXICATING SUBSTANCE MAY BE SENTENCED TO PERFORM COURT-ORDERED COMMUNITY SERVICE; AND AMENDING SECTION 45-5-624, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 45-5-624, MCA, is amended to read:

"45-5-624. Unlawful possession of an intoxicating substance — interference with sentence or court order. (1) (a) A person under the age of 19 years commits the offense of possession of an intoxicating substance if he knowingly consumes or has in his possession an intoxicating substance. The person need not be consuming or in possession of the intoxicating substance at the time of his arrest to violate this subsection.

(b) A person under the age of 21 commits the offense of possession of an intoxicating substance if he knowingly has in his possession an alcoholic beverage, except as provided in 16-6-305 and except that he does not commit the offense if he consumes or gains possession of the beverage because it was lawfully supplied to him under 16-6-305 or when in the course of his employment it is necessary to possess alcoholic beverages.

(2) A person convicted of the offense of possession of an intoxicating substance shall:

(a) if the person:

(i) is less than 18 years of age, be fined not to exceed $50; or

(ii) is 18 years or older, be fined an amount not to exceed $50 for a first offense, $100 for a second offense, and $200 for a third offense; for a fourth or subsequent offense a person may be fined an amount not to exceed $300 or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 6 months, or both; and

(b) be ordered to complete and pay, either directly with money or indirectly through court-ordered community service, all costs of his participation in a community-based substance abuse information course;

(c) have his driver's license confiscated by the court for not more than 90 days and be ordered not to drive during that period if he was driving or otherwise in actual physical control of a motor vehicle when the offense occurred; ~~or~~

(d) be ordered to perform community service; or

~~(d)~~(e) be sentenced to any combination of these penalties.

(3) A defendant who fails to comply with a sentence and is under 21 years of age and was under 18 years of age when he failed to comply must be transferred to the youth court. If proceedings for violation of subsection (1) are held in the youth court, the penalties in subsection (2) do not apply. If proceedings for violation of subsection (1) or for failure to comply with a sentence are held in the youth court, the offender shall be treated as an alleged youth in need of supervision as defined in 41-5-103. The youth court may enter its judgment under 41-5-523.

(4) A person commits the offense of interference with a sentence or court order if he purposely or knowingly causes his child or ward to fail to comply with a sentence imposed under this section or a youth court disposition order for a youth found to have violated this section and upon conviction shall be fined $100 or imprisoned in the county jail for 10 days, or both."

Section 2. Coordination instruction. If House Bill No. 668 is passed and approved, then the amendment in [this act] must be codified both as 45-5-624(2)(a)(iii) and 45-5-624(2)(b)(iii) and relate both to persons less than 18 years of age and persons 18 years of age or older.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 335

[SB 402]

AN ACT REQUIRING THE MONTANA MEMBERS OF THE PACIFIC NORTHWEST ELECTRIC POWER AND CONSERVATION PLANNING COUNCIL TO HOLD AT LEAST ONE PUBLIC HEARING IN A GEOGRAPHIC AREA AFFECTED BY THE PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF MAJOR RESOURCES FROM THAT AREA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Council members to hold public hearings in areas affected by acquisition of major resources. (1) Whenever the northwest conservation and electric power plan or any amendment to the plan calls for the acquisition of major resources, as defined in 16 U.S.C.A. 839a, from an area of Montana east of the continental divide, the Montana council members shall hold at least one public hearing in the geographic area from which the major resources are proposed to be acquired and that will be affected by the proposed acquisition.

(2) The Montana council members shall request the participation of the other members of the council in conducting the public hearing required under subsection (1).

(3) The Montana council members shall give notice in a newspaper of general circulation in the area affected by the proposed acquisition of major resources at least 2 weeks before the public hearing required by subsection (1). The public hearing must be held at least 30 days before any final decision is made to incorporate into the plan the acquisition of major resources from the affected area.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 90, chapter 4, part 4, and the provisions of Title 90, chapter 4, part 4, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 336

[SB 449]

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT WARDENS OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FISH, WILDLIFE, AND PARKS HAVE AUTHORITY TO ENFORCE STATUTES AND RULES RELATING TO THE REGULATION OF OUTFITTERS AND GUIDES IN THE STATE; AMENDING SECTION 87-1-506, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, under the provisions of section 37-47-306, MCA, fees collected by the Board of Outfitters may be used for investigation of license applicants, administrative costs, and enforcement of statutes and rules related to outfitters and guides; and

WHEREAS, wardens of the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks have authority under section 37-47-345, MCA, to enforce violations of Title 37, chapter 47, MCA, relating to outfitters and guides, and this authority should be clearly provided in Title 87, MCA; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature intends that costs to the Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks related to enforcement of Title 37, chapter 47, MCA, by wardens of the Department be funded from the fees that are collected by the Board of Outfitters and transferred to the Department through memorandums of understanding or other agreements.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-1-506, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-1-506. Enforcement powers of wardens. A warden may:

(1) serve a subpoena issued by a court for the trial of a violator of the fish and game laws;

(2) search, without a warrant, any tent not used as a residence, any boat, vehicle, box, locker, basket, creel, crate, game bag, or package or their contents upon probable cause to believe that any fish and game law or department rule for the protection, conservation, or propagation of game, fish, birds, or fur-bearing animals has been violated;

(3) search, with a search warrant, any dwelling house or other building;

(4) seize game, fish, game birds, and fur-bearing animals and any parts of them taken or possessed in violation of the law or the rules of the department;

(5) seize and hold, subject to law or the orders of the department, devices which have been used to unlawfully take game, fish, birds, or fur-bearing animals;

(6) arrest, in accordance with Title 46, chapter 6, a violator of a fish and game law or rule of the department, violation of which is a misdemeanor;

(7) enforce the disorderly conduct and public nuisance laws (45-8-101 and 45-8-111) as they apply to the operation of motorboats on all waters of the state;

(8) as provided for in 37-47-345, investigate and make arrests for violations of the provisions of Title 37, chapter 47, and of any rules adopted pursuant to that chapter relating to the regulation of outfitters and guides in the state; and

~~(8)~~(9) exercise the other powers of peace officers in the enforcement of the fish and game laws, the rules of the department, and judgments obtained for violation of those laws or rules."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 337

[HB 65]

AN ACT MAKING NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER THE 11TH AND 12TH REGISTRATION PERIODS FOR MOTOR VEHICLES; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-3-314, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-3-314, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-3-314. Registration period. (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this title regarding the registration of motor vehicles, ~~commencing January 1, 1976, all vehicles~~ each vehicle subject to the provisions of 61-3-313 through 61-3-316 ~~shall~~ must be registered for a 12-month

Section 2. Saving clause. [This act] does not affect the dates of reregistration under 61-3-313 through 61-3-316 of motor vehicles that before January 1, 1992, were subject to reregistration in January, the 1st period, and in October, the 10th period.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 338

[HB 117]

AN ACT ALLOWING A FUNERAL PROCESSION THE RIGHT-OF-WAY THROUGH STREET AND HIGHWAY INTERSECTIONS; REGULATING THE CONDUCT OF A FUNERAL PROCESSION; PROVIDING THAT AN OPERATOR OF A VEHICLE IN A FUNERAL PROCESSION IS NOT NEGLIGENT IF HE FOLLOWS THE REQUIREMENTS OF

THIS ACT; PROVIDING THAT NEGLIGENCE MAY NOT BE IMPUTED TO A FUNERAL DIRECTOR OR MORTICIAN IF NO NEGLIGENCE EXISTS ON THE PART OF THE OPERATOR OF A VEHICLE IN A FUNERAL PROCESSION; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-8-201, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-8-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-201. Obedience to traffic-control devices — *exception for emergency vehicles and funeral processions. (1) The driver of ~~any~~ a vehicle shall obey the instructions of ~~any~~ an official traffic-control device applicable ~~thereto~~ to his vehicle and placed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter unless otherwise directed by a highway patrol officer or police officer, subject to the exceptions granted in this chapter to the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle ~~in this chapter~~ and to the driver of a motor vehicle in a funeral procession.

(2) ~~No~~ A provision of this chapter for which signs are required ~~shall~~ may not be enforced against an alleged violator if at the time and place of the alleged violation an official sign is not in proper position and sufficiently legible to be seen by an ordinarily observant person. Whenever a particular section does not state the signs are required, ~~such~~ the section ~~shall be~~ is effective even though no signs are erected or in place."

Section 2. Funeral escort vehicle. "Funeral escort vehicle" means a motor vehicle properly equipped pursuant to [section 6].

Section 3. Funeral lead vehicle. "Funeral lead vehicle" means a motor vehicle, including a funeral hearse, properly equipped pursuant to [section 6] leading and facilitating the movement of a funeral procession.

Section 4. Funeral procession. "Funeral procession" means two or more motor vehicles, one of which is carrying the remains of a deceased person, in the daylight hours, including a funeral lead vehicle and a funeral escort vehicle.

Section 5. Funeral procession right-of-way — funeral lead vehicle and funeral escort vehicle in funeral procession. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), pedestrians and operators of motor vehicles shall yield the right-of-way to a motor vehicle that is part of a funeral procession being led by a funeral lead vehicle or a funeral escort vehicle.

(2) After a funeral lead vehicle enters an intersection, the other vehicles in the funeral procession may continue to follow the funeral lead vehicle through the intersection despite any official traffic-control device, right-of-way provisions of this chapter, or local ordinance if the operator exercises reasonable care toward any other vehicle or pedestrian. When the funeral lead vehicle arrives at an intersection, it must comply with the requirements of any official traffic-control device, right-of-way provision of this chapter, and local ordinance.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), a driver of a funeral escort vehicle may direct the drivers of other vehicles in a funeral procession to proceed through an intersection or to make turns or other movements despite any official traffic-control device. The driver of a funeral escort vehicle may direct and control the drivers of vehicles not in a funeral procession, including those in or approaching an intersection, to stop, proceed, or make turns or other movements without regard to an official traffic-control device. Persons directing traffic shall comply with the provisions of 61-1-411. However, use of a funeral escort vehicle is not required.

(4) A vehicle in a funeral procession has the right-of-way at intersections regardless of official traffic-control devices provided the driver of that vehicle and the drivers of all vehicles in the funeral procession meet all the requirements of [sections 2 through 8], except that an operator of a vehicle in a funeral procession shall yield the right-of-way to an approaching authorized emergency vehicle giving an audible or visual signal or when directed to do so by a highway patrol officer or police officer. This section does not relieve the driver of a vehicle in a funeral procession from the duty to drive with due regard for the safety of all persons using the highway.

Section 6. Equipment required for funeral vehicle — restricted light use. (1) A funeral escort vehicle or a funeral lead vehicle must be equipped with at least one lighted rotating or oscillating lamp exhibiting an amber light or lens visible under normal atmospheric conditions for a distance of 500 feet from the front of the vehicle.

(2) A funeral escort vehicle or a funeral lead vehicle may illuminate a rotating or oscillating amber light only when the vehicle is in use in a funeral procession.

Section 7. Driving in funeral procession. (1) A vehicle in a funeral procession shall follow the preceding vehicle in the funeral procession as closely as is practicable and safe.

(2) An ordinance, law, or regulation requiring that motor vehicles be operated to allow sufficient space between them to enable another vehicle to enter and occupy that space without danger does not apply to vehicles in a funeral procession.

(3) The driver of a motor vehicle in a funeral procession may not drive the vehicle at a speed greater than:

(a) 55 miles per hour on a highway where the posted speed limit is 55 miles per hour or more; or

(b) 5 miles per hour below the posted speed limit on other streets or roads.

(4) A vehicle being operated in a funeral procession must have its headlights and taillights illuminated.

(5) The turn signals must be flashing simultaneously as warning lights on a vehicle that:

(a) is the first vehicle in a funeral procession; or

(b) the driver has reason to believe is the last vehicle in a funeral procession.

Section 8. Vehicles not in funeral procession. The driver of a vehicle that is not part of a funeral procession may not:

(1) drive between the vehicles forming a funeral procession while they are in motion except when:

(a) authorized to do so by a police officer; or

(b) driving an authorized emergency vehicle emitting an audible or visible signal;

(2) join a funeral procession to secure the right-of-way granted by [section 5];

(3) pass a funeral procession on a multiple-lane highway on the funeral procession's right side unless the funeral procession is in the farthest left lane;

(4) enter an intersection, even if the driver is facing a green traffic-control signal, when a funeral procession being conducted in compliance with [sections 2 through 8] is proceeding through a red traffic-control signal at that intersection as permitted by [section 5] unless the driver can do so without crossing the path of the funeral procession. If the red signal changes to green while the funeral procession is within the intersection, the driver of a vehicle facing a green signal may proceed subject to the right-of-way of a vehicle participating in a funeral procession.

Section 9. Liability. The operator of a vehicle in a funeral procession, including a lead vehicle or an escort vehicle, is not negligent if he operates the vehicle in accordance with the requirements of [sections 2 through 8]. When no negligence exists on the part of the operator of a vehicle in a funeral procession, none may be imputed to the funeral director or mortician organizing the procession, to the agent of the funeral director or mortician, or to a member of a local law enforcement agency acting as the agent, with or without compensation, of the funeral director or mortician.

Section 10. Codification instruction. (1) [Sections 2 through 4] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 1, part 4, and the provisions of Title 61, chapter 1, part 4, apply to [sections 2 through 4].

(2) [Sections 5 through 9] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 8, part 3, and the provisions of Title 61, chapter 8, part 3, apply to [sections 5 through 9].

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 339

[HB 164]

AN ACT TO EXEMPT THE DEPARTMENT OF FISH, WILDLIFE, AND PARKS FROM THE REQUIREMENTS FOR DEPOSIT OF CERTAIN MONEY WITH THE STATE TREASURER; AMENDING SECTIONS 17-6-105, 23-1-105, AND 87-1-601, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 17-6-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-6-105. State treasurer as treasurer of state agencies — deposits of money. (1) The state treasurer is designated the treasurer of every state agency and institution.

(2) All state agencies and institutions shall deposit all money, credits, evidences of indebtedness, and securities either:

(a) in banks, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, or credit unions located in the city or town in which the agencies and institutions are situated, if there is a qualified bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association, or credit union in the city or town as designated by the state treasurer with the approval of the board of investments; or

(b) with the state treasurer.

(3) ~~Such~~ Each bank, building and loan association, savings and loan association, or credit union shall pledge securities sufficient to cover 50% of the deposits at all times.

(4) The deposits ~~shall~~ must be made in the name of the state treasurer, ~~shall~~ must be subject to withdrawal at his option, and ~~shall~~ must draw interest as other state money, in accordance with the provisions of this part.

(5) Nothing in this chapter shall impair or otherwise affect any covenant entered into pursuant to law by any agency or institution respecting the segregation, deposit, and investment of any revenues or funds pledged for the payment and security of bonds or other obligations authorized to be issued by ~~such~~ the agency, and all ~~such~~ the funds ~~shall~~ must be deposited and invested in accordance with ~~such~~ the covenants notwithstanding any provision of this chapter.

(6) ~~All~~ Except as otherwise provided by law, all money, credits, evidences of indebtedness, and securities received by a state agency or institution ~~shall~~ must be deposited either with the state treasurer or in a depository approved by the state treasurer each day when the accumulated amount of coin and currency requiring deposit exceeds $100 or total collections exceed $500. All money, credits, evidences of indebtedness, and securities collected ~~shall~~ must be deposited at least weekly.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of state law, when it is determined to be in the best financial interest of the state, the department may require any money received or collected by any agency of the state to be immediately deposited to the credit of the state treasurer."

Section 2. Section 23-1-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-1-105. Fees and charges. (1) The department shall have power to levy and collect reasonable fees or other charges for the use of privileges and conveniences as may be provided and to grant concessions as it considers advisable, except as provided in subsection (2). All money derived from the activities of the department ~~shall~~ must be deposited in the state treasury in a state special revenue fund to the credit of the department.

(2) Overnight camping fees established by the department under subsection (1) must be discounted 50% for a campsite rented by a person who is a resident of Montana as defined in 87-2-102 and either 62 years of age or older or certified as disabled in accordance with rules adopted by the department.

(3) Money received from the collection of fees and charges is not subject to the deposit requirements of 17-6-105. The department shall deposit money collected under this section within a reasonable time after receipt."

Section 3. Section 87-1-601, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-1-601. Use of fish and game money. (1) All money collected or received from the sale of hunting and fishing licenses or permits, from the sale of seized game or hides, or from damages collected for violations of the fish and game laws of this state, from appropriations, or received by the department from any other state source ~~shall~~ must be turned over to the state treasurer and placed by him in the state special revenue fund to the credit of the department. Any money received from federal sources ~~shall~~ must be deposited in the federal special revenue fund to the credit of the department.

(2) That money ~~shall~~ must be exclusively set apart and made available for the payment of all salaries, per diem, fees, expenses, and expenditures authorized to be made by the department under the terms of this title. That money ~~shall~~ must be spent for those purposes by the department, subject to appropriation by the legislature.

(3) Any reference to the fish and game fund in this code means fish and game money in the state special revenue fund and the federal special revenue fund.

(4) All money collected or received from fines and forfeited bonds, except money collected or received by a justice's court, relating to violations of state fish and game laws under Title 87 ~~shall~~ must be deposited by the state treasurer and credited to the department of fish, wildlife, and parks in a state special revenue fund account for this purpose. Out of any fine imposed by a court for the violation of the fish and game laws, the costs of prosecution ~~shall~~ must be paid to the county where the trial was held in any case where the fine is not imposed in addition to the costs of prosecution.

(5) Money received by the department from the sale of surplus real property; exploration or development of oil, gas, or mineral deposits from lands acquired by the department except royalties or other compensation based on production; and from leases of interests in department real property not contemplated at the time of acquisition ~~shall~~ must be deposited in an account within the nonexpendable trust fund of the state treasury. The interest derived ~~therefrom~~ from the fund, but not the principal, may be used only for the purpose of operation, development, and maintenance of real property of the department, and only upon appropriation by the legislature. If the use of money as set forth ~~herein~~ in this section would result in violation of applicable federal laws or state statutes specifically naming the department or money received by the department, then the use of this money must be limited in the manner, method, and amount to those uses that do not result in ~~such~~ a violation.

(6) Money received from the collection of license drawing applications is not subject to the deposit requirements of 17-6-105. The department shall deposit license drawing application money within a reasonable time after receipt."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 340

[HB 174]

AN ACT TO EXEMPT CERTAIN SEASONAL RULES ADOPTED BIENNIALLY BY THE DEPARTMENT OF FISH, WILDLIFE, AND PARKS FROM THE PROVISIONS OF THE MONTANA ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE ACT; AMENDING SECTION 2-4-102, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-4-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-4-102. Definitions. For purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Administrative code committee" or "committee" means the committee provided for in Title 5, chapter 14.

(2) (a) "Agency" means ~~any~~ an agency, as defined in 2-3-102, of the state government, except that the provisions of this chapter do not apply to the following:

(i) the state board of pardons, except that the board ~~shall be~~ is subject to the requirements of 2-4-103, 2-4-201, 2-4-202, and 2-4-306 and its rules ~~shall~~ must be published in the ~~administrative rules~~ Administrative Rules of Montana and the Montana ~~administrative register~~ Administrative Register;

(ii) the supervision and administration of ~~any~~ a penal institution with regard to the institutional supervision, custody, control, care, or treatment of youths or prisoners;

(iii) the board of regents and the Montana university system;

(iv) the financing, construction, and maintenance of public works.

(b) "Agency" does not include a school district, unit of local government, or any other political subdivision of the state.

(3) "ARM" means the ~~administrative rules~~ Administrative Rules of Montana.

(4) "Contested case" means ~~any~~ a proceeding before an agency in which a determination of legal rights, duties, or privileges of a party is required by law to be made after an opportunity for hearing. The term includes but is not restricted to ratemaking, price fixing, and licensing.

(5) "License" includes the whole or part of any agency permit, certificate, approval, registration, charter, or other form of permission required by law but does not include a license required solely for revenue purposes.

(6) "Licensing" includes any agency process respecting the grant, denial, renewal, revocation, suspension, annulment, withdrawal, limitation, transfer, or amendment of a license.

(7) "Party" means ~~any~~ a person named or admitted as a party or properly seeking and entitled as of right to be admitted as a party, but nothing herein ~~shall~~ may be construed to prevent an agency from admitting any person as a party for limited purposes.

(8) "Person" means ~~any~~ an individual, partnership, corporation, association, governmental subdivision, agency, or public organization of any character.

(9) "Register" means the Montana ~~administrative register~~ Administrative Register.

(10) "Rule" means each agency regulation, standard, or statement of general applicability that implements, interprets, or prescribes law or policy or describes the organization, procedures, or practice requirements of an agency. The term includes the amendment or repeal of a prior rule but does not include:

(a) statements concerning only the internal management of an agency and not affecting private rights or procedures available to the public;

(b) formal opinions of the attorney general and declaratory rulings issued pursuant to 2-4-501;

(c) rules relating to the use of public works, facilities, streets, and highways when the substance of ~~such~~ the rules is indicated to the public by means of signs or signals;

(d) seasonal rules adopted annually or biennially relating to hunting, fishing, and trapping when there is a statutory requirement for the publication of ~~such~~ the rules and rules adopted annually or biennially relating to the seasonal recreational use of lands and waters owned or controlled by the state when the substance of ~~such~~ the rules is indicated to the public by means of signs or signals;

(e) rules implementing the state personnel classification plan, the state wage and salary plan, or the statewide budgeting and accounting system;

(f) uniform rules adopted pursuant to interstate compact, except that ~~such~~ the rules ~~shall~~ must be filed in accordance with 2-4-306 and ~~shall~~ must be published in the ~~administrative rules~~ Administrative Rules of Montana.

(11) "Substantive rules" are either:

(a) legislative rules, which if adopted in accordance with this chapter and under expressly delegated authority to promulgate rules to implement a statute have the force of law and when not so adopted are invalid; or

(b) adjective or interpretive rules, which may be adopted in accordance with this chapter and under express or implied authority to codify an interpretation of a statute. ~~Such~~ The interpretation lacks the force of law."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 341

[HB 263]

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION'S AUTHORITY TO REGULATE THE TRANSPORTATION OF RECYCLABLES; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 69-12-101, 69-12-301, 69-12-302, AND 69-12-406, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill in order to provide guidance to the public service commission in adopting rules. It is the intention of the legislature that a Class D motor carrier have the authority to collect and transport source-separated recyclables and that Class C motor carriers have the authority to transport recyclables.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 69-12-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-12-101. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this chapter the following definitions apply:

(1) "Between fixed termini" or "over a regular route" means the termini or route between or over which a motor carrier usually or ordinarily operates motor vehicles, even though there may be periodical or irregular departures from the termini or route.

(2) "Certificate" means the certificate of public convenience and necessity issued under this chapter.

(3) "Compensation" means the charge imposed on motor carriers for the use of the highways in this state by motor carriers under 69-12-421.

(4) "Corporation" means a corporation, company, association, or joint-stock association.

(5) "For hire" means for remuneration of any kind, paid or promised, either directly or indirectly, or received or obtained through leasing, brokering, or buy-and-sell arrangements from which a remuneration is obtained or derived for transportation service.

(6) "Motor carrier" means a person or corporation, or its lessees, trustees, or receivers appointed by any court, operating motor vehicles upon any public highway in this state for the transportation of persons or property for hire on a commercial basis, either as a common carrier or under private contract, agreement, charter, or undertaking. The term includes any motor carrier serving the public in the business of transportation of ashes, trash, waste, refuse, rubbish, garbage, and organic and inorganic matter.

(7) "Motor vehicle" includes vehicles or machines, motor trucks, tractors, or other self-propelled vehicles used for the transportation of property or persons over the public highways of the state.

(8) "Person" means an individual, firm, or partnership.

(9) "Public highway" means a public street, road, highway, or way in this state.

(10) "Railroad" means the movement of cars on rails, regardless of the motive power used.

(11) "Recyclable" means any material diverted from the solid waste stream that can be reused as raw material for new products and for which markets exist."

Section 2. Section 69-12-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-12-302. Conditions resulting in Class C carrier considered as Class B carrier. (1) A Class C motor carrier operating with more than six contracts which are in effect at any given time and each of which are effective for a minimum of 180 days is considered to be operating as a Class B motor carrier. Before transportation service may commence, pertinent contract information shall be furnished to the commission for each contract on forms prescribed by the commission. The commission shall retain a duplicate of the information in its files, and a copy of the form, confirmed by the commission, must be kept in the cab of the motor carrier when operating under that contract.

(2) All Class C motor carriers must annually submit to the commission the names and addresses of all persons, corporations, or other legal entities with whom the Class C carrier has executed a contract, charter, agreement, or undertaking for the distribution, delivery, or collection of wares, merchandise, or commodities or for transporting persons.

(3) The provisions of this section shall not apply to solid waste contractors, transportation of recyclables, household goods carriers, or house movers, as defined by the department of public service regulation, or any carrier whose authority is limited to the pickup and delivery of property and is confined by certificate to transportation within a distance of 50 miles or less from a particular location. Any carrier whose property authority is incidental to the transportation of persons is not included in the exemption under this subsection."

Section 3. Section 69-12-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-12-301. Classification of motor carriers. (1) Motor carriers are hereby divided into four classes to be known as:

(a) Class A motor carriers;

(b) Class B motor carriers;

(c) Class C motor carriers;

(d) Class D motor carriers.

(2) Class A motor carriers shall embrace all motor carriers operating between fixed termini or over a regular route and under regular rates or charges, based upon either station-to-station rates or upon a mileage rate or scale.

(3) Class B motor carriers shall embrace all motor carriers operating under regular rates or charges based upon either station-to-station rates or upon a mileage rate or scale and not between fixed termini or over a regular route.

(4) Class C motor carriers shall embrace all motor carriers operating motor vehicles for distributing, delivering, or collecting wares, merchandise, or commodities or transporting persons, where the remuneration is fixed in and the transportation service furnished under a contract, charter, agreement, or undertaking.

(5) Class D motor carriers embraces all motor carriers operating motor vehicles transporting (including pickup and disposal) ashes, trash, waste, refuse, rubbish, garbage, ~~and~~ organic and inorganic matter, and recyclables."

Section 4. Section 69-12-406, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-12-406. Restriction on transportation of certain waste. Except as provided in 69-12-324, no Class A, B, or C carrier will be authorized or permitted to transport ashes, trash, waste, refuse, rubbish, garbage, or organic and inorganic matter within the state. This restriction does not apply to recyclables."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 342

[HB 284]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT CHILD SUPPORT IS TERMINATED BY A CHILD'S EMANCIPATION OR GRADUATION FROM HIGH SCHOOL, WHICHEVER OCCURS LATER, BUT IN NO EVENT LATER THAN THE CHILD'S 19TH BIRTHDAY; AMENDING SECTION 40-4-208, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is not required for this bill because it does not grant rulemaking authority. However, a committee may by a two-thirds vote agree to attach a statement of intent to a bill not requiring one. The legislature finds that it would be unconscionable to have child support terminate prior to the graduation of a child from high school if the child is still living at home with the other parent, is still in need of support, and there has been no change in living circumstances prior to high school graduation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 40-4-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"40-4-208. Modification and termination of provisions for maintenance, support, and property disposition. (1) Except as otherwise provided in 40-4-201(6), a decree may be modified by a court as to maintenance or support only as to installments accruing subsequent to actual notice to the parties of the motion for modification.

(2) (a) Whenever the decree proposed for modification does not contain provisions relating to maintenance or support, modification under subsection (1) may only be made within 2 years of the date of the decree.

(b) Whenever the decree proposed for modification contains provisions relating to maintenance or support, modification under subsection (1) may only be made:

(i) upon a showing of changed circumstances so substantial and continuing as to make the terms unconscionable;

(ii) upon written consent of the parties; or

(iii) upon application by the department of social and rehabilitation services, whenever the department of social and rehabilitation services is providing services under Title IV-D of the federal Social Security Act. The support obligation must be modified, as appropriate, in accordance with the guidelines promulgated under 40-5-209. A modification under this subsection may not be made within 12 months after the establishment of the order or the most recent modification.

(3) The provisions as to property disposition may not be revoked or modified by a court, except:

(a) upon written consent of the parties; or

(b) if the court finds the existence of conditions that justify the reopening of a judgment under the laws of this state.

(4) Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, the obligation to pay future maintenance is terminated upon the death of either party or the remarriage of the party receiving maintenance.

(5) ~~Unless otherwise agreed in writing or expressly provided in the decree, provisions~~ Provisions for the support of a child are terminated by emancipation of the child or the child's graduation from high school if the child is enrolled in high school, whichever occurs later, ~~but not by~~ but in no event later than the child's 19th birthday, unless the termination date is extended or knowingly waived by written agreement or by an express provision of the decree. Provisions for the support of a child do not terminate upon the death of a parent obligated to support the child. When a parent obligated to pay support dies, the amount of support may be modified, revoked, or commuted to a lump-sum payment, to the extent just and appropriate in the circumstances."

Section 2. Applicability. [Section 1] applies to all decrees containing provisions for child support issued on or after [the effective date of this act].

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 343

[HB 361]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THE ADJUDICATION PROCESS FOR FEDERAL RESERVED WATER RIGHTS WITH A PRIORITY DATE OF JULY 1, 1973, OR LATER; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Purpose. The purpose of [section 2] is to ensure that a federal reserved water right with a priority date of July 1, 1973, or later be subject to the same process and adjudication as a federal reserved water right with a priority date before July 1, 1973.

Section 2. Federal reserved water rights with priority date of July 1, 1973, or later — process and adjudication. (1) Under authority granted to the states by 43 U.S.C. 666, a federal reserved water right that has a priority date of July 1, 1973, or later and that is asserted by a federal agency is subject to the claim filing requirements and all other applicable requirements of the state water adjudication system provided for in Title 85, chapter 2, parts 2 and 7.

(2) At the request of a federal agency, the reserved water rights compact commission may negotiate to conclude a compact under Title 85, chapter 2, part 7, for a federal reserved water right with a priority date of July 1, 1973, or later.

(3) Whenever necessary, a water judge may reopen any decree issued pursuant to Title 85, chapter 2, to process the asserted or negotiated reserved water right.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 and 2] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 85, chapter 2, part 2, and the provisions of Title 85, chapter 2, part 2, apply to [sections 1 and 2].

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 344

[HB 423]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT FEES OR PARTS OF FEES REQUIRED BY LAW TO BE TRANSFERRED TO THE PUBLIC EMPLOYEES' RETIREMENT DIVISION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION FOR DEPOSIT IN THE MONTANA JUDGES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM PENSION TRUST FUND ARE APPROPRIATED TO THE SUPREME COURT FOR DEPOSIT IN THE FUND; PROVIDING A STATUTORY APPROPRIATION; AMENDING SECTIONS 17-7-502 AND 19-5-404, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 17-7-502, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-7-502. Statutory appropriations — definition — requisites for validity. (1) A statutory appropriation is an appropriation made by permanent law that authorizes spending by a state agency without the need for a biennial legislative appropriation or budget amendment.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4), to be effective, a statutory appropriation must comply with both of the following provisions:

(a) The law containing the statutory authority must be listed in subsection (3).

(b) The law or portion of the law making a statutory appropriation must specifically state that a statutory appropriation is made as provided in this section.

(3) The following laws are the only laws containing statutory appropriations: 2-9-202; 2-17-105; 2-18-812; 10-3-203; 10-3-312; 10-3-314; 10-4-301; 13-37-304; 15-1-111; 15-25-123; 15-31-702; 15-36-112; 15-37-117; 15-65-121; 15-70-101; 16-1-404; 16-1-410; 16-1-411; 17-3-212; 17-5-404; 17-5-424; 17-5-804; 19-5-404; 19-8-504; 19-9-702; 19-9-1007; 19-10-205; 19-10-305; 19-10-506; 19-11-512; 19-11-513; 19-11-606; 19-12-301; 19-13-604; 20-6-406; 20-8-111; 20-9-361; 23-5-306; 23-5-409; 23-5-610; 23-5-612; 23-5-1016; 23-5-1027; 27-12-206; 37-51-501; 39-71-2504; 53-6-150; 53-24-206; 61-2-406; 61-5-121; 67-3-205; 75-1-1101; 75-5-1108; 75-11-313; 76-12-123; 80-2-103; 82-11-136; 82-11-161; 90-3-301; 90-4-215; 90-4-613; 90-6-331; 90-9-306; and section 13, House Bill No. 861, Laws of 1985.

(4) There is a statutory appropriation to pay the principal, interest, premiums, and costs of issuing, paying, and securing all bonds, notes, or other obligations, as due, that have been authorized and issued pursuant to the laws of Montana. Agencies that have entered into agreements authorized by the laws of Montana to pay the state treasurer, for deposit in accordance with 17-2-101 through 17-2-107, as determined by the state treasurer, an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest as due on the bonds or notes have statutory appropriation authority for such payments. (In subsection (3), pursuant to sec. 10, Ch. 664, L. 1987, the inclusion of 39-71-2504 terminates June 30, 1991.) "

Section 2. Section 19-5-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-5-404. (Temporary) Contributions by the state. The state of Montana shall contribute monthly to the fund a sum equal to 6% of the salary of each member. In addition, the clerk of each district court shall transmit 68% of certain filing fees as required under 25-1-201(2) and that portion of the fee for filing a petition for dissolution of marriage and a motion for substitution of a judge specified in 25-1-201(4) and (6) to the state, which shall first deposit in the fund an amount equal to 31% of the salaries paid to district judges and supreme court justices who are covered by the judges' retirement system and then deposit the balance in the state general fund. The clerk of the supreme court shall pay one-fourth of the fees collected under 3-2-403 to the public employees' retirement division of the department of administration to be credited to the fund. The money from court fees collected pursuant to this section is statutorily appropriated, as provided in 17-7-502, to the supreme court for deposit in the judges' retirement fund.

19-5-404. (Effective July 1, 1991) Contributions by the state. The state of Montana shall contribute monthly to the fund a sum equal to 6% of the salary of each member. In addition, the clerk of each district court shall transmit 68% of certain filing fees as required under 25-1-201(2) and that portion of the fee for filing a petition for dissolution of marriage and a motion for substitution of a judge specified in 25-1-201(4) and (6) to the state, which shall first deposit in the fund an amount equal to 34.71% of the salaries paid to district judges and supreme court justices who are covered by the judges' retirement system and then deposit the balance in the state general fund. The clerk of the supreme court shall pay one-fourth of the fees collected under 3-2-403 to the public employees' retirement division of the department of administration to be credited to the fund. The money from court fees collected pursuant to this section is statutorily appropriated, as provided in 17-7-502, to the supreme court for deposit in the judges' retirement fund."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 345

[HB 536]

AN ACT ALLOWING A FIRE SERVICE AREA TO PROVIDE EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 7-33-2401, 7-33-2402, AND 7-33-2404, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-33-2401, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-33-2401. Fire service area — establishment — alteration — dissolution. (1) Upon receipt of a petition signed by at least 30 owners of real property in the proposed service area, or by a majority of the owners of real property if there are no more than 30 owners of real property in the proposed service area, the board of county commissioners may establish a fire service area within an unincorporated area not part of a rural fire district in the county to provide the services and equipment set forth in 7-33-2402.

(2) To establish a fire service area, the board shall:

(a) pass a resolution of intent to form the area, with public notice as provided in 7-1-2121 and written notice as provided in 7-1-2122;

(b) hold a public hearing no earlier than 30 or later than 90 days after passage of the resolution of intent;

(c) at the public hearing:

(i) accept written protests from property owners of the area of the proposed area; and

(ii) receive general protests and comments relating to the establishment of the fire service area and its boundaries, rates, ~~service~~ kinds, types, or levels of service, or any other matter relating to the proposed fire service area; and

(d) pass a resolution creating the fire service area. The area is created effective 60 days after passage of the resolution unless by that date more than 50% of the property owners of the proposed fire service area protest its creation.

(3) Based on testimony received in the public hearing, the board in the resolution creating the fire service area may establish different boundaries, establish a different fee schedule than proposed, change the kinds, types, or levels of service, or change the manner in which the area will provide services to its residents.

(4) The board of county commissioners may alter the boundaries or the kinds, types, or levels of service or dissolve a fire service area, using the same procedures required for the creation of a fire service area. Any existing indebtedness of a fire service area that is dissolved remains the responsibility of the owners of property within the area, and any assets remaining after all indebtedness has been satisfied must be returned to the owners of property within the area."

Section 2. Section 7-33-2402, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-33-2402. Area services. A fire service area created pursuant to 7-33-2401 may provide residents of the area with adequate and standard:

(1) (a) fire and emergency response equipment, personnel, facilities ~~housing for the equipment~~, and ~~related~~ maintenance, for ~~use by~~ a fire service agency providing service to the area; or

~~(2)~~(b) fire protection by contracting for the services of a fire service agency*; and*

(2) emergency medical services and equipment, licensed by the department of health and environmental sciences, and related personnel, facilities, and maintenance."

Section 3. Section 7-33-2404, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-33-2404. Financing of fire service area — fee on structures. (1) In the resolution creating the fire service area and by resolution as necessary thereafter, the board of county commissioners shall establish a schedule of rates to be charged owners of structures that are benefited by the ~~fire~~ services offered by the fire service area.

(2) The rates must be applied on a fair and equal basis to all classes of structures benefited by the fire service area.

(3) The board of county commissioners shall collect the funds necessary to operate the fire service area by charging the area rate as a special assessment on the owners of structures and collect the assessments with the general taxes of the county. The assessments are a lien on the property so assessed.

(4) The board of county commissioners or the trustees, if the fire service area is governed by trustees under 7-33-2403, may pledge the income of the fire service area to secure financing necessary to procure ~~fire~~ equipment and buildings to house ~~fire~~ the equipment. The outstanding amount of such indebtedness may not exceed 7% of the taxable valuation of the area."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 346

[HB 581]

AN ACT ALLOWING ANY LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY IN A JUDICIAL DISTRICT TO USE FINGERPRINT RECORDS AND PHOTOGRAPHS OF YOUTHS FOR CERTAIN PURPOSES; AND AMENDING SECTION 41-5-304, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 41-5-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"41-5-304. Investigation, fingerprints, and photographs. (1) All law enforcement investigations relating to a delinquent youth or youth in need of supervision must be conducted in accordance with this chapter and Title 46.

(2) A youth may be fingerprinted or photographed for criminal identification purposes:

(a) if arrested for conduct alleged to be unlawful that would be a felony if committed by an adult;

(b) pursuant to a search warrant, supported by probable cause, issued by a judge, justice of the peace, or magistrate; or

(c) upon the order of the youth court judge, after a petition alleging delinquency has been filed in which the unlawful act alleged would constitute a felony if the act had been committed by an adult.

(3) Fingerprint records and photographs may be used by ~~the originating~~ any law enforcement agency in the judicial district for comparison and identification purposes in any other investigation."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 347

[HB 602]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT, WITH RESPECT TO TAX AND FEE MONEY, THE PROPOSED BUDGET OF AND THE NUMBER OF MILLS TO BE ASSESSED BY ANY BOARD, COMMISSION, OR GOVERNING ENTITY, EXCEPT A BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF A PUBLIC LIBRARY, APPOINTED BY A LOCAL GOVERNMENT ARE SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY THAT LOCAL GOVERNMENT; PROVIDING AN EXEMPTION FOR TAXES LEVIED FOR BOND PAYMENTS; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Budgets of appointed boards and commissions — exemption for bonds. (1) With respect to tax and fee money, the proposed budget of and the number of mills to be assessed by any board, commission, or other governing entity, except a board of trustees of a public library, appointed by a local government are subject to approval by that local government.

(2) Tax levies pledged to the payment of principal and interest on bonds issued by a commission, board, or governing entity must be approved by the local government.

Section 2. Codification instruction. (1) [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 7, chapter 6, part 23, and the provisions of Title 7, chapter 6, part 23, apply to [section 1].

(2) [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 7, chapter 6, part 42, and the provisions of Title 7, chapter 6, part 42, apply to [section 1].

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 348

[HB 606]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A YOUTH VOTING PROGRAM TO EDUCATE MONTANA'S YOUTH IN THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS; PROVIDING THAT THE SECRETARY OF STATE AND THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION DEVELOP AND COORDINATE THE PROGRAM; AND ALLOWING STUDENTS FROM PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS TO CAST MOCK BALLOTS AT DESIGNATED POLLING PLACES DURING ELECTIONS IF THE STUDENTS ARE ACCOMPANIED BY A PARENT OR ELIGIBLE VOTER.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [This act] may be cited as the "Youth Voting Act".

Section 2. Purpose and intent. The intent of the legislature is to establish a nonpartisan youth voting program that will:

(1) provide the youth of Montana with practical experience in the democratic process;

(2) increase the likelihood that Montana's youth will participate in the process as adult voters and encourage the participation of more parents in elections;

(3) not benefit any elected official, candidate for elective office, political party, campaign for or against any ballot issue, or any measure attempting to qualify for placement on a ballot; and

(4) be entirely funded through private donations.

Section 3. Youth voting program established — program coordination — school participation. (1) There is a youth voting program for minors to provide young Montanans direct experience in the voting process.

(2) The secretary of state, in consultation with the superintendent of public instruction, shall solicit county election administrators and schools throughout the state to participate in the youth voting program. The secretary of state and the superintendent of public instruction shall confer with the participating county election administrators and county superintendents of schools and, from among interested schools, shall facilitate the participation of as many schools in the program as available funds and other circumstances allow. A designated school may, at any time, decline to participate by notifying the secretary of state in writing.

Section 4. Program development. (1) The secretary of state and the superintendent of public instruction shall compile a program and establish a process whereby:

(a) students are instructed on the electoral process, the importance of voting, and how to mark and cast a ballot;

(b) students are educated about current issues in a manner appropriate for each grade level involved;

(c) students cast facsimile or mock ballots while accompanying their parents to polling places during regular elections; and

(d) ballots cast by students at elections are counted and the results are made available to all participating schools.

(2) The program must be presented to participating schools in a nonpartisan, nonbiased, and informative manner.

Section 5. Responsibilities of participating schools. Participating schools shall, in a timely manner, provide to students and their parents or guardians instruction and guidance on how to participate in the program, youth voter registration procedures and deadlines, a list of candidates and issues, and polling and balloting procedures.

Section 6. Polling place procedures. (1) The secretary of state and the superintendent of public instruction shall work with county election officials to provide that:

(a) facsimile or mock ballots are distributed to polling places in counties with participating schools;

(b) participating students accompanied by a parent or eligible voter are allowed to cast ballots in the youth election; and

(c) student ballots are counted and the results are announced to the participating schools.

(2) The provisions of this section must be carried out in a manner that will not interfere with the normal voting process or established polling place procedures.

Section 7. Funding. (1) Public money may not be used to support or fund the youth voting program established in [sections 1 through 8].

(2) A nonprofit corporation may be formed subject to the provisions of Title 35, chapter 2, to solicit donations from private sources. Money solicited under this subsection must be used only for the youth voting program.

Section 8. Reports. (1) Each biennium, the secretary of state shall provide, upon request, a report to the legislature outlining the program's effectiveness in achieving its objectives.

(2) Participating schools and agencies shall provide to the secretary of state information regarding the youth voting program for the secretary of state's report to the legislature.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 349

[HB 625]

AN ACT REVISING HOSPITAL DISTRICT FINANCING; ALLOWING A COUNTY TO INVEST IN HOSPITAL DISTRICT WARRANTS; ALLOWING A HOSPITAL DISTRICT TO BORROW MONEY BY ISSUING NOTES; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 7-6-2701, 7-34-2122, AND 7-34-2131, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-6-2701, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-6-2701. Investment of certain money in county, municipal, hospital, and school warrants. (1) Except as provided in 7-6-2802, if a county has under its control any money for which there is no immediate demand, in any special fund subject to deposit, which in the judgment of the board of county commissioners it would be advantageous to invest in county, municipal, hospital district, or school district registered warrants, the county commissioners are authorized in their discretion to direct the county treasurer to purchase such warrants of entities located in the same county.

(2) For such purchases, the county commissioners shall:

(a) designate the fund or funds to be so invested;

(b) fix the amount that may be purchased;

(c) establish the rate of interest the county shall receive for the investment; and

(d) designate the warrants which are to be purchased by such funds.

(3) The officer drawing a warrant to be purchased for investment by a county shall cause to be attached to or stamped, written, or printed upon the warrant a notice to the effect that the county will exercise its preference right to purchase the warrant.

(4) (a) A school district, hospital district, or county warrant presented to the county treasurer for purchase by the county must be registered as any other school district, hospital district, or county warrant.

(b) A municipal warrant presented to the municipal clerk or treasurer for purchase by the county must be registered, and the holder of the warrant must be informed that the warrant may be presented to the county treasurer for purchase by the county.

(5) The county treasurer shall, when a warrant designated for purchase under the provisions of subsection (2) is presented to him, purchase the same out of the proper fund as designated by the board. When the designated amounts have been invested, the county treasurer shall notify the county clerk and recorder or the applicable officer authorized to draw such warrants.

(6) Interest earned from such investments, including interest on the sale of bonds accrued in the period between the date of issue and the time of purchase, shall be credited to the sinking fund of the county, notwithstanding the provisions of 7-6-204(1).

(7) No provision of this section may be construed to prevent the investment of county or county high school money under the state unified investment program established in Title 17, chapter 6, part 2."

Section 2. Section 7-34-2122, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-34-2122. Powers of district. A hospital district shall have all powers necessary and convenient to the acquisition, betterment, operation, maintenance, and administration of such hospital facilities as its board of trustees shall deem necessary and expedient. Without limitation on the foregoing general grant of powers, a hospital district, acting by its board of trustees, may:

(1) employ nursing, administrative, and other personnel, legal counsel, engineers, architects, accountants, and other qualified persons, who may be paid for their services by monthly salaries, hourly wages, and pension benefits or by such fees as may be agreed upon;

(2) cause reports, plans, studies, and recommendations to be prepared;

(3) lease, purchase, and contract for the purchase of real and personal property by option, contract for deed, ~~conditional sales contract,~~ or otherwise and acquire real or personal property by gift;

(4) lease or construct, equip, and furnish necessary buildings and grounds and maintain the same;

(5) adopt, by resolution, rules for the operation and administration of any and all hospital facilities under its control and for the admission of persons thereto;

(6) impose by resolution and collect charges for all services and facilities provided and made available by it;

(7) levy taxes as hereinafter prescribed;

(8) borrow money ~~and issue~~ by the issuance of its bonds as hereinafter prescribed;

(9) borrow money by the issuance of notes;

~~(9)~~(10) procure insurance against liability of the district or its officers and employees, or both, for torts committed within the scope of their official duties, whether governmental or proprietary, and against damage to or destruction of any of its facilities, equipment, or other property;

~~(10)~~(11) sell or lease any of its facilities or equipment as may be deemed expedient;

~~(11)~~(12) cause audits to be made of its accounts, books, vouchers, and funds by competent public accountants."

Section 3. Section 7-34-2131, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-34-2131. Hospital district bonds and notes authorized. (1) (a) A hospital district may borrow money by the issuance of its bonds to provide funds for payment of part or all of the cost of acquisition, furnishing, equipment, improvement, extension, and betterment of hospital facilities and to provide an adequate working capital for a new hospital.

~~(2)~~(b) The amount of bonds issued for such purpose and outstanding at any time may not exceed 22.5% of the taxable value of the property therein as ascertained by the last assessment for state and county taxes previous to the issuance of such bonds.

~~(3)~~(c) Such bonds shall be authorized, sold, and issued and provisions made for their payment in the manner and subject to the conditions and limitations prescribed for bonds of school districts by Title 20, chapter 9, part 4.

(2) (a) A hospital district may borrow money by the issuance of notes to provide funds to finance the costs described in subsection (1) and to finance the working capital requirements of the district. The notes must be authorized and in a form and terms prescribed by a resolution adopted by the board of trustees. The notes must mature over a term not to exceed 15 years.

(b) The principal and interest on the notes must be paid from the taxes levied pursuant to 7-34-2133 and 7-34-2134, exclusive of the taxes levied to pay bonds issued in accordance with subsection (1), and all other revenue of the district. The annual amount of principal and interest payable on notes in any fiscal year must be included in the district's budget for that year.

(c) The notes may be secured by a mortgage of or a security interest in all or part of the district's assets and by a pledge of the taxes and revenue of the district, or either of them.

(d) Notes may not be issued unless the projected annual revenue of the district, including the taxes levied pursuant to 7-34-2133 and 7-34-2134 but exclusive of the taxes levied to pay bonds, is at least equal to the sum of the cost of operating and maintaining the hospital district plus the maximum amount of principal and interest due in any future fiscal year on the notes proposed to be issued and all notes outstanding upon the issuance of the proposed notes.

~~(4)~~(3) Nothing herein shall be construed to preclude the provisions of Title 50, chapter 6, part 1, allowing the state to apply for and accept federal funds."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 350

[HB 655]

AN ACT TO PERMIT THE INSTALLATION AND USE OF BELOW-GRADE LIQUEFIED PETROLEUM GAS APPLIANCES; AND AMENDING SECTION 50-60-203, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

Because many areas of Montana lack access to natural gas, it is necessary and desirable that energy alternatives be available. The legislature declares that below-grade liquefied petroleum gas appliances are not inherently hazardous if properly installed and further determines that it is appropriate to allow below-grade liquefied petroleum gas appliances to be installed in single-family dwellings notwithstanding the prohibition on the installation of those appliances by the Uniform Mechanical Code and the Uniform Plumbing Code. It is the intent of the legislature that the department of commerce adopt rules governing installation requirements for below-grade liquefied petroleum gas-burning appliances in single-family dwellings.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 50-60-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-60-203. Department to adopt state building code by rule. (1) The department shall adopt rules relating to the construction of, the installation of equipment in, and standards for materials to be used in all buildings or classes of buildings, including provisions dealing with safety, sanitation, and conservation of energy. The department may amend or repeal such rules.

(2) The department may adopt by reference nationally recognized building codes in whole or in part, but this does not prevent the department from adopting rules more stringent than those contained in such codes.

(3) The rules, when adopted as provided in parts 1 through 4, constitute the "state building code" and are acceptable for the buildings to which they are applicable.

(4) The department shall adopt rules that permit the installation of below-grade liquefied petroleum gas-burning appliances in single-family dwellings."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 351

[HB 697]

AN ACT ALLOWING A JUDGE OF A COURT OF LIMITED JURISDICTION TO SUMMON JURORS BY MAIL; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 3-15-701 AND 3-15-702, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 3-15-701, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-15-701. When and by whom jurors summoned. When jurors are required in any ~~justice's or city court or any other~~ court of limited jurisdiction, they*:*

(1) must, upon the order of the ~~justice or of the~~ judge thereof, be summoned by the sheriff, constable, marshal, or policeman of the jurisdiction*; or*

(2) may be summoned by the judge of the court of limited jurisdiction or by the clerk of that court."

Section 2. Section 3-15-702, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-15-702. How to be summoned. Such jurors must be summoned from the persons competent to serve as jurors, residents of the county, city, or town in which such court has jurisdiction, by notifying them orally or by mail that they are summoned and of the time and place at which their attendance is required."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 352

[HB 745]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A PARTIAL BASIN CLOSURE IN THE BEAVERHEAD RIVER BASIN AND THE RED ROCK RIVER BASIN; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE, AN APPLICABILITY DATE, AND A TERMINATION DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in [sections 1 and 2], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Application" means an application for a beneficial water use permit, using form number 600.

(2) "Beaverhead River basin" means the Beaverhead River drainage area located in hydrologic basin 41B in Beaverhead and Madison Counties, Montana. The Beaverhead River basin designated as the closure area is all that drainage and head waters originating at the Clark Canyon dam, approximately 12 miles south-southwest of Dillon, Montana, and terminating at the confluence of the Big Hole River and the Beaverhead River, which then forms the Jefferson River near Twin Bridges, Montana.

(3) "Infiltration gallery" means a collection system that consists of one or more perforated pipes, culverts, or screens, placed horizontally beneath the streambed or vertically adjacent to the streambed, by which water is appropriated.

(4) "Red Rock River basin" means the Red Rock River drainage area located in hydrologic basin 41A in Beaverhead and Madison Counties, Montana. The Red Rock River basin designated as the closure area is all that drainage and head waters originating at the border of Montana and Idaho approximately 10 miles east of the Red Rock Lakes wildlife refuge and terminating at the Clark Canyon dam, approximately 12 miles south-southwest of Dillon, Montana.

Section 2. Basin closure — exception. (1) As provided in 85-2-319 and subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section, the department shall reject applications for permits to appropriate ground water by any means, including infiltration galleries, within the Beaverhead River and Red Rock River basins during the period from [the effective date of this act] through June 30, 1996.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) do not apply to the appropriation of ground water by means of a well or developed spring with a maximum appropriation of ground water of less than 100 gallons per minute or to the appropriation of ground water for domestic use, stock use, municipal use, industrial use, or for temporary emergency appropriations.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 and 2] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 85, chapter 2, part 3, and the provisions of Title 85, chapter 2, part 3, apply to [sections 1 and 2].

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Section 5. Applicability date. [This act] applies to all applications received by the department after [the effective date of this act].

Section 6. Termination date. [This act] terminates June 30, 1996.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 353

[HB 791]

AN ACT ALLOWING A COUNTY SHERIFF OR HIS DESIGNEE TO EXERCISE SUPERVISION WITHIN REASONABLE LIMITS OVER SEARCH AND RESCUE PERSONNEL; AND AMENDING SECTION 7-32-235, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-32-235, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-32-235. Search and rescue units authorized — under control of county sheriff — optional funding. (1) A county may establish or recognize one or more search and rescue units within the county.

(2) Except in time of martial rule as provided in 10-1-106, search and rescue units and their officers are under the operational control and supervision of the county sheriff*, or his designee,* having jurisdiction and whose span of control would be considered within reasonable limits.

(3) A county may, after approval by a majority of the people voting on the question at an election held throughout the county, levy an annual tax of not more than 1 mill on each dollar of taxable value of all taxable property within the county to support one or more search and rescue units established or recognized under subsection (1)."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 354

[HB 798]

AN ACT AMENDING THE CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION ACT OF MONTANA TO ALLOW THE USE OF FUNDS TO ESTABLISH A GENERAL VICTIMS' ASSISTANCE COORDINATING AND PLANNING PROGRAM; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 53-9-102, 53-9-104, AND 53-9-109, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-9-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-9-102. Legislative purpose and intent. It is the intent of the legislature of this state to provide a method of compensating ~~and assisting~~ those persons within the state who are innocent victims of criminal acts and who suffer bodily injury or death. To this end, it is the legislature's intention to provide compensation for injuries suffered as a direct result of the criminal acts of other persons and to coordinate victims' assistance programs."

Section 2. Section 53-9-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-9-104. Powers and duties of division. (1) The division shall:

(a) adopt rules to implement this part;

(b) prescribe forms for applications for compensation;

(c) determine all matters relating to claims for compensation; and

(d) require any person contracting directly or indirectly with an individual formally charged with or convicted of a qualifying crime for any rendition, interview, statement, book, photograph, movie, television production, play, or article relating to such crime to deposit any proceeds paid or owed to the individual under the terms of the contract into an escrow fund for the benefit of any victims of the qualifying crime and any dependents of a deceased victim, if the individual is convicted of the crime, to be held for such period of time as the division may determine is reasonably necessary to perfect the claims of the victims or dependents. Deposited proceeds may also be used to pay the costs and attorney fees of court-appointed counsel for the charged person. Each victim and dependent of a deceased victim is entitled to his actual and unreimbursed damages of all kinds or $5,000, whichever is greater. Proceeds remaining after payments to victims, dependents of deceased victims, and the county as reimbursement for any public defender or any attorney appointed for the charged person must be deposited in the account established in 53-9-109.

(2) The division may:

(a) request and obtain from prosecuting attorneys and law enforcement officers investigations and data to enable the division to determine whether and the extent to which a claimant qualifies for compensation. A statute providing confidentiality for a claimant's juvenile court records does not apply to proceedings under this part.

(b) request and obtain from a health care provider medical reports that are relevant to the physical condition of a claimant or from an insurance carrier, agent, or claims adjuster insurance payment information that is relevant to expenses claimed by a claimant, provided that the division has made reasonable efforts to obtain from the claimant a release of the records or information. No civil or criminal liability arises from the release of information requested under this subsection (b).

(c) subpoena witnesses and other prospective evidence, administer oaths or affirmations, conduct hearings, and receive relevant, nonprivileged evidence;

(d) take notice of judicially cognizable facts and general, technical, and scientific facts within its specialized knowledge; ~~and~~

(e) require that law enforcement agencies and officials take reasonable care that victims be informed about the existence of this part and the procedure for applying for compensation under this part*; and*

(f) establish a victims' assistance coordinating and planning program."

Section 3. Section 53-9-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-9-109. Crime victims compensation account. There is a crime victims compensation and assistance account in the state special revenue fund. There shall be paid into this account 18% of the fines assessed and bails forfeited, except those paid to a justice's court, on all offenses involving a violation of chapter 3, part 1 of chapter 4, or chapters 5 through 10 of Title 61 that are a result of citations or tickets issued by the highway patrol. The money in the account is to be used solely for the purposes of this part~~,~~ and for victims' assistance program coordination and planning provided by the division. ~~no~~ No ~~cash~~ fund balance in the account at the end of a fiscal ~~biennium~~ year may be deposited in the general fund."

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 355

[HB 813]

AN ACT CREATING A COUNTY RECORDS PRESERVATION FUND; INCREASING THE FEE FOR RECORDING A DOCUMENT BY MECHANICAL MEANS; AMENDING SECTION 7-4-2632, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-4-2632, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-4-2632. Fee when recording done by mechanical means. Where recording is done by photographic or similar process, the county clerk and recorder shall charge ~~$5~~ $6 for each page or fraction of a page of the instrument for recording."

Section 2. Records preservation fund authorized. (1) The board of county commissioners shall establish a records preservation fund for the purpose of preserving the records maintained by the county clerk and recorder. The county clerk and recorder is responsible for expenditures from the fund and shall use the money for records preservation.

(2) The county clerk and recorder shall deposit $1 of the fee received under 7-4-2632 into the records preservation fund.

(3) The governing body of the county may transfer to the general fund any money in the records preservation fund that is not needed for records preservation.

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 356

[HB 817]

AN ACT ALLOWING A LIBRARY CREATED UNDER TITLE 7 TO RECEIVE STATE AID; REVISING THE DEFINITION OF A "STATE MULTILIBRARY CARD"; AMENDING SECTIONS 22-1-301 AND 22-1-326, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 22-1-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"22-1-301. Definitions. Unless otherwise provided, the following definitions apply in this part:

(1) "City" means city or town.

(2) "Commission" means the state library commission.

(3) "Public library" means a library created under 22-1-303 through 22-1-317 that provides library services to the public by means of central facilities, branch facilities, or bookmobiles.

(4) "State multilibrary card" means a card that is issued to a Montana resident by a public library created under Title 7 or under 22-1-303 and that may be used for library services in every public library in the state."

Section 2. Section 22-1-326, MCA, is amended to read:

"22-1-326. State aid to public libraries. (1) As used in 22-1-326 through 22-1-331, "public library" means a library created under Title 7 or under 22-1-301 through 22-1-317.

~~(1)~~(2) As provided in 22-1-325 through 22-1-329, the commission shall administer state aid to public libraries. The purposes of state aid are to:

(a) broaden access to existing information by strengthening public libraries;

(b) augment and extend services provided by public libraries; and

(c) permit new types of library services based on local need.

~~(2)~~(3) Money appropriated for the purposes of this section may not be used to supplant general operating funds of recipient public libraries. The commission may withhold a distribution to a library that receives less support from a mill levy or local government appropriation than its average for the preceding 3 fiscal years if such a decrease may reasonably be linked to money received or expected to be received under 22-1-325 through 22-1-329."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 4, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 357

[SB 136]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF LOCAL WATER QUALITY DISTRICTS; AUTHORIZING ESTABLISHMENT OF FEES; AUTHORIZING GOVERNING BODIES OF COUNTIES, CITIES, AND TOWNS THAT PARTICIPATE IN A LOCAL WATER QUALITY DISTRICT TO ADOPT LOCAL LAWS RELATED TO WATER QUALITY PROTECTION; AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES TO APPROVE LOCAL WATER QUALITY PROGRAMS; AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES TO MONITOR IMPLEMENTATION OF LOCAL WATER QUALITY PROGRAMS; AND AMENDING SECTION 75-5-106, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill in order to provide guidance to the board of health and environmental sciences concerning rulemaking and approval of local water quality programs. The board shall adopt rules concerning the format of local water quality programs, including the level of information necessary for a local water quality district to show that its proposed program will be consistent with Title 75, chapter 5, and that its program will be effective in protecting, preserving, and improving the quality of surface water and ground water. The board may define by rule the types of best management practices that may be imposed upon each of the types of facilities and sources of pollution that may be regulated by local ordinances as authorized under [section 24(4)]. It is the intent of the legislature that administrative responsibilities be clearly allocated and, when necessary, clearly divided between the department of health and environmental sciences and a local water quality district, insofar as possible, to ensure that permitholders, permit applicants, and citizens are not subject to conflicting or duplicative requirements. Through its approval of local water quality programs, the board of health and environmental sciences shall ensure that the department of health and environmental sciences' ability to continue to administer federally delegated water quality protection programs is not impaired. The board may also adopt rules to specify the procedures the department of health and environmental sciences shall follow pursuant to 75-5-106 to authorize a local water quality district to enforce provisions of Title 75, chapter 5. It is the intent of the legislature that the boundaries of local water quality districts should correspond to the area or areas in which water quality problems have been documented.

Except as expressly provided in this bill, nothing in this bill may be considered to limit or restrict the authority of local governments to adopt rules and regulations authorized by other laws of the state.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Findings and purpose. (1) Pollution and degradation of surface water and ground water pose both immediate and long-term threats to the health, safety, and welfare of citizens of this state.

(2) Because of the expense and difficulty of ground water rehabilitation and cleanup and the need to protect drinking water supplies, policies and programs to prevent ground water contamination must be implemented.

(3) The purpose of [sections 1 through 23] is to provide for the creation of local water quality districts to protect, preserve, and improve the quality of surface water and ground water.

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 23], unless the context indicates otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board of health and environmental sciences" as used in [sections 1 through 23] means the board of health and environmental sciences as provided in 2-15-2104.

(2) "Board of directors" means the board of directors provided for in [section 12] or a joint board of directors provided for in [section 21].

(3) "Commissioners" means the board of county commissioners or the governing body of a city-county consolidated government.

(4) "Family residential unit" means a single-family dwelling.

(5) "Fee-assessed units" means all real property with improvements, including taxable and tax-exempt property as shown on the property assessment records maintained by the county, and mobile homes as defined in 15-24-201.

(6) "Local water quality district" means an area established with definite boundaries for the purpose of protecting, preserving, and improving the quality of surface water and ground water in the district as authorized by [sections 1 through 23].

Section 3. Authorization to initiate creation of a local water quality district. (1) The commissioners may initiate the creation of a local water quality district for the purpose of protecting, preserving, and improving the quality of surface water and ground water, as provided by [sections 1 through 23], by holding a public meeting, passing a resolution of intention, providing an opportunity for owners of fee-assessed units to protest, and conducting a public hearing to hear and decide upon protests, as provided in [sections 5 through 8].

(2) A city or town may be included in the district if approved by the governing body of the city or town.

Section 4. Public meeting — resolution of intention to create local water quality district. (1) The commissioners shall hold at least one public meeting concerning the creation of a local water quality district prior to the passage of a resolution of intention to create the district.

(2) The resolution of intention must designate:

(a) the proposed name of the district;

(b) the necessity for the proposed district;

(c) a general description of the territory or lands included in the district, including identification of the district boundaries that must correspond to the area in which the need for the district exists pursuant to subsection (2)(b);

(d) a general description of the proposed water quality program;

(e) the initial estimated cost of the water quality program; and

(f) the initial proposed fees to be charged.

Section 5. Participation of cities and towns. (1) Upon passage of a resolution of intention, the commissioners shall transmit a copy of the resolution to the governing body of any incorporated city or town within the proposed local water quality district for consideration by the governing body.

(2) If the governing body of the city or town by resolution concurs in the resolution of intention, a copy of the resolution of concurrence must be transmitted to the commissioners.

(3) If the governing body of the incorporated city or town does not concur in the resolution of intention, the commissioners may not include the city or town in the district but may continue to develop a district that excludes the city or town.

Section 6. Notice of resolutions of intention and concurrence. (1) The commissioners shall give notice of the passage of the resolution of intention and resolution of concurrence, if applicable, and publish a notice that:

(a) describes the local water quality program that would be implemented in the local water quality district;

(b) specifies the initial proposed fees to be charged;

(c) designates the time and place where the commissioners will hear and decide upon protests made against the operation of the proposed district; and

(d) states that a description of the boundaries for the proposed district is included in the resolution on file in the county clerk's office.

(2) The notice must be published as provided in 7-1-2121 and must also be posted in three public places within the boundaries of the proposed district.

(3) The commissioners shall mail to all owners of proposed fee-assessed units, as listed in the county assessor's office, a postcard that identifies the location where the resolution of intention, resolution of concurrence, and protest forms may be obtained.

Section 7. Right to protest — procedure. (1) At any time within 30 days after the date of the first publication of the notice provided for in [section 6(1)], a person owning a fee-assessed unit located within the proposed local water quality district may make written protest against the proposed district and the fees proposed to be charged.

(2) The protest must be in writing and must be delivered to the county clerk, who shall endorse on it the date the protest is received.

(3) Owners may file one protest per fee-assessed unit.

Section 8. Hearing on protest. (1) At the next regular meeting of the commissioners after the expiration of the time period provided for in [section 7], the commissioners shall hear and decide upon all protests.

(2) The commissioners may adjourn the hearing as necessary.

Section 9. Sufficient protest to require referendum. If the owners of more than 20% of the fee-assessed units in the proposed district protest the creation of the proposed district and the fees proposed to be charged, the commissioners are barred from further proceedings on the matter unless the commissioners submit a referendum to create the district to the registered voters who reside within the proposed district and the registered voters approve the creation of the district and establish the fees by approving the referendum.

Section 10. Referendum. (1) The commissioners may adopt a resolution causing a referendum to be submitted to the registered voters who reside within a proposed local water quality district to authorize the creation of the district and establish fees.

(2) The referendum must state:

(a) the type and maximum rate of the initial proposed fees that would be imposed, consistent with the requirements of [section 18];

(b) the maximum dollar amount for a family residential unit;

(c) the type of activities proposed to be financed, including a general description of the local water quality program; and

(d) a general description of the areas included in the proposed district.

Section 11. Insufficient protest to bar proceedings — resolution creating district — power to implement local water quality program. (1) The commissioners may create a local water quality district, establish fees, and appoint a board of directors if the commissioners find that insufficient protests have been made in accordance with [section 9] or if the registered voters who reside in the proposed district have approved a referendum as provided in [section 10].

(2) To create a local water quality district, the commissioners shall pass a resolution in accordance with the resolution of intention introduced and passed by the commissioners or with the terms of the referendum.

(3) The commissioners and board of directors may implement a local water quality program after the program is approved by the board of health and environmental sciences pursuant to [section 24].

Section 12. Board of directors. (1) Except as provided in subsections (3)(b) and (5), the commissioners shall appoint a board of directors for the local water quality district.

(2) The board of directors consists of not less than five members, including one county commissioner or member of the governing body of a city-county consolidated government, one member from the governing body of each incorporated city or town that is included in the district, one member of the county or city-county board of health, and if the district includes a substantial amount of land that is within a conservation district or districts, one conservation district supervisor.

(3) The remaining members of the board of directors are selected from interested persons, as follows:

(a) from persons whose residences or businesses are distributed equally throughout the district if a county is the only unit of local government participating in the district; or

(b) through mutual agreement by all governing bodies if a county and one or more incorporated cities and towns are participating in the district.

(4) Terms of members of the board of directors are staggered and, after the initial terms, are for 3 years.

(5) In counties that have a full-time city-county health department, the city-county board of health, created as authorized by 50-2-106, may be designated as the board of directors for the local water quality district. If the city-county board of health is designated as the board of directors and if the local water quality district includes a substantial amount of land that is within a conservation district or districts, the board of directors must also include one member who is a conservation district supervisor.

Section 13. Powers and duties of board of directors. The board of directors of a local water quality district, with the approval of the commissioners, may:

(1) develop a local water quality program, to be submitted to the board of health and environmental sciences, for the protection, preservation, and improvement of the quality of surface water and ground water in the district. In developing the program, the board of directors shall consult with the board or boards of supervisors of conservation districts, established as provided in 76-15-201, whose geographical area of jurisdiction is included within the boundaries of the local water quality district.

(2) implement a local water quality program;

(3) administer the budget of the local water quality district;

(4) employ personnel;

(5) purchase, rent, or lease equipment and material necessary to develop and implement an effective program;

(6) cooperate or contract with any corporation, association, individual, or group of individuals, including any agency of the federal, state, or local governments, in order to develop and implement an effective program;

(7) receive gifts, grants, or donations for the purpose of advancing the program and acquire by gift, deed, or purchase, land necessary to implement the local water quality program;

(8) administer local ordinances that are adopted by the commissioners and governing bodies of the participating cities and towns and that pertain to the protection, preservation, and improvement of the quality of surface water and ground water;

(9) apply for and receive from the federal government or the state government, on behalf of the local water quality district, money to aid the local water quality program;

(10) borrow money for assistance in planning or refinancing a local water quality district and repay loans with the money received from the established fees; and

(11) construct facilities that cost not more than $5,000 and maintain facilities necessary to accomplish the purposes of the district, including but not limited to facilities for removal of water-borne contaminants; water quality improvement; sanitary sewage collection, disposal, and treatment; and storm water or surface water drainage collection, disposal, and treatment.

Section 14. Powers and duties of commissioners. In addition to the other powers and duties of the commissioners authorized by [sections 1 through 23], the commissioners may:

(1) adopt local ordinances in accordance with the requirements of [section 24];

(2) establish fees;

(3) review and approve the annual budget of the local water quality district; and

(4) approve the construction of facilities that cost more than $5,000 but not more than $100,000 a year and that are necessary to accomplish the purposes of [sections 1 through 23], including but not limited to facilities for removal of water-borne contaminants; water quality improvement; sanitary sewage collection, disposal, and treatment; and storm water or surface water drainage collection, disposal, and treatment.

Section 15. Implementation of program. The board of directors may implement a local water quality program in parts of a local water quality district before the program is implemented in the district as a whole. If a program is initially implemented in only a portion of a district, the fees may be levied only against that part of the district where the program is being implemented. As the program is expanded throughout the district, each additional part of the district that is covered by the program shall pay the fee.

Section 16. Changes in district boundaries. The board of directors may by resolution make changes in the boundaries of a local water quality district that the board determines are reasonable and proper, following the same procedures of notice and hearing provided in [sections 6 through 8] except that the notice provisions of [section 6(3)] apply only to the owners of proposed fee-assessed units in new areas that are proposed to be included in the district. If 20% of the owners of fee-assessed units in the new areas protest the inclusion in the district and the fees proposed to be charged, the board of directors is barred from further proceedings on the matter unless the registered voters who reside in the areas proposed for inclusion agree to be included in the district and accept the proposed fees by approving a referendum in accordance with the provisions of [section 10].

Section 17. Role of county attorney — contracts for legal services. The board of directors may, by agreement with the commissioners, contract with the county attorney or an attorney licensed to practice law in the state of Montana to perform legal services for the local water quality district.

Section 18. Fees — determination of rates — increases — exemption for agricultural water use. (1) The commissioners shall determine fee rates according to a classification system that is based upon the volume of water withdrawn and the volume and type of waste produced at each fee-assessed unit in the local water quality district.

(2) Fees for commercial and industrial units must be based on a comparison with a typical family residential unit as to volume of water withdrawn and volume and type of waste produced. Commercial and industrial units may be assessed fees that are not greater than 50 times the fees assessed on a family residential unit.

(3) The commissioners may increase fees up to 10% a year by passing a resolution to establish the new fee rate. The commissioners may not approve a proposed fee increase of more than 10% a year unless notice of the proposed increase is given as provided in [section 6(1) and (2)] and opportunity for protest is provided as set forth in [sections 7 and 8]. If more than 20% of the owners of fee assessed units in the district protest, the fee increase may not be approved except through the referendum procedure provided for in [section 10].

(4) Water withdrawals for irrigation and livestock use and related water discharges may not be assessed fees.

Section 19. Procedure to collect fees. The month the local water quality district is created pursuant to [section 11], the department of revenue or its agents shall ensure that the amount of the fees is placed on the county tax assessments for each fee-assessed unit. Unpaid fees are a lien on the fee-assessed unit and may be enforced as a lien for nonpayment of property taxes.

Section 20. Disposition and administration of proceeds. (1) All fees and other money received by a local water quality district must be placed in a separate fund maintained by the county treasurer and must be used solely for the purpose for which the local water quality district was created.

(2) The commissioners shall draw warrants upon the fund on claims approved by the board of directors.

Section 21. Creation of joint local water quality districts. (1) Joint local water quality districts are districts that encompass two or more counties or parts of counties.

(2) A joint local water quality district may be created if the commissioners of each affected county:

(a) create the district, following the procedures prescribed under [sections 3 through 11]; and

(b) appoint a joint board of directors that consists of at least five members and that is consistent with the requirement of [section 22(2)(b)], if applicable.

Section 22. Composition of board of directors of joint district — terms. (1) The board of directors for a joint district consists of one commissioner from each county involved, one member from each incorporated city or town included in the district, one member from each county or city-county board of health, and if the joint district includes a substantial amount of land that is within a conservation district or districts, one conservation district supervisor.

(2) The remaining members of the joint board of directors are selected from interested citizens, as follows:

(a) persons whose residences or businesses are distributed equally throughout the district if counties are the only units of government participating in the joint district; or

(b) through mutual agreement of all commissioners and governing bodies of cities and towns participating in the district.

(3) Terms of appointed members are staggered and, after the initial terms, are for 3 years.

Section 23. Administration of funds in joint districts. Fees and other money collected by a joint local water quality district may be administered by one county treasurer upon mutual agreement by the commissioners of the counties participating in a joint local water quality district.

Section 24. Local water quality districts — board approval — local water quality programs. (1) A county that establishes a local water quality district according to the procedures specified in [sections 1 through 23] shall, in consultation with the department, undertake planning and information-gathering activities necessary to develop a proposed local water quality program.

(2) A county may implement a local water quality program in a local water quality district if the program is approved by the board after a hearing conducted under 75-5-202.

(3) In approving a local water quality program, the board shall determine that the program is consistent with the purposes and requirements of Title 75, chapter 5, and that the program will be effective in protecting, preserving, and improving the quality of surface water and ground water, considering the administrative organization, staff, and financial and other resources available to implement the program.

(4) Subject to the board's approval, the commissioners and the governing bodies of cities and towns that participate in a local water quality district may adopt local ordinances to regulate the following specific facilities and sources of pollution:

(a) onsite waste water disposal facilities;

(b) storm water runoff from paved surfaces;

(c) service connections between buildings and publicly owned sewer mains;

(d) facilities that use or store halogenated and nonhalogenated solvents, including hazardous substances that are referenced in 40 CFR 261.31, United States environmental protection agency hazardous waste numbers F001 through F005, as amended; and

(e) internal combustion engine lubricants.

(5) For the facilities and sources of pollution included in subsection (4) and consistent with the provisions of subsection (6), the local ordinances may:

(a) be compatible with or more stringent or more extensive than the requirements imposed by 75-5-304, 75-5-305, and 75-5-401 through 75-5-404 and rules adopted under those sections to protect water quality, establish waste discharge permit requirements, and establish best management practices for substances that have the potential to pollute state waters;

(b) provide for administrative procedures, administrative orders and actions, and civil enforcement actions that are consistent with 75-5-601 through 75-5-604, 75-5-611 through 75-5-616, 75-5-621, and 75-5-622 and rules adopted under those sections; and

(c) provide for civil penalties not to exceed $1,000 per violation, provided that each day of violation of a local ordinance constitutes a separate violation, and criminal penalties not to exceed $500 per day of violation or imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or both.

(6) The local ordinances authorized by this section may not:

(a) duplicate the department's requirements and procedures relating to permitting of waste discharge sources and enforcement of water quality standards;

(b) regulate any facility or source of pollution to the extent that the facility or source is:

(i) required to obtain a permit or other approval from the department or federal government or is the subject of an administrative order, a consent decree, or an enforcement action pursuant to Title 75, chapter 5, part 4;

Title 75, chapter 6; Title 75, chapter 10; the federal Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, 42 U.S.C. 9601 through 9675, as amended; or federal environmental, safety, or health statutes and regulations;

(ii) exempted from obtaining a permit or other approval from the department because the facility or source is required to obtain a permit or other approval from another state agency or is the subject of an enforcement action by another state agency; or

(iii) subject to the provisions of Title 80, chapter 8 or chapter 15.

(7) If the boundaries of a district are changed after the board has approved the local water quality program for the district, the board of directors of the local water quality district shall submit a program amendment to the board and obtain the board's approval of the program amendment before implementing the local water quality program in areas that have been added to the district.

(8) The department shall monitor the implementation of local water quality programs to ensure that the programs are adequate to protect, preserve, and improve the quality of the surface water and ground water and are being administered in a manner consistent with the purposes and requirements of Title 75, chapter 5. If the department finds that a local water quality program is not adequate to protect, preserve, and improve the quality of the surface water and ground water or is not being administered in a manner consistent with the purposes and requirements of Title 75, chapter 5, the department shall report to the board.

(9) If the board determines that a local water quality program is inadequate to protect, preserve, and improve the quality of the surface water and ground water in the local water quality district or that the program is being administered in a manner inconsistent with Title 75, chapter 5, the board shall give notice and conduct a hearing on the matter.

(10) If after the hearing the board determines that the program is inadequate to protect, preserve, and improve the quality of the surface water and ground water in the local water quality district or that it is not being administered in a manner consistent with the purposes of Title 75, chapter 5, the board shall require that necessary corrective measures be taken within a reasonable time, not to exceed 60 days.

(11) If an ordinance adopted under this section conflicts with a requirement imposed by the department's water quality program, the department's requirement supersedes the local ordinance.

(12) If the board finds that, because of the complexity or magnitude of a particular water pollution source, the control of the source is beyond the reasonable capability of a local water quality district or may be more efficiently and economically performed at the state level, the board may direct the department to assume and retain control over the source. A charge may not be assessed against the local water quality district for that source. Findings made under this subsection may be based on the nature of the source involved or on the source's relationship to the size of the community in which it is located.

Section 25. Section 75-5-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-5-106. Interagency cooperation — enforcement authorization. (1) The council, board, and department may require the use of records of all state agencies and may seek the assistance of such agencies. State, county, and municipal officers and employees, including sanitarians and other employees of local departments of health, shall cooperate with the council, board, and department in furthering the purposes of this chapter, so far as is practicable and consistent with their other duties.

(2) The department may authorize a local water quality district established according to the provisions of [sections 1 through 23] to enforce the provisions of this chapter and rules adopted under this chapter on a case-by-case basis. If a local water quality district requests the authorization, the local water quality district shall present appropriate documentation to the department that a person is violating permit requirements established by the department or may be causing pollution, as defined in 75-5-103, of state waters or placing or causing to be placed wastes in a location where they are likely to cause pollution of state waters. The board may adopt rules regarding the granting of enforcement authority to local water quality districts."

Section 26. Codification instruction. (1) [Sections 1 through 23] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 7, and the provisions of Title 7 apply to [sections 1 through 23].

(2) [Section 24] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 75, chapter 5, and the provisions of Title 75, chapter 5, apply to [section 24].

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 358

[SB 142]

AN ACT REQUIRING THAT A PERSON WHO IS ISSUED A SPECIAL ELK PERMIT TO HUNT ANTLERLESS ELK DURING THE REGULAR HUNTING SEASON IS LIMITED TO THE HUNTING AND TAKING OF ONLY AN ANTLERLESS ELK IN THE HUNTING DISTRICT WHERE THE PERMIT IS VALID; AMENDING SECTION 87-2-704, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is provided for this bill because the legislature is aware that increasing elk populations are of concern to private landowners who are impacted by increased numbers of elk on their property. This legislation is not intended to replace the Class A-7 antlerless elk license but is intended to provide flexibility to solve problems that might arise for both landowners and sportsmen regarding surplus antlerless elk. The legislature encourages the fish and game commission and the department of fish, wildlife, and parks to utilize the Class A-7 antlerless elk license whenever practical.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-2-704, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-704. Regulation of special elk permits. (1) The department may:

(a) provide for the refund of resident elk tag license fees to persons applying for special elk permits in hunting districts where there is no general elk hunting and set time limits and describe area restrictions; and

(b) designate special elk permit areas where priority will be given to applicants who have not held special elk permits for a period of years to be determined by the department.

(2) The department shall provide that a person who is issued a special elk permit to hunt antlerless elk during the regular hunting season is:

(a) limited to the hunting and taking of only an antlerless elk in the hunting district or portion of a hunting district where the permit is valid; and

(b) entitled to the general elk hunting privileges for a holder of a Class A-5 license in all other hunting districts.

~~(2)~~(3) The department may adopt rules necessary to implement this section."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 359

[SB 156]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE AND CLARIFY THE STATE AND LOCAL REFERENDUM AND INITIATIVE PETITION PROCESSES; AMENDING SECTIONS 7-1-4130, 7-5-132, 7-5-134, 13-27-104, 13-27-202, 13-27-301, 13-27-312, AND 13-27-403, MCA; AND REPEALING SECTION 7-3-4334, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-1-4130, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-1-4130. Petition. ~~(1)~~ Whenever a petition is authorized, unless the section authorizing the petition establishes different criteria, ~~it shall be valid if it is signed by 15% of the electors of the municipality and meets the following requirements:~~

~~(a) contains a statement of the purpose for which it is circulated, sufficient to meet the specific criteria set out in the section authorizing the petition;~~

~~(b) each signature is followed by the printed name of the signer, the address of the signer's place of residence, and the date of the signing; and~~

~~(c) the petition contains the date it was first circulated and a statement that all signatures must be collected within 90 days of that date.~~

~~(2) Unless otherwise provided, all petitions shall be filed with the county election administrator, who shall determine the sufficiency of the signatures. No petition filed after the deadline for filing the petition, if any, shall be considered.~~

~~(3) Within 10 working days of the date the petition was filed, the county election administrator shall determine the adequacy of the petition.~~

~~(4) Inadequate petitions shall be returned but may be amended or supplementary signatures may be obtained, and the petition may be refiled prior to the deadline for filing the petition.~~

~~(5) Within 10 days of its second filing, the county election administrator shall again determine the adequacy of the petition. If it is still determined inadequate, it shall be rejected without prejudice to the filing of a new petition to the same effect.~~

~~(6) If a petition is determined adequate, the county election administrator shall:~~

~~(a) certify its adequacy and submit it to the governing body without delay;~~

~~(b) submit a copy of the petition to the attorney of the municipality.~~

~~(7) A person may in writing withdraw his signature from a previously filed petition at any time prior to final action of the governing body.~~

~~(8) (a) The attorney for the municipality shall prepare and transmit to the governing body without delay a concise statement not exceeding 100 words. This statement shall express a true and impartial explanation of the purpose of the proposed ballot issue in plain, easily understood language. The statement may not intentionally be an argument and may not intentionally be written so as to create prejudice for or against the measure.~~

~~(b) At the same time the statement of purpose is prepared, the attorney shall prepare statements of the implications of a vote for or against a ballot issue. The statements of implication may be no more than 25 words each and shall be in simple, impartial language clearly explaining the meaning of a vote for and a vote against the issue.~~

~~(c) Prior to an election or an official action involving a petition issue, the governing body shall publish copies of the statement of purpose and statement of implications to the procedure established in 7-1-4128.~~

~~(9) The secretary of state shall prepare and provide each municipality with:~~

~~(a) a standard petition form;~~

~~(b) sample petition forms for initiatives, referendums, and recall elections; and~~

~~(c) sample petition forms for creation of districts.~~

~~(10) Each municipality shall make available to the public on request sample petition forms~~ the petition is subject to 7-5-131 through 7-5-137."

Section 2. Section 7-5-132, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-5-132. Procedure to exercise right of initiative or referendum. (1) The electors may initiate and amend ordinances and require submission of existing ordinances to a vote of the people by petition. If ~~submitted~~ an approved petition containing sufficient signatures is filed prior to the ordinance's effective date, a petition requesting a referendum on the ordinance shall delay the ordinance's effective date until the ordinance is ratified by the electors. A petition requesting a referendum on an emergency ordinance filed within 30 days of its effective date shall suspend the ordinance until ratified by the electors.

(2) The governing body may refer existing or proposed ordinances to a vote of the people by resolution.

(3) A petition or resolution for initiative or referendum shall:

(a) embrace only a single comprehensive subject;

(b) set out fully the ordinance sought by petitioners or, in the case of an amendment, set out fully the ordinance sought to be amended and the proposed amendment or, in the case of referendum, set out the ordinance sought to be repealed;

(c) be in the form prescribed in Title 13, chapter 27, except as specifically provided in this part; ~~and~~

(d) contain the signatures of 15% of the registered electors of the local government*; and*

(e) contain transition provisions if the measure changes terms of office or forms of government."

Section 3. Section 7-5-134, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-5-134. Signatures — submission for approval — statement of purpose and implication. (1) In order to determine the number of signatures needed on a petition to meet the percentage requirements of this part, the number of electors shall be the number of individuals registered to vote at the preceding general election for the local government.

(2) Before a petition may be circulated for signatures, a sample petition must be submitted in the form in which it will be circulated to the county election administrator for approval as to form. ~~The election administrator shall review the sample petition to ensure compliance with 7-5-131 and 7-5-132.~~

(3) The county election administrator shall refer a copy of the sample petition sheet to the attorney for the local government unit ~~for preparation of the ballot statement~~. The local government attorney shall review the sample petition for form and compliance with 7-5-131 and 7-5-132 and prepare a concise ballot statement not exceeding 100 words. ~~This~~ The ballot statement must be an accurate and impartial explanation of the purpose of the proposed ballot issue in plain, easily understood language. The statement may not be an argument and may not be written so as to create prejudice for or against the issue. The statement prepared pursuant to this subsection, unless altered by court order, must be used as the petition title and the ballot statement if the issue is placed on the ballot.

(4) At the time the statement of purpose is prepared, the attorney shall prepare a statement of the implication of a vote for and a statement of the implication of a vote against the ballot issue. Each statement of implication may be no more than 25 words and must be in simple, impartial language that clearly explains the meaning of a vote for or a vote against the issue. Each statement of implication prepared pursuant to this section, unless altered by a court order, is to be used on the petition and the ballot if the issue is placed on the ballot. The statements of implication must be placed beside the diagram provided for marking of the ballot in a manner similar to the following example:

☐ FOR weekly commission meetings.

☐ AGAINST weekly commission meetings.

(5) If the petition is rejected as to form, the election administrator must send written notice and a statement of the reasons for rejection to the person who submitted the sample petition within ~~10~~ 21 days after submission of the sample.

(6) If the petition is approved as to form, the election administrator shall send written notice to the person who submitted the sample petition within 21 days after submission of the sample. This notice must include the ballot statement and the statements of implication prepared by the local government attorney.

(7) All petition signatures must be collected and filed within 90 days of the date of the notice that the petition has been approved as to form."

Section 4. Section 13-27-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-27-104. Time for filing. Unless a specific time for filing is provided in the constitution, all petitions filed with the secretary of state, certified as provided by law, must be received before 5 p.m. of the ~~second~~ third Friday of the fourth month prior to the election at which they are to be voted upon by the people."

Section 5. Section 13-27-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-27-202. Recommendations — approval of form required. (1) Before submission of a sample sheet to the secretary of state pursuant to subsection (3), the following requirements must be fulfilled:

(a) The text of the proposed measure must be submitted to the legislative council for review.

(b) The council staff shall review the text for clarity, consistency, and any other factors the council staff considers when drafting proposed legislation.

(c) Within 14 days after submission of the text, the council staff shall make to the person submitting the text written recommendations for changes in the text or a statement that no changes are recommended.

(d) The person submitting the text shall consider any such recommendations and respond in writing to the council, accepting, rejecting, or modifying each of the recommended changes. If no changes are recommended, no response is required.

(2) The legislative council shall furnish a copy of the correspondence provided for in subsection (1) to the secretary of state, who shall make a copy thereof available to any person upon request.

(3) Before a petition may be circulated for signatures, a sample sheet containing the text of the proposed measure must be submitted to the secretary of state in the form in which it will be circulated. The sample petition may not be submitted to the secretary of state more than 1 year prior to the final date for filing the signed petition with the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall refer a copy of the petition sheet to the attorney general for his approval. The secretary of state and attorney general must each review the petition for sufficiency as to form and approve or reject the form of the petition, stating the reasons for rejection, if any. The secretary of state or the attorney general may not reject the petition solely because the text contains material not submitted to the legislative council, unless the material not submitted to the legislative council is a substantive change not suggested by the legislative council.

(4) The secretary of state shall review the comments and statements of the attorney general received pursuant to 13-27-312 and make a final decision as to the approval or rejection of the form of the petition. The secretary of state shall send written notice to the person who submitted the petition sheet of the approval or rejection within 28 days after submission of the petition sheet. ~~The secretary of state shall send written~~ If the petition is rejected, the notice ~~if the petition has been rejected, together with~~ must include reasons for rejection~~, within 14 days after submission of the petition sheet~~.

(5) A petition with technical defects in form may be approved with the condition that those defects will be corrected before the petition is circulated for signatures.

(6) The secretary of state shall upon request provide the person submitting the petition with a sample petition form, including the text of the proposed measure, the statement of purpose, and the statements of implications, all as approved by the secretary of state and the attorney general. The petition may be circulated in the form of the sample prepared by the secretary of state."

Section 6. Section 13-27-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-27-301. Submission of petition sheets — withdrawal of signatures. (1) Signed sheets or sections of petitions shall be submitted to the official responsible for registration of electors in the county in which the signatures were obtained no sooner than 9 months and no later than ~~2~~ 4 weeks before the final date for filing the petition with the secretary of state.

(2) Signatures may be withdrawn from a petition for constitutional amendment, constitutional convention, initiative, or referendum up to the time of final submission of petition sheets as provided in subsection (1). The secretary of state shall prescribe the form to be used by an elector desiring to have his signature withdrawn from a petition."

Section 7. Section 13-27-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-27-312. Review of petition by attorney general — preparation of statements — fiscal note. (1) Upon receipt of a petition from the office of the secretary of state pursuant to 13-27-202, the attorney general shall examine the petition as to form and, if the proposed ballot issue has an effect on the revenues, expenditures, or the fiscal liability of the state, shall order a fiscal note incorporating an estimate of such effect, the substance of which must substantially comply with the provisions of 5-4-205. The budget director, in cooperation with the agency or agencies affected by the petition, is responsible for preparing the fiscal note and shall return it within 6 days unless the attorney general, for good cause shown, extends the time for completing the fiscal note.

(2) If the petition form is approved, the attorney general shall endeavor to seek out parties on both sides of the issue and obtain their advice. The attorney general ~~may, if he deems it necessary, appoint a five-member committee to recommend the statement of purpose and the statement of the implications of the measure. The committee shall consist of two persons recommended by the person filing the petition, two persons known to oppose the measure, and one representative of the attorney general's office, who is~~

~~the chairman. The committee shall, within 14 days of appointment, meet and recommend by a vote of a majority of the committee~~ shall prepare:

(a) a statement, not to exceed 100 words, explaining the purpose of the measure; and

(b) statements, not to exceed 25 words each, explaining the implications of a vote for and a vote against the measure.

~~(2) The attorney general may accept, reject, or modify the statements recommended by the committee. If the committee is unable to recommend one or both statements, the attorney general shall prepare the statements.~~

(3) The attorney general shall prepare a fiscal statement of no more than 50 words if a fiscal note was prepared for the proposed ballot issue, such statement to be used on the petition and ballot if the measure is placed on the ballot.

(4) The statement of purpose and the statements of implication must express the true and impartial explanation of the proposed ballot issue in plain, easily understood language and may not be arguments or written so as to create prejudice for or against the measure.

(5) The statement of purpose ~~prepared pursuant to subsection (1) or (2)~~, unless altered by a court under 13-27-316, is the petition title for the measure circulated by the petition and the ballot title if the measure is placed on the ballot.

(6) The statements of implication shall be placed beside the diagram provided for marking of the ballot in a manner similar to but not limited to the following example:

☐ FOR extending the right to vote to persons 18 years of age

☐ AGAINST extending the right to vote to persons 18 years of age

(7) If the petition is rejected as to form, the attorney general shall forward his comments to the secretary of state within ~~10~~ 21 days after receipt of the petition by the attorney general. If the petition is approved as to form, the attorney general shall forward the statement of purpose, the statements of implication, and the fiscal statement, if applicable, to the secretary of state within 21 days after receipt of the petition by the attorney general."

Section 8. Section 13-27-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-27-403. Appointment to committee. (1) ~~Appointments~~ Except as provided in subsection (2), appointments to committees advocating approval or rejection of an act referred to the people, ~~or~~ a constitutional amendment proposed by the legislature, or a ballot measure referred to the people by referendum petition or proposed by any type of initiative petition shall be made no later than 6 months before the election at which the ballot issue will be voted on by the people.

(2) Appointments to committees advocating approval or rejection of a ballot measure referred to the people by referendum petition or proposed by any type of initiative petition that is approved less than 7 months before the election at which the ballot issue will be voted on by the people shall be made no later than 30 days after the measure is approved for circulation by the secretary of state. All persons responsible for appointing members to the committee shall submit to the secretary of state the names and addresses of the appointees no later than the date set by this subsection. Such submission must include the written acceptance of appointment from each appointee required by section 13-27-402(6).

(3) All appointees to a committee pursuant to subsection (1) must be notified by the secretary of state by certified mail, with return receipt requested, no later than 5 days after the deadline set for appointment of committee members, of the deadlines for submission of the committee's arguments.

(4) All appointees to a committee pursuant to subsection (2) must be notified by the secretary of state by certified mail, with return receipt requested, no later than 35 days after the petition has been approved for circulation, of the deadlines for submission of the committee's arguments.

(5) Committees appointed under subsections (2)(b), (4), and (5) of 13-27-402 must be vacated and have no further obligation if the ballot measure for which they were appointed fails to receive sufficient signatures to place it on the ballot. The secretary of state shall notify the committee members of the failure of a ballot measure to receive sufficient signatures no later than 3 days after the filing deadline set in 13-27-104."

Section 9. Repealer. Section 7-3-4334, MCA, is repealed.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 360

[SB 165]

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE MAXIMUM ALLOWABLE FIRE PROTECTION ASSESSMENT FOR FOREST LAND IN A FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT; AMENDING SECTION 76-13-201, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 76-13-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-13-201. Duty of owner to protect against fire. (1) An owner of forest land classified as such by the department shall protect against the starting or existence and suppress the spread of fire on that land. This protection and suppression shall be in conformity with reasonable rules and standards for adequate fire protection adopted by the board.

(2) If the owner does not provide for the protection and suppression, the department may provide it at a cost to the landowner of not more than ~~17~~ $30 for each landowner in the protection district and of not more than an additional 20 cents per acre per year ~~except that the department shall make a minimum assessment of up to $14 per owner per year~~ for each acre in excess of 20 acres owned by each landowner in each protection district, as necessary to yield the amount of money provided for in 76-13-207. The owner of the land shall pay to the county treasurer of the county in which the land is situated the charge for the same approved by the department in accordance with this part and part 1.

(3) No other charges may be assessed those landowners participating except in cases of proven negligence on the part of the landowner or his agent."

(4) Three months before the general election in a general election year, the remainder of any money in the fund ~~shall~~ must be ~~remitted to the treasurer of each candidate~~ paid to all eligible candidates in the same proportion as provided in subsection (3)(b).

(5) Money distributed from the fund must be deposited in a campaign account separate from a personal account and from any other campaign account and must be spent only for legitimate campaign expenses of the candidates."

Section 3. Section 13-37-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"13-37-305. Records to be kept — availability. (1) The treasurer of each ~~political party~~ candidate shall maintain a complete record of all disbursements of funds received ~~by him~~ under 13-37-304 and used for the candidate's campaign expenses plus receipts or other evidence of each expense.

(2) The record ~~shall~~ must be available for inspection by anyone at any reasonable time. A copy ~~shall~~ must be ~~deposited in the office of the secretary of state~~ filed with the commissioner by December 31 of each general election year."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 362

[SB 188]

AN ACT ADDING ACUPUNCTURISTS TO THE GROUP OF HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS FOR WHICH FREEDOM OF CHOICE IN SELECTION MUST BE PROVIDED TO INSURED PERSONS UNDER DISABILITY INSURANCE POLICIES; ADDING SERVICES OF A LICENSED ACUPUNCTURIST TO THE LIST OF HEALTH SERVICES FOR WHICH A HEALTH SERVICE CORPORATION MAY BE ORGANIZED; AMENDING SECTIONS 33-22-111 AND 33-30-101, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 33-22-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-22-111. Policies to provide for freedom of choice of practitioners — professional practice not enlarged. (1) All policies of disability insurance, including individual, group, and blanket policies, and all policies insuring the payment of compensation under the Workers' Compensation Act shall provide the insured shall have full freedom of choice in the selection of any duly licensed physician, physician assistant-certified, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, podiatrist, psychologist, licensed social worker, licensed professional counselor, acupuncturist, or nurse specialist as specifically listed in 37-8-202 for treatment of any illness or injury within the scope and limitations of his practice. Whenever such policies insure against the expense of drugs, the insured shall have full freedom of choice in the selection of any duly licensed and registered pharmacist.

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as enlarging the scope and limitations of practice of any of the licensed professions enumerated in subsection (1); nor shall this section be construed as amending, altering, or repealing any statutes relating to the licensing or use of hospitals."

Section 2. Section 33-30-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-30-101. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Health service corporation" means a nonprofit corporation organized or operating for the purposes of establishing and operating a nonprofit plan or plans under which prepaid hospital care, medical-surgical care, and other health care and services, or reimbursement therefor, may be furnished to a member or beneficiary.

(3) "Membership contract" means any agreement, contract, or certificate by which a health service corporation describes the health services or benefits provided to its members or beneficiaries."

Section 3. Applicability. [This act] applies to disability insurance policies issued or renewed and to health service corporations organized or operating in this state on or after October 1, 1991.

Approved April 5, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 363

[SB 225]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE LAWS RELATING TO THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE OIL AND GAS CONSERVATION LAWS BY THE BOARD OF OIL AND GAS CONSERVATION; CLARIFYING THE AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD TO CONDUCT REHEARINGS ON RULES OR ORDERS ISSUED BY THE BOARD; REVISING THE CIVIL PENALTY TO AT LEAST $75 AND NOT MORE THAN $10,000 A DAY FOR A VIOLATION OF A RULE OR ORDER OF THE BOARD OR OF A PROVISION OF TITLE 82, CHAPTER 11, MCA; AMENDING SECTIONS 82-11-143 AND 82-11-149, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 82-11-143, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-11-143. Rehearing. A person adversely affected by a rule or order of the board may within 20 days after its effective date apply to the board in writing for a rehearing. The application for rehearing ~~shall~~ must be acted upon ~~within 10 days~~ at the board's next regularly scheduled meeting after ~~its~~ filing of the application, and if granted, the rehearing ~~shall~~ must be held without undue delay."

Section 2. Section 82-11-149, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-11-149. Civil penalties. (1) A person is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to a civil penalty of at least ~~$5,000~~ $75 and not more than $10,000 a day for each violation if that person violates any rule or order of the board or a provision of this chapter. Each day of violation constitutes a separate violation.

(2) Action under this section does not bar enforcement of this chapter or of rules or orders issued under it by injunction or other appropriate remedy.

(3) The board, or the attorney general upon request of the board, shall institute and maintain any enforcement proceedings in the name of the state."

Section 3. Saving clause. [This act] does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, or proceedings that were begun before [the effective date of this act].

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 364

[SB 243]

AN ACT MAKING THE CHIEF WATER JUDGE A MEMBER OF THE JUDGES' RETIREMENT SYSTEM; PROVIDING FUNDING; AMENDING SECTION 19-5-301, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 19-5-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-5-301. Membership. (1) A judge or justice who was a member of the PERS prior to December 31, 1984, may elect to remain under that system by notifying the public employees' retirement board in writing of the election on or before October 1, 1985.

(2) Every other judge of a district court, ~~or~~ justice of the supreme court, and the chief water judge provided for in 3-7-221 must be a member of the Montana judges' retirement system."

Section 2. Funding. The state of Montana shall contribute monthly from the water development account in the state special revenue fund to the judges' retirement fund an amount equal to 34.71% of the salary paid to the chief water court judge.

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 365

[SB 264]

AN ACT DIRECTING THE LEGISLATIVE AUDITOR TO DETERMINE THE VALUE OF PAST SERVICE LIABILITY OF TEACHERS' RETIREMENT SYSTEM MEMBERS OF THE MONTANA UNIVERSITY SYSTEM; AMENDING SECTION 19-21-111, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 19-21-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"19-21-111. Actuarial investigation to determine ~~unfunded~~ past service liability compared to contributions required. (1) ~~On June 30, 1990, the teachers' retirement board shall make an actuarial investigation of the teachers' retirement system to determine the past service unfunded liability of active, inactive, and retired members of the Montana university system. The valuation must determine the effect on the amortization of the unfunded liability of the teachers' retirement system caused by persons electing to participate in the optional retirement program.~~ The legislative auditor shall, using independent actuarial assistance as necessary and in cooperation with the teachers' retirement board and the board of regents, determine the dollar value of past service liability of active, inactive, and retired teachers' retirement system members of the Montana university system as compared to contributions required of the Montana university system on behalf of teachers' retirement system members pursuant to 19-4-605. The ~~board~~ legislative auditor shall report ~~its~~ his findings to the ~~52nd~~ 53rd legislature. The office of the commissioner of higher education shall pay for the determination, required by this section, of past service liability of teachers' retirement system members compared to contributions required of the Montana university system.

(2) If the valuation determines that the percentage contribution established in 19-21-203(2)(b) has an adverse effect on the amortization of the unfunded liability, then the board of regents shall pay an additional sum over a period of 40 years to rectify the adverse effect.

(3) Changes in the teachers' retirement system occurring after July 1, 1987, that create additional unfunded liabilities may not be considered in the valuation, and the board of regents may not be required to pay any additional sum on that account except to the extent that those changes benefit members of the teachers' retirement system who are employees of the Montana university system.

(4) If the valuation determines that the board of regents is paying an amount in excess of that needed to amortize the unfunded liability, the teachers' retirement board shall credit the board of regents for the excess payments. The board of regents shall credit the active participants in the optional retirement program with the excess payments."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 366

[HB 382]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE DAM SAFETY ACT; CLARIFYING THE DEFINITIONS OF DAM AND RESERVOIR; EXEMPTING NONFEDERAL DAMS AND RESERVOIRS ON FEDERAL LANDS THAT ARE SUBJECT TO DAM SAFETY REVIEW BY A FEDERAL AGENCY FROM STATE DAM SAFETY REVIEW; AMENDING SECTIONS 85-15-106 AND 85-15-107, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY PROVISION.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-15-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-15-106. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this chapter the following definitions apply:

(1) "Alterations" or "repairs" means alterations or repairs that may directly affect the safety of a dam or reservoir.

(2) "Appurtenant works" means all works incident or attached to a dam or reservoir, including but not limited to:

(a) a spillway, either in the dam or separate from it;

(b) the reservoir and its rim;

(c) a low-level outlet; and

(d) a water conduit such as a tunnel, pipeline, or penstock, either through the dam or its abutments.

(3) "Construction" or "construct" includes construction, alteration, repair, enlargement, or removal of a dam or reservoir.

(4) "Dam" means any artificial barrier, including appurtenant works, used to impound or divert water with an impounding capacity of 50 acre-feet or greater measured at maximum normal operating pool.

(5) "Department" means the department of natural resources and conservation provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 33.

(6) "Emergency" means any threat to life caused by the condition of a dam or reservoir or by present or imminent floods that threaten the structural integrity of any dam or reservoir.

(7) "Engineer" means a registered professional engineer licensed to practice in the state of Montana under Title 37, chapter 67, part 3.

(8) "Enlargement" means any change in or addition to an existing dam or reservoir that raises or may raise the water storage elevation or increases the impoundment capacity of the reservoir.

(9) "High-hazard dam" means any dam or reservoir the failure of which would be likely to cause loss of life.

(10) "Inspection" means a visual or mechanical check, a measurement, a boring, or any other method necessary for determination of the adequacy of construction techniques, conformity of work with approved plans and specifications, or the safety and operating performance of a dam or reservoir.

(11) "Owner" means any person who owns, controls, operates, maintains, manages, or proposes to construct a dam or reservoir.

(12) "Person" means an individual, association, partnership, corporation, business trust, state agency, political subdivision, utility, municipal or quasi-municipal corporation, or any other entity or any authorized agent, lessee, or trustee of any of the foregoing.

(13) "Removal" means removing, taking down, or changing the location of any dam or reservoir.

(14) "Reservoir" means any valley, basin, coulee, ravine, or other land area that contains 50 acre-feet or more of impounded water measured at maximum normal operating pool."

Section 2. Section 85-15-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-15-107. Exemptions. The provisions of 85-15-105, 85-15-106, 85-15-108 through 85-15-110, 85-15-209 through 85-15-216, 85-15-305, 85-15-401, 85-15-501, and 85-15-502 do not apply to dams subject to a permit issued pursuant to 82-4-335 for the period during which the dam is subject to the permit. The provisions of 85-15-108 through 85-15-110, 85-15-209 through 85-15-216, 85-15-305, 85-15-401, 85-15-501, and 85-15-502 do not apply to federal dams and reservoirs, to nonfederal dams and reservoirs located on federal lands if they are subject to a dam safety review by a federal agency, or to dams and reservoirs licensed and subject to inspection by the federal energy regulatory commission. The provisions of 85-15-105, 85-15-106, 85-15-108 through 85-15-110, 85-15-209 through 85-15-216, 85-15-305, 85-15-401, 85-15-501, and 85-15-502 do not apply to dams that are required to obtain a certificate of environmental compatibility and public need pursuant to 75-20-201 for the period during which the dam is subject to the certificate. In addition, the provisions of 85-15-108 through 85-15-110, 85-15-209 through 85-15-216, 85-15-305, 85-15-401, 85-15-501, and 85-15-502 do not apply until July 1, 1990, to high-hazard dams that have been inspected by the U.S. army corps of engineers pursuant to P.L. 92-367 and for which resultant dam safety reports have been submitted to the owner."

Section 3. Retroactive applicability. [Section 2] applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to all nonfederal dams and reservoirs located on federal lands if a federal agency provides a dam safety review for the nonfederal dams or reservoirs.

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 367

[HB 495]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A POLICY FOR ADDRESSING IMPROVEMENTS IN STATE PARKS AND FISHING ACCESS SITES; AND REQUIRING THE FISH AND GAME COMMISSION TO ADOPT RULES TO IMPLEMENT THE POLICY.

WHEREAS, it is in the best interests of the State of Montana that the state parks and fishing access site systems have an improvement and development policy that reflects the concerns of a majority of the users of Montana's state parks and fishing access sites.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 1] requires the fish and game commission to adopt rules establishing a policy for certain development of state parks and fishing access sites. It is intended that the policy address, at a minimum:

(1) the desires of park and fishing access site users and the public;

(2) the capacity of the park or fishing access site for development;

(3) environmental impacts associated with development;

(4) the long-range ability of the state to maintain the improvements;

(5) the protection of natural, cultural, and historical park and fishing access site features; and

(6) potential impacts on tourism.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Improvement or development of state park or fishing access site — required public involvement — rules. (1) The fish and game commission shall adopt rules establishing a policy whereby any proposed improvement or development of a state park or fishing access site that significantly changes park or fishing access site features or use patterns is subject to notice of proposed modifications, both statewide and locally, and to opportunity for a public meeting and public comment on the advisability and acceptability of the proposal.

(2) The department shall prepare a public report regarding any project that is subject to the provisions of subsection (1). The report must include conclusions relating to the following aspects of the proposal:

(a) the desires of the public as expressed to the department;

(b) the capacity of the park or fishing access site for development;

(c) environmental impacts associated with the improvement or development;

(d) the long-range maintenance of the improvements;

(e) the protection of natural, cultural, and historical park or fishing access site features;

(f) potential impacts on tourism; and

(g) site-specific modifications as they relate to the park or fishing access site system as a whole.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 23, chapter 1, part 1, and the provisions of Title 23, chapter 1, part 1, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 368

[HB 552]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE MONTANA BUSINESS CORPORATION LAW; AMENDING SECTIONS 15-31-103, 20-5-303, 20-5-313, 33-3-103, 33-3-601, 33-3-602, 33-3-603, 33-17-204, 33-17-211, 33-31-201, 35-1-515, 35-1-604, 35-2-202, 35-5-201, 35-6-104, 35-6-201, 35-9-103, 35-9-201, 35-9-205, 35-9-302, 35-9-303, 35-9-305, 35-9-402, 35-9-404, 35-9-501, 35-9-504, 35-12-1204, 35-15-201, 35-16-202, 35-17-202, 35-18-203, 35-20-103, 69-14-501, 80-12-203, MCA; REPEALING SECTIONS 35-1-102 THROUGH 35-1-108, 35-1-110, 35-1-111, 35-1-201 THROUGH 35-1-214, 35-1-301 THROUGH 35-1-307, 35-1-401 THROUGH 35-1-411, 35-1-413 THROUGH 35-1-415, 35-1-501 THROUGH 35-1-514, 35-1-601 THROUGH 35-1-603, 35-1-605 THROUGH 35-1-607, 35-1-609 THROUGH 35-1-612, 35-1-617, 35-1-711, 35-1-801, 35-1-803 THROUGH 35-1-810, 35-1-812, 35-1-901 THROUGH 35-1-912, 35-1-921 THROUGH 35-1-927, 35-1-929, 35-1-930, 35-1-1001 THROUGH 35-1-1013, 35-1-1015 THROUGH 35-1-1020, 35-1-1025, 35-1-1101 THROUGH 35-1-1103, 35-1-1201 THROUGH 35-1-1205, AND 35-1-1301 THROUGH 35-1-1306, MCA; AND PROVIDING A DELAYED EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because the secretary of state is authorized to adopt rules prescribing forms and establishing fees. The fees should be established to be commensurate with the cost of the services provided. Existing forms should be modified to the extent necessary to conform to this bill whenever possible. New forms should be as easy to use as possible.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 181], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Articles of incorporation" include amended and restated articles of incorporation and articles of merger.

(2) "Authorized shares" means the shares of all classes that a domestic or foreign corporation is authorized to issue.

(3) "Conspicuous" means written so that a reasonable person against whom the writing is to operate should have noticed it. For example, printing in italics, boldface, or contrasting color or typing in capitals or underlining is conspicuous.

(4) "Corporation" or "domestic corporation" means a corporation for profit that is not a foreign corporation and that is incorporated under or subject to the provisions of [sections 1 through 181].

(5) "Deliver" includes mail.

(6) "Distribution" means a direct or indirect transfer of money or other property, except its own shares, or an incurrence of indebtedness, by a corporation to or for the benefit of its shareholders in respect of any of its shares. A distribution may be in the form of a declaration or payment of a dividend; a purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of shares; a distribution of indebtedness; or other form.

(7) "Effective date of notice" means the date determined as provided in [section 2].

(8) "Employee" includes an officer but not a director. A director may accept duties that make that director an employee.

(9) "Entity" includes:

(a) a corporation and a foreign corporation;

(b) a not-for-profit corporation;

(c) a profit and a not-for-profit unincorporated association;

(d) a business trust, estate, partnership, trust, and two or more persons having a joint or common economic interest; and

(e) a state, the United States, or a foreign government.

(10) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation for profit incorporated under a law other than the law of this state.

(11) "Governmental subdivision" includes an authority, county, district, and city or town.

(12) "Includes" denotes a partial definition.

(13) "Individual" includes the estate of an incompetent or deceased individual.

(14) "Means" denotes an exhaustive definition.

(15) "Notice" means notice as provided in [section 2].

(16) "Person" includes an individual and an entity.

(17) "Principal office" means the office, whether in-state or out-of-state, that is designated in the annual report as the office where the principal executive offices of a domestic or foreign corporation are located.

(18) "Proceeding" includes a civil suit and a criminal, administrative, and investigatory action.

(19) "Record date" means the date established under [sections 33 through 48] or [sections 49 through 74] on which a corporation determines the identity of its shareholders and their shareholdings for purposes of [sections 1 through 181]. The determination must be made as of the close of business on the record date unless another time for determination is specified when the record date is fixed.

(20) "Secretary" means the corporate officer to whom the board of directors has delegated responsibility under [section 94] for custody of the minutes of the meetings of the board of directors, for custody of the minutes of the shareholders' meetings, and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(21) "Share" means the unit into which the proprietary interests in a corporation are divided.

(22) "Shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

(23) "State", when referring to a part of the United States, includes a state, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession of the United States and the agencies and governmental subdivisions of the entities listed.

(24) "Subscriber" means a person who subscribes for shares in a corporation, whether before or after incorporation.

(25) "United States" includes a district, an authority, a bureau, a commission, a department, and any other agency of the United States.

(26) "Voting group" means shares of one or more classes or series that under the articles of incorporation of [sections 1 through 181] are entitled to vote and be counted together collectively on a matter at a meeting of shareholders. All shares entitled by the articles of incorporation or [sections 1 through 181] to vote generally on the matter are for that purpose a single voting group.

Section 2. Notice. (1) Notice under [sections 1 through 181] must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable under the circumstances.

(2) Notice may be communicated in person; by telephone, telegraph, teletype, facsimile, or other form of wire or wireless communication; or by mail or private carrier. If these forms of personal notice are impracticable, notice may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the area where it is published or by radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication.

(3) Written notice by a domestic or foreign corporation to its shareholders, if in a comprehensible form, is effective when mailed if it is mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the shareholder's address shown in the corporation's current record of shareholders.

(4) Written notice to a domestic or foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, may be addressed to:

(a) its registered agent at its registered office; or

(b) the corporation or its secretary at its principal office as shown in its most recent annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an annual report, in its application for a certificate of authority.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), written notice, if in a comprehensible form, is effective at the earliest of the following:

(a) when received;

(b) 5 days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if mailed postpaid with correct postage; or

(c) on the date shown on the return receipt, if sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee.

(6) Oral notice is effective when communicated if it is communicated in a comprehensible manner.

(7) If [sections 1 through 181] prescribe notice requirements for particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe notice requirements that are consistent with this section or other provisions of [sections 1 through 181], those requirements govern.

Section 3. Reservation of power to amend or repeal. The legislature has power to amend or repeal all or part of [sections 1 through 181] at any time, and all domestic and foreign corporations subject to [sections 1 through 181] are governed by the amendment or repeal.

Section 4. Filing requirements. All of the following requirements must be met before a document is entitled to be filed under this section by the secretary of state:

(1) A document that is required or permitted by [sections 1 through 181] to be filed in the office of the secretary of state must satisfy the requirements of this section and of any other section that adds to or varies these requirements.

(2) The document must contain the information required by [sections 1 through 181]. It may contain other information as well.

(3) The document must be typewritten or printed.

(4) The document must be in the English language. A corporate name need not be in English if it is written in English letters or Arabic or Roman numerals. The certificate of existence required of foreign corporations need not be in English if it is accompanied by a reasonably authenticated English translation.

(5) The document must be executed:

(a) by the chairman of the board of directors of a domestic or foreign corporation, by its president, or by another of its officers;

(b) if directors have not been selected or the corporation has not been formed, by an incorporator; or

(c) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

(6) The person executing the document shall sign it and state beneath or opposite the person's signature the person's name and the capacity in which the person signs. The document may but need not contain the corporate seal, an attestation by the secretary or an assistant secretary, and an acknowledgment, verification, or proof.

(7) The document must be in or on the prescribed form if the secretary of state has prescribed a mandatory form for the document under [section 6].

(8) The document must be delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing and must be accompanied by:

(a) one copy, except as provided in [sections 30 and 168];

(b) the correct filing fee; and

(c) any franchise tax, license fee, or penalty required by [sections 1 through 181], rules promulgated under [sections 1 through 181], or other law.

Section 5. Facsimile filing — requirements — liability. (1) The secretary of state shall treat a facsimile copy of a document that is required or permitted to be filed under [sections 1 through 181] and the signatures on the facsimile copy in the same manner as an original for purposes of [sections 1 through 181] provided that the secretary of state receives the original document within 5 working days of the receipt of the facsimile copy. If all other requirements are met, the date of filing relates back to the date of receipt of the facsimile copy.

(2) A facsimile copy is entitled to be filed under this section if it is:

(a) produced by a method of transmission of images in which the image is scanned at the transmitter; and

(b) legible and the same size as the original.

(3) During the 5-day period referred to in subsection (1), the recorded facsimile copy constitutes constructive notice for all purposes of the original document.

(4) If the original document is not received within 5 working days of receipt of the facsimile copy as provided in subsection (1), the filing of the facsimile copy is void.

(5) A person who files a false document by facsimile copy is liable to an aggrieved party for three times the amount of damages resulting from the filing of the false document.

Section 6. Forms. (1) The secretary of state may by rule prescribe and furnish on request forms or computer formats for:

(a) an application for a certificate of existence;

(b) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state;

(c) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of withdrawal;

(d) the annual report; and

(e) other documents required or permitted to be filed by [sections 1 through 181].

(2) If the secretary of state so requires, use of any of the forms or formats listed in subsection (1) is mandatory.

Section 7. Fees for filing, copying, and services. (1) The secretary of state shall establish by rule fees for filing documents and issuing certificates as required by [sections 1 through 181].

(2) The secretary of state shall establish by rule fees for copying documents, priority handling, transmitting or filing facsimile copies, and providing computer-generated information.

(3) The fees prescribed under this section must be reasonably related to the costs of processing the documents and preparing and providing the services. The secretary of state shall maintain records sufficient to support the fees established under this section.

Section 8. License fee. (1) In addition to the filing fee authorized by [section 7], the secretary of state shall charge and collect from each domestic corporation a license fee based upon the number of shares that it will have authority to issue or the increase in the number of shares that it will have authority to issue, at the time of:

(a) filing its articles of incorporation;

(b) filing articles of amendment increasing the number of authorized shares; and

(c) filing articles of merger or consolidation increasing the number of authorized shares that the surviving or new corporation, if a domestic corporation, will have authority to issue above the aggregate number of shares that the constituent domestic corporations and constituent foreign corporations authorized to transact business in this state have authority to issue.

(2) The license fee for domestic corporations is as follows:

(a) 0 to 50,000 shares	$ 50
(b) 50,000 to 100,000 shares	100
(c) 100,000 to 250,000 shares	250
(d) 250,000 to 500,000 shares	400
(e) 500,000 to 1,000,000 shares	600
(f) over 1,000,000 shares	1,000

(3) In addition to the filing fee authorized by [section 7], the secretary of state shall charge and collect from each foreign corporation a license fee of $100 at the time of filing an application for a certificate of authority to transact business.

Section 9. Effective time and date of document. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) and [section 10], a document accepted for filing is effective:

(a) at the time of filing on the date it is filed, as evidenced by the secretary of state's date and time endorsement on the original document; or

(b) at the time specified in the document as its effective time on the date it is filed.

(2) A document may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does so the document becomes effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the document is effective at the close of business on that date. A delayed effective date for a document may not be later than 90 days after the date it is filed.

Section 10. Correcting filed document. (1) A domestic or foreign corporation may correct a document filed by the secretary of state if the document contains an incorrect statement or was defectively executed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged.

(2) A document is corrected by:

(a) preparing articles of correction that:

(i) describe the document including its filing date, or have attached a copy of the document;

(ii) specify the incorrect statement and the reason it is incorrect or the manner in which the execution was defective; and

(iii) correct the incorrect statement or defective execution; and

(b) delivering the articles to the secretary of state for filing.

(3) Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.

Section 11. Filing duty of secretary of state. (1) If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing satisfies the requirements of [section 4] and [section 5], if applicable, the secretary of state shall file it.

(2) The secretary of state shall file a document by stamping or otherwise endorsing "Filed", together with the secretary of state's name, official title, and the date and time of receipt, on the original, the document copy, and the receipt for the filing fee. Except as provided in [section 30] and 35-1-1014, after filing a document, the secretary of state shall deliver the document copy to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative, along with the filing fee receipt or acknowledgment of receipt if no fee is required.

(3) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document, the secretary of state shall return it to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative within 10 days after the document was delivered, together with a brief written explanation of the reason for the refusal.

(4) The secretary of state's duty to file documents under this section is ministerial. The secretary of state's filing or refusing to file a document does not:

(a) affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or part;

(b) relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the document; or

(c) create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

Section 12. Appeal from secretary of state's refusal to file document. (1) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document delivered to the secretary of state's office for filing, the domestic or foreign corporation may appeal the refusal to the district court for the first judicial district. The appeal is begun by petitioning the court to compel the filing of the document and by attaching to the petition the document and the secretary of state's explanation of his refusal to file.

(2) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to file the document or take other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

Section 13. Evidentiary effect of copy of filed document. A certificate attached to a copy of the document filed by the secretary of state, bearing the secretary of state's signature, which may be in facsimile, and the seal of this state, is conclusive evidence that the original document is on file with the secretary of state.

Section 14. Certificate of existence or authorization. (1) Anyone may apply to the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of existence for a domestic corporation or a certificate of authorization for a foreign corporation.

(2) A certificate of existence or authorization must set forth:

(a) the domestic corporation's corporate name or the foreign corporation's corporate name used in this state;

(b) (i) that the domestic corporation is incorporated under the law of this state, the date of its incorporation, and the period of its duration if less than perpetual; or

(ii) that the foreign corporation is authorized to transact business in this state;

(c) that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to this state have been paid, if:

(i) payment is reflected in the records of the secretary of state and the department of revenue; and

(ii) nonpayment affects the existence or authorization of the domestic or foreign corporation;

(d) that its most recent annual report required by [section 179] has been delivered to the secretary of state;

(e) that articles of dissolution have not been filed; and

(f) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

(3) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence or authorization issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the domestic or foreign corporation is in existence or is authorized to transact business in this state.

Section 15. Secretary of state — powers — rulemaking. (1) The secretary of state has the power reasonably necessary to perform the duties required of the secretary of state by [sections 1 through 181].

(2) The secretary of state may adopt rules to perform the duties required of the secretary of state under [sections 1 through 181], including establishing necessary fees.

Section 16. Incorporators. One or more persons may act as the incorporator or incorporators of a corporation by delivering articles of incorporation to the secretary of state for filing.

Section 17. Articles of incorporation. (1) The articles of incorporation must set forth:

(a) a corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of [section 25];

(b) the number of shares the corporation is authorized to issue;

(c) (i) the street address of the corporation's initial registered office and, if different, the mailing address; and

(ii) the name of its initial registered agent at that office; and

(d) the name and address of each incorporator.

(2) The articles of incorporation may set forth:

(a) the names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors;

(b) provisions consistent with law regarding:

(i) the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized;

(ii) managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(iii) defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, and shareholders;

(iv) a par value for authorized shares or classes of shares; and

(v) the imposition of personal liability on shareholders for the debts of the corporation to a specified extent and upon specified conditions;

(c) any provision that under [sections 1 through 181] is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws; and

(d) a provision eliminating or limiting the liability of a director to the corporation or its shareholders for money damages for any actions taken or any failure to take any action, as a director, except liability for:

(i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which the director is not entitled;

(ii) an intentional infliction of harm on the corporation or the shareholders;

(iii) a violation of [section 93]; or

(iv) an intentional violation of criminal law.

(3) The articles of incorporation are not required to set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in [sections 1 through 181].

Section 18. Incorporation. (1) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed.

(2) The secretary of state's filing of the articles of incorporation is conclusive proof that the incorporators have satisfied all conditions precedent to incorporation except in a proceeding by the state to cancel or revoke the incorporation or involuntarily dissolve the corporation.

Section 19. Organization of corporation. (1) After incorporation:

(a) if initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws, and carrying on any other business brought before the meeting; or

(b) if initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators:

(i) to elect directors and complete the organization of the corporation; or

(ii) to elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the corporation.

(2) Action required or permitted by [sections 1 through 181] to be taken by incorporators at an organizational meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator.

(3) An organizational meeting may be held in the state or out of the state.

Section 20. Bylaws. (1) The incorporators or board of directors of a corporation shall adopt initial bylaws for the corporation.

(2) The bylaws of a corporation may contain any provision for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation that is consistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

Section 21. Emergency bylaws. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency as defined in subsection (4). The emergency bylaws, which are subject to amendment or repeal by the shareholders, may make all provisions necessary for managing the corporation during the emergency, including:

(a) procedures for calling a meeting of the board of directors;

(b) quorum requirements for the meeting; and

(c) designation of additional or substitute directors.

(2) All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency bylaws remain in effect during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not in effect after the emergency ends.

(3) Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws:

(a) binds the corporation; and

(b) may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

(4) For purposes of this section, an emergency exists if a quorum of the corporation's directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

Section 22. Purposes. (1) Each corporation incorporated under [sections 1 through 181] has the purpose of engaging in any lawful business unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A corporation organized under another statute of this state may incorporate under [sections 1 through 181] only if the incorporation is permitted by and subject to all limitations of the other statute.

(3) Subject to the limitation in subsection (2), corporations may be organized under [sections 1 through 181] for any lawful purpose or purposes except for the purpose of banking or insurance.

Section 23. General powers. Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and, unless otherwise prohibited by law, has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its business and affairs, including without limitation, the power:

(1) to sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name;

(2) to have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it or a facsimile of the seal by impressing or affixing it or in any other manner reproducing it;

(3) to make and amend bylaws, consistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for managing the business and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(4) to purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire and to own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;

(5) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;

(6) to purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire any other entity; to own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any other entity; and to deal in and with shares or other interests in, or obligations of any other entity;

(7) to make contracts and guarantees; to incur liabilities; to borrow money; to issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, which may be convertible into or include the option to purchase other securities of the corporation; and to secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;

(8) to lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment;

(9) to be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(10) to conduct its business, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by [sections 1 through 181] in the state or out of the state;

(11) to elect directors and appoint officers, employees, and agents of the corporation; to define their duties; to fix their compensation; and to lend them money and credit;

(12) to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit-sharing plans, share bonus plans, share option plans, and benefit or incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(13) to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes and, in time of war, to make donations in aid of war activities;

(14) to transact any lawful business that will aid governmental policy; and

(15) to make payments or donations or to do any other act that is consistent with law and that furthers the business and affairs of the corporation.

Section 24. Ultra vires. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the validity of corporate action may not be challenged on the ground that the corporation lacks or lacked power to act.

(2) A corporation's power to act may be challenged:

(a) in a proceeding by a shareholder against the corporation to enjoin the act; or

(b) in a proceeding by the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, trustee, or other legal representative, against an incumbent or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

(3) In a shareholder's proceeding under subsection (2)(a) to enjoin an unauthorized corporate act, the court may:

(a) enjoin or set aside the act, if equitable and if all affected persons are parties to the proceeding; and

(b) award damages for loss, other than anticipated profits, suffered by the corporation or another party because of enjoining the unauthorized act.

Section 25. Corporate name. (1) A corporate name:

(a) must contain the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited"; the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd."; or words or abbreviations of similar meaning in another language; and

(b) may not contain language that states or implies that the corporation is organized for a purpose or purposes other than those permitted by [section 22] and its articles of incorporation.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), a corporate name must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of another corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under [sections 26 or 27];

(c) the fictitious name adopted by a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state because its real name is unavailable;

(d) the corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(e) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved, but only distinguishable for a period of 120 days after the effective date of its dissolution; and

(f) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable in the secretary of state's records from one or more of the names described in subsection (2). The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in the state.

(4) A corporation may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the proposed user corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) [Sections 1 through 181] do not control the use of fictitious names.

Section 26. Reserved name. (1) A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name, including a fictitious name for a foreign corporation whose corporate name is not available, by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth the name and address of the applicant and the name proposed to be reserved. If the secretary of state finds that the corporate name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable 120-day period.

(2) The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.

Section 27. Registered name of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation may register its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by [section 165], if the name is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the corporate names that are not available under [section 25(2)(c)].

(2) A foreign corporation registers its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by [section 165], by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, an application:

(a) setting forth its corporate name, or its corporate name with any addition required by [section 165], the state or country, the date of its incorporation, and a brief description of the nature of the business in which it is engaged; and

(b) accompanied by a certificate of existence, or a similar document, from the state or country of incorporation.

(3) The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use on the effective date of the application.

(4) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may renew it for successive years by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a renewal application that complies with the requirements of subsection (2). The renewal application must be delivered between October 1 and December 31 of the preceding year. The renewal application renews the registration for the following calendar year.

(5) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may continue to qualify as a foreign corporation under that name or consent in writing to the use of that name by a corporation later authorized to transact business in this state. The registration terminates when the foreign corporation is incorporated as a domestic corporation or the foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign corporation under the registered name.

Section 28. Registered office — registered agent. Each corporation shall continuously maintain in this state:

(1) a registered office that may but need not be the same as any of its places of business; and

(2) a registered agent, who must be one of the following:

(a) an individual who resides in this state and whose business office is identical to the registered office;

(b) a domestic corporation or not-for-profit domestic corporation whose business office is identical to the registered office; or

(c) a foreign corporation or not-for-profit foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state whose business office is identical to the registered office.

Section 29. Change of registered office or registered agent. (1) A corporation may change its registered office or registered agent by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement of change that sets forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the street address of its current registered office and, if different, the mailing address;

(c) if the current registered office is to be changed, the street address of the new registered office and, if different, the mailing address;

(d) the name of its current registered agent;

(e) if the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of the new registered agent and the new agent's written consent, either on the statement or attached to it, to the appointment; and

(f) that after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office and the business office of its registered agent will be identical.

(2) If a registered agent changes the street address of its business office, that agent may change the street address of the registered office of any corporation for which it is the registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of the change and signing, either manually or in facsimile, and delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement that complies with the requirements of subsection (1) and recites that the corporation has been notified of the change.

Section 30. Resignation of registered agent. (1) A registered agent may resign as registered agent by signing and delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, the signed original and two copies of a statement of resignation. The statement may include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued.

(2) After filing the statement, the secretary of state shall mail one copy to the registered office, if not discontinued, and the other copy to the corporation at its principal office.

(3) The agency appointment is terminated, and the registered office discontinued if so provided, 31 days after the date on which the statement was filed.

Section 31. Service of process on corporation. (1) Service of process on a corporation must be effected upon the persons and in the manner provided by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) The following are to be considered trustees for the corporation and its shareholders, for the purpose of service or demand, on a corporation dissolved pursuant to [sections 1 through 181] or Title 35, chapter 6:

(a) in the case of a voluntary dissolution, any one of those persons designated as trustees for service of process pursuant to a filing made with the secretary of state or, if no filing is made, any one of the directors or officers of the corporation listed in the annual report most recently filed with the secretary of state; or

(b) in the case of an involuntary dissolution or expiration of a corporation's term, any one of those persons designated as receiver or trustee by a court of competent jurisdiction or any one of the directors or officers of the corporation listed in the annual report most recently filed with the secretary of state.

Section 32. Demand on or notice to corporation. (1) This section applies when the law requires or permits a demand on or notice to a corporation. However, the law does not require that the demand or notice be served in accordance with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) A corporation's registered agent is the corporation's agent for demand or notice required or permitted by law.

(3) If a corporation has no registered agent or the agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the demand may be made or the corporation may be notified by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary of the corporation at its principal office. The demand or notice is perfected under this subsection at the earliest of:

(a) the date the corporation receives the mail;

(b) the date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the corporation; or

(c) 5 days after its deposit in the United States mail, if mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

Section 33. Authorized shares. (1) The articles of incorporation must prescribe the classes of shares and the number of shares of each class that the corporation is authorized to issue. If more than one class of shares is authorized, the articles of incorporation must prescribe a distinguishing designation for each class. Prior to the issuance of shares of a class, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights of that class must be described in the articles of incorporation. All shares of a class must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical to those of other shares of the same class, except to the extent otherwise permitted by [section 34].

(2) (a) The articles of incorporation must authorize:

(i) one or more classes of shares that together have unlimited voting rights; and

(ii) one or more classes of shares which may be the same class or classes as those with voting rights.

(b) The classes of shares listed in subsections (2)(a)(i) and (2)(a)(ii), taken together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution.

(3) The articles of incorporation may authorize one or more classes of shares that:

(a) have special, conditional, or limited voting rights or no right to vote, except to the extent prohibited by [sections 1 through 181];

(b) are redeemable or convertible as specified in the articles of incorporation:

(i) at the option of the corporation, the shareholder, or another person or upon the occurrence of a designated event;

(ii) for cash, indebtedness, securities, or other property; and

(iii) in a designated amount or in an amount determined in accordance with a designated formula or by reference to extrinsic data or events;

(c) entitle the holders to distributions calculated in any manner, including dividends that may be cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative; and

(d) have preference over any other class of shares with respect to distributions, including dividends and distributions upon the dissolution of the corporation.

(4) The description of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of share classes in subsection (3) is not exhaustive.

(5) When authorized by its articles of incorporation to do so, a corporation may issue bonds, debentures, or other obligations convertible into shares of any class in the amounts and on terms and conditions that may be provided by resolutions of the board of directors.

Section 34. Terms of class or series determined by board of directors. (1) If the articles of incorporation so provide, the board of directors may determine, in whole or part, the preferences, limitations, and relative rights, within the limits set forth in [section 33], of any class of shares before the issuance of any shares of that class or of one or more series within a class before the issuance of any shares of that series.

(2) Each series of a class must be given a distinguishing designation.

(3) All shares of a series must have preferences, limitations, and relative rights identical to those of other shares of the same series and, except to the extent otherwise provided in the description of the series, to those of other series of the same class.

(4) Before issuing any shares of a class or series created under this section, the corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment that are effective without shareholder action and that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of the amendment determining the terms of the class or series of shares;

(c) the date the amendment was adopted; and

(d) a statement that the amendment was duly adopted by the board of directors.

Section 35. Issued and outstanding shares. (1) A corporation may issue the number of shares of each class or series authorized by the articles of incorporation. Subject to [section 47], shares that are issued are outstanding shares until they are reacquired, redeemed, converted, or canceled.

(2) The reacquisition, redemption, or conversion of outstanding shares is subject to [section 48] and to the limitations of subsection (3) of this section.

(3) Whenever shares of the corporation are outstanding, one or more shares that together have unlimited voting rights and one or more shares that together are entitled to receive the net assets of the corporation upon dissolution must be outstanding.

Section 36. Fractional shares. (1) A corporation may:

(a) issue fractions of a share or pay in money the value of fractions of a share;

(b) arrange for disposition of fractional shares by the shareholders; and

(c) issue scrip in registered or bearer form entitling the holder to receive a full share upon surrendering enough scrip to equal a full share.

(2) Each certificate representing scrip must be conspicuously labeled "scrip" and must contain the information required by [section 42].

(3) The holder of a fractional share is entitled to exercise the rights of a shareholder, including the right to vote, to receive dividends, and to participate in the assets of the corporation upon liquidation. The holder of scrip is not entitled to any of these rights unless the scrip provides for them.

(4) The board of directors may authorize the issuance of scrip subject to any condition considered desirable, including the condition:

(a) that the scrip will become void if not exchanged for full shares before a specified date; and

(b) that the shares for which the scrip is exchangeable may be sold and the proceeds paid to the scripholders.

Section 37. Subscription for shares before incorporation. (1) A subscription for shares entered into before incorporation is irrevocable for 6 months unless the subscription agreement provides a longer or shorter period or unless all the subscribers agree to revocation.

(2) The board of directors may determine the payment terms of subscriptions for shares that were entered into before incorporation, unless the subscription agreement specifies them. A call for payment by the board of directors must be uniform, so far as practicable, as to all shares of the same class or series unless the subscription agreement specifies otherwise.

(3) Shares issued pursuant to subscriptions entered into before incorporation are fully paid and nonassessable when the corporation receives the consideration specified in the subscription agreement.

(4) If a subscriber defaults in payment of money or property under a subscription agreement entered into before incorporation, the corporation may collect the amount owed in the same manner as it would collect any other debt. Alternatively, unless the subscription agreement provides otherwise, the corporation may rescind the agreement and may sell the shares if the debt remains unpaid more than 20 days after the corporation sends written demand for payment to the subscriber.

(5) A subscription agreement entered into after incorporation is a contract between the subscriber and the corporation and is subject to the provisions of [section 38].

Section 38. Issuance of shares. (1) The powers granted in this section to the board of directors may be reserved to the shareholders by the articles of incorporation.

(2) The board of directors may authorize shares to be issued for consideration consisting of any tangible or intangible property or benefit to the corporation, including cash, promissory notes, services performed, contracts for services to be performed, or other securities of the corporation.

(3) Before the corporation issues shares, the board of directors must determine that the consideration received or to be received for shares to be issued is adequate. The determination by the board of directors is conclusive with regard to the adequacy of consideration for the issuance of shares relating to whether the shares are validly issued, fully paid, and nonassessable.

(4) When the corporation receives the consideration for which the board of directors authorized the issuance of shares, the shares issued for the consideration are fully paid and nonassessable.

(5) The corporation may place in escrow shares issued for a contract for future services or benefits or a promissory note, or the corporation may also make other arrangements to restrict the transfer of the shares and may credit distributions in respect of the shares against their purchase price until the services are performed, the note is paid, or the benefits received. If the services are not performed, the note is not paid, or the benefits are not received, the shares escrowed or restricted and the distributions credited may be canceled in whole or in part.

Section 39. Liability of shareholders. (1) A purchaser from a corporation of its own shares is not liable to the corporation or its creditors with respect to the shares except to pay the consideration for which the shares were authorized to be issued as provided in [section 38] or specified in the subscription agreement as provided in [section 37].

(2) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, a shareholder of a corporation is not personally liable for the acts or debts of the corporation except that a shareholder may become personally liable by reason of that shareholder's own acts or conduct.

Section 40. Share dividends. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, shares may be issued pro rata and without consideration to the corporation's shareholders or to the shareholders of one or more classes or series. An issuance of shares under this subsection is a share dividend.

(2) Shares of one class or series may not be issued as a share dividend in respect of shares of another class or series unless:

(a) the articles of incorporation authorize the issuance;

(b) a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the class or series to be issued approve the issue; or

(c) there are no outstanding shares of the class or series to be issued.

(3) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a share dividend, the record date is the date the board of directors authorizes the share dividend.

Section 41. Share options. A corporation may issue rights, options, or warrants for the purchase of shares of the corporation. The board of directors shall determine the terms upon which the rights, options, or warrants are issued, their form and content, and the consideration for which the shares are to be issued.

Section 42. Form and content of certificates. (1) Shares may but need not be represented by certificates. Unless [sections 1 through 181] or another statute expressly provide otherwise, the rights and obligations of shareholders are identical whether or not their shares are represented by certificates.

(2) At a minimum, each share certificate must state on its face:

(a) the name of the issuing corporation and that it is organized under the law of this state;

(b) the name of the person to whom issued; and

(c) the number and class of shares and the designation of the series, if any, that the certificate represents.

(3) (a) If the issuing corporation is authorized to issue different classes of shares or different series within a class the following must be summarized on the front or back of each certificate:

(i) the designations, relative rights, preferences, and limitations applicable to each class;

(ii) the variations in rights, preferences, and limitations determined for each series; and

(iii) the authority of the board of directors to determine variations for future series.

(b) Alternatively, each certificate may state conspicuously on its front or back that the corporation will furnish the shareholder this information on request in writing and without charge.

(4) Each share certificate must be signed, either manually or in facsimile, by two officers designated in the bylaws or by the board of directors and may bear the corporate seal or its facsimile.

(5) If the person who signed, either manually or in facsimile, a share certificate no longer holds office when the certificate is issued, the certificate remains valid.

Section 43. Shares without certificates. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors of a corporation may authorize the issue of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The authorization does not affect shares already represented by certificates until they are surrendered to the corporation.

(2) Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of shares without certificates, the corporation shall send the shareholder a written statement of the information required on certificates by [section 42] and, if applicable, subsection (1) of this section.

Section 44. Restriction on transfer or registration of transfer of shares and other securities. (1) The articles of incorporation, the bylaws, an agreement among shareholders, or an agreement between shareholders and the corporation may impose restrictions on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares of the corporation. A restriction does not affect shares issued before the restriction was adopted unless the holders of the shares are parties to the restriction agreement or have voted in favor of the restriction.

(2) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is valid and enforceable against the holder or a transferee of the holder if the restriction is authorized by this section and its existence is noted conspicuously on the front or back of the certificate or is contained in the information statement required by [section 43]. Unless noted, a restriction is not enforceable against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(3) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares is authorized:

(a) to maintain the corporation's status when it is dependent on the number or identity of its shareholders;

(b) to preserve exemptions under federal or state securities law;

(c) to preserve an election under the Internal Revenue Code; or

(d) for any other reasonable purpose.

(4) A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of shares may:

(a) obligate the shareholder first to offer the corporation or other person, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, an opportunity to acquire the restricted shares;

(b) obligate the corporation or other person, separately, consecutively, or simultaneously, to acquire the restricted shares;

(c) require the corporation, the holders of any class of its shares, or another person to approve the transfer of the restricted shares, if the requirement is not manifestly unreasonable; or

(d) prohibit the transfer of the restricted shares to designated persons or classes of persons if the prohibition is not manifestly unreasonable.

(5) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

Section 45. Expense of issue. A corporation may pay the expenses of selling or underwriting its shares and of organizing or reorganizing the corporation from the consideration received for shares.

Section 46. Shareholders' preemptive rights. (1) The shareholders of a corporation do not have a preemptive right to acquire the corporation's unissued shares except to the extent provided in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A statement included in the articles of incorporation that "the corporation elects to have preemptive rights", or similar words, means that all of the following principles apply except to the extent the articles of incorporation expressly provide otherwise:

(a) The shareholders of the corporation have a preemptive right, granted on uniform terms and conditions prescribed by the board of directors to provide a fair and reasonable opportunity to exercise the right, to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's unissued shares upon the decision of the board of directors to issue them and to acquire proportional amounts of the corporation's issued shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to [section 47] upon the decision of the board of directors to convey them.

(b) A shareholder may waive his preemptive right. A waiver evidenced by a writing is irrevocable even though it is not supported by consideration.

(c) Shareholders of a corporation have no preemptive right to acquire proportional amounts of shares with respect to:

(i) shares issued as compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates;

(ii) shares issued to satisfy conversion or option rights created to provide compensation to directors, officers, agents, or employees of the corporation, its subsidiaries, or its affiliates;

(iii) shares authorized in articles of incorporation that are issued within 6 months from the effective date of incorporation; or

(iv) shares sold otherwise than for money.

(d) Holders of shares of any class without general voting rights but with preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class.

(e) Holders of shares of any class with general voting rights but without preferential rights to distributions or assets have no preemptive rights with respect to shares of any class with preferential rights to distributions or assets unless the shares with preferential rights are convertible into or carry a right to subscribe for or acquire shares without preferential rights.

(f) Shares subject to preemptive rights that are not acquired by shareholders may be issued to any person for a period of 1 year after being offered to shareholders at a consideration set by the board of directors that is not lower than the consideration set for the exercise of preemptive rights. An offer at a lower consideration or after the expiration of 1 year is subject to the shareholders' preemptive rights.

(g) Shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to [section 47] have no preemptive rights as long as they are owned by the corporation.

(3) For purposes of this section, "shares" includes a security convertible into or carrying a right to subscribe for or acquire shares.

Section 47. Corporation's acquisition of its own shares. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a corporation may acquire its own shares, and those shares constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(2) If provided by the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws, shares acquired pursuant to subsection (1) constitute authorized and issued shares. A corporation may at any time, by resolution of its board of directors, cancel all or any part of the shares acquired under this subsection, in which case the shares constitute authorized but unissued shares.

(3) If the articles of incorporation prohibit the reissue of acquired shares, the number of authorized shares is reduced by the number of shares acquired, effective on amendment of the articles of incorporation.

(4) Articles of amendment may be adopted by the board of directors without shareholder action, must be delivered to the secretary of state, for filing, and must set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the reduction in the number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series; and

(c) the total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, remaining after reduction of the shares.

Section 48. Distributions to shareholders. (1) A board of directors may authorize and the corporation may make distributions to its shareholders, subject to restriction by the articles of incorporation and the limitation in subsection (3).

(2) If the board of directors does not fix the record date for determining shareholders entitled to a distribution, other than a distribution involving a repurchase or reacquisition of shares, it is the date the board of directors authorizes the distribution.

(3) A distribution may not be made if, after giving it effect:

(a) the corporation would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

(b) the corporation's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus, unless the articles of incorporation permit otherwise, the amount that would be needed, if the corporation were to be dissolved at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution of shareholders whose preferential rights are superior to those receiving the distribution.

(4) The board of directors may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (3) either on financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair valuation or other method that is reasonable in the circumstances.

(5) The effect of a distribution under subsection (1) is measured:

(a) in the case of distribution by purchase, redemption, or other acquisition of the corporation's shares, as of the earlier of:

(i) the date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the corporation; or

(ii) the date the shareholder ceases to be a shareholder with respect to the acquired shares;

(b) in the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; or

(c) in all other cases, as of:

(i) the date the distribution is authorized if the payment occurs within 120 days after the date of authorization; or

(ii) the date the payment is made if it occurs more than 120 days after the date of authorization.

(6) A corporation's indebtedness to a shareholder incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the corporation's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

Section 49. Annual meeting. (1) A corporation shall hold an annual meeting of shareholders at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) Annual shareholders' meetings may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(3) The failure to hold an annual meeting at the time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

(4) If the corporation has 50 or fewer shareholders and if permitted by the bylaws, shareholders may participate in an annual meeting of the shareholders through a conference telephone or similar communication equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in this manner constitutes presence in person at a meeting.

Section 50. Special meeting. (1) A corporation shall hold a special meeting of shareholders:

(a) on the call of its board of directors or the person authorized to do so by the articles of incorporation or bylaws; or

(b) if the holders of at least 10% of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting sign, date, and deliver to the corporation's secretary one or more written demands for the meeting that describe the purpose for which it is to be held.

(2) If the record date is not fixed or the manner of fixing the record date is not specified under [sections 51 or 55], the record date for determining shareholders entitled to demand a special meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the demand.

(3) Special shareholders' meetings may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(4) Only business within the purpose described in the meeting notice required by [section 53] may be conducted at a special shareholders' meeting.

(5) If the corporation has 50 or fewer shareholders and if permitted by the bylaws, shareholders may participate in a special meeting of the shareholders by means of a conference telephone or similar communication equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in this manner constitutes presence in person at a meeting.

Section 51. Court-ordered meeting. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if its principal office is not located in this state, in the county where its registered office is located may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(a) on application of any shareholder of the corporation entitled to participate in an annual meeting if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of 6 months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or 15 months after its last annual meeting; or

(b) on application of a shareholder who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under [section 50], if:

(i) notice of the special meeting was not given within 30 days after the date the demand was delivered to the corporation's secretary; or

(ii) the special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, determine the shares entitled to participate in the meeting, specify a record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

Section 52. Action without meeting. (1) Action required or permitted by [sections 1 through 181] to be taken at a shareholders' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) If not otherwise determined under [section 51 or 55], the record date for determining shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent under subsection (1).

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a vote in any document.

(4) If [sections 1 through 181] require that notice of proposed action be given to nonvoting shareholders and the action is to be taken by unanimous consent of the voting shareholders, the corporation shall give its nonvoting shareholders written notice of the proposed action at least 10 days before the action is taken. The notice must contain or be accompanied by the same material that, under [sections 1 through 181], would have been required to be sent to nonvoting shareholders in a notice of meeting at which the proposed action would have been submitted to the shareholders for action.

Section 53. Notice of meeting. (1) A corporation shall notify shareholders of the date, time, and place of each annual and special shareholders' meeting not less than 10 or more than 60 days before the meeting date. Unless [sections 1 through 181] or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, the corporation is required to give notice only to shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting.

(2) Unless [sections 1 through 181] or the articles of incorporation require otherwise, notice of an annual meeting need not include a description of the purpose for which the meeting is called.

(3) Notice of a special meeting must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called.

(4) If not otherwise fixed under [sections 51 or 55], the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of and to vote at an annual or special shareholders' meeting is the day before the first notice is delivered to shareholders.

(5) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual or special shareholders' meeting is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under [section 55], notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to persons who are shareholders as of the new record date.

Section 54. Waiver of notice. (1) A shareholder may waive any notice required by [sections 1 through 181], the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the shareholder entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) A shareholder's attendance at a meeting:

(a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting unless the shareholder at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and

(b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose described in the meeting notice unless the shareholder objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

Section 55. Record date. (1) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner of fixing the record date for one or more voting groups in order to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting, to demand a special meeting, to vote, or to take any other action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board of directors of the corporation may fix a future date as the record date.

(2) A record date fixed under this section may not be more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of shareholders.

(3) A determination of shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a shareholders' meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board of directors fixes a new record date, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting.

(4) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date continues in effect or it may fix a new record date.

Section 56. Shareholders' list for meeting. (1) After fixing a record date for a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its shareholders who are entitled to notice of a shareholders' meeting. The list must:

(a) be arranged by voting group, and within each voting group by class or series of shares; and

(b) show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder.

(2) The shareholders' list must be available for inspection by any shareholder, beginning 2 business days after notice is given of the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting, at the corporation's principal office or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A shareholder or a shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled on written demand to inspect and, subject to the requirements of [section 174(3)], to copy the list, during regular business hours and at that shareholder's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) The corporation shall make the shareholders' list available at the meeting, and any shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) If the corporation refuses to allow a shareholder or the shareholder's agent or attorney to inspect the shareholders' list before or at the meeting or to copy the list as permitted by subsection (2), on application of the shareholder, the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if the principal office is not located in this state, its registered office is located, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense and may provide recovery to a shareholder for costs, including reasonable attorney fees, in bringing the action.

(5) Refusal or failure to prepare or make available the shareholders' list does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

Section 57. Voting entitlement of shares. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) or unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, each outstanding share, regardless of class, is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a shareholders' meeting. Only shares are entitled to vote.

(2) Absent special circumstances, the shares of a corporation are not entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by a second corporation, domestic or foreign, and the first corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the second corporation.

(3) Subsection (2) does not limit the power of a corporation to vote any shares, including its own shares, held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

(4) Redeemable shares are not entitled to vote after notice of redemption is mailed to the holders and a sum sufficient to redeem the shares has been deposited with a bank, trust company, or other financial institution under an irrevocable obligation to pay the shareholders the redemption price on surrender of the shares.

(5) Shares acquired by the corporation pursuant to [section 47] are not entitled to vote as long as they are owned by the corporation.

Section 58. Proxies. (1) A shareholder may vote its shares in person or by proxy.

(2) A shareholder may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for that shareholder by signing an appointment form, either personally or by attorney-in-fact.

(3) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a longer period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (6), an appointment of a proxy is revocable by the shareholder unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. Appointments coupled with an interest include the appointment of:

(a) a pledgee;

(b) a person who purchased or agreed to purchase the shares;

(c) a creditor of the corporation who extended it credit under terms requiring the appointment;

(d) an employee of the corporation whose employment contract requires the appointment; or

(e) a party to a voting agreement created under [section 66].

(5) The death or incapacity of the shareholder appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises the proxy's authority under the appointment.

(6) An appointment made irrevocable under subsection (4) is revoked when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished.

(7) A transferee for value of shares subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if the transferee did not know of its existence when the transferee acquired the shares and the existence of the irrevocable appointment was not noted conspicuously on the certificate representing the shares or on the information statement for shares without certificates.

(8) Subject to [section 59] and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the shareholder making the appointment.

(9) A shareholder may not sell his vote or issue a proxy to vote to any person for any sum of money or anything of value except as authorized in this section and [section 65].

Section 59. Shares held by nominees. (1) A corporation may establish a procedure by which the beneficial owner of shares that are registered in the name of a nominee is recognized by the corporation as the shareholder. The extent of this recognition may be determined in the procedure.

(2) The procedure may set forth:

(a) the type of nominee to which it applies;

(b) the rights or privileges that the corporation recognizes in a beneficial owner;

(c) the manner in which the procedure is selected by the nominee;

(d) the information that must be provided when the procedure is selected;

(e) the period for which selection of the procedure is effective; and

(f) other aspects of the rights and duties created.

Section 60. Corporation's acceptance of votes. (1) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a shareholder, the corporation if acting in good faith is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the name of its shareholder, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the shareholder if:

(a) the shareholder is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an officer or agent of the entity;

(b) the name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(c) the name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(d) the name signed purports to be that of a pledgee, beneficial owner, or attorney-in-fact of the shareholder and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

(e) two or more persons are the shareholder as cotenants or fiduciaries and the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the co-owners and the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the co-owners.

(3) The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the shareholder.

(4) The corporation and its officer or agent who accept or reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section are not liable in damages to the shareholder for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

Section 61. Quorum and voting requirements for voting groups. (1) Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at a meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists with respect to that matter. Unless the articles of incorporation or [sections 1 through 181] provide otherwise, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

(2) Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is considered present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

(3) If a quorum exists, action on a matter other than the election of directors by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless the articles of incorporation or [sections 1 through 181] require a greater number of affirmative votes.

(4) An amendment of articles of incorporation adding, changing, or deleting a quorum or voting requirement for a voting group greater than specified in subsection (2) or (3) is governed by [section 63].

(5) The election of directors is governed by [section 64].

Section 62. Action by single and multiple voting groups. (1) If the articles of incorporation or [sections 1 through 181] provide for voting by a single voting group on a matter, action on that matter is taken when voted upon by that voting group as provided in [section 60].

(2) If the articles of incorporation or [sections 1 through 181] provide for voting by two or more voting groups on a matter, action on that matter is taken only when voted upon by each of those voting groups counted separately as provided in [section 61]. Action may be taken by one voting group on a matter even though no action is taken by another voting group entitled to vote on the matter.

Section 63. Greater quorum or voting requirements. (1) The articles of incorporation may provide for a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders or for voting groups of shareholders than is provided for by [sections 1 through 181].

(2) An amendment to the articles of incorporation that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

Section 64. Voting for directors — cumulative voting. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, directors are elected by a plurality of the votes cast by the shares entitled to vote in the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(2) Except as limited by subsection (3), at each election for directors each shareholder entitled to vote at the election has the right:

(a) to vote, in person or by proxy, the number of shares owned by the shareholder for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election the shareholder has a right to vote; or

(b) to cumulate the shareholder's votes:

(i) by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of directors to be elected multiplied by the number of shareholders' shares; or

(ii) by distributing the votes on the same principle among any number of the candidates.

(3) The right of all shareholders to cumulate their shares provided by subsection (2) may be denied by a statement to that effect included in the articles of incorporation, but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation are filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation unless the number of votes sufficient to elect one director, if voted upon a cumulative basis, was voted against the amendment.

Section 65. Voting trusts. (1) One or more shareholders may create a voting trust, conferring on a trustee the right to vote or otherwise act for them, by signing an agreement setting out the provisions of the trust, which may include anything consistent with its purpose, and by transferring their shares to the trustee. When a voting trust agreement is signed, the trustee shall prepare a list of the names and addresses of all owners of beneficial interests in the trust, together with the number and class of shares each transferred to the trust, and deliver copies of the list and agreement to the corporation's principal office.

(2) A voting trust becomes effective on the date the first shares subject to the trust are registered in the trustee's name. A voting trust is valid for not more than 10 years after its effective date unless extended under subsection (3).

(3) All or some of the parties to a voting trust may extend it for additional terms of not more than 10 years each by signing an extension agreement and obtaining the voting trustee's written consent to the extension. An extension is valid for 10 years from the date the first shareholder signs the extension agreement. The voting trustee shall deliver copies of the extension agreement and the list of beneficial owners to the corporation's principal office. An extension agreement binds only those parties signing it.

(4) The counterpart of the voting trust agreement and the copy of the record deposited with the corporation is subject to the same right of examination by a shareholder of a corporation, in person or by agent or attorney, as are the books and records of the corporation, and the counterpart and the copy of the record are subject to examination by any holder of record of voting trust certificates, either in person or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time for any proper purpose.

Section 66. Voting agreements. (1) Two or more shareholders may provide for the manner in which they will vote their shares by signing an agreement for that purpose. A voting agreement created under this section is not subject to the provisions of [section 65].

(2) A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.

Section 67. Definitions. As used in [section 67 through 74], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Derivative proceeding" means a civil suit in the right of a domestic corporation or, to the extent provided in [section 74], in the right of a foreign corporation.

(2) "Shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or held by a nominee on the beneficial owner's behalf.

Section 68. Standing. A shareholder may not commence or maintain a derivative proceeding unless the shareholder:

(1) was a shareholder of the corporation at the time of the act or omission complained of or became a shareholder through transfer by operation of law from one who was a shareholder at that time; and

(2) fairly and adequately represents the interests of the corporation in enforcing the right of the corporation.

Section 69. Demand. A shareholder may not commence a derivative proceeding until:

(1) a written demand has been made upon the corporation to take suitable action; and

(2) 90 days have expired from the date the demand was made unless the shareholder has earlier been notified that the demand has been rejected by the corporation or unless irreparable injury to the corporation would result by waiting for the expiration of the 90-day period.

Section 70. Stay of proceedings. If the corporation begins an inquiry into the allegations made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for the period the court considers appropriate.

Section 71. Dismissal. (1) A derivative proceeding must be dismissed by the court on motion by the corporation if one of the groups specified in subsections (2) or (6) has determined in good faith after conducting a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions are based that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to subsection (6), the determination in subsection (1) must be made by:

(a) a majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors if the independent directors constitute a quorum; or

(b) a majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more independent directors appointed by majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, whether or not the independent directors constituted a quorum.

(3) None of the following may by itself cause a director to be considered not independent for purposes of this section:

(a) the nomination or election of the director by persons who are defendants in the derivative proceeding or against whom action is demanded;

(b) the naming of the director as a defendant in the derivative proceeding or as a person against whom action is demanded; or

(c) the approval by the director of the act being challenged in the derivative proceeding or demand if the act did not result in personal benefit to the director.

(4) If a derivative proceeding is begun after a determination has been made rejecting a demand by a shareholder, the complaint must allege with particularity facts establishing either that a majority of the board of directors did not consist of independent directors at the time the determination was made or that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(5) If a majority of the board of directors does not consist of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the corporation has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have been met. If a majority of the board of directors consists of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(6) Upon motion by the corporation, the court may appoint a panel of one or more independent persons to make a determination of whether the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is in the best interests of the corporation. If this is done, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

Section 72. Discontinuance or settlement — notice. A derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interests of the corporation's shareholders or a class of shareholders, the court shall direct that notice be given to the shareholders affected.

Section 73. Payment of expenses. On termination of the derivative proceeding, the court may:

(1) order the corporation to pay the plaintiff's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a substantial benefit to the corporation;

(2) order the plaintiff to pay a defendant's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced or maintained without reasonable cause or for an improper purpose; or

(3) order a party to pay an opposing party's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred because of the filing of a pleading, motion, or other paper, if it finds that:

(a) the pleading, motion, or other paper was not well-grounded in fact, after reasonable inquiry; or

(b) the filing was not warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law and was interposed for an improper purpose, such as to harass, to cause unnecessary delay, or to cause a needless increase in the cost of litigation.

Section 74. Applicability to foreign corporations. In a derivative proceeding in the right of a foreign corporation, the matters covered by [sections 67 through 74] are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the foreign corporation except for [sections 70, 72, and 73].

Section 75. Requirement for and duties of board of directors. (1) Each corporation must have a board of directors.

(2) Subject to any limitation set forth in the articles of incorporation, all corporate powers must be exercised by or under the authority of the board of directors, and the business and affairs of the corporation must be managed under the direction of its board of directors.

Section 76. Qualifications of directors. The articles of incorporation or bylaws may prescribe qualifications for directors. A director need not be a resident of this state or a shareholder of the corporation unless required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

Section 77. Number and election of directors. (1) A board of directors consists of one or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(2) If a board of directors has power to fix or change the number of directors, the board may increase or decrease by 30% or less the number of directors last approved by the shareholders, but only the shareholders may increase or decrease by more than 30% the number of directors last approved by the shareholders.

(3) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may establish a variable range for the size of the board of directors by fixing a minimum and maximum number of directors. If a variable range is established, the number of directors may be fixed or changed from time to time, within the minimum and maximum limits, by the shareholders or the board of directors. After shares are issued, only the shareholders may change the range for the size of the board or change from a fixed to a variable-range size board or vice versa.

(4) Directors are elected at the first annual shareholders' meeting and at each annual meeting thereafter unless their terms are staggered under [section 80].

Section 78. Election of directors by certain classes of shareholders. If the articles of incorporation authorize dividing the shares into classes, the articles may also authorize the election of all or a specified number of directors by the holders of one or more authorized classes of shares. Each class or classes of shares entitled to elect one or more directors is a separate voting group for purposes of the election of directors.

Section 79. Terms of directors generally. (1) The terms of the initial directors of a corporation expire at the first shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected.

(2) The terms of all other directors expire at the next annual shareholders' meeting following their election unless their terms are staggered under [section 80].

(3) A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(4) A director elected or appointed to fill a vacancy is elected or appointed for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

(5) Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until the director's successor is elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

Section 80. Staggered terms for directors. If there are nine or more directors, the articles of incorporation or bylaws may provide for staggering their terms by dividing the total number of directors into two or three groups, with each group containing as near as possible to one-half or one-third of the total. In that event, the terms of directors in the first group expire at the first annual shareholders' meeting after their election, the terms of the second group expire at the second annual shareholders' meeting after their election, and the terms of the third group, if any, expire at the third annual shareholders' meeting after their election. At each annual shareholders' meeting held thereafter, directors shall be chosen for a term of 2 years or 3 years, as the case may be, to succeed those whose terms expire.

Section 81. Resignation of directors. (1) A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of directors, its chairman, or to the corporation.

(2) A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specified a later effective date.

Section 82. Removal of directors. (1) The shareholders may remove one or more directors with or without cause unless the articles of incorporation provide that directors may be removed only for cause.

(2) If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove the director.

(3) Any director or the entire board of directors may be removed only by a vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote at an election of directors unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or bylaws. If the shareholders have the right to cumulate their votes when electing directors and if less than the entire board is to be removed, a director may not be removed if the votes cast against the director's removal would be sufficient to elect him if cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors or, if there are classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which the director is a part. If the corporation has fewer than 100 shareholders, the entire board of directors may be removed only by a vote of a majority of the shares then entitled to vote.

(4) A director may be removed by the shareholders only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director. The meeting notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

Section 83. Removal of directors by judicial proceeding. (1) The district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if the office is not located in this state, the county where its registered office is located may remove a director of the corporation from office in a proceeding begun either by the corporation or by its shareholders holding at least 10% of the outstanding shares of any class if the court finds that:

(a) the director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct or in gross abuse of authority or discretion, with respect to the corporation; and

(b) removal is in the best interest of the corporation.

(2) The court that removes a director may bar the director from reelection for a period prescribed by the court.

(3) If shareholders begin a proceeding under subsection (1), they shall make the corporation a party defendant.

Section 84. Vacancy on board. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

(a) the shareholders may fill the vacancy;

(b) the board of directors may fill the vacancy; or

(c) if the members of the board of directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(2) If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the shareholders.

(3) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under [section 81] or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs. However, the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

Section 85. Compensation of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

Section 86. Meetings. (1) The board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in the state or out of the state.

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by, or conduct the meeting through the use of, any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is considered to be present in person at the meeting.

(3) If requested by a director, minutes of any regular or special meeting must be prepared and be distributed to each director.

Section 87. Action without meeting. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by [sections 1 through 181] to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, be signed by each director, and be included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

(2) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a vote in any document.

Section 88. Notice of meeting. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board of directors may be held without notice of the date, time, place, or purpose of the meeting.

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for a longer or shorter period, special meetings of the board of directors must be preceded by at least 2 days' notice of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice is not required to describe the purpose of the special meeting unless required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws.

Section 89. Waiver of notice. (1) A director may waive a notice required by [sections 1 through 181], the articles of incorporation, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. Except as provided by subsection (2), the waiver must be in writing, be signed by the director entitled to the notice, and be filed with the minutes or corporate records.

(2) A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice to the director of the meeting unless the director, at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the director's arrival, objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and does not vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

Section 90. Quorum — voting. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require a greater number, a quorum of a board of directors consists of:

(a) a majority of the fixed number of directors if the corporation has a fixed board size; or

(b) a majority of the number of directors prescribed or, if no number is prescribed, the number in office immediately before the meeting begins, if the corporation has a variable-range size board.

(2) The articles of incorporation or bylaws may authorize a quorum of a board of directors to consist of no fewer than one-third of the fixed or prescribed number of directors.

(3) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board of directors unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

(4) A director who is present at a meeting of the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors when corporate action is taken is considered to have assented to the action taken unless:

(a) the director objects at the beginning of the meeting or promptly upon the director's arrival to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting and delivers written notice of the director's objection to the presiding officer before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting;

(b) the director's dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting; or

(c) the director delivers written notice of his dissent or abstention to the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or to the corporation immediately after adjournment of the meeting.

(5) The right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

Section 91. Committees. (1) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, a board of directors may create one or more committees and appoint members of the board of directors to serve on them. Each committee may have two or more members who serve at the pleasure of the board of directors.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken or the number of directors required by the articles of incorporation or bylaws to take action under [section 90].

(3) [Sections 86 through 90], which govern meetings, action without meetings, notice and waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board of directors, apply to committees and their members as well.

(4) To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, each committee may exercise the authority of the board of directors under [section 75]. However, a committee may not:

(a) authorize distributions;

(b) approve or propose to shareholders action that [sections 1 through 181] requires to be approved by shareholders;

(c) fill vacancies on the board of directors or on any of its committees;

(d) amend articles of incorporation;

(e) adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws;

(f) approve a plan of merger not requiring shareholder approval;

(g) authorize or approve reacquisition of shares, except according to a formula or method prescribed by the board of directors; or

(h) authorize or approve the issuance of or sale or contract for sale of shares or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences, and limitations of a class or series of shares. However, the board of directors may authorize a committee or a senior executive officer of the corporation to do so within limits specifically prescribed by the board of directors.

(5) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not by itself constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in [section 92].

Section 92. General standards for directors. (1) A director shall discharge his duties as a director, including the director's duties as a member of a committee:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging duties, a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) attorneys, public accountants, or other persons with regard to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) a committee of the board of directors of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

(3) A director is not acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) A director is not liable for any action taken as a director or for any failure to take any action if he performed the duties of the director's office in compliance with this section.

Section 93. Liability for unlawful distributions. (1) Unless the director complies with the applicable standards of conduct described in [section 92], a director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of [sections 1 through 181] or the articles of incorporation is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating [sections 1 through 181] or the articles of incorporation.

(2) A director held liable for an unlawful distribution under subsection (1) is entitled to contribution:

(a) from every other director who voted for or assented to the distribution and who did not comply with the applicable standards of conduct described in [section 92]; and

(b) from each shareholder for the amount the shareholder accepted if the shareholder knows the distribution was made in violation of [sections 1 through 181] or the articles of incorporation.

Section 94. Required officers. (1) A corporation has the officers described in its bylaws or appointed by the board of directors in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) A duly appointed officer may appoint one or more officers or assistant officers if authorized by the bylaws or the board of directors.

(3) The bylaws or the board of directors shall delegate to one of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and shareholders' meetings and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(4) The same individual may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.

Section 95. Duties of officers. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties prescribed by the board of directors or by direction of an officer authorized by the board of directors to prescribe the duties of other officers.

Section 96. Standards of conduct for officers. (1) An officer with discretionary authority shall discharge his duties under that authority:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging his duties, an officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; or

(b) attorneys, public accountants, or other persons as to matters the officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence.

(3) An officer is not acting in good faith if the officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) An officer is not liable for any action taken as an officer or for any failure to take any action if the officer performed the duties of his office in compliance with this section.

Section 97. Resignation and removal of officers. (1) An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is delivered unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board of directors provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

(2) The board of directors may remove any officer with or without cause, and if authorized by the bylaws or by the board of directors, an officer may remove an officer or assistant officer appointed by that officer under [section 94] with or without cause.

Section 98. Contract rights of officers. (1) The appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

(2) An officer's removal does not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the corporation. An officer's resignation does not affect the corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

Section 99. Definitions. As used in [sections 99 through 107], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(2) (a) "Director" means an individual who is or was a director of a corporation or an individual who, while a director of a corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. A director is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if the director's duties to the corporation include duties or services by him to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

(b) Director includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) "Expenses" include attorney fees.

(4) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, or fine, including an excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or to pay reasonable expenses incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(5) (a) "Official capacity" means:

(i) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in a corporation; or

(ii) when used with respect to an individual other than a director, as contemplated in [section 105], the office in a corporation held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the corporation.

(b) Official capacity does not include service for any other foreign or domestic corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

(6) "Party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(7) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

Section 100. Authority to indemnify. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), an individual made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a director may be indemnified against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

(a) he conducted himself in good faith;

(b) he reasonably believed:

(i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in the corporation's best interests; and

(ii) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and

(c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirement of subsection (1)(b)(ii).

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, a determination that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) A corporation may not indemnify a director under this section:

(a) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or

(b) in connection with any other proceeding charging improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in the director's official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the director.

(5) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

Section 101. Mandatory indemnification. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because he is or was a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

Section 102. Advance for expenses. (1) A corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

(a) the director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of the director's good faith belief that the director has met the standard of conduct described in [section 100];

(b) the director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in [section 100]; and

(c) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under [sections 99 through 107].

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1)(b) must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(3) Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section must be made in the manner specified in [section 104].

Section 103. Court-ordered indemnification. Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a director of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification if it determines that the director:

(1) is entitled to mandatory indemnification under [section 101], in which case the court shall also order the corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining court-ordered indemnification; or

(2) is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director met the standard of conduct set forth in [section 100] or was adjudged liable as described in [section 100(4)]. If the director was adjudged liable as described in [section 100(4)], the director's indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

Section 104. Determination and authorization of indemnification. (1) A corporation may not indemnify a director under [section 100] unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in [section 100].

(2) The determination must be made:

(a) by the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(b) if a quorum cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a), by majority vote of a committee designated by the board of directors, in which designated directors who are parties may participate, consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) by special legal counsel:

(i) selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b); or

(ii) if a quorum of the board of directors cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a) and a committee cannot be designated under subsection (2)(b), selected by majority vote of the full board of directors in which selected directors who are parties may participate; or

(d) by the shareholders, but shares owned by or voted under the control of directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding may not be voted on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) to select counsel.

Section 105. Indemnification of officers, employees, and agents. Unless a corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise:

(1) an officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under [section 101] and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under [section 103] to the same extent as a director;

(2) the corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under [sections 99 through 107] to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director; and

(3) a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

Section 106. Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by him in that capacity or arising from his status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify him against the same liability under [section 100] or [section 101].

Section 107. Application. (1) A provision treating a corporation's indemnification of or advance for expenses to directors that is contained in its articles of incorporation, its bylaws, a resolution of its shareholders or board of directors, a contract, or other instrument is valid only if and to the extent the provision is consistent with [sections 99 through 107]. If articles of incorporation limit indemnification or advance for expenses, indemnification and advance for expenses are valid only to the extent consistent with the articles of incorporation.

(2) [Sections 99 through 107] do not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director in connection with the director's appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the director has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

Section 108. Definitions. As used in [sections 108 through 111], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Conflicting interest" with respect to a corporation means the interest a director of the corporation has respecting a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest if:

(a) regardless of whether the transaction is brought before the board of directors of the corporation for action, the director knows at the time of commitment that he or a related person is a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or is so closely linked to the transaction and the transaction is of such financial significance to the director or a related person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment if the director were called upon to vote on the transaction; or

(b) the transaction is brought, or is of a character and significance to the corporation that it would in the normal course be brought, before the board of directors of the corporation for action and the director knows at the time of commitment that any of the following persons is either a party to the transaction or has a beneficial financial interest in or is so closely linked to the transaction and the transaction is of such financial significance to the person that the interest would reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the director's judgment if the director were called upon to vote on the transaction:

(i) an entity, other than the corporation, of which the director is a director, general partner, agent, or employee;

(ii) a person who controls one or more of the entities specified in subsection (1)(b)(i) or an entity that is controlled by, or is under common control with, one or more of the entities specified in subsection (1)(b)(i); or

(iii) an individual who is a general partner, principal, or employer of the director.

(2) "Director's conflicting interest transaction", with respect to a corporation, means a transaction effected or proposed to be effected by the corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest in which transaction a director of the corporation has a conflicting interest.

(3) "Related person" means:

(a) the spouse or a parent or sibling of a spouse of the director;

(b) a child, grandchild, sibling, parent or spouse of any child, grandchild, sibling, or parent of the director;

(c) an individual having the same residence as the director;

(d) a trust or estate of which an individual specified in this subsection (3) is a substantial beneficiary; or

(e) a trust, estate, incompetent person, conservatee, or minor for whom the director is a fiduciary.

(4) "Required disclosure" means disclosure by a director, who has a conflicting interest, of:

(a) the existence and nature of his conflicting interest; and

(b) all facts known to the director respecting the subject matter of the transaction that an ordinarily prudent person would reasonably believe to be material to a judgment about whether or not to proceed with the transaction.

(5) "Time of commitment" respecting a transaction means the time when the transaction is consummated or, if made pursuant to contract, the time when the corporation or its subsidiary or the entity in which it has a controlling interest becomes contractually obligated so that its unilateral withdrawal from the transaction would entail significant loss, liability, or other damage.

Section 109. Judicial action. (1) A transaction effected or proposed to be effected by a corporation or by a subsidiary of the corporation or any other entity in which the corporation has a controlling interest that is not a director's conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation because a director of the corporation or any person with whom the director has a personal, economic, or other association has an interest in the transaction.

(2) A director's conflicting interest transaction may not be enjoined, set aside, or give rise to an award of damages or other sanctions in a proceeding by a shareholder or by or in the right of the corporation because the director or any person with whom the director has a personal, economic, or other association has an interest in the transaction if:

(a) directors' action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with [section 110];

(b) shareholders' action respecting the transaction was at any time taken in compliance with [section 111]; or

(c) the transaction, judged according to the circumstances at the time of commitment, is established to have been fair to the corporation.

Section 110. Directors' action. (1) Directors' action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of [section 109(2)(a)] if the transaction received the affirmative vote of a majority, but no fewer than two, of those qualified directors on the board of directors or on an empowered committee of the board who voted on the transaction after either required disclosure to them, to the extent the information was not known by them, or compliance with subsection (2). Action by a committee is effective only if all its members are qualified directors and its members are either all the qualified directors on the board or are appointed by the affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified directors on the board.

(2) If a director has a conflicting interest respecting a transaction but neither the director nor a related person of the director specified in [section 108(3)] is a party to the transaction and if the director has a duty under law or professional canon or a duty of confidentiality to another person respecting information relating to the transaction such that the director may not make the disclosure described in [section 108(4)(b)], disclosure is sufficient for purposes of subsection (1) if the director:

(a) discloses to the directors voting on the transaction the existence and nature of the conflicting interest and informs them of the character and limitations imposed by that duty before their vote on the transaction; and

(b) plays no part, directly or indirectly, in their deliberations or vote.

(3) A majority, but no fewer than two, of all the qualified directors on the board of directors or on the committee constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section. Directors' action that otherwise complies with this section is not affected by the presence or vote of a director who is not a qualified director.

(4) For purposes of this section, "qualified director" means, with respect to a director's conflicting interest transaction, any director who does not have either a conflicting interest respecting the transaction or a familial, financial, professional, or employment relationship with a second director who does have a conflicting interest respecting the transaction, which relationship would, in the circumstances, reasonably be expected to exert an influence on the first director's judgment when voting on the transaction.

Section 111. Shareholders' action. (1) Shareholders' action respecting a transaction is effective for purposes of [section 109 (2)(b)] if a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares were cast in favor of the transaction after:

(a) notice to shareholders describing the director's conflicting interest transaction;

(b) provision of the information referred to in subsection (3); and

(c) required disclosure to the shareholders who voted on the transaction, to the extent the information was not known by them.

(2) A majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the holders of all qualified shares constitutes a quorum for purposes of action that complies with this section. Subject to the provisions of subsections (3) and (4), shareholders' action that otherwise complies with this section is not affected by the presence of shareholders, or the voting, of shares that are not qualified shares.

(3) For purposes of compliance with subsection (1), a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction shall, before the shareholders' vote, inform the secretary or other office or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes of the number of all shares and the identity of persons holding or controlling the vote of all shares that the director knows are beneficially owned by or the voting of which is controlled by the director or by a related person of the director, or both.

(4) If a shareholders' vote does not comply with subsection (1) solely because of a failure of a director to comply with subsection (3) and if the director establishes that his failure did not determine and was not intended by him to influence the outcome of the vote, the court may, with or without further proceedings respecting [section 109(2)(c)], take action respecting the transaction and the director and give effect, if any, to the shareholders' vote as it considers appropriate in the circumstances.

(5) For purposes of this section, "qualified shares" means any shares entitled to be voted with respect to the director's conflicting interest transaction except shares that, to the knowledge, before the vote, of the secretary or other officer or agent of the corporation authorized to tabulate votes, are beneficially owned by or the voting of which is controlled by a director who has a conflicting interest respecting the transaction or by a related person of the director, or both.

Section 112. Authority to amend. (1) A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation or to delete a provision not required in the articles of incorporation. Whether a provision is required or permitted in the articles of incorporation is determined as of the effective date of the amendment.

(2) A shareholder of the corporation does not have a vested property right resulting from any provision in the articles of incorporation, including provisions relating to management, control, capital structure, dividend entitlement, or purpose or duration of the corporation.

Section 113. Amendment by board of directors. Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation's board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation without shareholder action:

(1) to extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law;

(2) to delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;

(3) to delete the names and address of the initial registered agent or registered office if a statement of change is on file with the secretary of state;

(4) to change each issued and unissued authorized share of an outstanding class into a greater number of whole shares if the corporation has only shares of that class outstanding;

(5) to change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", "limited" or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd." for a similar word or abbreviation in the name or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution for the name; or

(6) to make any other change expressly permitted by [sections 1 through 181] to be made without shareholders' action.

Section 114. Amendment by board of directors and shareholders. (1) A corporation's board of directors may propose one or more amendments to the articles of incorporation for submission to the shareholders.

(2) For the amendment to be adopted:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend the amendment to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the amendment; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment shall approve the amendment as provided in subsection (5).

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed amendment on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with [section 53]. The notice of meeting must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

(5) Unless [sections 1 through 181], the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the amendment to be adopted must be approved by:

(a) a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights; and

(b) the votes required by [sections 61 and 62] by every other voting group entitled to vote on the amendment.

Section 115. Voting on amendments by voting groups. (1) The holders of the outstanding shares of a class are entitled to vote as a separate voting group, if shareholder voting is otherwise required by [sections 1 through 181], on a proposed amendment if the amendment would:

(a) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of the class;

(b) cause an exchange or reclassification of all or part of the shares of the class into shares of another class;

(c) cause an exchange or reclassification of or create the right of exchange of all or part of the shares of another class into shares of the class;

(d) change the designation, rights, preferences, or limitations of all or part of the shares of the class;

(e) change the shares of all or part of the class into a different number of shares of the same class;

(f) create a new class of shares having rights or preferences with respect to distributions or to dissolution that are prior, superior, or substantially equal to the shares of the class;

(g) increase the rights, preferences, or number of authorized shares of any class that, after giving effect to the amendment, have rights or preferences with respect to dissolution or to distributions that are prior, superior, or substantially equal to the shares of the class;

(h) limit or deny an existing preemptive right of all or part of the share of the class; or

(i) cancel or otherwise affect rights to distributions or dividends that have accumulated but have not yet been declared on all or part of the shares of the class.

(2) If a proposed amendment would affect a series of a class of shares in one or more of the ways described in subsection (1), the shares of that series are entitled to be voted as a separate voting group on the proposed amendment.

(3) If a proposed amendment that entitles two or more series of shares to be voted as separate voting groups under this section would affect those two or more series in the same or a substantially similar way, the shareholders of all the series affected must vote together as a single voting group on the proposed amendment.

(4) A class or series of shares is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles of incorporation provide that the shares are nonvoting shares.

Section 116. Amendment before issuance of shares. If a corporation has not yet issued shares, its incorporators or board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles of incorporation.

Section 117. Articles of amendment. A corporation amending its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment setting forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the text of each amendment adopted;

(3) if an amendment provides for an exchange, reclassification, or cancellation of issued shares, provisions for implementing the amendment if not contained in the amendment itself;

(4) the date of each amendment's adoption;

(5) if an amendment was adopted by the incorporators or board of directors without shareholders' action, a statement to that effect and that shareholders' action was not required; and

(6) if an amendment was approved by the shareholders:

(a) the designation, number of outstanding shares, number of votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment, and number of votes of each voting group indisputably represented at the meeting; and

(b) either the total number of votes cast for and against the amendment by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the amendment or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the amendment by each voting group that was sufficient for approval by that voting group.

Section 118. Restated articles of incorporation. (1) A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at any time with or without shareholders' action.

(2) The restatement may include one or more amendments to the articles of incorporation. If the restatement includes an amendment requiring shareholders' approval, it must be adopted as provided in [section 114].

(3) If the board of directors submits a restatement for shareholders' action, the corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with [section 53]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed restatement and must contain or be accompanied by a copy of the restatement that identifies any amendment or other change the restatement would make in the articles of incorporation.

(4) A corporation restating its articles of incorporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of restatement setting forth the name of the corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation together with a certificate setting forth:

(a) whether the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring shareholder approval and, if it does not, that the board of directors adopted the restatement; or

(b) if the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring shareholders' approval, the information required by [section 117].

(5) Adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments to them.

(6) The secretary of state may certify restated articles of incorporation as the articles of incorporation currently in effect without including the certificate information required by subsection (4).

Section 119. Amendment pursuant to reorganization. (1) A corporation's articles of incorporation may be amended without action by the board of directors or shareholders if necessary to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction under federal statute if the articles of incorporation, after amendment, contain only provisions required or permitted by [section 17].

(2) The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of each amendment approved by the court;

(c) the date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of amendment;

(d) the title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered; and

(e) a statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

(3) Shareholders of a corporation undergoing reorganization do not have dissenters' rights except to the extent provided in the reorganization plan.

(4) This section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization plan.

Section 120. Effect of amendment. An amendment to articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of action existing against or in favor of the corporation, a proceeding to which the corporation is party, or the existing rights of persons other than shareholders of the corporation. An amendment changing a corporation's name does not abate a proceeding brought by or against the corporation in its former name.

Section 121. Amendment by board of directors or shareholders. (1) A corporation's board of directors may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws unless:

(a) the articles of incorporation or [sections 1 through 181] reserve this power exclusively to the shareholders in whole or part; or

(b) the shareholders in amending, adding, or repealing a particular bylaw provide expressly that the board of directors may not amend or repeal that bylaw.

(2) A corporation's shareholders may amend or repeal the corporation's bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended or repealed by its board of directors.

Section 122. Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for shareholders. (1) If expressly authorized by the articles of incorporation, the shareholders may adopt or amend a bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders or voting groups of shareholders than is required by [sections 1 through 181]. The adoption or amendment of a bylaw that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

(2) A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for shareholders under subsection (1) may not be adopted, amended, or repealed by the board of directors.

Section 123. Bylaw increasing quorum or voting requirement for directors. (1) A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may be amended or repealed:

(a) if originally adopted by the shareholders, only by the shareholders; or

(b) if originally adopted by the board of directors, either by the shareholders or by the board of directors.

(2) A bylaw adopted or amended by the shareholders that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors may provide that the bylaw may be amended or repealed only by a specified vote of either the shareholders or the board of directors.

(3) Action by the board of directors under subsection (1)(b) to adopt or amend a bylaw that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the board of directors must meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

Section 124. Merger. (1) One or more corporations may merge into another corporation if the board of directors of each corporation adopts and its shareholders, if required by [section 126], approve a plan of merger.

(2) The plan of merger must set forth:

(a) the name of each corporation planning to merge and the name of the surviving corporation into which each other corporation plans to merge;

(b) the terms and conditions of the merger; and

(c) the manner and basis of converting the shares of each corporation into shares, obligations, or other securities of the surviving corporation or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The plan of merger may set forth:

(a) amendments to the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation; and

(b) other provisions relating to the merger.

Section 125. Share exchange. (1) A corporation may acquire all of the outstanding shares of one or more classes or series of another corporation if the board of directors of each corporation adopts and its shareholders, if required by [section 126], approve the exchange.

(2) The plan of exchange must set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation from which shares will be acquired and the name of the acquiring corporation;

(b) the terms and conditions of the exchange; and

(c) the manner and basis of exchanging the shares to be acquired for shares, obligations, or other securities of the acquiring corporation or any other corporation or for cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The plan of exchange may set forth any other provision relating to the exchange.

(4) This section does not limit the power of a corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of one or more classes or series of another corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise.

Section 126. Action on plan. (1) Except as provided in subsection (7), after adopting a plan of merger or share exchange, the board of directors of each corporation party to the merger and the board of directors of the corporation whose shares will be acquired in the share exchange shall submit the plan of merger, except as provided in subsection (7), or share exchange for approval by its shareholders.

(2) For a plan of merger or share exchange to be approved:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend the plan of merger or share exchange to the shareholders, unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the plan; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote shall approve the plan.

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed merger or share exchange on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with [section 53]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the plan of merger or share exchange and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan.

(5) Unless [sections 1 through 181], the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors, acting pursuant to subsection (3), require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the plan of merger or share exchange to be authorized must be approved by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan by an affirmative vote of two-thirds, or a majority vote if authorized by subsection (10), of the votes entitled to be cast on the plan by that voting group.

(6) Separate voting by voting groups is required:

(a) on a plan of merger if the plan contains a provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation, would require action by one or more separate voting groups on the proposed amendment under [section 115]; and

(b) on a plan of share exchange by each class or series of shares included in the exchange, with each class or series constituting a separate voting group.

(7) Action by the shareholders of the surviving corporation on a plan of merger is not required if:

(a) the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation will not differ, except for amendments enumerated in [section 113], from its articles before the merger;

(b) each shareholder of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights, immediately after the merger;

(c) the number of voting shares outstanding immediately after the merger plus the number of voting shares issuable as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of voting shares of the surviving corporation outstanding immediately before the merger; and

(d) the number of participating shares outstanding immediately after the merger plus the number of participating shares issuable as a result of the merger, either by the conversion of securities issued pursuant to the merger or the exercise of rights and warrants issued pursuant to the merger, will not exceed by more than 20% the total number of participating shares outstanding immediately before the merger.

(8) As used in subsection (7):

(a) "Participating shares" means shares that entitle their shareholders to participate without limitation in distributions.

(b) "Voting shares" means shares that entitle their shareholders to vote unconditionally in elections of directors.

(9) After a merger or share exchange is authorized and at any time before articles of merger or share exchange are filed, the planned merger or share exchange may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further shareholder action in accordance with the procedure set forth in the plan of merger or share exchange or, if no procedure is set forth, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

(10) A majority of all votes entitled to be cast by each voting group is sufficient to constitute approval by the corporation if a statement to that effect is included in the articles of incorporation but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation were filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment pursuant to [section 114].

Section 127. Merger of subsidiary. (1) A parent corporation owning at least 80% of the outstanding shares of each class of a subsidiary corporation may merge the subsidiary into itself without approval of the shareholders of the parent corporation or subsidiary.

(2) The board of directors of the parent corporation shall adopt a plan of merger that sets forth:

(a) the names of the parent corporation and subsidiary; and

(b) the manner and basis of converting the shares of the subsidiary into shares, obligations, or other securities of the parent corporation or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The parent corporation shall mail a copy of the summary of the plan of merger to each shareholder of the subsidiary who does not waive the mailing requirement in writing.

(4) The parent corporation may not deliver articles of merger to the secretary of state for filing until at least 30 days after the date it mailed a copy of the plan of merger to each shareholder of the subsidiary who did not waive the mailing requirement.

(5) Articles of merger under this section may not contain amendments to the articles of incorporation of the parent corporation except for amendments enumerated in [section 113].

Section 128. Articles of merger or share exchange. (1) After a plan of merger or share exchange is approved by the shareholders or adopted by the board of directors if shareholder approval is not required, the surviving or acquiring corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of merger or share exchange setting forth:

(a) the plan of merger or share exchange; and

(b) if shareholder approval was not required, a statement to that effect; or

(c) if approval of the shareholders of one or more corporations party to the merger or share exchange was required:

(i) the designation, number of outstanding shares, and number of votes entitled to be cast by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan as to each corporation; and

(ii) either the total number of votes cast for and against the plan by each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the plan separately by each voting group and a statement that the number cast for the plan by each voting group was sufficient for approval by that voting group.

(2) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, a merger or share exchange takes effect when the articles of merger or share exchange are filed.

Section 129. Effect of merger or share exchange. (1) When a merger takes effect:

(a) every other corporation party to the merger merges into the surviving corporation and the separate existence of every corporation except the surviving corporation ceases;

(b) the title to all real estate and other property owned by each corporation party to the merger is vested in the surviving corporation without reversion or impairment;

(c) the surviving corporation has all liabilities of each corporation party to the merger;

(d) a proceeding pending against any corporation party to the merger may be continued as if the merger did not occur or the surviving corporation may be substituted in the proceeding for the corporation whose existence ceased;

(e) the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger; and

(f) the shares of each corporation party to the merger that are to be converted into shares, obligations, or other securities of the surviving or any other corporation or into cash or other property are converted and the former shareholders are entitled only to the rights provided in the articles of merger or to their rights under [section 133 through 146].

(2) When a share exchange takes effect, the shares of each acquired corporation are exchanged as provided in the plan and the former shareholders are entitled only to the exchange rights provided in the articles of share exchange or to their rights under [sections 133 through 146].

Section 130. Merger or share exchange with foreign corporation. (1) One or more foreign corporations may merge or enter into a share exchange with one or more domestic corporations if:

(a) in a merger, the merger is permitted by the law of the state or country under whose law each foreign corporation is incorporated and each foreign corporation complies with that law in effecting the merger; or

(b) in a share exchange, the corporation whose shares will be acquired is a domestic corporation, whether or not a share exchange is permitted by the law of the state or country under whose law the acquiring corporation is incorporated;

(c) the foreign corporation complies with [section 128] and if it is the surviving corporation of the merger or acquiring corporation of the share exchange; and

(d) each domestic corporation complies with the applicable provisions of [sections 124 through 127] and, if it is the surviving corporation of the merger or acquiring corporation of the share exchange, with the provisions of [section 128].

(2) When the merger or share exchange takes effect, the surviving foreign corporation of a merger and the acquiring foreign corporation of a share exchange is considered:

(a) to have appointed the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in a proceeding to enforce any obligation or the rights of dissenting shareholders of each domestic corporation party to the merger or share exchange; and

(b) to have agreed that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of each domestic corporation party to the merger or share exchange the amount, if any, to which they are entitled under [sections 133 through 146].

(3) This section does not limit the power of a foreign corporation to acquire all or part of the shares of one or more classes or series of a domestic corporation through a voluntary exchange or otherwise.

Section 131. Sale of assets in regular course of business — mortgage of assets. (1) A corporation may, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the board of directors:

(a) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property in the usual and regular course of business;

(b) mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness, whether with or without recourse, or otherwise encumber any or all of its property whether or not in the usual and regular course of business; or

(c) transfer any or all of its property to another corporation all the shares of which are owned by the corporation.

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation require it, approval by the shareholders of a transaction described in subsection (1) is not required.

Section 132. Sale of assets other than in regular course of business. (1) A corporation may sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property, which may include good will, otherwise than in the usual and regular course of business, on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the corporation's board of directors if the board of directors proposes and its shareholders approve the proposed transaction.

(2) For a transaction under this section to be authorized:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend the proposed transaction to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders with the submission of the proposed transaction; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote shall approve the transaction.

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposed transaction on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with [section 53]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all the property of the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a description of the transaction.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3), require a greater vote or a vote by voting groups, the transaction to be authorized must be approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds, or a majority if authorized by subsection (8), of the votes entitled to be cast on the transaction.

(6) After a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of property is authorized, the transaction may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further shareholders' action.

(7) A transaction that constitutes a distribution is governed by [section 48] and not by this section.

(8) A majority of votes cast by the shareholders is sufficient to constitute approval by the corporation if a statement to that effect is included in the articles of incorporation but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation were filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment pursuant to [section 114].

Section 133. Definitions. As used in [sections 133 through 146], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Beneficial shareholder" means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

(2) "Corporation" includes the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

(3) "Dissenter" means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under [section 134] and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by [sections 136 through 144].

(4) "Fair value", with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

(5) "Interest" means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans or, if the corporation has no loans, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances.

(6) "Record shareholder" means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial shareholder to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

(7) "Shareholder" means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

Section 134. Right to dissent. (1) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares in the event of any of the following corporate actions:

(a) consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if:

(i) shareholder approval is required for the merger by [section 126] or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger; or

(ii) the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent corporation under [section 127];

(b) consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;

(c) consummation of a sale or exchange of all or substantially all of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within 1 year after the date of sale;

(d) an amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it:

(i) alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares;

(ii) creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision with respect to a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;

(iii) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(iv) excludes or limits the right of the shares to be voted on any matter or to accumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(v) reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under [section 36]; or

(e) any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and to obtain payment for their shares.

(2) A shareholder entitled to dissent and to obtain payment for his shares under [sections 133 through 146] may not challenge the corporate action creating the shareholder's entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

Section 135. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners. (1) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(2) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on his behalf only if:

(a) he submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(b) he does so with respect to all shares of which he is the beneficial shareholder or over which he has power to direct the vote.

Section 136. Notice of dissenters' rights. (1) If a proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under [section 134] is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, the meeting notice must state that shareholders are or may be entitled to assert dissenters' rights under [sections 133 through 146] and must be accompanied by a copy of [sections 133 through 146].

(2) If a corporate action creating dissenters' rights under [section 134] is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall give written notification to all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken and shall send them the dissenters' notice described in [section 138].

Section 137. Notice of intent to demand payment. (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under [section 134] is submitted to a vote at a shareholders' meeting, a shareholder who wishes to assert dissenters' rights:

(a) shall deliver to the corporation before the vote is taken written notice of his intent to demand payment for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(b) may not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action.

(2) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1)(a) is not entitled to payment for his shares under [sections 133 through 146].

Section 138. Dissenters' notice. (1) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters' rights under [section 134] is authorized at a shareholders' meeting, the corporation shall deliver a written dissenters' notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of [section 137].

(2) The dissenters' notice must be sent no later than 10 days after the corporate action was taken and must:

(a) state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certified shares must be deposited;

(b) inform shareholders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment is received;

(c) supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action and that requires the person asserting dissenters' rights to certify whether or not he acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;

(d) set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the required notice under subsection (1) is delivered; and

(e) be accompanied by a copy of [sections 133 through 146].

Section 139. Duty to demand payment. (1) A shareholder sent a dissenters' notice described in [section 138] shall demand payment, certify whether the shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before the date required to be set forth in the dissenters' notice pursuant to [section 138(2)(c)], and deposit his certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

(2) The shareholder who demands payment and deposits his certificates under subsection (1) retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

(3) A shareholder who does not demand payment or deposit his certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, is not entitled to payment for his shares under [sections 133 through 146].

Section 140. Share restrictions. (1) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions are released under [section 142].

(2) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

Section 141. Payment. (1) Except as provided in [section 143], as soon as the proposed corporate action is taken or upon receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with [section 139] the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of the dissenter's shares plus accrued interest.

(2) The payment must be accompanied by:

(a) the corporation's balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of changes in shareholders' equity for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(b) a statement of the corporation's estimate of the fair value of the shares;

(c) an explanation of how the interest was calculated;

(d) a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under [section 144]; and

(e) a copy of [sections 133 through 146].

Section 142. Failure to take action. (1) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(2) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it shall send a new dissenters' notice under [section 138] and repeat the payment demand procedure.

Section 143. After-acquired shares. (1) A corporation may elect to withhold payment required by [section 141] from a dissenter unless the dissenter was the beneficial owner of the shares before the date set forth in the dissenters' notice as the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed corporate action.

(2) To the extent the corporation elects to withhold payment under subsection (1), after taking the proposed corporate action, the corporation shall estimate the fair value of the shares plus accrued interest and shall pay this amount to each dissenter who agrees to accept it in full satisfaction of his demand. The corporation shall send with its offer a statement of its estimate of the fair value of the shares, an explanation of how the interest was calculated, and a statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under [section 144].

Section 144. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with payment or offer. (1) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and the amount of interest due and may demand payment of the dissenter's estimate, less any payment under [section 141], or reject the corporation's offer under [section 143] and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and the interest due if:

(a) the dissenter believes that the amount paid under [section 141] or offered under [section 143] is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(b) the corporation fails to make payment under [section 141] within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment; or

(c) the corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(2) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless he notifies the corporation of his demand in writing under subsection (1) within 30 days after the corporation made or offered payment for his shares.

Section 145. Court action. (1) If a demand for payment under [section 144] remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and shall petition the court to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If the corporation does not commence the proceeding within the 60-day period, it shall pay each dissenter whose demand remains unsettled the amount demanded.

(2) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the district court of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if its principal office is not located in this state, where its registered office is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(3) The corporation shall make all dissenters whose demands remain unsettled, whether or not residents of this state, parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Nonresidents may be served by certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(4) The jurisdiction of the district court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (2) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(5) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment:

(a) for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares plus interest exceeds the amount paid by the corporation; or

(b) for the fair value plus accrued interest of his after-acquired shares for which the corporation elected to withhold payment under [section 143].

Section 146. Court costs and attorney fees. (1) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under [section 145] shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under [section 144].

(2) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(a) against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of [sections 136 through 144]; or

(b) against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by [sections 133 through 146].

(3) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award the counsel reasonable attorney fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.

Section 147. Dissolution by incorporators or initial directors. A majority of the incorporators or initial directors of a corporation that has not issued shares or has not commenced business may dissolve the corporation by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of dissolution that set forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the date of its incorporation;

(3) either that none of the corporation's shares have been issued or that the corporation has not commenced business;

(4) that no debt of the corporation remains unpaid;

(5) if issues were shared, that the net assets of the corporation remaining after winding up of the corporation's business and affairs have been distributed to the shareholders; and

(6) that a majority of the incorporators or initial directors authorized the dissolution.

Section 148. Dissolution by board of directors and shareholders. (1) A corporation's board of directors may propose dissolution for submission to the shareholders.

(2) For a proposal to dissolve to be adopted:

(a) the board of directors shall recommend dissolution to the shareholders unless the board of directors determines that because of conflict of interest or other special circumstances it should make no recommendation and communicates the basis for its determination to the shareholders; and

(b) the shareholders entitled to vote shall approve the proposal to dissolve as provided in subsection (5).

(3) The board of directors may condition its submission of the proposal for dissolution on any basis.

(4) The corporation shall notify each shareholder, whether or not entitled to vote, of the proposed shareholders' meeting in accordance with [section 53]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation.

(5) Unless the articles of incorporation, or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3), requires a greater vote or a vote by voting groups to be adopted, the proposal to dissolve must be approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds, or a majority if authorized by subsection (6), of all the votes entitled to be cast on that proposal.

(6) A majority of votes cast by the shareholders is sufficient to constitute approval by the corporation if a statement to that effect is included in the articles of incorporation but only if:

(a) the statement is included in the articles of incorporation at the time the initial articles of incorporation were filed; or

(b) the statement is included in an amendment to the articles of incorporation approved by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment pursuant to [section 114].

Section 149. Articles of dissolution. (1) At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of dissolution setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the date dissolution was authorized;

(c) if dissolution was approved by the shareholders:

(i) the number of votes entitled to be cast on the proposal to dissolve; and

(ii) either the total number of votes cast for and against dissolution or the total number of undisputed votes cast for dissolution and a statement that the number cast for dissolution was sufficient for approval; and

(d) if voting by voting groups is required, the information required by subsection (1)(c) must be separately provided for each voting group entitled to vote separately on the plan to dissolve.

(2) A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

Section 150. Revocation of dissolution. (1) A corporation may revoke its dissolution within 120 days of the effective date of the articles of dissolution.

(2) Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without shareholders' action.

(3) After the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the corporation may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the effective date of the dissolution that was revoked;

(c) the date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized;

(d) if the corporation's board of directors or incorporators revoked the dissolution, a statement to that effect;

(e) if the corporation's board of directors revoked a dissolution authorized by the shareholders, a statement that revocation was permitted on action by the board of directors alone pursuant to that authorization; and

(f) if shareholder action was required to revoke the dissolution, the information required by [section 149(1)(c) or (1)(d)].

(4) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, revocation of dissolution is effective when the articles of revocation of dissolution are filed.

(5) When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution, and the corporation resumes carrying on its business as if dissolution had never occurred.

Section 151. Effect of dissolution. (1) A dissolved corporation continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any business except that appropriate to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs, including:

(a) collecting its assets;

(b) disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind to its shareholders;

(c) discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities;

(d) distributing its remaining property among its shareholders according to their interests; and

(e) doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs.

(2) Dissolution of a corporation does not:

(a) transfer title to the corporation's property;

(b) prevent transfer of its shares or securities, although the authorization to dissolve may provide for closing the corporation's share transfer records;

(c) subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in [sections 75 through 111];

(d) change quorum or voting requirements for its board of directors or shareholders; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers, or both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws;

(e) prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in its corporate name;

(f) abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective date of dissolution; or

(g) terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

Section 152. Known claims against dissolved corporation. (1) A dissolved corporation may dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.

(2) The dissolved corporation shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after the effective date of the dissolution. The written notice must:

(a) describe information that must be included in a claim;

(b) provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;

(c) state the deadline, which may not be less than 120 days from the effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved corporation must receive the claim; and

(d) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(3) A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred:

(a) if a claimant who was given written notice under subsection (1) does not deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline; or

(b) if a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days from the effective date of the rejection notice.

(4) For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of the dissolution.

Section 153. Unknown claims against dissolved corporation. (1) Subject to [section 175], the dissolution of a corporation, including by the expiration of its term, does not take away or impair any remedy available to or against the corporation or its officers, directors, or shareholders for any claim or right, whether or not the claim or right existed or accrued prior to dissolution. A proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The shareholders, directors, and officers have power to take corporate or other action as appropriate to protect the remedy, right, or claim.

(2) A claim may be enforced under this section or [section 152]:

(a) against the dissolved corporation, to the extent of the undistributed assets; or

(b) if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a shareholder of the dissolved corporation to the extent of his pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to the shareholder in liquidation, whichever is less, but a shareholder's total liability for all claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to him.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply to foreign corporations and their shareholders transacting business in this state for any claims otherwise arising or accruing under Montana law.

Section 154. Grounds for judicial dissolution. The district court may dissolve a corporation:

(1) in a proceeding by the attorney general if it is established that:

(a) the corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud; or

(b) the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(2) in a proceeding by a shareholder if it is established that:

(a) the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and irreparable injury to the corporation is threatened or being suffered or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally because of the deadlock;

(b) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

(c) the shareholders are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have expired; or

(d) the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted;

(3) in a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:

(a) the creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent; or

(b) the corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor's claim is due and owing and the corporation is insolvent; or

(4) in a proceeding by the corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under court supervision.

Section 155. Discretion of court to grant relief other than dissolution. (1) In any action filed by a shareholder or director to dissolve the corporation on the grounds enumerated in [section 154], the court may make any order to grant the relief other than dissolution as, in its discretion, it considers appropriate, including, without limitation, an order:

(a) canceling or altering any provision contained in the articles of incorporation, in any amendment of the articles of incorporation, or in the bylaws of the corporation;

(b) canceling, altering, or enjoining any resolution or other act of the corporation;

(c) directing or prohibiting any act of the corporation or of shareholders, directors, officers, or other persons party to the action; or

(d) providing for the purchase at fair value of shares of any shareholder, either by the corporation or by other shareholders.

(2) Relief under subsection (1) may be granted as an alternative to a decree of dissolution or may be granted whenever, under the circumstances of the case, relief but not dissolution would be appropriate.

Section 156. Procedure for judicial dissolution. (1) Venue for a proceeding by the attorney general or any other party named in [section 154] to dissolve a corporation lies in the county where a corporation's principal office or, if its principal office is not located in this state, where its registered office is or was last located.

(2) It is not necessary to make shareholders parties to a proceeding to dissolve a corporation unless relief is sought against them individually.

(3) A court in a proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian pendente lite with all powers and duties the court directs, take other action required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the business of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

Section 157. Receivership or custodianship. (1) A court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation may appoint one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate, or one or more custodians to manage, the business and affairs of the corporation. The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a receiver or custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction over the corporation and all its property wherever located.

(2) The court may appoint an individual or a domestic or foreign corporation, authorized to transact business in this state, as a receiver or custodian. The court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

(3) The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

(a) the receiver may dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever located, at a public or private sale, if authorized by the court and may sue and defend in the receiver's own name as receiver of the corporation in all courts of this state; and

(b) the custodian may exercise all of the powers of the corporation through or in place of its board of directors or officers to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the corporation in the best interests of its shareholders and creditors.

(4) The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver if doing so is in the best interests of the corporation and its shareholders and creditors.

(5) The court from time to time during the receivership or custodianship may order compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or custodian and his counsel from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of the assets.

Section 158. Decree of dissolution. (1) If after a hearing the court determines that one or more grounds for judicial dissolution described in [section 154] exist, it may enter a decree dissolving the corporation and specifying the effective date of the dissolution, and the clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the decree to the secretary of state, who shall file it.

(2) After entering the decree of dissolution, the court shall direct the winding up and liquidation of the corporation's business and affairs in accordance with [section 151] and the notification of claimants in accordance with [sections 152 and 153].

Section 159. Deposit with state treasurer. Assets of a dissolved corporation that should be transferred to a creditor, claimant, or shareholder of the corporation who cannot be found or who is not competent to receive them must be reduced to cash and deposited with the state treasurer or other appropriate state official for safekeeping. When the creditor, claimant, or shareholder furnishes satisfactory proof of entitlement to the amount deposited, the state treasurer or other appropriate state official shall pay him or his representative that amount.

Section 160. Authority to transact business required. (1) A foreign corporation may not transact business in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority from the secretary of state.

(2) The following activities, among others, do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1):

(a) maintaining, defending, or settling any proceeding;

(b) holding meetings of the board of directors or shareholders or carrying on other activities concerning internal corporate affairs;

(c) maintaining bank accounts;

(d) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of the corporation's own securities or maintaining trustees or depositaries with respect to those securities;

(e) selling through independent contractors;

(f) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(g) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, and security interests in real or personal property;

(h) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages and security interests in property securing the debts;

(i) owning real or personal property that is acquired incident to activities described in subsection (2)(h) if the property is disposed of within 5 years after the date of acquisition does not produce income, or is not used in the performance of a corporate function;

(j) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and that is not a transaction in the course of repeated transactions of a similar nature; or

(k) transacting business in interstate commerce.

(3) The list of activities in subsection (2) is not exhaustive.

Section 161. Consequences of transacting business without authority. (1) A foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority may not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority.

(2) The successor to a foreign corporation that transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business may not maintain a proceeding based on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

(3) A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign corporation or its successor or assignee until it determines whether the foreign corporation or its successor or assignee requires a certificate of authority. If it determines that a certificate is required, the court may further stay the proceeding until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains the certificate.

(4) A foreign corporation is liable for a civil penalty of $5 for each day but not to exceed a total of $1,000 for each year that it transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect all penalties due under this subsection.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its corporate acts or prevent it from defending any proceeding in this state.

Section 162. Application for certificate of authority. (1) A foreign corporation may apply for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation or, if its name is unavailable for use in this state, a corporate name that satisfies the requirements of [section 165];

(b) the name of the state or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(c) its date of incorporation and period of duration;

(d) the street address of its principal office;

(e) the address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office;

(f) the names and usual business addresses of its current directors and officers; and

(g) the purpose or purposes of the corporation that it proposes to pursue in the transaction of business in this state.

(2) The foreign corporation shall deliver with the completed application a certificate of existence or a similar document authenticated by the secretary of state or other official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law the foreign corporation is incorporated.

Section 163. Amended certificate of authority. (1) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall obtain an amended certificate of authority from the secretary of state if it changes:

(a) its corporate name;

(b) the period of its duration; or

(c) the state or country of its incorporation.

(2) The requirements of [section 162] for obtaining an original certificate of authority apply to obtaining an amended certificate under this section.

Section 164. Effect of certificate of authority. (1) A certificate of authority authorizes the foreign corporation to which it is issued the right to transact business in this state subject, however, to the right of the state to revoke the certificate as provided in [sections 1 through 181].

(2) A foreign corporation with a valid certificate of authority has the same but no greater rights and has the same but no greater privileges as a domestic corporation of similar character and except as otherwise provided by [sections 1 through 181] is subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or later imposed on a domestic corporation of similar character.

(3) [Sections 1 through 181] do not authorize this state to regulate the organization or internal affairs of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state.

Section 165. Corporate name of foreign corporation. (1) If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements of [section 25], to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state the foreign corporation shall:

(a) add the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", or "limited" or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd." to its corporate name for use in this state; or

(b) use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if its real name is unavailable and deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), the corporate name of a foreign corporation, including a fictitious name, must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under [section 26 or 27];

(c) the fictitious name of another foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) the corporate name of a not-for-profit corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(e) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved, but only for a period of 120 days after the effective date of its dissolution; and

(f) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A foreign corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation, incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state, that is not distinguishable

in the secretary of state's records from the name applied for. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A foreign corporation may use in this state the name of another domestic or foreign corporation, including the fictitious name, that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) If a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state changes its corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of [section 25], it may not transact business in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name satisfying the requirements of [section 25] and obtains an amended certificate of authority under [section 163].

Section 166. Registered office and registered agent of foreign corporation. Each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state must continuously maintain in this state:

(1) a registered office that may be the same as any of its places of business; and

(2) a registered agent who may be:

(a) an individual who resides in this state and whose business office is identical with the registered office;

(b) a domestic corporation or not-for-profit domestic corporation whose business office is identical with the registered office; or

(c) a foreign corporation or foreign not-for-profit corporation authorized to transact business in this state whose business office is identical with the registered office.

Section 167. Change of registered office or registered agent of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may change its registered office or registered agent by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement of change that sets forth:

(a) the foreign corporation's name;

(b) the street address of its current registered office;

(c) if the current registered office is to be changed, the street address of its new registered office;

(d) the name of its current registered agent;

(e) if the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of its new registered agent and the new agent's written consent, either on the statement or attached to it, to the appointment; and

(f) the fact that after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office and the business office of its registered agent will be identical.

(2) If a registered agent changes the street address of the registered agent's business office, the registered agent may change the street address of the registered office of any foreign corporation for which the registered agent is the registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of the change and signing, either manually or in facsimile, and delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement of change that complies with the requirements of subsection (1) and that states that the corporation has been notified of the change.

Section 168. Resignation of registered agent of foreign corporation. (1) The registered agent of a foreign corporation may resign the agency appointment by signing and delivering to the secretary of state for filing the original and two copies of a statement of resignation. The statement of resignation may include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued.

(2) After filing the statement, the secretary of state shall attach the filing receipt to one copy and mail the copy and receipt to the registered office if the office has not been discontinued. The secretary of state shall mail the other copy to the foreign corporation at its principal office address shown in its most recent annual report.

(3) The agency appointment is terminated, and the registered office discontinued if so provided, 31 days after the date on which the statement was filed.

Section 169. Withdrawal of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may not withdraw from this state until it obtains a certificate of withdrawal from the secretary of state.

(2) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may apply for a certificate of withdrawal by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation and the name of the state or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(b) that it is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state;

(c) that it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf and appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) a mailing address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process served on the secretary of state under subsection (3);

(e) a commitment to notify the secretary of state in the future of any change in its mailing address;

(f) that all taxes imposed on the corporation by Title 15 have been paid, supported by a certificate by the department of revenue to be attached to the application to the effect that the department is satisfied from the available evidence that all taxes imposed have been paid. The issuance of the certificate does not relieve the corporation from liability for any taxes, penalties, or interest due the state of Montana; and

(g) additional information as may be necessary or appropriate to enable the secretary of state to determine and assess any unpaid fees or taxes payable by the foreign corporation as prescribed by [sections 160 through 172].

(3) After the withdrawal of the corporation is effective, service of process on the secretary of state under this section is service on the foreign corporation. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the foreign corporation at the mailing address set forth under subsection (2).

Section 170. Grounds for revocation. The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under [section 171] to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state if:

(1) the foreign corporation does not deliver its annual report to the secretary of state within 90 days after it is due;

(2) the foreign corporation does not pay within 90 days after they are due any franchise taxes or penalties imposed by [sections 1 through 181] or other law;

(3) the foreign corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for 90 days or more;

(4) the foreign corporation does not inform the secretary of state under [section 167 or 168] that its registered agent or registered office has changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued within 60 days of the change, resignation, or discontinuance;

(5) an incorporator, director, officer, or agent of the foreign corporation signed a document the person knew was false in any material respect with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing; or

(6) the secretary of state receives a duly authenticated certificate from the secretary of state or other official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law the foreign corporation is incorporated stating that it has been dissolved or disappeared as the result of a merger.

Section 171. Procedure for and effect of revocation. (1) If the secretary of state determines that one or more grounds exist under [section 170] for revocation of a certificate of authority, the secretary of state shall serve the foreign corporation with written notice of his determination pursuant to 35-1-1014.

(2) If the foreign corporation does not correct each ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state that each ground determined by the secretary of state does not exist within 60 days after service of the notice is perfected under 35-1-1014, the secretary of state may revoke the foreign corporation's certificate of authority by signing a certificate of revocation that states the ground or grounds for revocation and the effective date of the revocation. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the foreign corporation pursuant to 35-1-1014.

(3) The authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state ceases on the date shown on the certificate revoking its certificate of authority.

(4) The secretary of state's revocation of a foreign corporation's certificate of authority appoints the secretary of state as the foreign corporation's agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action that arose during the time the foreign corporation was authorized to transact business in this state. Service of process on the secretary of state under this subsection is service on the foreign corporation. Upon receipt of process, the secretary of state shall mail a copy of the process to the secretary of the foreign corporation at its principal office shown in its most recent annual report or in any subsequent communication received from the corporation stating the current mailing address of its principal office, or, if no report or communication is on file, in its application for a certificate of authority.

(5) Revocation of a foreign corporation's certificate of authority does not terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

Section 172. Appeal from revocation. (1) A foreign corporation may appeal the secretary of state's revocation of its certificate of authority to the district court within 30 days after service of the certificate of revocation is perfected pursuant to 35-1-1014. The foreign corporation appeals by petitioning the court to set aside the revocation and attaching to the petition copies of its certificate of authority and the secretary of state's certificate of revocation.

(2) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the certificate of authority or may take any other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

Section 173. Corporate records. (1) A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its shareholders and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the board of directors in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation.

(2) A corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

(3) A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its shareholders, in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all shareholders, in alphabetical order by class of shares showing the number and class of shares held by each.

(4) A corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

(5) A corporation shall keep a copy of the following records at its principal office or a location from which the records may be recovered within 2 business days:

(a) its articles or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(b) its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(c) resolutions adopted by its board of directors creating one or more classes or series of shares and fixing their relative rights, preferences, and limitations if shares issued pursuant to those resolutions are outstanding;

(d) the minutes of all shareholders' meetings and records of all action taken by shareholders without a meeting for the past 3 years;

(e) the financial statements available to shareholders for the past 3 years under [section 177];

(f) a list of the names and business addresses of its current directors and officers; and

(g) its most recent annual report delivered to the secretary of state under [section 179].

Section 174. Inspection of records by shareholders. (1) Subject to [section 175(3)], a shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at the corporation's principal office, any of the records of the corporation described in [section 173(5)] if the shareholder gives the corporation written notice of the demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy.

(2) A shareholder of a corporation is entitled to inspect and copy, during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the corporation, any of the following records of the corporation if the shareholder meets the requirements of subsection (3) and gives the corporation written notice of the demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the shareholder wishes to inspect and copy:

(a) excerpts from minutes of any meeting of the board of directors, records of any action of a committee of the board of directors while acting in place of the board of directors on behalf of the corporation, minutes of any meeting of the shareholders, and records of action taken by the shareholders or board of directors without a meeting, to the extent not subject to inspection under [section 174(1)];

(b) accounting records of the corporation; and

(c) the record of shareholders.

(3) A shareholder may inspect and copy the records identified in subsection (2) only if:

(a) the demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;

(b) the shareholder describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records the shareholder desires to inspect;

(c) the records are directly connected with his purpose; and

(d) the shareholder has been a shareholder of record for at least 6 months preceding the demand or the shareholder is a holder of record of at least 5% of all the outstanding shares of the corporation.

(4) The right of inspection granted by this section may not be abolished or limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws.

(5) This section does not affect:

(a) the right of a shareholder to inspect records under [section 56] or, if the shareholder is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other litigant; or

(b) the power of a court, independently of [sections 1 through 181], to compel the production of corporate records for examination.

(6) For purposes of this section, "shareholder" includes a beneficial owner whose shares are held in a voting trust or by a nominee on his behalf.

Section 175. Scope of inspection right. (1) A shareholder's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the shareholder the agent or attorney represents.

(2) The right to copy records under [section 174] includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies made by photographic, xerographic, or other means.

(3) The corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of documents provided to the shareholders. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production or reproduction of the records.

(4) The corporation may comply with a shareholder's demand to inspect the record of shareholders under [section 174(2)(c)] by providing the shareholder with a list of its shareholders that was compiled no earlier than the date of the shareholder's demand.

Section 176. Court-ordered inspection. (1) If a corporation does not allow a shareholder who complies with [section 174(1)] to inspect and copy any records required by that subsection to be available for inspection, the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office or, if there is no principal office in this state, where its registered office is located may summarily order inspection and copying of the records demanded at the corporation's expense upon application of the shareholder.

(2) If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a shareholder to inspect and copy any other record, the shareholder who complies with [section 174(2) and (3)] may apply to the district court in the county where the corporation's principal office or, if there is no principal office in this state, where its registered office is located for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(3) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it shall also order the corporation to pay the shareholder's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation proves that it refused inspection in good faith because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the shareholder to inspect the records demanded.

(4) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it may impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding shareholder.

Section 177. Financial statement for shareholders. Upon the written request of any shareholder of a corporation, the corporation shall mail to the shareholder its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations.

Section 178. Other reports to shareholders. (1) If a corporation indemnifies or advances expenses to a director under [section 95, 96, 97, or 98] in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, the corporation shall report the indemnification or advance in writing to the shareholders with or before the notice of the next shareholders' meeting.

(2) If a corporation issues or authorizes the issuance of shares for promissory notes or for promises to render services in the future, the corporation shall report in writing to the shareholders the number of shares authorized or issued and the consideration received by the corporation with or before the notice of the next shareholders' meeting.

Section 179. Annual report for secretary of state. (1) Each domestic corporation and each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, an annual report that sets forth:

(a) the name of the corporation and the state or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(b) the mailing address and, if different, street address of its registered office and the name of its registered agent at that office in this state;

(c) the address of its principal office;

(d) the names and business addresses of its directors and principal officers;

(e) a brief description of the nature of its business;

(f) the total number of authorized shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class; and

(g) the total number of issued and outstanding shares, itemized by class and series, if any, within each class.

(2) Each foreign corporation shall also include a statement, expressed in dollars, of the value of all the property owned by the corporation, wherever located, and the value of the property of the corporation located within Montana and a statement, expressed in dollars, of the gross amount of business transacted by the corporation for the year ending December 31 preceding the date provided in this section for the filing of the report and the gross amount of business transacted by the corporation at or from places of business in Montana. If on December 31 preceding the time provided in this section for the filing of the report the corporation had not been authorized to transact business in Montana for 1 year, the statement with respect to business transacted must be furnished for the period between the date of its authorization to transact business in Montana and December 31. If all the property of the corporation is located in Montana and all of its business is transacted at or from places of business in Montana, the information required by this subsection need not be reported.

(3) Information in the annual report must be current as of the date the annual report is executed on behalf of the corporation.

(4) The first annual report must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15 of the year following the calendar year in which a domestic corporation was incorporated or a foreign corporation was authorized to transact business. Subsequent annual reports must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15.

(5) If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section, the secretary of state shall promptly notify the reporting domestic or foreign corporation in writing and return the report to it for correction. If the report is corrected to contain the information required by this section and delivered to the secretary of state within 30 days after the effective date of notice, it is considered to be timely filed.

Section 180. Number of shareholders. (1) For purposes of Title 35, chapter 9, the following, identified as a shareholder in a corporation's current record of shareholders, constitutes one shareholder:

(a) three or fewer co-owners;

(b) a corporation, partnership, trust, estate, or other entity; or

(c) the trustees, guardians, custodians, or other fiduciaries of a single trust, estate, or account.

(2) For purposes of Title 35, chapter 9, shareholdings registered in substantially similar names constitute one shareholder if it is reasonable to believe that the names represent the same person.

Section 181. Contest of registration of name. (1) A person doing business in this state may contest the subsequent registration of a name under this section with the office of the secretary of state by filing an acknowledged notice of contest with the secretary of state and sending a copy of the notice of contest to the person who subsequently registered the contested name. The notice to the secretary of state must be accompanied by a $100 deposit, which the secretary of state shall award to the prevailing party in the contest.

(2) Upon receipt of a notice of contest, the secretary of state shall ask each party to the contest to submit within 30 days an affidavit setting forth the facts, opinions, and arguments for or against the retention of the contested name in the records of the secretary of state. The secretary of state shall review the affidavits and shall make a decision or order a hearing to be held within 30 days. If a hearing is ordered, the parties shall meet with the secretary of state before the hearing and attempt to settle the contest. If a settlement is not reached, the secretary of state shall hold a hearing. At the hearing the secretary of state may consider evidence presented by the parties relating to the factual or legal issues raised by the contest. A record of the hearing is not required. The hearing is not a contested case hearing. Where consistent with this section, the informal procedures of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act apply.

(3) The secretary of state may order that the contested name be changed on the records of the secretary of state if it is likely that the use of the names will cause confusion, mistake, or deception among the public when applied to the goods or services provided by the businesses. In determining whether confusion, mistake, or deception is likely, the secretary of state shall consider:

(a) the strength or unique nature of the names;

(b) the similarity of sound, appearance, or meaning of the names;

(c) the intent of the parties;

(d) the type of businesses engaged in or to be engaged in by the parties;

(e) the geographic market areas served by each party and the manner of distribution and marketing used in those areas;

(f) the nature and quality of goods or services provided by the parties;

(g) the level of sophistication of potential purchasers of goods or services offered by the parties;

(h) whether the party contesting the subsequent registration of a name failed to make a timely objection or acquiesced to the use of the name so that it would be inequitable to prohibit its registration; and

(i) whether the names in question are in fair use, have been abandoned, or are parodies of other names.

(4) The secretary of state shall make a decision for one of the parties within 10 days of the hearing and may order that the contested name be changed in the records of the secretary of state and the relevant documents be amended by the secretary of state in a manner that results in a new name that is not the same as or deceptively similar to another name registered with the office of the secretary of state.

(5) A party may appeal the decision of the secretary of state to the district court within 20 days. The district court shall consider the factual and legal issues without reference to the decision of the secretary of state.

Section 182. Section 35-1-604, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-1-604. Stock assessments — delinquency sale. ~~The stock of any corporation for profit organized under the laws of this state shall not be assessable for any purpose except as expressly provided by statute and except that water~~ Water companies, water users associations, irrigation companies, canal companies, ditch companies, and reservoir companies whose articles of incorporation provide for the assessment of shares may levy assessments at the times and in the amounts as may be prescribed by ~~its~~ their articles of incorporation or if not so prescribed, then as follows:

(1) No one assessment must exceed 10% of the amount of the capital stock named in the articles of incorporation, except that if the whole capital stock of a corporation has not been paid up and the corporation is unable to meet its liabilities or to satisfy the claims of its creditors, the assessment may be for the full amount unpaid upon the capital stock or, if a less amount is sufficient, then it may be for such a percentage as will raise that amount.

(2) No assessment ~~must~~ may be levied while any portion of a previous one remains unpaid, unless:

(a) the power of the corporation has been exercised in accordance with the provisions of this section for the purpose of collecting such previous assessment;

(b) the collection of the previous assessment has been enjoined; or

(c) the assessment falls within the provisions of 35-1-109.

(3) Every order levying an assessment must specify the amount thereof, when, to whom, and where payable. It must fix a day subsequent to the full term of publication of the assessment notice on which the unpaid assessment shall be delinquent, not less than 30 or more than 60 days from the time of making the order levying the assessment, and a day for the sale of delinquent stock, not less than 15 or more than 60 days from the day the stock is declared delinquent.

(4) Upon the making of the order, the secretary shall cause to be published a notice thereof in the following form:

(Name of corporation in full. Location of the principal place of business.) Notice is hereby given that at a meeting of the directors held on the (date), an assessment of (amount) per share was levied upon the capital stock of the corporation, payable (when, to whom, and where). Any stock upon which the assessment shall remain unpaid on the (day fixed) will be delinquent and advertised for sale at public auction and, unless payment is made before, will be sold on the (day appointed) to pay the delinquent assessment, together with costs of advertising and expenses of sale.

(5) The notice must be personally served upon each stockholder or, in lieu of personal service, must be sent within 10 days after the assessment through the mail addressed to each stockholder at his place of residence, if known, and, if not known, at the place where the principal office of the corporation is situated and be published once a week for 4 successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation and devoted to the publication of general news at the place designated in the articles of incorporation as the principal place of business and also in some newspaper published in the county in which the works of the corporation are situated, if a paper ~~be~~ is published therein. If the works of the corporation are not within a state or territory of the United States, publication in a paper of the place where they are situated is not necessary. If there ~~be~~ is no newspaper published at the place designated as the principal place of business of the corporation, then the publication must be made in some other newspaper of the county if there ~~be~~ is one and, if there ~~be~~ is none, then in a newspaper published in an adjoining county.

(6) If any portion of the assessment mentioned in the notice remains unpaid on the days specified therein for declaring the stock delinquent, the secretary, unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors, shall cause to be published in the same papers in which the notice ~~hereinbefore~~ provided for ~~shall have been~~ in subsection (5) was published, a notice substantially in the following form:

(Name in full. Location of principal place of business.) Notice. There is delinquent upon the following subscribed stock, on account of assessment levied on the (date), (and assessments levied previous thereto, if any), the several amounts set opposite the names of respective shareholders as follows: (Names, number of certificate, number of shares, amounts.) And in accordance with law (and an order of the board of directors, made on the (date), if such order shall have been made), so many shares of each parcel of stock as may be necessary will be sold at the (particular place) on the (date) at (the hour) of such day to pay delinquent assessments thereon, together with costs of advertising and expenses of sale.

(Name of secretary, with location of office.)

(7) The notice must specify every certificate of stock, the number of shares it represents, and the amount due thereon, except where certificates may not have been issued to parties entitled thereto, in which case the number of shares and amount due thereon, together with the fact that the certificates for such shares have not been issued, must be stated.

(8) The notice when published in a daily paper must be published for 10 days, excluding Sundays and holidays, previous to the day of sale. When published in a weekly paper, it must be published in each for 2 weeks previous to the day of sale. The first publication of all delinquent sales must be at least 15 days prior to the day of sale.

(9) By the publication of the notice, the corporation acquires jurisdiction to sell and convey a perfect title to all of the stock described in the notice of sale upon which any portion of the assessment or costs of advertising remains unpaid at the hour appointed for the sale but must sell no more of such stock than is necessary to pay the assessment due and costs of sale.

(10) On the day, at the place, and at the time appointed in the notice of sale, the secretary must unless otherwise ordered by the board of directors sell or cause to be sold at public auction to the highest bidder for cash so many shares of each parcel of the described stock as may be necessary to pay the assessment and charges thereon, according to the terms of sale. If payment is made before the time fixed for sale, the party paying is only required to pay the actual cost of advertising, in addition to the assessment.

(11) The person offering at such sale to pay the assessment and costs for the smallest number of shares or fraction of a share is the highest bidder, and the stock purchased must be transferred to him on the stock books of the corporation on payment of the assessment and costs.

(12) If at the sale of stock no bidder offers the amount of the assessments and costs and charges due, the same may be bid in and purchased by the corporation through the president, secretary, or any director thereof at the amount of the assessments, costs, and charges due, and the amount of the assessments, costs, and charges must be credited as paid in full on the books of the corporation, and entry of the transfer of the stock to the corporation must be made on the books thereof. While the stock remains the property of the corporation it is not assessable nor must any dividends be declared thereon, but all assessments and dividends must be apportioned upon the stock held by the stockholders of the corporation.

(13) The dates fixed in any notice of assessment or notice of delinquent sale published according to the provisions hereof may be extended from time to time for not more than 30 days by order of the directors entered on the records of the corporation, but no order extending the time for the performance of any act specified in any notice is effectual unless notice of such extension or postponement is appended to and published with the notice to which the order relates.

(14) No assessment is invalidated by a failure to make publication of the notices provided for or by the nonperformance of any act required in order to enforce the payment of the same, but in case of any substantial error or omission in the course of proceedings for collection, all previous proceedings, except the levying of the assessment, are void and publication must begin anew.

(15) No action must be sustained to recover stock sold for delinquent assessments upon the ground of irregularity or defect of the notice of sale or defect or irregularity in the sale unless the party seeking to maintain such action first pays or tenders to the corporation or the party holding the stock sold the sum for which the same was sold, together with all subsequent assessments which may have been paid thereon and interest on such sums from the time they were paid, and no such action must be sustained unless the same is commenced by the filing of a complaint and the issuing of a summons thereon within 6 months after such sale was made.

(16) The publication of notice required by this section must be proved by the affidavit of the printer, foreman, or principal clerk of the newspaper in which the same was published, and the affidavit of the secretary or auctioneer is prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated. Certificates signed by the secretary and under the seal of the corporation are prima facie evidence of the contents thereof.

(17) On the day specified for declaring the stock delinquent or at any time subsequent thereto and before the sale of the delinquent stock, the board of directors may elect to waive further proceedings under this chapter for the collection of delinquent assessments or any part or portion thereof and may elect to proceed by action to recover the amount of the assessment and the costs and expenses already incurred or any part or portion thereof."

Section 183. Section 35-6-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-6-104. Involuntary dissolution — procedure. (1) On or before ~~April 1, August 1, and~~ September 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall compile a list of defaulting corporations, together with the amount of any filing fee, penalty, or costs remaining unpaid.

(2) The secretary of state shall give notice to the defaulting corporations by ~~causing such list to be posted in the state capitol for a period of at least 90 days and~~:

(a) ~~by~~ mailing a letter addressed to the corporation in care of its registered agent or any director or officer; or

(b) ~~by~~ publication of a general notice to all Montana corporations once a month for 3 consecutive months in a newspaper of general circulation in Lewis and Clark County.

(3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) shall specify the fact of the proposed dissolution and state that unless the grounds for dissolution described in 35-6-102 have been rectified within 90 days following the ~~posting and~~ mailing or publication of notice:

(a) the secretary of state will dissolve ~~such~~ defaulting corporations;

(b) ~~such~~ defaulting corporations will forfeit the amount of any tax, penalty, or costs to the state of Montana; and

(c) ~~such~~ defaulting corporations will forfeit their rights to carry on business within the state.

(4) After 90 days following ~~posting and~~ mailing or publication of each notice, the secretary of state may, by order, dissolve all corporations which have not satisfied the requirements of applicable law and compile a full and complete list containing the names of all corporations that have been so dissolved. The secretary of state shall immediately give notice to the dissolved corporation as specified in subsection (2) ~~of this section~~.

(5) In the case of involuntary dissolution, all the property and assets of the dissolved corporation ~~shall~~ must be held in trust by the directors of ~~such~~ the corporation and ~~35-1-921~~ [sections 154 through 159] or 35-2-711, whichever is appropriate, is applicable to liquidate ~~such~~ the property and assets if necessary."

Section 184. Section 35-9-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-305. Holding more than one office — execution of documents in more than one capacity. ~~(1) An individual may hold more than one or all the offices of a statutory close corporation if the corporation's articles of incorporation contain a statement to that effect.~~

~~(2)~~ An individual who holds more than one office in a statutory close corporation may execute, ~~or~~ acknowledge, or verify in more than one capacity any document required to be executed, ~~or~~ acknowledged, or verified by the holders of two or more offices."

Section 185. Section 15-31-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-31-103. Research and development firms exempt from taxation — application. (1) A research and development firm organized to engage in business in the state of Montana for the first time is not subject to any of the taxes imposed by this chapter on net income earned from research and development activities during its first 5 taxable years of activity in Montana. For purposes of 15-31-401 and this section, "taxable year" means a research and development firm's taxable year for federal income tax purposes.

(2) (a) To be considered a research and development firm, the chief executive officer of the firm or his agent shall file with the department of revenue an application for treatment as a research and development firm.

(b) The application must be made on a form to be provided by the department. The form must include, at a minimum:

(i) the name and address of each officer of the research and development firm;

(ii) the name of the research and development firm as required for the purpose of incorporation in ~~35-1-202~~ [section 17];

(iii) the address of its initial registered office required for the purpose of incorporation as required in ~~35-1-202~~ [section 17];

(iv) the date the articles of incorporation were filed with the secretary of state as required in ~~35-1-203~~ [section 16]; and

(v) other information the department requires to effectively administer the provisions of this section.

(c) The application must be filed with the department before the end of the first calendar quarter during which the research and development firm engages in business in Montana.

(3) On receipt of the information required in subsection (2)(b), provided that it was filed in the time allowed under subsection (2)(c), the department shall designate the applicant as a research and development firm for the purposes of this section.

(4) Failure by an applicant to provide information required by the department under subsection (2)(b) or, except as provided in subsection (5), failure to file within the time allowed under subsection (2)(c) automatically disqualifies the applicant from being designated and treated as a research and development firm for the purposes of this section.

(5) The director of the department may grant an extension of time for an applicant to file an application for treatment as a research and development firm, provided the extension is given in writing and the extension does not extend beyond 30 days from the date the application was required to be filed under subsection (2)(c).

(6) For the purpose of calculating or otherwise determining the period for which a deduction, exclusion, exemption, or credit may be taken under the provisions of this chapter, the department shall disregard a research and development firm's first 5 taxable years of activity in Montana and administer the deduction, exclusion, exemption, or credit as if the corporation did not exist during those taxable years. This treatment of a research and development firm extends to net operating loss carryback and net operating loss carryforward provisions allowed under this chapter."

Section 186. Section 20-5-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-5-303. Individual tuition for elementary pupil. (1) No provision of this title shall be construed to deny a parent the right to send his child, at his own expense, to any elementary school of a district other than his resident district when the parent has agreed to pay the tuition acceptable to the trustees of the district where the school is located. The trustees of the district where the school is located may allow the attendance of a child under the provisions of this section at their discretion. When the attendance is approved, the trustees shall charge tuition at the same rate prescribed by 20-5-305, reduced by any amount which is waived by the trustees. However, under this section, tuition as determined in 20-5-305 shall be reduced by the amount the parent of the child paid in district and county property taxes during the immediately preceding school fiscal year for the benefit and support of the district in which the child will attend school.

(2) (a) For the purposes of this section, "parent" includes an individual shareholder of a domestic corporation as defined in ~~35-1-102~~ [section 1] whose shares are 95% held by related family members to the sixth degree of consanguinity or by marriage to the sixth degree of affinity.

(b) The tax amount to be credited to reduce any tuition charge to a parent under this subsection is determined in the following manner:

(i) determine the percentage of the total shares of the corporation held by the shareholder parent or parents;

(ii) determine the portion of property taxes paid in the preceding school fiscal year by the corporation for the benefit and support of the district in which the child will attend school.

(c) The percentage of total shares as determined in subsection (2)(b)(i) is the percentage of taxes paid as determined in subsection (2)(b)(ii) that is to be credited to reduce the tuition charge."

Section 187. Section 20-5-313, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-5-313. Individual tuition for high school pupil. (1) Any child eligible to attend high school may attend school in the high school district in which he resides without payment of tuition.

(2) No provision of this title shall be construed to deny a parent the right to send his child, at his own expense, to any high school outside of his district of residence when the parent agrees to pay the tuition acceptable to the trustees of the high school district operating such high school. When the attendance is approved, the parent shall pay tuition at the rate fixed by the trustees. However, under this section, tuition as determined in 20-5-312 shall be reduced by the amount the parent of the child paid in district and county property taxes during the immediately preceding school fiscal year for the benefit and support of the district in which the child will attend school.

(3) (a) For the purposes of this section, "parent" includes an individual shareholder of a domestic corporation as defined in ~~35-1-102~~ [section 1] whose shares are 95% held by related family members to the sixth degree of consanguinity or by marriage to the sixth degree of affinity.

(b) The tax amount to be credited to reduce any tuition charge to a parent under this subsection is determined in the following manner:

(i) determine the percentage of the total shares of the corporation held by the shareholder parent or parents;

(ii) determine the portion of property taxes paid in the preceding school fiscal year by the corporation for the benefit and support of the district in which the child will attend school.

(c) The percentage of total shares as determined in subsection (3)(b)(i) is the percentage of taxes paid as determined in subsection (3)(b)(ii) that is to be credited to reduce the tuition charge."

Section 188. Section 33-3-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-3-103. Applicability of general corporation statutes. (1) The applicable laws of this state as to domestic corporations formed for profit shall apply as to domestic stock insurers and domestic mutual insurers except where in conflict with the express provisions of this code and the reasonable implications of such provisions.

(2) Except as provided in part 6 of this chapter, ~~35-1-901 through 35-1-912~~ [sections 147 through 151] apply to the voluntary dissolution of a domestic insurer."

Section 189. Section 33-3-601, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-3-601. Voluntary dissolution of domestic insurers — plan of dissolution. At least 60 days before an insurer submits a proposed voluntary dissolution to shareholders or policyholders under ~~35-1-902 or 35-1-903~~ [section 148] or voluntarily dissolves under ~~35-1-901~~ [section 147], the insurer must file the plan for dissolution with the commissioner. The commissioner may require the submission of additional information to establish the financial condition of the insurer or other facts relevant to the proposed dissolution. If the shareholders or policyholders adopt the resolution to dissolve, the commissioner shall, within 30 days after the adoption of the resolution, begin to examine the insurer. The commissioner shall approve the dissolution unless, after a hearing, the commissioner finds the insurer is insolvent or may become insolvent in the process of dissolution. If the commissioner approves the voluntary dissolution, the insurer may dissolve under ~~35-1-903 through 35-1-912~~ [sections 147 through 151], except that ~~35-1-906(3)~~ [section 154(4)] does not apply. The papers required by ~~35-1-901 through 35-1-912~~ [sections 147 through 151] to be filed with the secretary of state must instead be filed with the commissioner. The duties required by ~~35-1-912~~ [section 4] to be performed by the secretary of state must instead be performed by the commissioner. If the commissioner does not approve the voluntary dissolution, the commissioner shall petition the court for liquidation or rehabilitation under chapter 2, part 13, of this title."

Section 190. Section 33-3-602, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-3-602. Conversion to involuntary liquidation. An insurer may at any time during liquidation under ~~35-1-901, 35-1-902, or 35-1-903~~ [sections 147 and 148] apply to the commissioner to have the liquidation continued under his supervision; thereupon, the commissioner shall apply to the court for liquidation under 33-2-1341."

Section 191. Section 33-3-603, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-3-603. Revocation of voluntary dissolution. If an insurer revokes the voluntary dissolution proceedings under ~~35-1-907 or 35-1-908~~ [section 150], the insurer shall file a copy of the revocation of voluntary dissolution proceedings with the commissioner."

Section 192. Section 33-31-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-201. Establishment of health maintenance organizations. (1) Notwithstanding any law of this state to the contrary, a person may apply to the commissioner for and obtain a certificate of authority to establish and operate a health maintenance organization in compliance with this chapter. A person may not establish or operate a health maintenance organization in this state except as authorized by a subsisting certificate of authority issued to it by the commissioner. A foreign person may qualify for a certificate of authority if it first obtains from the secretary of state a certificate of authority to transact business in this state as a foreign corporation under ~~35-1-1001~~ [section 162].

(2) Each health maintenance organization operating in this state as of October 1, 1987, shall submit an application for a certificate of authority under subsection (3) within 30 days after the effective date of rules adopted by the commissioner and the department of health as provided in 33-31-103. Each such applicant may continue to operate in this state until the commissioner acts upon the application. If an application is denied under 33-31-202, the applicant must be treated as a health maintenance organization whose certificate of authority has been revoked.

(3) Each application of a health maintenance organization, whether separately licensed or not, for a certificate of authority must:

(a) be verified by an officer or authorized representative of the applicant;

(b) be in a form prescribed by the commissioner;

(c) contain:

(i) the applicant's name;

(ii) the location of the applicant's home office or principal office in the United States (if a foreign person);

(iii) the date of organization or incorporation;

(iv) the form of organization (including whether the providers affiliated with the health maintenance organization will be salaried employees or group or individual contractors);

(v) the state or country of domicile; and

(vi) any additional information the commissioner may reasonably require; and

(d) set forth the following information or be accompanied by the following documents, as applicable:

(i) a copy of the applicant's organizational documents, such as its corporate charters or articles of incorporation, articles of association, partnership agreement, trust agreement, or other applicable documents, and all amendments thereto, certified by the public officer with whom the originals were filed in the state or country of domicile;

(ii) a copy of the bylaws, rules, and regulations, or similar document, if any, regulating the conduct of the applicant's internal affairs, certified by its secretary or other officer having custody thereof;

(iii) a list of the names, addresses, and official positions of the persons responsible for the conduct of the applicant's affairs, including all members of the board of directors, board of trustees, executive committee, or other governing board or committee; the principal officers in the case of a corporation; and the partners or members in the case of a partnership or association;

(iv) a copy of any contract made or to be made between:

(A) any provider and the applicant; or

(B) any person listed in subsection (3)(d)(iii) and the applicant. The applicant may file a list of providers executing a standard contract and a copy of the contract instead of copies of each executed contract.

(v) the extent to which any of the following will be included in provider contracts and the form of any provisions that:

(A) limit a provider's ability to seek reimbursement for basic health care services or health care services from an enrollee;

(B) permit or require a provider to assume a financial risk in the health maintenance organization, including any provisions for assessing the provider, adjusting capitation or fee-for-service rates, or sharing in the earnings or losses; and

(C) govern amending or terminating an agreement with a provider;

(vi) a financial statement showing the applicant's assets, liabilities, and sources of financial support. If the applicant's financial affairs are audited by independent certified public accountants, a copy of the applicant's most recent certified financial statement satisfies this requirement unless the commissioner directs that additional or more recent financial information is required for the proper administration of this chapter.

(vii) a description of the proposed method of marketing, a financial plan that includes a projection of operating results anticipated until the organization has had net income for at least 1 year, and a statement as to the sources of working capital as well as any other source of funding;

(viii) a power of attorney executed by the applicant, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, appointing the commissioner, his successors in office, and his authorized deputies as the applicant's attorney to receive service of legal process issued against it in this state;

(ix) a statement reasonably describing the geographic service area or areas to be served, by county, including:

(A) a chart showing the number of primary and specialty care providers, with locations and service areas by county;

(B) the method of handling emergency care, with the location of each emergency care facility; and

(C) the method of handling out-of-area services;

(x) a description of the way in which the health maintenance organization provides services to enrollees in each geographic service area, including the extent to which a provider under contract with the health maintenance organization provides primary care to those enrollees;

(xi) a description of the complaint procedures to be used as required under 33-31-303;

(xii) a description of the procedures and programs to be implemented to meet the quality of health care requirements in 33-31-202;

(xiii) a description of the mechanism by which enrollees will be afforded an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation under 33-31-222;

(xiv) a summary of the way in which administrative services will be provided, including the size and qualifications of the administrative staff and the projected cost of administration in relation to premium income. If the health maintenance organization delegates management authority for a major corporate function to a person outside the organization, the health maintenance organization shall include a copy of the contract in its application for a certificate of authority. Contracts for delegated management authority must be filed with the commissioner in accordance with the filing provisions of 33-31-301(2); however, nothing in this subsection deprives the health maintenance organization of its right to confidentiality of any proprietary information, and the commissioner may not disclose that proprietary information to any other person. All contracts must include:

(A) the services to be provided;

(B) the standards of performance for the manager;

(C) the method of payment, including any provisions for the administrator to participate in the profits or losses of the plan;

(D) the duration of the contract; and

(E) any provisions for modifying, terminating, or renewing the contract;

(xv) a summary of all financial guaranties by providers, sponsors, affiliates, or parents within a holding company system or any other guaranties that are intended to ensure the financial success of the plan, including hold harmless agreements by providers, insolvency insurance, reinsurance, or other guaranties;

(xvi) a summary of benefits to be offered enrollees, including any limitations and exclusions and the renewability of all contracts to be written;

(xvii) evidence that it can meet the requirement of 33-31-216(10); and

(xviii) any other information that the commissioner may reasonably require to make the determinations required in 33-31-202.

(4) Each health maintenance organization shall file each substantial change, alteration, or amendment to the information submitted under subsection (3) with the commissioner at least 30 days prior to its effective date, including changes in articles of incorporation and bylaws, organization type, geographic service area, provider contracts, provider availability, plan administration, financial projections and guaranties, and any other change that might affect the financial solvency of the plan. The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, disapprove any proposed change, alteration, or amendment to the business plan. The commissioner may make reasonable rules exempting from the filing requirements of this subsection those items he considers unnecessary.

(5) An applicant or a health maintenance organization holding a certificate of authority shall file with the commissioner all contracts of reinsurance and any modifications thereto. An agreement between a health maintenance organization and an insurer is subject to Title 33, chapter 2, part 12. A reinsurance agreement must remain in full force and effect for at least 90 days following written notice of cancellation by either party by certified mail to the commissioner.

(6) Each health maintenance organization shall maintain, at its administrative office, and make available to the commissioner upon request executed copies of all provider contracts.

(7) The commissioner may make reasonable rules exempting an insurer or health service corporation operating a health maintenance organization as a plan from the filing requirements of this section if information requested in the application has been submitted to the commissioner under other laws and rules administered by the commissioner."

Section 193. Section 35-2-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-2-202. Articles of incorporation — control over bylaws. (1) The articles of incorporation shall set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the period of duration, which may be perpetual;

(c) the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized;

(d) any provisions, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision for distribution of assets on dissolution or final liquidation;

(e) the address, including street and number, if any, of its initial registered office and the name of its initial registered agent at such address;

(f) the number of directors constituting the initial board of directors and the names and addresses of the persons who are to serve as the initial directors;

(g) the name and address of each incorporator.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the articles of incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in ~~35-1-202(2)(a)(v)~~ [section 17(2)(d)].

(3) It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers enumerated in this chapter.

(4) Unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment to the articles of incorporation, a change in the number of directors made by amendment to the bylaws shall be controlling. In all other cases, whenever a provision of the articles of incorporation is inconsistent with a bylaw, the provision of the articles of incorporation shall be controlling."

Section 194. Section 35-5-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-5-201. Creating instrument — filing — consent of foreign business trust to laws and service of process. (1) Any business trust desiring to transact business in this state shall file with the secretary of state:

(a) an executed copy of its articles, declarations of trust, or trust agreement by which the trust was created and all amendments thereto or a true copy thereof certified to be such by a trustee of the trust before an official authorized to administer oaths or by a public official of another state, territory, or country in whose office an executed copy thereof is on file. The true copy shall be verified within 60 days before it is filed with the secretary of state.

(b) a verified list of the names, residences, and post-office addresses of its trustees;

(c) an affidavit setting forth its assumed business name, if any.

(2) A foreign business trust shall file a verified application in the office of the secretary of state as provided in the case of foreign corporations under ~~35-1-1008~~ [section 162] and shall file a copy of its articles, declaration of trust, or trust agreement by which it was created, certified by the secretary of state, in the office of the county clerk of the county where its principal office or place of business in this state will be located. The foreign business trust shall also file, at the same time and in the same office, a certificate certifying that it has consented to all the license laws and other laws of the state of Montana relative to foreign corporations and has consented to be sued in the courts of this state, upon all causes of action arising against it in this state and that service of process may be made upon some person, a citizen of this state whose principal place of business is designated in such certificate. Service of process, when made upon such agent, is valid service on the business trust."

Section 195. Section 35-6-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-6-104. Involuntary dissolution — procedure. (1) On or before April 1, August 1, and September 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall compile a list of defaulting corporations, together with the amount of any filing fee, penalty, or costs remaining unpaid.

(2) The secretary of state shall give notice to the defaulting corporations by causing such list to be posted in the state capitol for a period of at least 90 days and:

(a) by mailing a letter addressed to the corporation in care of its registered agent or any director or officer; or

(b) by publication of a general notice to all Montana corporations once a month for 3 consecutive months in a newspaper of general circulation in Lewis and Clark County.

(3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) shall specify the fact of the proposed dissolution and state that unless the grounds for dissolution described in 35-6-102 have been rectified within 90 days following the posting and mailing or publication of notice:

(a) the secretary of state will dissolve such defaulting corporations;

(b) such corporations will forfeit the amount of any tax, penalty, or costs to the state of Montana; and

(c) such corporations will forfeit their rights to carry on business within the state.

(4) After 90 days following posting and mailing or publication of each notice, the secretary of state may, by order, dissolve all corporations which have not satisfied the requirements of applicable law and compile a full and complete list containing the names of all corporations that have been so dissolved. The secretary of state shall immediately give notice to the dissolved corporation as specified in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In the case of involuntary dissolution, all the property and assets of the dissolved corporation shall be held in trust by the directors of such corporation and ~~35-1-921~~ [sections 154 through 159] or 35-2-711, whichever is appropriate, is applicable to liquidate such property and assets if necessary."

Section 196. Section 35-6-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-6-201. Reinstatement of dissolved corporation. (1) The secretary of state may:

(a) reinstate any corporation which has been dissolved under the provisions of this chapter; and

(b) restore to such corporation its right to carry on business in this state and to exercise all its corporate privileges and immunities.

(2) A corporation applying for reinstatement shall submit to the secretary of state one original and one copy of the application, executed by a person who was an officer or director at the time of dissolution, setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) a statement that the assets of the corporation have not been liquidated pursuant to ~~35-1-921~~ [sections 154 through 159] or 35-2-711;

(c) a statement that not less than a majority of its directors have authorized the application for reinstatement; and

(d) if its corporate name has been legally acquired by another corporation prior to its application for reinstatement, the corporate name under which the corporation desires to be reinstated.

(3) The corporation shall submit with its application for reinstatement:

(a) a certificate from the department of revenue stating that all taxes imposed pursuant to Title 15 have been paid; and

(b) a filing fee in an amount equal to one-half of the filing and license fees which the corporation would be required to pay if the corporation were filing its articles of incorporation.

(4) When all requirements are met and the secretary of state reinstates the corporation to its former rights, he shall:

(a) conform and file in his office reports, statements, and other instruments submitted for reinstatement;

(b) immediately issue and deliver to the corporation so reinstated a certificate of reinstatement authorizing it to transact business; and

(c) upon demand, issue to the corporation one or more certified copies of such certificate of reinstatement.

(5) The secretary of state may not order a reinstatement if 5 years have elapsed since the dissolution."

Section 197. Section 35-9-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-103. Definition and election of statutory close corporation status. (1) A statutory close corporation is a corporation whose articles of incorporation contain a statement that the corporation is a statutory close corporation.

(2) A corporation having 25 or fewer shareholders may become a statutory close corporation by amending its articles of incorporation to include the statement required by subsection (1). The amendment must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments. If the amendment is adopted, a shareholder who voted against the amendment is entitled to assert dissenters' rights under ~~35-1-810 and 35-1-812~~ [sections 133 through 146]."

Section 198. Section 35-9-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-201. Notice of statutory close corporation status on issued shares. (1) The following statement must appear conspicuously on each share certificate issued by a statutory close corporation:

The rights of shareholders in a statutory close corporation may differ materially from the rights of shareholders in other corporations. Copies of the articles of incorporation and bylaws, shareholders' agreements, and other documents, any of which may restrict transfers and affect voting and other rights, may be obtained by a shareholder on written request to the corporation.

(2) Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated shares, the corporation shall send to the shareholders a written notice containing the information required by subsection (1).

(3) The notice required by this section satisfies all requirements of this chapter and of ~~35-1-617~~ [section 44] that notice of share transfer restrictions be given.

(4) A person claiming an interest in shares of a statutory close corporation that has complied with the notice requirement of this section is bound by the documents referred to in the notice. A person claiming an interest in shares of a statutory close corporation that has not complied with the notice requirement of this section is bound by any documents of which he or a person through whom he claims has knowledge or notice.

(5) A corporation shall provide to any shareholder upon his written request and without charge copies of provisions that restrict transfer or affect voting or other rights of shareholders appearing in articles of incorporation, bylaws, or shareholders' or voting trust agreements filed with the corporation."

Section 199. Section 35-9-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-205. Compulsory purchase of shares after death of shareholder. (1) This section and 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 apply to a statutory close corporation only if so provided in its articles of incorporation. If these sections apply, the executor or administrator of the estate of a deceased shareholder may require the corporation to purchase or cause to be purchased all but not less than all of the decedent's shares or to be dissolved.

(2) The provisions of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 may be modified only if the modification is set forth or referred to in the articles of incorporation.

(3) An amendment to the articles of incorporation to provide for application of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 or to modify or delete the provisions of these sections must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the statutory close corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments. If the corporation has no shareholders when the amendment is proposed, it must be approved by at least two-thirds of the subscribers for shares, if any, or if none, by all of the incorporators.

(4) A shareholder who votes against an amendment to modify or delete the provisions of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 is entitled to dissenters' rights under ~~35-1-810 and 35-1-812~~ [sections 133 through 146] if the amendment upon adoption terminates or substantially alters his existing rights under these sections to have his shares purchased.

(5) A shareholder may waive his and his estate's rights under 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 by a signed writing.

(6) Sections 35-9-206 through 35-9-208 do not prohibit any other agreement providing for the purchase of shares upon a shareholder's death, nor do they prevent a shareholder from enforcing any remedy he has independently of 35-9-206 through 35-9-208."

Section 200. Section 35-9-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-302. Elimination of board of directors. (1) A statutory close corporation may operate without a board of directors if its articles of incorporation contain a statement to that effect.

(2) An amendment to articles of incorporation eliminating a board of directors must be approved by:

(a) all the shareholders of the corporation, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments;

(b) if no shares have been issued, by all the subscribers for shares, if any; or

(c) if there are no subscribers, by all the incorporators.

(3) While a corporation is operating without a board of directors as authorized by subsection (1):

(a) all corporate powers must be exercised by or under the authority of and the business and affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of the shareholders;

(b) unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise:

(i) action requiring director approval or both director and shareholder approval is authorized if approved by the shareholders; and

(ii) action requiring a majority or greater percentage vote of the board of directors is authorized if approved by the majority or greater percentage of the votes of shareholders entitled to vote on the action;

(c) a shareholder is not liable for his act or omission, even though a director would be, unless the shareholder was entitled to vote on the action;

(d) a requirement by a state or the United States that a document delivered for filing contain a statement that specified action has been taken by the board of directors is satisfied by a statement that the corporation is a statutory close corporation without a board of directors and that the action was approved by the shareholders; and

(e) the shareholders may by resolution appoint one or more shareholders to sign documents as designated directors.

(4) An amendment to articles of incorporation deleting the statement eliminating a board of directors must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments. The amendment must also specify the number, names, and addresses of the corporation's directors or describe who will perform the duties of a board under ~~35-1-401 or 35-1-515~~ [section 75]."

Section 201. Section 35-9-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-303. Bylaws. (1) A statutory close corporation need not adopt bylaws if provisions required by law to be contained in bylaws are contained in either the articles of incorporation or a shareholder agreement authorized by 35-9-301.

(2) If a corporation does not have bylaws when its statutory close corporation status terminates under 35-9-402, the corporation shall immediately adopt bylaws under ~~35-1-214~~ [section 20]."

Section 202. Section 35-9-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-402. Termination of statutory close corporation status. (1) A statutory close corporation may terminate its statutory close corporation status by amending its articles of incorporation to delete the statement that it is a statutory close corporation. If the statutory close corporation has elected to operate without a board of directors under 35-9-302, the amendment must ~~either comply with 35-1-401 or 35-1-515 or~~ delete the statement dispensing with the board of directors from its articles of incorporation.

(2) An amendment terminating statutory close corporation status must be approved by the holders of at least two-thirds of the votes of each class or series of shares of the corporation, voting as separate voting groups, whether or not the holders are otherwise entitled to vote on amendments.

(3) If an amendment to terminate statutory close corporation status is adopted, each shareholder who voted against the amendment is entitled to assert dissenters' rights under 35-1-810 and 35-1-812."

Section 203. Section 35-9-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-404. Shareholder option to dissolve corporation. (1) The articles of incorporation of a statutory close corporation may authorize one or more shareholders, or the holders of a specified number or percentage of shares of any class or series, to dissolve the corporation at will or upon the occurrence of a specified event or contingency. The shareholder or shareholders exercising this authority shall give written notice of the intent to dissolve to all the other shareholders. Thirty-one days after the effective date of the notice, the corporation shall begin to wind up and liquidate its business and affairs and file articles of dissolution under ~~35-1-911 and 35-1-912~~ [sections 147 through 151].

(2) Unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise, an amendment to the articles of incorporation to add, change, or delete the authority to dissolve described in subsection (1) must be approved by the holders of all the outstanding shares, whether or not otherwise entitled to vote on amendments, or if no shares have been issued, by all the subscribers for shares, if any, or if there are no subscribers, by all the incorporators."

Section 204. Section 35-9-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-501. Court action to protect shareholders. (1) Subject to satisfying the conditions of subsections (3) and (4), a shareholder of a statutory close corporation may petition the district court for any of the relief described in 35-9-502 through 35-9-504 if:

(a) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, fraudulent, or unfairly prejudicial to the petitioner, whether in his capacity as shareholder, director, or officer of the corporation;

(b) the directors or those in control of the corporation are deadlocked in the management of the corporation's affairs, the shareholders are unable to break the deadlock, and the corporation is suffering or will suffer irreparable injury or the business and affairs of the corporation can no longer be conducted to the advantage of the shareholders generally because of the deadlock; or

(c) there exists one or more grounds for judicial dissolution of the corporation under ~~35-1-921~~ [section 154].

(2) A shareholder shall commence a proceeding under subsection (1) in the district court of the county where the corporation's principal office is located or, if there is no principal office in this state, its registered office. The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced is plenary and exclusive.

(3) If a shareholder has agreed in writing to pursue a nonjudicial remedy to resolve disputed matters, he may not commence a proceeding under this section with respect to the matters until he has exhausted the nonjudicial remedy.

(4) If a shareholder has dissenters' rights under this chapter or ~~35-1-810 and 35-1-812~~ [sections 133 through 146] with respect to proposed corporate actions, he must commence a proceeding under this section before he is required to give notice of his intent to demand payment under ~~35-1-810 or 35-1-812~~ [sections 133 through 146] or the proceeding is barred.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), a shareholder's right to commence a proceeding under this section and the remedies available under 35-9-502 through 35-9-504 are in addition to any other right or remedy he may have."

Section 205. Section 35-9-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-9-504. Extraordinary relief — dissolution. (1) The court may dissolve the corporation if it finds:

(a) one or more grounds for judicial dissolution under ~~35-1-921~~ [section 154]; or

(b) all other relief ordered by the court under 35-9-502 or 35-9-503 has failed to resolve the matters in dispute.

(2) In determining whether to dissolve the corporation, the court shall consider among other relevant evidence the financial condition of the corporation but may not refuse to dissolve solely because the corporation has accumulated earnings or current operating profits."

Section 206. Section 35-12-1204, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-12-1204. Distribution of assets. Upon the winding up of a limited partnership, the assets shall be distributed as follows:

(1) to creditors, including partners who are creditors (to the extent otherwise permitted by law), in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited partnership other than liabilities for distributions to partners pursuant to 35-12-1001 or ~~35-1-1004~~ 35-12-1004~~.~~;

(2) except as otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, to partners and ex-partners in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions pursuant to 35-12-1001 or 35-12-1004; and

(3) except as otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, to partners first for the return of their contributions and second, respecting their partnership interests, in the proportions in which the partners share in distributions."

Section 207. Section 35-15-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-15-201. Incorporation. (1) Whenever any number of persons, not less than three or more than seven, may desire to become incorporated as a cooperative association for the purpose of trade or of prosecuting any branch of industry or the purchase and distribution of commodities for consumption or in the borrowing or lending of money among members for industrial purposes, they shall make a statement to that effect under their hands setting forth:

(a) the name of the proposed corporation;

(b) its capital stock;

(c) its location;

(d) the duration of the association; and

(e) the particular branch or branches of industry which they intend to prosecute.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the statement of incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in ~~35-1-202(2)(a)(v)~~ [section 17].

(3) The statement shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state as the articles of incorporation of the association. The secretary of state shall thereupon issue to such persons a license as commissioners to open books for subscription to the capital stock of such corporation, at such time and place as they may determine, for which he shall receive the fee of $20."

Section 208. Section 35-16-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-16-202. Petition for incorporation — contents and filing — bond. (1) Such persons must prepare, sign, acknowledge, and file a petition with the clerk of the district court of the county in which the lands or the greater portion of the lands included in the petition are situate, such petition to state:

(a) the name of the corporation or district proposed to be formed;

(b) the purpose for which it is formed;

(c) the place where its principal business is to be transacted;

(d) the number of its directors or trustees, which shall not be less than three, and the names and residences of those who are selected for the first 3 months and until their successors are elected and qualified. Such directors or trustees shall at all times be resident freeholders in the state of Montana.

(e) the names and addresses of the petitioners applying for such incorporation or district, with a description of the lands which each owns and proposed to be submitted to said corporation or district and the character of the same and their production, also a consent of the owners to submit the lands to the provisions hereof;

(f) the assessed valuation of the land;

(g) the term for which it is to exist, not exceeding 40 years;

(h) if shares, acres, production, or other evidences of membership are to be used, the basis for issuing the same in either value, acreage, or production.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the petition for incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in ~~35-1-202(2)(a)(v)~~ [section 17].

(3) Such petition shall be accompanied by a map giving location of the lands sought to be included in such corporation or district, nothing herein to be construed as requiring such lands to be contiguous.

(4) A bond in the sum of $1,000 to be approved by the clerk, conditioned for the payment of all costs incurred in the creation of such corporation or district, shall be filed with the petition."

Section 209. Section 35-17-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-17-202. Articles of incorporation — contents — filing — articles or copies as prima facie evidence. (1) Each association formed under this chapter must prepare and file articles of incorporation setting forth:

(a) the name of the association;

(b) the purposes for which it is formed;

(c) the place where its principal business will be transacted;

(d) the term for which it is to exist, which may be perpetual;

(e) the number of its directors or trustees, which shall not be less than 5 or more than 13, and the names and residences of those who are appointed for the first 3 months and until their successors are elected and qualified;

(f) if organized without capital stock, whether the property rights and interest of each member shall be equal or unequal, and if unequal, the articles shall set forth the general rule or rules applicable to all members by which the property rights and interests, respectively, of each member may and shall be determined and fixed. The association shall have the power to admit new members who shall be entitled to share in the property of the association with the old members, in accordance with such general rule or rules.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the articles of incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in ~~35-1-202(2)(a)(v)~~ [section 17].

(3) The articles must be subscribed by the incorporators and shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of the general corporation law of this state, and when so filed the articles of incorporation or certified copies thereof shall be received in all the courts of this state and other places as prima facie evidence of the facts contained therein and of the due incorporation of such association."

Section 210. Section 33-17-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-17-211. General qualifications — application for license. (1) An individual applying for a license shall apply on a form specified by the commissioner and declare under penalty of refusal, suspension, or revocation of the license that statements made in the application are true, correct, and complete to the best of the individual's knowledge and belief. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that the individual:

(a) is 18 years of age or older;

(b) has not committed an act that is a ground for refusal, suspension, or revocation set forth in 33-17-1001;

(c) has paid the license fees stated in 33-2-708;

(d) has successfully passed the examinations for each kind of insurance for which the individual has applied;

(e) is a resident of this state or of another state that grants similar privileges to residents of this state;

(f) is competent, trustworthy, and of good reputation;

(g) has experience or training or otherwise is qualified in the kind or kinds of insurance for which he applies to be licensed and is reasonably familiar with the provisions of this code which govern his operations as an insurance producer; and

(h) if applying for a license as to life or disability insurance:

(i) is not a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state;

(ii) is not an officer, employee, or representative of a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state; or

(iii) does not hold an interest in or benefit from a business of a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state.

(2) A person acting as an insurance producer shall obtain a license. A person shall apply for a license on a form specified by the commissioner. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that:

(a) the person meets the requirements listed in subsection (1);

(b) the person has paid the licensing fees stated in 33-2-708 for each individual licensed in conjunction with the person's license. A licensed person shall promptly notify the commissioner of each change relating to an individual listed in the license.

(c) the person has designated a licensed officer responsible for compliance by the person with the insurance laws and rules of this state;

(d) each member and employee of a partnership and each officer, director, stockholder, or employee of a corporation who is acting as an insurance producer in this state has obtained a license;

(e) (i) if the person is a partnership or corporation, the transaction of insurance business is within the purposes stated in the partnership agreement or the articles of incorporation; and

(ii) if the person is a corporation, the secretary of state has issued a certificate of existence under [section 14] or a certificate of incorporation under ~~35-1-203 or~~ 35-2-203.

(3) The commissioner may license as a resident insurance producer an association of licensed Montana insurance producers, whether or not incorporated, formed and existing substantially for purposes other than insurance. The license must be used solely for the purpose of enabling the association to place, as a resident insurance producer, insurance of the properties, interests, and risks of the state of Montana and of other public agencies, bodies, and institutions and to receive the customary commission for the placement. The president and secretary of the association shall apply for the license in the name of the association, and the commissioner shall issue the license to the association in its name alone. The fee for the license is the same as that required by 33-2-708 for the license of an insurance producer. The commissioner may, after a hearing with notice to the association, revoke the license if he finds that continuation of the license is not in the public interest or that a ground listed in 33-17-1001 exists.

(4) An insurance producer using an assumed business name shall register the name with the commissioner before using it."

Section 211. Section 35-18-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-18-203. Articles of incorporation. (1) The articles of incorporation of a cooperative shall recite in the caption that they are executed pursuant to this chapter, shall be signed by each of the incorporators, and shall state:

(a) the name of the cooperative;

(b) the address of its principal office;

(c) the names and addresses of the incorporators;

(d) the names and addresses of the persons who shall constitute its first board of trustees; and

(e) any provisions not inconsistent with this chapter deemed necessary or advisable for the conduct of its business and affairs.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the articles of incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in ~~35-1-202(2)(a)(v)~~ [section 17].

(3) Such articles of incorporation shall be submitted to the secretary of state for filing as provided in this chapter.

(4) It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation of a cooperative the purpose for which it is organized or any of the corporate powers vested in a cooperative under this chapter."

Section 212. Section 35-20-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-20-103. Document of incorporation — contents — filing. (1) The chairman and secretary of such meeting shall within 5 days after the holding of the same make a written certificate, which shall state:

(a) the names of the associates who attended such meeting;

(b) the corporate name of the association determined upon by a majority of the persons who met;

(c) the number of persons fixed upon to manage the concerns of the association;

(d) the names of the trustees chosen at the meeting and their classification;

(e) the day of the year fixed upon for the annual election of trustees and the manner of their election.

(2) In addition to provisions required in subsection (1), the document of incorporation may also contain provisions not inconsistent with law regarding liability as set forth in ~~35-1-202(2)(a)(v)~~ [section 17(2)(d)].

(3) Such certificate shall be signed by the chairman and secretary and acknowledged by them before some person authorized to take acknowledgments within the state of Montana. They shall cause such certificate so acknowledged to be recorded in the office of the county clerk and recorder of the county in which said meeting was held, and a certified copy of such certificate so recorded shall be filed with the secretary of state of the state of Montana, who shall thereupon issue his certificate therefor without charge."

Section 213. Section 69-14-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"69-14-501. Organization of railroad corporation. (1) The persons named in the articles of incorporation or a majority of them shall be authorized to order books to be opened for receiving subscriptions to the capital stock of the railroad corporation, at such times and at such places as they may deem expedient, after having given at least 30 days' notice in a newspaper of general circulation in this state of the time and place of opening books.

(2) As soon as 5% of the capital stock is subscribed, they may give like notice for the stockholders to meet at such time and place within the state as they may designate for the purpose of electing five or more directors who shall continue in office until the time fixed for the annual election, which time shall be within 6 months from the date when such directors were elected, and until their successors are elected and qualified. At the time and place appointed, directors shall be elected in the manner provided in ~~35-1-506~~ [sections 77 through 80]. The candidates for director receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. The persons named in such articles or such of them as may be present shall be inspectors of such election and shall certify what persons are elected directors and specify the time and place for holding their first meeting."

Section 214. Section 80-12-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-12-203. Qualifications of applicants. (1) To be eligible for a loan approved by the authority for issuance of a bond, an applicant must:

(a) declare his intention to maintain his residence in Montana during the length of the loan;

(b) have been approved by a financial institution; and

(c) have a net worth not to exceed $250,000.

(2) Applications for loans to be approved by the authority for issuance of bonds may be submitted by individuals, partnerships, associations, or joint ventures. All persons involved in the application must meet the requirements of subsection (1). Corporations, as defined in ~~35-1-102~~ [section 1], may not apply."

Section 215. Section 35-1-515, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-1-515. Control of directors by shareholders. (1) A provision in the articles of incorporation otherwise prohibited by law because it improperly restricts the board of directors in its management of the business of the corporation or improperly transfers to one or more shareholders or to one or more persons or corporations to be selected by him or them all or any part of such management otherwise within the authority of the board under this chapter shall nevertheless be valid:

(a) if all the incorporators or holders of record of all outstanding shares, whether or not having voting power, have authorized such provision in the articles of incorporation or an amendment thereof; and

(b) if, subsequent to the adoption of such provision, shares are transferred or issued only to persons who had knowledge or notice thereof or consented in writing to such provision.

(2) A provision authorized by subsection (1) is valid only if no shares of the corporation are listed on a national securities exchange or regularly quoted in an over-the-counter market by one or more members of a national or affiliated securities association.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), an amendment to strike out a provision authorized by subsection (1) shall be authorized at a meeting of shareholders by vote of the holders of two-thirds of all outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon or by the holders of such greater proportion of shares as may be required by the articles of incorporation for that purpose.

(4) Alternatively, if a provision authorized by subsection (1) has ceased to be valid under this section, the board may authorize articles of amendment under ~~35-1-209~~ [section 114], eliminating the provision. Such articles shall set forth the event by reason of which the provision ceased to be valid.

(5) The effect of any provision authorized by subsection (1) is to relieve the directors and impose upon the shareholders authorizing the provision or consenting thereto the liability for managerial acts or omissions that is imposed on directors by this chapter to the extent that and so long as the discretion or powers of the board in its management of corporate affairs is controlled by any such provision.

(6) If the articles of incorporation of any corporation contain a provision authorized by subsection (1), the existence of the provision must be noted conspicuously on the face or back of every certificate for shares issued by such corporation."

Section 216. Repealer. Sections 35-1-102 through 35-1-108, 35-1-110, 35-1-111, 35-1-201 through 35-1-214, 35-1-301 through 35-1-307, 35-1-401 through 35-1-411, 35-1-413 through 35-1-415, 35-1-501 through 35-1-515, 35-1-601 through 35-1-607, 35-1-609 through 35-1-612, 35-1-617, 35-1-711, 35-1-801, 35-1-803 through 35-1-810, 35-1-812, 35-1-901 through 35-1-912, 35-1-921 through 35-1-927, 35-1-929, 35-1-930, 35-1-1001 through 35-1-1013, 35-1-1015 through 35-1-1020, 35-1-1025, 35-1-1101 through 35-1-1103, 35-1-1201 through 35-1-1205, and 35-1-1301 through 35-1-1306, MCA, are repealed.

Section 217. Application to existing domestic corporations. [Sections 1 through 181] apply to all domestic corporations in existence on January 1, 1992, that were incorporated under any general statute of this state providing for incorporation of corporations for profit if power to amend or repeal the statute under which the corporation was incorporated was reserved.

Section 218. Application to qualified foreign corporations. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state on January 1, 1992, is subject to [sections 1 through 181] but is not required to obtain a new certificate of authority to transact business under [sections 1 through 181].

Section 219. Saving provisions. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the repeal of a statute by [sections 1 through 181] does not affect:

(a) the operation of the statute or any action taken under it before its repeal;

(b) any ratification, right, remedy, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under the statute before its repeal;

(c) any violation of the statute, or any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred because of the violation, before its repeal;

(d) any proceeding, reorganization, or dissolution commenced under the statute before its repeal, and the proceeding, reorganization, or dissolution may be completed in accordance with the statute as if it had not been repealed.

(2) If a penalty or punishment imposed for violation of a statute repealed by [sections 1 through 181] is reduced by [sections 1 through 181], the penalty of punishment if not already imposed shall be imposed in accordance with [sections 1 through 181].

Section 220. Severability. If any provision of [sections 1 through 181] or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of [sections 1 through 181] that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of [sections 1 through 181] are severable.

Section 221. Codification instruction. (1) [Sections 1 through 181] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 35, and the provisions of Title 35 apply to [sections 1 through 181].

(2) Sections 35-1-101, 35-1-109, 35-1-412, 35-1-928, and 35-1-1014 are intended to be renumbered and codified as an integral part of [sections 1 through 181].

Section 222. Effective date. [This act] is effective January 1, 1992.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 369

[HB 573]

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE MOTOR VEHICLE CODE DEFINITION OF "CONVICTION"; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-5-213, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-5-213, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-213. Conviction defined. For the purposes of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter and 61-11-101 and 61-11-102 the term "conviction" shall mean a final conviction, except that the department shall record a deferred imposition of sentence as a conviction if the underlying offense is a felony. Also, a forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, which forfeiture has not been vacated, shall be equivalent to a conviction."

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 370

[HB 586]

AN ACT ALLOCATING HYDROELECTRIC POWER GENERATION REVENUES DERIVED FROM STATE WATER CONSERVATION PROJECTS TO REPAIR AND REHABILITATE STATE WATER CONSERVATION PROJECTS; AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND CONSERVATION TO TRANSFER FUNDS FROM THE STATE WATER PROJECT HYDROELECTRIC POWER GENERATION SPECIAL REVENUE ACCOUNT AND THE BROADWATER REPLACEMENT AND RENEWAL ACCOUNT FOR PAYMENT OF DEBT SERVICE ON WATER PROJECT BONDS; AMENDING SECTIONS 17-7-502 AND 85-1-510, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. State water project hydroelectric power generation special revenue account created — revenues allocated. (1) There is a state water project hydroelectric power generation special revenue account within the state special revenue fund established in 17-2-102.

(2) Except as provided in the applicable bond resolution, all revenues derived from hydroelectric power generation at state water conservation projects under Title 85, chapter 1, must be paid into this account as received.

(3) The revenues received under this section must be used to repair and rehabilitate state-owned water projects and works and to pay the cost of financing those activities.

(4) The funds deposited in the state water project hydroelectric power generation special revenue account under this section but not appropriated during the biennium and money appropriated from the account but not expended during the biennium for which it is appropriated must remain in the account for future appropriation under this section and may not be appropriated from the account except as authorized under this section.

(5) There is a statutory appropriation pursuant to 17-7-502 to allow the department to transfer available funds from the state water project hydroelectric power generation special revenue account when needed to pay debt service on state water project bonds, including but not limited to broadwater power project bonds.

(6) There is a statutory appropriation pursuant to 17-7-502 for the department to transfer available funds from the broadwater replacement and renewal account when needed to pay debt service on the broadwater power project bonds.

Section 2. Section 17-7-502, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-7-502. Statutory appropriations — definition — requisites for validity. (1) A statutory appropriation is an appropriation made by permanent law that authorizes spending by a state agency without the need for a biennial legislative appropriation or budget amendment.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4), to be effective, a statutory appropriation must comply with both of the following provisions:

(a) The law containing the statutory authority must be listed in subsection (3).

(b) The law or portion of the law making a statutory appropriation must specifically state that a statutory appropriation is made as provided in this section.

(3) The following laws are the only laws containing statutory appropriations: 2-9-202; 2-17-105; 2-18-812; 10-3-203; 10-3-312; 10-3-314; 10-4-301; 13-37-304; 15-1-111; 15-25-123; 15-31-702; 15-36-112; 15-37-117; 15-65-121; 15-70-101; 16-1-404; 16-1-410; 16-1-411; 17-3-212; 17-5-404; 17-5-424; 17-5-804; 19-8-504; 19-9-702; 19-9-1007; 19-10-205; 19-10-305; 19-10-506; 19-11-512; 19-11-513; 19-11-606; 19-12-301; 19-13-604; 20-6-406; 20-8-111; 20-9-361; 23-5-306; 23-5-409; 23-5-610; 23-5-612; 23-5-1016; 23-5-1027; 27-12-206; 37-51-501; 39-71-2504; 53-6-150; 53-24-206; 61-2-406; 61-5-121; 67-3-205; 75-1-1101; 75-5-1108; 75-11-313; 76-12-123; 80-2-103; 82-11-136; 82-11-161; 90-3-301; 90-4-215; 90-4-613; 90-6-331; 90-9-306; ~~and~~ section 13, House Bill No. 861, Laws of 1985*; and [section 1]*.

(4) There is a statutory appropriation to pay the principal, interest, premiums, and costs of issuing, paying, and securing all bonds, notes, or other obligations, as due, that have been authorized and issued pursuant to the laws of Montana. Agencies that have entered into agreements authorized by the laws of Montana to pay the state treasurer, for deposit in accordance with 17-2-101 through 17-2-107, as determined by the state treasurer, an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest as due on the bonds or notes have statutory appropriation authority for such payments. (In subsection (3), pursuant to sec. 10, Ch. 664, L. 1987, the inclusion of 39-71-2504 terminates June 30, 1991.)"

Section 3. Section 85-1-510, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-510. Sale of power and allocation of revenues. (1) If the operator of a small-scale hydroelectric generation facility under this chapter and a public utility or an electric cooperative are unable to mutually agree to a contract for the sale of electricity or a price for the electricity purchased by the utility or electric cooperative, the public service commission shall require the utility or electric cooperative to purchase the power under rates and terms established as provided in 85-1-511 through 85-1-513.

(2) The revenues derived from hydroelectric power generation under this part must be deposited in the state water project hydroelectric power generation special revenue account created under [section 1]. The funds in the account must be used to repair and rehabilitate state-owned water projects and works and to pay the cost of financing those activities."

Section 4. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 85, chapter 1, part 2, and the provisions of Title 85, chapter 1, part 2, apply to [section 1].

Section 5. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 371

[HB 615]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR ISSUANCE OF A 3-DAY NONRESIDENT SHOOTING PRESERVE BIRD HUNTING STAMP FOR USE ONLY ON A SHOOTING PRESERVE; REVISING THE RESTRICTION ON SHOOTING PRESERVE SEASONS; REVISING SHOOTING PRESERVE HARVEST PROVISIONS; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 87-4-504, 87-4-521, AND 87-4-527, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-4-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-4-504. Bird license or stamp required. All persons hunting on shooting preserves must have a valid resident or nonresident upland game bird license or a 3-day nonresident shooting preserve bird hunting stamp issued under [section 4]."

Section 2. Section 87-4-521, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-4-521. Duration of season. ~~In order to give a reasonable opportunity for a fair return on a sizeable investment, the~~ The season established for shooting preserves ~~shall be no less than 120 consecutive days, as designated by the department, during~~ is the ~~4-month~~ 7-month period beginning September 1 and ending ~~December~~ March 31."

Section 3. Section 87-4-527, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-4-527. Wild game on preserve. Any wild game found on shooting preserves may be harvested in accordance with applicable license, game, and hunting laws pertaining to open seasons, bag and possession limits, and ~~so forth~~ rules, as are established regularly by the department and the U.S. fish and wildlife service."

Section 4. Three-day nonresident captive-reared bird hunting stamp. A person who is 12 years of age or older and not a resident, as defined in 87-2-102, may, upon payment of a fee of $20, receive a 3-day nonresident shooting preserve bird hunting stamp that authorizes the holder to pursue, hunt, shoot, and kill game specified under 87-4-522 on a shooting preserve licensed under 87-4-501 for 3 consecutive calendar days as indicated on the license.

Section 5. Codification instruction. [Section 4] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 87, chapter 2, part 4, and the provisions of Title 87, chapter 2, part 4, apply to [section 4].

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 372

[HB 724]

AN ACT PROHIBITING THE USE OF UNPROCESSED TIMBER FROM STATE LANDS AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR UNPROCESSED TIMBER EXPORTED FROM THE UNITED STATES; AND DIRECTING THE AMENDMENT OF RULE 26.6.411, ADMINISTRATIVE RULES OF MONTANA.

WHEREAS, the forest products industry accounts for 46% of the economic base of Montana's seven western counties; and

WHEREAS, the jobs of American mill workers are lost when raw logs are exported overseas; and

WHEREAS, the United States Congress enacted the Forest Resources Conservation and Shortage Relief Act of 1990 to prohibit the export of unprocessed timber originating from federally owned and state-owned lands; and

WHEREAS, the Department of State Lands has promulgated rules prohibiting the export of unprocessed timber originating from state-owned lands in Montana; and

WHEREAS, existing law creates a loophole that allows private landowners in Montana to export unprocessed timber from their own lands and then substitute timber purchased from state lands for the exported supply; and

WHEREAS, the decrease in timber available for export from the states of Oregon and Washington may increase the pressure to export unprocessed timber from private lands in Montana.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. The Department of State Lands shall amend Rule 26.6.411, Administrative Rules of Montana, to read:

"26.6.411 AGREEMENT NOT TO EXPORT STATE LOGS (1) This rule carries out the purposes of section 491 of the Forest Resources Conservation and Shortage Relief Act of 1990 (referred to hereinafter as the Act) which became effective on September 10, 1990 and the definitions stated in that Act are hereby incorporated by reference. The text of the Act may be found on pages H5920 through H5924 of the Congressional Record for July 30, 1990. [proper citation to be added when available] This rule replaces and supercedes any prohibitions imposed by subsection 491(d)(3)(B) of the Act.

(2) Any person purchasing timber from the state of Montana must first have entered into an agreement with the department (referred to hereinafter as a nonexport agreement) containing the following commitments on behalf of the purchaser:

(a) Unprocessed timber, as defined in the Act, originating from lands owned by the state of Montana shall not:

(i) be exported from the United States; ~~or~~

(ii) be sold, traded, exchanged, or otherwise given to any person unless that person agrees not to export such unprocessed timber from the United States and agrees to require such a prohibition in any subsequent resale or other transaction involving such unprocessed timber~~.~~; or

(iii) be used in substitution for exported unprocessed timber originating from private lands in Montana;

(b) in the event purchaser violates any of the provisions of the nonexport agreement, the department, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, may:

(i) terminate any timber sale contracts or timber sale permits with that purchaser; and/or

(ii) bar purchaser from entering into any future contracts for the purchase of timber with the state of Montana for a period of up to five (5) years.

(c) For purposes of such nonexport agreement, the following definitions apply: ~~term "export"~~

(i) "Export" ~~shall mean~~ means either direct or indirect export to a foreign country and occurs on the date that a person enters into a contract or other binding transaction for the export of unprocessed timber or, if that date cannot be established, when unprocessed timber is found in an export yard or pond, bundled or otherwise prepared for shipment, or aboard an ocean-going vessel. An export yard or pond is an area where sorting and/or bundling of logs for shipment outside the United States is accomplished. Timber is exported indirectly when export occurs as a result of a sale to another person or as a result of any subsequent transaction.

(ii) "Substitution" means the purchase of unprocessed timber originating from state forests as provided in 77-5-101, MCA, to be used as replacement for unprocessed timber from private lands in Montana that is exported by the purchaser. Substitution occurs when a person purchasing timber from the state of Montana has exported unprocessed timber from private lands in the state during the period of one (1) year prior to the purchase date.

(d) The nonexport agreement may be terminated by the purchaser upon the termination of any and all contracts or permits for the purchase of unprocessed timber originating from lands owned by the state of Montana. The nonexport agreement may be terminated by the department upon thirty (30) days notice.

(3) The provisions of such nonexport agreement shall not apply to any contract or permit for the purchase of unprocessed timber from state lands entered into before the effective date of such nonexport agreement.

(4) The prohibitions of such nonexport agreement shall not apply to specific quantities of grades and species of unprocessed timber originating from state lands which the United States secretary of commerce determines by rule to be surplus to the needs of timber manufacturing facilities in the United States as provided in the Act.

(5) The provisions of such nonexport agreement shall be suspended or modified as provided in any order of the president of the United States pursuant to subsections 491 (e), (f), or (i) of the Act."

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 373

[HB 726]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE AND CLARIFY THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE LAWS; TO DEFINE "TAXES"; TO CLARIFY THE TERM "WAGES"; TO REVISE THE EXCLUSIONS FROM THE DEFINITION OF EMPLOYMENT RELATING TO AGRICULTURAL LABOR AND DOMESTIC SERVICES; TO ALLOCATE WAGES TO PERIODS OF TIME FOR THE PURPOSE OF DETERMINING ELIGIBILITY AND BENEFITS; TO CLARIFY THE AUTHORITY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRY TO AUDIT EMPLOYER RECORDS; TO CLARIFY EMPLOYER LIABILITY FOR TAXES, PENALTIES, AND INTEREST; TO CLARIFY PAYMENT OF BENEFITS TO ALIENS; TO REVISE APPROVED TRAINING UNDER FEDERAL PROGRAMS THAT IS ALLOWED WHILE A PERSON IS RECEIVING BENEFITS; TO REVISE THE CHARGING AND CLASSIFICATION OF EMPLOYERS; TO PLACE A JUDGMENT LIEN ON THE PERSONAL PROPERTY OF EMPLOYERS WHO OWE UNPAID TAXES, PENALTIES, AND INTEREST; TO PROVIDE FOR A PENALTY FOR MAKING FALSE STATEMENTS IN ORDER TO OBTAIN OR INCREASE BENEFITS; TO REVISE REQUALIFYING WAGES THAT MUST BE EARNED AS A CONDITION OF RECEIVING BENEFITS IN A SECOND BENEFIT YEAR; TO REVISE DISQUALIFICATION FOR BENEFITS FOR LEAVING WORK WITHOUT GOOD CAUSE; TO REPEAL DISQUALIFICATION FOR BENEFITS BECAUSE OF SELF-EMPLOYMENT; AMENDING SECTIONS 39-51-201, 39-51-202, 39-51-203, 39-51-204, 39-51-206, 39-51-602, 39-51-603, 39-51-1101, 39-51-1104, 39-51-1105, 39-51-1110, 39-51-1121, 39-51-1125, 39-51-1212, 39-51-1213, 39-51-1214, 39-51-1217, 39-51-1218, 39-51-1301, 39-51-1302, 39-51-1303, 39-51-1304, 39-51-1305, 39-51-1306, 39-51-2107, 39-51-2110, 39-51-2302, 39-51-2602, 39-51-3201, AND 39-51-3202, MCA; REPEALING SECTION 39-51-2308, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 39-51-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-201. General definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Annual payroll" means the total amount of wages paid by an employer, regardless of the time of payment, for employment during a calendar year.

(2) "Base period" means the first four of the last five completed calendar quarters immediately preceding the first day of an individual's benefit year. However, in the case of a combined-wage claim pursuant to the arrangement approved by the secretary of labor of the United States, the base period shall be that applicable under the unemployment law of the paying state. For an individual who fails to meet the qualifications of 39-51-2105 or a similar statute of another state due to a temporary total disability as defined in 39-71-116 or a similar statute of another state or the United States, the base period means the first four quarters of the last five quarters preceding the disability if a claim for unemployment benefits is filed within 24 months of the date on which the individual's disability was incurred.

(3) "Benefits" means the money payments payable to an individual, as provided in this chapter, with respect to the individual's unemployment.

(4) "Benefit year", with respect to any individual, means the 52-consecutive-week period beginning with the first day of the calendar week in which such individual files a valid claim for benefits, except that the benefit year shall be 53 weeks if filing a new valid claim would result in overlapping any quarter of the base year of a previously filed new claim. A subsequent benefit year may not be established until the expiration of the current benefit year. However, in the case of a combined-wage claim pursuant to the arrangement approved by the secretary of labor of the United States, the base period is the period applicable under the unemployment law of the paying state.

(5) "Board" means the board of labor appeals provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 17.

(6) "Calendar quarter" means the period of 3 consecutive calendar months ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, or December 31.

(7) "Contributions" means the money payments to the state unemployment insurance fund required by this chapter but does not include assessments under 39-51-404(4).

(8) "Department" means the department of labor and industry provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 17.

(9) "Employing unit" means any individual or organization, including the state government, any of its political subdivisions or instrumentalities, any partnership, association, trust, estate, joint-stock company, insurance company, or corporation, whether domestic or foreign, or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, trustee or successor thereof, or the legal representative of a deceased person which has or had in its employ one or more individuals performing services for it within this state, except as provided under ~~subsections (8) and (9) of 39-51-203~~ 39-51-204(1)(a) and (1)(b). All individuals performing services within this state for any employing unit which maintains two or more separate establishments within this state are considered to be employed by a single employing unit for all the purposes of this chapter. Each individual employed to perform or assist in performing the work of any agent or employee of an employing unit is deemed to be employed by such employing unit for the purposes of this chapter, whether such individual was hired or paid directly by such employing unit or by such agent or employee, provided the employing unit has actual or constructive knowledge of the work.

(10) "Employment office" means a free public employment office or branch thereof operated by this state or maintained as a part of a state-controlled system of public employment offices or such other free public employment offices operated and maintained by the United States government or its instrumentalities as the department may approve.

(11) "Fund" means the unemployment insurance fund established by this chapter to which all contributions and payments in lieu of contributions are required to be paid and from which all benefits provided under this chapter shall be paid.

(12) "Gross misconduct" means a criminal act, other than a violation of a motor vehicle traffic law, for which an individual has been convicted in a criminal court or has admitted or conduct which demonstrates a flagrant and wanton disregard of and for the rights or title or interest of a fellow employee or the employer.

(13) "Hospital" means an institution which has been licensed, certified, or approved by the state as a hospital.

(14) "Independent contractor" means an individual who renders service in the course of an occupation and:

(a) has been and will continue to be free from control or direction over the performance of the services, both under his contract and in fact; and

(b) is engaged in an independently established trade, occupation, profession, or business.

(15) (a) "Institution of higher education", for the purposes of this part, means an educational institution which:

(i) admits as regular students only individuals having a certificate of graduation from a high school or the recognized equivalent of such a certificate;

(ii) is legally authorized in this state to provide a program of education beyond high school;

(iii) provides an educational program for which it awards a bachelor's or higher degree or provides a program which is acceptable for full credit toward such a degree, a program of postgraduate or postdoctoral studies, or a program of training to prepare students for gainful employment in a recognized occupation; and

(iv) is a public or other nonprofit institution.

(b) Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions of this subsection, all colleges and universities in this state are institutions of higher education for purposes of this part.

(16) "State" includes, in addition to the states of the United States of America, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and the Dominion of Canada.

(17) "Taxes" means contributions and assessments required under this chapter but does not include penalties or interest for past-due or unpaid contributions or assessments.

~~(17)~~(18) "Unemployment insurance administration fund" means the unemployment insurance administration fund established by this chapter from which administrative expenses under this chapter shall be paid.

~~(18)~~(19) (a) "Wages" means all remuneration payable for personal services, including commissions and bonuses, the cash value of all remuneration payable in any medium other than cash, and backpay received pursuant to a dispute related to employment. The reasonable cash value of remuneration payable in any medium other than cash shall be estimated and determined in accordance with rules prescribed by the department.

(b) The term "wages" does not include:

(i) the amount of any payment made by the employer, if the payment was made under a plan established for the employees in general or for a specific class or classes of employees, to or on behalf of the employee for:

(A) retirement;

(B) sickness or accident disability~~, but in the case of payments made by an employer directly to an employee, only those payments made~~ under a workers' compensation law ~~are excluded from "wages"~~;

(C) medical and hospitalization expenses in connection with sickness or accident disability; or

(D) death;

(ii) remuneration paid by any county welfare office from public assistance funds for services performed at the direction and request of such county welfare office.

~~(19)~~(20) "Week" means a period of 7 consecutive calendar days ending at midnight on Saturday.

~~(20)~~(21) An individual's "weekly benefit amount" means the amount of benefits the individual would be entitled to receive for 1 week of total unemployment."

Section 2. Section 39-51-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-202. Employer defined. "Employer" means:

(1) any employing unit whose total annual payroll within either the current or preceding calendar year equals or exceeds the sum of $1,000;

(2) any agricultural employing unit that pays $20,000 or more in cash to workers for agricultural labor in any quarter in the current or preceding calendar year or employs 10 or more workers in agricultural labor on 20 days in 20 different weeks during the current or preceding calendar year;

(3) any domestic employing unit that pays $1,000 or more in cash for domestic service in any quarter during the current or preceding calendar year;

~~(2)~~(4) any individual or employing unit which acquired the organization, trade, or business or substantially all of the assets thereof of another which at the time of such acquisition was an employer subject to this chapter;

~~(3)~~(5) any individual or employing unit which acquired the organization, trade, or business or substantially all the assets thereof of another employing unit not an employer subject to this chapter and which, if subsequent to such acquisition it were treated as a single unit with such other employing unit, would be an employer under subsection (1) of this section;

~~(4)~~(6) any employing unit not an employer by reason of any other subsection of this section for which, within either the current or preceding calendar year, service is or was performed with respect to which such employing unit is liable for any federal tax against which credit may be taken for contributions paid into a state unemployment fund or an employing unit which, as a condition for approval of this chapter for full tax credit against the tax imposed by the Federal Unemployment Tax Act, is required pursuant to such act to be an employer under this chapter;

~~(5)~~(7) any employing unit which, having become an employer under subsection (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), or ~~(4)~~ (6) has not, under 39-51-1101, ceased to be an employer subject to this chapter; or

~~(6)~~(8) for the effective period of its election pursuant to 39-51-1102, any other employing unit which has elected to become fully subject to this chapter."

Section 3. Section 39-51-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-203. Employment defined. (1) "Employment", subject to other provisions of this section, means service by an individual or by an officer of a corporation, including service in interstate commerce, performed for wages or under any contract of hire, written or oral, express or implied.

(2) (a) The term "employment" includes an individual's entire service performed within or both within and without this state if:

(i) the service is localized in this state; or

(ii) the service is not localized in any state but some of the service is performed in this state and:

(A) the base of operations or, if there is no base of operations, then the place from which such service is directed or controlled, is in this state; or

(B) the base of operations or place from which such service is directed or controlled is not in any state in which some part of the service is performed, but the individual's residence is in this state.

(b) Service is considered to be localized within a state if:

(i) the service is performed entirely within such state; or

(ii) the service is performed both within and without such state, but the service performed without such state is incidental to the individual's service within the state, for example, is temporary or transitory in nature or consists of isolated transactions.

(3) Service not covered under subsection (2) of this section and performed entirely without this state with respect to no part of which contributions are required and paid under an unemployment insurance law of any other state or of the federal government is considered to be employment subject to this chapter if the individual performing such services is a resident of this state and the department approves the election of the employing unit for whom such services are performed that the entire service of such individual is considered to be employment subject to this chapter.

(4) Service performed by an individual for wages is considered to be employment subject to this chapter unless and until it is shown to the satisfaction of the department that the individual is an independent contractor.

(5) The term "employment" includes service performed by an individual in the employ of this state or any of its instrumentalities (or in the employ of this state and one or more other states or their instrumentalities) for a hospital or institution of higher education located in this state. The term "employment" includes service performed by all individuals, including without limitations those individuals who work for the state of Montana, its universities, any of its colleges, public schools, components or units thereof, or any local government unit and one or more other states or their instrumentalities or political subdivisions whose services are compensated by salary or wages.

(6) The term "employment" includes service performed by an individual in the employ of a religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational organization.

(7) (a) The term "employment" includes the service of an individual who is a citizen of the United States performed outside the United States, except in Canada, in the employ of an American employer, other than service which is considered employment under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section or the parallel provisions of another state's law, if:

(i) the employer's principal place of business in the United States is located in this state;

(ii) the employer has no place of business in the United States, but:

(A) the employer is an individual who is a resident of this state;

(B) the employer is a corporation which is organized under the laws of this state; or

(C) the employer is a partnership or a trust and the number of the partners or trustees who are residents of this state is greater than the number who are residents of any other state; or

(iii) none of the criteria of sections (7)(a)(i) and (7)(a)(ii) of this subsection are met but the employer has elected coverage in this state or, the employer having failed to elect coverage in any state, the individual has filed a claim for benefits based on such service under the law of this state.

(b) An "American employer", for purposes of this subsection, means a person who is:

(i) an individual who is a resident of the United States;

(ii) a partnership if two-thirds or more of the partners are residents of the United States;

(iii) a trust if all of the trustees are residents of the United States; or

(iv) a corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any state.

~~(8) Agricultural labor exempted under 39-51-204 is considered employment whenever the employing unit pays $20,000 or more in cash to workers for agricultural labor in any quarter in the current or preceding calendar year or employs 10 or more workers in agricultural labor on 20 days in 20 different weeks during the current or preceding calendar year. If an employer, including but not limited to an employing unit providing outfitter and guide services, is otherwise subject to this chapter and has agricultural employment, all employees engaged in agricultural labor must be excluded from coverage under this chapter if the employer:~~

~~(a) in any quarter or calendar year, as applicable, does not meet either of the tests relating to the monetary amount or number of employees and days worked, for the subject wages attributable to agricultural labor; and~~

~~(b) keeps separate books and records to account for the employment of persons in agricultural labor.~~

~~(9) Domestic service exempted under 39-51-204(1)(b) is considered employment whenever the employing unit pays $1,000 or more in cash for domestic service in any quarter during the current or preceding calendar year. If an employer is otherwise subject to this chapter and has domestic service employment, all employees engaged in domestic service must be excluded from coverage under this chapter if the employer:~~

~~(a) does not meet the monetary payment test in any quarter or calendar year, as applicable, for the subject wages attributable to domestic service; and~~

~~(b) keeps separate books and records to account for the employment of persons in domestic service.~~"

Section 4. Section 39-51-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-204. Exclusions from definition of employment. (1) The term "employment" does not include:

(a) agricultural labor, except as provided in ~~39-51-203(8);~~ 39-51-202(2). If an employer is otherwise subject to this chapter and has agricultural employment, all employees engaged in agricultural labor must be excluded from coverage under this chapter if the employer:

(i) in any quarter or calendar year, as applicable, does not meet either of the tests relating to the monetary amount or number of employees and days worked, for the subject wages attributable to agricultural labor; and

(ii) keeps separate books and records to account for the employment of persons in agricultural labor;

(b) domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority, except as provided in ~~39-51-203(9);~~ 39-51-202(3). If an employer is otherwise subject to this chapter and has domestic service employment, all employees engaged in domestic service must be excluded from coverage under this chapter if the employer:

(i) does not meet the monetary payment test in any quarter or calendar year, as applicable, for the subject wages attributable to domestic service; and

(ii) keeps separate books and records to account for the employment of persons in domestic service;

(c) service performed as an officer or member of the crew of a vessel on the navigable waters of the United States;

(d) service performed by an individual in the employ of that individual's son, daughter, or spouse and service performed by a child under the age of 21 in the employ of the child's father or mother;

(e) service performed in the employ of any other state or its political subdivisions or of the United States government or of an instrumentality of any other state or states or their political subdivisions or of the United States, except that national banks organized under the national banking law shall not be entitled to exemption under this subsection and shall be subject to this chapter the same as state banks, provided that such service is excluded from employment as defined in the Federal Unemployment Tax Act by section 3306(c)(7) of that act;

(f) service with respect to which unemployment insurance is payable under an unemployment insurance system established by an act of congress, provided that the department must enter into agreements with the proper agencies under such act of congress, which agreements shall become effective in the manner prescribed in the Montana Administrative Procedure Act for the adoption of rules, to provide reciprocal treatment to individuals who have, after acquiring potential rights to benefits under this chapter, acquired rights to unemployment insurance under such act of congress or who have, after acquiring potential rights to unemployment insurance under such act of congress, acquired rights to benefits under this chapter;

(g) services performed in the delivery and distribution of newspapers or shopping news from house to house and business establishments by an individual under the age of 18 years, but not including the delivery or distribution to any point or points for subsequent delivery or distribution;

(h) services performed by real estate, securities, and insurance salespeople paid solely by commissions and without guarantee of minimum earnings;

(i) service performed in the employ of a school, college, or university if such service is performed by a student who is enrolled and is regularly attending classes at such school, college, or university or by the spouse of such a student if such spouse is advised, at the time such spouse commences to perform such service, that the employment of such spouse to perform such service is provided under a program to provide financial assistance to such student by such school, college, or university and such employment will not be covered by any program of unemployment insurance;

(j) service performed by an individual who is enrolled at a nonprofit or public educational institution, which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are carried on, as a student in a full-time program taken for credit at such institution which combines academic instruction with work experience if such service is an integral part of such program and such institution has so certified to the employer, except that this subsection shall not apply to service performed in a program established for or on behalf of an employer or group of employers;

(k) service performed in the employ of a hospital if such service is performed by a patient of the hospital;

(l) services performed by a cosmetologist who is licensed under Title 37, chapter 31, or a barber who is licensed under Title 37, chapter 30, and who has acknowledged in writing that he is not covered by unemployment insurance and workers' compensation and who contracts with a cosmetological establishment as defined in 37-31-101 or a barbershop as defined in 37-30-101, which contract shall show the cosmetologist or barber is free from all control and direction of the owner in the contract and in fact; receives payment for services from his or her individual clientele; leases, rents, or furnishes all of his or her own equipment, skills, or knowledge; and whose contract gives rise to an action for breach of contract in the event of contract termination (the existence of a single license for the cosmetological establishment or barbershop shall not be construed as a lack of freedom from control or direction under this subsection);

(m) casual labor not in the course of an employer's trade or business performed in any calendar quarter, unless the cash remuneration paid for such service is $50 or more and such service is performed by an individual who is regularly employed by such employer to perform such service. "Regularly employed" means the services are performed during at least 24 days in the same quarter.

(n) services performed for the installation of floor coverings if the installer:

(i) bids or negotiates a contract price based upon work performed by the yard or by the job;

(ii) is paid upon completion of an agreed upon portion of the job or after the job is completed;

(iii) may perform services for anyone without limitation;

(iv) may accept or reject any job;

(v) furnishes substantially all tools and equipment necessary to provide the services; and

(vi) works under a written contract that:

(A) gives rise to a breach of contract action if the installer or any other party fails to perform the contract obligations;

(B) states the installer is not covered by unemployment insurance; and

(C) requires the installer to provide a current workers' compensation policy or to obtain an exemption from workers' compensation requirements.

(2) "Employment" does not include elected public officials.

(3) For the purposes of 39-51-203(6), the term "employment" does not apply to service performed:

(a) in the employ of a church or convention or association of churches or an organization which is operated primarily for religious purposes and which is operated, supervised, controlled, or principally supported by a church or convention or association of churches;

(b) by a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church in the exercise of the church's ministry or by a member of a religious order in the exercise of duties required by such order;

(c) in a facility conducted for the purpose of carrying out a program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury or providing remunerative work for individuals who, because of their impaired physical or mental capacity, cannot be readily absorbed in the competitive labor market by an individual receiving such rehabilitation or remunerative work;

(d) as part of an unemployment work-relief or work-training program assisted or financed in whole or in part by a federal agency or any agency of a state or political subdivision thereof by an individual receiving such work relief or work training; or

(e) for a state prison or other state correctional or custodial institution by an inmate of that institution."

Section 5. Section 39-51-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-206. Agricultural labor — who treated as employer of member of a crew furnished by a crew leader. (1) For the purposes of 39-51-203, any individual who is a member of a crew furnished by a crew leader to perform service in agricultural labor for any other person shall be treated as an employee of such crew leader if:

(a) such crew leader holds a valid certificate of registration under the Migrant and Seasonal Agricultural Worker Protection Act, as amended (29 U.S.C. 1801, et seq.); or

(b) (i) substantially all the members of such crew operate or maintain tractors, mechanized harvesting or cropdusting equipment, or any other mechanized equipment which is provided by such crew leader; and

(ii) such individual is not an employee of such other person ~~within the meaning of 39-51-202(1), 39-51-203(8), or 39-51-203(9)~~ for whom services in agricultural labor are performed.

(2) In the case of any individual who is furnished by a crew leader to perform service in agricultural labor for any other person and who is not treated as an employee of such crew leader under subsection (1):

(a) such other person and not the crew leader shall be treated as the employer of such individual; and

(b) such other person shall be treated as having paid cash remuneration to such individual in an amount equal to the amount of cash remuneration paid to such individual by the crew leader, either on his own behalf or on behalf of such other person, for the service in agricultural labor performed for such other person.

(3) The term "crew leader" means an individual who:

(a) furnishes individuals to perform service in agricultural labor for any other person;

(b) pays, either on his own behalf or on behalf of such other person, the individuals so furnished by him for the service in agricultural labor performed by them; and

(c) has not entered into a written agreement with such other person under which such individual is designated as an employee of such other person."

Section 6. Section 39-51-602, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-602. Method to be used by department in keeping wage records. Wage records kept by the department for the purposes of this chapter ~~shall~~ must be kept on the basis of wages paid~~.~~, except that for the purposes of determining benefit eligibility and the amount and duration of benefits payable, wages, including lump-sum payments of accrued wages, must be assigned to periods of time as determined in accordance with rules adopted by the department."

Section 7. Section 39-51-603, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-603. Employing unit to keep records and make reports. (1) Each employing unit shall keep true and accurate work records containing such information as the department may prescribe. Those records shall be open to inspection and audit and shall be subject to being copied by the department or its authorized representative at any reasonable time and as often as may be necessary.

(2) The department and the chairman of any appeal tribunal may require from any employing unit any sworn or unsworn reports with respect to persons employed by it which the department considers necessary to the effective administration of this chapter.

(3) Information thus obtained or obtained from any individual under this chapter shall, except to the individual claimant to the extent necessary for the proper presentation of a claim, be held confidential and shall not be published or be open to public inspection, except to public employees in the performance of their public duties, in any manner revealing the individual's or employing unit's identity, but any claimant or his legal representative at a hearing before the board or appeal tribunal shall be supplied with information from the records to the extent necessary for the proper presentation of his claim.

(4) Any employee or member of the department who violates any provision of this section shall be fined not less than $20 or more than $200 or imprisoned for not longer than 90 days or both."

Section 8. Section 39-51-1101, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1101. Commencement and termination of coverage under chapter. (1) Any employing unit which is or becomes an employer subject to this chapter within any calendar year shall be subject to this chapter during the whole of such calendar year, except that this subsection shall not apply to an employing unit electing coverage as provided for in 39-51-1102.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in 39-51-1102, an employing unit shall cease to be an employer subject to this chapter only as of January 1 of any calendar year only if it files with the department prior to the last day of February of such year a written application for termination of coverage and the department finds that the total wages payable for employment by said employer in the preceding calendar year did not equal or exceed ~~$1,000~~ the amount of wages required under 39-51-202 to be considered an employer subject to this chapter. For the purpose of this subsection, the two or more employing units mentioned in ~~subsection (2) or (3) of~~ 39-51-202*(4) or (5)* shall be treated as a single employing unit."

Section 9. Section 39-51-1104, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1104. Duty and liability of contractor and subcontractor, respectively, in regard to ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest owed by subcontractor. (1) Any contractor who is or becomes an employer under the provisions of this chapter who contracts with any subcontractor who also is or becomes an employer under the provisions of this chapter shall withhold sufficient money on the contract to guarantee that all ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest are paid upon completion of the contract.

(2) It shall be the duty of any subcontractor who is or becomes an employer under the provisions of this chapter to furnish the contractor with a certification issued by the department, prior to final payment for the particular job, stating that said subcontractor is current and in full compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

(3) Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render the contractor directly liable for all ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest due from the subcontractor on the particular job, and the administrator has all of the remedies of collection against the contractor under the provisions of this chapter as though the services in question were performed directly for the contractor."

Section 10. Section 39-51-1105, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1105. Liability of corporate officers for ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest owed by corporation. When a corporation subject to Montana corporate law has failed to file the annual corporation report with the Montana secretary of state as required by law the department shall hold the president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer jointly and severally liable for any ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest due for the period in which the corporation is delinquent in filing the annual corporation report. If the required annual corporation report is made and filed after the time specified, such officers may not, on account of prior failure to make report, be held liable for the ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest thereafter accruing."

Section 11. Section 39-51-1110, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1110. Refunds to employers. (1) If not later than 3 years after the date on which any ~~contributions~~ taxes or interest thereon became due or not later than 1 year from the date on which payment was made, whichever is later, an employer who has paid such ~~contributions~~ taxes or interest thereon shall make application for an adjustment thereof in connection with subsequent ~~contribution~~ tax payments or for a refund thereof because such adjustment cannot be made and the department shall determine that such ~~contributions~~ taxes or interest or any portion thereof was erroneously collected, the department shall allow such employer to make an adjustment thereof, without interest, in connection with subsequent ~~contribution~~ tax payments by him or, if such adjustment cannot be made, the department shall refund said amount, without interest, from the fund. For like cause and within the same period, adjustment or refund may be so made on the department's own initiative.

(2) If the department shall determine that an employer has paid ~~contributions~~ taxes to this state under this chapter when such ~~contributions~~ taxes should have been paid to another state under a similar act of such other state, transfer of such ~~contributions~~ taxes to such other state shall be made upon discovery or, upon proof of payment that such other state has been fully paid, then refund to such employer shall be made at any time upon application without limitation of time.

(3) In the event that this chapter is not certified by the secretary of labor under section 1603 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, 1939, for any year, then and in that event refunds shall be made of all ~~contributions~~ taxes required under this chapter from employers for that year."

Section 12. Section 39-51-1301, MCA is amended to read:

"39-51-1301. (Effective July 1, 1991) Penalty and interest on past-due ~~contributions~~ taxes. (1) ~~Contributions~~ Taxes unpaid on the date on which they are due and payable, as provided by subsections (1) and (2) of 39-51-1103 and 39-51-1125, that are paid by the end of the month following the due date shall be subject to a penalty assessment of $10 or 10% of the ~~contribution~~ tax due, whichever is greater. If the ~~contributions~~ taxes are not paid by the end of the month following the due date, the employer shall be subject to a penalty assessment of $15 or 15% of the ~~contributions~~ taxes due, whichever is greater. All past-due ~~contributions~~ taxes shall bear interest at the rate of 18% a year, to be prorated on a daily basis.

(2) A penalty of $40 shall be assessed whenever, as the result of a willful refusal of an employer to furnish wage information or pay ~~contributions~~ taxes on time, the department issues a subpoena to obtain wage information or makes a summary or jeopardy assessment pursuant to 39-51-1302.

(3) Interest and penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be paid into the unemployment insurance trust fund.

(4) When failure to pay ~~contributions~~ taxes on time was not caused by willful intent of the employer, the department may abate the penalty and interest.

(5) All money accruing to the unemployment insurance trust fund from interest and penalties collected on past-due ~~contributions~~ taxes must be used solely for the payment of unemployment insurance benefits and may not be used for any other purpose."

Section 13. Section 39-51-1302, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1302. Summary or jeopardy assessment of unpaid ~~contributions~~ taxes. (1) If any employer fails to file a report or return as required under this chapter or the regulations of the department adopted thereunder within the time specified or if the employer's records are inaccurate or are incomplete when an employer has already filed a quarterly wage report for the period in question, the department may make a summary or jeopardy assessment of the amount due by making up such report and determining the amount of ~~contributions~~ taxes due and owing to the fund upon the basis of such information as the department may be able to obtain, and thereupon the same shall be collected the same as other reports and ~~contributions~~ taxes due, with penalty and interest as provided in this chapter.

(2) Upon making such summary or jeopardy assessment, the department shall immediately notify the employer in writing by personal service or by certified ~~or registered~~ mail in the usual course at the last known principal place of business operated by the employer. Such assessment shall be final unless the employer shall protest such assessment in writing within 15 days after service of the notice or, within the same period of time, the employer shall file a correct, signed, and sworn report and statement as provided by the chapter and the regulations of the department.

(3) Upon written protest being filed as above set forth, a day certain for the hearing thereof shall be fixed by the department and notice thereof mailed to the employer. At such hearing, the facts ascertained by the department shall be conclusive and the department may upon the basis of such facts ascertained assess the amount due, modify, set aside, or revise the prior assessment and require the employer to pay the amount due with penalty and interest as provided for in this chapter. A copy of the decision of the department and the assessment of the amount due shall be mailed to the employer at his last known principal place of business and thereupon become final."

Section 14. Section 39-51-1303, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1303. Collection of unpaid ~~contributions~~ taxes by civil action. (1) If, after due notice, any employer defaults in any payment of ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, or interest thereon, the department may at its discretion initiate a civil action in the name of the Montana department of labor and industry to collect the amount due, and the employer adjudged in default shall pay the costs of such action.

(2) An action for the collection of ~~contributions~~ taxes due must be brought within 5 years after the due date of such ~~contributions~~ taxes or it is barred.

(3) The department may pursue its remedy under either this section or 39-51-1304, or both."

Section 15. Section 39-51-1304, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1304. Lien for payment of unpaid ~~contributions and assessments~~ taxes — levy and execution. (1) Unpaid ~~contributions and assessments under 39-51-404(4)~~ taxes, including penalties and interest assessed thereon, have the effect of a judgment against the employer, arising at the time such payments are due. The department may issue a certificate setting forth the amount of payments due and directing the clerk of the district court of any county of the state to enter the certificate as a judgment in the docket pursuant to 25-9-301. From the time the judgment is docketed, it becomes a lien upon all real and personal property of the employer. ~~From the time the judgment is filed with the secretary of state or a registrar of personal property specifically describing the personal property, it becomes a lien upon personal property of the employer.~~ After the due process requirements of 39-51-1109 and 39-51-2403 have been satisfied, the department may enforce the judgment pursuant to Title 25, chapter 13, except that the department may enforce the judgment at any time within 10 years of the creation of the lien.

(2) The lien provided for in subsection (1) is not valid against any third party owning an interest in real or personal property against which the judgment is enforced if:

(a) the third party's interest is recorded prior to the entrance of the certificate as a judgment; and

(b) the third party receives from the most recent grantor of the interest a signed affidavit stating that all ~~contributions, assessments~~ taxes, penalties, and interest due from the grantor have been paid.

(3) A grantor who signs and delivers an affidavit is subject to the penalties imposed by 39-51-3204 if any part of it is untrue. Notwithstanding the provisions of 39-51-3204, the department may proceed against the employer under this section or 39-51-1303, or both, to collect the delinquent ~~contributions, assessments~~ taxes, penalties, and interest.

(4) The lien provided for in subsection (1) must be released upon payment in full of the unpaid taxes, penalties, and accumulated interest. The department may release or may partially release the lien upon partial payment or whenever the department determines that the release or partial release of the lien will facilitate the collection of unpaid taxes, penalties, or interest. The department may release the lien if it determines that the lien is unenforceable."

Section 16. Section 39-51-1305, is amended to read:

"39-51-1305. Priority of payment of ~~contributions~~ taxes due under legal dissolutions or distributions. In the event of any distribution of an employer's assets pursuant to an order of any court under the laws of this state, including any receivership, assignment for benefit of creditors, adjudicated insolvency, composition, or similar proceeding, ~~contributions~~ taxes then or thereafter due shall be paid in full prior to all other claims, except taxes and claims for wages of not more than $250 to each claimant earned within 6 months of the commencement of the proceeding."

Section 17. Section 39-51-1306, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1306. Reciprocity with other states for collection of unpaid ~~contributions~~ taxes. (1) The courts of this state shall recognize and enforce liabilities for unemployment ~~contributions~~ taxes and any other special assessments imposed by other states which extend a like comity to this state.

(2) The department is hereby empowered to sue in the courts of any other jurisdiction which extends such comity to collect unemployment ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest due this state. The officials of other states which by statute or otherwise extend a like comity to this state may sue in the courts of this state to collect for such ~~contributions~~ taxes and any other special assessments and interest and penalties, if any, due such state. In any such case the administrator may through his attorney or attorneys institute and conduct such suit for such other state.

(3) Venue of such proceedings shall be the same as for actions to collect delinquent ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest due under this chapter.

(4) A certificate by the secretary of any such state under the great seal of such state attesting the authority of such official or officials to collect unemployment insurance ~~contributions~~ taxes and other special assessments, penalties, and interest shall be conclusive evidence of such authority."

Section 18. Section 39-51-2110, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-2110. Payment of benefits to aliens. (1) ~~Effective January 1, 1978, benefits~~ Benefits shall not be ~~paid~~ payable on the basis of services performed by an alien unless ~~such~~ the alien is an individual who ~~has been~~ was lawfully admitted for permanent residence at the time the services were performed, was lawfully present for the purposes of performing the services, or ~~otherwise is~~ was permanently residing in the United States under color of law~~,~~ at the time the services were performed, including an alien who ~~is~~ was lawfully present in the United States as a result of the application of the provisions of section 203(a)(7) or section 212(d)(5) of the Immigration and Nationality Act.

(2) Any data or information required of individuals applying for benefits to determine whether benefits are not payable to them because of their alien status shall be uniformly required from all applicants for benefits.

(3) In the case of an individual whose application for benefits would otherwise be approved, no determination that benefits to such individual are not payable because of his alien status shall be made except upon a preponderance of the evidence."

Section 19. Section 39-51-2602, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-2602. Approved ~~trade readjustment~~ training *under federal programs. (1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, no otherwise eligible individual may be denied benefits for any week:

(a) because ~~he is~~ of participation in training approved under Section 236(a)(1) of the federal Trade Act of 1974~~;~~ or under Title III of the federal Job Training Partnership Act;

(b) ~~in which he is~~ because of participation in ~~such~~ approved training described in subsection (1)(a) by reason of leaving work to enter ~~such~~ the training if the work left is not suitable employment; or

(c) because of the application to any such week in training of provisions in this chapter or any federal unemployment insurance law administered by this agency, relating to availability for work, active search for work, or refusal to accept work.

(2) For purposes of this section, "suitable employment" means work of a substantially equal or higher skill level than the individual's past adversely affected employment, as defined for purposes of the federal Trade

Act of 1974 and the federal Job Training Partnership Act, and for which the wages are not less than 80% of the individual's average weekly wage as determined for the purposes of the federal Trade Act of 1974 and the federal Job Training Partnership Act."

Section 20. Section 39-51-1121, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1121. Definitions. As used in this part and part 12, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Computation date" means the reporting period ending September 30 preceding the calendar year for which a covered employer's contribution rate is effective.

(2) "Cutoff date" means ~~December 31~~ October 31 immediately following the computation date. The department may extend the cutoff date in meritorious cases.

(3) "Deficit employer" means an employer who is subject under this chapter and who has established a record of accumulated benefits charged to the employer's account in excess of the employer's accumulated contributions paid as of the cutoff date.

~~(4) "Department" means the department of labor and industry.~~

~~(5)~~(4) "Eligible employer" means an employer who has been subject under this chapter for the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding the computation date and who has:

~~(a) filed all contribution reports prescribed by the department;~~

~~(b) paid all contributions and all assessments under 39-51-404(4) and penalties and interest thereon;~~

~~(c)~~(a) established a record of accumulated contributions in excess of benefits charged to the employer's account; and

~~(d)~~(b) paid wages in at least 1 of the 8 calendar quarters preceding the computation date.

~~(6)~~(5) "Fiscal year" means the four consecutive calendar quarters ending on September 30.

~~(7)~~(6) "Governmental entities" means the state or any political subdivision of the state or an instrumentality of the state or a political subdivision, including any employing unit funded directly by tax levies.

(7) "New employer" means an employer who:

(a) has not been subject to the provisions of this chapter for the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding the computation date; and

(b) has established a record of accumulated contributions in excess of benefits charged to the employer's account.

(8) "Taxable wage base" means the amount of wages subject to contributions and to assessments under 39-51-404(4) for each calendar year. Payment of contributions and of assessments under 39-51-404(4) may apply only to wages paid up to and including the amount specified in 39-51-1108.

~~(9) "Unrated employer" means an employer who is subject under this chapter and who does not meet all the criteria of an eligible or a deficit employer.~~"

Section 21. Section 39-51-1125, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1125. Computation of payments in lieu of contributions. (1) After June 30, 1987, qualified employers electing to make payments in lieu of contributions shall pay into the fund an amount equivalent to the full amount of regular benefits plus the state's share of extended benefits paid to individuals based on wages paid by the employing unit. After December 31, 1978, governmental entities shall pay the full amount of extended benefits.

(2) If benefits paid an individual are based on wages paid by both the employer and one or more other employers, the amount payable by any one employer to the fund bears the same ratio to total benefits paid to the individual as the base period wages paid to the individual by such employer bear to the total amount of base period wages paid to the individual by all the individual's base period employers.

(3) If the base period wages of an individual include wages from more than one such employer, the amount to be paid into the fund with respect to the benefits paid to the individual shall be prorated among the liable employers in proportion to the wages paid to the individual by each such employer during the base period.

(4) The amount of payment required from employers shall be ascertained by the department monthly and becomes due and payable by the employer quarterly as directed in this chapter. Penalty and interest for delinquency shall be assessed such employers as specified in 39-51-1301.

(5) A payment may not be required under this section with respect to benefits paid to an individual if the qualified employer continues to provide employment to the individual with no reduction in hours or wages."

Section 22. Section 39-51-1212, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1212. Experience rating for governmental entities. (1) Governmental entities newly covered under this chapter after December 31, 1974, shall make payments for the period prior to July 1, 1977, equal to 0.4% of total wages paid employees for services in employment during the calendar quarter and for the period after July 1, 1977, shall make payments at the median rate.

(2) The rates of governmental entities who have accumulated experience rating credits shall be adjusted annually as follows with each governmental entity assigned a rate based upon:

(a) its benefit cost experience, to be arrived at by dividing the total sum of benefits charged to the employer's account for all past periods which are completed transactions by December 31 by total wages from date of subjectivity of the employing unit through December 31; and

(b) the benefit cost for all past years of governmental entities electing to pay contributions compared with total payrolls reported for all past years by these governmental entities used as a median, with the rates so fixed using the median that the rates will, when applied to the total annual payroll for subject governmental entities, yield total paid contributions equaling approximately the total benefit costs.

(3) New governmental entities electing to pay contributions shall be assigned the median rate for the year in which they become subject.

(4) At no time may the minimum rate be less than 0.1% or the maximum rate be greater than 1.5%. The rates are to be graduated at one-tenth intervals.

(5) In the event benefit charges exceed contributions paid in the last 2 completed fiscal years, governmental entities' rates will be adjusted by increasing all rates to the next higher schedule.

(6) The computed rate is effective July 1 of each year.

(7) Governmental entities must be charged for their share of the total benefits paid to a claimant if the governmental entity contributed wages during the claimant's base period. The benefit charged must be based on the percentage of wages paid by the governmental entity as compared to the total wages paid by all employers in the claimant's base period.

(8) A payment may not be required under this section with respect to benefits paid to an individual if the governmental employer continues to provide employment to the individual with no reduction in hours or wages."

Section 23. Section 39-51-1213, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1213. Classification of employers for experience rating purposes. (1) The department shall for each calendar year classify employers in accordance with their actual experience in the payment of contributions and with respect to benefits charged against their accounts, with contribution rates reflecting benefit experience. Each employer's rate for a calendar year shall be determined on the basis of the employer's record as of October 1 of the preceding calendar year.

(2) In making the classification, each eligible and deficit employer's contribution rate is determined in the manner set forth below:

(a) Each employer is given an "experience factor" which is contributions paid since October 1, 1981, minus benefits charged on each employer's account since October 1, 1981, divided by the employer's average annual taxable payroll rounded to the next lower dollar amount for the 3 fiscal years immediately preceding the computation date. The computation of the "experience factor" shall be to six decimal places.

(b) Schedules shall be prepared listing all eligible and deficit employers in inverse numerical order of their experience factors. There shall be listed on such schedules for each employer in addition to the experience factor:

(i) the amount of the employer's taxable payroll for the fiscal year ending on the computation date; and

(ii) the cumulative total consisting of the sum of the employer's taxable payroll for the fiscal year ending on the computation date and the corresponding taxable payrolls for all other employers preceding that employer on the schedules.

(3) The cumulative taxable payroll amounts listed on the schedules provided for in 39-51-1218 shall be segregated into groups that will yield approximately the average tax rate according to the tax schedule assigned for that particular taxable year. Each group shall be identified by the rate class number listed in the table which represents the percentage limits of each group. Each employer on the schedules is assigned that contribution rate opposite that employer's rate class for the tax schedule in effect for the taxable year.

(4) (a) If the grouping of rate classes requires the inclusion of exactly one-half of an employer's taxable payroll, the employer is assigned the lower of the two rates designated for the two classes in which the halves of that employer's taxable payroll are so required.

(b) If the group of rate classes requires the inclusion of a portion other than exactly one-half of an employer's taxable payroll, the employer is assigned the rate designated for the class in which the greater part of that employer's taxable payroll is so required.

(c) If one or more employers on the schedules have experience factors identical to that of the last employer included in a particular rate class, all such employers are included in and assigned the contribution rate specified for such class, notwithstanding the provisions of 39-51-1214.

(5) If the taxable payroll amount or the experience factor or both such taxable payroll amount and experience factor of any eligible or deficit employer listed on the schedules is changed, the employer is placed in that position on the schedules which the employer would have occupied had that employer's taxable payroll amount or experience factor as changed been used in determining that employer's position in the first instance, but such change does not affect the position or rate classification of any other employer listed on the schedules and does not affect the rate determination for previous years.

(6) ~~Deficit employers~~ An employer who ~~have~~ has not filed all required payroll reports or paid all ~~contributions~~ taxes, penalties, and interest due by the cutoff date must be assigned the maximum contribution rate in effect for the taxable year for his classification as an eligible, deficit, or new employer."

Section 24. Section 39-51-1214, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1214. Benefit payments chargeable to employer experience rating accounts. (1) Except for cost reimbursement, benefits paid shall be charged to the account of each of the claimant's base period employers. The benefit charged must be based on the percentage of wages paid by the employer as compared to the total wages paid by all employers in the claimant's base period.

(2) No charge shall be made to the account of such covered employer with respect to benefits paid under the following situations:

(a) if paid to a worker who terminated his services voluntarily without good cause attributable to such covered employer or who had been discharged for misconduct in connection with such services;

(b) if paid in accordance with the extended benefit program triggered by either national or state indicators; ~~or~~

(c) if the base period employer continues to provide employment with no reduction in hours or wages~~.~~; or

(d) if benefits are paid to claimants who are in training approved under 39-51-2307."

Section 25. Section 39-51-1217, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-1217. Schedule of rates assigned based on trust fund reserve. (1) The rate schedule for each calendar year is assigned based upon the ratio of the trust fund balance as of ~~December 31~~ October 31 prior to the rate year to total wages in covered employment for the 12-month period ending June 30 prior to the computation date.

(2) The ratio at the top of each tax schedule in the tax table shown in 39-51-1218 represents the minimum fund level required for a specific tax schedule to be in effect.

(3) Employer rates are assigned in accord with the rates provided in each schedule for eligible~~, unrated,~~ and deficit employers, based upon their experience as defined in this section.

(4) For the calendar year 1990 and each year thereafter, any employer classified as ~~unrated~~ a new employer must be assigned a rate equal to the average rate of contributions paid by employers in the same major industrial classification for the calendar year preceding the computation date, plus an adjustment for the difference between the average tax rate assigned for the previous calendar year and the average rate in effect for the current calendar year. At no time may ~~an unrated~~ a new employer be assigned a rate lower than 1%. The computation of the average rate of contributions in a major industrial classification must exclude those employer accounts that are not eligible for the computation of an experience rating solely by reason of insufficient experience. The department shall develop the major industrial classifications for the state and shall annually determine the contribution rate for each classification."

Section 26. Section 39-51-1218, MCA, is amended to read:

Section 27. Section 39-51-3201, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-3201. Making false statement or representation or failing to disclose material fact in order to obtain or increase benefits — administrative penalty and remedy. (1) A person who makes a false statement or representation knowing it to be false or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact in order to obtain or increase any benefit or other payment under this chapter or under an employment security law of any other state or territory or the federal government, either for himself or for any other person, is:

~~(1)~~(a) disqualified for benefits thereafter for a period of not more than 52 weeks, beginning with the first compensable week following the date of such determination by the department, the length of time of the disqualification as herein described to be determined by the department in accordance with the severity of each case; and

~~(2)~~(b) required to repay to the department, either directly or as authorized by the department, by offset of future benefits to which he may be entitled, or by a combination of both such methods, a sum equal to the amount wrongfully received by him, plus ~~interest at the rate of 18% a year computed from the time the false statement or representation or the failure to disclose a material fact occurred, except that future benefits may not be used to offset the interest due.~~ the department may assess a penalty not to exceed 100% of the fraudulently obtained benefits, except that future benefits may not be used to offset the penalty due. However, he is not required to repay any amount wrongfully obtained more than 5 years prior to the date of the department's determination that he made false statements, willful nondisclosure, or misrepresentation.

(2) All money accruing from the penalty under subsection (1)(b) must be deposited in the federal special revenue account. Money deposited in that account may be appropriated to the department to be used to detect and collect unpaid taxes and overpayments of benefits to the extent that federal grant revenues are inadequate for these purposes. Money in the account not appropriated for these purposes must be transferred by the department to the unemployment insurance trust fund at the end of each fiscal year."

Section 28. Section 39-51-3202, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-3202. Making false statement or representation or failing to disclose material fact in order to obtain or increase benefits — criminal penalty. (1) A person who, in order to obtain or increase for personal gain or for any other person benefits under this chapter or under an employment security law of any other state or territory or the federal government, knowingly makes a false statement or representation or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact is guilty of a crime under 45-7-203, and the department may cause criminal proceedings to be initiated against the person.

(2) A person will be required to repay to the department an amount as determined by 39-51-3201~~(2)~~(1)(b).

(3) For purposes of this section, restitution awarded under this section must include a sum equal to the amount wrongfully received, plus ~~18% interest a year,~~ the department may assess a penalty not to exceed 100% of the amount wrongfully received. ~~notwithstanding the provisions of 25-9-205.~~ All money accruing from the penalty must be deposited in the federal special revenue account. Money deposited in that account may be appropriated to the department to be used to detect and collect unpaid taxes and overpayments of benefits to the extent that federal grant revenues are inadequate for these purposes. Money in the account not appropriated for these purposes must be transferred by the department to the unemployment insurance trust fund at the end of each fiscal year."

Section 29. Section 39-51-2107, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-2107. Services for remuneration to be performed during benefit year as condition for receiving benefits in second benefit year — amount required. An individual who received benefits during a benefit year must perform services for remuneration ~~after the beginning of that year~~ following the initial separation from employment in the previous benefit year as a condition for receiving benefits in a second benefit year. ~~The service may be in either covered or noncovered employment.~~ The service must constitute employment as defined in 39-51-203 and 39-51-204. However, the individual must have earned the lesser of three-thirteenths of his high quarter of his second benefit year or 6 times his weekly benefit amount of that same year."

Section 30. Section 39-51-2302, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-2302. Disqualification for leaving work without good cause. (1) An individual shall be disqualified for benefits if he has left work without good cause attributable to his employment.

(2) He may not be disqualified if the department finds that he left his employment because of personal illness or injury not associated with misconduct ~~or left his employment~~ upon the advice of a licensed and practicing physician and, after recovering from his illness or injury when recovery is certified by a licensed and practicing physician, he returned to his employer and offered his service and his regular or comparable suitable work was not available, if so found by the department, provided he is otherwise eligible.

(3) To requalify for benefits, an individual must perform services other than self-employment for which remuneration is received equal to or in excess of six times his weekly benefit amount subsequent to the week in which the act causing the disqualification occurred unless he has been in regular attendance at an educational institution accredited by the state of Montana for at least 3 consecutive months from the date of his enrollment."

Section 31. Repealer. Section 39-51-2308, MCA, is repealed.

Section 32. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 33. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 374

[HB 732]

AN ACT REQUIRING SECURED LOADS ON VEHICLES.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Securing of load — requirement. A person operating a loaded vehicle on a public highway for the purpose of transporting solid waste as defined in 75-10-203, except a commercial motor vehicle or a vehicle transporting unprocessed agricultural products, shall attach, cover, or otherwise secure the load sufficiently to prevent littering or creating an obstruction dangerous to the public traveling on the highway.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 8, part 3, and the provisions of Title 61, chapter 8, part 3, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 375

[HB 742]

AN ACT REVISING THE LAW REGARDING BOAT DEALERS; REQUIRING A DEALER TO HAVE A PRINCIPAL PLACE OF BUSINESS AND PROVIDING FOR SIGNING AND INSPECTION OF THE PREMISES; REQUIRING AN ANNUAL BOND FOR A BOAT DEALER; EXTENDING THE PERIOD FROM TIME OF PURCHASE TO TIME OF LICENSING A BOAT AND ALLOWING ISSUANCE OF A TEMPORARY BOAT STICKER; AMENDING SECTIONS 23-2-510, 23-2-511, AND 23-2-513, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 23-2-510, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-510. Transfer of interest. (1) Except as provided in subsection (3), upon a transfer of a certificate of ownership to a motorboat or sailboat 12 feet in length or longer registered as required under the provisions of this part, the person whose title or interest is to be transferred shall sign the certificate of ownership issued for the motorboat or sailboat in the appropriate space provided on the reverse side of the certificate, and the signature must be acknowledged before the county treasurer, a deputy county treasurer, or a notary public.

(2) Within ~~20~~ 30 calendar days after endorsement, the transferee shall make application for transfer of the certificate of ownership with the county treasurer of the county in which the transferee resides and also make application for registration of the motorboat or sailboat. The county treasurer shall forward the application to the department of justice, which shall file the application upon receipt. A certificate of ownership may not be issued by the department until any outstanding certificate is surrendered to the department or its loss is established to the department's reasonable satisfaction. The county treasurer shall collect a fee of $5 for each application for transfer of ownership, of which $3.50 must be forwarded to the department of justice for deposit in the general fund.

(3) A purchaser of a new or used motorboat or sailboat 12 feet in length or longer from a licensed dealer has a grace period of ~~20~~ 30 calendar days from the date of purchase to register the motorboat or sailboat, make application for a certificate of ownership, and obtain a decal indicating that the fee in lieu of property tax has been paid on the vessel for the current year. It is not a violation of this part or any other law for the purchaser to operate a newly acquired motorboat or sailboat 12 feet in length or longer without a certificate of ownership, certificate of registration, and decal during the ~~20-day~~ 30-day grace period. During this period the sticker provided for in subsection (4) must remain affixed to the motorboat or sailboat.

(4) Prior to the delivery of a motorboat or sailboat 12 feet in length or longer to the purchaser, the dealer shall issue and affix to a motorboat or sailboat constructed after October 31, 1972, a sticker as prescribed by the department of justice. The sticker must contain the name and address of the purchaser, the date of sale, the name and address of the dealer, and a description of the motorboat or sailboat, including its serial number. The dealer shall keep a copy of the sticker for his records and shall send a copy of the sticker to the department of justice.

(5) A purchaser of a new or used motorboat or sailboat who is unable to record a transfer of ownership with the county treasurer at the time he makes application for registration of the motorboat or sailboat because the certificate of ownership is lost, in the possession of third parties, or in the process of reissuance in this state or elsewhere may, upon making affidavit to that effect upon a form prescribed by the department of justice and upon the payment of the applicable fee in lieu of tax plus a fee of $2 to be collected by the county treasurer and remitted to the department of justice, obtain from the county treasurer of the county in which the boat is to be registered a temporary boat sticker of a size, color, and design as the department of justice may prescribe, to be validated by the county treasurer for a period of 60 days from the date of issuance. The purchaser, upon displaying the sticker conspicuously on the motorboat or sailboat, may operate the motorboat or sailboat during the period for which the boat sticker has been validated without displaying the numbers and license decal for the current year. The county treasurer may not sell, and a person may not purchase, more than one 60-day temporary boat sticker for any motorboat or sailboat, the ownership of which has not changed since the issuance of the previous 60-day boat sticker.

~~(5)~~(6) The provisions of subsection (2) do not apply in the event of the transfer of a motorboat or sailboat 12 feet in length or longer to a duly licensed dealer intending to resell the motorboat or sailboat and who operates it only for demonstration purposes, but every dealer, upon transferring his interest, shall deliver the certificate of ownership with an application for a new certificate executed by the new owner in accordance with the provisions of this part. The department of justice, upon receipt of the certificate of ownership and application for a new certificate containing notice of a security interest, if any, shall issue a new certificate of ownership, together with a statement of any conditional sales contract, mortgage, or other lien.

~~(6)~~(7) When the names and addresses of more than one owner who are members of the same immediate family are listed on the certificate of ownership, joint ownership with right of survivorship, and not as tenants in common, is presumed.

~~(7)~~(8) The provisions of 61-3-201(3) through (7) that apply to motor vehicles also apply to any certificate of ownership transferred under this section."

Section 2. Section 23-2-511, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-511. Operation of unnumbered motorboats prohibited — display of decals. (1) Every motorboat on the waters of this state, propelled by a motor or an engine of any description, must be properly numbered and display valid license decals. No person may operate or give permission for the operation of any motorboat on such waters unless the motorboat is numbered and displays valid license decals in accordance with this part, with applicable federal law, or with a federally approved numbering system of another state and unless:

(a) the certificate of number assigned to the motorboat is in full force and effect;

(b) the identifying number set forth in the certificate of number and the valid license decals are displayed on such motorboat; and

(c) a temporary permit has been obtained from the county in which the boat is being operated if that county requires a temporary permit for out-of-state motorboats, as provided in 7-16-2121.

(2) Upon transfer of ownership of a motorboat from a registered boat dealer or manufacturer, the transferred motorboat may be operated on the waters of this state for ~~20~~ 30 consecutive calendar days immediately following the transfer of ownership without displaying the numbers and license decal required by subsection (1) provided that when the motorboat is operated during those ~~20~~ 30 consecutive calendar days, a bill of sale or other evidence of transfer reciting the date of the transfer of ownership is retained in the motorboat and is exhibited to a warden or other officer upon request."

Section 3. Section 23-2-513, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-513. Dealer's identification number — premises — inspection — bond — judgment. (1) A dealer or manufacturer may apply directly to the department of justice for one identifying number and one or more certificates of number. A dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number shall be displayed on his boat while the boat is operating for a purpose related to the buying, selling, or exchanging of the boat by the dealer or manufacturer.

(2) The application for a dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number must include his name and business address. Each dealer or manufacturer will have one identifying number assigned to his business.

(3) An application for dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number and certificate of number must be accompanied by the following fees:

(a) for the identifying number, first certificate of number, and set of license decals, $5;

(b) for each additional certificate of number and set of license decals applied for in any application, $2.

(4) The department of justice shall issue certificates of number for the identifying numbers assigned to a dealer or manufacturer in the same manner as provided in 23-2-512(1) and (9), as amended, except that no boat may be described in the certificate and each certificate must state that the identifying number has been assigned to a dealer or manufacturer. A dealer's or manufacturer's certificate of number expires on December 31 of the year for which it is issued.

(5) A dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number shall be displayed in the same manner as provided in 23-2-512(9), as amended, except that the number may be temporarily attached. The last three letters shall be "DLR" for dealer and "MFR" for manufacturer. These letters shall be included, respectively, in dealer or manufacturer identification numbers only.

(6) No person other than a dealer or manufacturer or an employee of a dealer or manufacturer may display or use a dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number. A dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number may be displayed only on motorboats owned by the dealer or manufacturer.

(7) No dealer or manufacturer or employee of a dealer or manufacturer may use a dealer's or manufacturer's identifying number for any purpose other than the purpose described in subsection (1) of this section.

(8) A dealer shall maintain a principal place of business, coinciding with the business address listed on the application, where he maintains all business records and where he displays, sells, and services merchandise. The dealer shall display a sign at the place of business that clearly states the name of the business. The premises of the dealer's principal place of business must be inspected by an official of the department of justice to assure compliance with this section.

(9) In order to qualify for renewal of a boat dealer's license, the dealer shall certify to the department of justice upon application for renewal that he sold five or more boats during the previous license year. If five or more boats were not sold, an additional fee of $50 is required for renewal of the dealer's license.

(10) (a) The applicant for a boat dealer's license shall file with his application a bond of $5,000. The bond must be conditioned that the applicant shall conduct his business in accordance with the requirements of the law. All bonds must run to the state of Montana, must be approved by the department of justice and filed in its office, and must be renewed annually.

(b) A person who suffers loss or damage due to the unlawful conduct of a dealer licensed under this section shall obtain a judgment from a court of competent jurisdiction prior to collecting on the bond. The judgment must determine a specific loss or damage amount and conclude that the licensee's unlawful operation caused the loss or damage before payment on the bond is required."

Approved April 6, 1991.

[HB 749]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THE LAWS RELATING TO THE OPERATIONS OF THE HARD-ROCK MINING IMPACT BOARD; MODIFYING PROVISIONS REGARDING THE TRANSFER OF FUNDS FROM THE HARD-ROCK MINING IMPACT TRUST ACCOUNT TO COUNTIES; AMENDING SECTIONS 90-6-305 AND 90-6-331, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 90-6-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-305. Hard-rock mining impact board — general powers. (1) The board may:

(a) retain professional staff, including its administrative staff, and retain consultants~~,~~ and advisors notwithstanding the provisions of 2-15-121;

(b) adopt rules governing its proceedings, determinations, and administration of this part;

(c) award grants to local government units subject to 90-6-306;

(d) make payments to local government units from money paid to the hard-rock mining impact account as provided in 90-6-307;

(e) make determinations as provided in 90-6-307, 90-6-311, and 90-6-403(3); and

(f) accept grants and other funds to be used in carrying out this part.

(2) The provisions of the Montana Administrative Procedure Act apply to the proceedings and determinations of the board."

Section 2. Section 90-6-331, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-6-331. Fund transfer. (1) On July 1, 1990, and ~~on~~ prior to each ~~July~~ October 1 thereafter, all ~~funds remaining~~ money segregated by county in the hard-rock mining impact trust account established in 90-6-304(2) ~~after~~ as of ~~June 30~~ September 1 immediately preceding must be transferred to the county for which the funds have been held in deposit. The funds so transferred must be deposited in the county hard-rock mine trust reserve account established in 7-6-2225.

(2) The transfer of funds required by this section is a statutory appropriation pursuant to 17-7-502."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

CHAPTER NO. 377

[HB 881]

AN ACT REVISING THE LAWS RELATING TO CERTIFICATION OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIANS; AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS TO ADOPT RULES ESTABLISHING VARIOUS LEVELS OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL TECHNICIAN CERTIFICATION AND PRESCRIBING THE TRAINING AND CERTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS FOR EACH LEVEL, AS WELL AS THE TYPES OF EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES EACH MAY PERFORM; AMENDING SECTIONS 50-6-202, 50-6-203, AND 50-6-207, MCA; REPEALING SECTIONS 50-6-204 AND 50-6-205, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 2] gives the board of medical examiners authority to adopt rules specifying various certification levels for emergency medical technicians and requires the board to establish training, certification, and performance requirements for each level of certification. It is the intent of the legislature that the board define several certification levels for emergency medical technicians, which will differ in the amount of training required and in the acts allowed to be performed. It is also intended that the board specify the training needed by each level, the acts and procedures each level is allowed to perform, the standards that must be met to be certified and recertified at each level, and procedural requirements necessary to enforce and implement certification and training.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 50-6-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-6-202. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Emergency medical technician~~—basic~~" means ~~personnel of volunteer or nonvolunteer police, fire, rescue, ambulance, or emergency services~~ a person who ~~have~~ has been specially trained in emergency care in a training program approved by the state board of medical examiners and certified by ~~said~~ the board as having demonstrated a level of competence suitable to treat victims of injury or other emergent condition.

~~(2) "Emergency medical technician—advanced" means personnel of volunteer or nonvolunteer police, fire, rescue, ambulance, or emergency services who have been specially trained in an advanced emergency medical technician training program approved by the state board of medical examiners and certified by the board as having demonstrated an advanced level of competence suitable to treat victims of severe injury or other serious emergent condition.~~

~~(3)~~(2) "Board" means the board of medical examiners, department of commerce."

Section 2. Section 50-6-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-6-203. Rules. (1) The board, after consultation with the department of health and environmental sciences, the department of justice, and other appropriate departments, associations, and organizations, shall adopt rules of the board implementing this part, including but not limited to training and certification of ~~personnel,~~ emergency medical technicians and administration of drugs~~, and other acts as allowed herein~~.

(2) The board may, by rule, establish various levels of emergency medical technician certification and shall specify for each level the training requirements, acts allowed, recertification requirements, and any other requirements regarding the training, performance, or certification of that level of emergency medical technician that it considers necessary or desirable."

Section 3. Section 50-6-207, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-6-207. Construction. Nothing in this part shall be construed to detract from the powers granted to the department of health and environmental sciences to regulate ~~ambulance service as~~ emergency medical services provided for in part 3 of this chapter."

Section 4. Repealer. Sections 50-6-204 and 50-6-205, MCA, are repealed.

Section 5. Effective date. [Section 2] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 378

[HB 897]

AN ACT CONSOLIDATING STATE RECORDS MANAGEMENT IN THE OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE; REQUIRING THE DEPARTMENT OF ADMINISTRATION TO DEVELOP STANDARDS FOR COMPUTER AND TELECOMMUNICATIONS SYSTEMS;

AMENDING SECTIONS 2-6-203, 2-6-206, 2-6-211, 2-6-213, 2-6-302, 2-6-304, AND 2-15-1013, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-6-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-6-203. ~~Department of administration's~~ Secretary of state's powers and duties. (1) In order to insure the proper management and safeguarding of public records, the ~~department of administration~~ secretary of state shall undertake the following:

(a) establish guidelines for inventorying, cataloging, retaining, and transferring all public records of state agencies;

(b) review and analyze all state agency filing systems and procedures and approve filing system equipment requests;

(c) establish and operate the state records center, as authorized by appropriation, for the purpose of storing and servicing public records not retained in office space;

(d) gather and disseminate information on all phases of records management, including current practices, methods, procedures, and devices for the efficient and economical management of records;

(e) operate a central microfilm unit which will microfilm, on a cost recovery basis, all records approved for filming by the office of origin and the ~~department of administration~~ secretary of state; and

(f) approve microfilming projects and microfilm equipment purchases undertaken by all state agencies.

(2) Upon request, the ~~department~~ secretary of state shall assist and advise in the establishment of records management procedures in the legislative and judicial branches of state government and shall, as required by them, provide services similar to those available to the executive branch."

Section 2. Section 2-6-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-6-206. Protection of essential records. (1) In order to provide for the continuity and preservation of civil government, each elected and appointed officer of the executive branch shall designate certain public records as essential records needed for an emergency or for the reestablishment of normal operations after any such emergency. A list of such records shall be forwarded to the ~~department of administration~~ secretary of state. The list shall be reviewed from time to time by the elected or appointed officers to insure its accuracy. Any changes or revisions shall be forwarded to the ~~department~~ secretary of state.

(2) Each elected and appointed officer of state government shall insure that the security of essential records is accomplished by the most economical means possible. Protection of essential records may be by vaulting, planned or natural dispersal of copies, storage in the state archives, or any other method approved by the ~~department~~ secretary of state.

(3) Reproductions of essential records may be by photocopy, magnetic tape, microfilm, or other methods approved by the ~~department~~ secretary of state."

Section 3. Section 2-6-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-6-211. Transfer of public records. (1) All public records not required in the current operation of the office where they are made or kept and all records of each agency, commission, committee, or any other activity of the executive branch of state government which may be abolished or discontinued shall be, in accordance with approved records retention schedules, either transferred to the state records center or transferred to the custody of the state archives if such records are considered to have permanent administrative or historical value.

(2) When records are transferred to the state records center, the agency so doing loses none of its rights of control and access. The state records center is only a custodian of the agency records, and access will only be by agency approval. Agency records for which the state records center acts as custodian may not be subpoenaed from the state records center but must be subpoenaed from the agency to which the records belong. Fees may be charged to cover the cost of records storage and servicing.

(3) If an agency does not wish to transfer records as provided in an approved retention schedule, the agency shall, within 30 days, notify the ~~department of administration~~ secretary of state and request a change in the schedule."

Section 4. Section 2-6-213, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-6-213. Agency responsibilities and transfer schedules. Each executive branch agency of state government shall administer its records management function and shall:

(1) coordinate all aspects of the agency records management function;

(2) manage the inventorying of all public records within the agency for disposition, scheduling, and transfer action in accordance with procedures prescribed by the ~~department of administration~~ secretary of state and the state records committee;

(3) analyze records inventory data, examine and compare divisional or unit inventories for duplication of records, and recommend to the ~~department of administration~~ secretary of state and the state records committee minimal retentions for all copies of public records within the agency;

(4) approve all records disposal requests which are submitted by the agency to the state records committee; and

(5) review established records retention schedules to insure that they are complete and current."

Section 5. Section 2-6-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-6-302. Official records management — powers and duties. In order to insure the proper management and safeguarding of official records, the Montana historical society shall:

(1) establish and operate the state archives as authorized by appropriation for the purpose of storing and servicing official records transferred to the custody of the state archives;

(2) in cooperation with the ~~department of administration~~ secretary of state and the state records committee provided for in 2-15-1013 establish guidelines for the inventorying, cataloging, retention, and transfer of all official records;

(3) maintain and enforce restrictions on access to official records in the custody of the state archives in accordance with the provisions of this part;

(4) provide adequate housing and care of official records in the custody of the state archives to insure their proper preservation and use by the public;

(5) in accordance with the guidelines established pursuant to subsection (2), remove and destroy duplicate official records and official records of insignificant historical value from the records deposited in the state archives."

Section 6. Section 2-6-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-6-304. Outgoing officials — records management duties. (1) Within 2 years after the completion of the final term of office of a constitutionally designated and elected official of the executive branch of government, all of the official records not necessary to the current operation of that office shall be subject to storage, disposal, or transfer in accordance with the provisions of this part.

(2) All official records of a retiring constitutionally designated and elected official not necessary to the current operation of that office and considered worthy of preservation by the Montana historical society shall be transferred to the custody of the state archives within that 2-year period.

(3) An outgoing official, in consultation with staff members of the Montana historical society, shall review his official records and isolate any items of a purely personal nature. Such personal papers are not subject to this part, but they may be deposited with the official papers at the official's discretion.

(4) An outgoing official, in consultation with staff members of the Montana historical society, may restrict access to certain segments of his official records. No restrictions may be longer than the lifetime of the depositing official. Restricted access may be imposed only to protect the confidentiality of personal information contained in the records. Restricted access may not be imposed unless the demand of individual privacy clearly exceeds the merits of public disclosure.

(5) Any question concerning the transfer or other status of official records arising between the state archives and an elected official's office shall be decided by a ~~three-fourths~~ four-fifths vote of the members of the state records committee."

Section 7. Section 2-15-1013, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-15-1013. Records committee — composition and meetings. (1) There is a committee to be known as the state records committee composed of representatives of:

(a) the department of administration;

(b) the legislative auditor;

(c) the attorney general;

(d) the secretary of state; and

(e) the Montana historical society.

(2) The representatives are to be designated by the head of the respective agencies, and their appointments shall be submitted in writing to the ~~director of the department of administration~~ secretary of state.

(3) The committee shall meet at least quarterly.

(4) Committee members shall serve without additional salary but are entitled to reimbursement for travel expense incurred while engaged in committee activities as provided for in 2-18-501 through 2-18-503. Such expenses shall be paid from the appropriations made for operation of their respective agencies."

Section 8. Department of administration — powers and duties. (1) In order to ensure compatibility with the computer and telecommunications systems of state government, the department of administration shall develop standards for technological compatibility for state agencies for records management equipment or systems used to electronically capture, store, or retrieve public records through computerized, optical, or other electronic methods.

(2) The department of administration shall approve all acquisitions of executive agency records management equipment or systems used to electronically capture, store, or retrieve public records through computerized, optical, or other electronic methods to ensure compatibility with the standards developed under subsection (1).

(3) The department of administration is responsible for the management and operation of equipment, systems, facilities, or processes integral to the department's central computer and telecommunications systems.

Section 9. Codification instruction. [Section 8] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 2, chapter 6, part 2, and the provisions of Title 2, chapter 6, part 2, apply to [section 8].

Section 10. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 380

[HB 962]

AN ACT TO CLARIFY ELEMENTARY AND HIGH SCHOOL TUITION STATUTES; AMENDING SECTIONS 20-5-305 AND 20-5-312, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-5-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-5-305. Elementary tuition rates. (1) Whenever a pupil of an elementary district has been granted approval to attend a school outside of the district in which he resides, under the provisions of 20-5-301 or 20-5-302, the district of residence shall pay tuition to the elementary district where the pupil attends school. Except as provided in subsection (2), the basis of the rate of tuition shall be determined by the attended district. The rate of tuition must be determined on March 15 by:

(a) totaling the ~~actual~~ previous school fiscal year's expenditures from the district general fund, the debt service fund, and, if the pupil is a resident of another county, the retirement fund;

(b) dividing the amount determined in subsection (1)(a) by the ~~ANB~~ October 1 enrollment of the district for the ~~current~~ previous school fiscal year, as ~~determined under the provisions of 20-9-311~~ reported to the office of public instruction for purposes of accreditation pursuant to 20-7-102 and 20-9-344; and

(c) subtracting from the amount determined in subsection (1)(b) the per-ANB amount allowed by the foundation program schedules and the per-ANB amount ~~of guaranteed tax base aid as provided in 20-9-366 through 20-9-369~~ that is the ANB value per mill calculated pursuant to 20-9-366, multiplied by the number of permissive and retirement mills levied.

(2) The tuition for a full-time elementary special education pupil must be determined under rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction for the calculation of elementary tuition for full-time elementary special education pupils as designated in 20-9-311 for funding purposes."

Section 2. Section 20-5-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-5-312. Reporting, budgeting, and payment for high school tuition. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), ~~at the close of the school term of each school fiscal year~~ on March 15, the trustees of each high school district shall determine the rate of tuition for the current school fiscal year by:

(a) totaling the ~~actual~~ previous school fiscal year's expenditures from the district general fund, the debt service fund, and, if the pupil is a resident of another county, the retirement fund;

(b) dividing the amount determined in subsection (1)(a) above by the ~~ANB~~ October 1 enrollment of the district for the previous school fiscal year, as ~~determined under the provisions of 20-9-311~~ reported to the office of public instruction for purposes of accreditation pursuant to 20-7-102 and 20-9-344; and

(c) subtracting from the amount determined in subsection (1)(b) the per-ANB amount allowed by the foundation program schedules and the per-ANB amount ~~of guaranteed tax base aid as provided in 20-9-366 through 20-9-369~~ that is the ANB value per mill calculated pursuant to 20-9-366, multiplied by the number of permissive and retirement mills levied.

(2) The tuition for a full-time high school special education pupil must be determined under rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction for the calculation of tuition for full-time high school special education pupils as designated in 20-9-311 for funding purposes.

(3) Before July 15, the trustees shall report to the county superintendent of the county in which the district is located:

(a) the names, addresses, and resident districts of the pupils attending the schools of the district under an approved tuition agreement;

(b) the number of days of school attended by each pupil;

(c) the amount, if any, of each pupil's tuition payment that the trustees, in their discretion, have the authority to waive; and

(d) the rate of current school fiscal year tuition, as determined under the provisions of this section.

(4) When the county superintendent receives a tuition report from a district, he shall immediately send the reported information to the superintendent of each district in which the reported pupils reside.

(5) When the district superintendent receives a tuition report or reports for high school pupils residing in his district and attending an out-of-district high school under approved tuition agreements, he shall determine the total amount of tuition due the out-of-district high schools on the basis of the following per-pupil schedule: the rate of tuition, number of pupils attending under an approved tuition agreement, and other information provided by each high school district where resident district pupils have attended school.

(6) The total amount of the high school tuition, with consideration of any tuition waivers, for pupils attending a high school outside the county of residence must be financed by the county basic special tax for high schools as provided in 20-9-334. In December, the county superintendent shall cause the payment by county warrant of at least one-half of the high school tuition obligations established under this section out of the first money realized from the county basic special tax for high schools. The remaining obligations must be paid by June 15 of the school fiscal year. The payments must be made to the county treasurer of the county where each high school entitled to tuition is located. The county treasurer shall credit tuition receipts to the general fund of the applicable high school district, and the tuition receipts must be used in accordance with the provisions of 20-9-141.

(7) For pupils attending a high school outside their district of residence but within the county of residence, the total amount of the tuition, with consideration of any tuition waivers, must be paid during the ensuing school fiscal year. The trustees of the sending high school district shall include the tuition amount in the tuition fund of the preliminary and final budgets. This budgeted tuition amount is not subject to the budget adjustment provisions of 20-9-132. The county superintendent shall report the net tuition fund levy requirement for each high school district to the county commissioners on the second Monday of August, and a levy on the district must be made by the county commissioners in accordance with 20-9-142. The levy requirement must be calculated by subtracting from the total expenditure amount authorized in the final tuition fund budget the sum of the cash balance in the tuition fund at the end of the immediately preceding school fiscal year plus any other anticipated money that may be realized in the tuition fund. The trustees shall pay by warrants drawn on the tuition fund the tuition amounts owed to each district included in the county superintendent's notification. Payments must be made whenever there is a sufficient amount of cash available in the tuition fund but no later than the end of the school fiscal year for which the budget is adopted. However, if the trustees of either the sending or receiving high school district feel the transfer privilege provided by this subsection is being abused, they may appeal to the county superintendent of schools, who shall hold a hearing and either approve or disapprove the transfer."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 6, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 381

[SB 250]

AN ACT AMENDING THE LAWS RELATING TO COMMITMENT OF PERSONS WHO ARE DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED; PROVIDING AN ADMINISTRATIVE SCREENING PROCESS PRIOR TO COMMITMENT; CLARIFYING TERMINOLOGY; PROVIDING FOR A NEW DEFINITION OF SERIOUSLY DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED; AMENDING SECTIONS 53-20-102, 53-20-104, 53-20-106, 53-20-111, 53-20-112, 53-20-113, 53-20-116, 53-20-121, 53-20-125, 53-20-127, 53-20-128, 53-20-129, 53-20-131, 53-20-132, 53-20-141, 53-20-142, 53-20-145, 53-20-146, 53-20-148, 53-20-161, 53-20-162, 53-20-163, AND 53-20-164, MCA; REPEALING SECTIONS 53-20-115, 53-20-117, 53-20-120, 53-20-122, 53-20-123, AND 53-20-124, MCA; AND PROVIDING A TERMINATION DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

This bill provides a new definition of seriously developmentally disabled and establishes a new administrative process as part of the commitment of seriously developmentally disabled persons to residential facilities of the state of Montana. These changes are necessary to provide a commitment standard and process that will meet the new mission that has been developed for the state-operated residential facilities.

The new definition of seriously developmentally disabled incorporates behavioral language to cover endangered and dangerous persons as well as self-help deficit language to cover current residents. The incorporation into the commitment process of an administrative screening team ensures that persons who are to be placed in a residential facility are thoroughly considered for placement in community services before a commitment may be made.

Rules are necessary to implement the administrative screening process. Rules necessary for the screening process must provide for the membership, terms, and various responsibilities of the team and the standards and procedures used by the team in making placement determinations. New rules are to be adopted to implement the changes in the definition of professional person.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Residential facility screening team — referral by court — membership — rules. (1) When the district court considers a person for commitment to a residential facility under this part, the court shall refer the person to the residential facility screening team for screening to determine whether placement and habilitation in a residential facility are appropriate for the person.

(2) A court may not commit a person to a residential facility under 53-20-125 unless the residential facility screening team determines that placement and habilitation in a residential facility are appropriate for the person.

(3) The residential facility screening team may not determine that placement and habilitation in a residential facility are appropriate unless the residential facility screening team determines that the person is seriously developmentally disabled.

(4) The residential facility screening team shall provide the court with the social and placement information relied upon by the residential facility screening team in making its determination.

(5) For purposes of this part, the department of social and rehabilitation services and the department of institutions shall adopt rules providing for the membership and terms of the members of the residential facility screening team and setting forth the criteria and procedures to govern the determinations made by the residential facility screening team.

Section 2. Section 53-20-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-102. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" or "mental disabilities board of visitors" means the mental disabilities board of visitors created by 2-15-211.

(2) "Community-based facilities" or "community-based services" includes those services and facilities which are available for the evaluation, treatment, and habilitation of the developmentally disabled in a community setting, including but not limited to outpatient facilities, special education services, group homes, foster homes, day-care facilities, sheltered workshops, and other community-based services and facilities.

(3) "Court" means a district court of the state of Montana.

(4) "Developmentally disabled" means suffering from a disability attributable to mental retardation, cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, or any other neurologically handicapping condition closely related to mental retardation and requiring treatment similar to that required by mentally retarded individuals if the disability originated before the individual attained age 18, has continued or can be expected to continue indefinitely, and constitutes a substantial handicap of such individual.

(5) "Habilitation" means the process by which a person who is developmentally disabled is assisted to acquire and maintain those life skills which enable him to cope more effectively with the demands of his own person and environment and to raise the level of his physical, mental, and social efficiency. Habilitation includes but is not limited to formal, structured education and treatment.

(6) "Individual treatment planning team" means the interdisciplinary team of persons involved in and responsible for the habilitation of a person committed to a residential facility. The committed person is a member of the team.

~~(6)~~(7) "Next of kin" includes but need not be limited to the spouse, parents, adult children, and adult brothers and sisters of a person.

~~(7)~~(8) "Professional person" means:

(a) a licensed ~~medical doctor; or~~

~~(b) a person who has been~~ psychologist, licensed psychiatrist, or a person with a master's degree in psychology, who:

(i) has training and experience in psychometric testing and evaluation;

(ii) has experience in the field of developmental disabilities; and

(iii) is certified as provided for in 53-20-106 by the department of social and rehabilitation services and the department of institutions.

(9) "Qualified mental retardation professional" means a person who has at least 1 year of experience working directly with persons with mental retardation or other developmental disabilities and who is:

(a) a licensed physician or osteopath;

(b) a registered nurse; or

(c) a professional program staff person for the residential facility who the department of institutions determines meets the professional requirements necessary for federal certification of the facility.

~~(8)~~(10) "Resident" means a person admitted to a residential facility for a course of evaluation, treatment, or habilitation.

~~(9)~~(11) "Residential facility" or "facility" means ~~any residential hospital or hospital and school which exists for the purpose of evaluating, treating, and habilitating the developmentally disabled on an inpatient basis, including~~ the Montana developmental center and the Eastmont human services center. ~~The term does not include a group home, foster home, or halfway house. A correctional facility or a facility for the treatment of the mentally ill shall not be a "residential facility" within the meaning of this part.~~

The board shall inquire concerning all habilitation programs being implemented by the ~~institution~~ facility.

(5) The board shall inspect the file of each person admitted to a residential facility pursuant to this part to ~~insure~~ ensure that a habilitation plan exists and is being implemented. The board shall inquire concerning all use of restraints, isolation, or other extraordinary measures.

(6) The board may assist ~~any~~ a resident at a residential facility in resolving any grievance he may have concerning his admission or his course of treatment and habilitation in the facility.

(7) If the board believes that ~~any~~ a facility is failing to comply with the provisions of this part in regard to its physical facilities or its treatment of any resident, it shall report its findings at once to the ~~professional person in charge~~ superintendent of the facility and the director of the department of institutions. If appropriate, after waiting a reasonable time for a response from ~~such professional person~~ the superintendent or the director, the board may notify the parents or guardian of ~~any~~ the resident involved, the next of kin, if known, the responsible person appointed by the court for ~~any~~ the resident involved, and the district court ~~which~~ that has jurisdiction over the facility.

(8) The board shall report annually to the governor and shall report to each session of the legislature concerning the status of the residential facilities and habilitation programs ~~which~~ that it has inspected."

Section 4. Section 53-20-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-106. Certification of professional persons. (1) The department of social and rehabilitation services and the department of institutions shall certify professional persons for purposes of this part.

(2) The department of social and rehabilitation services and the department of institutions shall adopt rules governing the certification of professional persons. The rules must establish the appropriate combination of education, skills, and experience necessary for certification and set forth qualifications developed by reference to recognized national standards in the field of developmental disabilities~~, such as standards published by the accreditation council for services for mentally retarded and other developmentally disabled persons (ACMRDD), standards published in Title XIX of the Social Security Act, and other similar standards~~."

Section 5. Section 53-20-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-111. Limitation on who compelled to undertake treatment. ~~No~~ A person who has reached the age of majority ~~shall~~ may be compelled against his will to undertake a course of treatment and habilitation ~~solely because he~~ in a residential facility only if the person is seriously developmentally disabled~~, but only if such disability causes him to be unable to protect his life and health or to protect the life or safety of others~~."

Section 6. Section 53-20-112, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-112. Procedural rights. (1) ~~Any~~ A person subject to emergency admittance to a residential facility~~, to examination or evaluation by a professional person,~~ or to any hearing held pursuant to this part ~~shall have~~ has all the rights accorded to a person subject to involuntary commitment proceedings under the laws of this state relating to involuntary commitment of the seriously mentally ill, as provided in 53-21-115 through 53-21-118.

(2) In addition, the parents or guardian of ~~any~~ a person alleged to be seriously developmentally disabled and in need of developmental disabilities services have the right to:

(a) be present at any hearing held pursuant to this part;

(b) be represented by counsel in any hearing;

(c) offer evidence and cross-examine witnesses in any hearing; and

(d) have the respondent examined by a professional person of their choice when such professional person is reasonably available, unless the person so chosen is objected to by the respondent or by a responsible person appointed by the court."

Section 7. Section 53-20-113, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-113. Waiver of rights. (1) A person may waive his procedural rights provided that the waiver is knowingly and intentionally made.

The right to counsel in a hearing held pursuant to ~~53-20-123~~ 53-20-125 may not be waived. The right to habilitation provided for in this part may not be waived.

~~(2) In the case of a person who has been admitted to a residential facility for up to 30 days of evaluation and treatment or who, pursuant to the recommendation of a professional person, may be admitted to a residential facility for an extended course of habilitation, a waiver of rights can be knowingly and intentionally made only with the concurrence of the person's counsel, if any, his parents or guardian, and the responsible person appointed by the court, if any.~~

(2) A person admitted to a residential facility for evaluation and treatment or for an extended course of habilitation may knowingly and intentionally waive his rights only with the concurrence of the person's counsel, if any, or, if he has no counsel, his parents, guardian, or other responsible person appointed by the court.

(3) (a) In the case of a minor, the waiver of rights ~~can~~ may be knowingly and intentionally made:

(i) when the minor is under the age of 12, by the parents of the minor with the concurrence of the responsible person, if any;

(ii) when the minor is over the age of 12, by the minor and his parents;

(iii) when the minor is over the age of 12 and the minor and his parents do not agree, the minor ~~can~~ may make an effective waiver of his rights only with the advice of counsel.

(b) If the court believes that there may be a conflict of interest between a minor and his parents or guardian, the court may appoint a responsible person or guardian ad litem for the minor."

Section 8. Section 53-20-116, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-116. Professional person to attend hearing. In any hearing held pursuant to this part ~~which involves consideration of the recommendation and report of a professional person~~, a member of the residential facility screening team or the professional person who ~~made the recommendation and report shall~~ evaluated the person must be present at the hearing and subject to cross-examination."

Section 9. Section 53-20-121, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-121. Petition for involuntary treatment — contents of. (1) Any person who believes that there is a person who is seriously developmentally disabled and in need of ~~developmental disability services~~ placement in a residential facility may ~~report the situation to a professional person. If the professional person believes from the facts given to him that the person may be developmentally disabled and in need of developmental disability services, he shall contact the parents or guardian of the person alleged to be developmentally disabled or the person himself. If any of the persons so contacted refuse to cooperate with the professional person and~~

~~if the professional person believes from all the circumstances of the case that the person may be developmentally disabled and in need of developmental disability services, he shall~~ request the county attorney to file a petition alleging that ~~there is a~~ the person ~~in the county who~~ is seriously developmentally disabled and in need of ~~developmental disability services~~ placement in a residential facility.

(2) The petition ~~shall~~ must contain:

(a) the name and address of the ~~professional~~ person ~~and any other person~~ requesting the petition and their interest in the case;

(b) the name and address of the respondent;

(c) the name and address of the parents or guardian of the respondent and of any other person believed to be legally responsible for the care, support, and maintenance of the respondent;

(d) the name and address of the respondent's next of kin, to the extent known;

(e) the name and address of any person who the county attorney believes might be willing and able to be appointed responsible person; and

(f) a statement of the rights of the respondent and his parents or guardian ~~which shall~~ that must be in conspicuous print and identified by a suitable heading."

Section 10. Section 53-20-125, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-125. Outcome of ~~evaluation and treatment~~ screening — recommendation for treatment at residential facility — hearing. (1) If as a result of the ~~evaluation and treatment, either agreed to by the parents, guardian, or the person himself pursuant to 53-20-120 or ordered by the court, the professional person in charge of the case~~ screening required by [section 1] the residential facility screening team concludes that the person evaluated is seriously developmentally disabled and recommends ~~that~~ treatment and habilitation ~~be had~~ in a residential facility on an extended basis, the ~~professional person~~ team shall file ~~his~~ its written recommendation and report with the court and request that the court order the admission. The report shall include the factual basis for the recommendation and shall describe any tests or evaluation devices ~~which~~ that have been employed in evaluating the patient.

(2) If no responsible person has yet been appointed, the court may appoint one at this time. If there is no parent or guardian, the court shall appoint a responsible person.

(3) At the request of the respondent, his parents or guardian, or the responsible person, the court shall appoint counsel for the respondent. If the parents (or guardian) are indigent and if they request it, the court shall appoint counsel for the parents or guardian.

(4) Notice of the recommendation ~~shall~~ must be mailed or delivered to the respondent, his parents or guardian, the responsible person, next of kin, if known, and the attorney for the respondent, if any, and for the parents or guardian, if any.

~~(2)~~(5) The respondent, his parents or guardian, the responsible person, or the attorney for any party may request that a hearing be ~~had~~ held on the recommendation. If a hearing is requested, the court shall mail or deliver notice of the date, time, and place of the hearing to each of the parties listed at the beginning of this subsection. The hearing ~~shall~~ must be ~~to~~ held before the court without jury. The rules of civil procedure ~~shall~~ must apply.

~~(3)~~(6) If the court finds that the respondent is seriously developmentally disabled ~~and that available community-based services are not adequate to protect the life and physical safety of the person and others or to provide appropriate treatment and habilitation~~, it shall order the respondent admitted to a residential facility for an extended course of treatment and habilitation. If the court finds that the respondent is developmentally disabled but not seriously developmentally disabled, ~~in need of developmental disability services, and eligible for placement in community-based services and that available community-based services are adequate to protect the life and physical safety of the person and others and to provide appropriate treatment and habilitation,~~ it shall dismiss the petition and refer the respondent to the department of social and rehabilitation services to be considered for placement in community-based services according to 53-20-209. If the court finds that the respondent is not developmentally disabled or is not in need of developmental disability services, it shall dismiss the petition.

~~(4)~~(7) If none of the parties notified of the recommendation request a hearing, the court may issue an order authorizing the person to be admitted to the residential facility for an extended period of treatment and habilitation or the court may initiate its own inquiry as to whether the order should be granted. The court may refuse to authorize admission of a person to a residential facility for an extended period of treatment and habilitation if ~~such~~ admission is not in the best interests of the person."

Section 11. Section 53-20-127, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-127. Transfer to another residential facility — release to community-based alternative — hearing. (1) If, at any time during the period for which a person is admitted to a residential facility for an extended period of habilitation and treatment, the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ in charge of the resident decides that the person no longer requires placement in a residential facility and that there exist sufficient community-based alternatives to provide adequate treatment and habilitation for the resident and adequate protection of the life and physical safety of the resident and others or that it is in the best interests of the resident that he be transferred to another residential facility, then he may release the resident to ~~such~~ the community-based alternative or transfer the resident to the other residential facility no less than 15 days after sending notice of the proposed release or transfer to the resident, his parents or guardian, the attorney who most recently represented the resident, if any, the responsible person appointed by the court, if any, and the court ~~which~~ that ordered the admission. If the resident has been found unfit to proceed to trial, notice ~~shall~~ must be sent to the court ~~which~~ that found the resident unfit to proceed to trial and to the county attorney and the attorney who represented the resident at the time the resident was found unfit to proceed to trial.

(a) If any of the parties so notified objects to the release or transfer, they may petition the court for a hearing to determine whether the release or transfer should be allowed. The hearing ~~shall~~ must comply with the procedures set forth in 53-20-125. The court may on its own initiative inquire concerning the propriety of the release or transfer.

(b) Nothing in this subsection ~~shall prevent~~ (1) prevents the transfer of a resident to a hospital or other medical facility for necessary medical treatment or emergency transfer of a resident to a mental health facility provided ~~such~~ the emergency transfer complies with the statutory requirements for emergency detention of the mentally ill. Within 24 hours of an emergency medical or psychiatric transfer, notice ~~shall~~ must be given to the parents or guardian of the resident, the responsible person appointed by the court, if any, and the court.

(2) If ~~any~~ a person is admitted to a residential facility for an extended course of habilitation without a hearing and if subsequent to ~~such~~ admission one of the parties who could have requested a hearing learns that an alternative course of treatment is available ~~which~~ that is more suitable to the needs of the resident, the party may request the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ in charge of the resident to release the resident to the alternative if it is a community-based alternative or transfer the resident to the alternative if it is a residential alternative. Any ~~such~~ transfer or release ~~shall~~ must comply with the requirements of subsection (1) ~~of this section~~. If the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ in charge of the resident refuses to authorize the release or transfer, then the party may petition the court for a hearing to determine whether the present residential alternative should be continued. The hearing ~~shall~~ must comply with the procedures set forth in 53-20-125."

Section 12. Section 53-20-128, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-128. Extension of admission period — hearing. (1) If the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ in charge of the resident determines that the admission to the residential facility should continue beyond the period specified in the court order, he shall, at least 15 days before the end of the period set out in the court order, send written notice of his recommendation and request for renewal of the order to the court ~~which~~ that issued the order, the resident, his parents or guardian, the next of kin, if known, the attorney who most recently represented the resident, if any, and the responsible person appointed by the court, if any. The recommendation and request ~~shall~~ must be accompanied by a written report ~~which shall describe~~ describing the habilitation plan ~~which~~ that has been undertaken for the resident and the future habilitation plan ~~which~~ that is anticipated by the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~.

(2) If any person so notified requests a hearing, the court shall set a time and place for the hearing and shall mail or deliver notice to all of the persons informed of the recommendation. The hearing ~~shall~~ must be conducted in the manner set ~~out~~ forth in 53-20-125. If the court finds that the residential admission is still justified, it may order continuation of the admission to that residential facility or transfer of the resident to a different residential facility. If the court finds that the resident is still in need of developmental disabilities services but does not require ~~residential~~ treatment in a residential facility or if all parties are willing for the resident to participate in a community-based program of habilitation, it shall refer the respondent to the department of social and rehabilitation services to be considered for placement in community-based services according to 53-20-209. If the person is placed in community-based services or if the need for developmental disabilities services no longer exists, the court shall dismiss the petition. The court ~~shall~~ may not order continuation of admission to a residential facility ~~which~~ that does not have an individualized habilitation plan for the resident. In its order, the court shall make findings of fact on which its order is based. The court may on its own initiative inquire concerning the suitability of continuing an admission to a residential facility."

Section 13. Section 53-20-129, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-129. Emergency admission. ~~The parents, guardian, the person himself, or a~~ A professional person may admit a person believed to be seriously developmentally disabled to a residential facility on an emergency basis when necessary to protect the person or others from death or serious bodily harm. ~~If requested by the parents, guardian, or the person admitted on an emergency basis, a~~ A petition as set out in 53-20-121 and ~~53-20-122 shall~~ 53-20-125 must be filed on the next judicial day by the county attorney of the county where the person resides. If a petition is filed, the ~~professional person assigned by the court to conduct the examination and inquiry~~ residential facility screening team shall report back to the court on the ~~next~~ fifth judicial day following the filing of the petition. Once a petition is filed, continued detention in the residential facility ~~shall~~ may be allowed only on order of the court when necessary to protect the respondent or others from death or serious bodily harm. In no case ~~shall~~ may an emergency admission to a residential facility continue for longer than 30 days without subsequent proceedings before the court."

Section 14. Section 53-20-131, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-131. Placement in nonstate facility. ~~(1) If a person is admitted to a residential facility under the provisions of this part and is eligible for hospital care, treatment, or habilitation by an agency of the United States and if a certificate of notification from such agency showing that facilities are available and that the person is eligible for care or treatment therein is received, the court may order the person to be placed in the custody of the agency for hospitalization. The chief officer of any~~

~~hospital or residential facility operated by the agency and in which the person is admitted shall, with respect to the person, be vested with the same powers as the superintendent of the Montana developmental center with respect to detention, custody, transfer, and release of the person. Jurisdiction shall be retained in the appropriate courts of this state to inquire into the mental condition of persons so admitted and to determine the necessity for continuance of their admission.~~

~~(2)~~(1) Consistent with other provisions of this part, a person admitted to a residential facility under this part for a period of more than 30 days may be committed by the court to the custody of friends or next of kin residing outside the state or transferred to ~~a residential~~ an out-of-state facility ~~located outside the state~~ for the habilitation of persons who are developmentally disabled if the out-of-state facility agrees to receive the person. ~~No such~~ Such a commitment or transfer ~~shall~~ may not be for a longer period of time than is permitted within ~~the state~~ Montana. If the person is indigent, the expense of supporting him in an out-of-state facility and the expense of transportation ~~shall~~ must be borne by the state of Montana.

~~(3)~~(2) The transfer of persons admitted to a residential facility out of Montana under the provisions of this part or into Montana under the laws of another jurisdiction ~~shall~~ must be governed by the provisions of the Interstate Compact on Mental Health."

Section 15. Section 53-20-132, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-132. Court-ordered placement in community-based services prohibited. Nothing in this part may be construed as authorizing the placement of and delivery of services to developmentally disabled persons in community-based services by court order ~~except as provided in 53-20-123(4)~~. Placement of persons in community-based services is governed by 53-20-209."

Section 16. Section 53-20-141, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-141. Denial of legal rights. (1) Unless specifically stated in an order by the court, a person admitted to a residential facility for an extended course of habilitation ~~shall~~ does not forfeit any legal right or suffer any legal disability by reason of the provisions of this part, except insofar as it may be necessary to detain the person for habilitation, evaluation, or care.

(2) Whenever ~~any~~ a person is admitted to a residential facility for a period of more than 30 days for an extended course of habilitation, the court ordering the admission may make an order stating specifically any legal rights ~~which~~ that are denied the respondent and any legal disabilities ~~which~~ that are imposed on him. As part of its order, the court may appoint a person to act as conservator of the respondent's property. Any conservatorship created pursuant to this section ~~shall terminate~~ terminates upon the conclusion of the admission if not sooner terminated by the court. A conservatorship or guardianship extending beyond the period of the admission may not be created except according to the procedures set forth under Montana law for the appointment of conservators and guardians generally.

(3) ~~Any~~ A person who has been admitted to a residential facility pursuant to this part ~~shall~~ must, upon the termination of the admission, be automatically restored to all of his civil and legal rights ~~which~~ that may have been lost when he was admitted. However, this subsection ~~shall~~ does not affect any guardianship or conservatorship created independently of the admission proceedings according to the provisions of Montana law relating to the appointment of conservators and guardians generally. ~~Any~~ A person who leaves a residential facility following a period of evaluation and habilitation ~~shall~~ must be given a written statement setting forth the substance of this subsection.

~~(4) Any person admitted to a residential facility prior to July 1, 1975, shall enjoy all the rights and privileges of a person admitted after July 1, 1975.~~"

Section 17. Section 53-20-142, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-142. Rights while in a residential facility. Persons admitted to a residential facility for a period of habilitation shall enjoy the following rights:

(1) Residents ~~shall~~ have a right to dignity, privacy, and humane care.

(2) Residents ~~shall be~~ are entitled to send and receive sealed mail. Moreover, it ~~shall be~~ is the duty of the facility to foster the exercise of this right by furnishing the necessary materials and assistance.

(3) Residents ~~shall~~ must have the same rights and access to private telephone communication as patients at any public hospital except to the extent that ~~a~~ the individual treatment planning team or the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ responsible for formulation of a particular resident's habilitation plan writes an order imposing special restrictions and explains the reasons for ~~any such~~ the restrictions. The written order must be renewed monthly if any restrictions are to be continued.

(4) Residents ~~shall~~ have an unrestricted right to visitation except to the extent that ~~a~~ the individual treatment planning team or the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ responsible for formulation of a particular resident's habilitation plan writes an order imposing special restrictions and explains the reasons for ~~any such~~ the restrictions. The written order must be renewed monthly if ~~any~~ restrictions are to be continued.

(5) Residents ~~shall~~ have a right to receive suitable educational and habilitation services regardless of chronological age, degree of retardation, or accompanying disabilities or handicaps.

(6) Each resident ~~shall~~ must have an adequate allowance of neat, clean, suitably fitting, and seasonable clothing. Except when a particular kind of clothing is required because of a particular condition, residents ~~shall~~ must have the opportunity to select from various types of neat, clean, and seasonable clothing. ~~Such~~ The clothing ~~shall~~ must be considered the resident's throughout his stay in the ~~institution~~ facility. Clothing, both in amount and type, ~~shall~~ must make it possible for residents to go out of doors in inclement weather, to go for trips or visits appropriately dressed, and to make a normal appearance in the community. The facility shall make provision for the adequate and regular laundering of the residents' clothing.

(7) Each resident ~~shall have~~ has the right to keep and use his own personal possessions except insofar as such clothes or personal possessions may be determined by ~~a~~ the individual treatment planning team or the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ to be dangerous either to himself or to others.

(8) ~~A~~ Each resident has a right to a humane physical environment within the residential ~~facilities~~ facility. ~~These facilities shall~~ The facility must be designed to make a positive contribution to the efficient attainment of the habilitation goals of the resident. To accomplish this purpose:

(a) regular housekeeping and maintenance procedures ~~which~~ that will ensure that the facility is maintained in a safe, clean, and attractive condition ~~shall~~ must be developed and implemented;

(b) pursuant to an established routine maintenance and repair program, the physical plant ~~shall~~ must be kept in a continuous state of good repair and operation so as to ensure the health, comfort, safety, and well-being of the residents and so as not to impede in any manner the habilitation programs of the residents;

(c) the physical facilities must meet all fire and safety standards established by the state and locality. In addition, the facility ~~shall~~ must meet ~~such~~ the provisions of the life safety code of the national fire protection association ~~as~~ that are applicable to it.

(d) there must be special facilities for nonambulatory residents to ~~assure~~ ensure their safety and comfort, including special fittings on toilets and wheelchairs. Appropriate provision ~~shall~~ must be made to permit nonambulatory residents to communicate their needs to staff.

(9) Residents ~~shall~~ have a right to receive prompt and adequate medical treatment for any physical or mental ailments or injuries or physical disabilities and for the prevention of any illness or disability. Such medical treatment ~~shall~~ must meet standards of medical practice in the community. However, nothing in this subsection may be interpreted to impair other rights of ~~any~~ a resident in regard to involuntary commitment for mental illness, use of psychotropic medication, use of hazardous, aversive, or experimental procedures, or the refusal of such treatment.

(10) Corporal punishment ~~shall~~ is not ~~be~~ permitted.

(11) The opportunity for religious worship ~~shall~~ must be accorded to each resident who desires such worship. Provisions for religious worship ~~shall~~ must be made available to all residents on a nondiscriminatory basis. ~~No~~ An individual ~~shall~~ may not be compelled to engage in any religious activities.

(12) Residents ~~shall~~ have a right to a nourishing, well-balanced diet. The diet for residents ~~shall~~ must provide at a minimum the recommended daily dietary allowance as developed by the national academy of sciences. Provisions ~~shall~~ must be made for special therapeutic diets and for substitutes at the request of the resident, his parents, guardian, or next of kin, or the responsible person appointed by the court in accordance with the religious requirements of any resident's faith. Denial of a nutritionally adequate diet ~~shall~~ may not be used as punishment.

(13) Residents ~~shall~~ have a right to regular physical exercise several times a week. It ~~shall be~~ is the duty of the facility to provide both indoor and outdoor facilities and equipment for such exercise. Residents ~~shall~~ have a right to be outdoors daily in the absence of contrary medical considerations.

(14) Residents ~~shall~~ have a right, under appropriate supervision, to suitable opportunities for the interaction with members of the opposite sex except where ~~a~~ the individual treatment planning team or the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ responsible for the formulation of a particular resident's habilitation plan writes an order to the contrary and explains the reasons ~~therefor~~ for the order. The order must be renewed monthly if the restriction is to be continued."

Section 18. Section 53-20-145, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-145. Right to be free from unnecessary or excessive medication. Residents have a right to be free from unnecessary or excessive medication. ~~No medication shall~~ Medication may not be administered unless at the written order of a physician. The ~~professional person in charge of the facility~~ individual treatment planning team and the attending physician ~~shall be~~ are responsible for all medication given or administered to a resident. The use of medication ~~shall~~ may not exceed standards of use that are advocated by the United States food and drug administration. Notation of each individual's medication ~~shall~~ must be kept in his medical records. A pharmacist or a registered nurse shall review monthly the record of each resident on medication for potential adverse reactions, allergies, interactions, contraindications, rationality, and laboratory test modifications and shall advise the physician of any problems. Medications ~~shall~~ must be reviewed quarterly by the attending or staff physician. At least monthly, an attending physician shall review the drug regimen of each patient on psychotropic medication. All prescriptions ~~shall~~ must be written with a termination date that may not exceed 90 days. Medication for newly admitted residents ~~shall~~ must be reviewed and reordered as necessary upon admission and then every 30 days for the first 90 days. Medications ~~shall~~ may not be used as punishment, for the convenience of staff, as a substitute for a habilitation program, or in quantities that interfere with the resident's treatment program. Nothing in this section may be interpreted to relieve ~~any~~ a physician or other professional or medical staff person from any obligation to adequately monitor the medication of ~~any~~ a resident, with due consideration to the nature of the medication, the purpose for which it is given, and the condition of the resident."

Section 19. Section 53-20-146, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-146. Right not to be subjected to certain treatment procedures. (1) Residents of a residential facility ~~shall~~ have a right not to be subjected to any unusual or hazardous treatment procedures without the express and informed consent of the resident, if the resident is able to give ~~such~~ consent, and of his parents or guardian or the responsible person appointed by the court after opportunities for consultation with independent specialists and legal counsel. Such proposed procedures ~~shall~~ must first have been reviewed and approved by the mental disabilities board of visitors before ~~such~~ consent ~~shall be~~ is sought.

(2) Physical restraint ~~shall~~ may be employed only when absolutely necessary to protect the resident from injury to himself or to prevent injury to others. Mechanical supports used to achieve proper body position and balance ~~which~~ that are ordered by a physician are not considered a physical restraint. Restraint ~~shall~~ may not be employed as punishment, for the convenience of staff, or as a substitute for a habilitation program. Restraint ~~shall~~ may be applied only if alternative techniques have failed and only if ~~such~~ the restraint imposes the least possible restriction consistent with its purpose. ~~Only a professional person may authorize the use~~ Use of restraints may be authorized by a physician, professional person, or qualified mental retardation professional. Orders for restraints ~~by a professional person shall~~ must be in writing and ~~shall~~ may not be in force for longer than 12 hours. Whenever physical restraint is ordered, suitable provision ~~shall~~ must be made for the comfort and physical needs of the person restrained.

(3) Seclusion, defined as the placement of a resident alone in a locked room for nontherapeutic purposes, ~~shall~~ may not be employed. Legitimate "time out" procedures may be utilized under close and direct professional supervision as a technique in behavior-shaping programs.

(4) Behavior modification programs involving the use of noxious or aversive stimuli ~~shall~~ must be reviewed and approved by the mental disabilities board of visitors and ~~shall~~ may be conducted only with the express and informed consent of the affected resident, if the resident is able to give ~~such~~ consent, and of his parents or guardian or the responsible person appointed by the court after opportunities for consultation with independent specialists and with legal counsel. Such behavior modification programs ~~shall~~ may be conducted only under the supervision of and in the presence of a qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ who has had proper training in such techniques.

(5) ~~No~~ A resident ~~shall~~ may not be subjected to a behavior modification program ~~which~~ that attempts to extinguish socially appropriate behavior or to develop new behavior patterns when such behavior modifications serve only institutional convenience.

(6) Electric shock devices ~~shall be~~ are considered a research technique for the purpose of this part. Such devices ~~shall~~ may be used only in extraordinary circumstances to prevent self-mutilation leading to repeated and possibly permanent physical damage to the resident and only after alternative techniques have failed. The use of such devices ~~shall be~~ is subject to the conditions prescribed by this part for experimental research generally and ~~shall~~ may be used only under the direct and specific order of ~~the professional person in charge~~ a physician and the superintendent of the residential facility."

Section 20. Section 53-20-148, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-148. Right to habilitation. (1) Persons admitted to residential facilities shall have a right to habilitation, including medical treatment, education, and care suited to their needs, regardless of age, degree of retardation, or handicapping condition. Each resident has a right to a habilitation program ~~which~~ that will maximize his human abilities and enhance his ability to cope with his environment. Every residential facility shall recognize that each resident, regardless of ability or status, is entitled to develop and realize his fullest potential. The facility shall implement the principle of normalization so that each resident may live as normally as possible.

(2) Residents ~~shall~~ have a right to the least restrictive conditions necessary to achieve the purposes of habilitation. To this end, the facility shall make every attempt to move residents from:

(a) more to less structured living;

(b) larger to smaller facilities;

(c) larger to smaller living units;

(d) group to individual ~~residence~~ residences;

(e) segregated from the community to integrated into the community living;

(f) dependent to independent living.

(3) Within 30 days of his admission to a residential facility, each resident ~~shall~~ must have an evaluation by appropriate specialists for programming purposes.

(4) Each resident ~~shall~~ must have an individualized habilitation plan formulated by ~~the facility~~ an individual treatment planning team. This plan ~~shall~~ must be ~~developed by appropriate professional persons and~~ implemented as soon as possible, but no later than 30 days after the resident's admission to the facility. An interim program of habilitation, based on the preadmission evaluation conducted pursuant to this part, ~~shall~~ must commence promptly upon the resident's admission. Each individualized habilitation plan ~~shall~~ must contain:

(a) a statement of the nature of the specific limitations and the needs of the resident;

(b) a description of intermediate and long-range habilitation goals with a projected timetable for their attainment;

(c) a statement of and an explanation for the plan of habilitation for achieving these intermediate and long-range goals;

(d) a statement of the least restrictive setting for habilitation necessary to achieve the habilitation goals of the resident;

(e) a specification of the ~~professional persons~~ professionals and other staff members who are responsible for the particular resident's attaining these habilitation goals;

(f) criteria for release to less restrictive settings for habilitation, based on the resident's needs, including criteria for discharge and a projected date for discharge.

(5) As part of his habilitation plan, each resident ~~shall~~ must have an individualized postinstitutionalization plan that includes an identification of services needed to make a satisfactory community placement possible. This plan ~~shall~~ must be developed by ~~a professional person who~~ the individual treatment planning team that shall begin preparation of ~~such~~ the plan upon the resident's admission to the ~~institution~~ facility and shall complete ~~such~~ the plan as soon as practicable. The parents or guardian or next of kin of the resident, the responsible person appointed by the court, if any, and the resident, if able to give informed consent, ~~shall~~ must be consulted in the development of ~~such~~ the plan and ~~shall~~ must be informed of the content of ~~such~~ the plan.

(6) In the interests of continuity of care, one qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ shall whenever possible be responsible for supervising the implementation of the habilitation plan, integrating the various aspects of the habilitation program, and recording the resident's progress as measured by objective indicators. ~~This~~ The qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ shall also be responsible for ensuring that the resident is released when appropriate to a less restrictive habilitation setting.

(7) The habilitation plan ~~shall~~ must be reviewed monthly by the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ responsible for supervising the implementation of the plan and ~~shall~~ must be modified if necessary. In addition, 6 months after admission and at least annually thereafter, each resident ~~shall~~ must receive a comprehensive psychological, social, habilitative, and medical diagnosis and evaluation and his habilitation plan ~~shall~~ must be reviewed ~~by an interdisciplinary team of no less than two professional persons and such resident care workers as are directly involved in his habilitation and care~~ and revised accordingly by the individual treatment planning team. A habilitation plan ~~shall~~ must be reviewed monthly.

(8) Each resident placed in the community ~~shall~~ must receive transitional habilitation assistance.

(9) The ~~professional person in charge~~ superintendent of the residential facility, or his designee, shall report in writing to the parents or guardian of the resident or the responsible person at least every 6 months on the resident's habilitation and medical condition. ~~Such~~ The report ~~shall~~ must also state any appropriate habilitation program ~~which~~ that has not been afforded to the resident because of inadequate habilitation resources.

(10) ~~The~~ Each resident, the parents or guardian of each resident, ~~or~~ and the responsible person appointed by the court ~~shall~~ must promptly upon the resident's admission receive a written copy of and be orally informed of all the above standards for adequate habilitation~~. Each resident, if the resident is able to comprehend, shall promptly upon his admission be orally informed in clear language of the above standards and, where appropriate, be provided with a written copy. In addition, the parents, guardian, responsible person, and where able to comprehend, the resident shall receive such,~~ the rights accorded by 53-20-142, and other information concerning the care and habilitation of the resident ~~as~~ that may be available to assist them in understanding the situation of the resident and the rights of the resident in the ~~institution~~ facility."

Section 21. Section 53-20-161, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-161. Maintenance of records. (1) Complete records for each resident ~~shall~~ must be maintained and ~~shall~~ must be readily available to ~~professional~~ persons~~, to the resident-care workers~~ who are directly involved with the particular resident~~,~~ and to the mental disabilities board of visitors. All information contained in a resident's records ~~shall~~ must be considered privileged and confidential. The parents or guardian, the responsible person appointed by the court, and any person properly authorized in writing by the resident, if ~~such~~ the resident is capable of giving informed consent, or by his parents or guardian or the responsible person ~~shall~~ must be permitted access to the resident's records. ~~No information~~ Information may not be released from the records of a resident or former resident of the residential facility unless the release of ~~such~~ the information has been properly authorized in writing by:

(a) the court;

(b) the resident or former resident if he is over the age of majority and is capable of giving informed consent;

(c) the parents or guardian in charge of a resident under the age of 12;

(d) the parents or guardian in charge of a resident over the age of 12 but under the age of majority and the resident if the resident is capable of giving informed consent;

(e) the guardian of a resident over the age of majority who is incapable of giving informed consent;

(f) the superintendent of the residential facility or his designee as custodian of a resident over the age of majority who is incapable of giving informed consent and for whom no legal guardian has been appointed;

(g) the superintendent of the residential facility or his designee as custodian of a resident under the age of majority for whom there is no parent or legal guardian; or

(h) the superintendent of the residential facility or his designee as custodian of a resident of that facility whenever release is required by federal or state law or department of social and rehabilitation services rules.

(2) Information may not be released by a superintendent or his designee as set forth in subsection (1)(f), (1)(g), or (1)(h) less than 15 days after sending notice of the proposed release of information to the resident, his parents or guardian, the attorney who most recently represented the resident, if any, the responsible person appointed by the court, if any, and the court ~~which~~ that ordered the admission. If any of the parties so notified objects to the release of information, they may petition the court for a hearing to determine whether the release of information should be allowed. ~~No information~~ Information may not be released pursuant to subsection (1)(f), (1)(g), or (1)(h) unless it is released to further some legitimate need of the resident or to accomplish a legitimate purpose of the ~~institution~~ facility ~~which~~ that is not inconsistent with the needs and rights of the resident. ~~No information~~ Information may not be released pursuant to these subsections except in accordance with written policies consistent with the requirements of this part adopted by the ~~institution~~ facility. Persons receiving notice of a proposed release of information shall also receive a copy of the written policy of the ~~institution~~ facility governing release of information.

(3) These records ~~shall~~ must include:

(a) identification data, including the resident's legal status;

(b) the resident's history, including but not limited to:

(i) family data, educational background, and employment record;

(ii) prior medical history, both physical and mental, including prior institutionalization;

(c) the resident's grievances, if any;

(d) an inventory of the resident's life skills, including mode of communication;

(e) a record of each physical examination ~~which~~ that describes the results of the examination;

(f) a copy of the individual habilitation plan and any modifications thereto and an appropriate summary ~~which~~ that will guide and assist the resident care workers in implementing the resident's program;

(g) the findings made in monthly reviews of the habilitation plan, which findings ~~shall~~ must include an analysis of the successes and failures of the habilitation program and ~~shall~~ direct whatever modifications are necessary;

(h) a copy of the postinstitutionalization plan that includes a statement of services needed in the community and any modifications thereto and a summary of the steps that have been taken to implement that plan;

(i) a medication history and status;

(j) a summary of each significant contact by a professional person with a resident;

(k) a summary of the resident's response to his habilitation plan, prepared by a qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ involved in the resident's habilitation and recorded at least monthly. Wherever possible, such response ~~shall~~ must be scientifically documented.

(l) a monthly summary of the extent and nature of the resident's work activities and the effect of ~~such~~ the activity upon the resident's progress ~~along~~ in the habilitation plan;

(m) a signed order by a qualified mental retardation professional, professional person, or physician for any physical restraints;

(n) a description of any extraordinary incident or accident in the facility involving the resident, to be entered by a staff member noting personal knowledge of the incident or accident or other source of information, including any reports of investigations of resident's mistreatment;

(o) a summary of family visits and contacts;

(p) a summary of attendance and leaves from the facility;

(q) a record of any seizures, illnesses, injuries, and treatments thereof and immunizations."

Section 22. Section 53-20-162, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-162. Training for resident care workers. All resident care workers who have not had prior clinical experience in a residential facility for habilitation of the developmentally disabled ~~shall have~~ must be given suitable orientation training. Staff members on all levels ~~shall have~~ must be given suitable, regularly scheduled in-service training. Each resident care worker shall ~~be under the direct professional supervision of a professional person~~ receive supervision that emphasizes the protection of residents and their rights."

Section 23. Section 53-20-163, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-163. Abuse of residents prohibited. (1) Every residential facility shall prohibit mistreatment, neglect, or abuse in any form of any resident. Alleged violations ~~shall~~ must be reported immediately to the ~~professional person in charge~~ superintendent of the facility, and there ~~shall~~ must be a written record that:

(a) each alleged violation has been thoroughly investigated and findings stated;

(b) the results of ~~such~~ the preliminary investigation are reported to the ~~professional person in charge~~ superintendent of the facility within 24 hours of the report of the incident.

(2) ~~Such~~ The reports ~~shall~~ must also be made to the mental disabilities board of visitors monthly ~~and to the developmental disabilities advisory council at its next scheduled public meeting~~. Each facility shall cause a written statement of this policy to be posted in each cottage and building and circulated to all staff members."

Section 24. Section 53-20-164, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-20-164. Resident labor. The following rules ~~shall~~ govern resident labor:

(1) ~~No~~ A resident ~~shall~~ may not be required to perform labor ~~which~~ that involves the operation and maintenance of the facility or for which the facility is under contract with an outside organization. Privileges or release from the facility ~~shall~~ may not be conditioned upon the performance of labor covered by this provision. Residents may voluntarily engage in such labor if the labor is compensated in accordance with the minimum wage laws of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C.~~, sec.~~ 206, as amended.

(2) ~~No~~ A resident ~~shall~~ may not be involved in the care (feeding, clothing, bathing), training, or supervision of other residents unless he:

(a) has volunteered;

(b) has been specifically trained in the necessary skills;

(c) has the humane judgment required for such activities;

(d) is adequately supervised; and

(e) is reimbursed in accordance with the minimum wage laws of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C.~~, sec.~~ 206, as amended.

(3) Residents may be required to perform vocational training tasks ~~which~~ that do not involve the operation and maintenance of the facility, subject to a presumption that an assignment of longer than 3 months to any task is not a training task, provided the specific task or any change in task assignment is:

(a) an integrated part of the resident's habilitation plan and approved as a habilitation activity by ~~a~~ the qualified mental retardation professional ~~person~~ and the individual treatment planning team responsible for supervising the resident's habilitation; and

(b) supervised by a staff member to oversee the habilitation aspects of the activity.

(4) Residents may voluntarily engage in habilitative labor at nonprogram hours for which the facility would otherwise have to pay an employee, provided the specific labor or any change in labor is:

(a) an integrated part of the resident's habilitation plan and approved as a habilitation activity by ~~a~~ the qualified mental retardation professional

~~person~~ and the individual treatment planning team responsible for supervising the resident's habilitation;

(b) supervised by a staff member to oversee the habilitation aspects of the activity; and

(c) compensated in accordance with the minimum wage laws of the Fair Labor Standards Act, 29 U.S.C.~~, sec.~~ 206, as amended.

(5) If ~~any~~ a resident performs habilitative labor ~~which~~ that involves the operation and maintenance of a facility but due to physical or mental disability is unable to perform the labor as efficiently as a person not so physically or mentally disabled, then ~~such~~ the resident may be compensated at a rate ~~which~~ that bears the same approximate relation to the statutory minimum wage as his ability to perform that particular job bears to the ability of a person not so afflicted.

(6) Residents may be required to perform tasks of a personal housekeeping nature, such as the making of one's own bed.

(7) Deductions or payments for care and other charges ~~shall~~ may not deprive a resident of a reasonable amount of the compensation received pursuant to this section for personal and incidental purchases and expenses.

(8) Staffing ~~shall~~ must be sufficient so that the facility is not dependent upon the use of residents or volunteers for the care, maintenance, or habilitation of other residents or for income-producing services. The facility shall formulate a written policy to protect the residents from exploitation when they are engaged in productive work."

Section 25. Repealer. Sections 53-20-115, 53-20-117, 53-20-120, 53-20-122, 53-20-123, and 53-20-124, MCA, are repealed.

Section 26. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 53, chapter 20, part 1, and the provisions of Title 53, chapter 20, part 1, apply to [section 1].

Section 27. Termination. The amendment to the definition of "seriously developmentally disabled" in 53-20-102(15) terminates September 30, 1995.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 382

[SB 308]

AN ACT TO ELIMINATE ADVANCED AGE FROM THE DEFINITION OF "INCAPACITATED PERSON" FOR PURPOSES OF THE LAW RELATING TO GUARDIANSHIP AND CONSERVATORSHIP; AMEND-

ING SECTION 72-5-101, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 72-5-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"72-5-101. Definitions. Unless otherwise apparent from the context, in this code the following definitions apply:

(1) "Incapacitated person" means any person who is impaired by reason of mental illness, mental deficiency, physical illness or disability, ~~advanced age,~~ chronic use of drugs, chronic intoxication, or other cause (except minority) to the extent that he lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to make or communicate responsible decisions concerning his person or which cause has so impaired the person's judgment that he is incapable of realizing and making a rational decision with respect to his need for treatment.

(2) "Protective proceeding" means a proceeding under the provisions of 72-5-409 to determine that a person cannot effectively manage or apply his estate to necessary ends, either because he lacks the ability or is otherwise inconvenienced or because he is a minor, and to secure administration of his estate by a conservator or other appropriate relief.

(3) "Protected person" means a minor or other person for whom a conservator has been appointed or other protective order has been made.

(4) "Ward" means a person for whom a guardian has been appointed. A "minor ward" is a minor for whom a guardian has been appointed solely because of minority."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 8, 1991.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-1-314, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-1-314. Dealer. (1) "Dealer" means ~~any~~:

(a) a person, firm, association, or corporation which, for commission or profit, engages in whole or in part in the business of buying, selling, exchanging, or acting as a broker of either new or used motor vehicles, or both, and who qualifies for issuance of a dealer's license under 61-4-101 through 61-4-105*; or*

(b) an owner of real property who allows more than three new or used motor vehicles not titled in the property owner's or the seller's name to be offered for sale on the property during 1 calendar year unless the property is leased to a motor vehicle dealer licensed under 61-4-101 and the vehicles offered for sale are bona fide units of the licensed dealer's inventory.

(2) The term "dealer" does not include the following:

(a) receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by or acting under a judgment or order of any court of competent jurisdiction;

(b) employees of ~~such~~ the persons included in subsection (2)(a) when engaged in the specific performance of their duties as ~~such~~ employees; or

(c) public officers while performing or in the operation of their duties.

(3) A dealer dealing in used motor vehicles only shall purchase a Montana store license."

Section 2. Section 61-4-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-101. Application for dealer's license or wholesaler's license. (1) (a) ~~Every~~ A verified application must be filed, by mail or otherwise, in the office of the department by each person, firm, corporation, or association ~~which~~ that, for commission or profit, engages in*:*

(i) the business of buying, selling, exchanging, ~~offering,~~ taking for consignment, ~~soliciting, advertising the sale of,~~ or acting as a broker of new motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, used motor vehicles, trailers (except trailers having an unloaded weight of less than 500 pounds), semitrailers, or special mobile equipment as defined in 61-1-104 ~~shall file, by mail or otherwise, in the office of the department a verified application~~ for licensure as a dealer~~, on a blank to be furnished by the department for that purpose and containing the information required;~~ or

(ii) business as a wholesaler as defined in [section 9] in order to be licensed as a wholesaler.

(b) The sale of more than three motor vehicles or the offering for sale of more than three motor vehicles, if the motor vehicles are not titled in the seller's name, in any 1 calendar year is prima facie evidence that a person is engaged in the business of dealing motor vehicles. Licensed wholesalers do not have the privilege of the use of dealer license plates as provided in subsection (2)(b) but are authorized to display and use demonstrator plates under the provisions of 61-4-102(2)(a)(ii). ~~The~~

(c) Each license application and all of the information contained in it must be verified by the Montana highway patrol or an authorized representative of the department on a form to be furnished by the department for that purpose and must contain the information required. Each application must be accompanied by the license fee specified in 61-4-102. A dealer's or wholesaler's license must be renewed and paid for annually, and an application for relicensure must be filed not later than January 1 of each year. If an application for renewal of a license has been received by the department prior to the expiration of the license, the ~~dealer~~ licensee may operate his business and display dealer or demonstrator plates under the expired license between January 1 and February 15 following expiration.

(2) To qualify for licensure and the issuance and use of "D", "UD", "RV", "DTR", or "MCD" plates as ~~hereinafter~~ provided in this subsection, the applicant must furnish the following information and qualify under the following provisions:

(a) To qualify as a new motor vehicle dealer and for the use of "D" plates, the applicant must:

(i) state the name under which the business is to be conducted and the location of the premises (street address, city, county, and state) where records are kept, sales are made, and stock of motor vehicles is displayed;

(ii) state the name and address of all owners or persons having an interest in the business, provided that in the case of a corporation, the names and addresses of the president and secretary are sufficient;

(iii) state the name and make of all motor vehicles handled and the name and address of the manufacturer, importer, or distributor with whom the applicant has a written new motor vehicle franchise or sales agreement;

(iv) execute a certificate to the effect that the applicant has a permanent building for the display and sale of new motor vehicles at the location of the premises where sales are conducted;

(v) execute a certificate to the effect that the applicant has a bona fide service department for the repair, service, and maintenance of motor vehicles; and

(vi) execute a certificate to the effect that the applicant is a bona fide dealer in new motor vehicles and that he is recognized by a manufacturer, importer, or distributor as a dealer in new motor vehicles.

(b) To qualify as a used motor vehicle dealer and for the use of "UD" plates*;* ~~or~~ as a recreational vehicle~~,~~ dealer and for the use of "RV" plates; as a trailer, semitrailer, or special mobile equipment dealer and for the use of "DTR" plates*;* ~~or~~ as a motorcycle or quadricycle dealer and for the use of "MCD" plates~~,~~; or as a wholesaler and for the use of demonstrator plates, the applicant must, in addition to the matters set forth in subsections (i) and (ii) of subsection (2)(a) above, provide:

(i) a statement that the*:*

(A) applicant has ~~a building or lot and a sign readable at a minimum distance of 150 feet indicating the firm name as the principal place of business and that vehicles are offered for sale; and~~ an established place of business that includes a lot or lots upon which motor vehicles may be displayed and a permanent nonresidential building on or contiguous to the lot or lots where records are kept and sales are made; or

(B) wholesaler applicant has an established place of business that includes a permanent nonresidential building or office where records are kept in order that those records may be inspected;

(ii) a certificate to the effect that the applicant is a bona fide dealer or wholesaler in used motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, special mobile equipment, motorcycles, or quadricycles. An applicant for a recreational vehicle dealer license must also indicate on the same certificate that he is recognized by a manufacturer, importer, or distributor as a dealer in recreational vehicles.

(c) If two or more vehicle dealer or wholesaler businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory, if applicable, must be physically segregated and clearly identified. Each applicant's established place of business shall display a sign that indicates the firm name and that vehicles are offered for sale. The letters of the sign must be clearly visible and readable to the major avenue of traffic at a minimum distance of 150 feet.

~~(c)~~(d) To qualify for a used motor vehicle dealer's or wholesaler's license, a person must submit an annual application for that license and comply with the provisions of 61-4-102(5) in addition to fulfilling the requirements of subsection (2)(b).

~~(d)~~(e) The provisions of subsection ~~(2)(c)~~(2)(d) do not apply to an applicant who is licensed as a motor vehicle wrecking facility under the provisions of Title 75, chapter 10, part 5.

(3) (a) The applicant for a dealer's or wholesaler's license shall also file with his application a ~~good and sufficient~~ bond ~~in the sum~~ of ~~$5,000, and the bond~~ $25,000 for a license as a new motor vehicle dealer, a used motor vehicle dealer, a recreational vehicle dealer, a trailer dealer, or a wholesaler. However, applicants for a license as a trailer dealer or a trailer wholesaler shall file the $25,000 surety bond only if special mobile equipment, commercial trailers and semitrailers exceeding 6,000 pounds maximum gross loaded weight, mobile homes, or house trailers are sold; otherwise, all other trailer dealer, motorcycle dealer, or wholesaler license applicants shall file a bond in the sum of $10,000. All bonds must be conditioned that the applicant shall conduct his business in accordance with the requirements of the law. All bonds must run to the state of Montana, must be approved by the department and filed in its office, and must be renewed annually.

(b) A person who suffers loss or damage due to the unlawful conduct of a dealer or wholesaler licensed under this section shall obtain a judgment from a court of competent jurisdiction prior to collecting on the ~~judgment from the department~~ bond. The ~~department is responsible for payment under this section, in an amount not to exceed the maximum bond amount, only if the~~ judgment ~~on which the payment is based determines~~ must determine a specific loss or damage amount and ~~concludes~~ conclude that the ~~dealer's~~ licensee's unlawful operation caused the loss or damage before payment on the bond is required."

Section 3. Section 61-4-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-102. Fees — *restrictions on licensees. (1) Upon making such application, the applicant shall pay to the department, in addition to the fees required of dealers and wholesalers under the provisions of subsection (2), a fee of $5. Upon receipt of the application, fee, and bond, as provided above, the department shall examine the application, and may, prior to issuing a license, make individual investigation of the truth of the statements contained in the application. If the department is satisfied that the applicant qualifies for the issuance of a ~~dealer's~~ license under the provisions of this chapter, ~~it~~ the department may ~~thereupon~~ issue the ~~same~~ license. The department may refuse, after investigation, to issue a license to an applicant as allowed by law.

(2) Registration or license fees shall be paid upon registration or reregistration of dealers in motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, or trailers as follows:

(a) (i) all dealers in motor vehicles and recreational vehicles, a fee of $25, which shall entitle such dealer to one set of number plates, and $25 additional fee for each additional set of number plates, subject to the following limitations on the number of additional sets allowed a dealer:

(A) 5% of the first 100 vehicle sales for the previous year; plus

(B) 3% of the next 100 vehicle sales for the previous year; plus

(C) 2% of vehicle sales in excess of 200 for the previous year; and

(D) any additional sets upon a showing of good cause by the applicant dealer to the department.

(ii) in addition to the dealer plates allowed under subsection (2)(a)(i), a dealer who has purchased one or more sets of dealer plates or a licensed wholesaler is entitled to purchase demonstrator plates at a cost determined by the department to offset the cost of production. Demonstrator plates ~~shall~~ must be used in lieu of a dealer plate but only as set forth in subsection (6) and must be distinguished from dealer plates in a manner determined by the department. Wholesaler demonstrator plates must be distinguished from dealer demonstrator plates in a manner determined by the department.

(b) dealers in motorcycles, quadricycles, and trailers, including housetrailers, $45~~.~~; and

(c) wholesalers in used motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, trailers (including semitrailers and special mobile equipment), and motorcycles (including quadricycles), $30.

(3) If ~~any~~ a dealer or wholesaler is originally registered 6 months after the time of registration as set by law, the registration or license fee for the remainder of ~~such~~ the year ~~shall be~~ is one-half of the regular fee above given.

(4) A dealer or wholesaler in motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, or trailers who ~~shall maintain~~ maintains more than one place of business or who ~~shall maintain any~~ maintains a branch establishment or establishments ~~must~~ shall register and pay a registration or license fee for each ~~such~~ place of business or establishment. A dealer may sell vehicles only from his licensed place of business unless the dealer notifies the department 10 days in advance, on a form prescribed by the department, of the opening date and location of an off-premises sale. Except for recreational vehicle dealers, an off-premises sale must be conducted within the city limits of the city of the dealer's licensed location or upon an adjacent off-premises site that is approved by the department and that is within the county of the dealer's licensed location. The sale may not exceed 10 consecutive business days, and a licensed dealer may not conduct more than 10 off-premises sales during any 1 calendar year.

(5) A new applicant for a used motor vehicle dealer or wholesaler license shall pay $300 to the department in addition to any other sums required by this section or other provisions of the law. An applicant for a renewal of a used motor vehicle dealer or wholesaler license shall certify under oath that he has sold more than five used motor vehicles during the preceding calendar year or pay an additional $300 before he may be licensed.

(6) Demonstrator plates provided for in subsection (2)(a)(ii) may be used only as follows:

(a) New and used motor vehicle or recreational vehicle demonstrator plates may be used:

(i) to demonstrate, for no more than 72 hours, an authorized vehicle held for sale, when operated by an individual holding a valid operator's license;

(ii) on authorized vehicles owned by the firm when operated by an officer or bona fide full-time employee of the dealer or wholesaler and used to transport the dealer's or wholesaler's own tools, parts, and equipment;

(iii) on authorized vehicles being tested for repair;

(iv) on authorized vehicles being moved to or from a dealer's place of business for sale;

(v) on authorized vehicles being moved to or from service and repair facilities before sale;

(vi) on authorized vehicles being moved to or from exhibitions within the state, provided any such exhibition does not exceed a period of 20 days.

(b) Mobile home and trailer dealer demonstrator plates may be used:

(i) on units hauled to or from the place of business of the manufacturer and the place of business of the dealer or to and from places of business of the dealer;

(ii) on mobile homes hauled to a customer's location for setup after sale;

(iii) on travel trailers held for sale to demonstrate the towing capability of the vehicle provided that a dated demonstration permit, valid for not more than 72 hours, is carried with the vehicle at all times;

(iv) on any motor vehicle owned by the dealer that is used only to move vehicles legally bearing mobile home and travel trailer dealer license plates of the dealer owning any such motor vehicle;

(v) on vehicles being moved to or from vehicle exhibitions within the state, provided any such exhibition does not exceed a period of 20 days."

Section 4. Section 61-4-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-103. Assignment of dealer plates. (1) Upon the licensing of a dealer as a new motor vehicle dealer, used motor vehicle dealer, recreational vehicle dealer, or trailer, semitrailer, or special mobile equipment dealer, or a dealer of the motorcycle- or quadricycle-type vehicle, the department shall assign to ~~such~~ the dealer a distinctive serial license number as a dealer and after payment of fees furnish every qualified dealer in motor vehicles with ~~such~~ sets of number plates as required according to need, which need ~~shall~~ must be justified by the dealer with the initial application for license and each renewal. Assigned number plates ~~shall~~ must be similar to number plates furnished to owners of motor vehicles but ~~shall~~ must bear ~~thereon~~, in addition to the serial number assigned ~~such~~ the dealer, the letter "D" if the dealer is authorized to sell new motor vehicles (including trucks and truck trailers); the letters "RV" if the dealer is authorized to sell recreational vehicles; the letters "UD" if the dealer is authorized to sell used motor vehicles (including used trucks and used truck trailers); the letters "DTR" if the dealer is authorized to sell trailers, semitrailers, or special mobile equipment (new or used); and the letters "MCD" if the dealer is authorized to sell vehicles of the motorcycle or quadricycle type (new or used).

(2) With the exception of a dealer authorized to sell new motor vehicles (including trucks and truck trailers) and to use the "D" plate or demonstrator plate, ~~no~~ a dealer or wholesaler authorized to transact business under the provisions of this section may not offer for sale or trade any vehicle described in this section except ~~such~~ the vehicles ~~as~~ that are authorized by the plates assigned to him. If an applicant wishes to sell more than one type of vehicle, he shall make application for each separate authorization. No plate assigned to a dealer or wholesaler may be used on any vehicle other than the type described in this section. A wholesaler may not sell a motor vehicle to a person who is not a licensed dealer. A dealer authorized to sell new motor vehicles and assigned a "D" plate or demonstrator plate is authorized to sell both new and used motor vehicles (including trucks and truck trailers), and ~~such~~ the plates may be displayed on either new or used motor vehicles by a licensed dealer in new vehicles.

(3) The department shall cause to be placed on each set of license plates issued to a dealer a serial number assigned to each dealer and the actual number of license plates issued to each dealer. The number of the dealer ~~shall~~ must follow the prefix of the county, and the number of plates issued the dealer ~~shall~~ must follow the prefix of the county and the number of the dealer, the dealer's number to be separated from the county prefix by a dash, and the number of plates issued to a dealer to be separated from the dealer's number by a dash, as follows: dealer number 4 in Lewis and Clark County would be numbered 5-4, and if the dealer were issued three sets of plates, they would be numbered consecutively as follows, 5-4-1, 5-4-2, and 5-4-3. Wholesalers who receive demonstrator plates under this part must be issued license plates that are of a similar sequence to dealer and dealer demonstrator plates and display a "wholesaler" or "wholesale dealer" identifier conspicuously displayed upon the plates.

(4) Dealers properly licensed under this section are authorized to use and display dealer's license plates on ~~any~~ a motor vehicle held for bona fide sale or used in the conduct of the dealer's business in selling or demonstrating motor vehicles and operated by or under the control of the dealer, his officers or employees. For purposes of this provision, "officers and employees" include only ~~such~~ the persons listed on the manufacturer's franchise agreement or the importer's distribution agreement and their spouses or such other persons upon whom the dealer has paid social security taxes as a full-time employee. ~~No~~ A dealer's or wholesaler's license plate ~~shall~~ may not be used or displayed on vehicles normally used for hire, lease, or rental or for purposes not incident to the business of a motor vehicle dealer. ~~Each~~ A dealer is accountable for each plate issued and shall certify quarterly to the department the disposition of each dealer plate assigned to the dealer, including the name, address, and occupation of the person primarily using each plate.

(5) When the department has reasonable cause to believe, from an investigation made by it or information furnished to it by the sheriff or any other law enforcement officer, that ~~any such~~ a dealer or wholesaler has been improperly licensed, has used the dealer's license in a manner other than the one ~~herein~~ authorized in this section, ~~or~~ has provided a material misstatement of fact in an application for a license, is not qualified as a dealer or wholesaler under the requirements of this section, or whose criminal conduct renders him unfit for licensure, the department may revoke ~~such~~ the dealer's or wholesaler's license. ~~No~~ A person, firm, corporation, or association ~~shall~~ may not, for commission or profit, engage in the business of buying, selling, exchanging, or acting as a broker of new motor vehicles, trailers, or semitrailers unless duly licensed in compliance with this section (except trailers having an unladen weight of less than 500 pounds)."

Section 5. Section 61-4-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-104. Record of purchase or sale. ~~Every~~ A dealer or wholesaler licensed under 61-4-101 shall keep a book or record of the purchases, sales or exchanges, or receipts for the purpose of sale of used vehicles and a description of ~~such~~ the vehicles, together with the name and address of the seller, of the purchaser, and of the alleged owner or other person from whom each vehicle was purchased or received or to whom it was sold or delivered, as the case may be. The description in the case of motor vehicles ~~shall~~ must also include the engine number, if any, maker's number, if any, chassis number, if any, and ~~such~~ other numbers or identification marks ~~as~~ that appear ~~thereon~~ on the motor vehicle and ~~shall~~ must include a statement that a number has been obliterated, defaced, or changed if such is the fact. In the case of a trailer, semitrailer, or special mobile equipment, the record ~~shall~~ must include the manufacturer's number and ~~such~~ other numbers or identification marks ~~as~~ that appear thereon. The dealer ~~shall~~ or wholesaler must also have in his possession, from the time the motor vehicle is delivered to him until it has been disposed of by him, a duly assigned certificate of ownership from the owner of the motor vehicle to the dealer or wholesaler ~~from the time the motor vehicle is delivered to him until it has been disposed of by him~~. It is a violation of this part for a dealer or wholesaler to fail to take assignment of all certificates of ownership or manufacturer's certificates of origin for vehicles acquired by the licensee or to fail to assign the certificate of ownership or manufacturer's certificate of origin for vehicles sold. All records required to be kept in accordance with this section, in addition to the required retention of odometer disclosure information under 61-3-206(4), must be physically located and maintained within the building referred to in 61-4-101(2)(b)(i). An authorized representative of the department, upon presentation of his credentials, may inspect and have access to and copy any records required under this chapter."

Section 6. Section 61-4-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-105. Criminal penalty — civil penalty imposed by agency. (1) Any person violating the provisions of 61-4-101 through 61-4-104 or [section 10] is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than $250 and not more than $500. For the purposes of this section, every sale of a motor vehicle in violation of the provisions of 61-4-101 through 61-4-104 or [section 10] is a separate offense.

(2) In addition to all other penalties created by this part, the department is authorized to take appropriate enforcement action on its own initiative. Any person violating the provisions of 61-4-101 through 61-4-104 or [section 10] may be subject to administrative action, in accordance with the contested case procedures of Title 2, chapter 4, as follows:

(a) a civil penalty not to exceed $200 for each violation;

(b) suspension of the motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, or auto auction license not to exceed 5 working days;

(c) revocation or denial of the motor vehicle dealer, wholesaler, or auto auction license; or

(d) any combination of subsections (2)(a) through (2)(c)."

Section 7. Section 61-4-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-106. Transfer of license. A registered dealer or wholesaler~~,~~ who ~~may sell or dispose~~ sells or disposes of his entire business to ~~any other~~ another person~~,~~ may have his certificate of registration transferred to ~~such~~ the purchaser upon filing with the department a statement containing the name of the registered dealer or wholesaler, the number under which ~~such dealer~~ the business is registered, the name of the purchaser, and the location of the place of business so sold. Upon the filing of ~~such~~ the statement, accompanied by a filing fee of $2, the department shall note upon the registration record of ~~such~~ the dealer or wholesaler the change of ownership. ~~But no~~ A certificate of registration ~~can~~ may not be transferred unless the entire business of the dealer or wholesaler holding ~~such~~ the certificate of registration ~~be~~ is sold and disposed of, and ~~no such~~ a certificate of registration ~~can~~ may not be transferred to any person other than the purchasers of ~~such~~ the business."

Section 8. Section 61-4-119, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-4-119. Penalty. ~~Any~~ A person violating ~~the provisions~~ a provision of 61-4-111 or 61-4-112 is guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not less than ~~$25~~ $250 and not more than ~~$100~~ $500. Every violation of 61-4-111 and 61-4-112 is considered a separate offense."

Section 9. Wholesaler. "Wholesaler" means a person, firm, partnership, association, or corporation who for a commission or with intent to make a profit or gain of money or other thing of value sells, exchanges, or attempts to negotiate a sale or exchange of an interest in a used motor vehicle, recreational vehicle, trailer, semitrailer, special mobile equipment, motorcycle, or quadricycle only to motor vehicle dealers and auto auctions licensed under this part.

Section 10. Application for auto auction license — general regulations. (1) A person, firm, association, or corporation that takes possession of a motor vehicle owned by another person through consignment, bailment, or any other arrangement for the purpose of selling the motor vehicle to the highest bidder when all buyers are licensed motor vehicle dealers, wholesalers, or wrecking facilities shall file by mail or otherwise in the office of the department a verified application for licensure as an auto auction. The application must be made in the following manner:

(a) Each application and all of the information contained in it must be verified by the Montana highway patrol or an authorized representative of the department on a form to be furnished by the department for that purpose. The application must provide the following information:

(i) the name in which the business is to be conducted and the location of premises (street address, city, county, and state) where records are kept, sales are made, and motor vehicle stock is displayed as an established place of business that displays a sign indicating the firm name and that vehicles are offered for sale. The letters on the sign must be clearly visible and readable to the major avenue of traffic at a minimum distance of 150 feet.

(ii) the name and address of all owners or persons having an interest in the business. In the case of a corporation, the names and addresses of the president and secretary are sufficient.

(iii) a statement that the applicant is authorized to auction used motor vehicles, recreational vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, special mobile equipment, motorcycles, and quadricycles under one license. A licensed auto auction may not auction a new motor vehicle except when authorized by a new motor vehicle manufacturer, importer, distributor, or representative thereof, for the purpose of conducting a closed-factory fleet sale to dispose of new motor vehicles by the franchisor (manufacturer, distributor, or importer) to franchisee purchasers when the purchasers are licensed new motor vehicle dealers purchasing new motor vehicle line-makes authorized by their respective franchise, sales, or distributor agreements. An auto auction licensed under the provisions of this section shall notify and update the department with current fleet sale agreements between the auto auction and franchisor. An auto auction may not conduct a factory fleet sale unless authorized or appointed by a franchisor licensed under part 2 of this chapter.

(b) Each application must be accompanied by a bond of $25,000 and must be conditioned that the applicant shall conduct his business in accordance with the requirements of the law. All bonds must run to the state of Montana, must be approved by the department and filed in its office, and must be renewed annually. A person who suffers loss or damage due to the unlawful conduct of an auto auction licensed under this section may proceed in the same manner as provided for licensed dealers and wholesalers in 61-4-101(3)(b).

(2) An auto auction's license must be renewed and paid for annually to the department, and an application for relicensure must be filed by January 1 of each year. The fee required for each first-time applicant is $500 and for subsequent renewal applications is $100 each year. Upon receipt of a properly completed application, fee, and bond, the department shall issue the auto auction license and assign an auto auction license number for each applicant in a manner determined by the department. Auto auctions dealing in motor vehicles may sell only to licensed dealers and wholesalers.

(3) Auto auctions that are licensed under this section and that hold a current license number may issue temporary permits, which may be displayed and used by a buyer to operate an unregistered vehicle purchased from the auto auction. The temporary permit is valid for a period of 72 hours from the time of purchase and may be used only for the purpose of driving or transporting a vehicle from the auction premises to the purchaser's established place of business or point of destination. Temporary permits must be on a form prescribed by the department and must contain the name, address, and license number of the purchaser, date of sale, name, address, license number, authorized signature of the auto auction, and a description of the vehicle, including its serial number. The department shall collect a fee of $10 from the auto auction for each temporary permit, and the auto auction may charge a vehicle purchaser no more than $10 for the issuance of each permit to offset the cost of the permits. It is unlawful for the auto auction to issue more than one temporary permit per vehicle sale.

(4) A licensed auto auction may apply for and may be authorized by the department to purchase and use license plates of a type and amount approved by the department, upon payment of a fee to the department to offset the cost of production. Licensed auto auctions may use the license plates to transport inventory vehicles from a point of storage or a point of delivery in this state to the auto auction's place of business, for road testing authorized vehicles, or for moving vehicles for purposes of repairing, painting, upholstering, polishing, and related activities. One license plate is required to be conspicuously displayed on the rear of the vehicle. Auto auctions may appoint designated persons, partnerships, corporations, service stations, or repair garages to use the license plate only when conducting work for the auto auction involving repairing, painting, upholstering, polishing, or performing of similar types of work upon a vehicle. Upon application for an auto auction license, the applicant, if requesting the license plates, shall submit a sworn affidavit on a form prescribed by the department, listing each authorized person designated by the auction to use the license plates. The auto auction is responsible for reporting any changes to the affidavit within 72 hours after the amendment has occurred. An auto auction licensed under the provisions of this section is liable for the proper use of the license plates, which may not be used for private purposes. The department may revoke an auto auction's 72-hour temporary permit and license plate privileges if an auction issues, authorizes the use of, or uses a temporary permit or the license plate in violation of the provisions of this section.

(5) (a) Each auto auction shall keep a book or record, in a form and manner subject to approval by the department, of the purchases, sales, or exchanges or the receipts for the purpose of sale of any motor vehicle, a properly completed copy of a temporary permit issued to a vehicle purchaser, the date of title transfer, and a description of the motor vehicle, together with the name and address of the seller, the purchaser, and the alleged owner or other person from whom the motor vehicle was purchased or received or to whom it was sold or delivered. The description in the case of a motor vehicle must include:

(i) the identification number or engine number, if any;

(ii) other numbers or identification marks on the motor vehicle; and

(iii) a statement that a number has been obliterated, defaced, or changed, if it has.

(b) An auto auction licensed under this section shall validate the sale of a motor vehicle through its auction by stamping its name and license number upon the certificate of ownership at a location on the front or back of the certificate, at the margin in the assignment section as executed between the transferor and transferee. An auto auction's stamp must be legible and may not interfere with the information recorded on the certificate between transferor and transferee. If the certificate of ownership lacks adequate space for the auto auction to place its stamp, the auction may provide the transferee a copy of auction invoice bearing the name and license number of the auction, along with an indication of the vehicle year, make, model, and identification number; name, address, and signature of transferor; name, license number, and signature of transferee; and the date the vehicle was sold through the auction.

(c) The invoice must be attached to the certificate of ownership and must be presented to the department with any application for title.

(d) An auto auction shall retain, for 5 years, odometer disclosure information, including the name of the owner on the date the auto auction took possession of the motor vehicle, the name of the buyer, the vehicle identification number, and the odometer reading on the date the auto auction took possession of the motor vehicle. The odometer information may be retained in any way that is systematically retrievable and is not required to be maintained on any special disclosure form. The information may be part of the auction receipt or invoice or be maintained as a portion of a computer data base or manual file. An auto auction that executes a transfer of ownership as an agent on behalf of a seller or buyer is liable for providing an odometer disclosure statement for the seller or an odometer disclosure acknowledgement for the buyer under the provisions of 61-3-206.

Section 11. Twenty-day permit limitation on issuance — violation — penalty. (1) A dealer may not issue more than one 20-day permit under 61-4-111 or 61-4-112 per vehicle sale.

(2) A dealer who violates the provisions of subsection (1) is subject to revocation of the privilege to issue 20-day permits for a period of time determined by the department.

Section 12. Code commissioner instruction. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the code commissioner shall change "dealer" to read "dealer and wholesaler" or "dealer or wholesaler", as the usage requires, in 61-1-117, 61-2-405, 61-3-206, 61-3-508, 61-4-205, and 61-10-214.

Section 13. Codification instruction. (1) [Section 9] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 1, part 3, and the provisions of Title 61, chapter 1, part 3, apply to [section 9].

(2) [Sections 10 and 11] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 4, part 1, and the provisions of Title 61, chapter 4, part 1, apply to [sections 10 and 11].

Approved April 8, 1991.

[SB 392]

AN ACT ALLOWING PUBLIC ACCESS TO DEATH CERTIFICATES WHEN CONDUCTING A TITLE SEARCH; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 50-15-112 AND 50-15-114, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 50-15-112, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-15-112. Inspection of records and issuance of copies limited. (1) ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (3), the department and county clerk and recorders may not permit inspection of the records or issue copies of a certificate unless it is satisfied that the applicant has a direct and tangible interest in the data recorded and that the information is necessary for the determination of personal or property rights.

(2) "Tangible interest" includes but is not limited to:

(a) the interests of the persons described in 50-15-206 for the purposes of custody or child support actions, social security eligibility determinations, or Indian tribal enrollment determinations; ~~and~~

(b) the interest of a funeral director or mortician licensed under Title 37, chapter 19, with respect to the funeral of a deceased individual named on a death certificate.

(3) The department and county clerk and recorders may, if satisfied that the information is necessary for the determination of property rights, permit inspection of a death certificate by and issue a copy of a death certificate to a person conducting a title search to determine heirship on property owned or once owned by the deceased."

Section 2. Section 50-15-114, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-15-114. Unlawful acts and penalties. (1) It is unlawful to disclose data in the vital statistics records of the department, local registrars, or county clerk and recorder unless disclosure is authorized by law ~~and approved by the department~~.

(2) A person shall be fined not more than $1,000, imprisoned not more than 1 year, or both, if:

(a) he willfully and knowingly makes any false statement in a report, record, or certificate required to be filed by law or in an application for an amendment thereof or willfully and knowingly supplies false information intending that the information be used in the preparation of any report, record, or certificate or amendment;

(b) without lawful authority and with the intent to deceive, he makes, alters, amends, or mutilates any report, record, or certificate required to be filed under law or a certified copy of the report, record, or certificate;

(c) he willfully and knowingly uses or attempts to use or furnish to another for use, for any purpose of deception, any certificate, record, report, or certified copy made, altered, amended, or mutilated;

(d) with the intention to deceive, he willfully uses or attempts to use any birth certificate or certified copy of a birth record knowing that such certificate or certified copy was issued upon a record which is false in whole or in part or which relates to the birth of another person;

(e) he willfully and knowingly furnishes a birth certificate or certified copy of a birth record with the intention that it be used by a person other than the person to whom the birth record relates.

(3) A person shall be fined not less than $25 or more than $500, imprisoned for not more than 30 days, or both, if:

(a) he knowingly transports or accepts for transportation, interment, or other disposition a dead body without an accompanying permit as provided by law;

(b) he refuses to provide information required by law;

(c) he willfully neglects or violates any of the provisions of law or refuses to perform any of the duties imposed upon him by law."

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 385

[HB 116]

AN ACT REPEALING AN ADMINISTRATIVE RULE, ADOPTED BY THE BOARD OF PUBLIC EDUCATION, THAT REQUIRES EACH SCHOOL TO HAVE A GIFTED AND TALENTED CHILDREN PROGRAM; REPEALING RULE 10.55.804, ADMINISTRATIVE RULES OF MONTANA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the Legislature, not the Executive Branch, is the lawmaking branch of the state government under the Montana Constitution; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature may delegate its power to pass laws to the Executive Branch, which may then, within certain limits, adopt administrative rules that have the force and effect of law; and

WHEREAS, a rule may not conflict with a statute and is invalid if it does; and

WHEREAS, section 20-7-902(1), MCA, provides that "a school district may identify gifted and talented children and devise programs to serve them" and Rule 10.55.804, Administrative Rules of Montana, mandates a gifted and talented children program in each school, thereby directly and clearly conflicting with the statute; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature has made a gifted and talented children program discretionary, at the choice of each local school board, the Legislature nonetheless affirms its support of gifted and talented education and encourages local school districts to identify gifted and talented students and design and implement programs that meet the needs of those students.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Repealer. Rule 10.55.804, Administrative Rules of Montana, is repealed.

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 386

[HB 173]

AN ACT CLARIFYING CERTAIN PROCEDURES OF THE JUDICIAL STANDARDS COMMISSION; CLARIFYING PUBLIC DISCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS; AMENDING SECTIONS 3-1-1106, 3-1-1109, AND 3-1-1122, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 3-1-1106, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-1-1106. Investigation of judicial officers — complaint — hearing — recommendations. (1) (a) The commission, upon the filing of a written complaint by any citizen of the state, may initiate an investigation of any judicial officer in the state to determine if there are grounds for conducting additional proceedings before the commission. If the commission's investigation indicates that additional proceedings before the commission may be justified, the commission shall require the citizen who filed the original written complaint to sign a verified written complaint before conducting such additional proceedings.

(b) The commission shall give the judicial officer written notice of the citizen's complaint and of the initiation of an investigation. Notice must also be given if a verified written complaint is filed and must include the charges made, the grounds for the charges, and a statement that the judicial officer may file an answer. The notice must be signed by the commission.

(2) The commission, after such investigation as it considers necessary and upon a finding of good cause, may:

(a) order a hearing to be held before it concerning the censure, suspension, removal, or retirement of a judicial officer;

(b) confidentially advise the judicial officer and the supreme court, in writing, that the complaint will be dismissed if the judicial officer files with the commission a letter stating that he will take corrective action satisfactory to the commission; or

(c) request the supreme court to appoint one or more special masters who are judges of courts of record to hear and take evidence and to report to the commission.

(3) If after hearing or after considering the record and report of the masters the commission finds the charges true, it shall recommend to the supreme court the censure, suspension, removal, or disability retirement of the judicial officer."

Section 2. Section 3-1-1109, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-1-1109. Interim disqualification of judicial officer. (1) A judicial officer ~~is~~ must be disqualified from ~~acting~~ serving as ~~such~~ a judicial officer, without loss of salary, while there is pending~~:~~

~~(1)~~ an indictment or an information charging him with a crime punishable as a felony under Montana or federal law~~; or~~.

(2) ~~a formal proceeding before the commission for his removal or retirement~~ When the commission files with the supreme court a recommendation that a judicial officer be removed or retired, the judicial officer must be disqualified from serving as a judicial officer, without loss of salary, pending the supreme court's review of the record and proceedings."

Section 3. Section 3-1-1122, MCA, is amended to read:

"3-1-1122. Judge's waiver of confidentiality — hearing made public. ~~The~~ In addition to the public disclosure required under 3-1-1107, 3-1-1121, and 3-1-1123 through 3-1-1126, the commission must allow public access to all papers filed with and testimony and hearings before the commission or masters in a given case if the judge against whom a complaint has been filed waives his right of confidentiality and requests in writing that the proceedings be accessible to the public. Public disclosure of information required under 3-1-1107, 3-1-1121, and 3-1-1123 through 3-1-1126 is not contingent upon a waiver under this section."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 387

[HB 260]

AN ACT REQUIRING INSURERS, HEALTH SERVICE CORPORATIONS, AND HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATIONS TRANSACTING HEALTH INSURANCE BUSINESS IN THIS STATE TO PROVIDE COVERAGE FOR ADOPTED CHILDREN TO THE SAME EXTENT AS FOR NATURAL CHILDREN OF THE INSURED; REQUIRING COVERAGE OF AN ADOPTED CHILD'S CONDITIONS THAT EXIST PRIOR TO PLACEMENT OF THE ADOPTED CHILD IN THE ADOPTIVE HOME; AND PROVIDING AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Coverage for adopted children from time of placement — preexisting conditions. (1) Each group and individual disability policy, certificate of insurance, or membership contract that is delivered, issued for delivery, renewed, extended, or modified in this state and that provides coverage for a family member of the insured or subscriber must provide coverage for an adopted child of the insured or subscriber to the same extent as for natural children of the insured or subscriber.

(2) The coverage required by this section must be effective from the date of placement for the purpose of adoption and must continue unless the placement is disrupted prior to legal adoption and the child is removed from placement. Coverage at the time of placement must include the necessary care and treatment of medical conditions existing prior to the date of placement.

(3) As used in this section, "placement" means placement for adoption as defined in 40-8-103.

Section 2. Coverage for adopted children from time of placement — preexisting conditions. (1) Each individual or group membership contract issued or amended by a health service corporation in this state that provides coverage of dependent children of a member must provide coverage for an adopted child of the member to the same extent as for natural children of the member.

(2) The coverage required by this section must be effective from the date of placement for the purpose of adoption and must continue unless the placement is disrupted prior to legal adoption and the child is removed from placement. Coverage at the time of placement must include the necessary care and treatment of medical conditions existing prior to the date of placement.

(3) As used in this section, "placement" means placement for adoption as defined in 40-8-103.

Section 3. Coverage for adopted children from time of placement — preexisting conditions. (1) Each health maintenance contract regulated under this chapter must provide coverage for an adopted child of the enrollee to the same extent as for natural children of the enrollee.

(2) The coverage required by this section must be effective from the date of placement for the purpose of adoption and must continue unless the placement is disrupted prior to legal adoption and the child is removed from placement. Coverage at the time of placement must include the necessary care and treatment of medical conditions existing prior to the date of placement.

(3) As used in this section, "placement" means placement for adoption as defined in 40-8-103.

Section 4. Codification instruction. (1) [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 33, chapter 22, part 1, and the provisions of Title 33, chapter 22, part 1, apply to [section 1].

(2) [Section 2] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 33, chapter 30, part 10, and the provisions of Title 33, chapter 30, part 10, apply to [section 2].

(3) [Section 3] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 33, chapter 31, part 1, and the provisions of Title 33, chapter 31, part 1, apply to [section 3].

Section 5. Applicability. [This act] applies to policies, certificates, or contracts delivered, issued for delivery, or renewed in this state on or after January 1, 1992.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 388

[HB 545]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE LAWS RELATING TO THE MONTANA MEDICAID PROGRAM; REQUIRING FEDERALLY QUALIFIED HEALTH CENTER SERVICES TO BE INCLUDED AS A MEDICAID SERVICE; REVISING AND EXTENDING AUTHORIZATION FOR HOSPICE CARE; PROVIDING FOR THE PURCHASE OF MEDICARE BENEFITS FOR QUALIFIED DISABLED AND WORKING INDIVIDUALS; ALLOWING PAYMENT OF HEALTH INSURANCE EXPENSES FOR MEDICAID-ELIGIBLE PERSONS; REAUTHORIZING AMBULATORY PRENATAL CARE FOR PREGNANT WOMEN DURING A PRESUMPTIVE ELIGIBILITY PERIOD; AMENDING SECTIONS 53-6-101 AND 53-6-131, MCA; AMENDING SECTION 15, CHAPTER 649, LAWS OF 1989; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-6-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-6-101. Montana medicaid program — authorization of services. (1) There is a Montana medicaid program established for the purpose of providing necessary medical services to eligible persons who have need for medical assistance. The Montana medicaid program is a joint federal-state program administered under this chapter and in accordance with Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended. The department of social and rehabilitation services shall administer the Montana medicaid program.

(2) Medical assistance provided by the Montana medicaid program includes the following services:

(a) inpatient hospital services;

(b) outpatient hospital services;

(c) other laboratory and x-ray services;

(d) skilled nursing services in long-term care facilities;

(e) physicians' services;

(f) nurse specialist services;

(g) early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment services for persons under 21 years of age;

(h) services provided by physician assistants-certified within the scope of their practice and that are otherwise directly reimbursed as allowed under department rule to an existing provider;

(i) health services provided under a physician's orders by a public health department; and

~~(j) hospice care as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(o)~~

(j) federally qualified health center services, as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(l)(2).

(3) Medical assistance provided by the Montana medicaid program may, as provided by department rule, also include the following services:

(a) medical care or any other type of remedial care recognized under state law, furnished by licensed practitioners within the scope of their practice as defined by state law;

(b) home health care services;

(c) private-duty nursing services;

(d) dental services;

(e) physical therapy services;

(f) mental health center services administered and funded under a state mental health program authorized under Title 53, chapter 21, part 2;

(g) clinical social worker services;

(h) prescribed drugs, dentures, and prosthetic devices;

(i) prescribed eyeglasses;

(j) other diagnostic, screening, preventive, rehabilitative, chiropractic, and osteopathic services;

(k) inpatient psychiatric hospital services for persons under 21 years of age;

(l) services of professional counselors licensed under Title 37, chapter 23, if funds are specifically appropriated for the inclusion of these services in the Montana medicaid program;

(m) ambulatory prenatal care for pregnant women during a presumptive eligibility period, as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396a(a)(47) and 42 U.S.C. 1396r-1;

(n) hospice care, as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(o); and

~~(n)~~(o) any additional medical service or aid allowable under or provided by the federal Social Security Act.

(4) The department may implement, as provided for in Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended, a program under medicaid for payment of medicare premiums, deductibles, and coinsurance for persons not otherwise eligible for medicaid.

(5) The department may set rates for medical and other services provided to recipients of medicaid and may enter into contracts for delivery of services to individual recipients or groups of recipients.

(6) The services provided under this part may be only those that are medically necessary and that are the most efficient and cost effective.

(7) The amount, scope, and duration of services provided under this part must be determined by the department in accordance with Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended.

(8) Services, procedures, and items of an experimental or cosmetic nature may not be provided.

(9) If available funds are not sufficient to provide medical assistance for all eligible persons, the department may set priorities to limit, reduce, or otherwise curtail the amount, scope, or duration of the medical services made available under the Montana medicaid program.

(10) Community-based medicaid services, as provided for in part 4 of this chapter, must be provided in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted thereunder. ~~(Subsection (2)(j) terminates June 30, 1991—sec. 4, Ch. 633, L. 1989; Subsection (3)(m) terminates June 30, 1991—sec. 15, Ch. 649, L. 1989.)~~"

Section 2. Section 53-6-131, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-6-131. Eligibility requirements. (1) Medical assistance under the Montana medicaid program may be granted to a person who is determined by the department of social and rehabilitation services to be eligible as follows:

(a) The person receives or is considered to be receiving supplemental security income benefits under Title XVI of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1381, et seq.) or aid to families with dependent children under Title IV of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 601, et seq.).

(b) The person would be eligible for assistance under a program described in subsection (1)(a) if he were to apply for such assistance.

(c) The person is in a medical facility that is a medicaid provider and, but for residence in the facility, he would be receiving assistance under one of the programs in subsection (1)(a).

(d) The person is under 19 years of age and meets the conditions of eligibility in the state plan for aid to families with dependent children, other than with respect to school attendance.

(e) The person is under 21 years of age and in foster care under the supervision of the state or was in foster care under the supervision of the state and has been adopted as a hard-to-place child.

(f) The person meets the nonfinancial criteria of the categories in subsections (1)(a) through (1)(e) and:

(i) the person's income does not exceed the medically needy income level specified for federally aided categories of assistance and his resources are within the resource standards of the federal supplemental security income program; or

(ii) the person, while having income greater than the medically needy income level specified for federally aided categories of assistance, has an adjusted income level, after incurring medical expenses, that does not exceed the medically needy income level specified for federally aided categories of assistance and his resources are within the resource standards of the federal supplemental security income program.

(g) The person is under 1 year of age and:

(i) has income that does not exceed income standards as may be required by the federal Social Security Act; and

(ii) has resources that do not exceed standards the department determines reasonable for purposes of the program.

(2) A person who is pregnant is eligible for pregnancy-related medical assistance under the Montana medicaid program if she:

(a) has income that does not exceed income standards as may be required by the federal Social Security Act; and

(b) has resources that do not exceed standards the department determines reasonable for purposes of the program.

(3) The Montana medicaid program shall pay for the premiums necessary for participation in the medicare program and may, within the discretion of the department, pay all or a portion of the medicare deductibles and coinsurance for a medicare-eligible person or for a qualified disabled and working individual, as defined in section 6408(d)(2) of the federal Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1989, Public Law 101-239, who:

(a) has income that does not exceed income standards as may be required by the federal Social Security Act; and

(b) has resources that do not exceed standards the department determines reasonable for purposes of the program.

(4) The department may pay a medicaid-eligible person's expenses for premiums, coinsurance, and similar costs for health insurance or other available health coverage, as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396b(a)(1).

~~(4)~~(5) The department, under the Montana medicaid program, may provide, if a waiver is not available from the federal government, medicaid and other assistance mandated by Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended, and not specifically listed in this part to categories of persons that may be designated by the act for receipt of assistance.

~~(5)~~(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, medical assistance must be provided to pregnant women and to infants whose family income does not exceed the federal poverty threshold, as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396a(a)(10)(A)(ii)(IX). (Subsection ~~(5)~~(6) terminates June 30, 1991—sec. 15, Ch. 649, L. 1989.) "

Section 3. Section 15, Chapter 649, Laws of 1989, is amended to read:

"Section 15. Program termination. ~~The provisions of [this act]~~ [Sections 1 through 9 and 11 through 14] terminate June 30, 1991."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 389

[HB 485]

AN ACT REVISING THE AUTHORITY OF THE PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE COMPENSATION BOARD; REVISING CERTAIN DEFINITIONS IN TITLE 75, CHAPTER 11, PART 3; CLARIFYING THE RESPONSIBILITIES OF A PETROLEUM STORAGE TANK OWNER OR OPERATOR AND AN AGENT DESIGNATED FOR REIMBURSEMENT; AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES TO WAIVE NOTIFICATION OF THE EXISTENCE OF A PETROLEUM STORAGE TANK AS A PREREQUISITE TO TANK RELEASE REIMBURSEMENT; PROVIDING FOR TRIBAL REVIEW OF CLEANUP PLANS PROPOSED WITHIN A TRIBAL JURISDICTION; REVISING THE ROLES OF THE PETROLEUM TANK RELEASE COMPENSATION BOARD AND THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES IN CLAIMS REVIEW; AMENDING SECTIONS 75-11-302, 75-11-307, 75-11-308, AND 75-11-309, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-11-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-11-302. Definitions. The following definitions apply to this part:

(1) "Accidental release" means a sudden or nonsudden release, neither expected nor intended by the tank owner or operator, of petroleum or petroleum products from a storage tank that results in a need for corrective action or compensation for third party bodily injury or property damage.

(2) "Board" means the petroleum tank release compensation board established in 2-15-2108.

(3) "Bodily injury" means physical injury, sickness, or disease sustained by an individual, including death that results from the physical injury, sickness, or disease at any time.

(4) "Claim" means a written request prepared and submitted by an owner or operator or an agent of the owner or operator for reimbursement of expenses caused by an accidental release from a petroleum storage tank.

(5) "Corrective action" means investigation, monitoring, cleanup, restoration, abatement, removal, and other actions necessary to respond to a release.

(6) "Department" means the department of health and environmental sciences provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 21.

(7) "Distributor" means a distributor as defined in 15-70-201.

(8) "Eligible costs" means expenses reimbursable under 75-11-307.

(9) "Fee" means the petroleum storage tank cleanup fee provided for in 75-11-314.

(10) "Fund" means the petroleum tank release cleanup fund established in 75-11-313.

(11) "Gasoline" means gasoline as defined in 15-70-201.

(12) "Operator" means a person in control of or having responsibility for the daily operation of a petroleum storage tank.

(13) "Owner" means a person who holds title to, controls, or possesses an interest in a petroleum storage tank. The term does not include a person who holds an interest in a tank solely for financial security, unless through foreclosure or other related actions the holder of a security interest has taken possession of the tank.

(14) "Person" means an individual, firm, trust, estate, partnership, company, association, joint stock company, syndicate, consortium, commercial entity, corporation, or agency of state or local government.

(15) "Petroleum" or "petroleum products" means crude oil or any fraction thereof that is liquid at standard conditions of temperature and pressure (60 degrees F and 14.7 pounds per square inch absolute) or motor fuel blend, such as gasohol, and that is not augmented or compounded by more than a de minimis amount of another substance.

(16) "Petroleum storage tank" means a tank that ~~contains~~ contains or contained petroleum or petroleum products and that is:

(a) an underground storage tank as defined in 75-10-403;

(b) a storage tank that is situated in an underground area such as a basement, cellar, mine, ~~draft~~ drift, shaft, or tunnel;

(c) an above ground storage tank with a capacity less than 30,000 gallons; or

(d) above ground or underground pipes associated with tanks under subsections (16)(b) and (16)(c), except that pipelines regulated under the following laws are excluded:

(i) the Natural Gas Pipeline Safety Act of 1968 (49 U.S.C. 1671, et seq.);

(ii) the Hazardous Liquid Pipeline Safety Act of 1979 (49 U.S.C. 2001, et seq.); and

(iii) state law comparable to the provisions of law referred to in subsections (16)(d)(i) and (16)(d)(ii), if the facility is intrastate.

(17) "Property damage" means:

(a) physical injury to tangible property, including loss of use of that property caused by the injury; or

(b) loss of use of tangible property that is not physically injured.

(18) "Release" means ~~a release, as defined in 75-10-701,~~ any spilling, leaking, emitting, discharging, escaping, leaching, or disposing of petroleum or petroleum products from a petroleum storage tank into ground water, surface water, surface soils, or subsurface soils."

Section 2. Section 75-11-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-11-307. Reimbursement for expenses caused by a release. (1) Subject to the availability of funds under subsection (5), an owner or operator who is eligible under 75-11-308 and complies with 75-11-309 and any rules adopted to implement those sections must be reimbursed by the board from the fund for the following eligible costs caused by a release from a petroleum storage tank:

(a) corrective action costs; and

(b) compensation paid to third parties for bodily injury or property damage.

(2) An owner or operator may not be reimbursed from the fund for the following expenses:

(a) corrective action costs or the costs of bodily injury or property damage paid to third parties that are determined by the board to be ineligible for reimbursement;

(b) costs for bodily injury and property damage, other than corrective action costs, incurred by the owner or operator;

(c) penalties or payments for damages incurred under actions by the department, board, or federal, state, local, or tribal agencies or other government entities involving judicial or administrative enforcement activities and related negotiations;

(d) attorney fees and legal costs of the owner, operator, or a third party;

(e) costs for the repair or replacement of a tank or piping or costs of other materials, equipment, or labor related to the operation, repair, or replacement of a tank or piping;

(f) expenses incurred before April 13, 1989;

(g) expenses exceeding the maximum reimbursements provided for in subsection (4).

(3) An owner or operator may designate a person as his agent to receive the reimbursement, provided that the owner or operator remains legally responsible for all costs and liabilities incurred as a result of the release.

(4) Subject to the availability of funds under subsection (5), for releases that are discovered and reported on or after April 13, 1989, the board shall reimburse an owner or operator for 50% of the first $35,000 of eligible costs and 100% of subsequent eligible costs, up to a maximum total reimbursement of $982,500.

(5) If the fund does not contain sufficient money to pay approved claims for eligible costs, a reimbursement may not be made and the fund and the board are not liable for making any reimbursement for the costs at that time. When the fund contains sufficient money, eligible costs must be reimbursed subsequently in the order in which they were approved by the board."

Section 3. Section 75-11-308, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-11-308. Eligibility. (1) An owner or operator is eligible for reimbursement for eligible costs caused by a release from a petroleum storage tank only if:

(a) the release was discovered on or after April 13, 1989;

(b) the department is notified of the release in the manner and within the time provided by law or rule;

(c) the department has been notified of the existence of the tank in the manner required by department rule or has waived the requirement for notification;

(d) the release was an accidental release; and

(e) with the exception of the release, the operation and management of the tank complied with applicable state and federal laws and rules when the release occurred and remained in compliance following detection of the release.

(2) An owner or operator is not eligible for reimbursement for expenses caused by releases from the following petroleum storage tanks:

(a) a tank located at a refinery or a terminal of a refiner;

(b) a tank located at an oil and gas production facility;

(c) a tank that is or was previously under the ownership or control of a railroad;

(d) a tank belonging to the federal government;

(e) a farm or residential tank with a capacity of 1,100 gallons or less that is used for storing motor fuel for noncommercial purposes or a tank used for storing heating oil for consumptive use on the premises where stored;

(f) a tank owned or operated by a person who has been convicted of a substantial violation of state or federal law or rule that relates to the installation, operation, or management of petroleum storage tanks; or

(g) a mobile storage tank used to transport petroleum or petroleum products from one location to another."

Section 4. Section 75-11-309, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-11-309. Procedures for reimbursement of eligible costs. (1) An owner or operator seeking reimbursement for eligible costs and the department shall comply with the following procedures:

(a) If an owner or operator discovers or is provided evidence that a release may have occurred from his petroleum storage tank, he shall immediately notify the department of the release and conduct an initial response to the release in accordance with state and federal laws and rules to protect public health and safety and the environment.

(b) The owner or operator shall conduct a thorough investigation of the release, report the findings to the department, and, as determined necessary by the department, prepare and submit for approval by the department a corrective action plan that conforms with state, tribal (where applicable), and federal corrective action requirements.

(c) (i) The department shall review the corrective action plan and forward a copy to a local government office and, where applicable, a tribal government office with jurisdiction over a corrective action for the release. The local or tribal government office shall inform the department if it wants any modification of the proposed plan.

(ii) Based on its own review and comments received from a local government, tribal government, or other source, the department may approve the proposed corrective action plan, make or request the owner or operator to modify the proposed plan, or prepare its own plan for compliance by the owner or operator. A plan finally approved by the department through any process provided in this subsection (c) is the approved corrective action plan.

(iii) After the department approves a corrective action plan, a local government or tribal government may not impose different corrective action requirements on the owner or operator.

(d) The department shall notify the owner or operator and the board of its approval of a corrective action plan.

(e) The owner or operator shall implement the approved plan. The department may oversee the implementation of the plan, require reports and monitoring from the owner or operator, undertake inspections, and otherwise exercise its authority concerning corrective action under Title 75, chapter 10, parts 4 and 7, and other applicable law and rules.

(f) The owner or operator shall document in the manner required by the board all expenses incurred in preparing and implementing the corrective action plan. The owner or operator shall submit claims and substantiating documents to the ~~department~~ board in the form and manner required by the board. The ~~department~~ board shall forward each claim and appropriate documentation to the ~~board~~ department. ~~and~~ The department shall notify the board of any costs that the department considers not reimbursable because of any failure to meet the requirements of subsection (2). The department shall inform the owner or operator of any notification given to the board.

(g) The owner or operator shall document, in the manner required by the board, any payments to a third party for bodily injury or property damage caused by a release. The owner or operator shall submit claims and substantiating documents to the board in the form and manner required by the board.

(2) The board shall review each claim received under subsections (1)(f) and (1)(g), make the determination required by this subsection, inform the owner or operator of its determination, and, as appropriate, reimburse the owner or operator from the fund. Before approving a reimbursement, the board shall affirmatively determine that:

(a) the expenses for which reimbursement is claimed:

(i) are eligible costs; and

(ii) were actually, necessarily, and reasonably incurred for the preparation or implementation of a corrective action plan approved by the department or for payments to a third party for bodily injury or property damage; and

(b) the owner or operator:

(i) is eligible for reimbursement under 75-11-308; and

(ii) has complied with this section and any rules adopted pursuant to this section.

(3) If an owner or operator disagrees with a board determination under subsection (2), he may submit a written request for a hearing before the board. The hearing must be held at a meeting of the board no later than 120 days following receipt of the request or at a time mutually agreed to by the board and the owner or operator.

(4) The board shall obligate money for reimbursement of eligible costs of owners and operators in the order that the costs are finally approved by the board.

(5) (a) The board may, at the request of an owner or operator, guarantee in writing the reimbursement of eligible costs that have been approved by the board but for which money is not currently available from the fund for reimbursement.

(b) The board may, at the request of an owner or operator, guarantee in writing reimbursement of eligible costs not yet approved by the board, including estimated costs not yet incurred. A guarantee for payment under this subsection (5)(b) does not affect the order in which money in the fund is obligated under subsection (4).

(c) When considering a request for a guarantee of payment, the board may require pertinent information or documentation from the owner or operator. The board may grant or deny, in whole or in part, any request for a guarantee."

Section 5. Saving clause. Nothing in [this act] applies to alter a claim for reimbursement that was filed before [the effective date of this act] or that arose pursuant to a corrective action plan approved by the department before [the effective date of this act].

Section 6. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 390

[HB 571]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE REFERENCES TO THE DRIVER IMPROVEMENT PROGRAM WITHIN THE STATUTES CONCERNING HABITUAL TRAFFIC OFFENDERS; TO PROVIDE FOR AN ADDITIONAL REVOCATION OF THE DRIVER'S LICENSE OR DRIVING PRIVILEGE OF A PERSON CONVICTED AS A HABITUAL OFFENDER OPERATING A MOTOR VEHICLE; TO REPEAL THE REQUIREMENT THAT CERTAIN HIGH MISDEMEANORS BE CERTIFIED TO DISTRICT COURT; AMENDING SECTIONS 61-11-211, 61-11-212, AND 61-11-213, MCA; AND REPEALING SECTION 61-11-214, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-11-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-11-211. Department to revoke license of habitual offender — method of removal of points upon revocation. Upon receipt of a court order declaring an individual ~~a~~ habitual offender, the department shall revoke the driver's license or driving privilege of the individual named in the order for a period of 3 years from the date of the order, subject to the provisions of 61-2-302. Additionally, the department shall remove from that individual's record those habitual offender points ~~which~~ that were certified to the county attorney in the certification required by 61-11-204."

Section 2. Section 61-11-212, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-11-212. Penalties. ~~No~~ A person who has been adjudged ~~an~~ a habitual traffic offender ~~shall~~ may not be issued a license to operate a motor vehicle in this state until:

(1) a period of 3 years has elapsed from the date of the final order of the court adjudging the person ~~an~~ a habitual traffic offender, subject to the provisions of 61-2-302;

(2) the person has met ~~all~~ the requirements of all applicable laws and rules relating to the licensing of motor vehicle operators in this state; and

(3) the person files with the department, and maintains for a period of 3 years, proof of his financial responsibility in the limits required by law."

Section 3. Section 61-11-213, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-11-213. Habitual traffic offender operating motor vehicle guilty of misdemeanor. ~~Any~~ A person found to be ~~an~~ a habitual traffic offender under this part~~,~~ and who ~~thereafter~~ operates a motor vehicle in this state while the order of the court prohibiting ~~such~~ the operation remains in effect~~, shall be~~ is guilty of a misdemeanor~~,~~ and upon conviction ~~thereof~~ shall be imprisoned for a period of not more than 1 year or fined not more than $1,000, or both, and the department, upon receiving a record of the conviction of a person under this section, shall extend the period of revocation for an additional 1 year. However, in cases ~~wherein~~ in which the prohibited operation of a motor vehicle by ~~an~~ a habitual traffic offender is necessitated in a situation of extreme emergency in order to save life, limb, or property, he ~~shall~~ may not be ~~deemed~~ considered guilty of a violation under this part."

Section 4. Repealer. Section 61-11-214, MCA, is repealed.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 391

[HB 635]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE MONTANA LIVING WILL ACT TO CONFORM TO THE UNIFORM RIGHTS OF THE TERMINALLY ILL ACT; PROVIDING THAT OTHER INDIVIDUALS MAY AUTHORIZE THE WITHHOLDING OR WITHDRAWAL OF LIFE-SUSTAINING TREATMENT; CLARIFYING WHEN A DECLARATION RELATING TO THE USE OF LIFE-SUSTAINING TREATMENT IS OPERATIVE; PROVIDING FOR THE PRESUMPTION OF THE VALIDITY OF DECLARATIONS RELATING TO THE USE OF LIFE-SUSTAINING TREATMENT; AMENDING SECTIONS 50-9-101, 50-9-102, 50-9-103, 50-9-104, 50-9-201, 50-9-202, 50-9-203, 50-9-204, 50-9-205, AND 50-9-206, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 50-9-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-101. Short title. This chapter may be cited as the "Montana ~~Living Will~~ Rights of the Terminally Ill Act"."

Section 2. Section 50-9-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-102. Definitions. As used in this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Attending physician" means the physician selected by or assigned to the patient, who has primary responsibility for the treatment and care of the patient.

(2) "Board" means the Montana state board of medical examiners.

(3) "Declaration" means a document executed in accordance with the requirements of 50-9-103.

(4) "Department" means the department of health and environmental sciences.

(5) "Emergency medical services personnel" means paid or volunteer firefighters, law enforcement officers, first responders, emergency medical technicians, or other emergency services personnel acting within the ordinary course of their professions.

(6) "Health care provider" means a person who is licensed, certified, or otherwise authorized by the law of this state to administer health care in the ordinary course of business or practice of a profession.

(7) "Life-sustaining ~~procedure~~ treatment" means any medical procedure or intervention that, when administered to a qualified patient, will serve only to prolong the dying process.

(8) "Living will protocol" means a locally developed, community-wide method or a standardized, state-wide method developed by the department and approved by the board, of providing palliative care to and withholding life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment from a qualified patient under 50-9-202 by emergency medical service personnel.

(9) "Person" means an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision or agency, or any other legal or commercial entity.

~~(9)~~(10) "Physician" means ~~a person~~ an individual licensed under Title 37, chapter 3, to practice medicine in this state.

~~(10)~~(11) "Qualified patient" means a patient 18 or more years of age who has executed a declaration in accordance with this chapter and who has been determined by the attending physician to be in a terminal condition.

~~(11)~~(12) "Reliable documentation" means a standardized, state-wide identification card or form or a necklace or bracelet of uniform design, adopted by a written, formal understanding of the local community emergency medical services agencies and licensed hospice and home health agencies, that signifies and certifies that a valid and current declaration is on file and that the individual is a qualified patient.

(13) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

~~(12)~~(14) "Terminal condition" means an incurable or irreversible condition that, without the administration of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment, will, in the opinion of the attending physician, result in death within a relatively short time."

Section 3. Section 50-9-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-103. Declaration relating to use of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ *treatment — designee. (1) ~~Any competent adult~~ An individual of sound mind and 18 or more years of age may execute at any time a declaration ~~at any time~~ ~~directing that~~ governing the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~procedures be withheld or withdrawn~~ treatment. The declarant may designate another individual of sound mind and 18 or more years of age to make decisions governing the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment. ~~However, the declaration is effective only if the declarant's condition is determined to be terminal and the declarant is not able to make treatment decisions.~~ The declaration must be signed by the declarant, or another at the declarant's direction, ~~in the presence of~~ and witnessed by two ~~witnesses~~ individuals. A physician or health care provider may presume, in the absence of actual notice to the contrary, that the declaration complies with this chapter and is valid.

(2) ~~It is the responsibility of the declarant to notify his physician of the declaration. A physician or other health care provider who is provided a~~

~~copy of the declaration shall make it a part of the declarant's medical records.~~

~~(3)~~ A declaration directing a physician to withhold or withdraw life-sustaining treatment may, but need not, be in the following form:

DECLARATION

If I should have an incurable or irreversible condition that, without the administration of life-sustaining treatment, will, in the opinion of my attending physician, cause my death within a relatively short time~~, it is my desire that my life not be prolonged by administration of life-sustaining procedures. If my condition is terminal~~ and I am ~~unable to participate in~~ no longer able to make decisions regarding my medical treatment, I direct my attending physician, pursuant to the Montana Rights of the Terminally Ill Act, to withhold or withdraw ~~procedures~~ treatment that ~~merely prolong~~ only prolongs the ~~dying~~ process of dying and ~~are~~ is not necessary to my comfort or ~~freedom from~~ to alleviate pain. ~~It is my intention that this declaration shall be valid until revoked by me.~~

(4) If the designation of an attorney-in-fact pursuant to 72-5-501 and 72-5-502, or the judicial appointment of an individual, contains written authorization to make decisions regarding the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining treatment, that designation or appointment constitutes, for the purposes of this part, a declaration designating another individual to act for the declarant pursuant to subsection (1).

(5) A physician or other health care provider who is furnished a copy of the declaration shall make it a part of the declarant's medical record and, if unwilling to comply with the declaration, promptly so advise the declarant and any individual designated to act for the declarant."

Section 4. Section 50-9-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-104. Revocation of declaration. (1) A declarant may revoke a declaration ~~may be revoked~~ at any time and in any manner ~~by which the declarant is able to communicate his intent to revoke~~, without regard to mental or physical condition. A revocation is effective ~~only as to the attending physician or any health care provider acting under the guidance of that physician~~ upon its communication to the attending physician or other health care provider by the declarant or ~~by another to whom~~ a witness to the revocation ~~was communicated~~. A health care provider or emergency medical services personnel witnessing a revocation shall act upon the revocation and shall communicate the revocation to the attending physician at the earliest opportunity. A revocation communicated to a person other than the attending physician, emergency medical services personnel, or a health care provider is not effective unless the attending physician is informed of it before the qualified patient is in need of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment.

(2) The attending physician or other health care provider shall make the revocation a part of the declarant's medical record."

Section 5. Section 50-9-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-201. Recording determination of terminal condition and content of declaration. ~~When an attending physician who has been notified of the existence and content of a declaration determines that the~~ Upon determining that a declarant is in a terminal condition, the attending physician who knows of a declaration shall record that determination and the ~~content~~ terms of the declaration in the declarant's medical record."

Section 6. Section 50-9-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-202. Treatment of qualified patients. (1) A qualified patient ~~has the right to~~ may make decisions regarding ~~use of~~ life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment ~~if~~ so long as the patient is able to do so. ~~If a qualified patient is not able to make such decisions, the declaration governs decisions regarding use of life-sustaining procedures.~~

(2) This chapter does not ~~prohibit the application of any medical procedure or intervention~~ affect the responsibility of the attending physician or other health care provider to provide treatment, including ~~the provision of~~ nutrition and hydration, ~~considered necessary to provide~~ for a patient's comfort care or ~~to alleviate~~ alleviation of pain.

(3) ~~The declaration of a qualified patient~~ Life-sustaining treatment cannot be withheld or withdrawn pursuant to a declaration from an individual known to the attending physician to be pregnant ~~must be given no effect if~~ so long as it is probable that the fetus ~~could~~ will develop to the point of live birth with continued application of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment."

Section 7. Section 50-9-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-203. Transfer of patients. ~~(1)~~ An attending physician or other health care provider who is unwilling to comply with ~~the requirements of 50-9-201 or who is unwilling to comply with the declaration of a qualified patient in accordance with 50-9-202~~ this chapter shall take all reasonable steps as promptly as practicable to transfer care of the declarant to another physician or health care provider who is willing to do so.

~~(2)~~ If the policies of a health care facility preclude compliance with the declaration of a qualified patient under this chapter, that facility shall take all reasonable steps to transfer the patient to a facility in which the provisions of this chapter can be carried out."

Section 8. Section 50-9-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-204. Immunities. (1) In the absence of actual notice of the revocation of a declaration, the following, while acting in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, are not subject to civil or criminal liability or guilty of unprofessional conduct:

(a) a physician who causes the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment from a qualified patient;

(b) a person who participates in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment under the direction or with the authorization of a physician;

(c) emergency medical services personnel who cause or participate in the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment under the direction of or with the authorization of a physician or who on receipt of reliable documentation follow a living will protocol;

(d) emergency medical services personnel who proceed to provide life-sustaining treatment to a qualified patient pursuant to a revocation communicated to them; and

(e) a health care facility in which withholding or withdrawal occurs.

(2) A physician or other health care provider whose action under this chapter is in accord with reasonable medical standards is not subject to civil or criminal liability ~~for actions under this chapter that are in accord with reasonable medical standards~~ or discipline for unprofessional conduct with respect to that decision.

(3) A physician or other health care provider whose decision about the validity of consent under [section 12] is made in good faith is not subject to criminal or civil liability or discipline for unprofessional conduct with respect to that decision.

(4) An individual designated pursuant to 50-9-103(1) or an individual authorized to consent pursuant to [section 12], whose decision is made or consent is given in good faith pursuant to this chapter, is not subject to criminal or civil liability or discipline for unprofessional conduct with respect to that decision."

Section 9. Section 50-9-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-205. Effect on insurance — patient's decision. (1) Death resulting from the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~procedures pursuant to a declaration and~~ treatment in accordance with this chapter ~~is~~ does not constitute, for any purpose, a suicide or homicide.

(2) The making of a declaration pursuant to 50-9-103 does not affect ~~in any manner~~ the sale, procurement, or issuance of any policy of life insurance or annuity, nor does it affect, impair, or modify the terms of an existing policy of life insurance. ~~No~~ A policy of life insurance is not legally impaired or invalidated ~~in any manner~~ by the withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment from an insured ~~qualified patient~~, notwithstanding any term of the policy to the contrary.

(3) ~~No physician, health care facility, or other health care provider and no health care service plan, insurer issuing disability insurance, self-insured employee welfare benefit plan, or nonprofit hospital plan~~ A person may not prohibit or require ~~any person to execute~~ the execution of a declaration as a condition for being insured for or receiving health care services.

(4) This chapter creates no presumption concerning the intention of an individual who has revoked or has not executed a declaration with respect to the use, withholding, or withdrawal of life-sustaining ~~procedures~~ treatment in the event of a terminal condition.

(5) ~~Nothing in this~~ This chapter ~~increases or decreases~~ does not affect the right of a patient to make decisions regarding use of life-sustaining ~~procedures if~~ treatment, so long as the patient is able to do so, or ~~impairs~~ impair or ~~supersedes~~ supersede ~~any~~ a right or responsibility that any person has to effect the withholding or withdrawal of medical care ~~in any lawful manner. In that respect, the provisions of this chapter are cumulative~~.

(6) This chapter does not require a physician or other health care provider to take action contrary to reasonable medical standards.

~~(6)~~(7) This chapter does not condone, authorize, or approve mercy killing or euthanasia."

Section 10. Section 50-9-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-9-206. Penalties. (1) A physician or other health care provider who willfully fails to transfer the care of a patient in accordance with 50-9-203 is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(2) A physician who willfully fails to record the determination of terminal condition or the terms of a declaration in accordance with 50-9-201 is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(3) ~~A person~~ An individual who purposely conceals, cancels, defaces, or obliterates the declaration of another without the declarant's consent or who falsifies or forges a revocation of the declaration of another is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(4) ~~A person~~ An individual who falsifies or forges the declaration of another individual or purposely conceals or withholds personal knowledge of a revocation as provided in 50-9-104~~, with the intent to cause a withholding or withdrawal of life-sustaining procedures,~~ is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(5) A person who requires or prohibits the execution of a declaration as a condition for being insured for or receiving health care service is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(6) A person who coerces or fraudulently induces an individual to execute a declaration is guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $500 or imprisonment in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both.

(7) The penalties provided in this section do not displace any sanction applicable under other law."

Section 11. When declaration operative. (1) A declaration becomes operative when:

(a) it is communicated to the attending physician; and

(b) the declarant is determined by the attending physician to be in a terminal condition and no longer able to make decisions regarding administration of life-sustaining treatment.

(2) When the declaration becomes operative, the attending physician and other health care providers shall act in accordance with its provisions and with the instructions of a designee under 50-9-103(1) or comply with the transfer requirements of 50-9-203.

Section 12. Consent by others to withholding or withdrawal of treatment. (1) If a written consent to the withholding or withdrawal of the treatment, witnessed by two individuals, is given to the attending physician, the attending physician may withhold or withdraw life-sustaining treatment from an individual who:

(a) has been determined by the attending physician to be in a terminal condition and no longer able to make decisions regarding administration of life-sustaining treatment; and

(b) has no effective declaration.

(2) The authority to consent or to withhold consent under subsection (1) may be exercised by the following individuals, in order of priority:

(a) the spouse of the individual;

(b) an adult child of the individual or, if there is more than one adult child, a majority of the adult children who are reasonably available for consultation;

(c) the parents of the individual;

(d) an adult sibling of the individual or, if there is more than one adult sibling, a majority of the adult siblings who are reasonably available for consultation; or

(e) the nearest other adult relative of the individual by blood or adoption who is reasonably available for consultation.

(3) If a class entitled to decide whether to consent is not reasonably available for consultation and competent to decide or if it declines to decide, the next class is authorized to decide. However, an equal division in a class does not authorize the next class to decide.

(4) A decision to grant or withhold consent must be made in good faith. A consent is not valid if it conflicts with the expressed intention of the individual.

(5) A decision of the attending physician acting in good faith that a consent is valid or invalid is conclusive.

(6) Life-sustaining treatment cannot be withheld or withdrawn pursuant to this section from an individual known to the attending physician to be pregnant so long as it is probable that the fetus will develop to the point of live birth with continued application of life-sustaining treatment.

Section 13. When health care provider may presume validity of declaration. In the absence of knowledge to the contrary, a physician or other health care provider may assume that a declaration complies with this chapter and is valid.

Section 14. Effect of previous declaration. An instrument executed before October 1, 1991, that substantially complies with 50-9-103(1) is effective under this chapter.

Section 15. Codification instruction. [Sections 11 through 14] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 50, chapter 9, and the provisions of Title 50, chapter 9, apply to [sections 11 through 14].

Section 16. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 392

[HB 639]

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE A LATE FEE FOR LATE RENEWAL OF A LICENSE TO ENGAGE IN THE BUSINESS OF CLEANING SEPTIC TANKS, CESSPOOLS, AND PRIVIES; TO ALLOCATE PROCEEDS FROM LATE FEES AND THE STATE'S SHARE OF ANNUAL LICENSE FEES TO FUND PROGRAMS TO ENFORCE THE LAWS REGULATING THE BUSINESS OF CLEANING SEPTIC TANKS, CESSPOOLS, AND PRIVIES; AND AMENDING SECTION 37-41-202, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-41-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-41-202. Licenses — nontransferability — fees. (1) Licenses expire on December 31 of each calendar year. Licenses are not transferable. If a licensee ceases to do business, the license ~~shall~~ must be surrendered to the department.

(2) The fee for each license is $25, payable at the time of application for the license. A federal agency, city, town, or other political subdivision is not required to pay the license fee, but such agency, including a federal agency if allowed by federal law, shall comply with all other requirements of this chapter. The department shall annually return 80% of the fees ~~collected from a county to that~~ to the county where the fees were collected. The state portion of the fee ~~shall~~ must be deposited in the ~~state general fund~~ account provided for in [section 2]. The county portion of the fee ~~shall~~ must be used to defer cost of the county to enforce this chapter.

(3) In addition to the license fee required under subsection (2), the department shall collect a late fee from any licensee who has failed to submit a license renewal fee prior to the expiration of his current license and who operates a business governed by this chapter in the licensing year. The late fee is $25 and must be deposited in the account provided for in [section 2]."

Section 2. Special revenue account. There is an account in the state special revenue fund. Money in the account is allocated to the department to fund programs to enforce the provisions of this chapter and rules adopted by the department under 37-41-103.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Section 2] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 37, chapter 41, and the provisions of Title 37, chapter 41, apply to [section 2].

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 393

[HB 831]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF INSTITUTIONS TO ADOPT STANDARDS GOVERNING THE APPROVAL OF CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY TREATMENT PROGRAMS AND RULES GOVERNING THE USE OF COUNTYWIDE TREATMENT PLANS IN DETERMINING COUNTY NEEDS FOR TREATMENT, REHABILITATION, AND PREVENTION OF CHEMICAL DEPENDENCY; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 53-24-208 AND 53-24-211, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 1] requires the department of institutions to adopt standards for approval of chemical dependency treatment programs and because [section 2] grants the department the authority to adopt rules specifying the use to be made of countywide plans for the treatment, rehabilitation, and prevention of chemical dependency in the department's determination of the needs of the counties. It is the intent of the legislature that the department adopt rules addressing the content, organization, management, and personnel requirements of treatment programs and that the rules governing the use of the countywide plans discourage duplication of program services.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-24-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-24-208. Facility standards. (1) The department shall establish standards for approved treatment facilities that must be met for a treatment facility to be approved as a public or private treatment facility and fix the fees to be charged for the required inspections. The standards shall be adopted by rule and may concern ~~only~~ the health standards to be met and standards ~~of~~ for the approval of treatment ~~to be afforded~~ programs for patients.

(2) Facilities applying for approval must demonstrate a local need currently exists for proposed services and that the proposed services do not duplicate existing local services.

(3) The department shall periodically inspect approved public and private treatment facilities at reasonable times and in a reasonable manner.

(4) The department shall maintain a list of approved public and private treatment facilities.

(5) Each approved public and private treatment facility shall, on request, file with the department data, statistics, schedules, and information the department reasonably requires. An approved public or private treatment facility that without good cause fails to furnish any data, statistics, schedules, or information as requested or files fraudulent returns thereof shall be removed from the list of approved treatment facilities.

(6) The department, after holding a hearing in accordance with the Montana Administrative Procedure Act, may suspend, revoke, limit, or restrict an approval or refuse to grant an approval for failure to meet its standards.

(7) A district court may restrain any violation of this section, review any denial, restriction, or revocation of approval, and grant other relief required to enforce its provisions.

(8) Upon petition of the department and after a hearing held upon reasonable notice to the facility, a district court may issue a warrant to the department authorizing it to enter and inspect at reasonable times and examine the books and accounts of any approved public or private treatment facility refusing to consent to inspection or examination by the department or which the department has reasonable cause to believe is operating in violation of this chapter."

Section 2. Section 53-24-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-24-211. County plan to be submitted to department. (1) Every 4 years each county shall submit to the department a comprehensive countywide plan for the treatment, rehabilitation, and prevention of chemical dependency. Each county shall also submit annual plan updates that include, at a minimum, allocation to approved programs of revenues generated by taxation on alcoholic beverages.

(2) The plan must have been approved by the board of county commissioners and must contain information regarding existing private and public chemical dependency programs within the county. The plan must also contain information regarding the current and future needs of the county for the treatment, rehabilitation, and prevention of chemical dependency.

(3) The department shall approve or disapprove the countywide plan and annual updates. If the department disapproves a plan or update, the county may submit another plan or update to the department. In distributing funds to approved programs in a county, the department shall give consideration to the county plan.

(4) The department may adopt rules regarding the submission, submission dates, updates, approval, and disapproval of plans and the use of plans by the department in determining the needs of the county for the treatment, rehabilitation, and prevention of chemical dependency. No money may be distributed to a county by the department for the treatment, rehabilitation, and prevention of chemical dependency if the county does not comply with these rules."

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 394

[HB 974]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A RURAL PHYSICIAN INCENTIVE PROGRAM; CREATING A RURAL PHYSICIAN INCENTIVE TRUST FUND; PROVIDING FUNDING FOR THE RURAL PHYSICIAN INCENTIVE TRUST FUND; PROVIDING EDUCATIONAL DEBT PAYMENT PROVISIONS FOR ELIGIBLE RURAL PHYSICIANS; AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF REGENTS OF HIGHER EDUCATION TO CHARGE CERTAIN STUDENTS FEES FOR PURPOSES OF FUNDING THE PROGRAM; STATUTORILY APPROPRIATING THE RURAL PHYSICIAN INCENTIVE TRUST FUND TO THE BOARD OF REGENTS; AMENDING SECTION 17-7-502, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Rural physician incentive trust fund. There is a rural physician incentive expendable trust fund in the state treasury. Money is payable into the fund as provided in [section 2]. Income and earnings on the fund must be redeposited in the fund. The fund must be administered by the board of regents of higher education as provided in [sections 1 through 4].

Section 2. Fee assessments — deposits. The board of regents of higher education may assess a fee to students preparing to be physicians in the fields of medicine or osteopathic medicine who are supported by the state pursuant to an interstate compact for a professional education program in those fields, as those fields are defined by the compact. The fee may not exceed an amount equal to 8% of the annual individual medicine support fee paid by the state pursuant to 20-25-804. The fee must be assessed by the board of regents and deposited in the rural physician incentive trust fund established in [section 1].

Section 3. Use of rural physician incentive trust fund. (1) The rural physician incentive trust fund is statutorily appropriated, as provided in 17-7-502, to the board of regents of higher education to be used to pay:

(a) the educational debts of rural physicians who practice in medically underserved areas of the state that demonstrate a need for assistance in physician recruitment; and

(b) the expenses of administering the rural physician incentive program. The expenses of administering the program may not exceed 10% of the annual fees assessed pursuant to [section 2].

(2) The board of regents shall establish procedures for determining the areas of the state that qualify for assistance in physician recruitment. An eligible area must demonstrate that a physician shortage exists or that the area has been unsuccessful in recruiting physicians by other mechanisms.

(3) A physician from an area determined to be eligible under subsection (2) may apply to the board of regents for payment of an educational debt directly related to a professional school, as provided in subsection (4). Physicians who have paid the fee authorized in [section 2] must be given a preference over other applicants. To receive the educational debt payments, the physician shall sign an annual contract with the board of regents. The contract must provide that the physician is liable for the payments if the physician ceases to practice in the eligible area during the contract period.

(4) The maximum amount of educational debt payment that a rural physician may receive is $30,000 over a 4-year period or a proportionally reduced amount for a shorter period.

(5) The amount contractually committed in a year may not exceed the annual amount deposited in the rural physician incentive trust fund.

Section 4. Section 17-7-502, MCA, is amended to read:

"17-7-502. Statutory appropriations — definition — requisites for validity. (1) A statutory appropriation is an appropriation made by permanent law that authorizes spending by a state agency without the need for a biennial legislative appropriation or budget amendment.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4), to be effective, a statutory appropriation must comply with both of the following provisions:

(a) The law containing the statutory authority must be listed in subsection (3).

(b) The law or portion of the law making a statutory appropriation must specifically state that a statutory appropriation is made as provided in this section.

(3) The following laws are the only laws containing statutory appropriations: 2-9-202; 2-17-105; 2-18-812; 10-3-203; 10-3-312; 10-3-314; 10-4-301; 13-37-304; 15-1-111; 15-25-123; 15-31-702; 15-36-112; 15-37-117; 15-65-121; 15-70-101; 16-1-404; 16-1-410; 16-1-411; 17-3-212; 17-5-404; 17-5-424; 17-5-804; 19-8-504; 19-9-702; 19-9-1007; 19-10-205; 19-10-305; 19-10-506; 19-11-512; 19-11-513; 19-11-606; 19-12-301; 19-13-604; 20-6-406; 20-8-111; 20-9-361; 23-5-306; 23-5-409; 23-5-610; 23-5-612; 23-5-1016; 23-5-1027; 27-12-206; 37-51-501; 39-71-2504; 53-6-150; 53-24-206; 61-2-406; 61-5-121; 67-3-205; 75-1-1101; 75-5-1108; 75-11-313; 76-12-123; 80-2-103; 82-11-136; 82-11-161; 90-3-301; 90-4-215; 90-4-613; 90-6-331; 90-9-306; [section 3]; and section 13, House Bill No. 861, Laws of 1985.

(4) There is a statutory appropriation to pay the principal, interest, premiums, and costs of issuing, paying, and securing all bonds, notes, or other obligations, as due, that have been authorized and issued pursuant to the laws of Montana. Agencies that have entered into agreements authorized by the laws of Montana to pay the state treasurer, for deposit in accordance with 17-2-101 through 17-2-107, as determined by the state treasurer, an amount sufficient to pay the principal and interest as due on the bonds or notes have statutory appropriation authority for such payments. (In subsection (3), pursuant to sec. 10, Ch. 664, L. 1987, the inclusion of 39-71-2504 terminates June 30, 1991.) "

Section 5. Applicability. [This act] applies to students enrolling in a professional school on or after July 1, 1992.

Section 6. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 8, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 395

[SB 107]

AN ACT REVISING THE AMOUNT OF MONEY A LOCAL GOVERNMENT MAY APPROPRIATE TO FINANCE A STUDY COMMISSION; AND AMENDING SECTION 7-3-184, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-3-184, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-3-184. Financial administration. (1) A study commission shall prepare a budget for each fiscal year it is in existence and submit it to the local governing body for approval.

(2) (a) For the support of the study commission, for each fiscal year the study commission is in existence, each local government under study shall appropriate ~~the equivalent of at least 1 mill~~ an amount necessary to fund the study, not to exceed 1 mill, and the local government may levy up to 1 mill in excess of all other mill levies authorized by law to fund the appropriation for the support of the study commission.

(b) The local government shall provide office and meeting space and clerical assistance to the study commission. The cost of clerical assistance and other in-kind services provided by the local government may be used to partially fulfill the appropriation requirement of subsection (2)(a).

(c) The local government may in its discretion provide additional funds and other assistance.

(3) The study commission may apply for and accept available private, state, and federal money and may accept donations from any source.

(4) All money received by the study commission shall be deposited with the local government finance administrator. The finance administrator is authorized to disburse appropriated money of the study commission on the study commission's order after approval of the budget by the governing body. Unexpended money of the study commission does not revert to the general fund of the local government at the end of the fiscal year but carries over to the study commission's appropriation for the following fiscal year. Upon termination of the study commission, unexpended money reverts to the general fund of the local government."

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 396

[SB 276]

AN ACT REQUIRING PAYMENT OF A PARTIAL SALARY TO A FIREFIGHTER INJURED IN THE PERFORMANCE OF DUTY.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Payment of partial salary to firefighter injured in performance of duty. (1) A member of a fire department of a first- or second-class municipality who is injured in the performance of duty must be paid by the municipality the difference between his net salary, following adjustments for income taxes and pension contributions, and the amount received from workers' compensation until the disability has ceased, as determined by workers' compensation, or for a period not to exceed 1 year, whichever occurs first.

(2) To qualify for the partial salary payment provided for in subsection (1), the firefighter must require medical or other remedial treatment and must be incapable of performing his duties as a result of the injury.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 7, chapter 33, part 41, and the provisions of Title 7, chapter 33, part 41, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 397

[SB 321]

AN ACT REVISING THE CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION ACT OF MONTANA TO PROVIDE COMPENSATION TO INNOCENT VICTIMS OF DUI OFFENDERS; PROVIDING BENEFITS TO VICTIMS INJURED OR KILLED IN STATES THAT DO NOT HAVE VICTIMS COMPENSATION PROGRAMS THAT COMPENSATE RESIDENTS OF THIS STATE; REMOVING THE FAMILY EXCLUSION AND PROVIDING BENEFITS TO AN INNOCENT VICTIM REGARDLESS OF RESIDENCE WITH THE OFFENDER OR HIS ACCOMPLICE; AMENDING SECTIONS 53-9-102, 53-9-103, AND 53-9-125, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-9-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-9-102. Legislative purpose and intent. It is the intent of the legislature of this state to provide a method of compensating and assisting those persons within the state who are innocent victims of criminal acts and who suffer bodily injury or death and those innocent citizens of this state who are injured or killed in a state that does not have a crime victims compensation program that covers out-of-state residents injured or killed in that state. To this end, it is the legislature's intention to provide compensation for injuries suffered as a direct result of the criminal acts of other persons."

Section 2. Section 53-9-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-9-103. Definitions. As used in this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Claimant" means any of the following claiming compensation under this part:

(a) a victim;

(b) a dependent of a deceased victim; or

(c) an authorized person acting on behalf of any of them.

(2) "Collateral source" means a source of benefits, other than welfare benefits, or advantages for economic loss otherwise compensable under this part which the claimant has received or which is readily available to him from:

(a) the offender;

(b) the government of the United States or any agency thereof, a state or any of its political subdivisions, or an instrumentality of two or more states, unless the law providing for the benefits or advantages makes them excess or secondary to benefits under this part;

(c) social security, medicare, and medicaid;

(d) workers' compensation;

(e) wage continuation programs of any employer;

(f) proceeds of a contract of insurance payable to the claimant for loss which was sustained because of the criminally injurious conduct; ~~or~~

(g) a contract, including an insurance contract, providing hospital and other health care services or benefits for disability. Any such contract in this state may not provide that benefits under this part shall be a substitute for benefits under the contract or that the contract is a secondary source of benefits and benefits under this part are a primary source~~.~~; or

(h) a crime victims compensation program operated by the state in which the victim was injured or killed that compensates residents of this state injured or killed in that state.

(3) "Criminally injurious conduct" means conduct that:

(a) occurs or is attempted in this state;

(b) results in bodily injury or death; and

(c) is punishable by fine, imprisonment, or death or would be so punishable but for the fact that the person engaging in the conduct lacked capacity to commit the crime under the laws of this state. Criminally injurious conduct does not include conduct arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle unless the bodily injury or death occurred during the commission of an offense defined in Title 45 that requires the mental state of purposely as an element of the offense~~.~~ or the injury or death was inflicted by the driver of a motor vehicle who is found by the division, by a preponderance of the evidence, to have been operating the motor vehicle while under the influence, as that term is defined in 61-8-401; or

(d) is committed in a state without a crime victims compensation program that covers a resident of this state if the conduct meets the requirements in subsections (3)(b) and (3)(c).

(4) "Dependent" means a natural person who is recognized under the law of this state to be wholly or partially dependent upon the victim for care or support and includes a child of the victim conceived before the victim's death but born after the victim's death, including a child that is conceived as a result of the criminally injurious conduct.

(5) "Division" means the division of crime control of the department of justice.

(6) "Victim" means a person who suffers bodily injury or death as a result of:

(a) criminally injurious conduct;

(b) his good faith effort to prevent criminally injurious conduct; or

(c) his good faith effort to apprehend a person reasonably suspected of engaging in criminally injurious conduct."

Section 3. Section 53-9-125, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-9-125. Limitations on awards. (1) Compensation may not be awarded unless the claim is filed with the division within 1 year after the day the criminally injurious conduct occurred causing the injury or death upon which the claim is based. The time for filing a claim may be extended by the division for good cause shown.

(2) Compensation may not be awarded to a claimant who is the offender or an accomplice of the offender or to any claimant if the award would unjustly benefit the offender or accomplice. ~~Unless the division determines that the interests of justice otherwise require in a particular case, compensation may not be awarded to the spouse of or a person living in the same household with the offender or his accomplice or to the parent, child, brother, or sister of the offender or his accomplice.~~

(3) Compensation may not be awarded unless the criminally injurious conduct resulting in injury or death was reported to a law enforcement officer within 72 hours after its occurrence or the division finds there was good cause for the failure to report within that time.

(4) In order to be entitled to benefits under this part, a claimant must fully cooperate with all law enforcement agencies and prosecuting attorneys in the apprehension and prosecution of the offender causing the criminally injurious conduct. The division, upon finding that the claimant or victim has not fully cooperated with appropriate law enforcement agencies or prosecuting attorneys, may deny or reconsider and reduce an award of compensation.

(5) Compensation otherwise payable to a claimant shall be reduced or denied to the extent the compensation benefits payable are or can be recouped from collateral sources.

(6) Persons serving a sentence of imprisonment or residing in any other public institution which provides for the maintenance of such person are not entitled to the benefits of this part.

(7) Compensation may be denied or reduced if the victim contributed to the infliction of death or injury with respect to which the claim is made. Any reduction in benefits under this subsection shall be in proportion to what the division finds to be the victim's contribution to the infliction of death or injury."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 398

[SB 346]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A SOLID WASTE MANAGEMENT FEE ON WASTE GENERATED OUT OF STATE; AMENDING SECTIONS 75-10-104, 75-10-105, 75-10-116, AND 75-10-117, MCA; REPEALING SECTION 75-10-110, MCA; AND PROVIDING A DELAYED EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the State of Montana presently is faced with proposals to import out-of-state waste for disposal in Montana; and

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 209 would enact a tipping fee on disposal of solid waste generated within Montana to fund the development of an adequate solid waste regulatory program; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Montana should not have to subsidize the regulation of solid waste that originates in other states.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Solid waste management fee. (1) A person who owns an incinerator that burns solid waste or a solid waste disposal facility that is licensed pursuant to 75-10-221 and to rules adopted under 75-10-221 shall pay to the department a quarterly fee of $5 for each ton of solid waste generated outside Montana and incinerated or disposed of at the facility.

(2) All fees must be deposited in the solid waste management account provided for in 75-10-117.

Section 2. Section 75-10-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-104. Duties of department. The department shall:

(1) prepare a state solid waste management and resource recovery plan for submission to the board;

(2) prepare rules necessary for the implementation of this part for submission to the board, including but not limited to rules:

(a) governing the submission of plans for a solid waste management system;

(b) governing procedures to be followed in applying for and making loans;

(c) governing agreements between a local government and the department for grants or loans under this part;

(d) establishing, for the purpose of determining the solid waste management fee to which a facility is subject under ~~75-10-115~~ [section 1], methods for determining or estimating the amount of solid waste incinerated or disposed of at a facility; and

(e) providing procedures for the quarterly collection of the solid waste management fee provided for in ~~75-10-115~~ [section 1]; ~~and~~

~~(f) providing guidelines for a waiver of fees for certain incineration or disposal of solid waste, as provided for in 75-10-115(2);~~

(3) provide financial assistance to local governments for front-end planning activities for a proposed solid waste management system which is compatible with the state plan whenever financial assistance is available;

(4) provide technical assistance to persons within the state for planning, designing, constructing, financing, and operating a solid waste management system in order to insure that the system conforms to the state plan;

(5) provide front-end organizational loans for the implementation of an approved solid waste management system whenever funds for loans are available;

(6) enforce and administer the provisions of this part;

(7) administer loans made by the state under the provisions of this part; and

(8) approve plans for a proposed solid waste management system submitted by a local government."

Section 3. Section 75-10-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-105. Powers of department. The department may:

(1) accept loans and grants from the federal government and other sources to carry out the provisions of this part;

(2) make loans to a local government for the planning, design, and implementation of a solid waste management system;

(3) make grants for a local government for planning or implementation of a solid waste management system; and

(4) collect the solid waste management fee provided for in ~~75-10-115~~ [section 1]."

Section 4. Section 75-10-116, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-116. Penalties for failure to pay fee. A person who owns a solid waste disposal facility subject to a fee under ~~75-10-115~~ [section 1] and fails to pay the fee in the manner provided by department rule is subject to a fine of not more than $2,000 or imprisonment not to exceed 6 months, or both, and shall reimburse the department for the amount of the fee owed and interest calculated at a rate equal to the previous fiscal year's average rate of return on the board of investments' short-term investment pool."

Section 5. Section 75-10-117, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-117. Solid waste management account. (1) There is a solid waste management account in the state special revenue fund provided for in 17-2-102.

(2) There must be deposited in the account:

(a) all revenue from the solid waste management fee provided for in ~~75-10-115~~ [section 1]; and

(b) money received by the department in the form of legislative appropriations, reimbursements, gifts, federal funds, or appropriations from any source, intended to be used for the purposes of the account.

(3) The account may be used by the department only for the administration of part 2, this part, and 75-2-215."

Section 6. Repealer. Section 75-10-110, MCA, is repealed.

Section 7. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 75, chapter 10, part 1, and the provisions of Title 75, chapter 10, part 1, apply to [section 1].

Section 8. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1993.

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 399

[HB 175]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT THE TRUSTEES OF AN ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT SHALL ESTABLISH OR MAKE AVAILABLE A KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM IN THE DISTRICT; AMENDING SEC-TION 20-7-117, MCA; AND PROVIDING A DELAYED EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-7-117, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-7-117. Five-year-old schooling and preschool programs. (1) The trustees of an elementary district ~~may~~ shall establish or make available a program capable of accommodating, at a minimum, all the children in the district who will be 5 years old on or before September 10 of the school year for which the program is to be conducted or who have been enrolled by special permission of the board of trustees. The program ~~shall~~ must be an integral part of the elementary school and ~~shall~~ must be financed and governed accordingly, provided that to be eligible for inclusion in the calculation of ANB pursuant to 20-9-311, a child must have reached the age of 5 on or before September 10 of the school year covered by the calculation or have been enrolled by special permission of the board of trustees.

(2) The trustees of an elementary school district may establish and operate a free preschool program for children between the ages of 3 and 5 years. When ~~such~~ preschool programs are established, they ~~shall~~ must be an integral part of the elementary school and ~~shall~~ must be governed accordingly. Financing of preschool programs ~~shall~~ may not be supported by ~~moneys~~ money available from state equalization aid."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1992.

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 400

[HB 383]

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES TO REGULATE INDUSTRIAL FURNACES AND INDUSTRIAL BOILERS THAT BURN HAZARDOUS WASTES IF THERE ARE NO FEDERAL REGULATIONS OR TO REGULATE THEM MORE STRINGENTLY THAN FEDERAL REGULATIONS; AMENDING SECTION 75-10-405, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it expands and clarifies rulemaking authority delegated to the department of health and environmental sciences. It is the intent of the legislature to provide the authority for the adoption of administrative rules for the operation and performance of industrial boilers and industrial furnaces that burn hazardous wastes. The department currently has two applications for interim status permits for such fuel-burning activities at cement plants operating in the state.

The United States environmental protection agency (EPA) was scheduled to have published performance regulations by the end of 1990 for industrial furnaces and industrial boilers, including cement kilns, but it has not published these regulations. The EPA has the authority and has been requested to approve two cement kilns that would burn hazardous wastes before the EPA regulations are in effect. It is the intent of the legislature to ensure that adequate state regulations are in place before any hazardous wastes are burned.

It is the additional intent of the legislature to allow the state regulations to be more restrictive than the federal regulations if needed to adequately protect the citizens and environment of Montana.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-10-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-405. Administrative rules. (1) The department may adopt, amend, or repeal rules governing hazardous waste, including but not limited to the following:

(a) identification and classification of those hazardous wastes subject to regulation and those that are not;

(b) requirements for the proper treatment, storage, transportation, and disposal of hazardous waste;

(c) requirements for siting, design, operation, maintenance, monitoring, inspection, closure, postclosure, and reclamation of hazardous waste management facilities;

(d) requirements for the issuance, denial, renewal, modification, and revocation of permits for hazardous waste management facilities;

(e) requirements for corrective action within and outside of facility boundaries and for financial assurance of that corrective action;

(f) requirements for manifests and the manifest system for tracking hazardous waste and for reporting and recordkeeping by generators, transporters, and owners and operators of hazardous waste management facilities;

(g) requirements for training of facility personnel and for financial assurance of facility owners and operators and for liability of guarantors providing financial assurance;

(h) requirements for registration of generators and transporters;

(i) a schedule of fees for hazardous waste management facility permits and registration of hazardous waste generators;

(j) a schedule of fees to defray a portion of the costs of establishing, operating, and maintaining any state hazardous waste management facility authorized by 75-10-412;

(k) requirements for availability to the public of information obtained by the department regarding facilities and sites used for the treatment, storage, and disposal of hazardous wastes; and

(l) other rules which are necessary to obtain and maintain authorization under the federal program.

(2) The department may not adopt rules under this part that are more restrictive than those promulgated by the federal government under the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended, except that the department:

(a) may require the registration of transporters not otherwise required to register with the state of Montana pursuant to the federal Resource Conservation and Recovery Act of 1976, as amended;

(b) may require generators and facilities to report on an annual rather than on a biennial basis;

(c) may adopt requirements for the prevention and correction of leakage from underground storage tanks, including:

(i) reporting by owners and operators;

(ii) financial responsibility;

(iii) release detection, prevention, and corrective action;

(iv) standards for design, construction, installation, and closure;

(v) development of a schedule of fees, not to exceed $50 for a tank over 1,100 gallons and not to exceed $20 for a tank 1,100 gallons or less, per tank, for tank notification and permits to defray state and local costs of implementing an underground storage tank program; and

(vi) delegation of authority and funds to local agents for inspections and implementation. The delegation of authority to local agents must complement and may not duplicate existing authority for implementation of rules adopted by the state fire marshal that relate to underground storage tanks.

(d) may adopt regulatory requirements for hazardous waste transfer facilities; ~~and~~

(e) shall require the owner or manager of any proposed commercial facility for the storage, collection, or transfer of hazardous waste to conduct a public hearing, as provided for in 75-10-441~~.~~; and

(f) may adopt rules and performance standards for industrial furnaces and boilers that burn hazardous wastes. The rules and performance standards:

(i) may be adopted if there are no federal regulations; or

(ii) may be more restrictive than federal regulations."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 401

[HB 390]

AN ACT ELIMINATING THE SALE OF SPECIAL WILD BUFFALO LICENSES; ESTABLISHING THE WILD BUFFALO OR BISON AS A SPECIES IN NEED OF MANAGEMENT; ESTABLISHING DEPARTMENTAL MANAGEMENT DUTIES; URGING THE STATE AND THE NATIONAL PARK SERVICE TO ENTER INTO AN AGREEMENT FOR THE LONG-TERM MANAGEMENT OF THE YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK HERD; REQUIRING A REPORT ON THE PROGRESS OF BISON MANAGEMENT TO THE 53RD LEGISLATURE; AMENDING SECTION 87-2-701, MCA; REPEALING SECTION 87-2-723, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 2] requires the department of fish, wildlife, and parks to develop rules to implement a program for management of wild buffalo or bison that have not been reduced to captivity and that threaten property or persons in this state. It is intended that the rules be consistent, as far as practicable, with the general nongame wildlife management policy set out in 87-5-103, except that the department may provide for means of controlling or eliminating wild buffalo or bison that pose a potential threat to property or persons in Montana and may adopt other rules specific to wild buffalo or bison as may be necessary for the proper and safe management of the species. It is intended that the authority of the department be exercised in coordination with and complementary to the authority of the department of livestock to regulate, control, and eliminate wild buffalo or bison that pose a threat of the transmission of contagious disease to persons or livestock in Montana.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-2-701, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-701. (Temporary) Special licenses. (1) Any applicant who will be 12 years of age or older prior to September 15 of the season for which the license is issued and is the holder of a resident wildlife conservation license or a nonresident wildlife conservation license may apply for a special license which, in the judgment of the department, is to be issued and shall pay the following fees therefor:

(a) moose—resident, $50; nonresident, $320;

(b) mountain goat—resident, $50; nonresident, $320;

(c) mountain sheep—resident, $50; nonresident, $320;

(d) antelope—resident, $6; nonresident, $120;

(e) grizzly bear—resident, $50; nonresident, $300;

(f) black or brown bear—nonresident, $120~~;~~

~~(g) wild buffalo—resident, $200; nonresident, $1,000~~.

(2) In the event a holder of a valid special grizzly bear license kills a grizzly bear, he ~~must~~ shall purchase a trophy license for a fee of $25 within 10 days after date of kill. ~~Such~~ The trophy license ~~shall authorize~~ authorizes the holder to possess and transport ~~said~~ the trophy.

(3) Special licenses ~~shall~~ must be issued in a manner prescribed by the department. (Terminates March 1, 1994—sec. 12, Ch. 598, L. 1987.)

87-2-701. (Effective March 1, 1994) Special licenses. (1) Any applicant who will be 12 years of age or older prior to September 15 of the season for which the license is issued and is the holder of a resident wildlife conservation license or a nonresident wildlife conservation license may apply for a special license which, in the judgment of the department, is to be issued and shall pay the following fees therefor:

(a) moose—resident, $50; nonresident, $300;

(b) mountain goat—resident, $50; nonresident, $300;

(c) mountain sheep—resident, $50; nonresident, $300;

(d) antelope—resident, $6; nonresident, $100;

(e) grizzly bear—resident, $50; nonresident, $300;

(f) black or brown bear—nonresident, $100~~;~~

~~(g) wild buffalo—resident, $200; nonresident, $1,000~~.

(2) In the event a holder of a valid special grizzly bear license kills a grizzly bear, he ~~must~~ shall purchase a trophy license for a fee of $25 within 10 days after date of kill. ~~Such~~ The trophy license ~~shall authorize~~ authorizes the holder to possess and transport ~~said~~ the trophy.

(3) Special licenses ~~shall~~ must be issued in a manner prescribed by the department."

Section 2. Wild buffalo as species in need of management — policy — department duties. (1) The legislature finds that the management through hunting of wild buffalo or bison is not appropriate but that significant potential exists for the spread of contagious disease to persons or livestock in Montana and damage to persons and property by wild buffalo or bison. Therefore, it is the purpose of this section to designate wild buffalo or bison, which have not been reduced to captivity, as a species in need of management and to set out specific departmental duties for management of the species.

(2) The department:

(a) is responsible for and shall develop rules to implement the management of wild buffalo or bison in this state that threaten persons or property other than through the transmission of contagious disease;

(b) shall develop rules to manage and reduce the number of wild buffalo or bison that leave Yellowstone national park.

(3) The department of livestock shall, within its statutory authority, regulate wild buffalo or bison in this state that pose a threat to persons or livestock in Montana through the transmission of contagious disease.

(4) The department of fish, wildlife, and parks and the department of livestock are strongly urged to enter into an agreement with the national park service for the long-term management of the Yellowstone national park herd. If the national park service does not proceed in good faith in a timely manner to enter a long-term management agreement that in the determination of the department of fish, wildlife, and parks and the department of livestock responds adequately to the needs of Montana, the departments are strongly urged to take appropriate court action. The department of fish, wildlife, and parks and the department of livestock shall prepare a joint report to the 53rd legislature regarding the present state of bison management in Montana and any progress on an agreement for the long-term management of the Yellowstone national park herd.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Section 2] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 87, chapter 1, and the provisions of Title 87, chapter 1, apply to [section 2].

Section 4. Repealer. Section 87-2-723, MCA, is repealed.

Section 5. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 402

[HB 640]

AN ACT TO REVISE THE DEFINITION OF "FETAL DEATH" TO INCLUDE THE BIRTH OF A DEAD FETUS BEFORE 20 WEEKS OF GESTATION IF THE FETUS WEIGHS MORE THAN 500 GRAMS AT THE TIME OF DELIVERY; AND AMENDING SECTION 50-15-101, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 50-15-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-15-101. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in parts 1 through 4 the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means the board of health and environmental sciences provided for in 2-15-2104.

(2) "Dead body" means a lifeless human body or parts of a body from which it reasonably may be concluded that death occurred recently.

(3) "Department" means the department of health and environmental sciences provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 21.

(4) "Dissolution of marriage" means a marriage terminated pursuant to Title 40, chapter 4, part 1.

(5) "Fetal death" means a birth after 20 weeks of gestation ~~which~~, or before 20 weeks of gestation if the fetus weighs more than 500 grams at the time of delivery, that is not a live birth.

(6) "Invalid marriage" means a marriage decreed by a district court to be invalid for the reasons contained in 40-1-402.

(7) "Live birth" means the birth of a child who shows evidence of life after being entirely outside the mother.

(8) "Local registrar" means a person appointed by the department to act as its agent in administering this chapter in the area set forth in the letter of appointment.

(9) "Person in charge of interment" means a person who places or causes to be placed a dead body or the ashes after cremation in a grave, vault, urn, or other receptacle or otherwise disposes of the body.

(10) "Physician" means a person legally authorized to practice medicine in this state.

(11) "Vital statistics" includes the registration, preparation, transcription, collection, compilation, and preservation of data pertaining to births, adoptions, legitimations, deaths, fetal deaths, marital status, and incidental supporting data."

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 403

[HB 641]

AN ACT MODIFYING REQUIREMENTS FOR AN APPLICATION FOR A PERMIT UNDER THE METAL MINE RECLAMATION STATUTES; AND AMENDING SECTION 82-4-335, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 82-4-335, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-335. Operating permit — limitation. (1) A person may not engage in mining, ore processing, or reprocessing of tailings or waste material, construct or operate a hard-rock mill, use cyanide ore-processing reagents, or disturb land in anticipation of those activities in the state without first obtaining an operating permit from the board. A separate operating permit is required for each complex.

(2) A small miner who intends to use a cyanide ore-processing reagent shall obtain an operating permit for that part of his operation where the cyanide ore-processing reagent will be used or disposed of.

(3) Prior to receiving an operating permit from the board, a person shall pay the basic permit fee of $25 and shall submit an application on a form provided by the board, which must contain the following information and any other pertinent data required by rule:

(a) name and address of the operator and, if a corporation or other business entity, the name and address of its principal officers, partners, and the like and its resident agent for service of process, if required by law;

(b) minerals expected to be mined;

(c) a proposed reclamation plan;

(d) expected starting date of operations;

(e) a map showing the specific area to be mined and the boundaries of the land which will be disturbed, topographic detail, the location and names of all streams, roads, railroads, and utility lines on or immediately adjacent to the area, and the location of proposed access roads to be built~~, and~~;

(f) the names and addresses of the ~~surface and mineral owners of all lands within the mining area, to the extent known to the applicant~~ owners of record and any purchasers under contracts for deed of the surface of the land within the permit area and the owners of record and any purchasers under contracts for deed of all surface area within one-half mile of any part of the permit area, provided that the department is not required to verify this information;

(g) the names and addresses of the present owners of record and any purchasers under contracts for deed of all minerals in the land within the permit area, provided that the department is not required to verify this information;

(h) the source of the applicant's legal right to mine the mineral on the land affected by the permit, provided that the department is not required to verify this information;

~~(f)~~(i) types of access roads to be built and manner of reclamation of road sites on abandonment;

~~(g)~~(j) a plan which will provide, within limits of normal operating procedures of the industry, for completion of the operation;

~~(h)~~(k) ground water and surface water hydrologic data gathered from a sufficient number of sources and length of time to characterize the hydrologic regime;

~~(i)~~(l) a plan detailing the design, operation, and monitoring of impounding structures, including but not limited to tailings impoundments and water reservoirs, sufficient to ensure that the structures are safe and stable;

~~(j)~~(m) a plan identifying methods to be used to monitor for the accidental discharge of objectionable materials and remedial action plans to be used to control and mitigate discharges to surface or ground water; and

~~(k)~~(n) an evaluation of the expected life of any tailings impoundment or waste area and the potential for expansion of the tailings impoundment or waste site.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (6), the permit provided for in subsection (1) for a large-scale mineral development as defined in 90-6-302 must be conditioned to provide that activities under the permit may not commence until the impact plan is approved under 90-6-307 and until the permittee has provided a written guarantee to the department and to the hard-rock mining impact board of compliance within the time schedule with the commitment made in the approved impact plan, as provided in 90-6-307. If the permittee does not comply with that commitment within the time scheduled, the board, upon receipt of written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board, shall suspend the permit until it receives written notice from the hard-rock mining impact board that the permittee is in compliance.

(5) When the department determines that a permittee has become or will become a large-scale mineral developer pursuant to 82-4-339 and 90-6-302(4) and provides notice as required under 82-4-339, within 6 months of receiving the notice, the permittee shall provide the board with proof that he has obtained a waiver of the impact plan requirement from the hard-rock mining impact board or that he has filed an impact plan with the hard-rock mining impact board and the appropriate county or counties. If the permittee does not file the required proof or if the hard-rock mining impact board certifies to the board that the permittee has failed to comply with the hard-rock mining impact review and implementation requirements in Title 90, chapter 6, parts 3 and 4, the board shall suspend the permit until the permittee files the required proof or until the hard-rock mining impact board certifies that the permittee has complied with the hard-rock mining impact review and implementation requirements.

(6) Compliance with 90-6-307 is not required for exploration and bulk sampling for metallurgical testing when the aggregate samples are less than 10,000 tons.

(7) A person may not be issued an operating permit if that person's failure to comply with the provisions of this part, the rules adopted under this part, or a permit or license issued under this part has resulted in the forfeiture of a bond unless that person meets the conditions described in 82-4-360."

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 404

[HB 642]

AN ACT TO REVISE THE MONTANA CHILD CARE ACT; TO CHANGE THE DEFINITION OF "CHILD" TO MEAN A PERSON UNDER 13 YEARS OF AGE; TO LIMIT THE TYPE OF GROUP EDUCATION FACILITIES THAT ARE EXCLUDED FROM LICENSURE OR REGISTRATION AS A DAY-CARE FACILITY; TO DEFINE THE TERM "RELATED BY BLOOD OR MARRIAGE" FOR THE PURPOSE OF CLARIFYING THOSE PERSONS WHO MAY PROVIDE DAY CARE TO CHILDREN WITHOUT MEETING STATE LICENSING AND REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS; AMENDING SECTION 52-2-703, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 52-2-703, MCA, is amended to read:

"52-2-703. Definitions. In this part, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Child" means a person under ~~12~~ 13 years of age.

(2) "Day-care facility" means a person, association, or place, incorporated or unincorporated, that provides day care on a regular basis. It includes a family day-care home, a day-care center, or a group day-care home. The term does not include:

(a) a person who limits care to children who are related to him by blood or marriage or under his legal guardianship; or

(b) any group facility established chiefly for educational purposes that limits its services to children who are 3 years of age or older.

(3) "Day-care center" means a place in which day care is provided to 13 or more children on a regular basis.

(4) "Department" means the department of family services provided for in 2-15-2401.

(5) "Day care" or "child care" means less-than-24-hour out-of-home care for children, whether that care is for daytime or nighttime hours.

(6) "Regular basis" means providing day care to children of separate families for any daily periods of less than 24 hours and within 3 or more consecutive weeks.

(7) "Family day-care home" means a private residence in which day care is provided to three to six children from separate families on a regular basis.

(8) "Group day-care home" means a private residence in which day care is provided to 7 to 12 children on a regular basis.

(9) "Registration" means the process whereby the department maintains a record of all family day-care homes and group day-care homes, prescribes standards, promulgates rules, and requires the operator of a family day-care home or a group day-care home to certify that he has complied with the prescribed standards and promulgated rules.

(10) "Registrant" means the holder of a registration certificate issued by the department in accordance with the provisions of this part.

(11) "Registration certificate" means a written instrument issued by the department to publicly document that the certificate holder has, in writing, certified to the department his compliance with this part and the applicable standards for family day-care homes and group day-care homes.

(12) "License" means a written document issued by the department that the license holder has complied with this part and the applicable standards and rules for day-care centers.

(13) "Licensee" means the holder of a license issued by the department in accordance with the provisions of this part.

(14) (a) "Related by blood or marriage" means the status of a child who is the son, daughter, brother, sister, first cousin, nephew, niece, or grandchild of a person providing child care.

(b) The term includes the status of a child described in subsection (14)(a) in a step or adoptive relationship."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 405

[HB 700]

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES TO ISSUE HEALTH CARE FACILITY LICENSES FOR A PERIOD OF 1 TO 3 YEARS IN DURATION; ALLOWING THE DEPARTMENT TO INSPECT HEALTH CARE FACILITIES LESS OFTEN THAN ANNUALLY; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 50-5-201, 50-5-203, AND 50-5-204, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 50-5-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-5-201. License requirements. (1) A licensee who contemplates construction of or alteration or addition to a health care facility shall submit plans and specifications to the department for preliminary inspection and approval prior to commencing construction.

(2) No person may operate a health care facility unless the facility is licensed by the department. Licenses ~~shall be for 1 year unless issued for a shorter period~~ may be issued for a period of 1 to 3 years in duration. A license is valid only for the person and premises for which it was issued. A license may not be sold, assigned, or transferred.

(3) Upon discontinuance of the operation or upon transfer of ownership of a facility, the license must be returned to the department.

(4) Licenses shall be displayed in a conspicuous place near the admitting office of the facility."

Section 2. Section 50-5-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-5-203. Application for license. The procedure to apply for a license is as follows:

(1) At least 30 days prior to the opening of a facility and ~~annually thereafter~~ after that no later than the expiration date of the license, application is made to the department accompanied by the license fee.

(2) The application shall contain:

(a) the name and address of the applicant if an individual, the name and address of each member if a firm, partnership, or association, or the name and address of each officer if a corporation;

(b) the location of the facility;

(c) the name of the person or persons who will manage or supervise the facility;

(d) the number and type of patients or residents for which care is provided;

(e) any information which the department may require pertaining to the number, experience, and training of employees;

(f) information on ownership, contract, or lease agreement if operated by a person other than the owner."

Section 3. Section 50-5-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"50-5-204. Issuance and renewal of licenses — inspections. (1) After receipt of a new ~~or renewal~~ application, the department or its authorized agent shall ~~inspect the facility without prior notice to the operator or staff~~ conduct an initial inspection of the facility within 45 days.

(2) After receipt of an application for renewal of a license, the department or its authorized agent shall inspect the facility without prior notice to the operator or staff.

~~(2)~~(3) If the department determines that the facility meets minimum standards and the proposed or existing staff is qualified, the department shall issue a license for ~~1 year~~ a period of 1 to 3 years in duration.

~~(3)~~(4) If minimum standards are not met, the department may issue a provisional license for less than 1 year if operation will not result in undue hazard to patients or residents or if the demand for accommodations offered is not met in the community.

~~(4)~~(5) The minimum standards which home health agencies must meet in order to be licensed must be as outlined in 42 U.S.C. 1395 x(o), as amended, and in rules implementing it which add minimum standards.

~~(5)~~(6) The department may inspect a licensed health care facility whenever it considers it necessary. The entire premises of a licensed facility must be open to inspection, and access to all records must be granted at all reasonable times."

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 406

[HB 765]

AN ACT REQUIRING THAT A VOTER REGISTRATION FORM BE ATTACHED TO DRIVER'S LICENSE APPLICATIONS; PROVIDING

FOR VOTER REGISTRATION AT THE TIME OF APPLICATION; AMENDING SECTION 61-5-107, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-5-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-107. Application for license, instruction permit, commercial vehicle operator's endorsement, or motorcycle endorsement. (1) Every application for an instruction permit, driver's license, commercial vehicle operator's endorsement, or motorcycle endorsement shall be made upon a form furnished by the department. A motorcycle endorsement is required for the operation of a quadricycle. Every application shall be accompanied by the proper fee, and payment of such fee shall entitle the applicant to not more than three attempts to pass the examination within a period of 6 months from the date of application. A voter registration form for mail registration as prescribed by the secretary of state shall be attached to each driver's license application. If the applicant wishes to register to vote, the department shall accept the registration and forward the form to the election administrator.

(2) Every such application shall state the full name, date of birth, sex, and residence address of the applicant, and briefly describe the applicant, and shall state whether the applicant has previously been licensed as a driver or commercial vehicle operator, and, if so, when and by what state or country, and whether any such license has ever been suspended or revoked, or whether an application has ever been refused, and, if so, the date of and reason for such suspension, revocation, or refusal.

(3) Whenever application is received from an applicant previously licensed by any other jurisdiction, the department shall request a copy of such applicant's driving record from such previous licensing jurisdiction. When received, such driving records shall become a part of the driver's record in this state with the same force and effect as though entered on the driver's record in this state in the original instance."

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 407

[HB 858]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A STATEWIDE HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE PUBLIC EDUCATION PROGRAM; DEFINING HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE; AND AMENDING SECTION 75-10-203, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-10-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-203. Definitions. Unless the context requires otherwise, in this part the following definitions apply:

(1) "Board" means the board of health and environmental sciences provided for in 2-15-2104.

(2) "Department" means the department of health and environmental sciences provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 21.

(3) "Dispose" or "disposal" means the discharge, injection, deposit, dumping, spilling, leaking, or placing of any solid waste into or onto the land so that the solid waste or any constituent of it may enter the environment or be emitted into the air or discharged into any waters, including ground water.

(4) "Household hazardous waste" means products commonly used in the home that due to corrosivity, ignitability, reactivity, toxicity, or other chemical or physical properties are dangerous to human health or the environment. Household hazardous waste includes but is not limited to cleaning, home maintenance, automobile, personal care, and yard maintenance products.

~~(4)~~(5) "Household waste" means any solid waste derived from households, including single and multiple residences, hotels, and motels, crew quarters, and campgrounds and other public recreation and public land management facilities.

~~(5)~~(6) "Municipal solid waste landfill" means any publicly or privately owned landfill or landfill unit that receives household waste or other types of waste, including commercial waste, nonhazardous sludge, and industrial solid waste. The term does not include land application units, surface impoundments, injection wells, or waste piles.

~~(6)~~(7) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, company, association, corporation, city, town, local governmental entity, or any other governmental or private entity, whether organized for profit or not.

~~(7)~~(8) "Resource recovery" means the recovery of material or energy from solid waste.

~~(8)~~(9) "Resource recovery facility" means a facility at which solid waste is processed for the purpose of extracting, converting to energy, or otherwise separating and preparing solid waste for reuse.

~~(9)~~(10) "Resource recovery system" means a solid waste management system which provides for the collection, separation, recycling, or recovery of solid wastes, including disposal of nonrecoverable waste residues.

~~(10)~~(11) "Solid waste" means all putrescible and nonputrescible wastes, including but not limited to garbage; rubbish; refuse; ashes; sludge from sewage treatment plants, water supply treatment plants, or air pollution control facilities; construction and demolition wastes; dead animals, including offal; discarded home and industrial appliances; and wood products or wood byproducts and inert materials. "Solid waste" does not mean municipal sewage, industrial wastewater effluents, mining wastes regulated under the mining and reclamation laws administered by the department of state lands, slash and forest debris regulated under laws administered by the department of state lands, or marketable byproducts.

~~(11)~~(12) "Solid waste management system" means a system which controls the storage, treatment, recycling, recovery, or disposal of solid waste.

~~(12)~~(13) "Storage" means the actual or intended containment of wastes, either on a temporary basis or for a period of years.

~~(13)~~(14) "Transport" means the movement of wastes from the point of generation to any intermediate points and finally to the point of ultimate storage or disposal.

~~(14)~~(15) "Treatment" means a method, technique, or process, including neutralization, designed to change the physical, chemical, or biological character or composition of any solid waste so as to neutralize the waste or so as to render it safer for transport, amenable for recovery, amenable for storage, or reduced in volume."

Section 2. Statewide household hazardous waste public education program. The department shall implement a statewide household hazardous waste public education program. The program must include but is not limited to providing information about:

(1) alternatives to disposal of household hazardous waste at municipal solid waste landfills and other disposal sites;

(2) methods of reusing or recycling household hazardous waste; and

(3) alternatives to the use of products that lead to the generation of household hazardous waste.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Section 2] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 75, chapter 10, part 2, and the provisions of Title 75, chapter 10, part 2, apply to [section 2].

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 408

[HB 952]

AN ACT REQUIRING SAND AND GRAVEL OPENCUT MINES AND CONCRETE AND ASPHALT PROCESSING FACILITIES TO COMPLY WITH APPLICABLE LOCAL ZONING REGULATIONS; AMENDING SECTIONS 76-1-113, 76-2-209, 82-4-431, AND 82-4-432, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY PROVISION.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 76-1-113, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-1-113. Effect of chapter on natural resources. ~~Nothing~~ (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), nothing in this chapter ~~shall~~ may be ~~deemed~~ considered to authorize an ordinance, resolution, or rule ~~which~~ that would prevent the complete use, development, or recovery of any mineral, forest, or agricultural resources by the owner thereof.

(2) The complete use, development, or recovery of a mineral by an operation that mines sand and gravel and an operation that mixes concrete or batches asphalt on a site that is located within a geographic area zoned as residential are subject to the zoning regulations adopted under Title 76, chapter 2."

Section 2. Section 76-2-209, MCA, is amended to read:

"76-2-209. Effect on natural resources. (1) ~~No~~ Except as provided in 82-4-431 and 82-4-432, a resolution or rule adopted pursuant to the provisions of this part, except 76-2-206, ~~shall~~ may not prevent the complete use, development, or recovery of any mineral, forest, or agricultural resources by the owner thereof.

(2) The complete use, development, or recovery of a mineral by an operation that mines sand and gravel and an operation that mixes concrete or batches asphalt on a site that is located within a geographic area zoned as residential are subject to the zoning regulations adopted under this chapter."

Section 3. Section 82-4-431, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-431. Contract for reclamation required. (1) After March 16, 1973, ~~no~~ an operator may not conduct opencut-mining operations which will result in the removal of 10,000 cubic yards or more of product or overburden until he has entered into a contract with the board for the reclamation of the land affected. An operator conducting a number of operations, each of which results in the removal of less than 10,000 cubic yards of product or overburden but which result in the removal of 10,000 cubic yards or more of product or overburden in the aggregate, is subject to the provisions of this part, except as provided in this section.

(2) (a) Except as provided in or conditioned under subsections (2)(b) and (2)(c), an operator who holds a contract for reclamation may operate an opencut mine without first securing an additional contract or an amendment to the existing contract or bond if the mine meets the following criteria:

(i) the total amount of material and overburden removed does not exceed 1,000 cubic yards; and

(ii) the operator notifies the department of state lands prior to beginning such operations and, within 30 days of notifying the department, submits a completed site information form, salvages and stockpiles all root-bearing soil materials, regrades the affected area to 3:1 or flatter slope and blends the reclaimed area into the adjacent topography, and during the first appropriate growing season replaces all topsoil and reseeds or revegetates as required by the department.

(b) The department may refuse to allow the operator to operate an opencut mine under subsection (2)(a) if, at the time of notification by the operator to the department, the operator has a pattern of violations or is in current violation of this part or rules adopted under this part or provisions of a contract for reclamation.

(c) The department may require an additional bond as a condition for the operation of an opencut mine under subsection (2)(a).

(3) Opencut mines described in subsection (2) may not be placed in flowing, ephemeral, or intermittent streams, in the bottom or head of a confined drainage, in an area where the operation will intercept ground water or intercept any slope that is naturally steeper than 3:1, or in any area where mining would be restricted by other laws.

(4) Sand and gravel opencut mines must meet applicable local zoning regulations adopted under Title 76, chapter 2."

Section 4. Section 82-4-432, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-432. Application for contract — contents — issuance — amendment. (1) Applications for a contract ~~shall~~ must be made upon a form furnished by the board~~, which~~. The form ~~shall~~ must contain the following:

(a) the name of the operator and, if other than the owner of the land, the name and address of the owner;

(b) the type of operation to be conducted;

(c) the volume of earth to be removed, as accurately as the volume may then be estimated, and the volume which has been previously removed, if any;

(d) the location of the operation by legal subdivision, section, township and range, and county;

(e) the date when the operation was or will be commenced; and

(f) a statement that the applicant has the right and power by legal estate owned to mine by opencut mining the lands so described.

(2) The application ~~shall~~ must be accompanied by:

(a) a bond or security meeting the requirements as set out in this part;

(b) a fee of $50; ~~and~~

(c) a statement from the local governing body having jurisdiction over the area to be mined certifying that a proposed sand and gravel opencut mine and its operating and reclamation plans comply with applicable local zoning regulations adopted under Title 76, chapter 2; and

~~(c)~~(d) the operator's plan of his operation and the method and manner of reclamation that will be used or followed.

(3) If, prior to applying for a contract, the operator notifies the board of his intention to submit a plan and requests the board to examine the area to be mined, the board shall cause the area to be examined and make recommendations to the operator regarding reclamation.

(4) Upon receipt of the application, bond or security, and fee due from the operator and upon agreement to the terms of the contract by the parties, the board may issue a contract to the applicant which entitles him to continue in or engage in opencut mining on the land therein described.

(5) An operator desiring to have his contract amended to cover additional contiguous or nearby land may file an amended application with the board. Upon receipt of the amended application and such additional bond as may be required and upon agreement to the terms of the amendment by the parties, the board may issue an amendment to the original contract covering the additional land described in the amended application without the payment of any additional fee.

(6) An operator may withdraw any land covered by contract, except affected land, by notifying the board thereof, in which case the penalty of the bond or security filed by the operator pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be reduced proportionately."

Section 5. Applicability. (1) [This act] does not apply to:

(a) an area for which a contract was issued prior to [the effective date of this act] or for which an application for contract or contract amendment was filed with the department of state lands prior to February 23, 1991; or

(b) an area:

(i) that is contiguous to an area described in subsection (1)(a);

(ii) for which the holder of the contract has the legal right to mine on [the effective date of this act]; and

(iii) for which the contract holder files with the department on or before January 1, 1992, on a form provided by the department, a legal description of the area, evidence of the legal right to mine, and certification that the contract holder holds the property for the purpose of future sand or gravel mining.

(2) Before June 1, 1991, the department shall mail notice of the provisions and passage of [this act] and the form described in subsection (1)(b)(iii) to each person who holds a current contract on [the effective date of this act] or who had, prior to February 23, 1991, submitted an application for contract or contract amendment that the department had not approved or denied as of February 23, 1991.

(3) The department shall maintain a list of areas for which certifications have been filed pursuant to subsection (1)(b) and shall provide a copy of the list to any person who requests the list.

Section 6. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 9, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 409

[SB 8]

AN ACT REGULATING THE PRACTICE OF REAL ESTATE APPRAISING; ESTABLISHING THE BOARD OF REAL ESTATE APPRAISERS; PROVIDING FOR LICENSURE AND CERTIFICATION OF REAL ESTATE APPRAISERS; PROVIDING PENALTIES; ESTABLISHING FEES; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 4] grants rulemaking authority to the newly established board of real estate appraisers.

(1) It is the intent of [section 4] that the board have authority to adopt rules to implement and enforce [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28], including specific authority to adopt rules regarding:

(a) license and certificate applications and procedures necessary to receive and process those applications;

(b) examinations and criteria for grading examinations;

(c) disciplinary standards for licensees and certificate holders, including definitions of conduct for which discipline may be appropriate;

(d) continuing education requirements;

(e) the investigation of complaints received under [section 10];

(f) the setting and modification of appropriate fees;

(g) a process for renewal of licenses and certificates, including a procedure for late renewal;

(h) the retention of board records;

(i) the adoption and modification of standards of professional appraisal practice as set out in [section 13];

(j) reciprocity conditions applicable to licensure and certification as set out in [section 23]; and

(k) procedures for granting temporary permits as set out in [section 28].

(2) It is the intent of [section 3] that the governor have the authority to implement staggered terms for board members during the appointment process.

(3) It is intended that the board of real estate appraisers address by rule the implementation of practices mandated for the profession by future federal legislation and notify the department of commerce of statutory changes necessary to effect those practices, to allow consideration by the legislature.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Short title. [Sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] may be cited as the "Real Estate Appraiser Licensing and Certification Act".

Section 2. Definitions. As used in [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28], unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Appraisal" or "real estate appraisal" means an analysis, opinion, or conclusion relating to the nature, quality, value, or utility of a specified interest in or aspects of identified real estate.

(2) "Appraisal assignment" means an appraisal classified by the nature of the assignment as:

(a) a valuation appraisal, which is an analysis, opinion, or conclusion prepared by a real estate appraiser that estimates the value of an identified parcel of real estate or identified real property at a particular point in time;

(b) an analysis assignment, which is an analysis, opinion, or conclusion prepared by a real estate appraiser that relates to the nature, quality, or utility of identified real estate or identified real property; or

(c) a review assignment, which is an analysis, opinion, or conclusion prepared by a real estate appraiser that forms an opinion as to the adequacy and appropriateness of a valuation appraisal.

(3) "Appraisal foundation" means the appraisal foundation incorporated as an Illinois not-for-profit corporation on November 30, 1987. The purposes of the appraisal foundation are to:

(a) establish and improve uniform appraisal standards by defining, issuing, and promoting those standards;

(b) establish appropriate criteria for the certification and recertification of qualified appraisers by defining, issuing, and promoting qualification criteria and disseminate the qualification criteria to states and other governmental entities; and

(c) develop or assist in the development of appropriate examinations for qualified appraisers.

(4) "Appraisal report" means a written or oral communication of a real estate appraisal. An appraisal report for a federally related transaction must be in writing. An appraisal report may be classified by the nature of the assignment as a "valuation report", an "analysis report", or a "review report". For the purposes of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28], testimony of a licensed or certified real estate appraiser dealing with the appraiser's analyses, opinions, or conclusions concerning identified real estate or identified real property is considered an oral appraisal report.

(5) "Board" means the board of real estate appraisers provided for in [section 3].

(6) "Certified appraisal report" means an appraisal or appraisal report given or signed and certified by a certified real estate appraiser. When identifying an appraisal or appraisal report as "certified", the certified real estate appraiser shall indicate the class of certification the appraiser holds.

(7) "Certified real estate appraiser" means a person who develops and communicates real estate appraisals and who has a valid real estate appraisal certificate issued under [section 21].

(8) "Department" means the department of commerce provided for in 2-15-1801.

(9) "Independent appraisal service" means an engagement for which a person is employed or retained to act, or would be perceived by a third party or the public as acting, as a disinterested third party in rendering an unbiased analysis, opinion, or conclusion relating to the nature, quality, value, or utility of identified real estate or identified real property.

(10) "Licensed real estate appraiser" means a person who holds a current valid real estate appraiser license issued under [section 5].

(11) "Real estate" means an identified parcel or tract of land, including any improvements on the land.

(12) "Real property" means one or more defined interests, benefits, and rights inherent in the ownership of real estate.

Section 3. Board of real estate appraisers. (1) There is a board of real estate appraisers.

(2) The board consists of five members appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate.

(3) Three members must be licensed or certified real estate appraisers, and two members must be representatives of the public who are not engaged in the occupation of real estate appraisal.

(4) Only one member of the board may be primarily affiliated with the same recognized appraisal group defined by the appraisal foundation.

(5) (a) Before January 1, 1992, a real estate appraiser board member must be a designated member of a national real estate appraisal organization that requires for membership appraisal experience, certain educational qualifications, successful completion of an examination, and adherence to the standards of professional appraisal practice.

(b) On and after January 1, 1992, three real estate appraiser board members must be certified real estate appraisers.

(6) Members shall serve staggered 3-year terms. A member may not serve for more than two consecutive terms.

(7) The board is allocated to the department for administrative purposes only, as prescribed in 2-15-121.

(8) A board member may be removed from the board by the governor for neglect or cause.

(9) The board shall meet at least once each calendar quarter to transact its business. Three members constitute a quorum for transacting business.

(10) The board shall elect a chairman from among its members.

(11) A board member shall receive compensation and travel expenses as provided in 37-1-133.

Section 4. Powers and duties of board. The board shall:

(1) adopt rules to implement and administer the provisions of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28];

(2) establish and collect fees commensurate with the costs of licensure and certification and renewal of a license or certificate;

(3) make available application forms for licensure and certification within 15 days of the first meeting of the board;

(4) establish minimum requirements for education, experience, and examination for licensure and certification as set out by the appraisal qualification board of the appraisal foundation;

(5) receive applications for examination from qualified applicants, prescribe and administer examinations to qualified applicants, and determine the acceptable level of performance on examinations;

(6) receive and review applications for licensure and certification and issue licenses and certificates;

(7) review periodically the standards for development and communication of appraisals and adopt rules explaining and interpreting the standards;

(8) retain all applications and other records submitted to it;

(9) maintain a registry of the names and addresses of licensees and certificate holders;

(10) establish disciplinary procedures for reprimand, suspension, or revocation of a license and certificate;

(11) adopt by rule standards of professional appraisal practice in this state;

(12) reprimand, suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew the license or certificate of a person who has violated the standards established for licensed and certified real estate appraisers;

(13) establish criteria for courses and seminars consistent with the continuing education requirements set out in [sections 8 and 24]; and

(14) perform other duties necessary to implement [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

Section 5. Real estate appraiser license — scope and display of license. (1) Upon proof that an applicant meets the qualifications set out in [section 6] and upon payment of license fees adopted under [section 4], the board shall issue to the applicant a real estate appraiser license.

(2) The term "licensed real estate appraiser" may not be used to describe a firm, partnership, corporation, group, or anyone other than an individual licensee. However, a licensed real estate appraiser may engage in real estate appraisal as a professional corporation.

(3) Nothing in [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] precludes a person who is not a licensed or certified real estate appraiser from appraising real property for nonfederally related transactions for compensation, provided the person does not represent himself as a licensed or certified real estate appraiser. A person who refers to himself or his company as being licensed under this section or certified under [sections 18 through 20] without possessing the applicable license or certificate is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(4) This section does not:

(a) prohibit a person who is licensed to practice in this state under any law from engaging in the practice for which he is licensed;

(b) apply to public officials in the conduct of their official duties that are not governed by the rules established by the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) agencies.

(5) A licensed real estate appraiser has restrictions on the scope of practice, depending on the value and complexity of the federally related transaction or transactions pursuant to rules established by the federal financial institutions examination council (FFIEC) agencies, and the restrictions must remain current with any changes in those rules.

(6) A licensed real estate appraiser shall conspicuously display the license in his principal place of business.

Section 6. Qualifications for licensure. To qualify for a real estate appraiser license, an applicant:

(1) shall successfully complete at least 75 classroom hours of a course of study described in [section 7] and approved by the board.

(a) The course of study must be conducted by:

(i) an accredited university, college, or junior college;

(ii) an approved real estate appraisal or real estate-related organization; or

(iii) another school approved by the board.

(b) The classroom hours must include:

(i) at least 60 hours relating to the basic principles of land economics and real estate appraisal; and

(ii) at least 15 hours relating to the standards of professional appraisal practice set out in [section 13] and the ethical rules, as established by board rule, to be observed by a real estate appraiser.

(2) shall pass an examination administered by the board that is based on the study required by [section 7] and subsection (1) of this section and is designed to test the applicant's knowledge of the basic principles of land economics and real estate appraisal, standards of professional appraisal practice, and ethical rules to be observed by a real estate appraiser;

(3) must be of good moral character;

(4) must have experience in real estate appraisal as prescribed by the board. The board shall adopt rules pertaining to real estate appraisal experience that substantially comply with and are not more stringent than those required for compliance with Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989.

(5) shall comply with any other requirements related to the practice of real estate appraisal as prescribed by the board by rule.

Section 7. Course of study. A course of study acceptable under [section 6] must include the following subjects:

(1) technical terms commonly used in or related to:

(a) real estate appraisal;

(b) appraisal report writing; and

(c) economic concepts applicable to real estate;

(2) basic principles of land economics and real estate appraisal;

(3) problems likely to be encountered in gathering, interpreting, and processing data required in the real estate appraisal process;

(4) standards for the development and communication of real estate appraisals as provided in [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28];

(5) ethical rules that a real estate appraiser is required to observe;

(6) (a) theories of depreciation and cost estimating;

(b) methods of capitalization; and

(c) the mathematics of real estate appraisal;

(7) basic real estate law; and

(8) types of misconduct for which disciplinary proceedings may be initiated against a licensed real estate appraiser, as set forth in [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

Section 8. License renewal — continuing education requirements. (1) A real estate appraiser's license expires 3 years from the date of issuance.

(2) A licensee may renew his license, other than a temporary permit issued under [section 28], by filing an application with the board on a form approved by the board, paying a renewal fee prescribed by the board, and meeting all requirements of this section.

(3) In renewing a license, the board shall assure that the licensee has a working knowledge of:

(a) current real estate appraisal theories; and

(b) practices and techniques that will enable the licensee to provide competent independent appraisal service under the authority of his license.

(4) An application for renewal must include evidence satisfactory to the board that within the 3-year period immediately preceding the application for renewal, the licensee has completed at least 45 classroom hours of instruction in courses or seminars approved by the board, at least 15 hours of which must be related to standards of professional appraisal practice.

Section 9. Late renewal of license. (1) A licensee who does not renew a license within 3 years from the date of issuance may renew it, within 2 years from the date the license expires, by:

(a) filing with the board an application for late renewal on a form approved by the board;

(b) satisfying the continuing education requirements of [section 8]; and

(c) paying a late renewal fee prescribed by the board.

(2) The board may refuse to renew a license if the licensee has continued to perform independent appraisal services as a licensed real estate appraiser following expiration of the license.

Section 10. Complaints and investigations — penalties. (1) The board may, upon its own motion, and shall, upon the written complaint of an aggrieved person, investigate an alleged violation of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] by a licensee or applicant for licensure in this state. If the investigation discloses a probable violation of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28], the board shall file a formal complaint against the licensee or applicant.

(2) If after a contested case hearing held pursuant to Title 2, chapter 4, part 6, the board determines that a licensee or applicant has violated a provision of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28], the board shall:

(a) deny an application or suspend or revoke a license;

(b) issue a formal reprimand to the licensee or applicant;

(c) impose upon the licensee or applicant a fine not to exceed $500; or

(d) impose any combination of penalties set out in subsections (2)(a) through (2)(c).

(3) The penalties provided in subsection (2) do not apply to a person convicted under [section 5(3)].

Section 11. Place of business. (1) A resident licensed or certified real estate appraiser shall maintain a principal place of business in this state. If the appraiser changes his principal place of business, he shall promptly notify the board in writing of the change. Upon receipt of notice of the change, the board shall issue a new license or certificate for the unexpired term, stating the principal place of business.

(2) A nonresident licensee is not required to maintain a place of business in this state if he maintains a principal place of business in his domicile state.

Section 12. Collection of appraisal fees. A person who performs independent appraisal services as a licensed or certified real estate appraiser in this state may not bring an action in any court in this state to collect compensation for the performance of those services unless he alleges and proves that he held a valid license or certificate at all times during the performance of those services.

Section 13. Standards of professional appraisal practice. (1) A licensed or certified real estate appraiser shall comply with generally accepted standards of professional appraisal practice, evidenced by the uniform standards of professional appraisal practice promulgated by the appraisal standards board of the appraisal foundation.

(2) If the appraisal standards board of the appraisal foundation modifies the standards or issues supplemental standards that it considers appropriate for all classes of real estate appraisers and requests the board to consider the adoption of the modifications or supplements, the board shall conduct a public hearing to determine whether the modified or supplemented standards must be observed in this state. If following the hearing the board determines the modified or supplemented standards are appropriate, the board shall adopt the standards by rule.

Section 14. Denial, suspension, or revocation of license or certificate. (1) The board may refuse to issue a license or certificate to an applicant or may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license or certificate of a licensee if the licensee or applicant:

(a) procures or attempts to procure a license or certificate under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28]:

(i) through fraud;

(ii) by knowingly making a false statement;

(iii) by submitting false information; or

(iv) by making a material misrepresentation in an application filed with the board;

(b) pays money other than fees to any member or employee of the board or department to procure a license or certificate under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28];

(c) commits or omits any act in the practice of real estate appraisal that constitutes dishonesty, fraud, or misrepresentation with the intent to substantially benefit the licensee or another person or substantially injure another person;

(d) has entered against him a final civil or criminal judgment on grounds of fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in the making of a real estate appraisal;

(e) is convicted of a crime that is substantially related to the qualifications, functions, or duties of a person engaging in real estate appraisals;

(f) engages in the business of real estate appraisal under an assumed or fictitious name not properly registered in the state of jurisdiction;

(g) pays a finder's fee or referral fee in connection with a real estate appraisal in this state to a person who does not have a real estate appraiser's license in this state;

(h) makes a false or misleading statement in that portion of the written appraisal report that deals with professional qualifications or in any testimony concerning professional qualifications;

(i) violates any section of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] or any rule promulgated under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28];

(j) violates the confidential nature of governmental records to which he gained access through employment or engagement as a real estate appraiser by a governmental agency; or

(k) accepts a fee for performing an independent appraisal service if the employment or fee is contingent upon:

(i) the appraiser reporting a predetermined estimate, valuation, analysis, opinion, or conclusion; or

(ii) the consequences resulting from the appraisal.

(2) In a disciplinary proceeding based on a civil judgment, a licensee may not collaterally attack the judgment but must be allowed to present matters in mitigation or extenuation.

(3) Denial, suspension, or revocation of a license or certificate is permissible only after a hearing and procedures that comply with the applicable requirements of Title 2, chapter 4.

Section 15. Retention of records. (1) A licensed or certified real estate appraiser shall retain for 5 years from the date of submission of an appraisal report to a client:

(a) an original or true copy of any written contract engaging his services as an appraiser;

(b) an appraisal report prepared or signed by the licensed or certified real estate appraiser; and

(c) all supporting data assembled and formulated by the licensed or certified real estate appraiser in preparing the appraisal report.

(2) If a licensed or certified real estate appraiser is notified within this 5-year period that the appraisal report is involved in litigation, the appraiser shall retain the appraisal report for 5 years from the final date of disposition of the litigation.

(3) The licensed or certified real estate appraiser shall make available to the board at reasonable times, for inspection and copying, any appraisal report he is required to maintain under the provisions of this section.

Section 16. Classification of services. (1) A client or employer may retain or employ a licensed or certified real estate appraiser to:

(a) act as a disinterested third party in rendering an unbiased analysis, opinion, conclusion, or estimate of value; or

(b) provide specialized appraisal services to facilitate the client's or employer's objectives.

(2) In either instance described in subsection (1), the appraisal and appraisal report must comply with the provisions of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

Section 17. Certification — use of term — standards of practice. (1) A person may not represent himself to be a certified real estate appraiser unless he is certified under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

(2) Only a certified real estate appraiser may prepare and sign a certified appraisal report relating to real estate or real property in this state. If an appraisal report is prepared, signed, and certified by a certified real estate appraiser, a person licensed under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] who assisted in the preparation of the appraisal may cosign the appraisal report.

(3) The term "certified real estate appraiser" may not be used to describe a firm, partnership, corporation, group, or anyone other than an individual certificate holder. However, a certified real estate appraiser may develop and communicate an appraisal on behalf of a firm, partnership, corporation, or group.

Section 18. Certification process — fees. (1) An application for examination for certification, original certification, or renewal of certification must be made in writing to the board on forms approved by the board.

(2) A fee established by the board by rule must accompany the application.

(3) When an applicant files an application for original certification or renewal of certification, the applicant shall sign a pledge that he will comply with the standards of professional appraisal practice established for certified real estate appraisers under [section 13]. He shall also affirm that he understands the types of misconduct for which disciplinary action may be initiated against him under [section 14].

(4) To be eligible for original certification as a real estate appraiser, an applicant shall:

(a) specify the class or classes of certification for which the applicant is applying and provide evidence satisfactory to the board that he has the education required for the class or classes of certification for which he is applying; and

(b) pass an examination prescribed by the board.

(5) A certificate issued under [section 21] must bear the signatures or facsimile signatures of the members of the board and a certificate number assigned by the board.

Section 19. Classes of certification — education and experience requirements. (1) A real estate appraiser may be certified in any one or more of the following classes:

(a) general real estate, which relates to the appraisal of all types of real property;

(b) agricultural/rural lands, which relates to the appraisal of agricultural and rural lands, including timberlands.;

(c) residential real estate, which relates to the appraisal of expensive or complex 1 to 4 family homes.

(2) The board shall adopt rules pertaining to real estate appraisal education and experience that are at least as stringent as those required for compliance with Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989.

Section 20. Certification examination. (1) A person who satisfies the qualification requirements of [section 6] and the education and experience requirements of [section 19] may apply for examination as a certified real estate appraiser in the manner prescribed by this section.

(2) The board shall adopt and administer a written examination for certified real estate appraisers and establish standards of acceptable performance for each class of certification that are at least as stringent as those required for compliance with Title XI of the Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery, and Enforcement Act of 1989.

(3) An applicant must be examined on the following subjects:

(a) technical terms commonly used in or related to:

(i) real estate appraisal;

(ii) appraisal report writing; and

(iii) economic concepts applicable to real estate;

(b) principles of land economics, real estate law, and real estate appraisal processes;

(c) problems likely to be encountered in gathering, interpreting, and processing data required for developing and communicating an appraisal;

(d) standards for the development and communication of certified real estate appraisals;

(e) (i) theories of depreciation and cost estimating;

(ii) methods of capitalization; and

(iii) the mathematics of real estate appraisal appropriate to the class or classes of certification sought by the applicant; and

(f) types of misconduct for which disciplinary action may be initiated under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

(4) Examinations must be given at least four times each year in Helena and at other times and places as the board determines.

(5) An applicant may not retake the examination within 6 months after having failed it a second or subsequent time.

Section 21. Issuance and display of certificate. (1) The board shall issue a certificate and a pocket card to a person who meets the requirements of [sections 18 through 20].

(2) The certificate must include the dates of issuance and renewal of certification.

(3) A certified real estate appraiser shall conspicuously display the certificate in his principal place of business.

(4) A certified real estate appraiser shall designate the class for which he is certified and place his certificate number on each appraisal report, contract, or other instrument used by him in conducting real estate appraisal activities.

Section 22. Deposit of fees. Fees collected by the board under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] must be deposited in the state special revenue fund for the use of the board, subject to 37-1-101(6), and may be used to pay the compensation of board members and other expenses necessary to administer [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

Section 23. Reciprocity — consent to service of process. (1) A person who holds a valid real estate appraiser's license or certificate in a state that grants reciprocity to Montana real estate appraisers and that has substantially equivalent licensure or certification requirements to this state may be licensed or certified in this state. The person shall conform to the requirements of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

(2) In addition, an applicant for reciprocity under this section shall submit an irrevocable consent that in any action against the applicant arising out of the applicant's activities as a real estate appraiser licensed or certified by this state, service of process may be made upon him by delivery of the process to the secretary of state of this state if the plaintiff cannot effect personal service upon the applicant in the exercise of due diligence.

Section 24. Renewal of certificate — continuing education requirements. (1) A certificate issued under [section 21] must be renewed every 3 years.

(2) A certificate may be renewed upon payment of a renewal fee and production of evidence satisfactory to the board that during the certification period immediately preceding the application for renewal, the certified real estate appraiser has:

(a) completed at least 45 classroom hours of instruction in courses or seminars approved by the board, at least 15 hours of which must be related to standards of professional appraisal practice;

(b) completed an education program determined by the board to be equivalent to the courses and seminars approved under subsection (2)(a); or

(c) participated, other than as a student, in an education program approved by the board that relates to the theory and technique of real property appraisal.

(3) An applicant for renewal shall state the class of certification previously held and presently sought.

Section 25. Late renewal of certificate. (1) A certificate holder who does not renew a certificate within 3 years from the date of issuance may renew it, within 2 years from the date the certificate expires, by:

(a) filing with the board an application for late renewal on a form approved by the board;

(b) satisfying the continuing education requirements of [section 24]; and

(c) paying a late renewal fee prescribed by the board.

(2) The board may refuse to renew a certificate if the certificate holder has continued to perform independent appraisal services in this state following expiration of the certificate.

Section 26. Roster of licensed and certified real estate appraisers. The board shall prepare and issue at least once each calendar year a roster listing the name and principal place of business of each real estate appraiser currently licensed or certified under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28]. A member of the public may obtain a copy of the roster by applying to the board. The board may set a reasonable fee for the cost of providing the roster.

Section 27. Certificate of good standing. The board may issue a certificate of good standing to any licensed or certified real estate appraiser who holds a current valid license or certificate in this state.

Section 28. Licensure and certification of nonresidents — temporary permit — service of process. (1) A person not a resident of this state who has complied with the provisions of subsection (3) may obtain a license or certificate as a real estate appraiser in this state by complying with the provisions of [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] relating to the licensure or certification of real estate appraisers.

(2) (a) A person not a resident of this state who has complied with the consent provisions of subsection (3) may obtain a temporary permit to perform a contract relating to the appraisal of real estate or real property in this state. To qualify for a temporary permit, an applicant shall:

(i) submit an application to the board on a form approved by the board;

(ii) submit evidence that the applicant is licensed or otherwise authorized to appraise real estate or real property in the applicant's domicile state;

(iii) submit a copy of the contract for appraisal services that requires the applicant to appraise real estate or real property in this state and certify that the contract is in force and effect;

(iv) certify that no disciplinary proceeding is pending against the applicant in the applicant's domicile state;

(v) pay an application fee in an amount prescribed by the board; and

(vi) comply with the other requirements established by the board.

(b) A temporary permit issued under this section is limited to a grant of authority to perform independent appraisal services required by the contract for appraisal services submitted with the application for a temporary permit.

(c) A temporary permit expires upon completion of the appraisal services under the contract or 6 months after issuance of the temporary permit, whichever is earlier. A temporary permit may not be renewed.

(3) An applicant for licensure or certification under [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] who is not a resident of this state shall submit, with his application for licensure or certification, an irrevocable consent that service of process upon the applicant may be made by delivery of the process to the secretary of state of this state if, in an action against the applicant in a court in this state arising out of the applicant's activities as a licensed or certified real estate appraiser in this state, the plaintiff cannot effect personal service upon the applicant in the exercise of due diligence.

Section 29. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 30. Codification instruction. (1) [Section 3] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 2, chapter 15, part 18, and the provisions of Title 2, chapter 15, part 18, apply to [section 3].

(2) [Sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 37, and the provisions of Title 37 apply to [sections 1, 2, and 4 through 28].

Section 31. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 9, 1991.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 30-1-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-1-105. Territorial application of the code — parties' power to choose applicable law. (1) Except as provided hereafter in this section, when a transaction bears a reasonable relation to this state and also to another state or nation, the parties may agree that the law either of this state or of such other state or nation shall govern their rights and duties. Failing such agreement, this code applies to transactions bearing an appropriate relation to this state.

(2) Where one of the following provisions of this code specifies the applicable law, that provision governs and a contrary agreement is effective only to the extent permitted by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) so specified:

Rights of creditors against sold goods. 30-2-402.

Applicability of [sections 7 through 86] on Leases. [Sections 11 and 12].

Applicability of the Chapter on Bank Deposits and Collections. 30-4-102.

Governing law in the Chapter on Funds Transfers. [Section 226].

~~Bulk transfers subject to the Chapter on Bulk Transfers. 30-6-102.~~

Applicability of the Chapter on Investment Securities. 30-8-106.

Perfection provisions of the Chapter on Secured Transactions. 30-9-103."

Section 2. Section 30-1-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-1-201. General definitions. Subject to additional definitions contained in the subsequent chapters of this code which are applicable to specific chapters or parts thereof, and unless the context otherwise requires, in this code:

(1) "Action" in the sense of a judicial proceeding includes recoupment, counterclaim, setoff, suit in equity, and any other proceedings in which rights are determined.

(2) "Aggrieved party" means a party entitled to resort to a remedy.

(3) "Agreement" means the bargain of the parties in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances, including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in this code (30-1-205 and 30-2-208). Whether an agreement has legal consequences is determined by the provisions of this code, if applicable; otherwise by the law of contracts (30-1-103).

(4) "Bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking.

(5) "Bearer" means the person in possession of an instrument, document of title, or certificated security payable to bearer or endorsed in blank.

(6) "Bill of lading" means a document evidencing the receipt of goods for shipment issued by a person engaged in the business of transporting or forwarding goods, and includes an airbill. "Airbill" means a document serving for air transportation as a bill of lading does for marine or rail transportation, and includes an air consignment note or air waybill.

(7) "Branch" includes a separately incorporated foreign branch of a bank.

(8) "Burden of establishing" a fact means the burden of persuading the triers of fact that the existence of the fact is more probable than its nonexistence.

(9) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person who, in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest of a third party in the goods, buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, but does not include a pawnbroker. All persons who sell minerals or the like (including oil and gas) at wellhead or minehead shall be considered to be persons in the business of selling goods of that kind. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a preexisting contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(10) "Conspicuous": A term or clause is conspicuous when it is so written that a reasonable person against whom it is to operate ought to have noticed it. A printed heading in capitals (as: Non-Negotiable Bill of Lading) is conspicuous. Language in the body of a form is "conspicuous" if it is in larger or other contrasting type or color. But in a telegram any stated term is "conspicuous". Whether a term or clause is "conspicuous" or not is for decision by the court.

(11) "Contract" means the total legal obligation which results from the parties' agreement as affected by this code and any other applicable rules of law.

(12) "Creditor" includes a general creditor, a secured creditor, a lien creditor and any representative of creditors, including an assignee for the benefit of creditors, a trustee in bankruptcy, a receiver in equity and an executor or administrator of an insolvent debtor's or assignor's estate.

(13) "Defendant" includes a person in the position of defendant in a cross-action or counterclaim.

(14) "Delivery" with respect to instruments, documents of title, chattel paper, or certificated securities means voluntary transfer of possession.

(15) "Document of title" includes bill of lading, dock warrant, dock receipt, warehouse receipt or order for the delivery of goods, and also any other document which in the regular course of business or financing is treated as adequately evidencing that the person in possession of it is entitled to receive, hold and dispose of the document and the goods it covers. To be a document of title a document must purport to be issued by or addressed to a bailee and purport to cover goods in the bailee's possession which are either identified or are fungible portions of an identified mass.

(16) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission or breach.

(17) "Fungible" with respect to goods or securities means goods or securities of which any unit is, by nature or usage of trade, the equivalent of any other like unit. Goods which are not fungible shall be deemed fungible for the purposes of this code to the extent that under a particular agreement or document unlike units are treated as equivalents.

(18) "Genuine" means free of forgery or counterfeiting.

(19) "Good faith" means honesty in fact in the conduct or transaction concerned.

(20) "Holder", with respect to a:

(a) negotiable instrument, means the person in possession if the instrument is payable to bearer or to the person in possession;

(b) certified security, means the person in possession is the registered owner, the security has been indorsed to the person in possession by the registered owner, or the security is in bearer form; or

(c) document of title, means ~~a~~ the person ~~who is~~ in possession ~~of a document of title or an instrument or a certificated investment security drawn, issued, or endorsed to him or to his order or~~ if the goods are deliverable to bearer or ~~in blank~~ to the order of the person in possession.

(21) To "honor" is to pay or to accept and pay, or where a credit so engages to purchase or discount a draft complying with the terms of the credit.

(22) "Insolvency proceedings" includes any assignment for the benefit of creditors or other proceedings intended to liquidate or rehabilitate the estate of the person involved.

(23) A person is "insolvent" who either has ceased to pay his debts in the ordinary course of business or cannot pay his debts as they become due or is insolvent within the meaning of the federal bankruptcy law.

(24) "Money" means a medium of exchange authorized or adopted by a domestic or foreign government ~~as a part of its currency~~ or intergovernmental organization.

(25) A person has "notice" of a fact when:

(a) he has actual knowledge of it; or

(b) he has received a notice or notification of it; or

(c) from all the facts and circumstances known to him at the time in question he has reason to know that it exists. A person "knows" or has "knowledge" of a fact when he has actual knowledge of it. "Discover" or "learn" or a word or phrase of similar import refers to knowledge rather than to reason to know. The time and circumstances under which a notice or notification may cease to be effective are not determined by this code.

(26) A person "notifies" or "gives" a notice or notification to another by taking such steps as may be reasonably required to inform the other in ordinary course whether or not such other actually comes to know of it. A person "receives" a notice or notification when:

(a) it comes to his attention; or

(b) it is duly delivered at the place of business through which the contract was made or at any other place held out by him as the place for receipt of such communications.

(27) Notice, knowledge or a notice or notification received by an organization is effective for a particular transaction from the time when it is brought to the attention of the individual conducting that transaction, and in any event from the time when it would have been brought to his attention if the organization had exercised due diligence. An organization exercises due diligence if it maintains reasonable routines for communicating significant information to the person conducting the transaction and there is reasonable compliance with the routines. Due diligence does not require an individual acting for the organization to communicate information unless such communication is part of his regular duties or unless he has reason to know of the transaction and that the transaction would be materially affected by the information.

(28) "Organization" includes a corporation, government or governmental subdivision or agency, business trust, estate, trust, partnership or association, two or more persons having a joint or common interest, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(29) "Party" as distinct from "third party" means a person who has engaged in a transaction or made an agreement within this code.

(30) "Person" includes an individual or an organization.

(31) "Presumption" or "presumed" means that the trier of fact must find the existence of the fact presumed unless and until evidence is introduced which would support a finding of its nonexistence.

(32) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, discount, negotiation, mortgage, pledge, lien, issue or reissue, gift or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in property.

(33) "Purchaser" means a person who takes by purchase.

(34) "Remedy" means any remedial right to which an aggrieved party is entitled with or without resort to a tribunal.

(35) "Representative" includes an agent, an officer of a corporation or association, and a trustee, executor or administrator of an estate, or any other person empowered to act for another.

(36) "Rights" includes remedies.

(37) (a) "Security interest" means an interest in personal property or fixtures ~~which~~ that secures payment or performance of an obligation. The retention or reservation of title by a seller of goods notwithstanding shipment or delivery to the buyer (30-2-401) is limited in effect to a reservation of a "security interest". The term also includes any interest of a buyer of accounts or chattel paper ~~which~~ that is subject to ~~Chapter~~ chapter 9. The special property interest of a buyer of goods on identification of ~~such~~ those goods to a contract for sale under 30-2-401 is not a "security interest", but a buyer may also acquire a "security interest" by complying with ~~Chapter~~ chapter 9. Unless a ~~lease or~~ consignment is intended as security, reservation of title thereunder is not a "security interest", but a consignment ~~is~~ in any event is subject to the provisions on consignment sales (30-2-326). ~~Whether a lease is intended as security is to be determined by the facts of each case; however, (a) the inclusion of an option to purchase does not of itself make the lease one intended for security, and (b) an agreement that upon compliance with the terms of the lease the lessee shall become or has the option to become the owner of the property for no additional consideration or for a nominal consideration does make the lease one intended for security.~~ Whether a transaction creates a lease or security interest is determined by the facts of each case; however, a transaction creates a security interest if the consideration the lessee is to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is an obligation for the term of the lease not subject to termination by the lessee and:

(i) the original term of the lease is equal to or greater than the remaining economic life of the goods;

(ii) the lessee is bound to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods or is bound to become the owner of the goods;

(iii) the lessee has an option to renew the lease for the remaining economic life of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement; or

(iv) the lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for no additional consideration or nominal additional consideration upon compliance with the lease agreement.

(b) A transaction does not create a security interest merely because it provides that:

(i) the present value of the consideration the lessee is obligated to pay the lessor for the right to possession and use of the goods is substantially equal to or is greater than the fair market value of the goods at the time the lease is entered into;

(ii) the lessee assumes risk of loss of the goods or agrees to pay taxes, insurance, filing, recording, or registration fees or service or maintenance costs with respect to the goods;

(iii) the lessee has an option to renew the lease or to become the owner of the goods;

(iv) the lessee has an option to renew the lease for a fixed rent that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market value for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal at the time the option is to be performed; or

(v) the lessee has an option to become the owner of the goods for a fixed price that is equal to or greater than the reasonably predictable fair market value of the goods at the time the option is to be performed.

(c) For purposes of this subsection (37):

(i) additional consideration is not nominal if:

(A) when the option to renew the lease is granted to the lessee, the rent is stated to be the fair market rent for the use of the goods for the term of the renewal determined at the time the option is to be performed; or

(B) when the option to become the owner of the goods is granted to the lessee, the price is stated to be the fair market value of the goods determined at the time the option is to be performed;

(ii) additional consideration is nominal if it is less than the lessee's reasonably predictable cost of performing under the lease agreement if the option is not exercised;

(iii) "reasonably predictable" and "remaining economic life of the goods" are to be determined with reference to the facts and circumstances at the time the transaction is entered into; and

(iv) "present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate is not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction is entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.

(38) "Send" in connection with any writing or notice means to deposit in the mail or deliver for transmission by any other usual means of communication with postage or cost of transmission provided for and properly addressed, and in the case of an instrument to an address specified thereon or otherwise agreed, or if there be none to any address reasonable under the circumstances. The receipt of any writing or notice within the time at which it would have arrived if properly sent has the effect of a proper sending.

(39) "Signed" includes any symbol executed or adopted by a party with present intention to authenticate a writing.

(40) "Surety" includes guarantor.

(41) "Telegram" includes a message transmitted by radio, teletype, cable, any mechanical method of transmission, or the like.

(42) "Term" means that portion of an agreement which relates to a particular matter.

(43) "Unauthorized" signature ~~or endorsement~~ means one made without actual, implied, or apparent authority and includes a forgery.

(44) "Value". Except as otherwise provided with respect to negotiable instruments and bank collections (30-3-303, 30-4-208, and 30-4-209), a person gives "value" for rights if he acquires them:

(a) in return for a binding commitment to extend credit or for the extension of immediately available credit whether or not drawn upon and whether or not a charge-back is provided for in the event of difficulties in collection; or

(b) as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a preexisting claim; or

(c) by accepting delivery pursuant to a preexisting contract for purchase; or

(d) generally, in return for any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract.

(45) "Warehouse receipt" means a receipt issued by a person engaged in the business of storing goods for hire.

(46) "Written" or "writing" includes printing, typewriting, or any other intentional reduction to tangible form."

Section 3. Section 30-1-207, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-1-207. Performance or acceptance under reservation of rights. (1) A party ~~who~~ that, with explicit reservation of rights, performs or promises performance or assents to performance in a manner demanded or offered by the other party does not thereby prejudice the rights reserved. Such words as "without prejudice", "under protest", or the like are sufficient.

(2) Subsection (1) does not apply to an accord and satisfaction."

Section 4. Section 30-2-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-2-103. Definitions and index of definitions. (1) In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Buyer" means a person who buys or contracts to buy goods.

(b) "Good faith", in the case of a merchant, means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing in the trade.

(c) "Receipt" of goods means taking physical possession of them.

(d) "Seller" means a person who sells or contracts to sell goods.

(2) Other definitions applying to this chapter or to specified parts thereof~~,~~ and the sections in which they appear are:

"Acceptance". 30-2-606.

"Banker's credit". 30-2-325.

"Between merchants". 30-2-104.

"Cancellation". 30-2-106(4).

"Draft". 30-3-104.

(4) In addition, ~~Chapter~~ chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter."

Section 5. Section 30-2-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-2-403. Power to transfer — good faith purchase of goods — "entrusting". (1) A purchaser of goods acquires all title which his transferor had or had power to transfer except that a purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. A person with voidable title has power to transfer a good title to a good faith purchaser for value. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase the purchaser has such power even though:

(a) the transferor was deceived as to the identity of the purchaser;

(b) the delivery was in exchange for a check which is later dishonored;

(c) it was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale"; or

(d) the delivery was procured through fraud punishable as theft under the criminal law.

(2) Any entrusting of possession of goods to a merchant who deals in goods of that kind gives him power to transfer all rights of the entruster to a buyer in ordinary course of business.

(3) "Entrusting" includes any delivery and any acquiescence in retention of possession regardless of any condition expressed between the parties to the delivery or acquiescence and regardless of whether the procurement of the entrusting or the possessor's disposition of the goods has been such as to constitute theft under the criminal law.

(4) The rights of other purchasers of goods and of lien creditors are governed by the chapters on secured transactions (chapter 9)~~, bulk transfers (chapter 6)~~ and documents of title (chapter 7)."

Section 6. Section 30-2-511, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-2-511. Tender of payment by buyer — payment by check. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, tender of payment is a condition to the seller's duty to tender and complete any delivery.

(2) Tender of payment is sufficient when made by any means or in any manner current in the ordinary course of business unless the seller demands payment in legal tender and gives any extension of time reasonably necessary to procure it.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this code on the effect of an instrument on an obligation (~~30-3-802~~ [section 123]), payment by check is conditional and is defeated as between the parties by dishonor of the check on due presentment."

Section 7. Short title. [Sections 7 through 86] shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Leases.

Section 8. Scope. [Sections 7 through 86] applies to any transaction, regardless of form, that creates a lease.

Section 9. Definitions and index of definitions. (1) In [sections 7 through 86] unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Buyer in ordinary course of business" means a person, who in good faith and without knowledge that the sale to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods, buys in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, but the term does not include a pawnbroker. "Buying" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a preexisting contract for sale but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(b) "Cancellation" occurs when either party puts an end to the lease contract for default by the other party.

(c) "Commercial unit" means such a unit of goods as by commercial usage is a single whole for purposes of lease and division of which materially impairs its character or value on the market or in use. A commercial unit may be a single article, as a machine; a set of articles, as a suite of furniture or a line of machinery; a quantity, as a gross or carload; or any other unit treated in use or in the relevant market as a single whole.

(d) "Conforming" goods or performance under a lease contract means goods or performance that is in accordance with the obligations under the lease contract.

(e) "Consumer lease" means a lease that a lessor regularly engaged in the business of leasing or selling makes to a lessee who is an individual and who takes under the lease primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose if the total payments to be made under the lease contract, excluding payments for options to renew or buy, do not exceed $25,000.

(f) "Fault" means wrongful act, omission, breach, or default.

(g) "Finance lease" means a lease with respect to which:

(i) the lessor does not select, manufacture, or supply the goods;

(ii) the lessor acquires the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods in connection with the lease; and

(iii) one of the following occurs:

(A) the lessee receives a copy of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods before signing the lease contract;

(B) the lessee's approval of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods is a condition to effectiveness of the lease contract;

(C) the lessee, before signing the lease contract, receives an accurate and complete statement designating the promises and warranties, and any disclaimers of warranties, limitations or modifications of remedies, or liquidated damages, including those of a third party, such as the manufacturer of the goods, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods; or

(D) if the lease is not a consumer lease, the lessor, before the lessee signs the lease contract, informs the lessee in writing:

(I) of the identity of the person supplying the goods to the lessor, unless the lessee has selected that person and directed the lessor to acquire the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods from that person;

(II) that the lessee is entitled under [sections 7 through 86] to the promises and warranties, including those of any third party, provided to the lessor by the person supplying the goods in connection with or as part of the contract by which the lessor acquired the goods or the right to possession and use of the goods; and

(III) that the lessee may communicate with the person supplying the goods to the lessor and receive an accurate and complete statement of those promises and warranties, including any disclaimers and limitations of them or of remedies.

(h) "Goods" means all things that are movable at the time of identification to the lease contract, or are fixtures [(section 45)], but the term does not include money, documents, instruments, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like, including oil and gas, before extraction. The term also includes the unborn young of animals.

(i) "Installment lease contract" means a lease contract that authorizes or requires the delivery of goods in separate lots to be separately accepted, even though the lease contract contains a clause "each delivery is a separate lease" or its equivalent.

(j) "Lease" means a transfer of the right to possession and use of goods for a term in return for consideration, but a sale, including a sale on approval or a sale or return, or retention or creation of a security interest is not a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease.

(k) "Lease agreement" means the bargain, with respect to the lease, of the lessor and the lessee in fact as found in their language or by implication from other circumstances, including course of dealing or usage of trade or course of performance as provided in [sections 7 through 86]. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease agreement.

(l) "Lease contract" means the total legal obligation that results from the lease agreement as affected by [sections 7 through 86] and any other applicable rules of law. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublease contract.

(m) "Leasehold interest" means the interest of the lessor or the lessee under a lease contract.

(n) "Lessee" means a person who acquires the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessee.

(o) "Lessee in ordinary course of business" means a person, who in good faith and without knowledge that the lease to him is in violation of the ownership rights or security interest or leasehold interest of a third party in the goods, leases in ordinary course from a person in the business of selling or leasing goods of that kind, but the term does not include a pawnbroker. "Leasing" may be for cash or by exchange of other property or on secured or unsecured credit and includes receiving goods or documents of title under a preexisting lease contract but does not include a transfer in bulk or as security for or in total or partial satisfaction of a money debt.

(p) "Lessor" means a person who transfers the right to possession and use of goods under a lease. Unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, the term includes a sublessor.

(q) "Lessor's residual interest" means the lessor's interest in the goods after expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease contract.

(r) "Lien" means a charge against or interest in goods to secure payment of a debt or performance of an obligation, but the term does not include a security interest.

(s) "Lot" means a parcel or a single article that is the subject matter of a separate lease or delivery, whether or not it is sufficient to perform the lease contract.

(t) "Merchant lessee" means a lessee that is a merchant with respect to goods of the kind subject to the lease.

(u) "Present value" means the amount as of a date certain of one or more sums payable in the future, discounted to the date certain. The discount is determined by the interest rate specified by the parties if the rate was not manifestly unreasonable at the time the transaction was entered into; otherwise, the discount is determined by a commercially reasonable rate that takes into account the facts and circumstances of each case at the time the transaction was entered into.

(v) "Purchase" includes taking by sale, lease, mortgage, security interest, pledge, gift, or any other voluntary transaction creating an interest in goods.

(w) "Sublease" means a lease of goods the right to possession and use of which was acquired by the lessor as a lessee under an existing lease.

(x) "Supplier" means a person from whom a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased under a finance lease.

(y) "Supply contract" means a contract under which a lessor buys or leases goods to be leased.

(z) "Termination" occurs when either party pursuant to a power created by agreement or law puts an end to the lease contract otherwise than for default.

(2) Other definitions applying to [sections 7 through 86] and the sections in which they appear are:

(a) "Accessions". [Section 46(1)].

(b) "Construction mortgage". [Section 45(1)(d)].

(c) "Encumbrance". [Section 45(1)(e)].

(d) "Fixtures". [Section 45(1)(a)].

(e) "Fixture filing". [Section 45(1)(b)].

(f) "Purchase money lease". [Section 45(1)(c)].

(3) The following definitions in other chapters apply to [sections 7 through 86]:

(a) "Account". Section 30-9-106.

(b) "Between merchants". Section 30-2-104(3).

(c) "Buyer". Section 30-2-103(1)(a).

(d) "Chattel paper". Section 30-9-105(1)(b).

(e) "Consumer goods". Section 30-9-109(1).

(f) "Document". Section 30-9-105(1)(f).

(g) "Entrusting". Section 30-2-403(3).

(h) "General intangibles". Section 30-9-106.

(i) "Good faith". Section 30-2-103(1)(b).

(j) "Instrument". Section 30-9-105(1)(i).

(k) "Merchant". Section 30-2-104(1).

(l) "Mortgage". Section 30-9-105(1)(j).

(m) "Pursuant to commitment". Section 30-9-105(1)(k).

(n) "Receipt". Section 30-2-103(1)(c).

(o) "Sale". Section 30-2-106(1).

(p) "Sale on approval". Section 30-2-326.

(q) "Sale or return". Section 30-2-326.

(r) "Seller". Section 30-2-103(1)(d).

(4) In addition, Title 30, chapter 1, contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout [sections 7 through 86].

Section 10. Leases subject to other law. (1) A lease, although subject to [sections 7 through 86], is also subject to any applicable:

(a) certificate of title statute of this state;

(b) certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction ([section 11]); or

(c) consumer protection statute of this state or final consumer protection decision of a court of this state existing on October 1, 1991.

(2) In case of conflict between [sections 7 through 86], other than [sections 11, 40(3), and 41(3)], and a statute or decision referred to in subsection (1), the statute or decision controls.

(3) Failure to comply with an applicable law has only the effect specified therein.

Section 11. Territorial application of chapter to goods covered by certificate of title. Subject to the provisions of [sections 40(3) and 41(3)], with respect to goods covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction, compliance and the effect of compliance or noncompliance with a certificate of title statute are governed by the law (including the conflict of laws rules) of the jurisdiction issuing the certificate until the earlier of:

(1) surrender of the certificate; or

(2) 4 months after the goods are removed from that jurisdiction and thereafter until a new certificate of title is issued by another jurisdiction.

Section 12. Limitation on power of parties to consumer lease to choose applicable law and judicial forum. (1) If the law chosen by the parties to a consumer lease is that of a jurisdiction other than a jurisdiction in which the lessee resides at the time the lease agreement becomes enforceable or within 30 days thereafter or in which the goods are to be used, the choice is not enforceable.

(2) If the judicial forum chosen by the parties to a consumer lease is a forum that would not otherwise have jurisdiction over the lessee, the choice is not enforceable.

Section 13. Waiver or renunciation of claim or right after default. Any claim or right arising out of an alleged default or breach of warranty may be discharged in whole or in part without consideration by a written waiver or renunciation signed and delivered by the aggrieved party.

Section 14. Unconscionability. (1) If the court as a matter of law finds a lease contract or any clause of a lease contract to have been unconscionable at the time it was made, the court may refuse to enforce the lease contract, it may enforce the remainder of the lease contract without the unconscionable clause, or it may so limit the application of any unconscionable clause as to avoid any unconscionable result.

(2) With respect to a consumer lease, if the court as a matter of law finds that a lease contract or any clause of a lease contract has been induced by unconscionable conduct or that unconscionable conduct has occurred in the collection of a claim arising from a lease contract, the court may grant appropriate relief.

(3) Before making a finding of unconscionability under subsection (1) or (2), the court, on its own motion or that of a party, shall afford the parties a reasonable opportunity to present evidence as to the setting, purpose, and effect of the lease contract or clause thereof or of the conduct.

(4) In an action in which the lessee claims unconscionability with respect to a consumer lease:

(a) if the court finds unconscionability under subsection (1) or (2), the court shall award reasonable attorney fees to the lessee;

(b) if the court does not find unconscionability and the lessee claiming unconscionability has brought or maintained an action he knew to be groundless, the court shall award reasonable attorney fees to the party against whom the claim is made;

(c) in determining attorney fees, the amount of the recovery on behalf of the claimant under subsections (1) and (2) is not controlling.

Section 15. Option to accelerate at will. (1) A term providing that one party or his successor in interest may accelerate payment of performance or require collateral or additional collateral "at will" or "when he deems himself insecure" or in words of similar import must be construed to mean that he has power to do so only if he in good faith believes that the prospect of payment or performance is impaired.

(2) With respect to a consumer lease, the burden of establishing good faith under subsection (1) is on the party who exercised the power; otherwise the burden of establishing lack of good faith is on the party against whom the power has been exercised.

Section 16. Statute of frauds. (1) A lease contract is not enforceable by way of action or defense unless:

(a) the total payments to be made under the lease contract, excluding payments for options to renew or buy, are less than $1,000; or

(b) there is a writing, signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent, sufficient to indicate that a lease contract has been made between the parties and to describe the goods leased and the lease term.

(2) Any description of leased goods or of the lease term is sufficient and satisfies subsection (1)(b), whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.

(3) A writing is not insufficient because it omits or incorrectly states a term agreed upon, but the lease contract is not enforceable under subsection (1)(b) beyond the lease term and the quantity of goods shown in the writing.

(4) A lease contract that does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (1), but which is valid in other respects, is enforceable:

(a) if the goods are to be specially manufactured or obtained for the lessee and are not suitable for lease or sale to others in the ordinary course of the lessor's business and the lessor, before notice of repudiation is received and under circumstances that reasonably indicate that the goods are for the lessee, has made either a substantial beginning of their manufacture or commitments for their procurement;

(b) if the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court that a lease contract was made but the lease contract is not enforceable under this provision beyond the quantity of goods admitted; or

(c) with respect to goods that have been received and accepted by the lessee.

(5) The lease term under a lease contract referred to in subsection (4) is:

(a) if there is a writing signed by the party against whom enforcement is sought or by that party's authorized agent specifying the lease term, the term so specified;

(b) if the party against whom enforcement is sought admits in that party's pleading, testimony, or otherwise in court a lease term, the term so admitted; or

(c) a reasonable lease term.

Section 17. Final written expression — parol or extrinsic evidence. Terms with respect to which the confirmatory memoranda of the parties agree or which are otherwise set forth in a writing intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included therein may not be contradicted by evidence of any prior agreement or of a contemporaneous oral agreement but may be explained or supplemented:

(1) by course of dealing or usage of trade or by course of performance; and

(2) by evidence of consistent additional terms unless the court finds the writing to have been intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of the agreement.

Section 18. Seals inoperative. The affixing of a seal to a writing evidencing a lease contract or an offer to enter into a lease contract does not render the writing a sealed instrument, and the law with respect to sealed instruments does not apply to the lease contract or offer.

Section 19. Formation in general. (1) A lease contract may be made in any manner sufficient to show agreement, including conduct by both parties that recognizes the existence of a lease contract.

(2) An agreement sufficient to constitute a lease contract may be found although the moment of its making is undetermined.

(3) Although one or more terms are left open, a lease contract does not fail for indefiniteness if the parties have intended to make a lease contract and there is a reasonably certain basis for giving an appropriate remedy.

Section 20. Firm offers. An offer by a merchant to lease goods to or from another person in a signed writing that by its terms gives assurance it will be held open is not revocable, for lack of consideration, during the time stated or, if no time is stated, for a reasonable time, but in no event may the period of irrevocability exceed 3 months. Any such term of assurance on a form supplied by the offeree must be separately signed by the offeror.

Section 21. Offer and acceptance in formation of lease contract. (1) Unless otherwise unambiguously indicated by the language or circumstances, an offer to make a lease contract must be construed as inviting acceptance in any manner and by any medium reasonable in the circumstances.

(2) If the beginning of a requested performance is a reasonable mode of acceptance, an offeror who is not notified of acceptance within a reasonable time may treat the offer as having lapsed before acceptance.

Section 22. Course of performance or practical construction. (1) If a lease contract involves repeated occasions for performance by either party with knowledge of the nature of the performance and opportunity for objection to it by the other, any course of performance accepted or acquiesced in without objection is relevant to determine the meaning of the lease agreement.

(2) The express terms of a lease agreement and any course of performance, as well as any course of dealing and usage of trade, must be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but if that construction is unreasonable, express terms control course of performance, course of performance controls both course of dealing and usage of trade, and course of dealing controls usage of trade.

(3) Subject to the provisions of [section 23] on modification and waiver, course of performance is relevant to show a modification or waiver of any term inconsistent with the course of performance.

Section 23. Modification, rescission, and waiver. (1) An agreement modifying a lease contract needs no consideration to be binding.

(2) A signed lease agreement that excludes modification or rescission except by a signed writing may not be otherwise modified or rescinded, but, except as between merchants, such a requirement on a form supplied by a merchant must be separately signed by the other party.

(3) Although an attempt at modification or rescission does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (2), it may operate as a waiver.

(4) A party who has made a waiver affecting an executory portion of a lease contract may retract the waiver by reasonable notification received by the other party that strict performance will be required of any term waived, unless the retraction would be unjust in view of a material change of position in reliance on the waiver.

Section 24. Lessee under finance lease as beneficiary of supply contract. (1) The benefit of a supplier's promises to the lessor under the supply contract and of all warranties, whether express or implied, including those of any third party provided in connection with or as part of the supply contract, extends to the lessee to the extent of the lessee's leasehold interest under a finance lease related to the supply contract but is subject to the terms of the warranty and of the supply contract and all defenses or claims arising therefrom.

(2) The extension of the benefit of a supplier's promises and of warranties to the lessee provided for under subsection (1) does not:

(a) modify the rights and obligations of the parties to the supply contract, whether arising therefrom or otherwise; or

(b) impose any duty or liability under the supply contract on the lessee.

(3) Any modification or rescission of the supply contract by the supplier and the lessor is effective between the supplier and the lessee unless before the modification or rescission the supplier has received notice that the lessee has entered into a finance lease related to the supply contract. If the modification or rescission is effective between the supplier and the lessee, the lessor is considered to have assumed, in addition to the obligations of the lessor to the lessee under the lease contract, promises of the supplier to the lessor and warranties that were so modified or rescinded as they existed and were available to the lessee before modification or rescission.

(4) In addition to the extension of the benefit of the supplier's promises and of warranties to the lessee under subsection (1), the lessee retains all rights that the lessee may have against the supplier that arise from an agreement between the lessee and the supplier or under other law.

Section 25. Express warranties. (1) Express warranties by the lessor are created as follows:

(a) Any affirmation of fact or promise made by the lessor to the lessee that relates to the goods and becomes part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods will conform to the affirmation or promise.

(b) Any description of the goods that is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the goods will conform to the description.

(c) Any sample or model that is made part of the basis of the bargain creates an express warranty that the whole of the goods will conform to the sample or model.

(2) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that the lessor use formal words, such as "warrant" or "guarantee", or that the lessor have a specific intention to make a warranty, but an affirmation merely of the value of the goods or a statement purporting to be merely the lessor's opinion or commendation of the goods does not create a warranty.

Section 26. Warranties against interference and against infringement — lessee's obligation against infringement. (1) There is in a lease contract a warranty that for the lease term no person holds a claim to or interest in the goods that arose from an act or omission of the lessor, other than a claim by way of infringement or the like, that will interfere with the lessee's enjoyment of its leasehold interest.

(2) Except in a finance lease, there is in a lease contract by a lessor, who is a merchant regularly dealing in goods of the kind, a warranty that the goods are delivered free of the rightful claim of any person by way of infringement or the like.

(3) A lessee who furnishes specifications to a lessor or a supplier shall hold the lessor and the supplier harmless against any claim by way of infringement or the like that arises out of compliance with the specifications.

Section 27. Implied warranty of merchantability. (1) Except in a finance lease, a warranty that the goods will be merchantable is implied in a lease contract if the lessor is a merchant with respect to goods of that kind.

(2) Goods to be merchantable must be at least such as:

(a) pass without objection in the trade under the description in the lease agreement;

(b) in the case of fungible goods, are of fair average quality within the description;

(c) are fit for the ordinary purposes for which goods of that type are used;

(d) run, within the variation permitted by the lease agreement, of even kind, quality, and quantity within each unit and among all units involved;

(e) are adequately contained, packaged, and labeled as the lease agreement may require; and

(f) conform to any promises or affirmations of fact made on the container or label.

(3) Other implied warranties may arise from course of dealing or usage of trade.

Section 28. Implied warranty of fitness for particular purpose. Except in a finance lease, if the lessor at the time the lease contract is made has reason to know of any particular purpose for which the goods are required and that the lessee is relying on the lessor's skill or judgment to select or furnish suitable goods, there is in the lease contract an implied warranty that the goods will be fit for that purpose.

Section 29. Exclusion or modification of warranties. (1) Words or conduct relevant to the creation of an express warranty and words or conduct tending to negate or limit a warranty must be construed whenever reasonable as consistent with each other; but, subject to the provisions of [section 17] on parol or extrinsic evidence, negation or limitation is inoperative to the extent that the construction is unreasonable.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), to exclude or modify the implied warranty of merchantability or any part of it, the language must mention "merchantability", be by a writing, and be conspicuous. Subject to subsection (3), to exclude or modify any implied warranty of fitness, the exclusion must be by a writing and be conspicuous. Language to exclude all implied warranties of fitness is sufficient if it is in writing, is conspicuous, and states, for example, "There is no warranty that the goods will be fit for a particular purpose".

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2), but subject to subsection (4):

(a) unless the circumstances indicate otherwise, all implied warranties are excluded by expressions, such as "as is" or "with all faults", or by other language that in common understanding calls the lessee's attention to the exclusion of warranties and makes plain that there is no implied warranty, if in writing and conspicuous;

(b) if the lessee before entering into the lease contract has examined the goods or the sample or model as fully as desired or has refused to examine the goods, there is no implied warranty with regard to defects that an examination ought in the circumstances to have revealed; and

(c) an implied warranty may also be excluded or modified by course of dealing, course of performance, or usage of trade.

(4) To exclude or modify a warranty against interference or against infringement ([section 26]) or any part of it, the language must be specific, be by a writing, and be conspicuous, unless the circumstances, including course of performance, course of dealing, or usage of trade, give the lessee reason to know that the goods are being leased subject to a claim or interest of any person.

Section 30. Cumulation and conflict of warranties express or implied. Warranties, whether express or implied, must be construed as consistent with each other and as cumulative, but if that construction is unreasonable, the intention of the parties determines which warranty is dominant. In ascertaining that intention, the following rules apply:

(1) Exact or technical specifications displace an inconsistent sample or model or general language of description.

(2) A sample from an existing bulk displaces inconsistent general language of description.

(3) Express warranties displace inconsistent implied warranties other than an implied warranty of fitness for a particular purpose.

Section 31. Third-party beneficiaries of express and implied warranties. A warranty to or for the benefit of a lessee under [sections 7 through 86], whether express or implied, extends to any natural person who is in the family or household of the lessee or who is a guest in the lessee's home if it is reasonable to expect that such person may use, consume, or be affected by the goods and who is injured in person by breach of the warranty. This section does not displace principles of law and equity that extend a warranty to or for the benefit of a lessee to other persons. The operation of this section may not be excluded, modified, or limited, but an exclusion, modification, or limitation of the warranty, including any with respect to rights and remedies, effective against the lessee is also effective against any beneficiary designated under this section.

Section 32. Identification. Identification of goods as goods to which a lease contract refers may be made at any time and in any manner explicitly agreed to by the parties. In the absence of explicit agreement, identification occurs:

(1) when the lease contract is made if the lease contract is for a lease of goods that are existing and identified;

(2) when the goods are shipped, marked, or otherwise designated by the lessor as goods to which the lease contract refers, if the lease contract is for a lease of goods that are not existing and identified; or

(3) when the young are conceived, if the lease contract is for a lease of unborn young of animals.

Section 33. Insurance and proceeds. (1) A lessee obtains an insurable interest when existing goods are identified to the lease contract even though the goods identified are nonconforming and the lessee has an option to reject them.

(2) If a lessee has an insurable interest only by reason of the lessor's identification of the goods, the lessor, until default or insolvency or notification to the lessee that identification is final, may substitute other goods for those identified.

(3) Notwithstanding a lessee's insurable interest under subsections (1) and (2), the lessor retains an insurable interest until an option to buy has been exercised by the lessee and risk of loss has passed to the lessee.

(4) Nothing in this section impairs any insurable interest recognized under any other statute or rule of law.

(5) The parties by agreement may determine that one or more parties have an obligation to obtain and pay for insurance covering the goods and by agreement may determine the beneficiary of the proceeds of the insurance.

Section 34. Risk of loss. (1) Except in the case of a finance lease, risk of loss is retained by the lessor and does not pass to the lessee. In the case of a finance lease, risk of loss passes to the lessee.

(2) Subject to the provisions of [sections 7 through 86] on the effect of default on risk of loss ([section 35]), if risk of loss is to pass to the lessee and the time of passage is not stated, the following rules apply:

(a) If the lease contract requires or authorizes the goods to be shipped by carrier and it does not require delivery at a particular destination, the risk of loss passes to the lessee when the goods are duly delivered to the carrier, but if it does require delivery at a particular destination and the goods are there duly tendered while in the possession of the carrier, the risk of loss passes to the lessee when the goods are there duly so tendered as to enable the lessee to take delivery.

(b) If the goods are held by a bailee to be delivered without being moved, the risk of loss passes to the lessee on acknowledgment by the bailee of the lessee's right to possession of the goods.

(c) In any case not within subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b), the risk of loss passes to the lessee on the lessee's receipt of the goods if the lessor or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier is a merchant; otherwise the risk passes to the lessee on tender of delivery.

Section 35. Effect of default on risk of loss. (1) When risk of loss is to pass to the lessee and the time of passage is not stated:

(a) if a tender or delivery of goods so fails to conform to the lease contract as to give a right of rejection, the risk of their loss remains with the lessor or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier until cure or acceptance.

(b) if the lessee rightfully revokes acceptance, he, to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage, may treat the risk of loss as having remained with the lessor from the beginning.

(2) Whether or not risk of loss is to pass to the lessee, if the lessee as to conforming goods already identified to a lease contract repudiates or is otherwise in default under the lease contract, the lessor or, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier, to the extent of any deficiency in his effective insurance coverage, may treat the risk of loss as resting on the lessee for a commercially reasonable time.

Section 36. Casualty to identified goods. If a lease contract requires goods identified when the lease contract is made and the goods suffer casualty without fault of the lessee, the lessor, or the supplier before delivery or if the goods suffer casualty before risk of loss passes to the lessee pursuant to the lease agreement or [section 34], then:

(1) if the loss is total, the lease contract is avoided; and

(2) if the loss is partial or the goods have so deteriorated as to no longer conform to the lease contract, the lessee may nevertheless demand inspection and at his option either treat the lease contract as avoided or, except in a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, accept the goods with due allowance from the rent payable for the balance of the lease term for the deterioration or the deficiency in quantity but without further right against the lessor.

Section 37. Enforceability of lease contract. Except as otherwise provided in [sections 7 through 86], a lease contract is effective and enforceable according to its terms between the parties, against purchasers of the goods, and against creditors of the parties.

Section 38. Title to and possession of goods. Except as otherwise provided in [sections 7 through 86], each provision of [sections 7 through 86] applies whether the lessor or a third party has title to the goods and whether the lessor, the lessee, or a third party has possession of the goods, notwithstanding any statute or rule of law that possession or the absence of possession is fraudulent.

Section 39. Alienability of party's interest under lease contract or of lessor's residual interest in goods — delegation of performance — transfer of rights. (1) As used in this section, "creation of a security interest" includes the sale of a lease contract that is subject to Title 30, chapter 9, secured transactions, by reason of 30-9-102(1)(b).

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), a provision in a lease agreement that prohibits the voluntary or involuntary transfer, including a transfer by sale, sublease, creation or enforcement of a security interest, or attachment, levy, or other judicial process, of an interest of a party under the lease contract or of the lessor's residual interest in the goods or that makes such a transfer an event of default gives rise to the rights and remedies provided in subsection (5), but a transfer that is prohibited or is an event of default under the lease agreement is otherwise effective.

(3) (a) A provision in a lease agreement that prohibits the creation or enforcement of a security interest in an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods or that makes such a transfer an event of default is not enforceable unless, and then only to the extent that, there is an actual transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the provision or an actual delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the provision.

(b) Neither the granting nor the enforcement of a security interest in the lessor's interest under the lease contract or the lessor's residual interest in the goods is a transfer that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the lessee within the purview of subsection (5) unless, and then only to the extent that, there is an actual delegation of a material performance of the lessor.

(4) A provision in a lease agreement that prohibits a transfer of a right to damages for default with respect to the whole lease contract or of a right to payment arising out of the transferor's due performance of the transferor's entire obligation or that makes such a transfer an event of default is not enforceable, and such a transfer is not a transfer that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the other party to the lease contract within the purview of subsection (5).

(5) Subject to subsections (3) and (4):

(a) if a transfer is made which is made an event of default under a lease agreement, the party to the lease contract not making the transfer, unless that party waives the default or otherwise agrees, has the rights and remedies described in [section 55];

(b) if subsection (5)(a) is not applicable and if a transfer is made that is prohibited under a lease agreement or that materially impairs the prospect of obtaining return performance by, materially changes the duty of, or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the other party to the lease contract, unless the party not making the transfer agrees at any time to the transfer in the lease contract or otherwise, then, except as limited by contract:

(i) the transferor is liable to the party not making the transfer for damages caused by the transfer to the extent that the damages could not reasonably be prevented by the party not making the transfer; and

(ii) a court having jurisdiction may grant other appropriate relief, including cancellation of the lease contract or an injunction against the transfer.

(6) A transfer of "the lease" or of "all my rights under the lease" or a transfer in similar general terms is a transfer of rights, and unless the language or the circumstances, as in a transfer for security, indicate the contrary, the transfer is a delegation of duties by the transferor to the transferee. Acceptance by the transferee constitutes a promise by the transferee to perform those duties. The promise is enforceable by either the transferor or the other party to the lease contract.

(7) Unless otherwise agreed by the lessor and the lessee, a delegation of performance does not relieve the transferor as against the other party of any duty to perform or of any liability for default.

(8) In a consumer lease, to prohibit the transfer of an interest of a party under the lease contract or to make a transfer an event of default, the language must be specific, by a writing, and conspicuous.

Section 40. Subsequent lease of goods by lessor. (1) Subject to [section 39], a subsequent lessee from a lessor of goods under an existing lease contract obtains, to the extent of the leasehold interest transferred, the leasehold interest in the goods that the lessor had or had power to transfer and, except as provided in subsection (2) and [section 81(4)], takes subject to the existing lease contract. A lessor with voidable title has power to transfer a good leasehold interest to a good faith subsequent lessee for value, but only to the extent set forth in the preceding sentence. If goods have been delivered under a transaction of purchase, the lessor has that power even though:

(a) the lessor's transferor was deceived as to the identity of the lessor;

(b) the delivery was in exchange for a check that is later dishonored;

(c) it was agreed that the transaction was to be a "cash sale"; or

(d) the delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

(2) A subsequent lessee in the ordinary course of business from a lessor who is a merchant dealing in goods of that kind to whom the goods were entrusted by the existing lessee of that lessor before the interest of the subsequent lessee became enforceable against that lessor obtains, to the extent of the leasehold interest transferred, all of that lessor's and the existing lessee's rights to the goods and takes free of the existing lease contract.

(3) A subsequent lessee from the lessor of goods that are subject to an existing lease contract and are covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction takes no greater rights than those provided both by this section and by the certificate of title statute.

Section 41. Sale or sublease of goods by lessee. (1) Subject to the provisions of [section 39], a buyer or sublessee from the lessee of goods under an existing lease contract obtains, to the extent of the interest transferred, the leasehold interest in the goods that the lessee had or had power to transfer and, except as provided in subsection (2) and [section 65(4)], takes subject to the existing lease contract. A lessee with a voidable leasehold interest has power to transfer a good leasehold interest to a good faith buyer for value or a good faith sublessee for value, but only to the extent set forth in the preceding sentence. When goods have been delivered under a transaction of lease, the lessee has that power even though:

(a) the lessor was deceived as to the identity of the lessee;

(b) the delivery was in exchange for a check that is later dishonored; or

(c) the delivery was procured through fraud punishable as larcenous under the criminal law.

(2) A buyer in the ordinary course of business or a sublessee in the ordinary course of business from a lessee who is a merchant dealing in goods of that kind to whom the goods were entrusted by the lessor obtains, to the extent of the interest transferred, all of the lessor's and lessee's rights to the goods and takes free of the existing lease contract.

(3) A buyer or sublessee from the lessee of goods that are subject to an existing lease contract and are covered by a certificate of title issued under a statute of this state or of another jurisdiction takes no greater rights than those provided both by this section and by the certificate of title statute.

Section 42. Priority of certain liens arising by operation of law. If a person in the ordinary course of business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a lease contract, a lien upon those goods in the possession of that person given by statute or rule of law for those materials or services takes priority over any interest of the lessor or lessee under the lease contract or [sections 7 through 86] unless the lien is created by statute and the statute provides otherwise or unless the lien is created by rule of law and the rule of law provides otherwise.

Section 43. Priority of liens arising by attachment or levy on, security interests in, and other claims to goods. (1) Except as otherwise provided in [section 42], a creditor of a lessee takes subject to the lease contract.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (3) and (4) and in [sections 42 and 44], a creditor of a lessor takes subject to the lease contract unless:

(a) the creditor holds a lien that attached to the goods before the lease contract became enforceable;

(b) the creditor holds a security interest in the goods and the lessee did not give value and receive delivery of the goods without knowledge of the security interest; or

(c) the creditor holds a security interest in the goods that was perfected (30-9-303) before the lease contract became enforceable.

(3) A lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest in the goods created by the lessor even though the security interest is perfected (30-9-303) and the lessee knows of its existence.

(4) A lessee other than a lessee in the ordinary course of business takes the leasehold interest free of a security interest to the extent that it secures future advances made after the secured party acquires knowledge of the lease or more than 45 days after the lease contract becomes enforceable, whichever occurs first, unless the future advances are made pursuant to a commitment entered into without knowledge of the lease and before the expiration of the 45-day period.

Section 44. Special rights of creditors. (1) A creditor of a lessor in possession of goods subject to a lease contract may treat the lease contract as void if as against the creditor retention of possession by the lessor is fraudulent under any statute or rule of law, but retention of possession in good faith and current course of trade by the lessor for a commercially reasonable time after the lease contract becomes enforceable is not fraudulent.

(2) Nothing in [sections 7 through 86] impairs the rights of creditors of a lessor if the lease contract:

(a) becomes enforceable, not in current course of trade but in satisfaction of or as security for a preexisting claim for money, security, or the like; and

(b) is made under circumstances that under any statute or rule of law apart from [sections 7 through 86] would constitute the transaction as a fraudulent transfer or voidable preference.

(3) A creditor of a seller may treat a sale or an identification of goods to a contract for sale as void if as against the creditor retention of possession by the seller is fraudulent under any statute or rule of law, but retention of possession of the goods pursuant to a lease contract entered into by the seller as lessee and the buyer as lessor in connection with the sale or identification of the goods is not fraudulent if the buyer bought for value and in good faith.

Section 45. Lessor's and lessee's rights when goods become fixtures. (1) In this section:

(a) goods are "fixtures" when they become so related to particular real estate that an interest in them arises under real estate law;

(b) a "fixture filing" is the filing, in the office where a mortgage on the real estate would be filed or recorded, of a financing statement covering goods that are or are to become fixtures and conforming to the requirements of 30-9-402(5);

(c) a lease is a "purchase money lease" unless the lessee has possession or use of the goods or the right to possession or use of the goods before the lease agreement is enforceable;

(d) a mortgage is a "construction mortgage" to the extent it secures an obligation incurred for the construction of an improvement on land, including the acquisition cost of the land, if the recorded writing so indicates; and

(e) "encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in real estate that are not ownership interests.

(2) Under [sections 7 through 86], a lease may be of goods that are fixtures or may continue in goods that become fixtures, but no lease exists under [sections 7 through 86] of ordinary building materials incorporated into an improvement on land.

(3) [Sections 7 through 86] do not prevent creation of a lease of fixtures pursuant to real estate law.

(4) The perfected interest of a lessor of fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if:

(a) the lease is a purchase money lease, the conflicting interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures, the interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within 10 days thereafter, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate; or

(b) the interest of the lessor is perfected by a fixture filing before the interest of the encumbrancer or owner is of record, the lessor's interest has priority over any conflicting interest of a predecessor in title of the encumbrancer or owner, and the lessee has an interest of record in the real estate or is in possession of the real estate.

(5) The interest of a lessor of fixtures, whether or not perfected, has priority over the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate if:

(a) the fixtures are readily removable factory or office machines, readily removable equipment that is not primarily used or leased for use in the operation of the real estate, or readily removable replacements of domestic appliances that are goods subject to a consumer lease, and before the goods become fixtures the lease contract is enforceable;

(b) the conflicting interest is a lien on the real estate obtained by legal or equitable proceedings after the lease contract is enforceable;

(c) the encumbrancer or owner has consented in writing to the lease or has disclaimed an interest in the goods as fixtures; or

(d) the lessee has a right to remove the goods as against the encumbrancer or owner. If the lessee's right to remove terminates, the priority of the interest of the lessor continues for a reasonable time.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (4)(a) but otherwise subject to the provisions of subsections (4) and (5), the interest of a lessor of fixtures, including the lessor's residual interest, is subordinate to the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer of the real estate under a construction mortgage recorded before the goods become fixtures if the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. To the extent given to refinance a construction mortgage, the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer of the real estate under a mortgage has this priority to the same extent as the encumbrancer of the real estate under the construction mortgage.

(7) In cases not within the provisions of subsections (1) through (6), priority between the interest of a lessor of fixtures, including the lessor's residual interest, and the conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee is determined by the priority rules governing conflicting interests in real estate.

(8) If the interest of a lessor of fixtures, including the lessor's residual interest, has priority over all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate, the lessor or the lessee may, on default, expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease agreement but subject to the lease agreement and [sections 7 through 86] or if necessary to enforce other rights and remedies of the lessor or lessee under [sections 7 through 86], remove the goods from the real estate, free and clear of all conflicting interests of all owners and encumbrancers of the real estate. However, the lessor or lessee shall reimburse any encumbrancer or owner of the real estate who is not the lessee and who has not otherwise agreed to the cost of repair of any physical injury, but not for any diminution in value of the real estate caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity of replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the party seeking removal gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

(9) Even though the lease agreement does not create a security interest, the interest of a lessor of fixtures, including the lessor's residual interest, is perfected by filing a financing statement as a fixture filing for leased goods that are or are to become fixtures in accordance with the relevant provisions of the chapter on secured transactions (Title 30, chapter 9).

Section 46. Lessor's and lessee's rights when goods become accessions. (1) Goods are "accessions" when they are installed in or affixed to other goods.

(2) The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract entered into before the goods became accessions is superior to all interests in the whole except as stated in subsection (4).

(3) The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract entered into at the time or after the goods became accessions is superior to all subsequently acquired interests in the whole except as stated in subsection (4) but is subordinate to interests in the whole existing at the time the lease contract was made unless the holders of such interests in the whole have in writing consented to the lease or disclaimed an interest in the goods as part of the whole.

(4) The interest of a lessor or a lessee under a lease contract described in subsection (2) or (3) is subordinate to the interest of:

(a) a buyer in the ordinary course of business or a lessee in the ordinary course of business of any interest in the whole acquired after the goods became accessions; or

(b) a creditor with a security interest in the whole perfected before the lease contract was made to the extent that the creditor makes subsequent advances without knowledge of the lease contract.

(5) When under subsections (2) and (4) or (3) and (4) a lessor or a lessee of accessions holds an interest that is superior to all interests in the whole, the lessor or the lessee may, on default, expiration, termination, or cancellation of the lease contract by the other party but subject to the provisions of the lease contract and [sections 7 through 86] or if necessary to enforce his other rights and remedies under [sections 7 through 86], remove the goods from the whole, free and clear of all interests in the whole, but he must reimburse any holder of an interest in the whole who is not the lessee and who has not otherwise agreed to the cost of repair of any physical injury but not for any diminution in value of the whole caused by the absence of the goods removed or by any necessity for replacing them. A person entitled to reimbursement may refuse permission to remove until the party seeking removal gives adequate security for the performance of this obligation.

Section 47. Priority subject to subordination. Nothing in [sections 7 through 86] prevents subordination by agreement by any person entitled to priority.

Section 48. Insecurity — adequate assurance of performance. (1) A lease contract imposes an obligation on each party that the other's expectation of receiving due performance will not be impaired.

(2) If reasonable grounds for insecurity arise with respect to the performance of either party, the insecure party may demand in writing adequate assurance of due performance. Until the insecure party receives that assurance, if commercially reasonable, the insecure party may suspend any performance for which he has not already received the agreed return.

(3) A repudiation of the lease contract occurs if assurance of due performance adequate under the circumstances of the particular case is not provided to the insecure party within a reasonable time, not to exceed 30 days after receipt of a demand by the other party.

(4) Between merchants, the reasonableness of grounds for insecurity and the adequacy of any assurance offered must be determined according to commercial standards.

(5) Acceptance of any nonconforming delivery or payment does not prejudice the aggrieved party's right to demand adequate assurance of future performance.

Section 49. Anticipatory repudiation. If either party repudiates a lease contract with respect to a performance not yet due under the lease contract, the loss of which performance will substantially impair the value of the lease contract to the other, the aggrieved party may:

(1) for a commercially reasonable time, await retraction of repudiation and performance by the repudiating party;

(2) make demand pursuant to [section 48] and await assurance of future performance adequate under the circumstances of the particular case; or

(3) resort to any right or remedy upon default under the lease contract or [sections 7 through 86], even though the aggrieved party has notified the repudiating party that the aggrieved party would await the repudiating party's performance and assurance and has urged retraction. In addition, whether or not the aggrieved party is pursuing one of the foregoing remedies, the aggrieved party may suspend performance or, if the aggrieved party is the lessor, proceed in accordance with the provisions of [sections 7 through 86] on the lessor's right to identify goods to the lease contract notwithstanding default or to salvage unfinished goods ([section 78]).

Section 50. Retraction of anticipatory repudiation. (1) Until the repudiating party's next performance is due, the repudiating party can retract the repudiation unless, since the repudiation, the aggrieved party has canceled the lease contract or materially changed the aggrieved party's position or otherwise indicated that the aggrieved party considers the repudiation final.

(2) Retraction may be by any method that clearly indicates to the aggrieved party that the repudiating party intends to perform under the lease contract and includes any assurance demanded under [section 48].

(3) Retraction reinstates a repudiating party's rights under a lease contract with due excuse and allowance to the aggrieved party for any delay occasioned by the repudiation.

Section 51. Substituted performance. (1) If without fault of the lessee, the lessor, and the supplier the agreed berthing, loading, or unloading facilities fail, the agreed type of carrier becomes unavailable, or the agreed manner of delivery otherwise becomes commercially impracticable, but a commercially reasonable substitute is available, the substitute performance must be tendered and accepted.

(2) If the agreed means or manner of payment fails because of domestic or foreign governmental regulation the lessor may withhold or stop delivery or cause the supplier to withhold or stop delivery unless the lessee provides a means or manner of payment that is commercially a substantial equivalent and if delivery has already been taken, payment by the means or in the manner provided by the regulation discharges the lessee's obligation unless the regulation is discriminatory, oppressive, or predatory.

Section 52. Excused performance. Subject to [section 51] on substituted performance, the following rules apply:

(1) Delay in delivery or nondelivery in whole or in part by a lessor or a supplier who complies with subsections (2) and (3) is not a default under the lease contract if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the nonoccurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the lease contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order, whether or not the regulation or order later proves to be invalid.

(2) If the causes mentioned in subsection (1) affect only part of the lessor's or the supplier's capacity to perform, he shall allocate production and deliveries among his customers but at his option may include regular customers not then under contract for sale or lease as well as his own requirements for further manufacture. He may so allocate in any manner that is fair and reasonable.

(3) The lessor seasonably shall notify the lessee and, in the case of a finance lease, the supplier seasonably shall notify the lessor and the lessee, if known, that there will be delay or nondelivery and, if allocation is required under subsection (2), of the estimated quota thus made available for the lessee.

Section 53. Procedure on excused performance. (1) If the lessee receives notification of a material or indefinite delay or an allocation justified under [section 52], the lessee may by written notification to the lessor as to any goods involved and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired ([section 64]):

(a) terminate the lease contract ([section 59(2)]); or

(b) except in a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, modify the lease contract by accepting the available quota in substitution, with due allowance from the rent payable for the balance of the lease term for the deficiency but without further right against the lessor.

(2) If, after receipt of a notification from the lessor under [section 49], the lessee fails so to modify the lease agreement within a reasonable time not exceeding 30 days, the lease contract lapses with respect to any deliveries affected.

Section 54. Irrevocable promises — finance leases. (1) In the case of a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, the lessee's promises under the lease contract become irrevocable and independent upon the lessee's acceptance of the goods.

(2) A promise that has become irrevocable and independent under subsection (1):

(a) is effective and enforceable between the parties and by or against third parties, including assignees of the parties; and

(b) is not subject to cancellation, termination, modification, repudiation, excuse, or substitution without the consent of the party to whom the promise runs.

(3) This section does not affect the validity under any other law of a covenant in any lease contract making the lessee's promises irrevocable and independent upon the lessee's acceptance of the goods.

Section 55. Default — procedure. (1) Whether the lessor or the lessee is in default under a lease contract is determined by the lease agreement and [sections 7 through 86].

(2) If the lessor or the lessee is in default under the lease contract, the party seeking enforcement has rights and remedies as provided in [sections 7 through 86] and, except as limited by [sections 7 through 86], as provided in the lease agreement.

(3) If the lessor or the lessee is in default under the lease contract, the party seeking enforcement may reduce the party's claim to judgment or otherwise enforce the lease contract by self-help or any available judicial procedure or nonjudicial procedure, including administrative proceeding, arbitration, or the like, in accordance with [sections 7 through 86].

(4) Except as otherwise provided in 30-1-106(1), [sections 7 through 86], or the lease agreement, the rights and remedies referred to in subsections (2) and (3) are cumulative.

(5) If the lease agreement covers both real property and goods, the party seeking enforcement may proceed under [sections 55 through 86] as to the goods or under other applicable law as to both the real property and the goods in accordance with that party's rights and remedies in respect of the real property, in which case [sections 55 through 86] do not apply.

Section 56. Notice after default. Except as otherwise provided in [sections 7 through 86] or the lease agreement, the lessor or lessee in default under the lease contract is not entitled to notice of default or notice of enforcement from the other party to the lease agreement.

Section 57. Modification or impairment of rights and remedies. (1) Except as otherwise provided in [sections 7 through 86], the lease agreement may include rights and remedies for default in addition to or in substitution for those provided in [sections 7 through 86] and may limit or alter the measure of damages recoverable under [sections 7 through 86].

(2) Resort to a remedy provided under [sections 7 through 86] or in the lease agreement is optional unless the remedy is expressly agreed to be exclusive. If circumstances cause an exclusive or limited remedy to fail of its essential purpose or provision for an exclusive remedy is unconscionable, remedy may be had as provided in [sections 7 through 86].

(3) Consequential damages may be liquidated under [section 58] or may otherwise be limited, altered, or excluded unless the limitation, alteration, or exclusion is unconscionable. Limitation, alteration, or exclusion of consequential damages for injury to the person in the case of consumer goods is prima facie unconscionable, but limitation, alteration, or exclusion of damages where the loss is commercial is not prima facie unconscionable.

(4) Rights and remedies on default by the lessor or the lessee with respect to any obligation or promise collateral or ancillary to the lease contract are not impaired by [sections 7 through 86].

Section 58. Liquidation of damages. (1) Damages payable by either party for default or any other act or omission, including indemnity for loss or diminution of anticipated tax benefits or loss or damage to a lessor's residual interest, may be liquidated in the lease agreement but only at an amount or by a formula that is reasonable in light of the then anticipated harm caused by the default or other act or omission.

(2) If the lease agreement provides for liquidation of damages and such provision does not comply with subsection (1) or if such provision is an exclusive or limited remedy that circumstances cause to fail of its essential purpose, remedy may be had as provided in [sections 7 through 86].

(3) If the lessor justifiably withholds or stops delivery of goods because of the lessee's default or insolvency ([section 79 or 80]), the lessee is entitled to restitution of any amount by which the sum of his payments exceeds:

(a) the amount to which the lessor is entitled by virtue of terms liquidating the lessor's damages in accordance with subsection (1); or

(b) in the absence of those terms, 20% of the then present value of the total rent the lessee was obligated to pay for the balance of the lease term or, in the case of a consumer lease, the lesser of such amount or $500.

(4) A lessee's right to restitution under subsection (3) is subject to offset to the extent the lessor establishes:

(a) a right to recover damages under the provisions of [sections 7 through 86] other than subsection (1); and

(b) the amount or value of any benefits received by the lessee directly or indirectly by reason of the lease contract.

Section 59. Cancellation and termination — effect of cancellation, termination, rescission, or fraud on rights and remedies. (1) On cancellation of the lease contract, all obligations that are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior default or performance survives, and the canceling party also retains any remedy for default of the whole lease contract or any unperformed balance.

(2) On termination of the lease contract, all obligations that are still executory on both sides are discharged but any right based on prior default or performance survives.

(3) Unless the contrary intention clearly appears, expressions of "cancellation", "rescission", or the like of the lease contract may not be construed as a renunciation or discharge of any claim in damages for an antecedent default.

(4) Rights and remedies for material misrepresentation or fraud include all rights and remedies available under [sections 7 through 86] for default.

(5) Neither rescission nor a claim for rescission of the lease contract nor rejection or return of the goods may bar or be considered inconsistent with a claim for damages or other right or remedy.

Section 60. Statute of limitations. (1) An action for default under a lease contract, including breach of warranty or indemnity, must be commenced within 4 years after the cause of action accrued. By the original lease contract, the parties may reduce the period of limitation to not less than 1 year.

(2) A cause of action for default accrues when the act or omission on which the default or breach of warranty is based is or should have been discovered by the aggrieved party or when the default occurs, whichever is later. A cause of action for indemnity accrues when the act or omission on which the claim for indemnity is based is or should have been discovered by the indemnified party, whichever is later.

(3) If an action commenced within the time limited by subsection (1) is so terminated as to leave available a remedy by another action for the same default or breach of warranty or indemnity, the other action may be commenced after the expiration of the time limited and within 6 months after the termination of the first action unless the termination resulted from voluntary discontinuance or from dismissal for failure or neglect to prosecute.

(4) This section does not alter the law on tolling of the statute of limitations, nor does it apply to causes of action that have accrued before [sections 7 through 86] becomes effective.

Section 61. Proof of market rent — time and place. (1) Damages based on market rent [section 73 or 82] are determined according to the rent for the use of the goods concerned for a lease term identical to the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement and prevailing at the time of the default.

(2) If evidence of rent for the use of the goods concerned for a lease term identical to the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement and prevailing at the times or places described in [sections 7 through 86] is not readily available, the rent prevailing within any reasonable time before or after the time described or at any other place or for a different lease term that in commercial judgment or under usage of trade would serve as a reasonable substitute for the one described may be used, making any proper allowance for the difference, including the cost of transporting the goods to or from the other place.

(3) Evidence of a relevant rent prevailing at a time or place or for a lease term other than the one described in [sections 7 through 86] offered by one party is not admissible unless and until he has given the other party notice the court finds sufficient to prevent unfair surprise.

(4) If the prevailing rent or value of any goods regularly leased in any established market is in issue, reports in official publications or trade journals or in newspapers or periodicals of general circulation published as the reports of that market are admissible in evidence. The circumstances of the preparation of the report may be shown to affect its weight but not its admissibility.

Section 62. Lessee's remedies. (1) If a lessor fails to deliver the goods in conformity to the lease contract ([section 63]) or repudiates the lease contract ([section 49]) or if a lessee rightfully rejects the goods ([section 63]) or justifiably revokes acceptance of the goods ([section 71]), then with respect to any goods involved and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired ([section 64]), the lessor is in default under the lease contract and the lessee may:

(a) cancel the lease contract ([section 59(1)]);

(b) recover so much of the rent and security as has been paid and is just under the circumstances;

(c) cover and recover damages as to all goods affected whether or not they have been identified to the lease contract ([sections 72 and 74]) or recover damages for nondelivery ([sections 73 and 74]);

(d) exercise any other rights or pursue any other remedies provided in the lease contract.

(2) If a lessor fails to deliver the goods in conformity to the lease contract or repudiates the lease contract, the lessee may also:

(a) if the goods have been identified, recover them ([section 76]); or

(b) in a proper case, obtain specific performance or replevy the goods ([section 75]).

(3) If a lessor is otherwise in default under a lease contract, the lessee may exercise the rights and pursue the remedies provided in the lease contract, which may include a right to cancel the lease, and in [section 73(3)].

(4) If a lessor has breached a warranty, whether express or implied, the lessee may recover damages ([section 73(4)]).

(5) On rightful rejection or justifiable revocation of acceptance, a lessee has a security interest in goods in the lessee's possession or control for any rent and security that has been paid and any expenses reasonably incurred in their inspection, receipt, transportation, and care and custody and may hold those goods and dispose of them in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, subject to [section 81(5)].

(6) Subject to the provisions of [section 54], a lessee, on notifying the lessor of the lessee's intention to do so, may deduct all or any part of the damages resulting from any default under the lease contract from any part of the rent still due under the same lease contract.

Section 63. Lessee's rights on improper delivery — rightful rejection. (1) Subject to the provisions of [section 64] on default in installment lease contracts, if the goods or the tender or delivery fail in any respect to conform to the lease contract, the lessee may reject or accept the goods or accept any commercial unit or units and reject the rest of the goods.

(2) Rejection of goods is ineffective unless it is within a reasonable time after tender or delivery of the goods and the lessee seasonably notifies the lessor.

Section 64. Installment lease contracts — rejection and default. (1) Under an installment lease contract a lessee may reject any delivery that is nonconforming if the nonconformity substantially impairs the value of that delivery and cannot be cured or the nonconformity is a defect in the required documents; but if the nonconformity does not fall within subsection (2) and the lessor or the supplier gives adequate assurance of its cure, the lessee must accept that delivery.

(2) Whenever nonconformity or default with respect to one or more deliveries substantially impairs the value of the installment lease contract as a whole, there is a default with respect to the whole. But, the aggrieved party reinstates the installment lease contract as a whole if the aggrieved party accepts a nonconforming delivery without seasonably notifying of cancellation or brings an action with respect only to past deliveries or demands performance as to future deliveries.

Section 65. Merchant lessee's duties as to rightfully rejected goods. (1) Subject to any security interest of a lessee ([section 62(5)]), if a lessor or a supplier has no agent or place of business at the market of rejection, a merchant lessee, after rejection of goods in his possession or control, shall follow any reasonable instructions received from the lessor or the supplier with respect to the goods. In the absence of those instructions, a merchant lessee shall make reasonable efforts to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the goods for the lessor's account if they threaten to decline in value speedily. Instructions are not reasonable if on demand indemnity for expenses is not forthcoming.

(2) If a merchant lessee (subsection (1)) or any other lessee ([section 66]) disposes of goods, he is entitled to reimbursement either from the lessor or the supplier or out of the proceeds for reasonable expenses of caring for and disposing of the goods and, if the expenses include no disposition commission, to such commission as is usual in the trade or, if there is none, to a reasonable sum not exceeding 10% of the gross proceeds.

(3) In complying with this section or [section 66], the lessee is held only to good faith. Good faith conduct hereunder is neither acceptance or conversion nor the basis of an action for damages.

(4) A purchaser who purchases in good faith from a lessee pursuant to this section or [section 66] takes the goods free of any rights of the lessor and the supplier even though the lessee fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of [sections 7 through 86].

Section 66. Lessee's duties as to rightfully rejected goods. (1) Except as otherwise provided with respect to goods that threaten to decline in value speedily ([section 65]) and subject to any security interest of a lessee ([section 62(5)]):

(a) the lessee, after rejection of goods in the lessee's possession, shall hold them with reasonable care at the lessor's or the supplier's disposition for a reasonable time after the lessee's seasonable notification of rejection;

(b) if the lessor or the supplier gives no instructions within a reasonable time after notification of rejection, the lessee may store the rejected goods for the lessor's or the supplier's account, ship them to the lessor or the supplier, or dispose of them for the lessor's or the supplier's account with reimbursement in the manner provided in [section 65]; but

(c) the lessee has no further obligations with regard to goods rightfully rejected.

(2) Action by the lessee pursuant to subsection (1) is not acceptance or conversion.

Section 67. Cure by lessor of improper tender or delivery — replacement. (1) If any tender or delivery by the lessor or the supplier is rejected because it is nonconforming and the time for performance has not yet expired, the lessor or the supplier may seasonably notify the lessee of the lessor's or the supplier's intention to cure and may then make a conforming delivery within the time provided in the lease contract.

(2) If the lessee rejects a nonconforming tender that the lessor or the supplier had reasonable grounds to believe would be acceptable with or without money allowance, the lessor or the supplier may have a further reasonable time to substitute a conforming tender if he seasonably notifies the lessee.

Section 68. Waiver of lessee's objections. (1) In rejecting goods, a lessee's failure to state a particular defect that is ascertainable by reasonable inspection precludes the lessee from relying on the defect to justify rejection or to establish default:

(a) if, stated seasonably, the lessor or the supplier could have cured it ([section 67]); or

(b) between merchants if the lessor or the supplier after rejection has made a request in writing for a full and final written statement of all defects on which the lessee proposes to rely.

(2) A lessee's failure to reserve rights when paying rent or other consideration against documents precludes recovery of the payment for defects apparent on the face of the documents.

Section 69. Acceptance of goods. (1) Acceptance of goods occurs after the lessee has had a reasonable opportunity to inspect the goods and:

(a) the lessee signifies or acts with respect to the goods in a manner that signifies to the lessor or the supplier that the goods are conforming or that the lessee will take or retain them in spite of their nonconformity; or

(b) the lessee fails to make an effective rejection of the goods ([section 63(2)]).

(2) Acceptance of a part of any commercial unit is acceptance of that entire unit.

Section 70. Effect of acceptance of goods — notice of default — burden of establishing default after acceptance — notice of claim or litigation to person answerable over. (1) A lessee shall pay rent for any goods accepted in accordance with the lease contract, with due allowance for goods rightfully rejected or not delivered.

(2) A lessee's acceptance of goods precludes rejection of the goods accepted. In the case of a finance lease, if made with knowledge of a nonconformity, acceptance may not be revoked because of it. In any other case, if made with knowledge of a nonconformity, acceptance may not be revoked because of it unless the acceptance was on the reasonable assumption that the nonconformity would be seasonably cured. Acceptance does not of itself impair any other remedy provided by [sections 7 through 86] or the lease agreement for nonconformity.

(3) If a tender has been accepted:

(a) within a reasonable time after the lessee discovers or should have discovered any default, the lessee shall notify the lessor and the supplier, if any, or be barred from any remedy against the party not notified;

(b) except in the case of a consumer lease, within a reasonable time after the lessee receives notice of litigation for infringement or the like ([section 26]) the lessee shall notify the lessor or be barred from any remedy over for liability established by the litigation; and

(c) the burden is on the lessee to establish any default.

(4) If a lessee is sued for breach of a warranty or other obligation for which a lessor or a supplier is answerable over, the following apply:

(a) The lessee may give the lessor or the supplier, or both, written notice of the litigation. If the notice states that the person notified may come in and defend and that if the person notified does not do so that person will be bound in any action against that person by the lessee by any determination of fact common to the two litigations, then unless the person notified after seasonable receipt of the notice does come in and defend, that person is so bound.

(b) The lessor or the supplier may demand in writing that the lessee turn over control of the litigation, including settlement if the claim is one for infringement or the like ([section 26]) or else be barred from any remedy over. If the demand states that the lessor or the supplier agrees to bear all expense and to satisfy any adverse judgment, then unless the lessee after seasonable receipt of the demand does turn over control, the lessee is so barred.

(5) Subsections (3) and (4) apply to any obligation of a lessee to hold the lessor or the supplier harmless against infringement or the like ([section 26]).

Section 71. Revocation of acceptance of goods. (1) A lessee may revoke acceptance of a lot or commercial unit the nonconformity of which substantially impairs its value to the lessee if the lessee has accepted it:

(a) except in the case of a finance lease, on the reasonable assumption that its nonconformity would be cured and it has not been seasonably cured; or

(b) without discovery of the nonconformity if the lessee's acceptance was reasonably induced either by the lessor's assurances or, except in the case of a finance lease, by the difficulty of discovery before acceptance.

(2) Except in the case of a finance lease that is not a consumer lease, a lessee may revoke acceptance of a lot or commercial unit if the lessor defaults under the lease contract and the default substantially impairs the value of that lot or commercial unit to the lessee.

(3) If the lease agreement so provides, the lessee may revoke acceptance of a lot or commercial unit because of other defaults by the lessor.

(4) Revocation of acceptance must occur within a reasonable time after the lessee discovers or should have discovered the ground for it and before any substantial change in condition of the goods that is not caused by the nonconformity. Revocation is not effective until the lessee notifies the lessor.

(5) A lessee who so revokes has the same rights and duties with regard to the goods involved as if the lessee had rejected them.

Section 72. Cover — substitute goods. (1) After a default by a lessor under the lease contract of the type described in [section 62(1)] or, if agreed, after other default by the lessor, the lessee may cover by making any purchase or lease of or contract to purchase or lease goods in substitution for those due from the lessor.

(2) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement ([section 58]) or otherwise determined pursuant to agreement of the parties (30-1-102(3) and [section 57]), if a lessee's cover is by a lease agreement substantially similar to the original lease agreement and the new lease agreement is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, the lessee may recover from the lessor as damages:

(a) the present value, as of the date of the commencement of the term of the new lease agreement, of the rent under the new lease agreement applicable to that period of the new lease term that is comparable to the then remaining term of the original lease agreement minus the present value as of the same date of the total rent for the then remaining lease term of the original lease agreement; and

(b) any incidental or consequential damages less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.

(3) If a lessee's cover is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection (2) or is by purchase or otherwise, the lessee may recover from the lessor as if the lessee had elected not to cover and [section 73] governs.

Section 73. Lessee's damages for nondelivery, repudiation, default, and breach of warranty in regard to accepted goods. (1) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement ([section 58]) or otherwise determined pursuant to agreement of the parties (30-1-102(3) and [section 57]), if a lessee elects not to cover or a lessee elects to cover and the cover is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under [section 72(2)] or is by purchase or otherwise, the measure of damages for nondelivery or repudiation by the lessor or for rejection or revocation of acceptance by the lessee is the present value, as of the date of the default, of the then market rent minus the present value as of the same date of the original rent, computed for the remaining lease term of the original lease agreement, together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.

(2) Market rent is to be determined as of the place for tender or, in cases of rejection after arrival or revocation of acceptance, as of the place of arrival.

(3) Except as otherwise agreed, if the lessee has accepted goods and given notification ([section 70(3)]), the measure of damages for nonconforming tender or delivery or other default by a lessor is the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the lessor's default as determined in any manner that is reasonable, together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default.

(4) Except as otherwise agreed, the measure of damages for breach of warranty is the present value at the time and place of acceptance of the difference between the value of the use of the goods accepted and the value if they had been as warranted for the lease term, unless special circumstances show proximate damages of a different amount, together with incidental and consequential damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessor's default or breach of warranty.

Section 74. Lessee's incidental and consequential damages. (1) Incidental damages resulting from a lessor's default include expenses reasonably incurred in inspection, receipt, transportation, and care and custody of goods rightfully rejected or goods the acceptance of which is justifiably revoked; any commercially reasonable charges; expenses or commissions in connection with effecting cover; and any other reasonable expense incident to the default.

(2) Consequential damages resulting from a lessor's default include:

(a) any loss resulting from general or particular requirements and needs of which the lessor at the time of contracting had reason to know and that could not reasonably be prevented by cover or otherwise; and

(b) injury to person or property proximately resulting from any breach of warranty.

Section 75. Lessee's right to specific performance or replevin. (1) Specific performance may be decreed if the goods are unique or in other proper circumstances.

(2) A decree for specific performance may include any terms and conditions as to payment of the rent, damages, or other relief that the court considers just.

(3) A lessee has a right of replevin, detinue, sequestration, claim and delivery, or the like for goods identified to the lease contract if after reasonable effort the lessee is unable to effect cover for those goods or the circumstances reasonably indicate that the effort will be unavailing.

Section 76. Lessee's right to goods on lessor's insolvency. (1) Subject to subsection (2) and even though the goods have not been shipped, a lessee who has paid a part or all of the rent and security for goods identified to a lease contract ([section 32]) on making and keeping good a tender of any unpaid portion of the rent and security due under the lease contract may recover the goods identified from the lessor if the lessor becomes insolvent within 10 days after receipt of the first installment of rent and security.

(2) A lessee acquires the right to recover goods identified to a lease contract only if they conform to the lease contract.

Section 77. Lessor's remedies. (1) If a lessee wrongfully rejects or revokes acceptance of goods, fails to make a payment when due, or repudiates with respect to a part or the whole, then with respect to any goods involved and with respect to all of the goods if under an installment lease contract the value of the whole lease contract is substantially impaired ([section 64]), the lessee is in default under the lease contract and the lessor may:

(a) cancel the lease contract ([section 59(1)]);

(b) proceed respecting goods not identified to the lease contract ([section 78]);

(c) withhold delivery of the goods and take possession of goods previously delivered ([section 79]);

(d) stop delivery of the goods by any bailee ([section 80]);

(e) dispose of the goods and recover damages ([section 81]), retain the goods and recover damages ([section 82]), or in a proper case, recover rent ([section 83]);

(f) exercise any other rights or pursue any other remedies provided in the lease contract.

(2) If a lessor does not fully exercise a right or obtain a remedy to which the lessor is entitled under subsection (1), the lessor may recover the loss resulting in the ordinary course of events from the lessee's default as determined in any reasonable manner, together with incidental damages, less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

(3) If a lessee is otherwise in default under a lease contract, the lessor may exercise the rights and pursue the remedies provided in the lease contract, which may include a right to cancel the lease. In addition, unless otherwise provided in the lease contract:

(a) if the default substantially impairs the value of the lease contract to the lessor, the lessor may exercise the rights and pursue the remedies provided in subsection (1) or (2); or

(b) if the default does not substantially impair the value of the lease contract to the lessor, the lessor may recover as provided in subsection (2).

Section 78. Lessor's right to identify goods to lease contract. (1) If a lessee under a lease contract defaults as described in [section 77] or, if agreed, after other default by the lessee, a lessor may:

(a) identify to the lease contract conforming goods not already identified if at the time the lessor learned of the default they were in the lessor's or the supplier's possession or control; and

(b) dispose of goods ([section 81(1)]) that demonstrably have been intended for the particular lease contract even though those goods are unfinished.

(2) If the goods are unfinished, in the exercise of reasonable commercial judgment for the purposes of avoiding loss and of effective realization, an aggrieved lessor or the supplier may either complete manufacture and wholly identify the goods to the lease contract or cease manufacture and lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the goods for scrap or salvage value or proceed in any other reasonable manner.

Section 79. Lessor's right to possession of goods. (1) If a lessor discovers the lessee to be insolvent, the lessor may refuse to deliver the goods.

(2) After a default by the lessee under the lease contract of the type described in [section 77(1) or (3)(a)] or, if agreed, after other default by the lessee, the lessor has the right to take possession of the goods. If the lease contract so provides, the lessor may require the lessee to assemble the goods and make them available to the lessor at a place to be designated by the lessor that is reasonably convenient to both parties. Without removal, the lessor may render unusable any goods employed in trade or business and may dispose of goods on the lessee's premises ([section 81]).

(3) The lessor may proceed under subsection (2) without judicial process if it can be done without breach of the peace or the lessor may proceed by action.

Section 80. Lessor's stoppage of delivery in transit or otherwise. (1) A lessor may stop delivery of goods in the possession of a carrier or other bailee if the lessor discovers the lessee to be insolvent and may stop delivery of carload, truckload, planeload, or larger shipments of express or freight if the lessee repudiates or fails to make a payment due before delivery, whether for rent, security, or otherwise under the lease contract or for any other reason the lessor has a right to withhold or take possession of the goods.

(2) In pursuing its remedies under subsection (1), the lessor may stop delivery until:

(a) receipt of the goods by the lessee;

(b) acknowledgment to the lessee by any bailee of the goods, except a carrier, that the bailee holds the goods for the lessee; or

(c) such an acknowledgment to the lessee by a carrier via reshipment or as warehouseman.

(3) (a) To stop delivery, a lessor shall so notify as to enable the bailee by reasonable diligence to prevent delivery of the goods.

(b) After notification, the bailee shall hold and deliver the goods according to the directions of the lessor, but the lessor is liable to the bailee for any ensuing charges or damages.

(c) A carrier who has issued a nonnegotiable bill of lading is not obliged to obey a notification to stop received from a person other than the consignor.

Section 81. Lessor's rights to dispose of goods. (1) After a default by a lessee under the lease contract described in [section 77(1) or (3)(a)] or after the lessor refuses to deliver or takes possession of goods ([section 79 or 80]) or, if agreed, after other default by a lessee, the lessor may dispose of the goods concerned or the undelivered balance thereof by lease, sale, or otherwise.

(2) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement ([section 58]) or otherwise determined pursuant to agreement of the parties (30-1-102(3) and [section 57]), if the disposition is by lease agreement substantially similar to the original lease agreement and the new lease agreement is made in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages:

(a) accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of the commencement of the term of the new lease agreement;

(b) the present value, as of the same date, of the total rent for the then remaining lease term of the original lease agreement minus the present value, as of the same date, of the rent under the new lease agreement applicable to that period of the new lease term that is comparable to the then remaining term of the original lease agreement; and

(c) any incidental damages allowed under [section 84] less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

(3) If the lessor's disposition is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under subsection (2) or is by sale or otherwise, the lessor may recover from the lessee as if the lessor had elected not to dispose of the goods and [section 82] governs.

(4) A subsequent buyer or lessee who buys or leases from the lessor in good faith for value as a result of a disposition under this section takes the goods free of the original lease contract and any rights of the original lessee even though the lessor fails to comply with one or more of the requirements of [sections 7 through 86].

(5) The lessor is not accountable to the lessee for any profit made on any disposition. A lessee who has rightfully rejected or justifiably revoked acceptance shall account to the lessor for any excess over the amount of the lessee's security interest ([section 62(5)]).

Section 82. Lessor's damages for nonacceptance, failure to pay, repudiation, or other default. (1) Except as otherwise provided with respect to damages liquidated in the lease agreement ([section 58]) or otherwise determined pursuant to agreement of the parties (30-1-102(3) and [section 57]), if a lessor elects to retain the goods or a lessor elects to dispose of the goods and the disposition is by lease agreement that for any reason does not qualify for treatment under [section 81(2)] or is by sale or otherwise, the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages for a default of the type described in [section 77(1) or (3)(a)] or, if agreed, for other default of the lessee:

(a) accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of default if the lessee has never taken possession of the goods or, if the lessee has taken possession of the goods, as of the date the lessor repossesses the goods or an earlier date on which the lessee makes a tender of the goods to the lessor;

(b) the present value as of the date determined under subsection (1)(a) of the total rent for the then remaining lease term of the original lease agreement minus the present value as of the same date of the market rent at the place where the goods are located, computed for the same lease term; and

(c) any incidental damages allowed under [section 84] less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

(2) If the measure of damages provided in subsection (1) is inadequate to put a lessor in as good a position as performance would have, the measure of damages is the present value of the profit, including reasonable overhead, that the lessor would have made from full performance by the lessee, together with any incidental damages allowed under [section 84], allowance due for costs reasonably incurred, and credit due for payments or proceeds of disposition.

Section 83. Lessor's action for rent. (1) After default by the lessee under the lease contract of the type described in [section 77(1) or (3)(a)] or, if agreed, after other default by the lessee, if the lessor complies with subsection (2), the lessor may recover from the lessee as damages:

(a) for goods accepted by the lessee and not repossessed by or tendered to the lessor and for conforming goods lost or damaged within a commercially reasonable time after risk of loss passes to the lessee ([section 34]):

(i) accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of entry of judgment in favor of the lessor;

(ii) the present value as of the same date of the rent for the then remaining lease term of the lease agreement; and

(iii) any incidental damages allowed under [section 84] less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default; and

(b) for goods identified to the lease contract if the lessor is unable after reasonable effort to dispose of them at a reasonable price or the circumstances reasonably indicate that effort will be unavailing:

(i) accrued and unpaid rent as of the date of entry of judgment in favor of the lessor;

(ii) the present value as of the same date of the rent for the then remaining lease term of the lease agreement; and

(iii) any incidental damages allowed under [section 84] less expenses saved in consequence of the lessee's default.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), the lessor shall hold for the lessee for the remaining lease term of the lease agreement any goods that have been identified to the lease contract and are in the lessor's control.

(3) The lessor may dispose of the goods at any time before collection of the judgment for damages obtained pursuant to subsection (1). If the disposition is before the end of the remaining lease term of the lease agreement, the lessor's recovery against the lessee for damages is governed by [section 81 or 82] and the lessor will cause an appropriate credit to be provided against a judgment for damages to the extent that the amount of the judgment exceeds the recovery available pursuant to [section 81 or 82].

(4) Payment of the judgment for damages obtained pursuant to subsection (1) entitles the lessee to the use and possession of the goods not then disposed of for the remaining lease term of and in accordance with the lease agreement.

(5) If a lessee under a lease contract defaults as described in [section 77(1) or (3)(a)] or, if agreed, after other default by the lessee, a lessor who is held not entitled to rent under this section must nevertheless be awarded damages for nonacceptance under [section 81 or 82].

Section 84. Lessor's incidental damages. Incidental damages to an aggrieved lessor include any commercially reasonable charges, expenses, or commissions incurred in stopping delivery; in the transportation, care, and custody of goods after the lessee's default; in connection with return or disposition of the goods; or otherwise resulting from the default.

Section 85. Standing to sue third parties for injury to goods. (1) If a third party so deals with goods that have been identified to a lease contract as to cause actionable injury to a party to the lease contract:

(a) the lessor has a right of action against the third party; and

(b) the lessee also has a right of action against the third party if the lessee:

(i) has a security interest in the goods;

(ii) has an insurable interest in the goods; or

(iii) bears the risk of loss under the lease contract or has since the injury assumed that risk as against the lessor and the goods have been converted or destroyed.

(2) If at the time of the injury the party plaintiff did not bear the risk of loss as against the other party to the lease contract and there is no arrangement between them for disposition of the recovery, his suit or settlement, subject to his own interest, is as a fiduciary for the other party to the lease contract.

(3) Either party with the consent of the other may sue for the benefit of whom it may concern.

Section 86. Lessor's rights to residual interest. In addition to any other recovery permitted by [sections 7 through 86] or other law, the lessor may recover from the lessee an amount that will fully compensate the lessor for any loss of or damage to the lessor's residual interest in the goods caused by the default of the lessee.

Section 87. Section 30-3-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-101. Short title. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code~~—Commercial Paper~~ Negotiable Instruments."

Section 88. Subject matter. (1) This chapter applies to negotiable instruments. It does not apply to money or to payment orders governed by [sections 189 through 226]. A negotiable instrument that is also a certificated security under 30-8-102(1)(a) is subject to chapter 8 and to this chapter.

(2) In the event of conflict between the provisions of this chapter and those of chapter 4, chapter 8, or chapter 9, the provisions of chapter 4, chapter 8, and chapter 9 prevail over those of this chapter.

(3) Regulations of the board of governors of the federal reserve system and operating circulars of the federal reserve banks supersede any inconsistent provision of this chapter to the extent of the inconsistency.

Section 89. Section 30-3-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-102. Definitions ~~and index of definitions~~. (1) In this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions apply:

Section 90. Section 30-3-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-104. ~~Form of negotiable instruments — "draft" — "check" — "certificate of deposit" — "note"~~ Negotiable instrument. (1) ~~Any writing to be a negotiable instrument within this chapter must:~~

~~(a) be signed by the maker or drawer; and~~

~~(b) contain~~ "Negotiable instrument" means an unconditional promise or order to pay a ~~sum certain in~~ fixed amount of money, ~~and no other promise, order, obligation or power given by the maker or drawer except as authorized by this chapter; and~~ with or without interest or other charges described in the promise or order, if it:

(a) is payable to bearer or to order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder;

~~(c)~~(b) ~~be~~ is payable on demand or at a definite time; and

~~(d) be payable to order or to bearer~~

(c) does not state any other undertaking or instruction by the person promising or ordering payment to do any act in addition to the payment of money except that the promise or order may contain:

(i) an undertaking or power to give, maintain, or protect collateral to secure payment;

(ii) an authorization or power to the holder to confess judgment or realize on or dispose of collateral; or

(iii) a waiver of the benefit of any law intended for the advantage or protection of any obligor.

(2) ~~A writing which complies with the requirements of this section is:~~

~~(a) a "draft" ("bill of exchange") if it is an order;~~

~~(b) a "check" if it is a draft drawn on a bank and payable on demand;~~

~~(c) a "certificate of deposit" if it is an acknowledgment by a bank of receipt of money with an engagement to repay it;~~

~~(d) a "note" if it is a promise other than a certificate of deposit.~~

~~(3) As used in other chapters of this code, and as the context may require, the terms "draft", "check", "certificate of deposit" and "note" may refer to instruments which are not negotiable within this chapter as well as to instruments which are so negotiable.~~ "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument.

(3) An order that meets all of the requirements of subsection (1) except subsection (1)(a) and otherwise falls within the definition of "check" in subsection (6) is a negotiable instrument and a check.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1), a promise or order other than a check is not an instrument if, at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder, it contains a conspicuous statement, however expressed, indicating that the writing is not an instrument governed by this chapter.

(5) An instrument is a "note" if it is a promise and is a "draft" if it is an order. If an instrument falls within the definition of both note and draft, the person entitled to enforce the instrument may treat it as either.

(6) (a) "Check" means:

(i) a draft, other than a documentary draft, payable on demand and drawn on a bank; or

(ii) a cashier's check or teller's check.

(b) An instrument may be a check even though it is described on its face by another term, such as "money order".

(7) "Cashier's check" means a draft with respect to which the drawer and drawee are the same bank or branches of the same bank.

(8) "Teller's check" means a draft drawn by a bank:

(a) on another bank; or

(b) payable at or through a bank.

(9) "Traveler's check" means an instrument that:

(a) is payable on demand;

(b) is drawn on or payable at or through a bank;

(c) is designated by the term traveler's check or by a substantially similar term; and

(d) requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the instrument.

(10) "Certificate of deposit" means an instrument containing an acknowledgment by a bank that a sum of money has been received by the bank and a promise by the bank to repay the sum of money. A certificate of deposit is a note of the bank."

Section 91. Issue of instrument. (1) "Issue" means the first delivery of an instrument by the maker or drawer, whether to a holder or nonholder, for the purpose of giving rights on the instrument to any person.

(2) An unissued instrument or an unissued incomplete instrument (30-3-115) that is completed is binding on the maker or drawer, but nonissuance is a defense. An instrument that is conditionally issued or is issued for a special purpose is binding on the maker or drawer, but failure of the condition or special purpose to be fulfilled is a defense.

(3) "Issuer" applies to issued and unissued instruments and means any person that signs an instrument as maker or drawer.

Section 92. Section 30-3-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-105. ~~When~~ Unconditional promise or order ~~unconditional.~~ (1) (a) ~~A~~ Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), for the purposes of 30-3-104(1), a promise or order ~~otherwise~~ is unconditional ~~is not made conditional by the fact that the instrument~~ unless it states:

(i) an express condition to payment; or

~~(a) is subject to implied or constructive conditions; or~~

~~(b) states its consideration, whether performed or promised, or the transaction which gave rise to the instrument, or that the promise or order is made or the instrument matures in accordance with or "as per" such transaction; or~~

~~(c) refers to or states that it arises out of a separate agreement or refers to a separate agreement for rights as to prepayment or acceleration; or~~

~~(d) states that it is drawn under a letter of credit; or~~

~~(e) states that it is secured, whether by mortgage, reservation of title or otherwise; or~~

~~(f) indicates a particular account to be debited or any other fund or source from which reimbursement is expected; or~~

~~(g) is limited to payment out of a particular fund or the proceeds of a particular source, if the instrument is issued by a government or governmental agency or unit; or~~

~~(h) is limited to payment out of the entire assets of a partnership, unincorporated association, trust or estate by or on behalf of which the instrument is issued~~

(ii) that the promise or order is subject to or governed by another writing or that the rights or obligations with respect to the promise or order are stated in another writing.

(b) A mere reference to another writing does not make the promise or order conditional.

(2) A promise or order is not ~~unconditional if the instrument~~ made conditional:

(a) ~~states that it is subject to or governed by any other agreement~~ by a reference to another writing for a statement of rights with respect to collateral, prepayment, or acceleration; or

(b) ~~states that it is to be paid only out of~~ because payment is limited to or resorts to a particular fund or source ~~except as provided in this section~~.

(3) If a promise or order requires, as a condition to payment, a countersignature by a person whose specimen signature appears on the promise or order, the condition does not make the promise or order conditional for the purposes of 30-3-104(1). If the person whose specimen signature appears on an instrument fails to countersign the instrument, the failure to countersign is a defense to the obligation of the issuer, but the failure does not prevent a transferee of the instrument from becoming a holder of the instrument.

(4) If a promise or order at the time it is issued or first comes into possession of a holder contains a statement, required by applicable statutory or administrative law, to the effect that the rights of a holder or transferee are subject to claims or defenses that the issuer could assert against the original payee, the promise or order is not thereby made conditional for the purposes of 30-3-104(1), but there cannot be a holder in due course of the promise or order."

Section 93. Section 30-3-107, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-107. ~~Money~~ Instrument payable in foreign money. ~~(1) An instrument is payable in money if the medium of exchange in which it is payable is money at the time the instrument is made. An instrument payable in "currency" or "current funds" is payable in money.~~

~~(2) A promise or order to pay a sum stated~~ Unless the instrument otherwise provides, an instrument that states the amount payable in ~~a~~ foreign ~~currency is for a sum certain in~~ money ~~and, unless a different medium of payment is specified in the instrument,~~ may be ~~satisfied by payment of that number of dollars which the stated~~ paid in the foreign ~~currency will purchase at the buying sight rate for that currency on the day on which the instrument is payable or, if payable on demand, on the day of demand. If such an instrument specifies a foreign currency as the medium of payment the instrument is payable in that currency~~ money or in an equivalent amount in dollars calculated by using the current bank-offered spot rate at the place of payment for the purchase of dollars on the day on which the instrument is paid."

Section 94. Section 30-3-108, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-108. Payable on demand. ~~Instruments~~ A promise or order is "payable on demand" if: ~~include those~~

(1) it states that it is payable on demand or at sight or otherwise indicates that it is payable at the will of the holder; or

(2) ~~on presentation and those in which no time for~~ it does not state any time of payment ~~is stated~~."

Section 95. Section 30-3-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-109. Definite time. (1) ~~An instrument~~ A promise or order is "payable at a definite time" if ~~by its terms~~ it is payable on elapse of a definite period of time after sight or acceptance or at a fixed date or dates or at a time or times readily ascertainable at the time the promise or order is issued, subject to the rights of:

(a) ~~on or before a stated date or at a fixed period after a stated date~~ prepayment; ~~or~~

(b) ~~at a fixed period after sight; or~~

~~(c) at a definite time subject to any~~ acceleration; ~~or~~

~~(d)~~(c) ~~at a definite time subject to~~ extension at the option of the holder~~,~~; or

(d) ~~to~~ extension to a further definite time at the option of the maker or acceptor or automatically upon or after a specified act or event.

(2) ~~An instrument which by its terms is otherwise payable only upon an act or event uncertain as to time of occurrence is not payable at a definite time even though the act or event has occurred.~~ If an instrument, payable at a fixed date, is also payable upon demand made before the fixed date, the instrument is payable on demand until the fixed date and, if demand for payment is not made before that date, becomes payable at a definite time on the fixed date."

Section 96. Section 30-3-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-111. Payable to bearer or to order. (1) ~~An instrument~~ A promise or order is "payable to bearer" ~~when by its terms it is payable to~~ if it:

(a) states that it is payable to bearer or to the order of bearer or otherwise indicates that the person in possession of the promise or order is entitled to payment; ~~or~~

(b) ~~a specified person or bearer~~ does not state a payee; or

(c) ~~"cash" or~~ states that it is payable to or to the order of "cash"~~;~~ or ~~any other indication which does not purport to designate a specific payee~~ otherwise indicates that it is not payable to an identified person.

(2) A promise or order that is not payable to bearer is "payable to order" if it is payable to the order of an identified person or to an identified person or order. A promise or order that is payable to order is payable to the identified person.

(3) An instrument payable to bearer may become payable to an identified person if it is specially indorsed as stated in 30-3-204(1). An instrument payable to an identified person may become payable to bearer if it is indorsed in blank as stated in 30-3-204(2)."

Section 97. Identification of person to whom instrument is payable. (1) A person to whom an instrument is payable is determined by the intent of the person, whether or not authorized, signing as, in the name of, or on behalf of the maker or drawer. The instrument is payable to the person intended by the signer even if that person is identified in the instrument by a name or other identification that is not that of the intended person. If more than one person signs in the name or on behalf of the maker or drawer and all the signers do not intend the same person as payee, the instrument is payable to any person intended by one or more of the signers.

(2) If the signature of the maker or drawer of an instrument is made by automated means, such as a check-writing machine, the payee of the instrument is determined by the intent of the person who supplied the name or identification of the payee, whether or not authorized to do so.

(3) A person to whom an instrument is payable may be identified in any way, including by name, identifying number, office, or account number. For the purpose of determining the holder of an instrument, the following rules apply:

(a) If an instrument is payable to an account and the account is identified only by number, the instrument is payable to the person to whom the account is payable. If an instrument is payable to an account identified by number and by the name of a person, the instrument is payable to the named person, whether or not that person is the owner of the account identified by number.

(b) If an instrument is payable to:

(i) a trust, estate, or a person described as trustee or representative of a trust or estate, the instrument is payable to the trustee, the representative, or a successor of either, whether or not the beneficiary or estate is also named;

(ii) a person described as agent or similar representative of a named or identified person, the instrument is payable either to the represented person, the representative, or a successor of the representative;

(iii) a fund or organization that is not a legal entity, the instrument is payable to a representative of the members of the fund or organization; or

(iv) an office or to a person described as holding an office, the instrument is payable to the named person, the incumbent of the office, or a successor to the incumbent.

(4) If an instrument is payable to two or more persons alternatively, it is payable to any of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced by any or all of them in possession of the instrument. If an instrument is payable to two or more persons not alternatively, it is payable to all of them and may be negotiated, discharged, or enforced only by all of them. If an instrument payable to two or more persons is ambiguous as to whether it is payable to the persons alternatively, the instrument is payable to the persons alternatively.

Section 98. Place of payment. Except as otherwise provided for items in chapter 4, an instrument is payable at the place of payment stated in the instrument. If no place of payment is stated, an instrument is payable at the address of the drawee or maker stated in the instrument. If no address is stated, the place of payment is the place of business of the drawee or maker. If a drawee or maker has more than one place of business, the place of payment is any place of business of the drawee or maker chosen by the person entitled to enforce the instrument. If the drawee or maker has no place of business, the place of payment is the residence of the drawee or maker.

Section 99. Interest. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument, an instrument is not payable with interest and interest on an interest-bearing instrument is payable from the date of the instrument.

(2) Interest may be stated in an instrument as a fixed or variable amount of money, or it may be expressed as a fixed or variable rate or rates. The amount or rate of interest may be stated or described in the instrument in any manner and may require reference to information not contained in the instrument. If an instrument provides for interest but the amount of interest payable cannot be ascertained from the description, interest is payable at the judgment rate in effect at the place of payment of the instrument and at the time interest first accrues.

Section 100. Section 30-3-114, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-114. Date~~, antedating, postdating~~ of instrument. (1) ~~The negotiability of an~~ An instrument ~~is not affected by the fact that it is undated,~~ may be antedated or postdated.

~~(2) Where an instrument is antedated or postdated the time when it is payable is determined by the stated~~ The date stated determines the time of payment if the instrument is payable ~~on demand or~~ at a fixed period after date. Except as provided in 30-4-401(3), an instrument payable on demand is not payable before the date of the instrument.

~~(3)~~(2) ~~Where the instrument or any signature thereon is dated, the date is presumed to be correct.~~ If an instrument is undated, its date is the date of its issue or, in the case of an unissued instrument, the date it first comes into possession of a holder."

Section 101. Contradictory terms of instrument. If an instrument contains contradictory terms, typewritten terms prevail over printed terms, handwritten terms prevail over both, and words prevail over numbers.

Section 102. Section 30-3-115, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-115. Incomplete ~~instruments~~ instrument. (1) ~~When a paper whose contents at the time of signing show that it is intended to become an instrument is signed while still incomplete in any necessary respect it cannot be enforced until completed, but when it is completed in accordance with authority given it is effective as completed.~~ "Incomplete instrument" means a signed writing, whether or not issued by the signer, the contents of which show at the time of signing that it is incomplete but that the signer intended it to be completed by the addition of words or numbers.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), if an incomplete instrument is an instrument under 30-3-104, it may be enforced according to its terms if it is not completed or according to its terms as augmented by completion. If an incomplete instrument is not an instrument under 30-3-104 but, after completion, the requirements of 30-3-104 are met, the instrument may be enforced according to its terms as augmented by completion.

(3) If ~~the completion is unauthorized the rules as to material alteration apply (~~words or numbers are added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer, there is an alteration of the incomplete instrument governed by 30-3-407~~), even though the paper was not delivered by the maker or drawer;~~.

(4) ~~but the~~ The burden of establishing that ~~any completion is unauthorized~~ words or numbers were added to an incomplete instrument without authority of the signer is on the ~~party so~~ person asserting the lack of authority."

Section 103. Joint and several liability — contribution. (1) Except as otherwise provided in the instrument, two or more persons who have the same liability on an instrument as makers, drawers, acceptors, indorsers who are indorsing joint payees, or anomalous indorsers are jointly and severally liable in the capacity in which they sign.

(2) Except as provided in [section 142(5)] or by agreement of the affected parties, a party with joint and several liability that pays the instrument is entitled to receive from any party with the same joint and several liability contribution in accordance with applicable law.

(3) Discharge of one party with joint and several liability by a person entitled to enforce the instrument does not affect the right under subsection (2) of a party with the same joint and several liability to receive contribution from the party discharged.

Section 104. Section 30-3-119, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-119. Other ~~writings~~ agreements affecting instrument. ~~(1) As between the obligor and his immediate obligee or any transferee the terms of an~~ Subject to applicable law regarding exclusion of proof of contemporaneous or prior agreements, the obligation of a party to an instrument to pay the instrument may be modified, supplemented, or ~~affected~~ nullified by ~~any other written~~ a separate agreement ~~executed~~ of the obligor and a person entitled to enforce the instrument if the instrument is issued or the obligation is incurred in reliance on the agreement or as ~~a~~ part of the same transaction~~, except that a holder in due course is not affected by any limitation of his rights arising out of the separate written agreement if he had no notice of the limitation when he took the instrument~~ giving rise to the agreement.

~~(2) A separate agreement does not affect the negotiability of an instrument.~~ To the extent an obligation is modified, supplemented, or nullified by an agreement under this section, the agreement is a defense to the obligation."

Section 105. Section 30-3-122, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-122. ~~Accrual of cause of action~~ Statute of limitations. (1) ~~A cause of action against a maker or an acceptor accrues:~~

~~(a) in the case of a time instrument on the day after maturity;~~

~~(b) in the case of a demand instrument upon its date or, if no date is stated, on the date of issue~~ Except as provided in subsection (5), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay a note payable at a definite time must be commenced within 6 years after the payment date or dates stated in the note or, if a payment date is accelerated, within 6 years after the accelerated payment date.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (4) or (5), if demand for payment is made to the maker of a note payable on demand, an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the note must be commenced within 6 years after the demand. If no demand for payment is made to the maker, an action to enforce the note is barred if neither principal nor interest on the note has been paid for a continuous period of 10 years.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), an action to enforce the obligation of a party to an unaccepted draft to pay the draft must be commenced within 6 years after dishonor of the draft or 10 years after the date of the draft, whichever period expires first.

(4) An action to enforce the obligation of the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a teller's check, cashier's check, or traveler's check must be commenced within 6 years after demand for payment is made to the acceptor or issuer, as the case may be.

~~(2)~~(5) ~~A cause of~~ An action ~~against the obligor of a demand or time~~ to enforce the obligation of a party to a certificate of deposit ~~accrues upon demand, but demand on a time certificate may not be made until on or after the date of~~ to pay the instrument must be commenced within 6 years after demand for payment is made to the maker, but if the instrument states a maturity date and the maker is not required to pay before that date, the 6-year period begins when a demand for payment is in effect and the maturity date has passed.

~~(3) A cause of action against a drawer of a draft or an endorser of any instrument accrues upon demand following dishonor of the instrument. Notice of dishonor is a demand.~~

~~(4) Unless an instrument provides otherwise, interest runs at the rate provided by law for a judgment:~~

~~(a) in the case of a maker, acceptor or other primary obligor of a demand instrument, from the date of demand;~~

~~(b) in all other cases from the date of accrual of the cause of action.~~

(6) This subsection applies to an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay an accepted draft, other than a certified check. If the obligation of the acceptor is payable at a definite time, the action must be commenced within 6 years after the payment date or dates stated in the draft or acceptance. If the obligation of the acceptor is payable on demand, the action must be commenced within 6 years after the date of the acceptance.

(7) Unless governed by other law regarding claims for indemnity or contribution, an action for conversion of an instrument, for money had and received, or for like action based on conversion; for breach of warranty; or to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this chapter and not governed by this section must be commenced within 3 years after the cause of action accrues."

Section 106. Notice of right to defend action. In an action for breach of an obligation for which a third person is answerable over pursuant to this chapter or chapter 4, the defendant may give the third person written notice of the litigation and the person notified may then give similar notice to any other person who is answerable over. If the notice states that the person notified may come in and defend and that failure to do so will bind the person notified in an action later brought by the person giving the notice as to any determination of fact common to the two litigations, the person notified is so bound unless after seasonable receipt of the notice the person notified does come in and defend.

Section 107. Section 30-3-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-202. Negotiation. (1) "Negotiation" ~~is the~~ means a transfer of possession, whether voluntary or involuntary, of an instrument ~~in such form that the transferee~~ to a person who thereby becomes ~~a~~ its holder if possession is obtained from a person other than the issuer of the instrument. ~~If the instrument is payable to order it is negotiated by delivery with any necessary endorsement; if payable to bearer it is negotiated by delivery.~~

(2) ~~An endorsement must be written by or on behalf of the holder and on the instrument or on a paper so firmly affixed thereto as to become a part thereof.~~ Except for negotiation by a remitter, if an instrument is payable to an identified person, negotiation requires transfer of possession of the instrument and its indorsement by the holder. If an instrument is payable to bearer, it may be negotiated by transfer of possession alone.

~~(3) An endorsement is effective for negotiation only when it conveys the entire instrument or any unpaid residue. If it purports to be of less it operates only as a partial assignment.~~

~~(4) Words of assignment, condition, waiver, guaranty, limitation or disclaimer of liability and the like accompanying an endorsement do not affect its character as an endorsement.~~"

Section 108. Negotiation subject to rescission. (1) Negotiation is effective even if obtained:

(a) from an infant, a corporation exceeding its powers, or a person without capacity; or

(b) by fraud, duress, or mistake or in breach of duty or as part of an illegal transaction.

(2) To the extent permitted by law, negotiation may be rescinded or may be subject to other remedies, but those remedies may not be asserted against a subsequent holder in due course or a person paying the instrument in good faith and without knowledge of facts that are a basis for rescission or other remedy.

Section 109. Rights acquired by transfer. (1) An instrument is transferred when it is delivered by a person other than its issuer for the purpose of giving to the person receiving delivery the right to enforce the instrument.

(2) Transfer of an instrument, regardless of whether the transfer is a negotiation, vests in the transferee any right of the transferor to enforce the instrument, including any right as a holder in due course, but the transferee may not acquire rights of a holder in due course by a transfer, directly or indirectly, from a holder in due course if the purchaser engaged in fraud or illegality affecting the instrument.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed, if an instrument is transferred for value and the transferee does not become a holder because of lack of indorsement by the transferor, the transferee has a specifically enforceable right to the unqualified indorsement of the transferor, but negotiation of the instrument does not occur until the indorsement is made.

(4) If a transferor purports to transfer less than the entire instrument, negotiation of the instrument does not occur. The transferee obtains no rights under this chapter and has only the rights of a partial assignee.

Section 110. Section 30-3-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-203. ~~Wrong or misspelled name~~ Indorsement. (1) "Indorsement" means a signature, other than that of a maker, drawer, or acceptor, that alone or accompanied by other words is made on an instrument for the purpose of negotiating the instrument, restricting payment of the instrument, or incurring indorser's liability on the instrument, but regardless of the intent of the signer, a signature and its accompanying words is an indorsement unless the accompanying words, the terms of the instrument, the place of the signature, or other circumstances unambiguously indicate that the signature was made for a purpose other than indorsement. For the purpose of determining whether a signature is made on an instrument, a paper affixed to the instrument is a part of the instrument.

(2) "Indorser" means a person who makes an indorsement.

(3) For the purpose of determining whether the transferee of an instrument is a holder, an indorsement that transfers a security interest in the instrument is effective as an unqualified indorsement of the instrument.

(4) ~~Where~~ If an instrument is ~~made~~ payable to a ~~person~~ holder under a ~~misspelled~~ name ~~or one other than his own he may endorse in that name or his own~~ that is not the name of the holder, indorsement may be made by the holder in the name stated in the instrument or in the holder's name, or both~~;~~, but signature in both names may be required by a person paying or ~~giving value for~~ taking the instrument for value or collection."

Section 111. Section 30-3-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-204. Special ~~endorsement~~ indorsement — blank ~~endorsement~~ indorsement — *anomalous indorsement. (1) ~~A special endorsement specifies the~~ If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument, whether payable to an identified person or payable to bearer, and the indorsement identifies a person to whom ~~or to whose order~~ it makes the instrument payable, it is a "special indorsement". ~~Any instrument~~ When specially ~~endorsed~~ indorsed, an instrument becomes payable to the ~~order of the special endorsee~~ identified person and may be ~~further~~ negotiated only by ~~his endorsement~~ the indorsement of that person. The principles stated in [section 97] apply to special indorsements.

(2) ~~An endorsement in~~ If an indorsement is made by the holder of an instrument and it is not a special indorsement, it is a "blank indorsement" ~~specifies no particular endorsee and may consist of a mere signature~~. ~~An instrument payable to order and endorsed~~ When indorsed in blank, an instrument becomes payable to bearer and may be negotiated by ~~delivery~~ transfer of possession alone until specially ~~endorsed~~ indorsed.

(3) The holder may convert a blank ~~endorsement~~ indorsement that consists only of a signature into a special ~~endorsement~~ indorsement by writing, ~~over~~ above the signature of the ~~endorser~~ indorser, ~~in blank any contract consistent with the character of the endorsement~~ words identifying the person to whom the instrument is made payable.

(4) "Anomalous indorsement" means an indorsement made by a person that is not the holder of the instrument. An anomalous indorsement does not affect the manner in which the instrument may be negotiated."

Section 112. Section 30-3-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-205. Restrictive ~~endorsements~~ indorsement. (1) An ~~endorsement~~ indorsement ~~is restrictive which either:~~

~~(a) is conditional;~~ limiting payment to a particular person or

~~(b) purports to prohibit~~ otherwise prohibiting further transfer or negotiation of the instrument~~; or~~ is not effective to prevent further transfer or negotiation of the instrument.

(2) An indorsement stating a condition to the right of the indorsee to receive payment does not affect the right of the indorsee to enforce the instrument. A person paying the instrument or taking it for value or collection may disregard the condition, and the rights and liabilities of that person are not affected by whether the condition has been fulfilled.

~~(c) includes~~ (3) The following rules apply to an instrument bearing an indorsement, described in 30-4-201(2), or in blank or to a particular bank using the words "for collection", "for deposit", ~~"pay any bank",~~ or ~~like terms signifying~~ other words indicating a purpose of ~~deposit or collection~~ having the instrument collected by a bank for the indorser or for a particular account: ~~; or~~

(a) A person, other than a bank, that purchases the instrument when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the proceeds of the instrument are received by the indorser or are applied consistently with the indorsement.

(b) A depositary bank that purchases the instrument or takes it for collection when so indorsed converts the instrument unless the proceeds of the instrument are received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(c) A payor bank that is also the depositary bank or that takes the instrument for immediate payment over the counter from a person other than a collecting bank converts the instrument unless the proceeds of the instrument are received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3)(c), a payor bank or intermediary bank may disregard the indorsement and is not liable if the proceeds of the instrument are not received by the indorser or applied consistently with the indorsement.

~~(d)~~(4) ~~otherwise states that it is~~ Except for an indorsement covered by subsection (3), the following rules apply to an instrument bearing an indorsement using words to the effect that payment is to be made to the indorsee as agent, trustee, or other fiduciary for the benefit ~~or use~~ of the ~~endorser~~ indorser or ~~of~~ another person*:*

(a) Unless there is notice of breach of fiduciary duty as provided in [section 120], a person that purchases the instrument from the indorsee or takes the instrument from the indorsee for collection or payment may pay the proceeds of payment or the value given for the instrument to the indorsee without regard to whether the indorsee violates a fiduciary duty to the indorser.

(b) A later transferee of the instrument or person that pays the instrument is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by the restriction in the indorsement unless the transferee or payor knows that the fiduciary dealt with the instrument or its proceeds in breach of fiduciary duty.

(5) Purchase of an instrument bearing an indorsement to which this section applies does not prevent the purchaser from becoming a holder in due course of the instrument unless the purchaser is a converter under subsection (3).

(6) In an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor has a defense if payment would violate an indorsement to which this section applies and the payment is not permitted by this section."

Section 113. Section 30-3-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-208. Reacquisition. ~~Where~~ Reacquisition of an instrument ~~is returned to or reacquired by a prior party he~~ occurs if it is transferred, by negotiation or otherwise, to a former holder. A former holder that reacquires the instrument may cancel ~~any endorsement which is not necessary to his title and reissue or further negotiate the instrument, but any intervening party~~ indorsements made after the reacquirer first became a holder of the instrument. If the cancellation causes the instrument to be payable to the reacquirer or to bearer, the reacquirer may negotiate the instrument. An indorser whose indorsement is canceled is discharged, ~~as~~ and the discharge is effective against ~~the reacquiring party and subsequent holders not in due course and if his endorsement has been canceled is discharged as against subsequent holders in due course as well~~ any late holder."

Section 114. Section 30-3-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-301. ~~Rights of a holder~~ Person entitled to enforce instrument. ~~The~~ "Person entitled to enforce" an instrument means the holder of an instrument, a nonholder in possession of the instrument who has the rights of a holder, or a person not in possession of the instrument who is entitled to enforce the instrument pursuant to [section 122]. A person may be a person entitled to enforce the instrument ~~whether or not he~~ even though the person is not the owner of the instrument ~~may transfer or negotiate it and, except as otherwise provided in 30-3-603 on payment or satisfaction, discharge it or enforce payment in his own name~~ or is in wrongful possession of the instrument."

Section 115. Section 30-3-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-302. Holder in due course. (1) ~~A~~ Subject to subsection (3) and 30-3-105(4), "holder in due course" ~~is a~~ means the holder ~~who takes the~~ of an instrument if:

(a) the instrument when issued or negotiated to the holder does not bear such apparent evidence of forgery or alteration or is not otherwise so irregular or incomplete as to call into question its authenticity; and

(b) the holder took the instrument:

(i) for value; ~~and~~

~~(b)~~(ii) in good faith; ~~and~~

~~(c)~~(iii) without notice that it is overdue or has been dishonored or that there is an uncured default with respect to payment of another instrument issued as part of the same series;

(iv) without notice that the instrument contains an unauthorized signature or has been altered;

(v) without notice of any claim to the instrument stated in 30-3-306; and

(vi) without notice that any party to the instrument has ~~of~~ any defense ~~against~~ or claim ~~to it on the part of any person~~ in recoupment stated in 30-3-305(1).

(2) ~~A payee may be a holder in due course.~~ Notice of discharge of a party to the instrument, other than discharge in an insolvency proceeding, is not notice of a defense under subsection (1), but discharge is effective against a person who became a holder in due course with notice of the discharge. Public filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice of a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument.

(3) ~~A holder~~ Except to the extent a transferor or predecessor in interest has rights as a holder in due course, a person does not ~~become~~ acquire rights of a holder in due course of an instrument taken:

(a) by legal process or by purchase ~~of it~~ at ~~judicial~~ at an execution, bankruptcy, or creditor's sale or ~~by taking it under legal process~~ similar proceeding; ~~or~~

(b) ~~by acquiring it in taking over an estate; or~~

~~(c)~~ by ~~purchasing it~~ purchase as part of a bulk transaction not in ~~regular~~ ordinary course of business of the transferor; or

(c) as the successor in interest to an estate or other organization.

(4) If, under 30-3-303(1)(a), the promise of performance that is the consideration for an instrument has been partially performed, the holder may assert rights as a holder in due course of the instrument only to the fraction of the amount payable under the instrument equal to the value of the partial performance divided by the value of the promised performance.

~~(4)~~(5) ~~A purchaser of a limited interest can be~~ If the person entitled to enforce an instrument has only a security interest in the instrument and the person obliged to pay the instrument has a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument that may be asserted against the person who granted the security interest, the person entitled to enforce the instrument may assert rights as a holder in due course only to ~~the extent of the interest purchased~~ an amount payable under the instrument that, at the time of enforcement of the instrument, does not exceed the amount of the unpaid obligation secured.

(6) To be effective, notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it.

(7) This section is subject to any law limiting status as a holder in due course in particular classes of transactions."

Section 116. Section 30-3-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-303. ~~Taking for value~~ *Value and consideration. (1) ~~A holder takes the~~ An instrument is issued or transferred for value if:

(a) the instrument is issued or transferred for a promise of performance, to the extent that the ~~agreed consideration~~ promise has been performed*;*

(b) ~~or that he~~ the transferee acquires a security interest ~~in~~ or ~~a~~ other lien ~~on~~ in the instrument ~~otherwise~~ other than a lien obtained by ~~legal process~~ judicial proceedings; ~~or~~

~~(b)~~(c) ~~when he takes~~ the instrument ~~in~~ is issued or transferred as payment of, or as security for, an ~~antecedent claim against~~ an existing obligation of any person, whether or not the ~~claim~~ obligation is due; ~~or~~

~~(c)~~(e) ~~when he gives a negotiable~~ the instrument is issued or transferred in exchange for ~~it or makes an~~ the incurring of an irrevocable ~~commitment~~ obligation to a third ~~person~~ party by the person taking the instrument.

(2) "Consideration" means any consideration sufficient to support a simple contract. The drawer or maker of an instrument has a defense if the instrument is issued without consideration. If an instrument is issued for a promise of performance, the drawer or maker has a defense to the extent performance of the promise is due and the promise has not been performed. If an instrument is issued for value as stated in subsection (1), the instrument is also issued for consideration."

Section 117. Section 30-3-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-304. ~~Notice to purchaser~~ *Overdue instrument. (1) ~~The purchaser has notice of a claim or defense if:~~

~~(a) the instrument is so incomplete, bears such visible evidence of forgery or alteration, or is otherwise so irregular as to call into question its validity, terms or ownership or to create an ambiguity as to the party to pay; or~~

~~(b) the purchaser has notice that the obligation of any party is voidable in whole or in part, or that all parties have been discharged.~~

~~(2) The purchaser has notice of a claim against the instrument when he has knowledge that a fiduciary has negotiated the instrument in payment of or as security for his own debt or in any transaction for his own benefit or otherwise in breach of duty.~~

~~(3) The purchaser has notice that an instrument is overdue if he has reason to know:~~

~~(a) that any part of the principal amount is overdue or that there is an uncured default in payment of another instrument of the same series; or~~

~~(b) that acceleration of the instrument has been made; or~~

~~(c) that he is taking a demand instrument after demand has been made or more than a reasonable length of time after its issue. A reasonable time for a check drawn and payable within the states and territories of the United States and the District of Columbia is presumed to be 30 days.~~

~~(4) Knowledge of the following facts does not of itself give the purchaser notice of a defense or claim:~~

~~(a) that the instrument is antedated or postdated;~~

~~(b) that it was issued or negotiated in return for an executory promise or accompanied by a separate agreement, unless the purchaser has notice that a defense or claim has arisen from the terms thereof;~~

~~(c) that any party has signed for accommodation;~~

~~(d) that an incomplete instrument has been completed, unless the purchaser has notice of any improper completion;~~

~~(e) that any person negotiating the instrument is or was a fiduciary;~~
An instrument payable on demand becomes overdue at the earliest of the following times:

(a) on the day after the day demand for payment is duly made;

(b) if the instrument is a check, 90 days after its date; or

(c) if the instrument is not a check, when the instrument has been outstanding for a period of time after its date that is unreasonably long under the circumstances of the particular case in light of the nature of the instrument and trade usage.

(2) With respect to an instrument payable at a definite time, the following rules apply:

(a) If the principal is payable in installments and a due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue upon default under the instrument for nonpayment of an installment, and the instrument remains overdue until the default is cured.

(b) If the principal is not payable in installments and the due date has not been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the due date.

(c) If a due date with respect to principal has been accelerated, the instrument becomes overdue on the day after the accelerated due date.

~~(f)~~(3) ~~that~~ Unless the due date of principal has been accelerated, an instrument does not become overdue if there ~~has been~~ is a default in payment of interest ~~on the instrument or~~ but no default in payment of ~~any other instrument, except one of the same series~~ principal.

~~(5) The filing or recording of a document does not of itself constitute notice within the provisions of this chapter to a person who would otherwise be a holder in due course.~~

~~(6) To be effective notice must be received at such time and in such manner as to give a reasonable opportunity to act on it.~~"

Section 118. Section 30-3-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-305. ~~Rights of a holder in due course~~ Defenses and claims in recoupment. ~~To the extent that a holder is a holder in due course he takes the instrument free from:~~

~~(e) any other discharge of which the holder has notice when he takes the instrument~~.

(b) A defense of the obligor stated in another section of this chapter or a defense of the obligor that would be available if the person entitled to enforce the instrument were enforcing a right to payment under a simple contract.

(c) A claim in recoupment of the obligor against the original payee of the instrument if the claim arose from the transaction that gave rise to the instrument. The claim of the obligor may be asserted against a transferee of the instrument only to reduce the amount owing on the instrument at the time the action is brought.

(2) The right of a holder in due course to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument is subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (1)(a) but is not subject to defenses of the obligor stated in subsection (1)(b) or claims in recoupment stated in subsection (1)(c) against a person other than the holder.

(3) Except as stated in subsection (4), in an action to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument, the obligor may not assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument a defense, claim in recoupment, or claim to the instrument (30-3-306) of another person, but the other person's claim to the instrument may be asserted by the obligor if the other person is joined in the action and personally asserts the claim against the person entitled to enforce the instrument. An obligor is not obliged to pay the instrument if the person seeking enforcement of the instrument does not have rights of a holder in due course and the obligor proves that the instrument is a lost or stolen instrument.

(4) In an action to enforce the obligation of an accommodation party to pay an instrument, the accommodation party may assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument any defense or claim in recoupment under subsection (1) that the accommodated party could assert against the person entitled to enforce the instrument, except the defenses of discharge in insolvency proceedings, infancy, or lack of legal capacity."

Section 119. Section 30-3-306, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-306. ~~Rights of one not holder in due course~~ Claims to an instrument. ~~Unless he has the~~ A person taking an instrument, other than a person having rights of a holder in due course, ~~any person takes the instrument subject to:~~

A person having rights of a holder in due course takes free of the claim to the instrument."*

Section 120. Notice of breach of fiduciary duty. (1) This section applies if an instrument is taken from a fiduciary for payment or collection or for value, the taker has knowledge of the fiduciary status of the fiduciary, and the represented person makes a claim to the instrument or its proceeds on the basis that the transaction of the fiduciary is a breach of fiduciary duty. Notice of breach of fiduciary duty by the fiduciary is notice of the claim of the represented person. "Fiduciary" means an agent, trustee, partner, corporation officer or director, or other representative owing a fiduciary duty with respect to the instrument. "Represented person" means the principal, beneficiary, partnership, corporation, or other person to whom the duty is owed.

(2) If the instrument is payable to the fiduciary, as such, or to the represented person, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is:

(a) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary;

(b) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary; or

(c) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

(3) If the instrument is made or drawn by the fiduciary, as such, payable to the fiduciary personally, the taker does not have notice of the breach of fiduciary duty unless the taker knows of the breach of fiduciary duty.

(4) If the instrument is made or drawn by or on behalf of the represented person to the taker as payee, the taker has notice of the breach of fiduciary duty if the instrument is:

(a) taken in payment of or as security for a debt known by the taker to be the personal debt of the fiduciary;

(b) taken in a transaction known by the taker to be for the personal benefit of the fiduciary; or

(c) deposited to an account other than an account of the fiduciary, as such, or an account of the represented person.

Section 121. Section 30-3-307, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-307. ~~Burden of establishing~~ Proof of signatures~~, defenses~~ and status as holder in due course. (1) ~~Unless specifically denied in the pleadings~~ In an action with respect to an instrument, the authenticity of and authority to make each signature on ~~an~~ the instrument is admitted unless specifically denied in the pleadings. ~~When the effectiveness~~ If the validity of a signature is ~~put in issue:~~

Section 122. Enforcement of lost, destroyed, or stolen instrument. (1) A person not in possession of an instrument is entitled to enforce the instrument if:

(a) that person was in rightful possession of the instrument and entitled to enforce it when loss of possession occurred;

(b) the loss of possession was not the result of a voluntary transfer by that person or a lawful seizure; and

(c) that person cannot reasonably obtain possession of the instrument because the instrument was destroyed, its whereabouts cannot be determined, or it is in the wrongful possession of an unknown person or a person that cannot be found or is not amenable to service of process.

(2) A person seeking enforcement of an instrument pursuant to subsection (1) shall prove the terms of the instrument and the person's right to enforce the instrument. If that proof is made, 30-3-307 applies to the case as though the person seeking enforcement had produced the instrument. The court may not enter judgment in favor of the person seeking enforcement unless it finds that the person required to pay the instrument is adequately protected against loss that might occur by reason of a claim by another person to enforce the instrument. Adequate protection may be provided by any reasonable means.

Section 123. Effect of instrument on obligation for which taken. (1) Unless otherwise agreed, if a certified check, cashier's check, or teller's check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is discharged to the same extent discharge would result if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken in payment of the obligation. Discharge of the obligation does not affect any liability that the obligor may have as an indorser of the instrument.

(2) Unless otherwise agreed and except as provided in subsection (1), if a note or an uncertified check is taken for an obligation, the obligation is suspended to the same extent the obligation would be discharged if an amount of money equal to the amount of the instrument were taken.

(3) In the case of an uncertified check, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the check or until it is paid or certified. Payment or certification of the check results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the amount of the check.

(4) In the case of a note, suspension of the obligation continues until dishonor of the note or until it is paid. Payment of the note results in discharge of the obligation to the extent of the payment.

(5) If the check or note is dishonored and the obligee of the obligation for which the instrument was taken has possession of the instrument, the obligee may enforce either the instrument or the obligation. In the case of an instrument of a third person that is negotiated to the obligee by the obligor, discharge of the obligor on the instrument also discharges the obligation.

(6) If the person entitled to enforce the instrument taken for an obligation is a person other than the obligee, the obligee may not enforce the obligation to the extent the obligation is suspended. If the obligee is the person entitled to enforce the instrument but no longer has possession of it because it was lost, stolen, or destroyed, the obligation may not be enforced to the extent of the amount payable on the instrument, and to that extent, the obligee's rights against the obligor are limited to enforcement of the instrument.

(7) If an instrument other than one described in subsection (1) or (2) is taken for an obligation, the effect is:

(a) that stated in subsection (1) if the instrument is one on which a bank is liable as maker or acceptor; or

(b) that stated in subsection (2) in any other case.

Section 124. Accord and satisfaction by use of instrument. (1) This section applies if a person against whom a claim is asserted proves that:

(a) that person in good faith tendered an instrument to the claimant as full satisfaction of the claim;

(b) the amount of the claim was unliquidated or subject to a bona fide dispute; and

(c) the claimant obtained payment of the instrument.

(2) Unless subsection (3) applies, the claim is discharged if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that the instrument or an accompanying written communication contained a conspicuous statement to the effect that the instrument was tendered as full satisfaction of the claim.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), a claim is not discharged under subsection (2) if the claimant is an organization and proves that within a reasonable time before the tender, the claimant sent a conspicuous statement to the person against whom the claim is asserted that communications concerning disputed debts, including an instrument tendered as full satisfaction of a debt, are to be sent to a designated person, office, or place and the instrument or accompanying communication was not received by that designated person, office, or place.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), a claim is discharged under subsection (2) if the person against whom the claim is asserted proves that within a reasonable time before collection of the instrument was initiated, an agent of the claimant having direct responsibility with respect to the disputed obligation knew that the instrument was tendered in full satisfaction of the claim or received the instrument and any accompanying written communication.

Section 125. Section 30-3-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-401. Signature. (1) ~~No~~ A person is not liable on an instrument unless*:*

(a) ~~his signature appears thereon~~ the person signed the instrument; or

(b) the person is represented by an agent or representative who signed the instrument and the signature is binding on the represented person under 30-3-403.

(2) A signature is made*:*

(a) manually or by means of a device or machine; and

(b) by use of any name, including any trade or assumed name, ~~upon an instrument,~~ or by any word, ~~or~~ mark, or symbol ~~used in lieu of a written signature~~ executed or adopted by a person with present intention to authenticate a writing."

Section 126. Section 30-3-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-403. Signature by ~~authorized~~ representative. (1) ~~A signature may be made by an agent or other representative, and his authority to make it may be established as in other cases of representation. No particular form of appointment is necessary to establish such authority.~~ If a person acting, or purporting to act, as a representative signs an instrument by signing either the name of the represented person or the name of the signer, the represented person is bound by the signature to the same extent the represented person would be bound if the signature were on a simple contract. If the represented person is bound, the signature of the representative is the "authorized signature of the represented person" and the represented person is liable on the instrument, whether or not identified in the instrument.

(2) ~~An authorized~~ If a representative ~~who~~ signs ~~his own~~ the name of the representative to an instrument and that signature is an authorized signature of the represented person, the following rules apply:

(a) ~~is personally obligated if the instrument neither names the person represented nor shows that the representative signed in a representative capacity;~~ If the form of the signature shows unambiguously that the signature is made on behalf of the represented person who is identified in the instrument, the representative is not liable on the instrument.

(b) ~~except as otherwise established between the immediate parties, is personally obligated if the instrument names the person represented but~~ Subject to subsection (3), if the form of the signature does not show unambiguously that the ~~representative signed~~ signature is made in a representative capacity, or ~~if~~ the represented person is not identified in the instrument, ~~does not name the person represented but does show~~ the representative is liable on the instrument to a holder in due course that took the instrument without notice that the representative ~~signed in a representative capacity~~ was not intended to be liable on the instrument. With respect to any other person, the representative is liable on the instrument unless the representative proves that the original parties to the instrument did not intend the representative to be liable on the instrument.

(3) ~~Except as otherwise established~~ If a representative signs the name of ~~an organization preceded or followed by the name and office of an authorized individual is a signature made in a representative capacity~~ the representative as drawer of a check without indication of the representative's status and the check is payable from an account of the represented person who is identified on the check, the signer is not liable on the check if the signature is an authorized signature of the represented person."

Section 127. Section 30-3-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-404. Unauthorized signatures. (1) ~~Any~~ Unless otherwise provided in this chapter, an unauthorized signature is ~~wholly inoperative as that of the person whose name is signed unless he ratifies it or is precluded from denying it; but it operates~~ ineffective except as the signature of the unauthorized signer in favor of ~~any~~ a person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value.

~~(2) Any~~ An unauthorized signature may be ratified for all purposes of this chapter. ~~Such ratification does not of itself affect any rights of the person ratifying against the actual signer.~~

(2) If the signature of more than one person is required to constitute the authorized signature of an organization, the signature of the organization is unauthorized if one of the required signatures is missing.

(3) The civil or criminal liability of a person who makes an unauthorized signature is not affected by any provision of this chapter that makes the unauthorized signature effective for the purposes of this chapter."

Section 128. Section 30-3-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-405. Impostors — ~~signature in name of payee~~ *fictitious payees. (1) ~~An endorsement by any person in the name of a named payee is effective if:~~

~~(a)~~ If an impostor by use of the mails or otherwise ~~has induced~~ induces the maker or drawer of an instrument to issue the instrument to ~~him or his confederate~~ the impostor or to a person acting in concert with the impostor by impersonating the payee of the instrument or a person authorized to act for the payee, an indorsement of the instrument by any person in the name of the payee is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection~~; or~~

~~(b) a person signing as or on behalf of a maker or drawer intends the payee to have no interest in the instrument; or~~

~~(c) an agent or employee of the maker or drawer has supplied him with the name of the payee intending the latter to have no such interest.~~

(2) ~~Nothing in this section shall affect the criminal or civil liability of the person so endorsing.~~ If a person whose intent determines to whom an instrument is payable ([section 97(1) or (2)]) does not intend the person identified as payee to have any interest in the instrument or if the person identified as payee of an instrument is a fictitious person, the following rules apply until the instrument is negotiated by special indorsement:

(a) Any person in possession of the instrument is its holder.

(b) An indorsement by any person in the name of the payee stated in the instrument is effective as the indorsement of the payee in favor of any person who in good faith pays the instrument or takes it for value or for collection.

(3) Under subsection (1) or (2), an indorsement is made in the name of a payee if:

(a) it is made in a name substantially similar to that of the payee; or

(b) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depositary bank to an account in a name substantially similar to that of the payee.

(4) With respect to an instrument to which subsection (1) or (2) applies, if a person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss resulting from payment of the instrument, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss."

Section 129. Employer responsibility for fraudulent indorsement by employee. (1) This section applies to fraudulent indorsements of instruments with respect to which an employer has entrusted an employee with responsibility as part of the employee's duties. The following definitions apply to this section:

(a) "Employee" includes, in addition to an employee of an employer, an independent contractor and employee of an independent contractor retained by the employer.

(b) "Fraudulent indorsement" means:

(i) in the case of an instrument payable to the employer, a forged indorsement purporting to be that of the employer; or

(ii) in the case of an instrument with respect to which the employer is drawer or maker, a forged indorsement purporting to be that of the person identified as payee.

(c) (i) "Responsibility" with respect to instruments means authority to:

(A) sign or indorse instruments on behalf of the employer;

(B) process instruments received by the employer for bookkeeping purposes, for deposit to an account, or for other disposition;

(C) prepare or process instruments for issue in the name of the employer;

(D) supply information determining the names or addresses of payees of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer;

(E) control the disposition of instruments to be issued in the name of the employer; or

(F) otherwise act with respect to instruments in a responsible capacity.

(ii) The term does not include the assignment of duties that merely allows an employee to have access to instruments or blank or incomplete instrument forms that are being stored or transported or are part of incoming or outgoing mail, or similar access.

(2) For purposes of determining the rights and liabilities of a person who in good faith pays an instrument or takes it for value or for collection, if an employee entrusted with responsibility with respect to the instrument or a person acting in concert with the employee makes a fraudulent indorsement to the instrument, the indorsement is effective as the indorsement of the person to whom the instrument is payable if it is made in the name of that person. If the person paying the instrument or taking it for value or for collection fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss resulting from the fraud, the person bearing the loss may recover from the person failing to exercise ordinary care to the extent the failure to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

(3) Under subsection (2), an indorsement is made in the name of the person to whom an instrument is payable if:

(a) it is made in a name substantially similar to the name of that person; or

(b) the instrument, whether or not indorsed, is deposited in a depositary bank to an account in a name substantially similar to the name of that person.

Section 130. Section 30-3-406, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-406. Negligence contributing to ~~alteration~~ forged signature or ~~unauthorized signature~~ *alteration of instrument. (1) ~~Any~~ A person ~~who by his negligence~~ whose failure to exercise ordinary care substantially contributes to ~~a material~~ an alteration of ~~the~~ an instrument or to the making of ~~an unauthorized~~ a forged signature on an instrument is precluded from asserting the alteration or ~~lack of authority~~ the forgery against a ~~holder in due course or against a drawee or other payor who~~ a person who in good faith pays the instrument ~~in good faith and in accordance with the reasonable commercial standards of the drawee's or payor's business~~ or takes it for value.

(2) If the person asserting the preclusion fails to exercise ordinary care in paying or taking the instrument and that failure substantially contributes to loss, the loss is allocated between the person precluded and the person asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of each to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss.

(3) Under subsection (1), the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person asserting the preclusion. Under subsection (2), the burden of proving failure to exercise ordinary care is on the person precluded."

Section 131. Section 30-3-407, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-407. Alteration. (1) ~~Any alteration of~~ "Alteration" means:

(a) an unauthorized change in an instrument ~~is material which changes the contract of any party thereto~~ that purports to modify in any respect~~, including any such change in:~~

~~(a) the number or relations of the parties~~ the obligation of a party to the instrument; or

(b) an unauthorized addition of words or numbers or other change to an incomplete instrument~~, by completing it otherwise than as authorized; or~~

~~(c) the writing as signed, by adding to it or by removing any part of it~~ relating to the obligation of any party to the instrument.

(b) in the case of an incomplete instrument ~~has been completed, he may enforce it~~ altered by unauthorized completion, according to its terms as completed."

Section 132. Section 30-3-409, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-409. ~~Draft not an assignment~~ Drawee not liable on unaccepted draft. ~~(1)~~ A check or other draft does not of itself operate as an assignment of ~~any~~ funds in the hands of the drawee available for its payment, and the drawee is not liable on the instrument until ~~he~~ the drawee accepts it.

~~(2) Nothing in this section shall affect any liability in contract, tort or otherwise arising from any letter of credit or other obligation or representation which is not an acceptance.~~"

Section 133. Section 30-3-410, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-410. ~~Definition and operation of acceptance~~ Acceptance of draft — certified check. (1) "Acceptance" ~~is~~ means the drawee's signed ~~engagement to honor the~~ agreement to pay a draft as presented. (3) ~~Where the~~ If a draft is payable at a fixed period after sight and the acceptor fails to date ~~his~~ the acceptance, the holder may complete ~~it~~ the acceptance by supplying a date in good faith.

(4) "Certified check" means a check accepted by the bank on which it is drawn. Acceptance may be made as stated in subsection (1) or by a writing on the check that indicates that the check is certified. The drawee of a check has no obligation to certify the check, and refusal to certify is not dishonor of the check."

Section 134. Section 30-3-412, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-412. Acceptance varying draft. (1) ~~Where the~~ If the terms of a drawee's ~~proffered~~ acceptance ~~in any manner varies~~ vary from the terms of the draft as presented, the holder may refuse the acceptance and treat the draft as dishonored. ~~in which~~ In that case, the drawee ~~is entitled to have his~~ may cancel the acceptance ~~canceled~~.

(2) The terms of the draft are not varied by an acceptance to pay at ~~any~~ a particular bank or place in the United States, unless the acceptance states that the draft is to be paid only at ~~such~~ that bank or place.

(3) ~~Where~~ If the holder assents to an acceptance varying the terms of ~~the~~ a draft, the obligation of each drawer and ~~endorser~~ indorser ~~who~~ that does not ~~affirmatively~~ expressly assent to the acceptance is discharged."

Section 135. Refusal to pay cashier's checks, teller's checks, and certified checks. (1) In this section, "obligated bank" means the acceptor of a certified check or the issuer of a cashier's check or teller's check bought from the issuer.

(2) If the obligated bank wrongfully refuses to pay a cashier's check or certified check, stops payment of a teller's check, or refuses to pay a dishonored teller's check, the person asserting the right to enforce the check is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the nonpayment and may recover consequential damages if the obligated bank refuses to pay after receiving notice of particular circumstances giving rise to the damages.

(3) Expenses or consequential damages under subsection (2) are not recoverable if the refusal of the obligated bank to pay occurs because:

(a) the bank suspends payments;

(b) the obligated bank is asserting a claim or defense of the bank that it has reasonable grounds to believe is available against the person entitled to enforce the instrument;

(c) the obligated bank has a reasonable doubt whether the person demanding payment is the person entitled to enforce the instrument; or

(d) payment is prohibited by law.

Section 136. Section 30-3-413, MCA, is amended to read:

(2) if the maker signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms ~~as~~ when completed ~~pursuant to~~ as stated in 30-3-115 ~~on incomplete instruments~~ and 30-3-407.

(3) The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the note or to an indorser that paid the note pursuant to 30-3-414.

~~(2) The drawer engages that upon dishonor of the draft and any necessary notice of dishonor or protest he will pay the amount of the draft to the holder or to any endorser who takes it up. The drawer may disclaim this liability by drawing without recourse.~~

~~(3) By making, drawing or accepting the party admits as against all subsequent parties including the drawee the existence of the payee and his then capacity to endorse.~~"

Section 137. Obligation of acceptor. (1) An acceptor of a draft is obliged to pay the draft:

(a) according to its terms at the time it was accepted, even though the acceptance states that the draft is payable "as originally drawn" or equivalent terms;

(b) if the acceptance varies the terms of the draft, according to the terms of the draft as varied; or

(c) if the acceptance is of a draft that is an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed as stated in 30-3-115 and 30-3-407.

(2) The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to the drawer or an indorser that paid the draft pursuant to [section 138] or 30-3-414.

(3) If the certification of a check or other acceptance of a draft states the amount certified or accepted, the obligation of the acceptor is that amount. The obligation of the acceptor is the amount of the instrument at the time it was negotiated to the holder in due course if:

(a) the certification or acceptance does not state an amount;

(b) the instrument is subsequently altered by raising its amount; and

(c) the instrument is then negotiated to a holder in due course.

Section 138. Obligation of drawer. (1) If an unaccepted draft is dishonored, the drawer is obliged to pay the draft:

(a) according to its terms at the time it was issued or, if not issued, at the time it first came into possession of a holder; or

(b) if the drawer signed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed as stated in 30-3-115 and 30-3-407.

(2) The obligation is owed to a person entitled to enforce the draft or to an indorser that paid the draft pursuant to 30-3-414.

(3) If a draft is accepted by a bank and the acceptor dishonors the draft, the drawer has no obligation to pay the draft because of the dishonor, regardless of when or by whom acceptance was obtained.

(4) If a draft is accepted and the acceptor is not a bank, the obligation of the drawer to pay the draft if the draft is dishonored by the acceptor is the same as the obligation of an indorser stated in 30-3-414(1) and (3).

(5) Words in a draft indicating that the draft is drawn without recourse are effective to disclaim all liability of the drawer to pay the draft if the draft is not a check, but they are not effective to disclaim the obligation stated in subsection (1) if the draft is a check.

(6) The drawer to the extent deprived of funds may discharge its obligation to pay the check by assigning to the person entitled to enforce the check the rights of the drawer against the drawee with respect to the funds if:

(a) a check is not presented for payment or given to a depositary bank for collection within 30 days after its date;

(b) the drawee suspends payments after expiration of the 30-day period without paying the check; and

(c) because of the suspension of payments, the drawer is deprived of funds maintained with the drawee to cover payment of the check.

Section 139. Section 30-3-414, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-414. ~~Contract~~ Obligation of ~~endorser — order of liability~~ indorser. (1) Subject to subsections (2) through (4) and to 30-3-415(4), if an instrument is dishonored, an indorser is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument according to the terms of the instrument at the time it was indorsed or if the indorser indorsed an incomplete instrument, according to its terms when completed as stated in 30-3-115 and 30-3-407. The obligation of the indorser is owed to a person entitled to enforce the instrument or to a subsequent indorser that paid the instrument pursuant to this section.

(2) ~~Unless the endorsement otherwise specifies (as by such words as~~ If an indorsement states that it is made "without recourse"~~) every endorser engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will pay the instrument according to its tenor at the time of his endorsement to the holder or to any subsequent endorser who takes it up, even though the endorser who takes it up was not obligated to do so~~ or otherwise disclaims liability of the indorser, the indorser is not liable under subsection (1) to pay the instrument.

~~(2) Unless they otherwise agree endorsers are liable to one another in the order in which they endorse, which is presumed to be the order in which their signatures appear on the instrument.~~

(3) If notice of dishonor of an instrument is required by 30-3-508 and notice of dishonor complying with that section is not given to an indorser, the liability of the indorser under subsection (1) is discharged.

(4) If a draft is accepted by a bank after an indorsement is made and the acceptor dishonors the draft, the indorser is not liable under subsection (1) to pay the instrument.

(5) If an indorser of a check is liable under subsection (1) and the check is not presented for payment or given to a depositary bank for collection within 30 days after the day the indorsement was made, the liability of the indorser under subsection (1) is discharged."

Section 140. Section 30-3-415, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-415. ~~Contract of~~ Instruments signed for accommodation ~~party~~. (1) ~~An~~ If an instrument is issued for value given for the benefit of a party to the instrument ("accommodated party") and another part to the instrument ("accommodation party") ~~is one who~~ signs the instrument ~~in any capacity~~ for the purpose of ~~lending his name to another party to it~~ incurring liability on the instrument without being a direct beneficiary of the value given for the instrument, the instrument is signed by the accommodation party "for accommodation".

(2) An accommodation party may sign the instrument as maker, drawer, acceptor, or indorser and, subject to subsection (4), is obliged to pay the instrument in the capacity in which the accommodation party signs. ~~When the instrument has been taken for value before it is due the~~ The obligation of an accommodation party ~~is liable in the capacity in which he has signed even though the taker knows of~~ may be enforced notwithstanding any statute of frauds and regardless of whether the accommodation party receives consideration for the accommodation.

(3) ~~As against a holder in due course and without notice of the accommodation oral proof of the accommodation is not admissible to give the accommodation party the benefit of discharges dependent on his character as such. In other cases the accommodation character may be shown by oral proof.~~ A person signing an instrument is presumed to be an accommodation party and there is notice that the instrument is signed for accommodation if the signature is an anomalous indorsement or is accompanied by words indicating that the signer is acting as surety or guarantor with respect to the obligation of another party to the instrument. Except as provided in [section 154], the obligation of an accommodation party to pay the instrument is not affected by the fact that the person enforcing the obligation had notice when the instrument was taken by that person that the accommodation party signed the instrument for accommodation.

(4) ~~An endorsement which shows that it is not in the chain of title is notice of its accommodation character.~~ If the signature of a party to an instrument is accompanied by words indicating unambiguously that the party is guaranteeing collection rather than payment of the obligation of another party to the instrument, the signer is obliged to pay the amount due on the instrument to a person entitled to enforce the instrument only if:

(a) execution of judgment against the other party has been returned unsatisfied;

(b) the other party is insolvent or in an insolvency proceeding;

(c) the other party cannot be served with process; or

(d) it is otherwise apparent that payment cannot be obtained from the party whose obligation is guaranteed.

(5) An accommodation party ~~is not liable to the party accommodated, and if he~~ that pays the instrument is entitled to reimbursement from the accommodated party and is entitled to enforce the instrument against the accommodated party. An accommodated party that pays the instrument has ~~a~~ no right of recourse ~~on the instrument~~ against, and is not entitled to contribution from, ~~such~~ an accommodation party."

Section 141. Section 30-3-417, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-417. ~~Warranties on presentment and transfer~~ Transfer warranties. (1) ~~Any person who obtains payment or acceptance and any prior transferor warrants to a person who in good faith pays or accepts that:~~

~~(a) he has a good title to the instrument or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and~~

~~(b) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith:~~

~~(i) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or~~

~~(ii) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or~~

~~(iii) to an acceptor of a draft if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized; and~~

~~(c) the instrument has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by a holder in due course acting in good faith:~~

~~(i) to the maker of a note; or~~

~~(ii) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or~~

~~(iii) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the draft after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or~~

~~(iv) to the acceptor of a draft with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.~~

~~(2) Any~~ A person who transfers an instrument ~~and receives~~ for consideration warrants to ~~his~~ the transferee and, if the transfer is by ~~endorsement~~ indorsement, to any subsequent ~~holder who takes the instrument in good faith~~ transferee that:

(a) ~~he has a good title to~~ the warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the instrument ~~or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful~~; ~~and~~

(b) all signatures on the instrument are ~~genuine or~~ authentic and authorized; ~~and~~

(c) the instrument has not been ~~materially~~ altered; ~~and~~

(d) ~~no~~ the instrument is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment (30-3-305(1)) of any party ~~is good against him~~ that can be asserted against the warrantor; and

(e) ~~he~~ the warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding ~~instituted~~ commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer ~~of an unaccepted instrument~~.

~~(3) By transferring "without recourse" the transferor limits the obligation stated in subsection (2)(d) to a warranty that he has no knowledge of such a defense.~~

~~(4) A selling agent or broker who does not disclose the fact that he is acting only as such gives the warranties provided in this section, but if he makes such disclosure warrants only his good faith and authority.~~

(2) A person to whom the warranties under subsection (1) are made and who took the instrument in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the instrument plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

(3) The warranties stated in subsection (1) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(4) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach."

Section 142. Presentment warranties. (1) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee making the payment or accepting the draft in good faith that:

(a) the warrantor is or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;

(b) the draft has not been altered; and

(c) the warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft is unauthorized.

(2) A drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft, breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor, and if the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft, the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection.

(3) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (1) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under 30-3-405 or [section 129] or the drawer is precluded under 30-3-406 or 30-4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.

(4) This subsection applies if a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or any other instrument is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the instrument and payment is received. The person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the instrument warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the instrument, a person entitled to enforce the instrument or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the instrument. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.

(5) The warranties stated in subsections (1) and (4) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(6) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Section 143. Payment or acceptance by mistake. (1) Except as provided in subsection (3), if the drawee of a draft pays or accepts the draft and the drawee acted on the mistaken belief that payment of the draft had not been stopped under 30-4-403, the signature of the purported drawer of the draft was authorized, or the balance in the drawer's account with the drawee represented available funds, the drawee may recover the amount paid for the person to whom or for whose benefit payment was made or, in the case of acceptance, may revoke the acceptance. Rights of the drawee under this subsection are not affected by failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in paying or accepting the draft.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), if an instrument has been paid or accepted by mistake and the case is not covered by subsection (1), the person paying or accepting may recover the amount paid or revoke acceptance to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

(3) The remedies provided by subsection (1) or (2) may not be asserted against a person who took the instrument in good faith and for value. This subsection does not limit remedies provided by [section 142] for breach of warranty.

Section 144. Section 30-3-419, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-419. Conversion of instrument ~~— innocent representative.~~ (1) The law applicable to conversion of personal property applies to instruments. An instrument is also converted ~~when:~~

~~(a) a~~ if the instrument lacks an indorsement necessary for negotiation and it is purchased or taken for collection or the drawee ~~to whom it is delivered for acceptance refuses to return it on demand; or~~

~~(b) any person to whom it is delivered for~~ takes the instrument and makes payment ~~refuses on demand either to pay or to return it; or~~

~~(c) it is paid on a forged endorsement~~ to a person not entitled to receive payment. An action for conversion of an instrument may not be brought by:

(a) the maker, drawer, or acceptor of an instrument; or

(b) a payee or indorsee who did not receive delivery of the instrument either directly or through delivery to an agent or copayee.

(2) In an action ~~against a drawee~~ under subsection (1), the measure of ~~the drawee's~~ liability is presumed to be the ~~face~~ amount ~~of~~ payable on the instrument, but recovery may not exceed the amount of the plaintiff's interest in the instrument. ~~In any other action under subsection (1) the measure of liability is presumed to be the face amount of the instrument.~~

(3) ~~Subject to the provisions of this code concerning restrictive endorsements a~~ A representative, ~~including~~ other than a depositary ~~or collecting~~ bank, ~~who~~ that has in good faith ~~and in accordance with the reasonable~~

~~commercial standards applicable to the business of such representative~~ dealt with an instrument or its proceeds on behalf of one who was not the ~~true owner~~ person entitled to enforce the instrument is not liable in conversion ~~or otherwise to the true owner~~ to that person beyond the amount of any proceeds ~~remaining in his hands~~ that it has not paid out.

~~(4) An intermediary bank or payor bank which is not a depositary bank is not liable in conversion solely by reason of the fact that proceeds of an item endorsed restrictively (30-3-205 and 30-3-206) are not paid or applied consistently with the restrictive endorsement of an endorser other than its immediate transferor.~~"

Section 145. Section 30-3-504, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-504. ~~How presentment made~~ Presentment. (1) "Presentment" ~~is~~ means a demand*:*

(a) ~~for acceptance or payment~~ to pay an instrument made ~~upon~~ to the maker, ~~acceptor,~~ drawee, or ~~other payor by or on behalf of the holder~~ acceptor or, in the case of a note of accepted draft payable at a bank, to the bank; or

(b) to accept a draft made to the drawee by a person entitled to enforce the instrument.

(2) Subject to chapter 4, agreement of the parties, clearing house rules and the like ~~Presentment may be made~~:

(a) presentment may be made ~~by mail, in which event the time of presentment is determined by the time of receipt of the mail; or~~

~~(b) through a clearinghouse; or~~

~~(c)~~—at the place of ~~acceptance or~~ payment ~~specified in~~ of the instrument ~~or if there be none at the place of business or residence of the party to accept or pay. If neither the party to accept or pay nor anyone authorized to act for him is present or accessible at such place presentment is excused.~~

~~(3) It~~ and must be made at the place of payment if the instrument is payable at a bank in the United States; may be made~~:~~ by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; is effective when the demand for payment or acceptance is received by the person to whom presentment is made; is effective if made

~~(a)~~—to any one of two or more makers, acceptors, drawees, or other payors; ~~or~~ and

(b) ~~to any person who has authority to make or refuse the acceptance or payment~~ without dishonoring the instrument, the party to whom presentment is made may:

(i) treat presentment as occurring on the next business day after the day of presentment if the party to whom presentment is made has established a cutoff hour not earlier than 2 p.m. for the receipt and processing of instruments presented for payment or acceptance and presentment is made after the cutoff hour;

(ii) require exhibition of the instrument;

(iii) require reasonable identification of the person making presentment and evidence of authority to make it if made on behalf of another person;

(iv) require a signed receipt on the instrument for any payment made or surrender of the instrument if full payment is made;

(v) return the instrument for lack of a necessary indorsement; or

(vi) refuse payment or acceptance for failure of the presentment to comply with the terms of the instrument, an agreement of the parties, or other law or applicable rule.

~~(4) A draft accepted or a note made payable at a bank in the United States must be presented at such bank.~~

~~(5) In the cases described in 30-4-210 presentment may be made in the manner and with the result stated in that section.~~"

Section 146. Dishonor. (1) Dishonor of a note is governed by the following rules:

(a) If the note is payable on demand, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made and the note is not paid on the day of presentment.

(b) If the note is not payable on demand and is payable at or through a bank or the terms of the note require presentment, the note is dishonored if presentment is duly made and the note is not paid on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.

(c) If the note is not payable on demand and subsection (1)(b) does not apply, the note is dishonored if it is not paid on the day it becomes payable.

(2) Dishonor of an unaccepted draft other than a documentary draft is governed by the following rules:

(a) If a check is presented for payment otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter, the check is dishonored if the payor bank makes timely return of the check or sends timely notice of dishonor or nonpayment under 30-4-301 or 30-4-302 or becomes accountable for the amount of the check under 30-4-302.

(b) If the draft is payable on demand and subsection (2)(a) does not apply, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.

(c) If the draft is payable on a date stated in the draft, the draft is dishonored if:

(i) presentment for payment is duly made and payment is not made on the day the draft becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later; or

(ii) presentment for acceptance is duly made before the day the draft becomes payable and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(d) If the draft is payable on elapse of a period of time after sight or acceptance, the draft is dishonored if presentment for acceptance is duly made and the draft is not accepted on the day of presentment.

(3) Dishonor of an unaccepted documentary draft occurs according to the rules stated in subsections (2)(b) through (2)(d) except that payment or acceptance may be delayed without dishonor until no later than the close of the third business day of the drawee following the day on which payment or acceptance is required by those subsections.

(4) Dishonor of an accepted draft is governed by the following rules:

(a) If the draft is payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made and the draft is not paid on the day of presentment.

(b) If the draft is not payable on demand, the draft is dishonored if presentment for payment is duly made and payment is not made on the day it becomes payable or the day of presentment, whichever is later.

(5) In any case in which presentment is otherwise required for dishonor under this section and presentment is excused under [section 148], dishonor occurs without presentment if the instrument is not duly accepted or paid.

(6) If a draft is dishonored because timely acceptance of the draft was not made and the person entitled to demand acceptance consents to a late acceptance, from the time of acceptance the draft is treated as never having been dishonored.

Section 147. Section 30-3-508, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-508. Notice of dishonor. (1) The obligation of an indorser stated in 30-3-414(1) and the obligation of a drawer stated in [section 138(3)] may not be enforced unless:

(a) the indorser or drawer is given notice of dishonor of the instrument complying with this section; or

(b) notice of dishonor is excused under [section 148(3)].

~~(1)~~(2) Notice of dishonor may be given to any person; ~~who~~ may be ~~liable on the instrument by or on behalf of the holder or any party who has himself received notice, or any other party who can be compelled to pay the instrument. In addition an agent or bank in whose hands the instrument is dishonored may give notice to his principal or customer or to another agent or bank from which the instrument was received~~ given by any commercially reasonable means, including an oral, written, or electronic communication; and is sufficient if it reasonably identifies the instrument and indicates that the instrument has been dishonored or has not been paid or accepted. Return of an instrument given to a bank for collection is a sufficient notice of dishonor.

~~(2)~~(3) ~~Any necessary~~ Subject to [section 148(4)], with respect to an instrument taken for collection by a collecting bank, notice of dishonor must be given by a bank before ~~its~~ midnight ~~deadline~~ of the next banking day following the banking day on which the bank receives notice of dishonor of the instrument and by any other person ~~before midnight of the third business day after dishonor or receipt of~~ within 30 days following the day on which the person receives notice of dishonor. With respect to any other instrument, notice of dishonor must be given within 30 days following the day on which dishonor occurs.

~~(3) Notice may be given in any reasonable manner. It may be oral or written and in any terms which identify the instrument and state that it has been dishonored. A misdescription which does not mislead the party notified does not vitiate the notice. Sending the instrument bearing a stamp, ticket or writing stating that acceptance or payment has been refused or sending a notice of debit with respect to the instrument is sufficient.~~

~~(4) Written notice is given when sent although it is not received.~~

~~(5) Notice to one partner is notice to each although the firm has been dissolved.~~

~~(6) When any party is in insolvency proceedings instituted after the issue of the instrument notice may be given either to the party or to the representative of his estate.~~

~~(7) When any party is dead or incompetent notice may be sent to his last known address or given to his personal representative.~~

~~(8) Notice operates for the benefit of all parties who have rights on the instrument against the party notified.~~"

Section 148. Excused presentment and notice of dishonor. (1) Presentment for payment or acceptance of an instrument is excused if:

(a) the person entitled to present the instrument cannot with reasonable diligence make presentment;

(b) the maker or acceptor has repudiated an obligation to pay the instrument or is dead or in insolvency proceedings;

(c) by the terms of the instrument, presentment is not necessary to enforce the obligation of indorsers or the drawer; or

(d) the drawer or indorser whose obligation is being enforced waived presentment or otherwise has no reason to expect or right to require that the instrument be paid or accepted.

(2) Presentment for payment or acceptance of a draft is also excused if the drawer instructed the drawee not to pay or accept the draft or the drawee was not obligated to the drawer to pay the draft.

(3) Notice of dishonor is excused if by the terms of the instrument, notice of dishonor is not necessary to enforce the obligation of a party to pay the instrument or the party whose obligation is being enforced waived notice of dishonor. A waiver of presentment is also a waiver of notice of dishonor.

(4) Delay in giving notice of dishonor is excused if the delay was caused by circumstances beyond the control of the person giving the notice and the person giving the notice exercised reasonable diligence after the cause of the delay ceased to operate.

Section 149. Section 30-3-510, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-510. Evidence of dishonor ~~and notice of dishonor~~. (1) The following are admissible as evidence and create a presumption of dishonor and of any notice of dishonor ~~therein shown~~ stated:

(a) a document regular in form as provided in ~~the preceding section which~~ subsection (2) that purports to be a protest;

(b) the purported stamp or writing of the drawee, payor bank, or presenting bank on ~~the instrument~~ or accompanying ~~it~~ the instrument stating that acceptance or payment has been refused unless reasons for the refusal are stated and the ~~for~~ reasons are not consistent with dishonor;

(c) ~~any~~ a book or record of the drawee, payor bank, or ~~any~~ collecting bank, kept in the usual course of business ~~which~~ that shows dishonor, even ~~though~~ if there is no evidence of who made the entry.

(2) A protest is a certificate of dishonor made by a United States consul or vice consul or a notary public or other person authorized to administer oaths by the law of the place where dishonor occurs. It may be made upon information satisfactory to that person. The protest must identify the instrument and certify either that presentment has been made or, if not made, the reason why it was not made and that the instrument has been dishonored by nonacceptance or nonpayment. The protest may also certify that notice of dishonor has been given to some or all parties."

Section 150. Section 30-3-601, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-601. Discharge ~~of parties~~ *and effect of discharge. (1) ~~The extent of the discharge of any party from liability on an instrument is governed by the sections on:~~

~~(a) payment or satisfaction (30-3-603); or~~

~~(b) tender of payment (30-3-604); or~~

~~(c) cancellation or renunciation (30-3-605); or~~

~~(d) impairment of right of recourse or of collateral (30-3-606); or~~

~~(f) fraudulent and material alteration (30-3-407); or~~

~~(g) certification of a check (30-3-411); or~~

~~(h) acceptance varying a draft (30-3-412); or~~

~~(i) unexcused delay in presentment or notice of dishonor or protest (30-3-502).~~

~~(2) Any~~ The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is ~~also~~ discharged ~~from his liability on an instrument to another party~~ as stated in this chapter or by ~~any other~~ an act or agreement with ~~such~~ the party ~~which~~ that would discharge ~~his~~ an obligation to pay money under a simple contract ~~for the payment of money~~.

~~(3) The liability of all parties is discharged when any party who has himself no right of action or recourse on the instrument:~~

~~(a) reacquires the instrument in his own right; or~~

~~(b) is discharged under any provision of this chapter, except as otherwise provided with respect to discharge for impairment of recourse or of collateral (30-3-606).~~

(2) Discharge of the obligation of a party is not effective against a person acquiring rights of a holder in due course of the instrument without notice of the discharge."

Section 151. Section 30-3-603, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-603. Payment ~~or satisfaction~~. (1) ~~The liability of any party is discharged~~ Subject to subsection (2), an instrument is paid to the extent ~~of his~~ payment ~~or satisfaction to the holder even though it~~ is made by or on behalf of a party obliged to pay the instrument and to a person entitled to enforce the instrument. To the extent of the payment, the obligation of the party obliged to pay the instrument is discharged even though payment is made with knowledge of a claim ~~of another person~~ to the instrument ~~unless prior to such payment or satisfaction the person making the claim either supplies indemnity deemed adequate by the party seeking the discharge or enjoins payment or satisfaction by order of a court of competent jurisdiction in an action in which the adverse claimant and the holder are parties. This subsection does not, however, result in the discharge of the liability:~~

~~(a) of a party who in bad faith pays or satisfies a holder who acquired the instrument by theft or who (unless having the rights of a holder in due course) holds through one who so acquired it; or~~

~~(b) of a party (other than an intermediary bank or a payor bank which is not a depositary bank) who pays or satisfies the holder of an instrument~~

~~which has been restrictively endorsed in a manner not consistent with the terms of such restrictive endorsement~~ under 30-3-306 by another person.

(2) ~~Payment or satisfaction may be made with the consent of the holder by any person including a stranger to the instrument. Surrender of the instrument to such a person gives him the rights of a transferee (30-3-201).~~ The obligation of a party to pay the instrument is not discharged under subsection (1) if:

(a) a claim to the instrument under 30-3-306 is enforceable against the party receiving payment and:

(i) payment is made with knowledge by the payor that payment is prohibited by injunction or similar process of a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(ii) in the case of an instrument other than a cashier's check, teller's check, or certified check, the party making payment accepted, from the person having a claim to the instrument, indemnity against loss resulting from refusal to pay the person entitled to enforce the instrument; or

(b) the person making payment knows that the instrument is a stolen instrument and pays a person that it knows is in wrongful possession of the instrument."

Section 152. Section 30-3-604, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-604. Tender of payment. (1) ~~Any party making~~ If tender of ~~full~~ payment ~~to a holder when or after it is due is discharged to the extent of all subsequent liability for interest, costs and attorney's fees~~ of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the effect of tender is governed by principles of law applicable to tender of payment under a simple contract.

(2) ~~The holder's refusal of such~~ If tender of payment of an obligation to pay an instrument is made to a person entitled to enforce the instrument and the tender ~~wholly discharges any party who has~~ is refused, there is discharge, to the extent of the amount of the tender, of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse ~~against the party making~~ with respect to the obligation to which the tender relates.

(3) ~~Where the maker or acceptor of an instrument payable otherwise than on demand~~ If tender of payment of an amount due on an instrument is made by or on behalf of the obligor to the person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of the obligor to pay interest after the due date on the amount tendered is discharged. If presentment is required with respect to an instrument and the obligor is able and ready to pay on the due date at every place of payment ~~specified~~ stated in the instrument, ~~when it is due, it is equivalent to~~ the obligor is considered to have made tender of payment on the due date to the person entitled to enforce the instrument."

Section 153. Section 30-3-605, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-3-605. ~~Cancellation and~~ *Discharge by cancellation or renunciation. (1) ~~The holder of an instrument may even~~ A person entitled to enforce an instrument may, with or without consideration, discharge the obligation of ~~any~~ a party to pay the instrument:

(a) ~~in any manner apparent on the face of the instrument or the endorsement, as by intentionally canceling~~ by an intentional voluntary act, such as surrender of the instrument ~~or the party's signature by~~ to the party; destruction, ~~or~~ mutilation, or cancellation of the instrument; cancellation or ~~by~~ striking out of the party's signature*; or the addition of words to the instrument indicating discharge*; or

(b) by agreeing not to sue or otherwise renouncing ~~his~~ rights against the party by a signed writing ~~signed and delivered or by surrender of the instrument to the party to be discharged~~.

(2) ~~Neither cancellation nor renunciation without surrender of the instrument affects the title thereto~~ Cancellation or striking out of an indorsement pursuant to subsection (1) does not affect the status and rights of a party derived from the indorsement."

Section 154. Discharge of indorsers and accommodation parties. (1) For the purposes of this section, the term "indorser" includes a drawer having the obligation stated in [section 138(3)].

(2) Discharge of the obligation of a party to the instrument under 30-3-605 does not discharge the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the discharged party.

(3) If a person entitled to enforce an instrument agrees, with or without consideration, to a material modification of the obligation of a party to the instrument, including an extension of the due date, there is discharge of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the person whose obligation is modified to the extent the modification causes loss to the indorser or accommodation party with respect to the right of recourse. The indorser or accommodation party is considered to have suffered loss as a result of the modification equal to the amount of the right of recourse unless the person enforcing the instrument proves that no loss was caused by the modification or that the loss caused by the modification was less than the amount of the right of recourse.

(4) If the obligation of a party to an instrument is secured by an interest in collateral and impairment of the value of the interest is caused by a person entitled to enforce the instrument, there is discharge of the obligation of an indorser or accommodation party having a right of recourse against the obligor to the extent of the impairment. The value of an interest in collateral is impaired to the extent the value of the interest is reduced to an amount less than the amount of the right of recourse of the party asserting discharge or the reduction in value of the interest causes an increase in the amount by which the amount of the right of recourse exceeds the value of the interest. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.

(5) If the obligation of a party to an instrument is secured by an interest in collateral not provided by an accommodation party and the value of the interest is impaired by a person entitled to enforce the instrument, the obligation of any party who is jointly and severally liable with respect to the secured obligation is discharged to the extent the impairment causes the party asserting discharge to pay more than that party would have been obliged to pay, taking into account rights of contribution, if impairment had not occurred. If the party asserting discharge is an accommodation party not entitled to discharge under subsection (4), the party is considered to have a right to contribution based on joint and several liability rather than a right to reimbursement. The burden of proving impairment is on the party asserting discharge.

(6) Under subsection (4) or (5), causation of impairment includes:

(a) failure to obtain or maintain perfection or recordation of the interest in collateral;

(b) release of collateral without substitution of collateral of equal value;

(c) failure to perform a duty to preserve the value of collateral owed, under chapter 9 or other law, to a debtor or surety or other person secondarily liable; or

(d) failure to comply with applicable law in disposing of collateral.

(7) An accommodation party is not discharged under subsection (3) or (4) unless the person agreeing to the modification or causing the impairment knows of the accommodation or has notice under 30-3-415(3) that the instrument was signed for accommodation. There is no discharge of any party under subsection (3), (4), or (5) if:

(a) the party asserting discharge consents to the event or conduct that is the basis of the discharge; or

(b) the instrument or a separate agreement of the party provides for waiver of discharge under this section, either specifically or by general language, indicating that parties to the instrument waive defenses based on suretyship or impairment of collateral.

Section 155. Section 30-4-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-102. Applicability. (1) To the extent that items within this chapter are also within the scope of ~~Chapters~~ chapters 3, 5, and 8, they are subject to the provisions of those chapters. In the event of conflict the provisions of this chapter govern those of ~~Chapter~~ chapter 3 but the provisions of ~~Chapter~~ chapters 5 and 8 govern those of this chapter.

(2) The liability of a bank for action or nonaction with respect to any item handled by it for purposes of presentment, payment or collection is governed by the law of the place where the bank is located. In the case of action or nonaction by or at a branch or separate office of a bank, its liability is governed by the law of the place where the branch or separate office is located."

Section 156. Section 30-4-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-103. Variation by agreement — measure of damages — ~~certain~~ action constituting ordinary care. (1) The effect of the provisions of this chapter may be varied by agreement, ~~except that no~~ but the parties to the agreement ~~can~~ may not disclaim a bank's responsibility for its own lack of good faith or failure to exercise ordinary care or ~~can~~ limit the measure of damages for ~~such~~ the lack or failure~~; but~~. However, the parties may determine by agreement ~~determine~~ the standards by which ~~such~~ the bank's responsibility is to be measured if ~~such~~ those standards are not manifestly unreasonable.

(2) Federal Reserve regulations and operating ~~letters~~ circulars, clearinghouse rules, and the like, have the effect of agreements under subsection (1), whether or not specifically assented to by all parties interested in items handled.

(3) Action or nonaction approved by this chapter or pursuant to Federal Reserve regulations or operating ~~letters~~ circulars constitutes the exercise of ordinary care and, in the absence of special instructions, action or nonaction consistent with clearinghouse and similar rules ~~and the like~~ or with a general banking usage not disapproved by this chapter, constitutes prima facie ~~constitutes~~ the exercise of ordinary care.

(4) The specification or approval of certain procedures by this chapter does not constitute disapproval of other procedures ~~which~~ that may be reasonable under the circumstances.

(5) The measure of damages for failure to exercise ordinary care in handling an item is the amount of the item reduced by an amount ~~which~~ that could not have been realized by the ~~use~~ exercise of ordinary care~~, and where~~. If there is also bad faith it includes any other damages~~, if any, suffered by~~ the party suffered as a proximate consequence."

Section 157. Section 30-4-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-104. Definitions and index of definitions. (1) In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Account" means any deposit or credit account with a bank and includes a ~~checking~~ demand, time, ~~interest or~~ savings, passbook, share draft, or like account, other than an account evidenced by a certificate of deposit;

(b) "Afternoon" means the period of a day between noon and midnight;

(c) "Banking day" means ~~that~~ the part of ~~any~~ a day on which a bank is open to the public for carrying on substantially all of its banking functions;

(4) In addition Chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter."

Section 158. Section 30-4-105, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-105. "Bank" — "~~Depositary~~ depositary bank" — "intermediary bank" — "collecting bank" — "payor bank" — "presenting bank" ~~— "remitting bank"~~. In this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "bank" means any person engaged in the business of banking, including a savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, or trust company;

~~(a)~~(2) "~~Depositary~~ depositary bank" means the first bank to ~~which~~ take an item ~~is transferred for collection~~ even though it is also the payor bank, unless the item is presented for immediate payment over the counter;

~~(b)~~(3) "~~Payor~~ payor bank" means a bank ~~by which an item is payable as drawn or accepted~~ that is the drawee of a draft;

~~(c)~~(4) "~~Intermediary~~ intermediary bank" means ~~any~~ a bank to which an item is transferred in course of collection except the depositary or payor bank;

~~(d)~~(5) "~~Collecting~~ collecting bank" means ~~any~~ a bank handling ~~the~~ an item for collection except the payor bank;

~~(e)~~(6) "~~Presenting~~ presenting bank" means ~~any~~ a bank presenting an item except a payor bank~~;~~

~~(f) "Remitting bank" means any payor or intermediary bank remitting for an item.~~"

Section 159. Payable through or payable at bank — collecting bank. (1) If an item states that it is "payable through" a bank identified in the item:

(a) the item designates the bank as a collecting bank and does not by itself authorize the bank to pay the item; and

(b) the item may be presented for payment only by or through the bank.

(2) If an item states that it is "payable at" a bank identified in the item, the item is drawn on the bank.

Section 160. Section 30-4-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-106. Separate office of a bank. A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for the purpose of computing the time within which and determining the place at or to which action may be taken or notices or orders ~~shall~~ must be given under this chapter and under ~~Chapter~~ chapter 3."

Section 161. Section 30-4-108, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-108. Delays. (1) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank in a good faith effort to secure payment ~~may, in the case~~ of a specific ~~items~~ item drawn on a payor other than a bank and with or without the approval of any person involved~~,~~ may waive, modify, or extend time limits imposed or permitted by this code for a period not ~~in excess of an~~ exceeding 2 additional banking ~~day~~ days without discharge of ~~secondary parties and without~~ drawers or indorsers or liability to its transferor or ~~any~~ a prior party.

(2) Delay by a collecting bank or payor bank beyond time limits prescribed or permitted by this code or by instructions is excused if*:*

(a) the delay is caused by interruption of communication or computer facilities, suspension of payments by another bank, war, emergency conditions, failure of equipment, or other circumstances beyond the control of the bank ~~provided it~~; and

(b) the bank exercises such diligence as the circumstances require."

Section 162. Truncation. (1) "Truncation agreement" means an agreement, clearinghouse rule, or federal reserve regulation or operating circular, providing that presentment of an item may be made by transmission of an image of an item or information describing the item ("presentment notice") rather than delivery of the item itself. The agreement may provide for procedures governing retention, presentment, payment, dishonor, and other matters concerning items subject to the truncation agreement.

(2) If presentment is made pursuant to a truncation agreement, a reference to "item" or "check" in this chapter means the presentment notice unless the context otherwise indicates.

(3) An intermediary bank handling a presentment notice pursuant to a truncation agreement has the rights of a holder of the item to the same extent it would have had rights in the item if the item had been physically transferred to it in the course of collection.

Section 163. Statute of limitations. An action to enforce an obligation, duty, or right arising under this chapter must be commenced within 3 years after the cause of action accrues.

Section 164. Section 30-4-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-201. Presumption and duration of agency status of collecting banks and provisional status of credits — applicability of chapter — item endorsed "pay any bank". (1) Unless a contrary intent clearly appears and ~~prior to~~ before the time that a settlement given by a collecting bank for an item is or becomes final (~~subsection~~ subsections (3) and (4) of 30-4-211 and ~~30-4-212~~ subsections (2) and (3) of 30-4-213), the bank with respect to the item is an agent or subagent of the owner of the item and any settlement given for the item is provisional. This provision applies regardless of the form of endorsement or lack of endorsement and even though credit given for the item is subject to immediate withdrawal as of right or is in fact withdrawn; but the continuance of ownership of an item by its owner and any rights of the owner to proceeds of the item are subject to rights of a collecting bank, such as those resulting from outstanding advances on the item and valid rights of recoupment or setoff. ~~When~~ If an item is handled by banks for purposes of presentment, payment, ~~and~~ collection, or return, the relevant provisions of this chapter apply even though action of the parties clearly establishes that a particular bank has purchased the item and is the owner of it.

(2) After an item has been endorsed with the words "pay any bank" or the like, only a bank may acquire the rights of a holder:

(a) until the item has been returned to the customer initiating collection; or

(b) until the item has been specially endorsed by a bank to a person who is not a bank."

Section 165. Section 30-4-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-202. Responsibility for collection or return — when action ~~seasonable~~ *timely. (1) A collecting bank must ~~use~~ exercise ordinary care in:

(a) presenting an item or sending it for presentment; ~~and~~

(b) sending notice of dishonor or nonpayment or returning an item other than a documentary draft to the bank's transferor ~~or directly to the depositary bank under subsection (2) of 30-4-212~~ after learning that the item has not been paid or accepted, as the case may be; ~~and~~

(c) settling for an item when the bank receives final settlement; and

(d) ~~making or providing for any necessary protest; and~~

~~(e)~~ notifying its transferor of any loss or delay in transit within a reasonable time after discovery thereof.

(2) A collecting bank exercises ordinary care under subsection (1) by taking proper action before its midnight deadline following receipt of an item, notice, or ~~payment acts seasonably; taking~~ settlement. Taking proper action within a reasonably longer time may ~~be seasonable~~ constitute the exercise of ordinary care, but the bank has the burden of so establishing.

(3) Subject to subsection (1)(a), a bank is not liable for the insolvency, neglect, misconduct, mistake, or default of another bank or person or for loss or destruction of an item in transit or in the possession of others."

Section 166. Section 30-4-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-203. Effect of instructions. Subject to the provisions of ~~Chapter~~ chapter 3 concerning conversion of instruments (30-3-419) and ~~the provisions of both Chapter 3 and this chapter concerning~~ restrictive endorsements (30-3-205), only a collecting bank's transferor can give instructions ~~which~~ that affect the bank or constitute notice to it and a collecting bank is not liable to prior parties for any action taken pursuant to such instructions or in accordance with any agreement with its transferor."

Section 167. Section 30-4-204, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-204. Methods of sending and presenting — sending ~~direct~~ directly to payor bank. (1) A collecting bank ~~must~~ shall send items by a reasonably prompt method, taking into consideration any relevant instructions, the nature of the item, the number of ~~such~~ those items on hand, and the cost of collection involved and the method generally used by it or others to present ~~such~~ those items.

(2) A collecting bank may send:

(a) ~~any~~ an item ~~direct~~ directly to the payor bank;

(b) ~~any~~ an item to any nonbank payor if authorized by its transferor; and

(c) ~~any~~ an item other than documentary drafts to ~~any~~ a nonbank payor, if authorized by ~~Federal Reserve~~ federal reserve regulation or operating ~~letter~~ circular, clearinghouse rule or the like.

(3) Presentment may be made by a presenting bank at a place where the payor bank or other payor has requested that presentment be made."

Section 168. Section 30-4-205, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-205. ~~Supplying missing endorsement — no notice from prior endorsement~~ Depositary bank holder of unindorsed item. ~~(1)~~ ~~A~~ If a customer is a holder of an item that is delivered to a depositary bank ~~which has taken an item~~ for collection*:*

(1) the depositary bank becomes a holder of the item at the time it receives the item for collection, whether or not the customer indorses, and if it satisfies the other requirements of 30-3-302, it may be a holder in due course; and

(2) ~~may supply any endorsement of the customer which is necessary to title unless the item contains the words "payee's endorsement required" or the like. In the absence of such a requirement a statement placed on the item by~~ the depositary bank ~~to the effect that the item was~~ warrants to subsequent collecting banks, the payor bank or other payor, and the drawer that the amount of the item was paid to the customer or deposited ~~by a customer or credited~~ to ~~his~~ the customer's account ~~is effective as the customer's endorsement~~.

~~(2) An intermediary bank, or payor bank which is not a depositary bank, is neither given notice nor otherwise affected by a restrictive endorsement of any person except the bank's immediate transferor.~~"

Section 169. Section 30-4-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-206. Transfer between banks. Any agreed method ~~which~~ that identifies the transferor bank is sufficient for the item's further transfer to another bank."

Section 170. Section 30-4-207, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-207. ~~Warranties of customer and collecting bank on transfer or presentment of items — time for claims~~ Transfer warranties. (1) ~~Each customer or collecting bank who obtains payment or acceptance~~

~~of an item and each prior customer and collecting bank warrants to the payor bank or other payor who in good faith pays or accepts the item that:~~

~~(a) he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title; and~~

~~(b) he has no knowledge that the signature of the maker or drawer is unauthorized, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith:~~

~~(i) to a maker with respect to the maker's own signature; or~~

~~(ii) to a drawer with respect to the drawer's own signature, whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or~~

~~(iii) to an acceptor of an item if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance or obtained the acceptance without knowledge that the drawer's signature was unauthorized ; and~~

~~(c) the item has not been materially altered, except that this warranty is not given by any customer or collecting bank that is a holder in due course and acts in good faith:~~

~~(i) to the maker of a note; or~~

~~(ii) to the drawer of a draft whether or not the drawer is also the drawee; or~~

~~(iii) to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made prior to the acceptance if the holder in due course took the item after the acceptance, even though the acceptance provided "payable as originally drawn" or equivalent terms; or~~

~~(iv) to the acceptor of an item with respect to an alteration made after the acceptance.~~

~~(2) Each~~ A customer ~~and~~ or collecting bank ~~who~~ that transfers an item and receives a settlement or other consideration ~~for it~~ warrants to ~~his~~ the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank ~~who takes the item in good faith~~ that:

(a) ~~he has a good title to the item or is authorized to obtain payment or acceptance on behalf of one who has a good title and the transfer is otherwise rightful~~ the warrantor is a person entitled to enforce the item; ~~and~~

(b) all signatures on the item are ~~genuine or~~ authentic and authorized; ~~and~~

(c) the item has not been ~~materially~~ altered; ~~and~~

(d) ~~no~~ the item is not subject to a defense or claim in recoupment stated in 30-3-305(1) of any party ~~is good against him~~ to the item that can be asserted against the warrantor; and

(e) ~~he~~ the warrantor has no knowledge of any insolvency proceeding ~~instituted~~ commenced with respect to the maker or acceptor or, in the case of an unaccepted draft, the drawer ~~of an unaccepted item~~.

(2) ~~In addition each~~ If an item is dishonored, a customer and collecting bank ~~so~~ transferring ~~an~~ the item and receiving ~~a~~ settlement or other consideration ~~engages that upon dishonor and any necessary notice of dishonor and protest he will take up the item~~ is obliged to pay the amount due on the item according to the terms of the item at the time it was transferred or, if the transfer was of an incomplete item, according to its terms when completed as stated in 30-3-115 and 30-3-407. The obligation of a transferor is owed to the transferee and to any subsequent collecting bank that takes the item in good faith. A transferor may not disclaim its obligation under this subsection by an indorsement stating that it is made "without recourse" or otherwise disclaiming liability.

(3) ~~The~~ A person to whom the warranties ~~and the engagement to honor set forth in the two preceding subsections arise notwithstanding the absence of endorsement or words of guaranty or warranty in the transfer or presentment and a collecting bank remains liable for their breach despite remittance to its transferor. Damages for breach of such warranties or engagement to honor shall not exceed the consideration received by the customer or collecting bank responsible plus finance charges and expenses related to the item, if any~~ under subsection (1) are made and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach, but not more than the amount of the item plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

(4) The warranties stated in subsection (1) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty ~~under this section~~ is ~~made~~ given to the warrantor within ~~a reasonable time~~ 30 days after the ~~person claiming learns~~ claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the ~~person liable~~ warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in ~~making~~ giving notice of the claim.

(5) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach."

Section 171. Presentment warranties. (1) If an unaccepted draft is presented to the drawee for payment or acceptance and the drawee pays or accepts the draft, the person obtaining payment or acceptance, at the time of presentment, and a previous transferor of the draft, at the time of transfer, warrant to the drawee that pays or accepts the draft in good faith that:

(a) the warrantor is or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the draft, a person entitled to enforce the draft or authorized to obtain payment or acceptance of the draft on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the draft;

(b) the draft has not been altered; and

(c) the warrantor has no knowledge that the signature of the purported drawer of the draft is unauthorized.

(2) A drawee making payment may recover from any warrantor damages for breach of warranty equal to the amount paid by the drawee less the amount the drawee received or is entitled to receive from the drawer because of the payment. In addition, the drawee is entitled to compensation for expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach. The right of the drawee to recover damages under this subsection is not affected by any failure of the drawee to exercise ordinary care in making payment. If the drawee accepts the draft:

(a) breach of warranty is a defense to the obligation of the acceptor; and

(b) the acceptor is entitled to recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty the amounts stated in this subsection (2) if the acceptor makes payment with respect to the draft.

(3) If a drawee asserts a claim for breach of warranty under subsection (1) based on an unauthorized indorsement of the draft or an alteration of the draft, the warrantor may defend by proving that the indorsement is effective under 30-3-405 or [section 129] or the drawer is precluded under 30-3-406 or 30-4-406 from asserting against the drawee the unauthorized indorsement or alteration.

(4) This subsection applies if a dishonored draft is presented for payment to the drawer or an indorser or any other item is presented for payment to a party obliged to pay the item and the item is paid. The person obtaining payment and a prior transferor of the item warrant to the person making payment in good faith that the warrantor is or was, at the time the warrantor transferred the item, a person entitled to enforce the item or authorized to obtain payment on behalf of a person entitled to enforce the item. The person making payment may recover from any warrantor for breach of warranty an amount equal to the amount paid plus expenses and loss of interest resulting from the breach.

(5) The warranties stated in subsections (1) and (4) cannot be disclaimed with respect to checks. Unless notice of a claim for breach of warranty is given to the warrantor within 30 days after the claimant has reason to know of the breach and the identity of the warrantor, the warrantor is discharged to the extent of any loss caused by the delay in giving notice of the claim.

(6) A cause of action for breach of warranty under this section accrues when the claimant has reason to know of the breach.

Section 172. Encoding and retention warranties. (1) A person that encodes information on or with respect to an item after issue warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that the information is correctly encoded. If the customer of a depositary bank encodes, that bank also makes the warranty.

(2) A person that undertakes to retain an item pursuant to a truncation agreement warrants to any subsequent collecting bank and to the payor bank or other payor that retention and presentment of the item comply with the truncation agreement. If a customer of a depositary bank undertakes to retain an item, that bank also makes this warranty.

(3) A person to whom warranties are made under this section and who took the item in good faith may recover from the warrantor as damages for breach of warranty an amount equal to the loss suffered as a result of the breach plus expenses and loss of interest incurred as a result of the breach.

Section 173. Section 30-4-208, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-208. Security interest of collecting bank in items, accompanying documents, and proceeds. (1) A collecting bank has a security interest in an item and any accompanying documents or the proceeds of either:

(a) in case of an item deposited in an account, to the extent to which credit given for the item has been withdrawn or applied;

(b) in case of an item for which it has given credit available for withdrawal as of right, to the extent of the credit given, whether or not the credit is drawn upon ~~and whether~~ or ~~not~~ there is a right of charge-back; or

(c) if it makes an advance on or against the item.

(2) ~~When~~ If credit ~~which has been~~ given for several items received at one time or pursuant to a single agreement is withdrawn or applied in part, the security interest remains upon all the items, any accompanying documents, or the proceeds of either. For the purpose of this section, credits first given are first withdrawn.

(3) Receipt by a collecting bank of a final settlement for an item is a realization on its security interest in the item, accompanying documents and proceeds. To the extent and so long as the bank does not receive final settlement for the item or give up possession of the item or accompanying documents for purposes other than collection, the security interest continues and is subject to the provisions of ~~Chapter~~ chapter 9 except that:

(a) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable (30-9-203); and

(b) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

(c) the security interest has priority over conflicting perfected security interests in the item, accompanying documents or proceeds."

Section 174. Section 30-4-209, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-209. When bank gives value for purposes of holder in due course. For purposes of determining its status as a holder in due course, ~~the~~ a bank has given value to the extent ~~that~~ it has a security interest in an item, provided ~~that~~ the bank otherwise complies with the requirements of 30-3-302 on what constitutes a holder in due course."

Section 175. Section 30-4-210, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-210. Presentment by notice of item not payable by, through, or at a bank — liability of secondary parties. (1) Unless otherwise instructed, a collecting bank may present an item not payable by, through, or at a bank by sending to the party to accept or pay a written notice that the bank holds the item for acceptance or payment. The notice must be sent in time to be received on or before the day when presentment is due and the bank must meet any requirement of the party to accept or pay under ~~30-3-505~~ 30-3-504 by the close of the bank's next banking day after it knows of the requirement.

(2) ~~Where~~ If presentment is made by notice and neither ~~honor~~ payment, acceptance, nor request for compliance with a requirement under ~~30-3-505~~ 30-3-504 is received by the close of business on the day after maturity or in the case of demand items by the close of business on the third banking day after notice was sent, the presenting bank may treat the item as dishonored and charge any secondary party by sending ~~him~~ it notice of the facts."

Section 176. Section 30-4-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-211. ~~Media of remittance — provisional~~ Medium and ~~final~~ time of settlement ~~in remittance cases~~ *by bank. (1) ~~A collecting~~ With respect to settlement by a bank, the medium and time of ~~may take in~~ settlement ~~of an item~~ may be prescribed by federal reserve regulations or circulars, clearinghouse rules, and the like or by agreement. In the absence of such prescription:

(a) ~~a check of the remitting bank or of another bank on any bank except the remitting bank~~ the medium of settlement is cash or credit to an account in a federal reserve bank of or specified by the person to receive settlement; ~~or~~ and

(b) the time of settlement is:

(i) with respect to tender of settlement by cash, a cashier's check, or a teller's check, ~~or similar primary obligation of a remitting bank which is a member of or clears through a member of the same clearinghouse or group as the collecting bank~~ when the cash or check is sent or delivered; ~~or~~

(ii) with respect to tender of settlement by credit in an account in a federal reserve bank, when the credit is made;

~~(c)~~(iii) ~~appropriate authority to charge~~ with respect to tender of settlement by a credit or debit to an account ~~of the remitting~~ in a bank, ~~or of another bank with the collecting bank~~ when the credit or debit is made or, in the case of tender of settlement by authority to charge an account, when the authority is sent or delivered; or

~~(d)~~(iv) ~~if the item is drawn upon or payable by a person other than a bank, a cashier's check, certified check or other bank check or obligation~~ with respect to tender of settlement by a funds transfer, when payment is made pursuant to [section 219 (1)] to the person receiving settlement.

(2) If the tender of settlement is not by a medium authorized by subsection (1) or the time of settlement is not fixed by subsection (1), no settlement occurs until the tender of settlement is accepted by the person receiving settlement.

~~(2)~~(3) If settlement for an item is made by cashier's check or teller's check and the person receiving settlement, before its midnight deadline*:*

(a) ~~the collecting bank properly dishonors a remittance check or authorization to charge on itself or~~ presents or forwards the check for collection, ~~a remittance instrument of or on another bank which is of a kind approved by subsection (1) or has not been authorized by it, the collecting bank is not liable to prior parties in the event of the dishonor of such check, instrument or authorization~~ settlement is final when the check is finally paid; or

(b) fails to present or forward the check for collection, settlement is final at the midnight deadline of the person receiving settlement.

~~(3)~~(4) ~~A~~ If settlement for an item ~~by means of a remittance instrument or authorization~~ is made by giving authority to charge ~~is or becomes a final settlement as to both the person making and the person~~ the account of the bank giving settlement in the bank receiving ~~the~~ settlement~~:~~

~~(a) if the remittance instrument or authorization to charge is of a kind approved by subsection (1) or has not been authorized by the person receiving the settlement and in either case the person receiving the settlement acts seasonably before its midnight deadline in presenting, forwarding for collection or paying the instrument or authorization, at the time the remittance instrument or authorization is finally paid by the payor by which it is payable;~~

~~(b) if the person receiving the settlement has authorized remittance by a nonbank check or obligation or by a cashier's check or similar primary obligation of or a check upon the payor or other remitting bank which is not of a kind approved by subsection (1)(b), at the time of the receipt of such remittance check or obligation; or~~

~~(c) if in a case not covered by subparagraphs (a) or (b) the person receiving the settlement fails to seasonably present, forward for collection, pay or return a remittance instrument or authorization to it to charge before its midnight deadline, at such midnight deadline~~ settlement is final when the charge is made by the bank receiving settlement if there are funds available in the account for the amount of the item."

Section 177. Section 30-4-212, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-212. Right of charge-back or refund — *liability of collecting bank — return of item. (1) If a collecting bank has made provisional settlement with its customer for an item and ~~itself~~ fails by reason of dishonor, suspension of payments by a bank or otherwise to receive ~~a~~ settlement for the item which is or becomes final, the bank may revoke the settlement given by it, charge back the amount of any credit given for the item to its customer's account or obtain refund from its customer, whether or not it is able to return the items if by its midnight deadline or within a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts it returns the item or sends notification of the facts. If the return or notice is delayed beyond the bank's midnight deadline or a longer reasonable time after it learns the facts, the bank may revoke the settlement, charge back the credit, or obtain refund from its customer but is liable for any loss resulting from the delay. These rights to revoke, charge back and obtain refund terminate if and when a settlement for the item received by the bank is or becomes final (~~subsection~~ subsections (3) and (4) of 30-4-211 and subsections (2) and (3) of 30-4-213).

(2) ~~Within the time and manner prescribed by this section and 30-4-301, an intermediary or payor bank, as the case may be, may return an unpaid item directly to the depositary bank and may send for collection a draft on the depositary bank and obtain reimbursement. In such case, if the depositary bank has received provisional settlement for the item, it must reimburse the bank drawing the draft and any provisional credits for the item between banks shall become and remain final.~~ A collecting bank returns an item when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to its instructions.

(3) A depositary bank which is also the payor may charge back the amount of an item to its customer's account or obtain refund in accordance with the section governing return of an item received by a payor bank for credit on its books (30-4-301).

(4) The right to charge-back is not affected by:

(a) ~~prior~~ previous use of ~~the~~ a credit given for the item; or

(b) failure by any bank to exercise ordinary care with respect to the item but any bank so failing remains liable.

(5) A failure to charge back or claim refund does not affect other rights of the bank against the customer or any other party.

(6) If credit is given in dollars as the equivalent of the value of an item payable in ~~a~~ foreign ~~currency~~ money, the dollar amount of any charge-back or refund ~~shall~~ must be calculated on the basis of the ~~buying sight~~ bank-offered spot rate for the foreign ~~currency~~ money prevailing on the day when the person entitled to the charge-back or refund learns that it will not receive payment in ordinary course."

Section 178. Section 30-4-213, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-213. Final payment of item by payor bank — when provisional debits and credits become final — when certain credits become available for withdrawal. (1) An item is finally paid by a payor bank when the bank has done any of the following, whichever happens first:

(a) paid the item in cash; or

(b) settled for the item without ~~reserving~~ having a right to revoke the settlement ~~and without having such right~~ under statute, clearinghouse rule, or agreement; or

~~(c) completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith; or~~

~~(d)~~(c) made a provisional settlement for the item and failed to revoke the settlement in the time and manner permitted by statute, clearinghouse rule or agreement. ~~Upon a final payment under subparagraphs (b), (c) or (d) the payor bank shall be accountable for the amount of the item.~~

(2) If provisional settlement for an item between the presenting and payor banks is made through a clearinghouse or by debits or credits in an account between them, then to the extent that provisional debits or credits for the item are entered in accounts between the presenting and payor banks or between the presenting and successive prior collecting banks seriatim, they become final upon final payment of the item by the payor bank.

(3) If a collecting bank receives a settlement for an item which is or becomes final (~~subsection~~ subsections (3) and (4) of 30-4-211~~,~~ and subsection (2) of 30-4-213) the bank is accountable to its customer for the amount of the item and any provisional credit given for the item in an account with its customer becomes final.

(4) Subject to applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and any right of the bank to apply the credit to an obligation of the customer, credit given by a bank for an item in ~~an~~ a customer's account ~~with its customer~~ becomes available for withdrawal as of right:

(a) ~~in any case where~~ if the bank has received a provisional settlement for the item,—when such settlement becomes final and the bank has had a reasonable time to ~~learn that the settlement is final~~ receive return of the item and the item has not been received within that time;

(b) ~~in any case where~~ if the bank is both ~~a~~ the depositary bank and ~~a~~ the payor bank and the item is finally paid,—at the opening of the bank's second banking day following receipt of the item.

(5) ~~A deposit of money in a bank is final when made but, subject~~ Subject to applicable law stating a time for availability of funds and any right of ~~the~~ a bank to apply ~~the~~ a deposit to an obligation of the ~~customer~~ depositor, ~~the~~ a deposit of money becomes available for withdrawal as of right at the opening of the bank's next banking day ~~following~~ after receipt of the deposit."

Section 179. Section 30-4-214, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-214. Insolvency and preference. (1) Any item in or coming into the possession of a payor or collecting bank which suspends payment and which item is not finally paid shall be returned by the receiver, trustee or agent in charge of the closed bank to the presenting bank or the closed bank's customer.

(2) If a payor bank finally pays an item and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer or the presenting bank which settlement is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against the payor bank.

(3) If a payor bank gives or a collecting bank gives or receives a provisional settlement for an item and thereafter suspends payments, the suspension does not prevent or interfere with the settlement becoming final if such finality occurs automatically upon the lapse of certain time or the happening of certain events (~~subsection~~ subsections (3) and (4) of 30-4-211~~;~~ and subsections ~~(1)(d)~~ (1)(c), (2), and (3) of 30-4-213).

(4) If a collecting bank receives from subsequent parties settlement for an item which settlement is or becomes final and suspends payments without making a settlement for the item with its customer ~~which~~ that is or becomes final, the owner of the item has a preferred claim against ~~such~~ the collecting bank."

Section 180. Section 30-4-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-301. Deferred posting — recovery of payment by return of items — time of dishonor — *return of items by payor bank. (1) ~~Where an authorized settlement~~ If a payor bank settles for a demand item (other than a documentary draft) ~~received by a payor bank~~ presented otherwise than for immediate payment over the counter ~~has been made~~ before midnight of the banking day of receipt, the payor bank may revoke the settlement and recover any ~~payment~~ settlement if before it has ~~made final payment~~ paid the item in cash (subsection (1)(a) of 30-4-213) and before its midnight deadline it:

(a) returns the item; or

(b) sends written notice of dishonor or nonpayment if the item is ~~held for protest or is otherwise~~ unavailable for return.

(2) If a demand item is received by a payor bank for credit on its books it may return such item or send notice of dishonor and may revoke any credit given or recover the amount thereof withdrawn by its customer, if it acts within the time limit and in the manner specified in the preceding subsection.

(3) Unless previous notice of dishonor has been sent an item is dishonored at the time when for purposes of dishonor it is returned or notice sent in accordance with this section.

(4) An item is returned:

(a) as to an item ~~received~~ presented through a clearinghouse, when it is delivered to the presenting or last collecting bank or to the clearinghouse or is sent or delivered in accordance with ~~its~~ clearinghouse rules; or

(b) in all other cases, when it is sent or delivered to the bank's customer or transferor or pursuant to ~~his~~ instructions."

Section 181. Section 30-4-302, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-302. Payor bank's responsibility for late return of item. (1) ~~In the absence of a valid defense such as breach of a presentment warranty (subsection (1) of 30-4-207), settlement effected or the like, if~~ If an item is presented ~~on~~ to and received by a payor bank the bank is accountable for the amount of:

~~(1)~~(a) a demand item, other than a documentary draft, whether properly payable or not if the bank, in any case ~~where~~ in which it is not also the depositary bank, retains the item beyond midnight of the banking day of receipt without settling for it or, regardless of whether it is also the depositary bank, does not ~~pay~~ settle for or return the item or send notice of dishonor until after its midnight deadline; or

~~(2)~~(b) any other properly payable item unless within the time allowed for acceptance or payment of that item the bank either accepts or pays the item or returns it and accompanying documents.

(2) The liability of a payor bank to pay an item pursuant to subsection (1) is subject to defenses based on breach of a presentment warranty ([section 171]) or proof that the person seeking enforcement of the liability presented or transferred the item for the purpose of defrauding the payor bank."

Section 182. Section 30-4-303, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-303. When items subject to notice, stop order, legal process or setoff — order in which items may be charged or certified. (1) Any knowledge, notice, or stop order received by, legal process served upon or setoff exercised by a payor bank, whether or not effective under other rules of law to terminate, suspend, or modify the bank's right or duty to pay an item or to charge its customer's account for the item, comes too late to so terminate, suspend, or modify such right or duty if the knowledge, notice, stop order, or legal process is received or served and a reasonable time for the bank to act thereon expires or the setoff is exercised after the ~~bank has done any~~ earliest of the following:

(a) ~~accepted or certified~~ the bank accepts or certifies the item;

(b) ~~paid~~ the bank pays the item in cash;

(c) ~~settled~~ the bank settles for the item without ~~reserving~~ having a right to revoke the settlement ~~and without having such right~~ under statute, clearinghouse rule, or agreement;

(d) ~~completed the process of posting the item to the indicated account of the drawer, maker or other person to be charged therewith or otherwise has evidenced by examination of such indicated account and by action its decision to pay the item; or~~

~~(e) become~~ the bank becomes accountable for the amount of the item under ~~subsection (1)(d) of 30-4-213 and~~ 30-4-302 dealing with the payor bank's responsibility for late return of items~~.~~; or

(e) with respect to checks, a cutoff hour no earlier than 1 hour after the opening of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check and no later than the close of that banking day or, if no cutoff hour is fixed, the close of the next banking day after the banking day on which the bank received the check.

(2) Subject to the provisions of subsection (1) items may be accepted, paid, certified, or charged to the indicated account of its customer in any order ~~convenient to the bank~~."

Section 183. Section 30-4-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-401. When bank may charge customer's account. (1) ~~As against its customer, a~~ A bank may charge against ~~his~~ the account ~~any~~ of a customer an item ~~which~~ that is ~~otherwise~~ properly payable from that account even though the charge creates an overdraft. An item is properly payable if it is authorized by the customer and is in accordance with any agreement between the customer and the bank.

(2) A customer is not liable for the amount of an overdraft if the customer neither signed the item nor benefited from the proceeds of the item.

(3) A bank may charge against the account of a customer a check that is otherwise properly payable from the account, even though payment was made before the date of the check, unless the customer has given notice to the bank of the postdating describing the check with reasonable certainty. The notice will be effective for the period stated in 30-4-403(2) for stop orders and must be received at a time and in a manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before any action by the bank with respect to the check described in 30-4-303. If a bank charges against the account of a customer a check before the date stated in the notice of postdating, the bank is liable for damages for the loss resulting from its act. The loss may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items pursuant to 30-4-402.

~~(2)~~(4) A bank ~~which~~ that in good faith makes payment to a holder may charge the indicated account of its customer according to:

(a) the original ~~tenor~~ terms of ~~his~~ the altered item; or

(b) the ~~tenor~~ terms of ~~his~~ the completed item, even though the bank knows the item has been completed unless the bank has notice that the completion was improper."

Section 184. Section 30-4-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-402. Bank's liability to customer for wrongful dishonor — *time of determining insufficiency of account. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a payor bank wrongfully dishonors an item if it dishonors an item that is properly payable, but a bank may dishonor an item that would create an overdraft unless it has agreed to pay the overdraft.

(2) A payor bank is liable to its customer for damages proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor of an item. ~~When the dishonor occurs through mistake liability~~ Liability is limited to actual damages proved~~. If so proximately caused and proved damages~~ and may include damages for an arrest or prosecution of the customer or other consequential damages. Whether any consequential damages are proximately caused by the wrongful dishonor is a question of fact to be determined in each case.

(3) A payor bank's determination of the customer's account balance on which a decision to dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is based may be made at any time between the time the item is received by the payor bank and the time that the payor bank returns the item or gives notice in lieu of return, and no more than one such determination need be made. If, at the election of the payor bank, a subsequent balance determination is made for the purpose of reevaluating the bank's decision to dishonor the item, the account balance at that time is determinative of whether a dishonor for insufficiency of available funds is wrongful."

Section 185. Section 30-4-403, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-403. Customer's right to stop payment — burden of proof of loss. (1) Subject to 27-1-717, a customer or any person authorized to draw on the account if there is more than one may ~~by order to his bank~~ stop payment of any item ~~payable for his account but the order must be~~ drawn on the customer's account or close the account by an order to the bank describing the item or account with reasonable certainty and received by the bank at ~~such~~ a time and in ~~such~~ a manner as to afford the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it ~~prior to~~ before any action by the bank with respect to the item described in 30-4-303. If the signature of more than one person is required to draw on an account, any of these persons may stop payment or close the account.

(2) ~~An oral~~ A stop order is ~~binding upon the bank only for~~ effective for 6 months after the time it is received, but it lapses after 14 calendar days ~~unless~~ if the original order was oral and was not confirmed in writing within that period. A ~~written~~ stop order ~~is effective for only~~ may be renewed for additional ~~6 months unless renewed in~~ 6-month periods by a writing given to the bank within a period during which the stop order is effective.

(3) The burden of establishing the fact and amount of loss resulting from the payment of an item contrary to a binding stop payment order or order to close an account is on the customer. The loss from payment of an item contrary to a binding stop payment order may include damages for dishonor of subsequent items pursuant to 30-4-402."

Section 186. Section 30-4-406, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-406. Customer's duty to discover and report unauthorized signature or alteration. (1) ~~When a~~ A bank that sends or makes available to ~~its~~ a customer a statement of account ~~accompanied by items paid in good faith in support of the debit entries or holds the statement and items pursuant to a request or instructions of its customer or otherwise in a reasonable manner makes the statement and items available to the~~ ~~customer, the customer must exercise reasonable care and promptness to examine the statement and items to discover his unauthorized signature or any alteration on an item and must notify the bank promptly after discovery thereof~~ showing payment of items for the account shall either return to the customer the items paid or provide information in the statement of account sufficient to allow the customer to identify the items paid. The statement of account provides sufficient information if the item is described by item number, amount, and date of payment.

(2) If the items are not returned to the customer, the person retaining the items shall either retain the items or, if the items are destroyed, maintain the capacity to furnish legible copies of the items until the expiration of 7 years after receipt of the items. A customer may request an item from the bank that paid the item, and that bank must provide in a reasonable time either the item or, if the item has been destroyed or is not otherwise obtainable, a legible copy of the item.

(3) If a bank sends or makes available a statement of account or items pursuant to subsection (1), the customer shall exercise reasonable promptness in examining the statement or the item to determine whether any payment was not authorized because of an alteration of an item or because a purported signature by or on behalf of the customer was not authorized. If, based on the statement or items provided, the customer should reasonably have discovered the unauthorized payment, the customer has a duty to give prompt notification to the bank of the relevant facts.

~~(2)~~(4) If the bank ~~establishes~~ proves that the customer failed with respect to an item to comply with the duties imposed on the customer by subsection ~~(1)~~ (3) the customer is precluded from asserting against the bank:

(a) ~~his~~ the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration on the item if the bank also establishes that it suffered a loss by reason of such failure; and

(b) ~~an~~ the customer's unauthorized signature or alteration by the same wrongdoer on any other item paid in good faith by the bank ~~after the first item and statement was available to the customer for a reasonable period not exceeding 14 calendar days and before the bank receives notification from the customer of any such~~ if the payment was made before the bank received notification from the customer of the unauthorized signature or alteration and after the customer had been afforded a reasonable period of time in which to examine the item or statement of account and notify the bank. "Reasonable period of time" is presumed to be 14 calendar days after the item or statement pursuant to subsection (1) was received by or made available to the customer.

~~(3)~~(5) ~~The preclusion under subsection (2) does not apply if~~ If subsection (4) applies and the customer ~~establishes lack of~~ proves that the bank failed to exercise ordinary care ~~on the part of the bank~~ in paying the ~~item(s)~~ item and that the failure substantially contributed to loss, the loss is allocated between the customer precluded and the bank asserting the preclusion according to the extent to which the failure of each to exercise ordinary care contributed to the loss. If the customer proves that the bank did not pay the item in good faith, the preclusion under subsection (4) does not apply.

~~(4)~~(6) Without regard to care or lack of care of either the customer or the bank a customer who does not within 1 year from the time the statement ~~and~~ or items are made available to the customer (subsection (1)) discover and report ~~his~~ the customer's unauthorized signature or any alteration ~~on the face or back of the item or does not within 3 years from that time discover and report any unauthorized endorsement~~ is precluded from asserting against the bank such unauthorized signature or ~~endorsement or such~~ alteration. If there is a preclusion under this subsection, the payor bank may not recover for breach of warranty under [section 171] with respect to the unauthorized signature or alteration to which the preclusion applies.

~~(5) If under this section a payor bank has a valid defense against a claim of a customer upon or resulting from payment of an item and waives or fails upon request to assert the defense the bank may not assert against any collecting bank or other prior party presenting or transferring the item a claim based upon the unauthorized signature or alteration giving rise to the customer's claim.~~"

Section 187. Section 30-4-407, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-407. Payor bank's right to subrogation on improper payment. If a payor bank has paid an item over the stop payment order of the drawer or maker, after an account has been closed, or otherwise under circumstances giving a basis for objection by the drawer or maker, to prevent unjust enrichment and only to the extent necessary to prevent loss to the bank by reason of its payment of the item, the payor bank shall be subrogated to the rights:

~~(a)~~(1) of any holder in due course on the item against the drawer or maker; and

~~(b)~~(2) of the payee or any other holder of the item against the drawer or maker either on the item or under the transaction out of which the item arose; and

~~(c)~~(3) of the drawer or maker against the payee or any other holder of the item with respect to the transaction out of which the item arose."

Section 188. Section 30-4-503, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-4-503. Responsibility of presenting bank for documents and goods — report of reasons for dishonor — referee in case of need. (1) Unless otherwise instructed and except as provided in ~~Chapter~~ chapter 5, a bank presenting a documentary draft:

(a) ~~must~~ shall deliver the documents to the drawee on acceptance of the draft if it is payable more than 3 days after presentment; otherwise, only on payment; and

(b) upon dishonor, either in the case of presentment for acceptance or presentment for payment, may seek and follow instructions from any referee in case of need designated in the draft or if the presenting bank does not choose to utilize ~~his~~ the referee's services, it ~~must~~ shall use diligence and good faith to ascertain the reason for dishonor, ~~must~~ shall notify its transferor of the dishonor and of the results of its effort to ascertain the reasons therefor, and ~~must~~ shall request instructions.

(2) ~~But the~~ The presenting bank is under no obligation with respect to goods represented by the documents except to follow any reasonable instructions seasonably received; it has a right to reimbursement for any expense incurred in following instructions and to prepayment of or indemnity for ~~such~~ those expenses."

Section 189. Short title. [Sections 189 through 226] may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code—Funds Transfers.

Section 190. Subject matter. Except as otherwise provided in [section 196], [sections 189 through 226] apply to funds transfers defined in [section 192].

Section 191. Payment order — definitions. (1) In [sections 189 through 226], the following definitions apply:

(a) "Payment order" means an instruction of a sender to a receiving bank, transmitted orally, electronically, or in writing, to pay, or to cause another bank to pay, a fixed or determinable amount of money to a beneficiary if:

(i) the instruction does not state a condition to payment to the beneficiary other than time of payment;

(ii) the receiving bank is to be reimbursed by debiting an account of, or otherwise receiving payment from, the sender; and

(iii) the instruction is transmitted by the sender directly to the receiving bank or to an agent, funds-transfer system, or communication system for transmittal to the receiving bank.

(b) "Beneficiary" means the person to be paid by the beneficiary's bank.

(c) "Beneficiary's bank" means the bank identified in a payment order in which an account of the beneficiary is to be credited pursuant to the order or that otherwise is to make payment to the beneficiary if the order does not provide for payment to an account.

(d) "Receiving bank" means the bank to which the sender's instruction is addressed.

(e) "Sender" means the person giving the instruction to the receiving bank.

(2) If an instruction complying with subsection (1)(a) is to make more than one payment to a beneficiary, the instruction is a separate payment order with respect to each payment.

(3) A payment order is issued when it is sent to the receiving bank.

Section 192. Funds transfer — definitions. In [sections 189 through 226], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Funds transfer" means the series of transactions, beginning with the originator's payment order, made for the purpose of making payment to the beneficiary of the order. The term includes any payment order issued by the originator's bank or an intermediary bank intended to carry out the originator's payment order. A funds transfer is completed by acceptance by the beneficiary's bank of a payment order for the benefit of the beneficiary of the originator's payment order.

(2) "Intermediary bank" means a receiving bank other than the originator's bank or the beneficiary's bank.

(3) "Originator" means the sender of the first payment order in a funds transfer.

(4) "Originator's bank" means:

(a) the receiving bank to which the payment order of the originator is issued if the originator is not a bank; or

(b) the originator if the originator is a bank.

Section 193. Other definitions. (1) In [sections 189 through 226], the following definitions apply:

(a) "Authorized account" means a deposit account of a customer in a bank designated by the customer as a source of payment of payment orders issued by the customer to the bank. If a customer does not so designate an account, any account of the customer is an authorized account if payment of a payment order from that account is not inconsistent with a restriction on the use of that account.

(b) "Bank" means a person engaged in the business of banking and includes a savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union, and trust company. A branch or separate office of a bank is a separate bank for purposes of [sections 189 through 226].

(c) "Customer" means a person, including a bank, having an account with a bank or from whom a bank has agreed to receive payment orders.

(d) "Funds-transfer business day" of a receiving bank means the part of a day during which the receiving bank is open for the receipt, processing, and transmittal of payment orders and cancellations and amendments of payment orders.

(e) "Funds-transfer system" means a wire transfer network, automated clearinghouse, or other communication system of a clearinghouse or other association of banks through which a payment order by a bank may be transmitted to the bank to which the order is addressed.

(f) "Good faith" means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial standards of fair dealing.

(g) "Prove", with respect to a fact, means to meet the burden of establishing the fact (30-1-201(8)).

(2) Other definitions applying to [sections 189 through 226] and the sections in which they appear are:

"Acceptance" [section 205]

"Beneficiary" [section 191]

"Beneficiary's bank" [section 191]

"Executed" [section 209]

"Execution date" [section 209]

"Funds transfer" [section 192]

"Funds-transfer system rule" [section 220]

"Intermediary bank" [section 192]

"Originator" [section 192]

"Originator's bank" [section 192]

"Payment by beneficiary's bank to beneficiary" [section 218]

"Payment by originator to beneficiary" [section 219]

"Payment by sender to receiving bank" [section 216]

"Payment date" [section 214]

"Payment order" [section 191]

"Receiving bank" [section 191]

"Security procedure" [section 197]

"Sender" [section 191]

(3) The following definitions in chapter 4 apply to [sections 189 through 226]:

"Clearinghouse" 30-4-104

"Item" 30-4-104

"Suspends payments" 30-4-104

(4) In addition, chapter 1 contains general definitions and principles of construction and interpretation applicable throughout this chapter.

Section 194. Time payment order is received. (1) The time of receipt of a payment order or communication canceling or amending a payment order is determined by the rules applicable to receipt of a notice stated in 30-1-201(27). A receiving bank may fix a cutoff time or times on a funds-transfer business day for the receipt and processing of payment orders and communications canceling or amending payment orders. Different cutoff times may apply to payment orders, cancellations, or amendments or to different categories of payment orders, cancellations, or amendments. A cutoff time may apply to senders generally or different cutoff times may apply to different senders or categories of payment orders. If a payment order or communication canceling or amending a payment order is received after the close of a funds-transfer business day or after the appropriate cutoff time on a funds-transfer business day, the receiving bank may treat the payment order or communication as received at the opening of the next funds-transfer business day.

(2) If [sections 189 through 226] refer to an execution date or payment date or state a day on which a receiving bank is required to take action and the date or day does not fall on a funds-transfer business day, the next day that is a funds-transfer business day is treated as the date or day stated, unless the contrary is stated in [sections 189 through 226].

Section 195. Federal reserve regulations and operating circulars. Regulations of the board of governors of the federal reserve system and operating circulars of the federal reserve banks supersede any inconsistent provision of [sections 189 through 226] to the extent of the inconsistency.

Section 196. Exclusion of consumer transactions governed by federal law. [Sections 189 through 226] do not apply to a funds transfer any part of which is governed by the Electronic Fund Transfer Act of 1978 (Title XX, Public Law 95-630, 92 Stat. 3728, 15 U.S.C. 1693, et seq.) as amended from time to time.

Section 197. Security procedure. "Security procedure" means a procedure established by agreement of a customer and a receiving bank for the purpose of verifying that a payment order or communication amending or canceling a payment order is that of the customer or detecting error in the transmission or the content of the payment order or communication. A security procedure may require the use of algorithms or other codes, identifying words or numbers, encryption, callback procedures, or similar security devices. Comparison of a signature on a payment order or communication with an authorized specimen signature of the customer is not by itself a security procedure.

Section 198. Authorized and verified payment orders. (1) A payment order received by the receiving bank is the authorized order of the person identified as sender if that person authorized the order or is otherwise bound by it under the law of agency.

(2) If a bank and its customer have agreed that the authenticity of payment orders issued to the bank in the name of the customer as sender will be verified pursuant to a security procedure, a payment order received by the receiving bank is effective as the order of the customer, whether or not authorized, if the security procedure is a commercially reasonable method of providing security against unauthorized payment orders and the bank proves that it accepted the payment order in good faith and in compliance with the security procedure and any written agreement or instruction of the customer restricting acceptance of payment orders issued in the name of the customer. The bank is not required to follow an instruction that violates a written agreement with the customer or notice of which is not received at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the payment order is accepted.

(3) Commercial reasonableness of a security procedure is a question of law to be determined by considering the wishes of the customer expressed to the bank, the circumstances of the customer known to the bank, including the size, type, and frequency of payment orders normally issued by the customer to the bank, alternative security procedures offered to the customer, and security procedures in general use by customers and receiving banks similarly situated. A security procedure is considered to be commercially reasonable if:

(a) the security procedure was chosen by the customer after the bank offered, and the customer refused, a security procedure that was commercially reasonable for that customer; and

(b) the customer expressly agreed in writing to be bound by any payment order, whether or not authorized, issued in the customer's name and accepted by the bank in compliance with the security procedure chosen by the customer.

(4) The term "sender" in [sections 189 through 226] includes the customer in whose name a payment order is issued if the order is the authorized order of the customer under subsection (1) or if it is effective as the order of the customer under subsection (2).

(5) This section applies to amendments and cancellations of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

(6) Except as provided in this section and in [section 199(1)(a)], rights and obligations arising under this section or [section 199] may not be varied by agreement.

Section 199. Unenforceability of certain verified payment orders. (1) If an accepted payment order is not, under [section 198(1)], an authorized order of a customer identified as sender, but is effective as an order of the customer pursuant to [section 198(2)], the following rules apply:

(a) By express written agreement, the receiving bank may limit the extent to which it is entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order.

(b) (i) The receiving bank is not entitled to enforce or retain payment of the payment order if the customer proves that the order was not caused, directly or indirectly, by a person:

(A) entrusted at any time with duties to act for the customer with respect to payment orders or the security procedure; or

(B) who obtained access to transmitting facilities of the customer or who obtained, from a source controlled by the customer and without authority of the receiving bank, information facilitating breach of the security procedure, regardless of how the information was obtained or whether the customer was at fault.

(ii) Information includes any access device, computer software, or the like.

(2) This section applies to amendments of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

Section 200. Refund of payment and duty of customer to report with respect to unauthorized payment order. (1) If a receiving bank accepts a payment order issued in the name of its customer as sender that is not authorized and not effective as the order of the customer under [section 198] or not enforceable, in whole or in part, against the customer under [section 199], the bank shall refund any payment of the payment order received from the customer to the extent the bank is not entitled to enforce payment and shall pay interest on the refundable amount calculated from the date the bank received payment to the date of the refund. However, the customer is not entitled to interest from the bank on the amount to be refunded if the customer fails to exercise ordinary care to determine that the order was not authorized by the customer and to notify the bank of the relevant facts within a reasonable time not exceeding 90 days after the date the customer received notification from the bank that the order was accepted or that the customer's account was debited with respect to the order. The bank is not entitled to any recovery from the customer on account of a failure by the customer to give notification as stated in this section.

(2) Reasonable time under subsection (1) may be fixed by agreement as stated in 30-1-204(1), but the obligation of a receiving bank to refund payment as stated in subsection (1) may not otherwise be varied by agreement.

Section 201. Erroneous payment orders. (1) If an accepted payment order was transmitted pursuant to a security procedure for the detection of error and the payment order erroneously instructed payment to a beneficiary not intended by the sender, erroneously instructed payment in an amount greater than the amount intended by the sender, or was an erroneously transmitted duplicate of a payment order previously sent by the sender, the following rules apply:

(a) If the sender proves that the sender or a person acting on behalf of the sender pursuant to [section 202] complied with the security procedure and that the error would have been detected if the receiving bank had also complied, the sender is not obliged to pay the order to the extent stated in subsections (1)(b) and (1)(c).

(b) Except as provided in subsection (1)(c), if the funds transfer is completed on the basis of an erroneous payment order described in subsection (1), the sender is not obliged to pay the order and the receiving bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary any amount paid to the beneficiary to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

(c) If the funds transfer is completed on the basis of a payment order erroneously instructing payment in an amount greater than the amount intended by the sender, as described in subsection (1), the sender is not obliged to pay the order to the extent the amount received by the beneficiary is greater than the amount intended by the sender. In that case, the receiving bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary the excess amount received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

(2) If the sender of an erroneous payment order described in subsection (1) is not obliged to pay all or part of the order and the sender receives notification from the receiving bank that the order was accepted by the bank or that the sender's account was debited with respect to the order, the sender has a duty to exercise ordinary care, on the basis of information available to the sender, to discover the error with respect to the order and to advise the bank of the relevant facts within a reasonable time, not exceeding 90 days, after the bank's notification was received by the sender. If the bank proves that the sender failed to perform that duty, the sender is liable to the bank for the loss the bank proves it incurred as a result of the failure, but the liability of the sender may not exceed the amount of the sender's order.

(3) This section applies to amendments to payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

Section 202. Transmission of payment order through funds-transfer or other communication system. (1) If a payment order addressed to a receiving bank is transmitted to a funds-transfer system or other third-party communication system for transmittal to the bank, the system is considered to be an agent of the sender for the purpose of transmitting the payment order to the bank. If there is a discrepancy between the terms of the payment order transmitted to the system and the terms of the payment order transmitted by the system to the bank, the terms of the payment order of the sender are those transmitted by the system. This section does not apply to a funds-transfer system of the federal reserve banks.

(2) This section applies to cancellations and amendments of payment orders to the same extent it applies to payment orders.

Section 203. Misdescription of beneficiary. (1) Subject to subsection (2), if, in a payment order received by the beneficiary's bank, the name, bank account number, or other identification of the beneficiary refers to a nonexistent or unidentifiable person or account, no person has rights as a beneficiary of the order and acceptance of the order cannot occur.

(2) If a payment order received by the beneficiary's bank identifies the beneficiary both by name and by an identifying or bank account number and the name and number identify different persons, the following rules apply:

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3), if the beneficiary's bank does not know that the name and number refer to different persons, it may rely on the number as the proper identification of the beneficiary of the order. The beneficiary's bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person.

(b) If the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by name or knows that the name and number identify different persons, no person has rights as beneficiary except the person paid by the beneficiary's bank if that person was entitled to receive payment from the originator of the funds transfer. If no person has rights as beneficiary, acceptance of the order cannot occur.

(3) If a payment order described in subsection (2) is accepted, the originator's payment order described the beneficiary inconsistently by name and number, and the beneficiary's bank pays the person identified by number as permitted by subsection (2)(a), the following rules apply:

(a) If the originator is a bank, the originator is obliged to pay its order.

(b) If the originator is not a bank and proves that the person identified by number was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the originator is not obliged to pay its order unless the originator's bank proves that the originator, before acceptance of the originator's order, had notice that payment of a payment order issued by the originator might be made by the beneficiary's bank on the basis of an identifying or bank account number even if it identifies a person different from the named beneficiary. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The originator's bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the originator, before the payment order was accepted, signed a writing stating the information to which the notice relates.

(4) In a case governed by subsection (2)(a), if the beneficiary's bank rightfully pays the person identified by number and that person was not entitled to receive payment from the originator, the amount paid may be recovered from that person to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution as follows:

(a) If the originator is obliged to pay its payment order as stated in subsection (3), the originator has the right to recover.

(b) If the originator is not a bank and is not obliged to pay its payment order, the originator's bank has the right to recover.

Section 204. Misdescription of intermediary bank or beneficiary's bank. (1) This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank or the beneficiary's bank only by an identifying number as follows:

(a) The receiving bank may rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank and need not determine whether the number identifies a bank.

(b) The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the number in executing or attempting to execute the order.

(2) This subsection applies to a payment order identifying an intermediary bank or the beneficiary's bank, both by name and an identifying number, if the name and number identify different persons as follows:

(a) If the sender is a bank, the receiving bank may rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank, when it executes the sender's order, does not know that the name and number identify different persons. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person or whether the number refers to a bank. The sender is obliged to compensate the receiving bank for any loss and expenses incurred by the receiving bank as a result of its reliance on the number in executing or attempting to execute the order.

(b) If the sender is not a bank and the receiving bank proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, had notice that the receiving bank might rely on the number as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank even if it identifies a person different from the bank identified by name, the rights and obligations of the sender and the receiving bank are governed by subsection (2)(a), as though the sender were a bank. Proof of notice may be made by any admissible evidence. The receiving bank satisfies the burden of proof if it proves that the sender, before the payment order was accepted, signed a writing stating the information to which the notice relates.

(c) Regardless of whether the sender is a bank, the receiving bank may rely on the name as the proper identification of the intermediary or beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank, at the time it executes the sender's order, does not know that the name and number identify different persons. The receiving bank need not determine whether the name and number refer to the same person.

(d) If the receiving bank knows that the name and number identify different persons, reliance on either the name or the number in executing the sender's payment order is a breach of the obligation stated in [section 210(1)(a)].

Section 205. Acceptance of payment order. (1) Subject to subsection (4), a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order when it executes the order.

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), a beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order at the earliest of the following times:

(a) when the bank:

(i) pays the beneficiary as stated in [section 218(1) or (2)]; or

(ii) notifies the beneficiary of receipt of the order or that the account of the beneficiary has been credited with respect to the order unless the notice indicates that the bank is rejecting the order or that funds with respect to the order may not be withdrawn or used until receipt of payment from the sender of the order;

(b) when the bank receives payment of the entire amount of the sender's order pursuant to [section 216(1)(a) or (1)(b)]; or

(c) the opening of the next funds-transfer business day of the bank following the payment date of the order if, at that time, the amount of the sender's order is fully covered by a withdrawable credit balance in an authorized account of the sender or if the bank has otherwise received full payment from the sender, unless the order was rejected before that time or is rejected within 1 hour after that time or 1 hour after the opening of the next business day of the sender following the payment date if that time is later. If notice of rejection is received by the sender after the payment date and the authorized account of the sender does not bear interest, the bank is obliged to pay interest to the sender on the amount of the order for the number of days elapsing after the payment date to the day the sender receives notice or learns that the order was not accepted, counting that day as an elapsed day. If the withdrawable credit balance during that period falls below the amount of the order, the amount of interest payable is reduced accordingly.

(3) Acceptance of a payment order cannot occur before the order is received by the receiving bank. Acceptance does not occur under subsection (2)(b) or (2)(c) if the beneficiary of the payment order does not have an account with the receiving bank, the account has been closed, or the receiving bank is not permitted by law to receive credits for the beneficiary's account.

(4) A payment order issued to the originator's bank cannot be accepted until the payment date if the bank is the beneficiary's bank or until the execution date if the bank is not the beneficiary's bank. If the originator's bank executes the originator's payment order before the execution date or pays the beneficiary of the originator's payment order before the payment date and the payment order is subsequently canceled pursuant to [section 207(2)], the bank may recover from the beneficiary any payment received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

Section 206. Rejection of payment order. (1) A payment order is rejected by the receiving bank by a notice of rejection transmitted to the sender orally, electronically, or in writing. A notice of rejection need not use any particular words and is sufficient if it indicates that the receiving bank is rejecting the order or will not execute or pay the order. Rejection is effective when the notice is given if transmission is by a means that is reasonable in the circumstances. If notice of rejection is given by a means that is not reasonable, rejection is effective when the notice is received. If an agreement of the sender and receiving bank establishes the means to be used to reject a payment order:

(a) any means complying with the agreement is reasonable; and

(b) any means not complying is not reasonable unless no significant delay in receipt of the notice resulted from the use of the noncomplying means.

(2) This subsection applies if a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank fails to execute a payment order despite the existence on the execution date of a withdrawable credit balance in an authorized account of the sender sufficient to cover the order. If the sender does not receive notice of rejection of the order on the execution date and the authorized account of the sender does not bear interest, the bank is obliged to pay interest to the sender on the amount of the order for the number of days elapsing after the execution date to the earlier of the day the order is canceled pursuant to [section 207(4)] or the day the sender receives notice or learns that the order was not executed, counting the final day of the period as an elapsed day. If the withdrawable credit balance during that period falls below the amount of the order, the amount of interest is reduced accordingly.

(3) If a receiving bank suspends payments, all unaccepted payment orders issued to it are considered rejected at the time the bank suspends payments.

(4) Acceptance of a payment order precludes a later rejection of the order. Rejection of a payment order precludes a later acceptance of the order.

Section 207. Cancellation and amendment of payment order. (1) A communication of the sender of a payment order canceling or amending the order may be transmitted to the receiving bank orally, electronically, or in writing. If a security procedure is in effect between the sender and the receiving bank, the communication is not effective to cancel or amend the order unless the communication is verified pursuant to the security procedure or the bank agrees to the cancellation or amendment.

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a communication by the sender canceling or amending a payment order is effective to cancel or amend the order if notice of the communication is received at a time and in a manner affording the receiving bank a reasonable opportunity to act on the communication before the bank accepts the payment order.

(3) After a payment order has been accepted, cancellation or amendment of the order is not effective unless the receiving bank agrees or a funds-transfer system rule allows cancellation or amendment without agreement of the bank as follows:

(a) With respect to a payment order accepted by a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank, cancellation or amendment is not effective unless a conforming cancellation or amendment of the payment order issued by the receiving bank is also made.

(b) (i) With respect to a payment order accepted by the beneficiary's bank, cancellation or amendment is not effective unless the order was issued in execution of an unauthorized payment order or because of a mistake by a sender in the funds transfer that resulted in the issuance of a payment order:

(A) that is a duplicate of a payment order previously issued by the sender;

(B) that orders payment to a beneficiary not entitled to receive payment from the originator; or

(C) that orders payment in an amount greater than the amount the beneficiary was entitled to receive from the originator.

(ii) If the payment order is canceled or amended, the beneficiary's bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary any amount paid to the beneficiary to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

(4) An unaccepted payment order is canceled by operation of law at the close of the fifth funds-transfer business day of the receiving bank after the execution date or payment date of the order.

(5) A canceled payment order cannot be accepted. If an accepted payment order is canceled, the acceptance is nullified and no person has any right or obligation based on the acceptance. Amendment of a payment order is considered to be cancellation of the original order at the time of amendment and issue of a new payment order in the amended form at the same time.

(6) Unless otherwise provided in an agreement of the parties or in a funds-transfer system rule, if the receiving bank, after accepting a payment order, agrees to cancellation or amendment of the order by the sender or is bound by a funds-transfer system rule allowing cancellation or amendment without the bank's agreement, the sender, whether or not cancellation or amendment is effective, is liable to the bank for any loss and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred by the bank as a result of the cancellation or amendment or attempted cancellation or amendment.

(7) A payment order is not revoked by the death or legal incapacity of the sender unless the receiving bank knows of the death or of an adjudication of incapacity by a court of competent jurisdiction and has reasonable opportunity to act before acceptance of the order.

(8) A funds-transfer system rule is not effective to the extent it conflicts with subsection (3)(b).

Section 208. Liability and duty of receiving bank regarding unaccepted payment order. If a receiving bank fails to accept a payment order that it is obliged by express agreement to accept, the bank is liable for breach of the agreement to the extent provided in the agreement or in [sections 189 through 226] but does not otherwise have any duty to accept a payment order or, before acceptance, to take any action or refrain from taking action with respect to the order except as provided in [sections 189 through 226] or by express agreement. Liability based on acceptance arises only when acceptance occurs as stated in [section 205], and liability is limited to that provided in [sections 189 through 226]. A receiving bank is not the agent of the sender or beneficiary of the payment order it accepts or of any other party to the funds transfer, and the bank owes no duty to any party to the funds transfer except as provided in [sections 189 through 226] or by express agreement.

Section 209. Execution and execution date. (1) A payment order is "executed" by the receiving bank when it issues a payment order intended to carry out the payment order received by the bank. A payment order received by the beneficiary's bank may be accepted but cannot be executed.

(2) "Execution date" of a payment order means the day on which the receiving bank may properly issue a payment order in execution of the sender's order. The execution date may be determined by instruction of the sender but cannot be earlier than the day the order is received and, unless otherwise determined, is the day the order is received. If the sender's instruction states a payment date, the execution date is the payment date or an earlier date on which execution is reasonably necessary to allow payment to the beneficiary on the payment date.

Section 210. Obligations of receiving bank in execution of payment order. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2) through (4), if the receiving bank accepts a payment order pursuant to [section 205(1)], the bank has the following obligations in executing the order:

(a) (i) The receiving bank is obliged to issue, on the execution date, a payment order complying with the sender's order and to follow the sender's instructions concerning:

(A) any intermediary bank or funds-transfer system to be used in carrying out the funds transfer; or

(B) the means by which payment orders are to be transmitted in the funds transfer.

(ii) If the originator's bank issues a payment order to an intermediary bank, the originator's bank is obliged to instruct the intermediary bank according to the instruction of the originator. An intermediary bank in the funds transfer is similarly bound by an instruction given to it by the sender of the payment order it accepts.

(b) If the sender's instruction states that the funds transfer is to be carried out telephonically or by wire transfer or otherwise indicates that the funds transfer is to be carried out by the most expeditious means, the receiving bank is obliged to transmit its payment order by the most expeditious available means and to instruct any intermediary bank accordingly. If a sender's instruction states a payment date, the receiving bank is obliged to transmit its payment order at a time and by means reasonably necessary to allow payment to the beneficiary on the payment date or as soon thereafter as is feasible.

(2) Unless otherwise instructed, a receiving bank executing a payment order may use any funds-transfer system if use of that system is reasonable in the circumstances and issue a payment order to the beneficiary's bank or to an intermediary bank through which a payment order conforming to the sender's order can expeditiously be issued to the beneficiary's bank if the receiving bank exercises ordinary care in the selection of the intermediary bank. A receiving bank is not required to follow an instruction of the sender designating a funds-transfer system to be used in carrying out the funds transfer if the receiving bank, in good faith, determines that it is not feasible to follow the instruction or that following the instruction would unduly delay completion of the funds transfer.

(3) Unless subsection (1)(b) applies or the receiving bank is otherwise instructed, the bank may execute a payment order by transmitting its payment order by first class mail or by any means reasonable in the circumstances. If the receiving bank is instructed to execute the sender's order by transmitting its payment order by a particular means, the receiving bank may issue its payment order by the means stated or by any means as expeditious as the means stated.

(4) Unless instructed by the sender:

(a) the receiving bank may not obtain payment of its charges for services and expenses in connection with the execution of the sender's order by issuing a payment order in an amount equal to the amount of the sender's order less the amount of the charges; and

(b) may not instruct a subsequent receiving bank to obtain payment of its charges in the same manner.

Section 211. Erroneous execution of payment order. (1) A receiving bank that executes the payment order of the sender by issuing a payment order in an amount greater than the amount of the sender's order or issues a payment order in execution of the sender's order and then issues a duplicate order is entitled to payment of the amount of the sender's order under [section 215(3)] if that subsection is otherwise satisfied. The bank is entitled to recover from the beneficiary of the erroneous order the excess payment received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

(2) A receiving bank that executes the payment order of the sender by issuing a payment order in an amount less than the amount of the sender's order is entitled to payment of the amount of the sender's order under [section 215(3)] if that subsection is otherwise satisfied and the bank corrects its mistake by issuing an additional payment order for the benefit of the beneficiary of the sender's order. If the error is not corrected, the issuer of the erroneous order is entitled to receive or retain payment from the sender of the order it accepted only to the extent of the amount of the erroneous order. This subsection does not apply if the receiving bank executes the sender's payment order by issuing a payment order in an amount less than the amount of the sender's order for the purpose of obtaining payment of its charges for services and expenses pursuant to instruction of the sender.

(3) If a receiving bank executes the payment order of the sender by issuing a payment order to a beneficiary different from the beneficiary of the sender's order and the funds transfer is completed on the basis of that error, the sender of the payment order that was erroneously executed and all previous senders in the funds transfer are not obliged to pay the payment orders they issued. The issuer of the erroneous order is entitled to recover from the beneficiary of the order the payment received to the extent allowed by the law governing mistake and restitution.

Section 212. Duty of sender to report erroneously executed payment order. If the sender of a payment order that is erroneously executed as stated in [section 211] receives notification from the receiving bank that the order was executed or that the sender's account was debited with respect to the order, the sender has a duty to exercise ordinary care to determine, on the basis of information available to the sender, that the order was erroneously executed and to notify the bank of the relevant facts within a reasonable time not exceeding 90 days after the notification from the bank was received by the sender. If the sender fails to perform that duty, the bank is not obliged to pay interest on any amount refundable to the sender under [section 215(4)] for the period before the bank learns of the execution error. The bank is not entitled to any recovery from the sender on account of a failure by the sender to perform the duty stated in this section.

Section 213. Liability for late or improper execution or failure to execute payment order. (1) If a funds transfer is completed but execution of a payment order by the receiving bank in breach of [section 210] results in delay in payment to the beneficiary, the bank is obliged to pay interest to either the originator or the beneficiary of the funds transfer for the period of delay caused by the improper execution. Except as provided in subsection (3), additional damages are not recoverable.

(2) If execution of a payment order by a receiving bank in breach of [section 210] results in noncompletion of the funds transfer, failure to use an intermediary bank designated by the originator, or issuance of a payment order that does not comply with the terms of the payment order of the originator, the bank is liable to the originator for its expenses in the funds transfer and for incidental expenses and interest losses, to the extent not covered by subsection (1), resulting from the improper execution. Except as provided in subsection (3), additional damages are not recoverable.

(3) In addition to the amounts payable under subsections (1) and (2), damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express written agreement of the receiving bank.

(4) If a receiving bank fails to execute a payment order it was obliged by express agreement to execute, the receiving bank is liable to the sender for its expenses in the transaction and for incidental expenses and interest losses resulting from the failure to execute. Additional damages, including consequential damages, are recoverable to the extent provided in an express written agreement of the receiving bank but are not otherwise recoverable.

(5) Reasonable attorney fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under subsection (1) or (2) is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim. If a claim is made for breach of an agreement under subsection (4) and the agreement does not provide for damages, reasonable attorney fees are recoverable if demand for compensation under subsection (4) is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim.

(6) Except as stated in this section, the liability of a receiving bank under subsections (1) and (2) may not be varied by agreement.

Section 214. Payment date. "Payment date" of a payment order means the day on which the amount of the order is payable to the beneficiary by the beneficiary's bank. The payment date may be determined by instruction of the sender but cannot be earlier than the day the order is received by the beneficiary's bank and, unless otherwise determined, is the day the order is received by the beneficiary's bank.

Section 215. Obligation of sender to pay receiving bank. (1) This section is subject to [sections 201 and 203].

(2) With respect to a payment order issued to the beneficiary's bank, acceptance of the order by the bank obliges the sender to pay the bank the amount of the order, but payment is not due until the payment date of the order.

(3) This subsection is subject to subsection (5) and to [section 211]. With respect to a payment order issued to a receiving bank other than the beneficiary's bank, acceptance of the order by the receiving bank obliges the sender to pay the bank the amount of the sender's order. Payment by the sender is not due until the execution date of the sender's order. The obligation of that sender to pay its payment order is excused if the funds transfer is not completed by acceptance by the beneficiary's bank of a payment order instructing payment to the beneficiary of that sender's payment order.

(4) If the sender of a payment order pays the order and was not obliged to pay all or part of the amount paid, the bank receiving payment is obliged to refund payment to the extent the sender was not obliged to pay. Except as provided in [sections 200 and 212], interest is payable on the refundable amount from the date of payment.

(5) If a funds transfer is not completed as stated in subsection (3) and an intermediary bank is obliged to refund payment as stated in subsection (4) but is unable to do so because not permitted by applicable law or because the bank suspends payments, a sender in the funds transfer that executed a payment order in compliance with an instruction, as stated in [section 210(1)(a)], to route the funds transfer through that intermediary bank is entitled to receive or retain payment from the sender of the payment order that it accepted. The first sender in the funds transfer that issued an instruction requiring routing through that intermediary bank is subrogated to the right of the bank that paid the intermediary bank to refund as stated in subsection (4).

(6) The right of the sender of a payment order to be excused from the obligation to pay the order as stated in subsection (3) or to receive refund under subsection (4) may not be varied by agreement.

Section 216. Payment by sender to receiving bank. (1) Payment of the sender's obligation under [section 215] to pay the receiving bank occurs as follows:

(a) If the sender is a bank, payment occurs when the receiving bank receives final settlement of the obligation through a federal reserve bank or through a funds-transfer system.

(b) If the sender is a bank and the sender credited an account of the receiving bank with the sender or caused an account of the receiving bank in another bank to be credited, payment occurs when the credit is withdrawn or, if not withdrawn, at midnight of the day on which the credit is withdrawable and the receiving bank learns of that fact.

(c) If the receiving bank debits an account of the sender with the receiving bank, payment occurs when the debit is made to the extent the debit is covered by a withdrawable credit balance in the account.

(2) If the sender and receiving bank are members of a funds-transfer system that nets obligations multilaterally among participants, the receiving bank receives final settlement when settlement is complete in accordance with the rules of the system. The obligation of the sender to pay the amount of a payment order transmitted through the funds-transfer system may be satisfied, to the extent permitted by the rules of the system, by setting off and applying against the sender's obligation the right of the sender to receive payment from the receiving bank of the amount of any other payment order transmitted to the sender by the receiving bank through the funds-transfer system. The aggregate balance of obligations owed by each sender to each receiving bank in the funds-transfer system may be satisfied, to the extent permitted by the rules of the system, by setting off and applying against that balance the aggregate balance of obligations owed to the sender by other members of the system. The aggregate balance is determined after the right of setoff stated in this subsection has been exercised.

(3) If two banks transmit payment orders to each other under an agreement that settlement of the obligations of each bank to the other under [section 215] will be made at the end of the day or other period, the total amount owed with respect to all orders transmitted by one bank must be set off against the total amount owed with respect to all orders transmitted by the other bank. To the extent of the setoff, each bank has made payment to the other.

(4) In a case not covered by subsection (1), the time when payment of the sender's obligation under [section 215(2) or (3)] occurs is governed by applicable principles of law that determine when an obligation is satisfied.

Section 217. Obligation of beneficiary's bank to pay and give notice to beneficiary. (1) Subject to [sections 207(5) and 218(4) and (5)], if a beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order, the bank is obliged to pay the amount of the order to the beneficiary of the order. Payment is due on the payment date of the order, but if acceptance occurs on the payment date after the close of the funds-transfer business day of the bank, payment is due on the next funds-transfer business day. If the bank refuses to pay after demand by the beneficiary and receipt of notice of particular circumstances that will give rise to consequential damages as a result of nonpayment, the beneficiary may recover damages resulting from the refusal to pay to the extent the bank had notice of the damages, unless the bank proves that it did not pay because of a reasonable doubt concerning the right of the beneficiary to payment.

(2) If a payment order accepted by the beneficiary's bank instructs payment to an account of the beneficiary, the bank is obliged to notify the beneficiary of receipt of the order before midnight of the next funds-transfer business day following the payment date. If the payment order does not instruct payment to an account of the beneficiary, the bank is required to notify the beneficiary only if notice is required by the order. Notice may be given by first-class mail or any other means reasonable in the circumstances. If the bank fails to give the required notice, the bank is obliged to pay interest to the beneficiary on the amount of the payment order from the day notice should have been given until the day the beneficiary learned of receipt of the payment order by the bank. No other damages are recoverable. Reasonable attorney fees are also recoverable if demand for interest is made and refused before an action is brought on the claim.

(3) The right of a beneficiary to receive payment and damages as stated in subsection (1) may not be varied by agreement or a funds-transfer system rule. The right of a beneficiary to be notified as stated in subsection (2) may be varied by agreement of the beneficiary or by a funds-transfer system rule if the beneficiary is notified of the rule before initiation of the funds transfer.

Section 218. Payment by beneficiary's bank to beneficiary. (1) If the beneficiary's bank credits an account of the beneficiary of a payment order, payment of the bank's obligation under [section 217(1)] occurs when and to the extent:

(a) the beneficiary is notified of the right to withdraw the credit;

(b) the bank lawfully applies the credit to a debt of the beneficiary; or

(c) funds with respect to the order are otherwise made available to the beneficiary by the bank.

(2) If the beneficiary's bank does not credit an account of the beneficiary of a payment order, the time when payment of the bank's obligation under [section 217(1)] occurs is governed by principles of law that determine when an obligation is satisfied.

(3) Except as stated in subsections (4) and (5), if the beneficiary's bank pays the beneficiary of a payment order under a condition to payment or agreement of the beneficiary giving the bank the right to recover payment from the beneficiary if the bank does not receive payment of the order, the condition to payment or agreement is not enforceable.

(4) (a) A funds-transfer system rule may provide that payments made to beneficiaries of funds transfers made through the system are provisional until receipt of payment by the beneficiary's bank of the payment order it accepted. A beneficiary's bank that makes a payment that is provisional under the rule is entitled to refund from the beneficiary if:

(i) the rule requires that both the beneficiary and the originator be given notice of the provisional nature of the payment before the funds transfer is initiated;

(ii) the beneficiary, the beneficiary's bank, and the originator's bank agreed to be bound by the rule; and

(iii) the beneficiary's bank did not receive payment of the payment order that it accepted.

(b) If the beneficiary is obliged to refund payment to the beneficiary's bank, acceptance of the payment order by the beneficiary's bank is nullified and no payment by the originator of the funds transfer to the beneficiary occurs under [section 219].

(5) This subsection applies to a funds transfer that includes a payment order transmitted over a funds-transfer system that nets obligations multilaterally among participants and has in effect a loss-sharing agreement among participants for the purpose of providing funds necessary to complete settlement of the obligations of one or more participants that do not meet their settlement obligations. If the beneficiary's bank in the funds transfer accepts a payment order and the system fails to complete settlement pursuant to its rules with respect to any payment order in the funds transfer:

(a) the acceptance by the beneficiary's bank is nullified and no person has any right or obligation based on the acceptance;

(b) the beneficiary's bank is entitled to recover payment from the beneficiary;

(c) no payment by the originator to the beneficiary occurs under [section 219]; and

(d) subject to [section 215(5)], each sender in the funds transfer is excused from its obligation to pay its payment order under [section 215(3)] because the funds transfer has not been completed.

Section 219. Payment by originator to beneficiary — discharge of underlying obligation. (1) Subject to [sections 207(5) and 218(4) and (5)], the originator of a funds transfer pays the beneficiary of the originator's payment order:

(a) at the time a payment order for the benefit of the beneficiary is accepted by the beneficiary's bank in the funds transfer; and

(b) in an amount equal to the amount of the order accepted by the beneficiary's bank but not more than the amount of the originator's order.

(2) (a) If payment under subsection (1) is made to satisfy an obligation, the obligation is discharged to the same extent discharge would result from payment to the beneficiary of the same amount in money, unless:

(i) the payment under subsection (1) was made by a means prohibited by the contract of the beneficiary with respect to the obligation;

(ii) the beneficiary, within a reasonable time after receiving notice of receipt of the order by the beneficiary's bank, notified the originator of the beneficiary's refusal of the payment;

(iii) funds with respect to the order were not withdrawn by the beneficiary or applied to a debt of the beneficiary; and

(iv) the beneficiary would suffer a loss that could reasonably have been avoided if payment had been made by a means complying with the contract.

(b) If payment by the originator does not result in discharge under this section, the originator is subrogated to the rights of the beneficiary to receive payment from the beneficiary's bank under [section 217(1)].

(3) For the purpose of determining whether discharge of an obligation occurs under subsection (2), if the beneficiary's bank accepts a payment order in an amount equal to the amount of the originator's payment order less charges of one or more receiving banks in the funds transfer, payment to the beneficiary is considered to be in the amount of the originator's order unless upon demand by the beneficiary the originator does not pay the beneficiary the amount of the deducted charges.

(4) Rights of the originator or of the beneficiary of a funds transfer under this section may be varied only by agreement of the originator and the beneficiary.

Section 220. Variation by agreement and effect of funds-transfer system rule. (1) Except as otherwise provided in [sections 189 through 226], the rights and obligations of a party to a funds transfer may be varied by agreement of the affected party.

(2) (a) "Funds-transfer system rule" means a rule of an association of banks:

(i) governing transmission of payment orders by means of a funds-transfer system of the association or rights and obligations with respect to those orders; or

(ii) to the extent the rule governs rights and obligations between banks that are parties to a funds transfer in which a federal reserve bank, acting as an intermediary bank, sends a payment order to the beneficiary's bank.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in [sections 189 through 226], a funds-transfer system rule governing rights and obligations between participating banks using the system may be effective even if the rule conflicts with [sections 189 through 226] and indirectly affects another party to the funds transfer that does not consent to the rule. A funds-transfer system rule may also govern rights and obligations of parties other than participating banks using the system to the extent stated in [sections 217(3), 218(4), and 226(3)].

Section 221. Creditor process served on receiving bank — setoff by beneficiary's bank. (1) As used in this section, "creditor process" means levy, attachment, garnishment, notice of lien, sequestration, or similar process issued by or on behalf of a creditor or other claimant with respect to an account.

(2) This subsection applies to creditor process with respect to an authorized account of the sender of a payment order if the creditor process is served on the receiving bank. For the purpose of determining rights with respect to the creditor process, if the receiving bank accepts the payment order, the balance in the authorized account is considered to be reduced by the amount of the payment order to the extent the bank did not otherwise receive payment of the order, unless the creditor process is served at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act on it before the bank accepts the payment order.

(3) If a beneficiary's bank has received a payment order for payment to the beneficiary's account in the bank, the following rules apply:

(a) The bank may credit the beneficiary's account. The amount credited may be set off against an obligation owed by the beneficiary to the bank or may be applied to satisfy creditor process served on the bank with respect to the account.

(b) The bank may credit the beneficiary's account and allow withdrawal of the amount credited unless creditor process with respect to the account is served at a time and in a manner affording the bank a reasonable opportunity to act to prevent withdrawal.

(c) If creditor process with respect to the beneficiary's account has been served and the bank has had a reasonable opportunity to act on it, the bank may not reject the payment order except for a reason unrelated to the service of process.

(4) Creditor process with respect to a payment by the originator to the beneficiary pursuant to a funds transfer may be served only on the beneficiary's bank with respect to the debt owed by that bank to the beneficiary. Any other bank served with the creditor process is not obliged to act with respect to the process.

Section 222. Injunction or restraining order with respect to funds transfer. (1) For proper cause and in compliance with applicable law, a court may restrain:

(a) a person from issuing a payment order to initiate a funds transfer;

(b) an originator's bank from executing the payment order of the originator; or

(c) the beneficiary's bank from releasing funds to the beneficiary or the beneficiary from withdrawing the funds.

(2) A court may not otherwise restrain a person from issuing a payment order, paying or receiving payment of a payment order, or otherwise acting with respect to a funds transfer.

Section 223. Order in which items and payment orders may be charged to account — order of withdrawals from account. (1) If a receiving bank has received more than one payment order of the sender or one or more payment orders and other items that are payable from the sender's account, the bank may charge the sender's account with respect to the various orders and items in any sequence.

(2) In determining whether a credit to an account has been withdrawn by the holder of the account or applied to a debt of the holder of the account, credits first made to the account are first withdrawn or applied.

Section 224. Preclusion of objection to debit of customer's account. If a receiving bank has received payment from its customer with respect to a payment order issued in the name of the customer as sender and accepted by the bank and the customer received notification reasonably identifying the order, the customer is precluded from asserting that the bank is not entitled to retain the payment unless the customer notifies the bank of the customer's objection to the payment within 1 year after the notification was received by the customer.

Section 225. Rate of interest. (1) If, under [sections 189 through 226], a receiving bank is obliged to pay interest with respect to a payment order issued to the bank, the amount payable may be determined:

(a) by agreement of the sender and receiving bank; or

(b) by a funds-transfer system rule if the payment order is transmitted through a funds-transfer system.

(2) If the amount of interest is not determined by an agreement or rule as stated in subsection (1), the amount is calculated by multiplying the applicable federal funds rate by the amount on which interest is payable and then multiplying the product by the number of days for which interest is payable. The applicable federal funds rate is the average of the federal funds rates published by the federal reserve bank of New York for each of the days for which interest is payable divided by 360. The federal funds rate for any day on which a published rate is not available is the same as the published rate for the next preceding day for which there is a published rate. If a receiving bank that accepted a payment order is required to refund payment to the sender of the order because the funds transfer was not completed, but the failure to complete was not due to any fault by the bank, the interest payable is reduced by a percentage equal to the reserve requirement on deposits of the receiving bank.

Section 226. Choice of law. (1) The following rules apply unless the affected parties otherwise agree or subsection (3) applies:

(a) The rights and obligations between the sender of a payment order and the receiving bank are governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the receiving bank is located.

(b) The rights and obligations between the beneficiary's bank and the beneficiary are governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the beneficiary's bank is located.

(c) The issue of when payment is made pursuant to a funds transfer by the originator to the beneficiary is governed by the law of the jurisdiction in which the beneficiary's bank is located.

(2) If the parties described in subsection (1) have made an agreement selecting the law of a particular jurisdiction to govern rights and obligations between each other, the law of that jurisdiction governs those rights and obligations, whether or not the payment order or the funds transfer bears a reasonable relation to that jurisdiction.

(3) (a) A funds-transfer system rule may select the law of a particular jurisdiction to govern:

(i) the rights and obligations between participating banks with respect to payment orders transmitted or processed through the system; or

(ii) the rights and obligations of some or all parties to a funds transfer any part of which is carried out by means of the system.

(b) A choice of law made pursuant to subsection (3)(a)(i) is binding on participating banks. A choice of law made pursuant to subsection (3)(a)(ii) is binding on the originator, other sender, or a receiving bank having notice that the funds-transfer system might be used in the funds transfer and of the choice of law by the system when the originator, other sender, or receiving bank issued or accepted a payment order. The beneficiary of a funds transfer is bound by the choice of law if, when the funds transfer is initiated, the beneficiary has notice that the funds-transfer system might be used in the funds transfer and of the choice of law by the system. The law of a jurisdiction selected pursuant to this subsection may govern, whether or not that law bears a reasonable relation to the matter in issue.

(4) In the event of inconsistency between an agreement under subsection (2) and a choice-of-law rule under subsection (3), the agreement under subsection (2) prevails.

(5) If a funds transfer is made by use of more than one funds-transfer system and there is inconsistency between choice-of-law rules of the systems, the matter in issue is governed by the law of the selected jurisdiction that has the most significant relationship to the matter in issue.

Section 227. What constitutes filing — duties of filing officer — information from filing officer. (1) Presentation of a notice or list of claimants for filing and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the notice or list by the filing officer constitutes filing under this chapter.

(2) The filing officer shall:

(a) mark each notice or list with a file number and with the date and hour of filing;

(b) hold the notice or list or a copy for public inspection;

(c) index the notice or list according to each name given for the seller and for the buyer; and

(d) note in the index the file number and the addresses of the seller and buyer given in the notice or list.

(3) If the person filing a notice or list furnishes the filing officer with a copy, the filing officer upon request shall note upon the copy the file number and date and hour of the filing of the original and send or deliver the copy to the person.

(4) The fee for filing and indexing and for stamping a copy furnished by the person filing to show the date and place of filing is 50 cents for the first page and 25 cents for each additional page. The fee for indexing each name more than two is $2.

(5) Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall issue a certificate showing whether any notice or list with respect to a particular seller or buyer is on file on the date and hour stated in the certificate. If a notice or list is on file, the certificate must give the date and hour of filing of each notice or list and the name and address of each seller, buyer, auctioneer, or liquidator. The fee for the certificate is $2 if the request for the certificate is in the standard form prescribed by the county clerk and recorder and otherwise is $5. Upon request of any person, the filing officer shall furnish a copy of any filed notice or list for a fee of 50 cents.

(6) The filing officer shall keep each notice or list for 2 years after it is filed.

Section 228. Section 30-9-113, MCA, is amended to read:

"30-9-113. Security interests arising under chapter on sales *or under chapter on leases. A security interest arising solely under the chapter on sales (chapter 2) or [sections 7 through 86] on leases ([sections 7 through 86]) is subject to the provisions of this chapter except that to the extent that and so long as the debtor does not have or does not lawfully obtain possession of the goods:

~~(a)~~(1) no security agreement is necessary to make the security interest enforceable; ~~and~~

~~(b)~~(2) no filing is required to perfect the security interest; and

~~(c)~~(3) the rights of the secured party on default by the debtor are governed*:*

(a) by the chapter on sales (chapter 2) in the case of a security interest arising solely under that chapter; or

(b) by [sections 7 through 86] on leases ([sections 7 through 86]) in the case of a security interest arising solely under [sections 7 through 86]."

Section 229. Section 27-1-717, MCA, is amended to read:

"27-1-717. Issuing a bad check or stopping payment — civil liability. (1) A person who issues a check, draft, or an order for the payment of money is liable for damages in a civil action as provided in subsection (2) to the person to whom the check, draft, or order is issued if the check, draft, or order is:

(a) dishonored for lack of funds or credit or because the issuer has no account with the drawee; or

(b) issued in partial or complete fulfillment of a valid and legally binding obligation and the issuer stops payment with the intent to fraudulently defeat a possessory lien or otherwise defraud the payee of the check.

(2) The amount of damages awarded pursuant to subsection (1) shall be an amount equal to the greater of $100 or three times the amount for which the check, draft, or order was issued. However, damages may not exceed the value of the check, draft, or order by more than $500.

(3) The remedy provided by this section is available only if:

(a) the person to whom the check, draft, or order was issued has made written demand, mailed to the last known address or the address shown on the check, to the drawer for payment of the amount of such check, draft, or order not less than 10 days before commencing the action; and

(b) the issuer has failed to tender an amount of money equal to the amount demanded prior to the commencement of the action.

(4) The remedy provided by this section:

(a) may be pursued notwithstanding the provisions of 27-1-312;

(b) may be pursued whether or not a criminal penalty is sought under 45-6-316 or any other statute providing a criminal penalty; and

(c) does not affect the ~~engagement~~ obligation of the drawer provided for in ~~30-3-413~~ [section 137] to pay the amount of the draft. However, in case of any inconsistency with the provisions of Title 30, chapter 3, the provisions of this section apply."

Section 230. Repealer. Sections 30-3-103, 30-3-106, 30-3-110, 30-3-112, 30-3-113, 30-3-116, 30-3-117, 30-3-118, 30-3-120, 30-3-121, 30-3-123, 30-3-201, 30-3-206, 30-3-207, 30-3-402, 30-3-408, 30-3-411, 30-3-416, 30-3-418, 30-3-501, 30-3-502, 30-3-503, 30-3-505, 30-3-506, 30-3-507, 30-3-509, 30-3-511, 30-3-602, 30-3-606, 30-3-701, 30-3-801, 30-3-802, 30-3-803, 30-3-804, 30-3-805, 30-4-109, 30-6-101, 30-6-102, 30-6-103, 30-6-104, 30-6-105, 30-6-106, 30-6-107, 30-6-108, 30-6-109, 30-6-110, 30-6-111, 30-9-111, 70-1-601, 70-1-602, 70-1-603, 70-1-604, 70-1-605, 70-1-606, 70-1-607, 70-1-608, 70-1-609, 70-1-610, 70-1-611, 70-8-101, 70-8-102, 70-8-103, and 70-8-104, MCA, are repealed.

Section 231. Codification instruction. (1) [Sections 7 through 86] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 30, chapters 1 through 9, and the provisions of Title 30, chapters 1 through 9, apply to [sections 7 through 86].

(2) [Sections 88, 91, 97 through 99, 101, 103, 106, 108, 109, 120, 122 through 124, 129, 135, 137, 138, 142, 143, 146, 148, and 154] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 30, chapter 3, and the provisions of Title 30, chapter 3, apply to [sections 88, 91, 97 through 99, 101, 103, 106, 108, 109, 120, 122 through 124, 129, 135, 137, 138, 142, 143, 146, 148, and 154].

(3) [Sections 159, 162, 163, 171, and 172] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 30, chapter 4, and the provisions of Title 30, chapter 4, apply to [sections 159, 162, 163, 171, and 172].

(4) [Sections 189 through 226] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 30, chapters 1 through 9, and the provisions of Title 30, chapters 1 through 9, apply to [sections 189 through 226].

(5) [Section 227] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 30, chapter 6, and the provisions of Title 30, chapter 6, apply to [section 227].

Section 232. Saving clause. [This act] does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, or proceedings that were begun before [the effective date of this act].

Approved April 10, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 411

[HB 741]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE NONPROFIT CORPORATE LAW; AMENDING SECTIONS 15-1-101, 33-17-211, 35-6-104, AND 35-6-201, MCA; REPEALING SECTIONS 35-2-102 THROUGH 35-2-112, 35-2-201 THROUGH 35-2-211, 35-2-301 THROUGH 35-2-304, 35-2-401 THROUGH 35-2-413, 35-2-501 THROUGH 35-2-509, 35-2-601 THROUGH 35-2-607, 35-2-701 THROUGH 35-2-706, 35-2-711 THROUGH 35-2-719, 35-2-801 THROUGH 35-2-819, 35-2-901 THROUGH 35-2-903, 35-2-1001, 35-2-1002, 35-2-1101 THROUGH 35-2-1106, AND 35-2-1201 THROUGH 35-2-1203, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE, AN APPLICABILITY DATE, AND A TERMINATION DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants authority to the secretary of state to establish fees and mandate the use of forms. The fees established by the secretary of state must be commensurate with the cost of the service performed. The forms adopted should be based on forms recommended by this bill.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Definitions. As used in [sections 1 through 168], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Approved by the members" means approved and ratified by the affirmative vote:

(a) of a majority of the votes represented and voting:

(i) at a meeting at which a quorum is present and the affirmative votes constitute a majority of the required quorum;

(ii) by a written ballot or written consent in conformity with [sections 1 through 168]; or

(iii) by the affirmative vote, written ballot, or written consent of the majority; and

(b) that includes the votes of all the members of any class, unit, or grouping that may be required by the articles, bylaws, or [sections 1 through 168] for any specified member action.

(2) "Articles of incorporation" or "articles" include amended and restated articles of incorporation and articles of merger.

(3) "Board" or "board of directors" means the board of directors except that a person or group of persons is not the board of directors because of powers delegated to that person or group pursuant to [section 75].

(4) "Bylaws" means the code, codes, or rules, other than the articles, adopted pursuant to [sections 1 through 168] for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation, regardless of the name or names by which the code, codes, or rules are designated.

(5) "Class" refers to a group of memberships that have the same rights with respect to voting, dissolution, redemption and transfer. For the purpose of this section, rights must be considered the same if they are determined by a formula applied uniformly.

(6) "Corporation" means a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation.

(7) "Delegates" means those persons elected or appointed to vote in a representative assembly for the election of a director or directors or on other matters.

(8) "Deliver" includes mail.

(9) "Directors" means individuals:

(a) designated in the articles or bylaws or elected by the incorporators and their successors; and

(b) elected or appointed by any other name or title to act as members of the board.

(10) "Distribution" means the payment of a dividend or any part of the income or profit of a corporation to its members, directors, or officers.

(11) "Domestic corporation" means a corporation.

(12) "Effective date of notice" has the meaning provided in [section 2(5)].

(13) "Employee" does not include an officer or director who is not otherwise employed by the corporation.

(14) "Entity" includes:

(a) a corporation and foreign corporation;

(b) a business corporation and foreign business corporation;

(c) a profit and nonprofit unincorporated association;

(d) a corporation sole;

(e) a business trust, an estate, a partnership, a trust, and two or more persons having a joint or common economic interest; and

(f) a state, the United States, and a foreign government.

(15) "File", "filed", or "filing" means filed in the office of the secretary of state.

(16) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation that is organized under a law other than the law of this state and that would be a nonprofit corporation if formed under the laws of this state.

(17) "Governmental subdivision" includes an authority, county, district, and municipality.

(18) "Includes" denotes a partial definition.

(19) "Individual" includes the estate of an incompetent individual.

(20) "Means" denotes a complete definition.

(21) (a) "Member" means, without regard to what a person is called in the articles or bylaws, a person or persons who, on more than one occasion and pursuant to a provision of a corporation's articles or bylaws, have the right to vote for the election of a director or directors.

(b) A person is not a member by virtue of any of the following:

(i) any rights the person has as a delegate;

(ii) any rights the person has to designate a director or directors; or

(iii) any rights the person has as a director.

(22) "Membership" refers to the rights and obligations a member or members have pursuant to a corporation's articles, bylaws, and [sections 1 through 168].

(23) "Mutual benefit corporation" means a domestic corporation designated as a mutual benefit corporation.

(24) "Notice" means that term as described in [section 2].

(25) "Person" includes any individual or entity.

(26) "Principal office" means the office, in the state or out of the state, that is designated in the annual report filed pursuant to [section 168] as the place where the principal office of a domestic or foreign corporation is located.

(27) "Proceeding" includes a civil suit and a criminal, administrative, and investigatory action.

(28) "Public benefit corporation" means a domestic corporation designated as a public benefit corporation.

(29) "Record date" means the date established under [sections 39 through 74] on which a corporation determines the identity of its members for the purposes of [sections 1 through 168].

(30) "Religious corporation" means a domestic corporation designated as a religious corporation.

(31) "Secretary" means the corporate officer to whom the board of directors has delegated responsibility under [section 95(2)] for custody of the minutes of the directors' and members' meetings and for authenticating the records of the corporation.

(32) "State", when referring to a part of the United States, includes:

(a) a state and commonwealth and their agencies and governmental subdivisions; and

(b) a territory and insular possession, their agencies, and governmental subdivisions of the United States.

(33) "United States" includes a district, an authority, a bureau, a commission, a department, and any other agency of the United States.

(34) "Vote" includes authorization by written ballot and written consent.

(35) (a) "Voting power" means the total number of votes entitled to be cast for the election of directors at the time the determination of voting power is made.

(b) The term excludes a vote that is contingent upon the happening of a condition or event that has not occurred at the time.

(c) When a class is entitled to vote as a class for directors, the determination of voting power of the class must be based on the percentage of the number of directors the class is entitled to elect out of the total number of authorized directors.

Section 2. Notice. (1) Notice under [sections 1 through 168] must be in writing unless oral notice is reasonable under the circumstances.

(2) (a) Notice may be communicated in person; by telephone, telegraph, teletype, facsimile, or other form of wire or wireless communication; or by mail or private carrier.

(b) If these forms of personal notice are impracticable, notice may be communicated by a newspaper of general circulation in the area where it is published or by radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication.

(3) Written notice by a domestic or foreign corporation to its members, if in a comprehensible form, is effective when mailed if it is mailed postpaid and correctly addressed to the member's address shown in the corporation's current record of members.

(4) Written notice to a domestic or foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may be addressed to:

(a) its registered agent at its registered office; or

(b) the corporation or its secretary at its principal office shown in its most recent annual report or, in the case of a foreign corporation that has not yet delivered an annual report, in its application for a certificate of authority.

(5) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (4), written notice, if in a comprehensible form, is effective at the earliest of the following:

(a) when received;

(b) 5 days after its deposit in the United States mail, as evidenced by the postmark, if it is mailed postpaid and with correct postage; or

(c) on the date shown on the return receipt, if it is sent by certified mail, return receipt requested, and the receipt is signed by or on behalf of the addressee.

(6) Oral notice is effective when communicated if it is communicated in a comprehensible manner.

(7) If [sections 1 through 168] prescribe notice requirements for particular circumstances, those requirements govern. If the articles of incorporation or bylaws prescribe notice requirements that are consistent with this section or other provisions of [sections 1 through 168], those requirements govern.

Section 3. Reservation of power to amend or repeal. The legislature has power to amend or repeal all or part of [sections 1 through 168] at any time, and all domestic and foreign corporations subject to [sections 1 through 168] are governed by the amendment or repeal.

Section 4. Filing requirements. All of the following requirements must be met before a document is entitled to be filed under this section by the secretary of state:

(1) A document that is required or permitted by [sections 1 through 168] to be filed in the office of the secretary of state must satisfy the requirements of this section and of any other section that adds to or varies these requirements.

(2) The document must contain the information required by [sections 1 through 168]. It may contain other information as well.

(3) The document must be typewritten or printed.

(4) The document must be in the English language. However, a corporate name need not be in English if it is written in English letters or Arabic or Roman numerals. The certificate of existence required of foreign corporations need not be in English if it is accompanied by a reasonably authenticated English translation.

(5) The document must be executed:

(a) by the presiding officer of its board of directors, its president, or another of its officers;

(b) if directors have not been selected or the corporation has not been formed, by an incorporator; or

(c) if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver, trustee, or other court-appointed fiduciary, by that fiduciary.

(6) The person executing the document shall sign it and state beneath or opposite the signature his name and the capacity in which the person signs. The document may but need not contain the corporate seal, an attestation by the secretary or an assistant secretary, or an acknowledgment, verification, or proof.

(7) The document must be in or on the prescribed form if the secretary of state has prescribed a mandatory form for a document under [section 6].

(8) The document must be delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing and must be accompanied by:

(a) one copy, except as provided in [sections 36 and 155];

(b) the correct filing fee; and

(c) any franchise tax, license fee, or penalty required by [sections 1 through 168], rules promulgated under [sections 1 through 168], or other law.

Section 5. Facsimile filing. (1) The secretary of state shall treat a facsimile copy of a document that is required or permitted to be filed under [sections 4 through 14] and the signatures on the facsimile copy in the same manner as an original for purposes of [sections 4 through 14] provided that the secretary of state receives the original document within 5 working days of the receipt of the facsimile copy. If all other requirements are met, the date of filing relates back to the date of receipt of the facsimile copy.

(2) A facsimile copy is entitled to be filed under this section if it is:

(a) produced by a method of transmission of images in which the image is scanned at the transmitter; and

(b) legible and the same size as the original.

(3) During the 5-day period referred to in subsection (1), the recorded facsimile copy constitutes constructive notice for all purposes of the original document.

(4) If the original document is not received within 5 working days of receipt of the facsimile copy as provided in subsection (1), the filing of the facsimile copy is void.

(5) A person who files a false document by facsimile copy is liable to an aggrieved party for three times the amount of damages resulting from the filing of the false document.

Section 6. Forms. (1) The secretary of state may by rule prescribe and furnish on request forms or computer formats for:

(a) an application for a certificate of existence;

(b) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state;

(c) a foreign corporation's application for a certificate of withdrawal;

(d) the annual report; and

(e) other documents required or permitted to be filed by [sections 1 through 168].

(2) If the secretary of state so requires, use of any of the forms or formats listed in subsection (1) is mandatory.

(3) The secretary of state may by rule prescribe and furnish on request forms or computer formats for other documents required or permitted to be filed by [sections 1 through 168], but their use is not mandatory.

Section 7. Fees for filing, copying, and services. (1) The secretary of state shall establish by rule fees for filing documents and issuing certificates as required by [sections 1 through 168].

(2) The secretary of state shall by rule establish fees for copying documents, priority handling, transmitting, or filing facsimile copies and for providing computer-generated information.

(3) The fees presented under this section must be reasonably related to the costs of processing the documents and preparing and providing the services. The secretary of state shall maintain records sufficient to support the fees established under this section.

Section 8. Effective date of document. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), a document is effective:

(a) at the time of filing on the date it is filed, as evidenced by the secretary of state's endorsement on the original document; or

(b) at the time specified in the document as its effective time on the date it is filed.

(2) A document may specify a delayed effective time and date, and if it does so the document becomes effective at the time and date specified. If a delayed effective date but no time is specified, the document is effective at the close of business on that date. A delayed effective date for a document may not be later than 90 days after the date it is filed.

Section 9. Correcting filed document. (1) A domestic or foreign corporation may correct a document filed by the secretary of state if the document:

(a) contains an incorrect statement; or

(b) was defectively executed, attested, sealed, verified, or acknowledged.

(2) A document is corrected:

(a) by preparing articles of correction that:

(i) describe the document, including its filing date, or have attached a copy of the document;

(ii) specify the incorrect statement and the reason it is incorrect or the manner in which the execution was defective; and

(iii) correct the incorrect statement or defective execution; and

(b) by delivering the articles of correction to the secretary of state.

(3) Articles of correction are effective on the effective date of the document they correct except as to persons relying on the uncorrected document and adversely affected by the correction. As to those persons, articles of correction are effective when filed.

Section 10. Filing duty of secretary of state. (1) If a document delivered to the office of the secretary of state for filing satisfies the applicable requirements of [sections 4 and 5], the secretary of state shall file it.

(2) The secretary of state shall file a document by stamping or otherwise endorsing "Filed", together with the secretary of state's name, official title, and the date and the time of receipt, on the original, the copy of the document, and the receipt for the filing fee. Except as provided in [sections 37 and 156], after filing a document, the secretary of state shall deliver the document copy to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative, together with the filing fee receipt or acknowledgment of receipt if no fee is required.

(3) Upon refusing to file a document, the secretary of state shall return it to the domestic or foreign corporation or its representative within 10 days after the document was delivered, together with a brief written explanation of the reason or reasons for the refusal.

(4) The secretary of state's duty concerning the documents under this section is ministerial. Filing or refusal to file a document does not:

(a) affect the validity or invalidity of the document in whole or in part;

(b) relate to the correctness or incorrectness of information contained in the document; or

(c) create a presumption that the document is valid or invalid or that information contained in the document is correct or incorrect.

Section 11. Appeal from secretary of state's refusal to file document. (1) If the secretary of state refuses to file a document delivered for filing to the secretary of state's office, the domestic or foreign corporation may appeal the refusal to the district court for the first judicial district. The appeal is commenced by petitioning the court to compel the filing of the document and by attaching to the petition the document and the secretary of state's explanation of the refusal to file.

(2) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to file the document or take other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

Section 12. Evidentiary effect of copy of filed document. A certificate attached to a copy of a document, bearing the secretary of state's signature, which may be in facsimile, and the seal of this state, is conclusive evidence that the original document is on file with the secretary of state.

Section 13. Certificate of existence. (1) A person may apply to the secretary of state to furnish a certificate of existence for a domestic or foreign corporation.

(2) The certificate of existence must set forth:

(a) the domestic corporation's corporate name or the foreign corporation's corporate name used in this state;

(b) (i) that the domestic corporation is incorporated under the laws of this state, the date of its incorporation, and the period of its duration if less than perpetual; or

(ii) that the foreign corporation is authorized to transact business in this state;

(c) that all fees, taxes, and penalties owed to this state have been paid, if:

(i) payment is reflected in the records of the secretary of state; and

(ii) nonpayment affects the good standing of the domestic or foreign corporation;

(d) that its most recent annual report required by [section 168] has been delivered to the secretary of state;

(e) that articles of dissolution have not been filed; and

(f) other facts of record in the office of the secretary of state that may be requested by the applicant.

(3) Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a certificate of existence issued by the secretary of state may be relied upon as conclusive evidence that the domestic or foreign corporation is in good standing in this state.

Section 14. Penalty for signing false documents. (1) The execution of any document that must be filed with the secretary of state under [sections 4 through 14] constitutes an affirmation, under the penalties of false swearing, by each person executing the document that the facts stated in the document are true.

(2) The secretary of state shall provide for the printing of a warning to this effect on each form prescribed by the secretary of state under [sections 1 through 168].

Section 15. Secretary of state — powers — rulemaking. (1) The secretary of state has the power reasonably necessary to perform the duties required of the secretary of state's office by [sections 1 through 168].

(2) The secretary of state may adopt rules to perform the duties required of the secretary of state under [sections 1 through 168], including establishing necessary fees.

Section 16. Designation of status of nonprofit corporations. (1) A domestic corporation must be designated as either a public benefit, mutual benefit, or religious corporation. The specific designation of a corporation is as follows:

(a) A corporation designated by its articles of incorporation as a public benefit corporation, a mutual benefit corporation, or a religious corporation is the type of corporation designated by its articles of incorporation.

(b) A corporation that is not designated by its articles of incorporation as a public benefit corporation, a mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation is the type of corporation designated in the annual report filed in 1995.

(2) A foreign corporation must be designated as either a foreign public benefit, foreign mutual benefit, or foreign religious corporation. The specific designation of a corporation is as follows:

(a) A foreign corporation designated by its articles of incorporation as a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation is the type of foreign corporation designated by its articles of incorporation.

(b) A foreign corporation not designated as provided in subsection (2)(a), but designated in its application for a certificate of authority, or any amendments of the application, as a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation is the type of foreign corporation it designated in its application for a certificate of authority.

(c) A foreign corporation not designated as provided in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b) is the type of corporation it designated in the annual report filed in 1995.

(3) A domestic or foreign corporation not designated as provided in subsections (1) and (2) must be designated pursuant to [section 173].

Section 17. Private foundations. (1) Except as otherwise determined by a court of competent jurisdiction, a corporation that is a private foundation as defined in section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986:

(a) shall distribute amounts for each taxable year at a time and in a manner as not to subject the corporation to tax under section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code;

(b) may not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(c) may not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code;

(d) may not make any taxable investments or expenditures as provided in sections 4944 and 4945 of the Internal Revenue Code; and

(e) may not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) All references in this section to sections of the Internal Revenue Code are to sections of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended from time to time, or to corresponding provisions of subsequent internal revenue laws of the United States.

Section 18. Judicial relief. (1) If for any reason it is impractical or impossible for a corporation to call or conduct a meeting of its members, delegates, or directors or to otherwise obtain their consent, in the manner prescribed by its articles, bylaws, or [sections 1 through 168], then upon petition of a director, officer, delegate, member, or the attorney general, the state district court for the judicial district in which the registered office is located may order that a meeting be called or that a written ballot or other form of obtaining the vote of members, delegates, or directors be authorized, in the manner the court finds fair and equitable under the circumstances.

(2) In an order issued pursuant to this section, the court shall provide for a method of notice reasonably designed to give actual notice to all persons who would be entitled to notice of a meeting held pursuant to the articles, bylaws, and [sections 1 through 168], whether or not the method results in actual notice to all persons entitled to notice or conforms to the notice requirements that would otherwise apply. In a proceeding under this section, the court may determine who the members or directors are.

(3) The order issued pursuant to this section may dispense with any requirement relating to the holding of or voting at meetings or obtaining votes, including any requirement as to quorums or as to the number or percentage of votes needed for approval, that would otherwise be imposed by the articles, bylaws, or [sections 1 through 168].

(4) Whenever practical, an order issued pursuant to this section must limit the subject matter of meetings or other forms of consent authorized to approve items, including amendments to the articles or bylaws, the resolution of which will or may enable the corporation to continue managing its affairs without further resort to this section. However, an order under this section may also authorize the obtaining of votes and approvals necessary for dissolution, merger, or sale of assets.

(5) A meeting or other method of obtaining the vote of members, delegates, or directors that is conducted pursuant to an order issued under this section and that complies with all the provisions of the order is for all purposes a valid meeting or vote, and has the same force and effect as if it complied with every requirement imposed by the articles, bylaws, and [sections 1 through 168].

Section 19. Attorney general. (1) Notice must be given to the attorney general of the commencement of any proceeding that [sections 1 through 168] authorizes the attorney general to bring but that has been commenced by another person.

(2) Whenever a provision of [sections 1 through 168] requires that notice be given to the attorney general before or after commencing a proceeding or permits the attorney general to commence a proceeding if no proceeding has been commenced, the attorney general may take appropriate action including but not limited to seeking injunctive relief. If a proceeding has been commenced by a person other than the attorney general, the attorney general may intervene, as of right, in the proceeding.

Section 20. Religious corporations — constitutional protections. If the religious doctrine governing the affairs of a religious corporation is inconsistent with the provisions of [sections 1 through 168] on the same subject, the religious doctrine controls to the extent required by the United States or the Montana constitutions.

Section 21. Incorporators. One or more persons may act as the incorporator or incorporators of a corporation by delivering articles of incorporation to the secretary of state for filing.

Section 22. Articles of incorporation. (1) The articles of incorporation must set forth:

(a) a corporate name for the corporation that satisfies the requirements of [section 31];

(b) a statement that:

(i) the corporation is a public benefit corporation;

(ii) the corporation is a mutual benefit corporation; or

(iii) the corporation is a religious corporation;

(c) (i) the street address of the corporation's initial registered office and, if different, the mailing address; and

(ii) the name of its initial registered agent at that office;

(d) the name and address of each incorporator;

(e) whether or not the corporation will have members; and

(f) provisions consistent with law regarding the distribution of assets on dissolution.

(2) The articles of incorporation may set forth:

(a) the purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized, which may be, either alone or in combination with other purposes, the transaction of any lawful activity;

(b) the names and addresses of the individuals who are to serve as the initial directors;

(c) provisions consistent with law regarding:

(i) managing and regulating the affairs of the corporation;

(ii) defining, limiting, and regulating the powers of the corporation, its board of directors, its members, or any class of members; and

(iii) the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations attaching to each or any class of members;

(d) any provision that under [sections 1 through 168] is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws; and

(e) provisions eliminating or limiting the personal liability of a director to the corporation or members of the corporation for monetary damages for breach of a director's duties to the corporation and its members, provided that the provision may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

(i) for a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its members;

(ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

(iii) for a transaction from which a director derived an improper personal economic benefit; or

(iv) under [sections 92 through 94].

(3) A provision referred to in subsection (2)(e) may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director for any act or omission occurring prior to the date when the provision becomes effective.

(4) Each incorporator and director named in the articles shall sign the articles.

(5) The articles of incorporation need not set forth any of the corporate powers enumerated in [sections 1 through 168].

Section 23. Incorporation. (1) Unless a delayed effective date is specified, the corporate existence begins when the articles of incorporation are filed by the secretary of state.

(2) The secretary of state's filing of the articles of incorporation is conclusive proof that the incorporators have satisfied all conditions precedent to incorporation except in a proceeding by the state to cancel or revoke the incorporation or involuntarily dissolve the corporation.

Section 24. Liability for preincorporation transactions. A person who purports to act as or on behalf of a corporation but who knows that there was no incorporation under [sections 1 through 168] is jointly and severally liable for all liabilities created while so acting.

Section 25. Organization of corporation. (1) After incorporation:

(a) if initial directors are named in the articles of incorporation, the initial directors shall hold an organizational meeting, at the call of a majority of the directors, to complete the organization of the corporation by appointing officers, adopting bylaws, and carrying on any other business brought before the meeting; or

(b) if initial directors are not named in the articles, the incorporator or incorporators shall hold an organizational meeting at the call of a majority of the incorporators:

(i) to elect directors and complete the organization of the corporation; or

(ii) to elect a board of directors who shall complete the organization of the corporation.

(2) Action required or permitted by [sections 1 through 168] to be taken by incorporators at an organizational meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action taken is evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken and signed by each incorporator.

(3) An organizational meeting may be held in the state or out of the state in accordance with [section 85].

Section 26. Bylaws. (1) The incorporators or board of directors of a corporation shall adopt bylaws for the corporation.

(2) The bylaws may contain any provision for regulating and managing the affairs of the corporation consistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

Section 27. Emergency bylaws and powers. (1) Unless the articles provide otherwise, the directors of a corporation may adopt, amend, or repeal bylaws to be effective only in an emergency as defined in subsection (4). The emergency bylaws, which are subject to amendment or repeal by the members, may provide special procedures necessary for managing the corporation during the emergency, including:

(a) how to call a meeting of the board;

(b) quorum requirements for the meeting; and

(c) designation of additional or substitute directors.

(2) All provisions of the regular bylaws consistent with the emergency bylaws remain in effect during the emergency. The emergency bylaws are not in effect after the emergency ends.

(3) Corporate action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws:

(a) binds the corporation; and

(b) may not be used to impose liability on a corporate director, officer, employee, or agent.

(4) For purposes of this section, an emergency exists if a quorum of the corporation's directors cannot readily be assembled because of some catastrophic event.

Section 28. Purposes. (1) A corporation incorporated under [sections 1 through 168] has the purpose of engaging in any lawful activity unless a more limited purpose is set forth in the articles of incorporation.

(2) A corporation engaging in an activity that is subject to regulation under another statute of this state may incorporate under [sections 1 through 168] only if the incorporation under [sections 1 through 168] is not prohibited by the other statute. The corporation is subject to all limitations of the other statute.

Section 29. General powers. (1) Unless its articles of incorporation provide otherwise, a corporation has perpetual duration and succession in its corporate name and has the same powers as an individual to do all things necessary or convenient to carry out its affairs including, without limitation, power:

(a) to sue and be sued, complain, and defend in its corporate name;

(b) to have a corporate seal, which may be altered at will, and to use it or a facsimile of the seal by impressing, affixing, or in any other manner reproducing it;

(c) to make and amend bylaws, consistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for regulating and managing the affairs of the corporation;

(d) to purchase, receive, lease, or otherwise acquire and to own, hold, improve, use, and otherwise deal with real or personal property or any legal or equitable interest in property, wherever located;

(e) to sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property;

(f) to purchase, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire any other entity; to own, hold, vote, use, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of any other entity; and to deal in and with shares or other interests in or obligations of any other entity;

(g) to make contracts and guaranties; to incur liabilities; to borrow money; to issue notes, bonds, and other obligations; and to secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of any of its property, franchises, or income;

(h) to lend money, invest and reinvest its funds, and receive and hold real and personal property as security for repayment, except as limited by [section 93];

(i) to be a promoter, partner, member, associate, or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust, or other entity;

(j) to conduct its activities, locate offices, and exercise the powers granted by [sections 1 through 168] in the state or out of the state;

(k) to elect or appoint directors, officers, employees, and agents of the corporation; to define their duties; and to fix their compensation;

(l) to pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, and other benefit and incentive plans for any or all of its current or former directors, officers, employees, and agents;

(m) to make donations consistent with law for the public welfare or for charitable, religious, scientific, or educational purposes and for other purposes that further the corporate interest;

(n) to impose dues, assessments, admission, and transfer fees upon its members;

(o) to establish conditions for admission of members, admit members, and issue memberships;

(p) to carry on a business; or

(q) to do all things necessary or convenient consistent with law to further the activities and affairs of the corporation.

(2) A corporation may not have or issue shares of stock.

Section 30. Ultra vires. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the validity of corporate action may not be challenged on the ground that the corporation lacks or lacked power to act.

(2) A corporation's power to act may be challenged in a proceeding against the corporation to enjoin an act when a third party has not acquired rights. The proceeding may be brought by the attorney general, by a director, or by a member or members in a derivative proceeding.

(3) (a) A corporation's power to act may be challenged in a proceeding against an incumbent or former director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation.

(b) The proceeding may be brought:

(i) by a director;

(ii) by the corporation, directly, derivatively, or through a receiver, a trustee, or other legal representative; or

(iii) in the case of a public benefit corporation, by the attorney general.

Section 31. Corporate name. (1) A corporate name may not contain language stating or implying that the corporation is organized for a purpose other than that permitted by [section 28] and its articles of incorporation.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), a corporate name must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to do business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under [section 32 or 33] or Title 35, chapter 1;

(c) the fictitious name of a foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state because its real name is unavailable;

(d) the corporate name of a domestic business or nonprofit corporation that has been dissolved, but only distinguishable for a period of 120 days after the effective date of the dissolution; or

(e) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use a name that is not distinguishable in the secretary of state's records from one or more of the names described in subsection (2). The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A corporation may use the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to do business in this state and the proposed user corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) [Sections 1 through 168] do not control the use of fictitious names.

Section 32. Reserved name. (1) A person may reserve the exclusive use of a corporate name, including a fictitious name for a foreign corporation whose corporate name is not available, by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. Upon finding that the corporate name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for a nonrenewable 120-day period.

(2) The owner of a reserved corporate name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice of the transfer that states the name and address of the transferee.

Section 33. Registered name of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation may register its corporate name, or its corporate name with any change required by [section 152], if the name is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to do business in this state; and

(b) a corporate name reserved under [section 32], Title 35, chapter 1, or registered under this section.

(2) A foreign corporation shall register its corporate name, or its corporate name with any change required by [section 152], by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, an application:

(a) setting forth its corporate name or its corporate name with any change required by [section 152], the state or country, the date of its incorporation, and a brief description of the nature of the activities in which it is engaged; and

(b) accompanied by a certificate of existence, or a similar document, from the state or country of incorporation.

(3) The name is registered for the applicant's exclusive use on the effective date of the application.

(4) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may renew it for successive years by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a renewal application that complies with the requirements of subsection (2). The renewal application must be delivered between October 1 and December 31 of the preceding year. The renewal application renews the registration for the following calendar year.

(5) A foreign corporation whose registration is effective may continue to qualify as a foreign corporation under that name or consent in writing to the use of that name by a corporation later incorporated under [sections 1 through 168] or by another foreign corporation later authorized to transact business in this state. The registration terminates when the foreign corporation is incorporated as a domestic corporation or the foreign corporation qualifies or consents to the qualification of another foreign corporation under the registered name.

Section 34. Registered name and registered agent. Each corporation shall continuously maintain in this state:

(1) a registered office with the same address as that of the registered agent; and

(2) a registered agent, who must be one of the following:

(a) an individual who resides in this state and whose office is identical to the registered office;

(b) a domestic business or nonprofit corporation whose office is identical to the registered office; or

(c) a foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state whose office is identical to the registered office.

Section 35. Change of registered office or registered agent. (1) A corporation may change its registered office or registered agent by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement of change that sets forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the street address of its current registered office and, if different, the mailing address;

(c) if the current registered office is to be changed, the street address of the new registered office, and, if different, the mailing address;

(d) the name of its current registered agent;

(e) if the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of the new registered agent and the new agent's written consent to the appointment, either on the statement or attached to it; and

(f) that after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office and the office of its registered agent will be identical.

(2) If the street address of a registered agent's office is changed, the registered agent may change the street address of the registered office of any corporation for which the registered agent is the registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of the change and by signing, either manually or in facsimile, and delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement that complies with the requirements of subsection (1) and that states that the corporation has been notified of the change.

Section 36. Resignation of registered agent. (1) A registered agent may resign as registered agent by signing and delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, the original and two copies of a statement of resignation. The statement may include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued.

(2) After filing the statement, the secretary of state shall mail one copy to the registered office, if not discontinued, and the other copy to the corporation at its principal office as shown in the most recent annual report filed pursuant to [section 168].

(3) The agency appointment is terminated, and the registered office discontinued, if so provided, 31 days after the date on which the statement was filed.

Section 37. Service of process on corporation. (1) Service of process on a corporation must be made upon the persons and in the manner provided by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) The following are to be considered trustees for the corporation and its members, for the purpose of service or demand, on a corporation dissolved pursuant to [sections 34 through 57]:

(a) in the case of a dissolution, any one of those persons designated as trustees for service of process pursuant to a filing made with the secretary of state or, if no filing is made, any one of the directors or officers of the corporation listed in the annual report most recently filed with the secretary of state; or

(b) in the case of an involuntary dissolution or expiration of a corporation's term:

(i) any one of those persons designated as receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(ii) any one of the directors or officers of the corporation listed in the annual report most recently filed with the secretary of state.

Section 38. Demand on or notice to corporation. (1) This section applies when a demand or notice is required or permitted by law, but the demand or notice is not required to be served in accordance with the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

(2) A corporation's registered agent is the corporation's agent for demand or notice required or permitted by law.

(3) If a corporation has no registered agent or the agent cannot with reasonable diligence be served, the demand may be made or the corporation may be notified by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the secretary of the corporation at its principal office. The demand or notice is perfected under this subsection at the earliest of:

(a) the date the corporation receives the mail;

(b) the date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of the corporation; or

(c) 5 days after its deposit in the United States mail if it is mailed postpaid and correctly addressed.

Section 39. Admission. (1) The articles or bylaws may establish criteria or procedures for admission of members.

(2) A person may not be admitted as a member without his consent.

Section 40. Consideration. Except as provided in its articles or bylaws, a corporation may admit members for no consideration or for consideration determined by the board.

Section 41. No requirement of members. A corporation is not required to have members.

Section 42. Differences in rights and obligations of members. All members have the same rights and obligations with respect to voting, dissolution, redemption, and transfer unless the articles or bylaws establish classes of membership with different rights or obligations. All members have the same rights and obligations with respect to any other matters, except as set forth in or authorized by the articles or bylaws.

Section 43. Transfers. (1) Except as set forth in or authorized by the articles or bylaws, a member of a mutual benefit corporation may not transfer a membership or any right arising from a membership.

(2) A member of a public benefit or religious corporation may not transfer a membership or any right arising from a membership.

(3) When transfer rights have been provided, a restriction on them is not binding on a member holding a membership issued prior to the adoption of the restriction unless the restriction is approved by the members and the affected member.

Section 44. Member's liability to third parties. A member of a corporation is not, as a member, personally liable for the acts, debts, liabilities, or obligations of the corporation.

Section 45. Member's liability for dues, assessments, and fees. A member may become liable to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees. However, an article or bylaw provision or a resolution adopted by the board authorizing or imposing dues, assessments, or fees does not, of itself, create liability.

Section 46. Creditor's action against member. (1) A proceeding may not be brought by a creditor to reach the liability, if any, of a member to the corporation unless final judgment has been rendered in favor of the creditor against the corporation and execution has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part or unless further proceeding would be useless.

(2) All creditors of the corporation, with or without reducing their claims to judgment, may intervene in any creditor's proceeding brought under subsection (1) to reach and apply unpaid amounts due the corporation. Any or all members who owe amounts to the corporation may be joined in the proceeding.

Section 47. Resignation. (1) A member may resign at any time.

(2) The resignation of a member does not relieve the member from any obligations the member may have to the corporation as a result of obligations incurred or commitments made prior to resignation.

Section 48. Termination, expulsion, and suspension. (1) A member of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation may not be expelled or suspended and membership in these corporations may not be terminated or suspended except pursuant to a procedure that is fair and reasonable and is carried out in good faith.

(2) A procedure is fair and reasonable when either:

(a) the articles or bylaws set forth a procedure that provides:

(i) not less than 15 days' prior written notice of the expulsion, suspension, or termination and the reasons for it; and

(ii) an opportunity for the member to be heard, orally or in writing, not less than 5 days before the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination by a person or persons authorized to decide that the proposed expulsion, termination, or suspension not take place; or

(b) it takes into consideration all relevant facts and circumstances.

(3) A written notice given by mail must be given by first-class or certified mail sent to the last address of the member shown on the corporation's records.

(4) A proceeding that challenges an expulsion, suspension, or termination, including a proceeding in which defective notice is alleged, must be commenced within 1 year after the effective date of the expulsion, suspension, or termination.

(5) A member who has been expelled or suspended may be liable to the corporation for dues, assessments, or fees as a result of obligations incurred or commitments made prior to the expulsion or suspension.

Section 49. Purchase of memberships. (1) A public benefit corporation or religious corporation may not purchase any of its memberships or any right arising from membership.

(2) A mutual benefit corporation may purchase the membership of a member who resigns or whose membership is terminated for the amount and pursuant to the conditions set forth in or authorized by its articles or bylaws. A payment may not be made in violation of [sections 132 and 133].

Section 50. Standing. (1) For purposes of [sections 50 through 56], "derivative proceeding" means a civil suit in the right of a domestic corporation or, to the extent provided in [section 56], in the right of a foreign corporation.

(2) A derivative proceeding may be commenced or maintained by a complainant who is:

(a) a director at the time of the bringing of the proceeding; or

(b) a member or members having 5% or more of the voting power or by 50 members, whichever is less. Each member must be a member at the time of the proceeding, including the time of the complained act or omission.

Section 51. Demand. A complainant may not commence a derivative proceeding until:

(1) a written demand has been made upon the corporation to take suitable action;

(2) 90 days have expired from the date the demand was made, unless the complainant has earlier been notified that the demand has been rejected by the corporation or unless irreparable injury to the corporation would result by waiting for the expiration of the 90-day period; and

(3) the complainant has notified the attorney general prior to commencing a proceeding if the proceeding involves a public benefit corporation or assets held in charitable trust by a mutual benefit corporation. Notification of the attorney general must be made by mailing the attorney general a copy of the complaint.

Section 52. Stay of proceedings. If the corporation commences an inquiry into the allegations made in the demand or complaint, the court may stay any derivative proceeding for any period the court considers appropriate.

Section 53. Dismissal. (1) The court shall dismiss a derivative proceeding on motion by the corporation if one of the groups specified in subsection (2) or (6) has determined in good faith, after conducting a reasonable inquiry upon which its conclusions are based, that the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is not in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) Unless a panel is appointed pursuant to subsection (6), the determination in subsection (1) must be made by:

(a) a majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors if independent directors constitute a quorum; or

(b) a majority vote of a committee consisting of two or more independent directors appointed by majority vote of independent directors present at a meeting of the board of directors, whether or not the independent directors constitute a quorum.

(3) None of the following may by itself cause a director to be considered not independent for purposes of this section:

(a) the nomination or election of the director by persons who are defendants in the derivative proceeding or against whom action is demanded;

(b) the naming of the director as a defendant in the derivative proceeding or as a defendant against whom action is demanded; or

(c) the approval by the director of the act being challenged in the derivative proceeding or demand if the act did not result in personal benefit to the director.

(4) If a derivative proceeding is commenced after a determination has been made rejecting a demand by a complainant, the complaint must allege with particularity facts establishing either that a majority of the board of directors did not consist of independent directors at the time the determination was made or, that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(5) If a majority of the board of directors does not consist of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the corporation has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have been met. If a majority of the board of directors consists of independent directors at the time the determination is made, the complainant has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

(6) Upon motion by the corporation, the court may appoint a panel of one or more independent persons to make a determination of whether the maintenance of the derivative proceeding is in the best interests of the corporation. In this case, the plaintiff has the burden of proving that the requirements of subsection (1) have not been met.

Section 54. Discontinuance or settlement — notice. A derivative proceeding may not be discontinued or settled without the court's approval. If the court determines that a proposed discontinuance or settlement will substantially affect the interests of the corporation's members or a class of members, the court shall direct that notice be given to the members affected.

Section 55. Payment of expenses. On termination of the derivative proceeding, the court may order:

(1) the corporation to pay the complainant's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding has resulted in a substantial benefit to the corporation; or

(2) the complainant to pay any defendant's reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred in defending the proceeding if it finds that the proceeding was commenced or maintained without reasonable cause or for an improper purpose.

Section 56. Applicability to foreign corporations. In a derivative proceeding in the right of a foreign corporation, the matter covered by [sections 50 through 56] is governed by the laws of the jurisdiction of incorporation of the foreign corporation, except for [sections 52, 54, and 55].

Section 57. Delegates. (1) A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for delegates who have some or all of the authority of members.

(2) The articles or bylaws may set forth provisions relating to:

(a) the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of delegates including their selection and removal;

(b) calling, noticing, holding, and conducting meetings of delegates; and

(c) carrying on corporate activities during and between meetings of delegates.

Section 58. Annual and regular meetings. (1) A corporation with members shall hold a membership meeting annually at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(2) A corporation with members may hold regular membership meetings at the times stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws.

(3) Annual and regular membership meetings may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, annual and regular meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(4) At the annual meeting:

(a) the president and chief financial officer shall report on the activities and financial condition of the corporation; and

(b) the members shall consider and act upon other matters that are raised consistent with the notice and voting requirements of [sections 62 and 69(2)].

(5) At regular meetings, the members shall consider and act upon matters raised consistent with the notice and voting requirements of [sections 62 and 69(2)].

(6) The failure to hold an annual or regular meeting at a time stated in or fixed in accordance with a corporation's bylaws does not affect the validity of any corporate action.

(7) If the corporation has 50 or fewer members and if permitted by the bylaws, members may participate in a meeting of the members by means of a conference telephone call or similar communication equipment through which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation in this manner constitutes presence in person at a meeting.

Section 59. Special meeting. (1) A corporation with members shall hold a special meeting of members:

(a) on the call of its board or of the person authorized to do so by the articles or bylaws; or

(b) except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation, if the holders of at least 5% of the voting power of any corporation sign, date, and deliver to any corporate officer one or more written demands for the meeting that describe the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held.

(2) For purposes of determining whether the 5% requirement of subsection (1) has been met, the record date is at the close of business on the 30th day before delivery of the demand or demands for a special meeting to any corporate officer.

(3) If a notice for a special meeting demanded under subsection (1)(b) is not given pursuant to [section 62] within 30 days after the date the written demand is delivered to a corporate officer, regardless of the requirements of subsection (4), a person signing the demand or demands may set the time and place of the meeting and give notice pursuant to [section 62].

(4) Special meetings of members may be held in the state or out of the state, at the place stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. If a place is not stated or fixed in accordance with the bylaws, special meetings must be held at the corporation's principal office.

(5) Only those matters that are within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice required by [section 62] may be conducted at a special meeting of members.

Section 60. Court-ordered meeting. (1) The district court for the judicial district of the county where a corporation's principal office is located, or, if the principal office is not located in this state, where its registered office is located may summarily order a meeting to be held:

(a) on application of a member or other person entitled to participate in an annual or regular meeting and, in the case of a public benefit corporation, the attorney general, if an annual meeting was not held within the earlier of 6 months after the end of the corporation's fiscal year or 15 months after its last annual meeting;

(b) on application of a member or other person entitled to participate in a regular meeting and, in the case of a public benefit corporation, the attorney general, if a regular meeting is not held within 40 days after the date it was required to be held; or

(c) on application of a member who signed a demand for a special meeting valid under [section 59], a person entitled to call a special meeting and, in the case of a public benefit corporation, the attorney general, if:

(i) notice of the special meeting was not given within 30 days after the date the demand was delivered to a corporate officer; or

(ii) the special meeting was not held in accordance with the notice.

(2) The court may fix the time and place of the meeting, specify a record date for determining members entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting, prescribe the form and content of the meeting notice, fix the quorum required for specific matters to be considered at the meeting or direct that the votes represented at the meeting constitute a quorum for action on those matters, and enter other orders necessary to accomplish the purpose or purposes of the meeting.

(3) If the court orders a meeting, it may also order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order.

Section 61. Action by written consent. (1) Unless limited or prohibited by the articles or bylaws, action required or permitted by [sections 1 through 168] to be approved by the members may be approved without a meeting of members if the action is approved by members holding at least 80% of the voting power. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents that describe the action taken, be signed by those members representing at least 80% of the voting power, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) If not otherwise determined under [section 60 or 64], the record date for determining members entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first member signs the consent under subsection (1).

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a vote in any document filed with the secretary of state.

(4) Written notice of member approval pursuant to this section must be given to all members who have not signed the written consent. If written notice is required, member approval pursuant to this section is effective 10 days after written notice is given.

Section 62. Notice of meeting. (1) A corporation shall give notice consistent with its bylaws of meetings of members in a fair and reasonable manner.

(2) Any notice that conforms to the requirements of subsection (3) is fair and reasonable, but other means of giving notice may also be fair and reasonable when all the circumstances are considered. However, notice of matters referred to in subsection (3)(b) must be given as specified in subsection (3).

(3) Notice is fair and reasonable if:

(a) the corporation notifies its members of the place, date, and time of each annual, regular, and special meeting of members not less than 10 days before the meeting date or, if notice is mailed by certified mail, not less than 30 or more than 60 days before the meeting date;

(b) notice of an annual or regular meeting includes a description of any matter or matters that must be approved by the members under [sections 92, 107, 112, 119, 126, 131, 134, or 135]; and

(c) notice of a special meeting includes a description of the matter or matters for which the meeting is called.

(4) Unless the bylaws require otherwise, if an annual, regular, or special meeting of members is adjourned to a different date, time, or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time, or place, if the new date, time, or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment. If a new record date for the adjourned meeting is or must be fixed under [section 64], notice of the adjourned meeting must be given under this section to the members of record as of the new record date.

(5) When giving notice of an annual, regular, or special meeting of members, a corporation shall give notice of a matter a member intends to raise at the meeting if:

(a) requested in writing to do so by a person entitled to call a special meeting; and

(b) the request is received by the secretary or president of the corporation at least 10 days before the corporation gives notice of the meeting.

Section 63. Waiver of notice. (1) A member may waive a notice required by [sections 1 through 168], the articles, or bylaws before or after the date and time stated in the notice. The waiver must be in writing, be signed by the member entitled to the notice, and be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

(2) A member's attendance at a meeting:

(a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting unless the member, at the beginning of the meeting, objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and

(b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice unless the member objects to considering the matter when it is presented.

Section 64. Record date — determining members entitled to notice and vote. (1) The bylaws of a corporation may fix or provide the manner of fixing a date as the record date for determining the members entitled to notice of a members' meeting. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board may fix a future date as the record date. If a record date is not fixed, members are entitled to notice of the meeting:

(a) at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which notice is given; or

(b) if notice is waived, at the close of business on the business day preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

(2) The bylaws of a corporation may fix or provide the manner of fixing a date as the record date for determining the members entitled to vote at a members' meeting. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board may fix a future date as the record date. If a record date is not fixed, members on the date of the meeting who are otherwise eligible to vote are entitled to vote at the meeting.

(3) The bylaws may fix or provide the manner for determining a date as the record date for the purpose of determining the members entitled to exercise any rights in respect of any other lawful action. If the bylaws do not fix or provide for fixing a record date, the board may fix in advance the record date. If a record date is not fixed, members are entitled to exercise the rights at the close of business on the day on which the board adopts the resolution relating to it or 60 days prior to the date of other action, whichever is later.

(4) A record date fixed under this section may not be more than 70 days before the meeting or action requiring a determination of members occurs.

(5) A determination of members entitled to notice of or to vote at a membership meeting is effective for any adjournment of the meeting unless the board fixes a new date for determining the right to notice or the right to vote, which it must do if the meeting is adjourned to a date more than 70 days after the record date for determining members entitled to notice of the original meeting.

(6) If a court orders a meeting adjourned to a date more than 120 days after the date fixed for the original meeting, it may provide that the original record date for notice or voting continues in effect or it may fix a new record date for notice or voting.

Section 65. Action by written ballot. (1) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, any action that may be taken at any annual, regular, or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter.

(2) A written ballot must:

(a) set forth each proposed action; and

(b) provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(3) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section is valid only when:

(a) the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action; and

(b) the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the total number of votes cast was the same as the number of votes cast by ballot.

(4) All solicitations for votes by written ballot must:

(a) indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements;

(b) state the percentage of approvals necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors; and

(c) specify the time by which a ballot must be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a written ballot may not be revoked.

Section 66. Members' list for meeting. (1) After fixing a record date for a notice of a meeting, a corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the names of all its members who are entitled to notice of the meeting. The list must show the address and number of votes each member is entitled to vote at the meeting. The corporation shall prepare, on a current basis through the time of the membership meeting, a list of members, if any, who are entitled to vote at the meeting but not entitled to notice of the meeting. This list must be prepared on the same basis and be part of the list of members.

(2) The list of members must be available:

(a) for inspection by any member for the purpose of communication with other members concerning the meeting, beginning 2 business days after notice is given of the meeting for which the list was prepared and continuing through the meeting; and

(b) at the corporation's principal office or at a reasonable place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held. A member, a member's agent, or a member's attorney is entitled, on written demand, to inspect and, subject to the limitations of [sections 162(3) and 165] to copy the list, at a reasonable time and at the member's expense, during the period it is available for inspection.

(3) The corporation shall make the list of members available at the meeting, and any member, a member's agent, or a member's attorney is entitled to inspect the list at any time during the meeting or any adjournment.

(4) If the corporation refuses to allow a member, a member's agent, or a member's attorney to inspect the list of members before or at the meeting or to copy the list as permitted by subsection (2), the district court for the judicial district of the county where a corporation's principal office or, if the principal office is not located in this state, where its registered office is located, on application of the member, may summarily order the inspection or copying at the corporation's expense, may postpone the meeting for which the list was prepared until the inspection or copying is complete, and may order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order.

(5) Unless a written demand to inspect and copy a membership list has been made under subsection (2) prior to the membership meeting and a corporation improperly refuses to comply with the demand, refusal or failure to comply with this section does not affect the validity of action taken at the meeting.

(6) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may limit or abolish the rights of a member under this section to inspect and copy any corporate record.

Section 67. Voting entitlement generally. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, each member is entitled to one vote on each matter voted on by the members.

(2) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if a membership stands of record in the names of two or more persons, their acts with respect to voting have the following effect:

(a) if only one votes, the act binds all; and

(b) if more than one votes, the vote is divided on a pro rata basis.

Section 68. Quorum requirements. (1) Unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, or bylaws provide for a higher or lower quorum, 10% of the votes entitled to be cast on a matter must be represented at a meeting of members to constitute a quorum on that matter.

(2) A bylaw amendment to decrease the quorum for any member action may be approved by the members or, unless prohibited by the bylaws, by the board.

(3) A bylaw amendment to increase the quorum required for any member action must be approved by the members.

(4) Unless one-third or more of the voting power is present in person or by proxy, the only matters that may be voted upon at an annual or regular meeting of members are those matters that are described in the meeting notice.

Section 69. Voting requirements. (1) Unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, or bylaws require a greater vote or voting by class, if a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of the votes represented and voting, if they are a majority of the required quorum, is the act of the members.

(2) A bylaw amendment to increase or decrease the vote required for any member action must be approved by the members.

Section 70. Proxies. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws prohibit or limit proxy voting, a member may appoint a proxy to vote or otherwise act for the member by signing an appointment form, either personally or by an attorney-in-fact.

(2) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form. However, a proxy is not valid for more than 3 years from its date of execution.

(3) An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member.

(4) The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(5) Appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

(a) attending any meeting and voting in person; or

(b) signing and delivering to the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a subsequent appointment form.

(6) Subject to [section 73] and any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the member who made the appointment.

Section 71. Cumulative voting for directors — exception. (1) If the articles or bylaws provide for cumulative voting by members, members may so vote by multiplying the number of votes the members are entitled to cast by the number of directors for whom they are entitled to vote and casting the product for a single candidate or distributing the product among two or more candidates.

(2) Cumulative voting is not authorized at a particular meeting unless:

(a) the meeting notice or statement accompanying the notice states that cumulative voting will take place; or

(b) a member gives notice during the meeting and before the vote is taken of the member's intent to cumulate votes. If one member gives this notice, all other members participating in the election are entitled to cumulate their votes without giving further notice.

(3) A director elected by cumulative voting may be removed by the members without cause if the requirements of [section 80] are met unless the votes cast against removal or not consenting in writing to removal would be sufficient to elect the director if voted cumulatively at an election at which the same total number of votes were cast or, if the action is taken by written ballot, all memberships entitled to vote were voted, and if the entire number of directors authorized at the time of the director's most recent election were then being elected.

(4) Members may not cumulatively vote if the directors and members are identical.

Section 72. Other methods of electing directors. A corporation may provide in its articles or bylaws for election of directors by members or delegates:

(1) on the basis of chapter or other organizational unit;

(2) by region or other geographic unit;

(3) by preferential voting; or

(4) by any other reasonable method.

Section 73. Corporation's acceptance of votes. (1) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment corresponds to the name of a member, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member.

(2) If the name signed on a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment does not correspond to the record name of a member, the corporation, if acting in good faith, is nevertheless entitled to accept the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment and give it effect as the act of the member if:

(a) the member is an entity and the name signed purports to be that of an attorney-in-fact of the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(b) the name signed purports to be that of an attorney-in-fact of the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence acceptable to the corporation of the signatory's authority to sign for the member has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment;

(c) two or more persons hold the membership as cotenants or fiduciaries and:

(i) the name signed purports to be the name of at least one of the coholders; and

(ii) the person signing appears to be acting on behalf of all the coholders; or

(d) in the case of a mutual benefit corporation:

(i) the name signed purports to be that of an administrator, executor, guardian, or conservator representing the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence of fiduciary status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment; or

(ii) the name signed purports to be that of a receiver or trustee in bankruptcy of the member and, if the corporation requests, evidence of this status acceptable to the corporation has been presented with respect to the vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment.

(3) The corporation is entitled to reject a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment if the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes, acting in good faith, has reasonable basis for doubt about the validity of the signature on it or about the signatory's authority to sign for the member.

(4) The corporation and its officer or agent who accepts or rejects a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment in good faith and in accordance with the standards of this section are not liable in damages to the member for the consequences of the acceptance or rejection.

(5) Corporate action based on the acceptance or rejection of a vote, consent, waiver, or proxy appointment under this section is valid unless a court of competent jurisdiction determines otherwise.

Section 74. Voting agreements. (1) Two or more members may provide for the manner in which they will vote by signing an agreement for that purpose. Voting agreements may be valid for a period of up to 10 years. For public benefit corporations, voting agreements must have a reasonable purpose consistent with the corporation's public or charitable purposes.

(2) A voting agreement created under this section is specifically enforceable.

Section 75. Requirement for and duties of board. (1) Each corporation must have a board of directors.

(2) Except as provided in [sections 1 through 168] or subsection (3), all corporate powers are exercised by or under the authority of the board, and the affairs of the corporation managed under the direction of its board.

(3) The articles may authorize a person or persons to exercise some or all of the powers that would otherwise be exercised by a board. To the extent authorized, a person authorized under this subsection has the duties and responsibilities of the directors and the directors must be relieved from the duties and responsibilities to that extent.

Section 76. Qualifications and numbers of directors. (1) All directors must be individuals. The articles or bylaws may prescribe other qualifications for directors.

(2) A board of directors must consist of three or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws.

(3) The number of directors may be increased or decreased, but to not fewer than three, from time to time by amendment to or in the manner prescribed in the articles or bylaws.

Section 77. Election, designation and appointment of directors. (1) If the corporation has members, all the directors except the initial directors must be elected at the first annual meeting of members and at each annual meeting thereafter unless the articles or bylaws provide some other time or method of election or provide that some of the directors are appointed by some other person or are designated.

(2) If the corporation does not have members, all the directors except the initial directors must be elected, appointed, or designated as provided in the articles or bylaws. If a method of designation or appointment is not set forth in the articles or bylaws, the directors, other than the initial directors, must be elected by the board.

Section 78. Terms of directors generally — staggered terms. (1) The articles or bylaws must specify the terms of directors. Except for designated or appointed directors, the terms of directors may not exceed 5 years. In the absence of any term specified in the articles or bylaws, the term of each director is 1 year. Directors may be elected for successive terms.

(2) A decrease in the number of directors or term of office does not shorten an incumbent director's term.

(3) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws:

(a) the term of a director filling a vacancy in the office of a director elected by members expires at the next election of directors by members; and

(b) the term of a director filling any other vacancy expires at the end of the unexpired term that the director is filling.

(4) Despite the expiration of a director's term, the director continues to serve until the director's successor is elected, designated, or appointed and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

(5) The articles or bylaws may provide for staggering the terms of directors by dividing the total number of directors into groups. The terms of office of the groups need not be uniform.

Section 79. Resignation of directors. (1) A director may resign at any time by delivering written notice to the board of directors, its presiding officer, the president, or the secretary.

(2) A resignation is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date, the board may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

Section 80. Removal of directors elected by members or directors. (1) The members may remove one or more directors elected by them without cause.

(2) If a director is elected by a class, chapter, or other organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, the director may be removed only by the members of that class, chapter, unit, or grouping.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (9), a director may be removed under subsection (1) or (2) only if the number of votes cast to remove the director would be sufficient to elect the director at a meeting to elect directors.

(4) If cumulative voting is authorized, a director may not be removed:

(a) if the number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal; or

(b) if the director was elected by a class, chapter, unit, or grouping of members and the number of votes of that class, chapter, unit, or grouping of members sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal.

(5) A director elected by members may be removed by the members only at a meeting called for the purpose of removing the director. The meeting notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is removal of the director.

(6) In computing whether a director is protected from removal under subsections (2) through (4), it should be assumed that the votes against removal are cast in an election for the number of directors of the class to which the director to be removed belonged on the date of that director's election.

(7) An entire board of directors may be removed under subsections (1) through (5).

(8) A director elected by the board may be removed without cause by the vote of two-thirds of the directors then in office or by a greater number as is set forth in the articles or bylaws. However, a director elected by the board to fill the vacancy of a director elected by the members may be removed without cause by the members, but not the board.

(9) If, at the beginning of a director's term on the board, the articles or bylaws provide that the director may be removed for missing a specified number of board meetings, the board may remove the director for failing to attend the specified number of meetings. The director may be removed only if a majority of the directors then in office vote for the removal.

(10) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may:

(a) limit the application of this section; and

(b) set forth the vote and procedures by which the board or any person may remove with or without cause a director elected by the members of the board.

Section 81. Removal of designated or appointed directors. (1) A designated director may be removed by an amendment to the articles or bylaws deleting or changing the designation.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, an appointed director may be removed without cause by the person appointing the director. The person removing the director shall do so by giving written notice of the removal to the director and either the presiding officer of the board or the corporation's president or secretary. The removal of an appointed director is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a future effective date.

Section 82. Removal of directors by judicial proceeding. (1) The district court for the judicial district of the county where a corporation's principal office is located or, if the principal office is not located in the state, the county where its registered office is located may remove any director of the corporation from office in a proceeding commenced by the corporation, by its members holding at least 10% of the voting power of any class, or by the attorney general in the case of a public benefit corporation, if the court finds that:

(a) (i) the director engaged in fraudulent or dishonest conduct or in gross abuse of authority or discretion, with respect to the corporation; or

(ii) a final judgment has been entered finding that the director has violated a duty set forth in [sections 91 through 94]; and

(b) removal is in the best interest of the corporation.

(2) The court that removes a director may bar the director from serving on the board for a period prescribed by the court.

(3) If members or the attorney general commence a proceeding under subsection (1), the corporation must be made a party defendant.

(4) If a public benefit corporation or its members commence a proceeding under subsection (1), they shall give the attorney general written notice of the proceeding.

(5) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may limit or prohibit the application of this section.

Section 83. Vacancy on board. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise and except as provided in subsections (2) and (3), if a vacancy occurs on a board of directors, including a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors:

(a) (i) the members, if any, may fill the vacancy; or

(ii) if the vacant office was held by a director elected by a class, chapter, organizational unit or by region or other geographic grouping, only members of the class, chapter, unit, or grouping are entitled to vote to fill the vacancy if it is filled by the members;

(b) the board of directors may fill the vacancy; or

(c) if the directors remaining in office constitute fewer than a quorum of the board, they may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of all the directors remaining in office.

(2) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, if a vacant office was held by an appointed director, only the person who appointed the director may fill the vacancy.

(3) If a vacant office was held by a designated director, the vacancy must be filled as provided in the articles or bylaws. In the absence of an applicable article or bylaw provision, the vacancy may not be filled by the board.

(4) A vacancy that will occur at a specific later date, by reason of a resignation effective at a later date under [section 79(2)] or otherwise, may be filled before the vacancy occurs. However, the new director may not take office until the vacancy occurs.

Section 84. Compensation of directors. Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, the board of directors may fix the compensation of directors.

Section 85. Regular and special meetings. (1) If the time and place of a directors' meeting is fixed by the bylaws or the board, the meeting is a regular meeting. All other meetings are special meetings.

(2) A board of directors may hold regular or special meetings in the state or out of the state.

(3) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, a board may permit any or all directors to participate in a regular or special meeting by or to conduct the meeting through the use of any means of communication by which all directors participating may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. A director participating in a meeting by this means is considered to be present in person at the meeting.

Section 86. Action without meeting. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by [sections 1 through 168] to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, be signed by each director, and be included in the minutes filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken.

(2) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(3) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as a vote in any document.

Section 87. Call and notice of meetings. (1) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise or unless the provisions of subsection (3) apply, regular meetings of the board may be held without notice.

(2) Unless the articles, bylaws, or subsection (3) provide otherwise, regular meetings of the board must be preceded by at least 2 days' notice to each director of the date, time, and place, but not the purpose, of the meeting.

(3) In a corporation without members, any board action to remove a director or to approve a matter that would require approval by the members if the corporation had members is not valid unless each director is given at least 7 days' written notice that the matter will be voted upon at a directors' meeting or unless notice is waived pursuant to [section 88].

(4) Unless the articles or bylaws provide otherwise, the presiding officer of the board, the president, or 20% of the directors then in office may call and give notice of a meeting of the board.

Section 88. Waiver of notice. (1) A director may at any time waive a notice required by [sections 1 through 168], the articles, or bylaws. Except as provided in subsection (2), the waiver must be in writing, be signed by the director entitled to the notice, and be filed with the minutes or the corporate records.

(2) A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice of the meeting unless the director, upon arriving at the meeting or prior to the vote on a matter not noticed in conformity with [sections 1 through 168], the articles, or bylaws, objects to lack of notice and does not vote for or assent to that action.

Section 89. Quorum and voting. (1) Except as otherwise provided in [sections 1 through 168], the articles, or bylaws, a quorum of a board of directors consists of a majority of the directors in office immediately before a meeting begins. In no event may the articles or bylaws authorize a quorum of fewer than the greater of one-third of the number of directors in office or two directors.

(2) If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present is the act of the board unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, or bylaws require the vote of a greater number of directors.

Section 90. Committees of the board. (1) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles or bylaws, a board of directors may create one or more committees of the board and appoint members of the board to serve on them. Each committee must have two or more directors who serve at the pleasure of the board.

(2) The creation of a committee and appointment of members to it must be approved by the greater of:

(a) a majority of all the directors in office when the action is taken; or

(b) the number of directors required by the articles or bylaws to take action under [section 89].

(3) [Sections 85 through 89], which govern meetings, action without meetings, notice, waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the board, apply to committees of the board and their members.

(4) To the extent specified by the board of directors or in the articles or bylaws, each committee of the board may exercise the board's authority under [section 75].

(5) A committee of the board may not:

(a) authorize distributions;

(b) approve or recommend to members dissolution, merger, or the sale, pledge, or transfer of all or substantially all of the corporation's assets;

(c) elect, appoint, or remove directors or fill vacancies on the board or on any of its committees; or

(d) adopt, amend, or repeal the articles or bylaws.

(6) The creation of, delegation of authority to, or action by a committee does not by itself constitute compliance by a director with the standards of conduct described in [section 91].

Section 91. General standards for directors. (1) A director shall discharge his duties as a director, including his duties as a member of a committee:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(2) In discharging his duties, a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) attorneys, public accountants, or other persons with regard to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence;

(c) a committee of the board of which the director is not a member, as to matters within its jurisdiction, if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence; or

(d) in the case of religious corporations, religious authorities, ministers, priests, rabbis, or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the director believes justify reliance and confidence and whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.

(3) A director is not acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) A director is not liable to the corporation, any member, or any other person for any action taken or not taken as a director if the director acted in compliance with this section.

(5) A director may not be a trustee with respect to the corporation or with respect to any property held or administered by the corporation, including but not limited to property that may be subject to restrictions imposed by the donor or transferor of the property.

(6) [Sections 1 through 168] do not modify any limitation of liability of directors provided by Title 27.

Section 92. Director conflict of interest. (1) A conflict of interest transaction is a transaction with the corporation in which a director of the corporation has a direct or indirect interest. A conflict of interest transaction is not voidable or the basis for imposing liability on the director if the transaction was fair at the time it was entered into or is approved as provided in subsections (2) or (3).

(2) A transaction in which a director of a public benefit corporation or religious corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved:

(a) in advance by the vote of the board of directors or a committee of the board if:

(i) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest are disclosed or known to the board or committee of the board; and

(ii) the directors approving the transaction in good faith reasonably believe that the transaction is fair to the corporation; or

(b) before or after it is consummated by obtaining approval of:

(i) the attorney general; or

(ii) a state district court in an action in which the attorney general is joined as a party.

(3) A transaction in which a director of a mutual benefit corporation has a conflict of interest may be approved if:

(a) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board and the board or committee of the board authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(b) the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the members and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

(4) For purposes of this section, a director of the corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction if:

(a) another entity in which the director has a material interest or in which the director is a general partner is a party to the transaction; or

(b) another entity of which the director is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction.

(5) For purposes of subsections (2) and (3), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified, if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board or on the committee who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. However, a transaction may not be authorized, approved, or ratified under this section by a single director. If a majority of the directors on the board who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of or a vote cast by a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsections (2)(a) or (3)(a) if the transaction is otherwise approved as provided in subsection (2) or (3).

(6) For purposes of subsection (3)(b), a conflict of interest transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified by the members if it receives a majority of the votes entitled to be counted under this subsection. Votes cast by or voted under the control of a director who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction and votes cast by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (4)(a) may not be counted in a vote of members to determine whether to authorize, approve, or ratify a conflict of interest transaction under subsection (3)(b). The vote of these members, however, is counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of [sections 1 through 168]. A majority of the voting power, whether or not present, that is entitled to be counted in a vote on the transaction under this subsection constitutes a quorum for the purpose of taking action under this section.

(7) The articles, bylaws, or a resolution of the board may impose additional requirements on conflict of interest transactions.

Section 93. Loans to or guaranties for directors and officers. (1) A corporation may not lend money to or guarantee the obligation of a director or officer of the corporation.

(2) The fact that a loan or guaranty is made in violation of this section does not affect the borrower's liability on the loan.

Section 94. Liability for unlawful distributions. (1) Unless a director complies with the applicable standards of conduct described in [section 91], a director who votes for or assents to a distribution made in violation of [sections 1 through 168] is personally liable to the corporation for the amount of the distribution that exceeds what could have been distributed without violating [sections 1 through 168].

(2) A director held liable for an unlawful distribution under subsection (1) is entitled to contribution:

(a) from every other director who voted for or assented to the distribution and who did not comply with the applicable standards of conduct described in [section 91]; and

(b) from each person who received an unlawful distribution for the amount of the distribution whether or not the person receiving the distribution knew it was made in violation of [sections 1 through 168].

Section 95. Required officers. (1) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, a corporation has a president, a secretary, a treasurer, and any other officers appointed by the board.

(2) The bylaws or the board shall delegate to one of the officers responsibility for preparing minutes of the directors' and members' meetings and for authenticating records of the corporation.

(3) A person may simultaneously hold more than one office in a corporation.

Section 96. Duties and authority of officers. Each officer has the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the bylaws or, to the extent consistent with the bylaws, the duties and authority prescribed in a resolution of the board or by direction of an officer authorized by the board to prescribe the duties and authority of other officers.

Section 97. Standards of conduct for officers. (1) An officer with discretionary authority shall discharge his duties under that authority:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a similar position would exercise under similar circumstances; and

(c) in a manner the officer reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation and its members, if any.

(2) In discharging his duties, an officer is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by:

(a) one or more officers or employees of the corporation who the officer reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;

(b) attorneys, pubic accountants, or other persons as to matters the officer reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(c) in the case of religious corporations, religious authorities, ministers, priests, rabbis, or other persons whose position or duties in the religious organization the officer believes justify reliance and confidence and who the officer believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.

(3) An officer is not acting in good faith if the officer has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (2) unwarranted.

(4) An officer is not liable to the corporation, any member, or any other person for an action taken or not taken as an officer if the officer acted in compliance with this section.

(5) [Sections 75 through 109] do not modify any limitation of liability of officers provided by Title 27.

Section 98. Resignation and removal of officers. (1) An officer may resign at any time by delivering notice to the corporation. A resignation is effective when the notice is effective unless the notice specifies a future effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a future date and the corporation accepts the future effective date, its board of directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date.

(2) A board may remove any officer at any time, with or without cause.

Section 99. Contract rights of officers. (1) The appointment of an officer does not of itself create contract rights.

(2) An officer's removal does not affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the corporation. An officer's resignation does not affect the corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

Section 100. Officers' authority to execute documents. A contract or other instrument in writing executed or entered into between a corporation and any other person is not invalidated as to the corporation by a lack of authority of the signing officers in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officers did not have authority to execute the contract or other instrument if it is signed by:

(1) the presiding officer of the board and the president; or

(2) one person from each of the following:

(a) the presiding officer of the board or the president; and

(b) a vice president, the secretary, treasurer, or executive director.

Section 101. Definitions. As used in [sections 101 through 109], the following definitions apply:

(1) "Corporation" includes any domestic or foreign predecessor entity of a corporation in a merger or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(2) (a) "Director" means an individual who is or was a director of a corporation or an individual who, while a director of a corporation, is or was serving at the corporation's request as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic business or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise. A director is considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the corporation's request if the director's duties to the corporation also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, the director to the plan or the participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

(b) Director includes, unless the context requires otherwise, the estate or personal representative of a director.

(3) "Expenses" include attorney fees.

(4) "Liability" means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan, or reasonable expenses actually incurred with respect to a proceeding.

(5) (a) "Official capacity" means:

(i) when used with respect to a director, the office of director in a corporation; or

(ii) when used with respect to an individual other than a director, as contemplated in [section 107], the office in a corporation held by the officer or the employment or agency relationship undertaken by the employee or agent on behalf of the corporation.

(b) Official capacity does not include service for any other foreign or domestic business or nonprofit corporation or any partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise.

(6) "Party" includes an individual who was, is, or is threatened to be made a named defendant or respondent in a proceeding.

(7) "Proceeding" means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal.

Section 102. Authority to indemnify. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4), an individual made a party to a proceeding because the individual is or was a director may be indemnified against liability incurred in the proceeding if the individual:

(a) conducted himself in good faith;

(b) reasonably believed:

(i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with the corporation, that his conduct was in its best interests; and

(ii) in all other cases, that his conduct was at least not opposed to its best interests; and

(c) in the case of any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A director's conduct with respect to an employee benefit plan for a purpose the director reasonably believed to be in the interests of the participants in and beneficiaries of the plan is conduct that satisfies the requirements of subsection (1)(b)(ii).

(3) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent is not, of itself, a determination that the director did not meet the standard of conduct described in this section.

(4) A corporation may not indemnify a director under this section:

(a) in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or

(b) in connection with any other proceeding that charges improper personal benefit to the director, whether or not involving action in his official capacity, in which the director was adjudged liable on the basis that personal benefit was improperly received by the director.

(5) Indemnification permitted under this section in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation is limited to reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the proceeding.

Section 103. Mandatory indemnification. Unless limited by its articles of incorporation, a corporation shall indemnify a director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the director was a party because he is or was a director of the corporation, against reasonable expenses actually incurred by the director in connection with the proceeding.

Section 104. Advance for expenses. (1) A corporation may pay for or reimburse the reasonable expenses incurred by a director who is a party to a proceeding in advance of final disposition of the proceeding if:

(a) the director furnishes the corporation a written affirmation of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct described in [section 102];

(b) the director furnishes the corporation a written undertaking, executed personally or on the director's behalf, to repay the advance if it is ultimately determined that the director did not meet the standard of conduct; and

(c) a determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under [sections 101 through 109].

(2) The undertaking required by subsection (1)(b) must be an unlimited general obligation of the director but need not be secured and may be accepted without reference to financial ability to make repayment.

(3) Determinations and authorizations of payments under this section must be made in the manner specified in [section 106].

Section 105. Court-ordered indemnification. Unless limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation, a director of the corporation who is a party to a proceeding may apply for indemnification to the court conducting the proceeding or to another court of competent jurisdiction. On receipt of an application, the court, after giving any notice the court considers necessary, may order indemnification in the amount it considers proper if it determines that the director:

(1) is entitled to mandatory indemnification under [section 103], in which case the court shall also order the corporation to pay the director's reasonable expenses incurred to obtain court-ordered indemnification; or

(2) is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification in view of all the relevant circumstances, whether or not the director met the standard of conduct set forth in [section 102(1)] or was adjudged liable as described in [section 102(4)]. If the director was adjudged liable, indemnification is limited to reasonable expenses incurred.

Section 106. Determination and authorization of indemnification. (1) A corporation may not indemnify a director under [section 102] unless it is authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in [section 102].

(2) The determination must be made:

(a) by the board of directors by majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(b) if a quorum cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a), by majority vote of a committee designated by the board of directors consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding;

(c) by special legal counsel:

(i) selected by the board of directors or its committee in the manner prescribed in subsection (2)(a) or (2)(b); or

(ii) if a quorum of the board cannot be obtained under subsection (2)(a) and a committee cannot be designated under subsection (2)(b), selected by majority vote of the full board, in which selected directors who are parties may participate; or

(d) by the members of a mutual benefit corporation. However, directors who are at the time parties to the proceeding may not vote on the determination.

(3) Authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made in the same manner as the determination that indemnification is permissible, except that if the determination is made by special legal counsel, authorization of indemnification and evaluation as to reasonableness of expenses must be made by those entitled under subsection (2)(c) to select counsel.

(4) A director of a public benefit corporation may not be indemnified until 20 days after the effective date of written notice to the attorney general of the proposed indemnification.

Section 107. Indemnification of officers, employees, and agents. Unless limited by a corporation's articles of incorporation:

(1) an officer of the corporation who is not a director is entitled to mandatory indemnification under [section 103] and is entitled to apply for court-ordered indemnification under [section 105] to the same extent as a director;

(2) the corporation may indemnify and advance expenses under [sections 101 through 109] to an officer, employee, or agent of the corporation who is not a director to the same extent as to a director; and

(3) a corporation may also indemnify and advance expenses to an officer, employee, or agent who is not a director to the extent, consistent with public policy, that may be provided by its articles of incorporation, bylaws, general or specific action of its board of directors, or contract.

Section 108. Insurance. A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of an individual who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation or who, while a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another foreign or domestic business or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against liability asserted against or incurred by him in that capacity or arising from his status as a director, officer, employee, or agent, whether or not the corporation would have power to indemnify the person against the same liability under [section 102 or 103].

Section 109. Application. (1) A provision treating a corporation's indemnification of or advance for expenses to directors that is contained in its articles of incorporation, its bylaws, a resolution of its members or board of directors, a contract, or other instrument is valid only if and to the extent the provision is consistent with [sections 101 through 109]. If articles of incorporation limit indemnification or advance for expenses, indemnification and advance for expenses are valid only to the extent consistent with the articles.

(2) [Sections 101 through 109] do not limit a corporation's power to pay or reimburse expenses incurred by a director in connection with appearing as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the director has not been made a named defendant or respondent to the proceeding.

Section 110. Authority to amend. A corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time to add or change a provision that is required or permitted in the articles or to delete a provision not required in the articles. Whether a provision is required or permitted in the articles is determined as of the effective date of the amendment.

Section 111. Amendment by directors. (1) Unless the articles provide otherwise, a corporation's board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles without member approval:

(a) to extend the duration of the corporation if it was incorporated at a time when limited duration was required by law;

(b) to delete the names and addresses of the initial directors;

(c) to delete the name and address of the initial registered agent or registered office if a statement of change is on file with the secretary of state;

(d) to change the corporate name by substituting the word "corporation", "incorporated", "company", "limited", or the abbreviation "corp.", "inc.", "co.", or "ltd." for a similar word or abbreviation in the name or by adding, deleting, or changing a geographical attribution to the name; or

(e) to make any other change expressly permitted by [sections 1 through 168] to be made by action of the board of directors.

(2) If a corporation has no members, its incorporators, until directors have been chosen, and later its board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's articles subject to any approval required pursuant to [section 121]. The corporation shall provide notice of any meeting at which an amendment is to be voted upon. The notice must be in accordance with [section 87(3)]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider a proposed amendment to the articles and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment or state the general nature of the amendment. The amendment must be approved by a majority of the directors in office at the time the amendment is adopted.

Section 112. Amendment by directors and members. (1) Unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, the bylaws, the members acting pursuant to subsection (2), or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) require a greater vote or voting by class to be adopted, an amendment to a corporation's articles must be approved:

(a) by the board if the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and the amendment does not relate to the number of directors, the composition of the board, the term of office of directors, or the method or way in which directors are elected or selected;

(b) except as provided in [section 111(1)], by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by [section 121].

(2) The members may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(3) If the board initiates an amendment to the articles or if board approval is required by subsection (1)(a) to adopt an amendment to the articles, the board may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or any other basis.

(4) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with [section 62]. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

(5) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

Section 113. Class voting by members on amendments. (1) The members of a class in a public benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles if the amendment would change the rights of that class as to voting in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment affects another class or members of another class.

(2) The members of a class in a mutual benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles if the amendment would:

(a) affect the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer of memberships in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment would affect another class;

(b) change the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer by changing the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of another class;

(c) increase or decrease the number of memberships authorized for that class;

(d) increase the number of memberships authorized for another class;

(e) cause an exchange, reclassification, or termination of the memberships of that class; or

(f) authorize a new class of memberships.

(3) The members of a class of a religious corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the articles only if a class vote is provided for in the articles or bylaws.

(4) If a class is to be divided into two or more classes as a result of an amendment to the articles of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation, the amendment must be approved by the members of each class that would be created by the amendment.

(5) Except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation, if a class vote is required to approve an amendment to the articles of a corporation, the amendment must be approved by the members of the class by two-thirds of the votes cast by the class or a majority of the voting power of the class, whichever is less.

(6) A class of members of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles and bylaws provide that the class may not vote on the proposed amendment.

Section 114. Articles of amendment. A corporation that amends its articles shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment setting forth:

(1) the name of the corporation;

(2) the text of each amendment adopted;

(3) the date of each amendment's adoption;

(4) if approval of members was not required, a statement to that effect and a statement that the amendment was approved by a sufficient vote of the board of directors or incorporators;

(5) if approval by members was required:

(a) the designation, number of memberships outstanding, number of votes entitled to be cast by each class entitled to vote separately on the amendment, and number of votes of each class indisputably voting on the amendment; and

(b) (i) either the total number of votes cast for and against the amendment by each class entitled to vote separately on the amendment or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the amendment by each class; and

(ii) a statement that the number cast for the amendment by each class was sufficient for approval by that class; and

(6) if approval of the amendment by some person or persons other than the members, the board, or the incorporators is required pursuant to [section 121], a statement that the approval was obtained.

Section 115. Restated articles of incorporation. (1) A corporation's board of directors may restate its articles of incorporation at any time, with or without approval by members or any other person.

(2) The restatement may include one or more amendments to the articles. If the restatement includes an amendment requiring approval by the members or any other person, it must be adopted as provided in [section 112].

(3) If the restatement includes an amendment requiring approval by members, the board must submit the restatement to the members for their approval.

(4) If the board seeks to have the restatement approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall notify each of its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with [section 62]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed restatement and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the restatement that identifies any amendments or other change that the restatement would make in the articles.

(5) If the board seeks to have the restatement approved by the members by written ballot or written consent, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the restatement that identifies any amendments or other change it would make in the articles.

(6) A restatement requiring approval by the members must be approved by the same vote as an amendment to articles under [section 112].

(7) If the restatement includes an amendment that requires approval pursuant to [section 121], the board must submit the restatement for this approval.

(8) A corporation that restates its articles shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of restatement setting forth the name of the corporation and the text of the restated articles of incorporation, together with a certificate setting forth:

(a) whether the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring approval by the members or any other person other than the board of directors and, if it does not, that the board of directors adopted the restatement; or

(b) if the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring approval by the members, the information required by [section 114]; and

(c) if the restatement contains an amendment to the articles requiring approval by a person whose approval is required pursuant to [section 121], a statement that the approval was obtained.

(9) Adopted restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments to them.

(10) The secretary of state may certify restated articles of incorporation as the articles of incorporation currently in effect without including the certificate information required by subsection (8).

Section 116. Amendment pursuant to judicial reorganization. (1) A corporation's articles may be amended without board approval, approval by the members, or approval required pursuant to [section 121] if necessary to carry out a plan of reorganization ordered or decreed by a court of competent jurisdiction under federal statute if the articles, after amendment, contain only provisions required or permitted by [section 22].

(2) The individual or individuals designated by the court shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of amendment setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the text of each amendment approved by the court;

(c) the date of the court's order or decree approving the articles of amendment;

(d) the title of the reorganization proceeding in which the order or decree was entered; and

(e) a statement that the court had jurisdiction of the proceeding under federal statute.

(3) This section does not apply after entry of a final decree in the reorganization proceeding even though the court retains jurisdiction of the proceeding for limited purposes unrelated to consummation of the reorganization plan.

Section 117. Effect of amendment and restatement. An amendment to articles of incorporation does not affect a cause of action existing against or in favor of the corporation, a proceeding to which the corporation is a party, any requirement or limitation imposed upon the corporation, or any property held by it by virtue of any trust upon which the property is held by the corporation, or the existing rights of persons other than members of the corporation. An amendment changing a corporation's name does not abate a proceeding brought by or against the corporation in its former name.

Section 118. Amendment by directors. If a corporation does not have members, its incorporators, until directors have been chosen, and later its board of directors may adopt one or more amendments to the corporation's bylaws subject to any approval required pursuant to [section 121]. The corporation shall provide notice of any meeting of directors at which an amendment is to be approved. The notice must be in accordance with [section 87(3)]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider a proposed amendment to the bylaws and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment or state the general nature of the amendment. The amendment must be approved by a majority of the directors in office at the time the amendment is adopted.

Section 119. Amendment by directors and members. (1) Unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, the bylaws, the members acting pursuant to subsection (2), or the board of directors acting pursuant to subsection (3) require a greater vote or voting by class to be adopted, an amendment to a corporation's bylaws must be approved:

(a) by the board if the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and the amendment does not relate to the number of directors, the composition of the board, the term of office of directors, or the method or way in which directors are elected or selected;

(b) by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; or

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by [section 121].

(2) The members may condition the amendment's adoption on its receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(3) If the board initiates an amendment to the bylaws or if board approval is required by subsection (1)(a) to adopt an amendment to the bylaws, the board may condition the amendment's adoption on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(4) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in writing in accordance with [section 62]. The notice must also state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider the proposed amendment and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

(5) If the board or the members seek to have the amendment approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the amendment.

Section 120. Class voting by members on amendments. (1) The members of a class in a public benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the bylaws if the amendment would change the rights of that class as to voting in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment would affect another class or members of another class.

(2) Members of a class in a mutual benefit corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the bylaws if the amendment would:

(a) affect the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer of memberships in a manner different from the manner in which the amendment would affect another class;

(b) change the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of that class as to voting, dissolution, redemption, or transfer by changing the rights, privileges, preferences, restrictions, or conditions of another class;

(c) increase or decrease the number of memberships authorized for that class;

(d) increase the number of memberships authorized for another class;

(e) cause an exchange, reclassification, or termination of all or part of the memberships of that class; or

(f) authorize a new class of memberships.

(3) The members of a class of a religious corporation are entitled to vote as a class on a proposed amendment to the bylaws only if a class vote is provided for in the articles or bylaws.

(4) If a class is to be divided into two or more classes as a result of an amendment to the bylaws, the amendment must be approved by the members of each class that would be created by the amendment.

(5) If a class vote is required to approve an amendment to the bylaws, the amendment must be approved by the members of the class by two-thirds of the votes cast by the class or a majority of the voting power of the class, whichever is less.

(6) A class of members is entitled to the voting rights granted by this section although the articles and bylaws provide that the class may not vote on the proposed amendment.

Section 121. Approval by third persons. The articles may require an amendment to the articles or bylaws to be approved in writing by a specified person or persons other than the board. Such an article provision may only be amended with the approval in writing of the person or persons.

Section 122. Amendment terminating members or redeeming or canceling memberships. (1) Any amendment to the articles or bylaws of a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation that would terminate all members or any class of members or redeem or cancel all memberships or any class of memberships must meet the requirements of [sections 1 through 168] and this section.

(2) Before adopting a resolution proposing an amendment described in subsection (1), the board of a mutual benefit corporation shall give notice of the general nature of the amendment to the members.

(3) After adopting a resolution proposing an amendment described in subsection (1), the notice to members proposing the amendment must include one statement of up to 500 words opposing the proposed amendment if the statement is submitted by any five members or members having 3% or more of the voting power, whichever is less, not later than 20 days after the board has voted to submit the amendment to the members for their approval. In public benefit corporations, the production and mailing costs must be paid by the corporation.

(4) Any amendment under this section must be approved by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast by each class.

(5) The provisions of [section 48] do not apply to any amendment that meets the requirements of [sections 1 through 168] and this section.

Section 123. Approval of plan of merger. (1) Subject to the limitations set forth in [section 124], profit corporations may merge into a business or nonprofit corporation if the plan of merger is approved as provided in [section 125].

(2) The plan of merger must set forth:

(a) the name of each corporation planning to merge and the name of the surviving corporation into which each plans to merge;

(b) the terms and conditions of the planned merger;

(c) the manner and basis, if any, of converting the memberships of each public benefit or religious corporation into memberships of the surviving corporation; and

(d) if the merger involves a mutual benefit corporation, the manner and basis, if any, of converting memberships of each merging corporation into memberships, obligations, or securities of the surviving or any other corporation or into cash or other property in whole or part.

(3) The plan of merger may set forth:

(a) any amendments to the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the surviving corporation to be effected by the planned merger; and

(b) other provisions relating to the planned merger.

Section 124. Limitations on mergers by public benefit or religious corporations. (1) Without the prior approval of the district court for the judicial district in which the corporation's registered office is located, in a proceeding of which the attorney general has been given written notice, a public benefit corporation or religious corporation may merge only with:

(a) a public benefit corporation or religious corporation;

(b) a foreign corporation that would qualify under [sections 1 through 168] as a public benefit corporation or religious corporation;

(c) a wholly owned foreign or domestic business or mutual benefit corporation, if the public benefit corporation or religious corporation is the surviving corporation and continues to be a public benefit corporation or religious corporation after the merger; or

(d) a business or mutual benefit corporation, provided that:

(i) on or prior to the effective date of the merger, assets with a value equal to the greater of the fair market value of the net tangible and intangible assets, including good will, of the public benefit corporation or the fair market value of the public benefit corporation if it were to be operated as a business concern are transferred or conveyed to one or more persons who would have received its assets under [section 139 (1)(e) and (f)] had it dissolved;

(ii) it shall return, transfer, or convey any assets held by it upon condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance in case of merger, in accordance with the condition; and

(iii) the merger is approved by a majority of directors of the public benefit corporation or religious corporation who are not and will not become members or shareholders in or officers, employees, agents, or consultants of the surviving corporation.

(2) At least 20 days before consummation of any merger of a public benefit corporation or a religious corporation pursuant to subsection (1)(d), notice, including a copy of the proposed plan of merger, must be delivered to the attorney general.

(3) Without the prior written consent of the attorney general or of the district court in a proceeding in which the attorney general has been given notice, a member of a public benefit corporation or religious corporation may not receive or keep anything as a result of a merger other than a membership in the surviving public benefit corporation or religious corporation. The court shall approve the transaction if it is in the public interest.

Section 125. Action on plan by board, members, and third persons. (1) Unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, the bylaws, or the board of directors or members, acting pursuant to subsection (3), require a greater vote or voting by class to be adopted, a plan of merger must be approved:

(a) by the board;

(b) by the members, if any, by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by [section 121], for an amendment to the articles or bylaws.

(2) If the corporation does not have members, the merger must be approved by a majority of the directors in office at the time the merger is approved. In addition, the corporation shall provide notice, in accordance with [section 87(3)], of any directors' meeting at which approval is to be obtained. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the proposed merger.

(3) The board may condition its submission of the proposed merger and the members may condition their approval of the merger on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(4) If the board seeks to have the plan approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in accordance with [section 62]. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the plan of merger and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the surviving corporation must include any provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, would entitle members to vote on the provision. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the disappearing corporation must include a copy or summary of the articles and bylaws that will be in effect immediately after the merger takes effect.

(5) If the board seeks to have the plan approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the surviving corporation must include any provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation or bylaws, would entitle members to vote on the provision. The copy or summary of the plan for members of the disappearing corporation must include a copy or summary of the articles and bylaws that will be in effect immediately after the merger takes effect.

(6) Voting by a class of members is required on a plan of merger if the plan contains a provision that, if contained in a proposed amendment to articles of incorporation or bylaws, would entitle the class of members to vote as a class on the proposed amendment under [section 113 or 120]. The plan is approved by a class of members by two-thirds of the votes cast by the class or a majority of the voting power of the class, whichever is less.

(7) After a merger is adopted and at any time before articles of merger are filed, the planned merger may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further action by members or other persons who approved the plan in accordance with the procedure set forth in the plan of merger or, if no procedure is set forth, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

Section 126. Articles of merger. After a plan of merger is approved by the board of directors and, if required by [section 125], by the members and any other persons, the surviving or acquiring corporation shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of merger setting forth:

(1) the plan of merger;

(2) if approval of members was not required, a statement to that effect and a statement that the plan was approved by a sufficient vote of the board of directors;

(3) if approval by members was required:

(a) the designation, number of memberships outstanding, number of votes entitled to be cast by each class entitled to vote separately on the plan, and number of votes of each class indisputably voting on the plan; and

(b) (i) either the total number of votes cast for and against the plan by each class entitled to vote separately on the plan or the total number of undisputed votes cast for the plan by each class; and

(ii) a statement that the number cast for the plan by each class was sufficient for approval by that class;

(4) if approval of the plan by some person or persons other than the members or the board is required pursuant to [section 125(1)(c)], a statement that the approval was obtained.

Section 127. Effect of merger. When a merger takes effect:

(1) every other corporation party to the merger merges into the surviving corporation and the separate existence of every corporation except the surviving corporation ceases;

(2) the title to all real estate and other property owned by each corporation party to the merger is vested in the surviving corporation without reversion or impairment, subject to any conditions to which the property was subject prior to the merger;

(3) the surviving corporation has all liabilities and obligations of each corporation party to the merger;

(4) a proceeding pending against any corporation party to the merger may be continued as if the merger did not occur or the surviving corporation may be substituted in the proceeding for the corporation whose existence ceased; and

(5) the articles of incorporation and bylaws of the surviving corporation are amended to the extent provided in the plan of merger.

Section 128. Merger with foreign corporation. (1) Except as provided in [section 124], one or more foreign business or nonprofit corporations may merge with one or more domestic nonprofit corporations if:

(a) the merger is permitted by the law of the state or country under whose law each foreign corporation is incorporated and each foreign corporation complies with that law in effecting the merger; or

(b) the foreign corporation complies with [section 126] if it is the surviving corporation of the merger; and

(c) each domestic nonprofit corporation complies with the applicable provisions of [sections 123 through 125] and, if it is the surviving corporation of the merger, with the provisions of [section 126].

(2) When the merger takes effect, the surviving foreign business or nonprofit corporation is considered to have irrevocably appointed the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding brought against it.

Section 129. Bequests, devises, and gifts. A bequest, devise, gift, grant, or promise contained in a will or other instrument of donation, subscription, or conveyance that is made to a constituent corporation and that takes effect or remains payable after the merger inures to the surviving corporation unless the will or other instrument specifically provides otherwise.

Section 130. Sale of assets in regular course of activities — mortgage of assets. (1) A corporation may on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the board of directors:

(a) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property in the usual and regular course of its activities; or

(b) mortgage, pledge, dedicate to the repayment of indebtedness, whether with or without recourse, or otherwise encumber any or all of its property, whether or not in the usual and regular course of its activities.

(2) Unless the articles require it, approval of the members or any other person of a transaction described in subsection (1) is not required.

(3) Unless the articles provide otherwise, approval of a transaction described in subsection (1)(a) is required by a vote of a majority of the directors in office at the time the transaction is approved.

Section 131. Sale of assets other than in regular course of activities. (1) A corporation may sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property, which may include the good will, other than in the usual and regular course of its activities on the terms and conditions and for the consideration determined by the corporation's board if the proposed transaction is approved as required by subsection (2).

(2) Unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, bylaws, or the board of directors or members, acting pursuant to subsection (4), require a greater vote or voting by class, the proposed transaction to be authorized must be approved:

(a) by the board;

(b) by the members by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by [section 121], for an amendment to the articles or bylaws.

(3) If the corporation does not have members, the transaction must be approved by a vote of a majority of the directors in office at the time the transaction is approved. In addition, the corporation shall provide notice, in accordance with [section 87(3)], of any directors' meeting at which approval is to be obtained. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property or assets of the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of a description of the transaction.

(4) The board may condition its submission of the proposed transaction and the members may condition their approval of the transaction on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(5) If the corporation seeks to have the transaction approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in accordance with [section 62]. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property or assets of the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of a description of the transaction.

(6) If the board needs to have the transaction approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of a description of the transaction.

(7) A public benefit corporation or religious corporation must give written notice to the attorney general 20 days before it sells, leases, exchanges, or otherwise disposes of all or substantially all of its property if the transaction is not in the usual and regular course of its activities unless the attorney general has given the corporation a written waiver of this subsection.

(8) After a sale, lease, exchange, or other disposition of property is authorized, the transaction may be abandoned, subject to any contractual rights, without further action by the members or any other person who approved the transaction in accordance with the procedure set forth in the resolution proposing the transaction or, if no procedure is set forth, in the manner determined by the board of directors.

Section 132. Prohibited distributions. Except as authorized by [section 133], a corporation may not make any distributions.

Section 133. Authorized distributions. (1) A mutual benefit corporation may purchase its memberships if after the purchase is completed:

(a) the corporation would be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of its activities; and

(b) the corporation's total assets would at least equal the sum of its total liabilities.

(2) Corporations may make distributions upon dissolution in conformity with [sections 134 through 146].

Section 134. Dissolution by incorporators or directors and third persons. (1) A majority of the incorporators or directors of a corporation that does not have members may, subject to any approval required by the articles or bylaws, dissolve the corporation by delivering to the secretary of state articles of dissolution.

(2) The corporation shall give notice of any meeting at which dissolution will be approved. The notice must be in accordance with [section 87(3)]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolution of the corporation.

(3) In approving dissolution, the incorporators or directors shall adopt a plan of dissolution indicating to whom the assets owned or held by the corporation will be distributed after all creditors have been paid.

Section 135. Dissolution by directors, members, and third persons. (1) Unless [sections 1 through 168], the articles, bylaws, or the board of directors or members, acting pursuant to subsection (1)(c), require a greater vote or voting by class, dissolution is authorized if it is approved:

(a) by the board;

(b) by the members, if any, by two-thirds of the votes cast or a majority of the voting power, whichever is less; and

(c) in writing, by any person or persons whose approval is required by a provision of the articles, as authorized by [section 121], for an amendment to the articles or bylaws.

(2) If the corporation does not have members, dissolution must be approved by a vote of a majority of the directors in office at the time the transaction is approved. In addition, the corporation shall provide notice of any directors' meeting at which approval is to be obtained in accordance with [section 87(3)]. The notice must also state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolution of the corporation and contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(3) The board may condition its submission of the proposed dissolution, and the members may condition their approval of the dissolution on receipt of a higher percentage of affirmative votes or on any other basis.

(4) If the board seeks to have dissolution approved by the members at a membership meeting, the corporation shall give notice to its members of the proposed membership meeting in accordance with [section 62]. The notice must state that the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is to consider dissolving the corporation and must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(5) If the board seeks to have dissolution approved by the members by written consent or written ballot, the material soliciting the approval must contain or be accompanied by a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(6) The plan of dissolution must indicate to whom the assets owned or held by the corporation will be distributed after all creditors have been paid.

Section 136. Notices to the attorney general. (1) A public benefit corporation or religious corporation shall give the attorney general written notice that it intends to dissolve at or before the time it delivers articles of dissolution to the secretary of state. The notice must include a copy or summary of the plan of dissolution.

(2) Assets may not be transferred or conveyed by a public benefit corporation or religious corporation as part of the dissolution process until 20 days after it has given the written notice required by subsection (1) to the attorney general or until the attorney general has consented in writing to the dissolution or indicated in writing that he will not take action in respect to the transfer or conveyance, whichever is earlier.

(3) When all or substantially all of the assets of a public benefit corporation have been transferred or conveyed following approval of dissolution, the board shall deliver to the attorney general a list showing those, other than creditors, to whom the assets were transferred or conveyed. The list must indicate the address of each person, other than creditors, who received assets and indicate what assets each received.

Section 137. Articles of dissolution. (1) At any time after dissolution is authorized, the corporation may dissolve by delivering to the secretary of state articles of dissolution setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the date dissolution was authorized;

(c) a statement that dissolution was approved by a sufficient vote of the board;

(d) if approval of members was not required, a statement to that effect and a statement that dissolution was approved by a sufficient vote of the board of directors or incorporators;

(e) if approval by members was required:

(i) the designation, number of memberships outstanding, number of votes entitled to be cast by each class entitled to vote separately on dissolution, and number of votes of each class indisputably voting on dissolution; and

(ii) (A) either the total number of votes cast for and against dissolution by each class entitled to vote separately on dissolution or the total number of undisputed votes cast for dissolution by each class; and

(B) a statement that the number cast for dissolution by each class was sufficient for approval by that class;

(f) if approval of dissolution by some person or persons other than the members, the board, or the incorporators is required pursuant to [section 135(1)(c)], a statement that the approval was obtained; and

(g) if the corporation is a public benefit or religious corporation, that the notice to the attorney general required by [section 136(1)] has been given.

(2) A corporation is dissolved upon the effective date of its articles of dissolution.

Section 138. Revocation of dissolution. (1) A corporation may revoke its dissolution within 120 days of its effective date.

(2) Revocation of dissolution must be authorized in the same manner as the dissolution was authorized unless that authorization permitted revocation by action of the board of directors alone, in which event the board of directors may revoke the dissolution without action by the members or any other person.

(3) After the revocation of dissolution is authorized, the corporation may revoke the dissolution by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, articles of revocation of dissolution, together with a copy of its articles of dissolution, that set forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) the effective date of the dissolution that was revoked;

(c) the date that the revocation of dissolution was authorized;

(d) if the corporation's board of directors or incorporators revoked the dissolution, a statement to that effect;

(e) if the corporation's board of directors revoked a dissolution authorized by the members alone or in conjunction with another person or persons, a statement that revocation was permitted by action by the board of directors alone pursuant to that authorization; and

(f) if member or third person action was required to revoke the dissolution, the information required by [sections 137(1)(e) and (1)(f)].

(4) Revocation of dissolution is effective upon the effective date of the articles of revocation of dissolution.

(5) When the revocation of dissolution is effective, it relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the dissolution and the corporation may resume carrying on its activities as if dissolution had never occurred.

Section 139. Effect of dissolution. (1) A dissolved corporation continues its corporate existence but may not carry on any activities except those appropriate to wind up and liquidate its affairs, including:

(a) preserving and protecting its assets and minimizing its liabilities;

(b) discharging or making provision for discharging its liabilities and obligations;

(c) disposing of its properties that will not be distributed in kind;

(d) returning, transferring, or conveying assets held by the corporation upon a condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance in accordance with the condition;

(e) transferring, subject to any contractual or legal requirements, its assets as provided in or authorized by its articles of incorporation or bylaws;

(f) if the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and provision has not been made in its articles or bylaws for distribution of assets on dissolution, transferring, subject to any contractual or legal requirement, its assets:

(i) to one or more persons described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code; or

(ii) if the dissolved corporation is not described in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, to one or more public benefit corporations or religious corporations;

(g) if the corporation is a mutual benefit corporation and provision has not been made in its articles or bylaws for distribution of assets on dissolution, transferring its assets to its members or, if it does not have members, to those persons whom the corporation holds itself out as benefitting or serving; and

(h) doing every other act necessary to wind up and liquidate its assets and affairs.

(2) Dissolution of a corporation does not:

(a) transfer title to the corporation's property;

(b) subject its directors or officers to standards of conduct different from those prescribed in [sections 75 through 109];

(c) change quorum or voting requirements for its board or members; change provisions for selection, resignation, or removal of its directors or officers, or both; or change provisions for amending its bylaws;

(d) prevent commencement of a proceeding by or against the corporation in its corporate name;

(e) abate or suspend a proceeding pending by or against the corporation on the effective date of dissolution; or

(f) terminate the authority of the registered agent.

Section 140. Known claims against dissolved corporation. (1) A dissolved corporation shall dispose of the known claims against it by following the procedure described in this section.

(2) The dissolved corporation shall notify its known claimants in writing of the dissolution at any time after its effective date. The written notice must:

(a) describe information that must be included in a claim;

(b) provide a mailing address where a claim may be sent;

(c) state the deadline, which may not be fewer than 120 days from the effective date of the written notice, by which the dissolved corporation must receive the claim; and

(d) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline.

(3) A claim against the dissolved corporation is barred:

(a) if a claimant who was given written notice under subsection (2) does not deliver the claim to the dissolved corporation by the deadline; or

(b) if a claimant whose claim was rejected by the dissolved corporation does not commence a proceeding to enforce the claim within 90 days from the effective date of the rejection notice.

(4) For purposes of this section, "claim" does not include a contingent liability or a claim based on an event occurring after the effective date of dissolution.

Section 141. Unknown claims against dissolved corporations. (1) The dissolution of a corporation, including by the expiration of its term, does not take away or impair any remedy available to or against the corporation, its officers, directors, or members for any claim or right, whether or not the claim or right existed or accrued prior to the dissolution. Any action or proceeding by or against the corporation referred to in this subsection may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. Members, directors, and officers may take corporate or other action as is appropriate to protect a remedy, right, or claim.

(2) A claim may be enforced under this section or [section 140]:

(a) against the dissolved corporation, to the extent of its undistributed assets; or

(b) if the assets have been distributed in liquidation, against a member of the dissolved corporation to the extent of the member's pro rata share of the claim or the corporate assets distributed to him in liquidation, whichever is less. However, a member's total liability for all claims under this section may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the member.

(3) Subsections (1) and (2) apply to a foreign corporation transacting business in this state, and its members, for any claims otherwise arising or accruing under Montana law.

Section 142. Grounds for judicial dissolution. (1) The district court may dissolve a corporation:

(a) in a proceeding by the attorney general if it is established that:

(i) the corporation obtained its articles of incorporation through fraud;

(ii) the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(iii) the corporation is a public benefit corporation and the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

(iv) the corporation is a public benefit corporation and is no longer able to carry out its purposes;

(b) in a proceeding by 50 members or members holding 5% of the voting power, whichever is less, or by a director or any person specified in the articles, except as provided in the articles or bylaws of a religious corporation, if it is established that:

(i) the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and the members, if any, are unable to breach the deadlock;

(ii) the directors or those in control of the corporation have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal, oppressive, or fraudulent;

(iii) the members are deadlocked in voting power and have failed, for a period that includes at least two consecutive annual meeting dates, to elect successors to directors whose terms have or would otherwise have expired;

(iv) the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

(v) the corporation is a public benefit corporation or religious corporation and is no longer able to carry out its purposes;

(c) in a proceeding by a creditor if it is established that:

(i) the creditor's claim has been reduced to judgment, the execution on the judgment returned unsatisfied, and the corporation is insolvent; or

(ii) the corporation has admitted in writing that the creditor's claim is due and owing and the corporation is insolvent; or

(d) in a proceeding by the corporation to have its voluntary dissolution continued under court supervision.

(2) Prior to dissolving a corporation, the court shall consider whether:

(a) there are reasonable alternatives to dissolution;

(b) dissolution is in the public interest, if the corporation is a public benefit corporation; and

(c) dissolution is the best way of protecting the interests of members if the corporation is a mutual benefit corporation.

Section 143. Procedure for judicial dissolution. (1) Venue for a proceeding by the attorney general to dissolve a corporation lies in the district court for the first judicial district. Venue for a proceeding brought by any other party named in [section 142] lies in the judicial district for the county where a corporation's principal office or, if the principal office is not located in this state, the county where its registered office is or was last located.

(2) It is not necessary to make directors or members parties to a proceeding to dissolve a corporation unless relief is sought against them individually.

(3) In a proceeding brought to dissolve a corporation, a court may issue injunctions, appoint a receiver or custodian pendente lite with all powers and duties the court directs, take other action required to preserve the corporate assets wherever located, and carry on the activities of the corporation until a full hearing can be held.

(4) A person other than the attorney general who brings an involuntary dissolution proceeding for a public benefit corporation or religious corporation shall give written notice of the proceeding to the attorney general who may intervene.

Section 144. Receivership or custodianship. (1) A court in a judicial proceeding brought to dissolve a public benefit corporation or mutual benefit corporation may appoint one or more receivers to wind up and liquidate the affairs of the corporation or one or more custodians to manage the affairs of the corporation. The court shall hold a hearing, after notifying all parties to the proceeding and any interested persons designated by the court, before appointing a receiver or custodian. The court appointing a receiver or custodian has exclusive jurisdiction over the corporation and all of its property, wherever located.

(2) The court may appoint, as a receiver or custodian, an individual authorized to transact business in this state or a domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state. The court may require the receiver or custodian to post bond, with or without sureties, in an amount the court directs.

(3) The court shall describe the powers and duties of the receiver or custodian in its appointing order, which may be amended from time to time. Among other powers:

(a) the receiver:

(i) may, if authorized by the court, dispose of all or any part of the assets of the corporation wherever located, at a public or private sale, subject to any trust and other restrictions that would be applicable to the corporation; and

(ii) may sue and defend in the receiver's or custodian's name as receiver or custodian of the corporation in all courts of this state; and

(b) the custodian may exercise all the powers of the corporation through or in place of its board of directors or officers to the extent necessary to manage the affairs of the corporation in the best interests of its members and creditors.

(4) The court during a receivership may redesignate the receiver a custodian and during a custodianship may redesignate the custodian a receiver if doing so is in the best interests of the corporation, its members, and its creditors.

(5) From time to time during the receivership or custodianship, the court may order compensation paid and expense disbursements or reimbursements made to the receiver or custodian and the receiver or custodian's counsel from the assets of the corporation or proceeds from the sale of the assets.

Section 145. Decree of dissolution. (1) If after a hearing the court determines that one or more grounds for judicial dissolution described in [section 142] exist, it may enter a decree dissolving the corporation and specifying the effective date of the dissolution, and the clerk of the court shall deliver a certified copy of the decree to the secretary of state, who shall file it.

(2) After entering the decree of dissolution, the court shall direct the winding up and liquidation of the corporation's affairs in accordance with [section 139] and the notification of its claimants in accordance with [sections 140 and 141].

Section 146. Deposit with state treasurer. Assets of a dissolved corporation that should be transferred to a creditor, claimant, or member of the corporation who cannot be found or who is not competent to receive them must be reduced to cash, subject to known trust restrictions, and deposited with the state treasurer for safekeeping. However, in the state treasurer's discretion, property may be received and held in kind. When the creditor, claimant, or member furnishes satisfactory proof of entitlement to the amount deposited or property held in kind, the state treasurer shall deliver to the creditor, claimant, member, or other person as his representative that amount or property.

Section 147. Authority to transact business required. (1) A foreign corporation may not transact business in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority from the secretary of state.

(2) The following activities, among others, do not constitute transacting business within the meaning of subsection (1):

(a) maintaining, defending, or settling any proceeding;

(b) holding meetings of the board of directors or members or carrying on other activities concerning internal corporate affairs;

(c) maintaining bank accounts;

(d) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of memberships or securities or maintaining trustees or depositaries with respect to those securities;

(e) selling through independent contractors;

(f) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;

(g) creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, and security interests in real or personal property;

(h) securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages and security interests in property securing the debts;

(i) owning real or personal property:

(i) that is acquired incident to activities described in subsection (2)(h) if the property is disposed of within 5 years after the date of acquisition; or

(ii) that does not produce income or is not used in the performance of a corporate function;

(j) conducting an isolated transaction that is completed within 30 days and that is not a transaction in the course of repeated transactions of a similar nature; or

(k) transacting business in interstate commerce.

(3) The list of activities in subsection (2) is not exhaustive.

Section 148. Consequences of transacting business without authority. (1) A foreign corporation transacting business in this state without a certificate of authority may not maintain a proceeding in any court in this state until it obtains a certificate of authority.

(2) The successor to a foreign corporation that transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority and the assignee of a cause of action arising out of that business may not maintain a proceeding on that cause of action in any court in this state until the foreign corporation or its successor obtains a certificate of authority.

(3) A court may stay a proceeding commenced by a foreign corporation, its successor, or its assignee until it determines whether the foreign corporation, its successor, or its assignee requires a certificate of authority. If it determines that a certificate is required, the court may further stay the proceeding until the foreign corporation, its successor, or its assignee obtains the certificate.

(4) A foreign corporation is liable for a civil penalty of $5 for each day, but not to exceed a total of $1,000 for each year, that it transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority. The attorney general may collect all penalties due under this subsection.

(5) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2), the failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority does not impair the validity of its corporate acts or prevent it from defending any proceeding in this state.

Section 149. Application for certificate of authority. (1) A foreign corporation may apply for a certificate of authority to transact business in this state by delivering an application to the secretary of state. The application must set forth:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation or, if its name is unavailable for use in this state, a corporate name that satisfies the requirements of [section 152];

(b) the name of the state or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(c) the date of incorporation and period of duration;

(d) the street address and, if different, the mailing address of its principal office;

(e) the street address and, if different, the mailing address of its registered office in this state and the name of its registered agent at that office;

(f) the names and usual business or home addresses of its current directors and officers;

(g) whether the foreign corporation has members;

(h) whether the corporation, if it had been incorporated in this state, would be a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation; and

(i) the purpose or purposes of the corporation that it proposes to pursue in the transaction of business in this state.

(2) The foreign corporation shall deliver with the completed application a certificate of existence or a similar document authenticated by the secretary of state or other official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law the foreign corporation is incorporated.

Section 150. Amended certificate of authority. (1) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall obtain an amended certificate of authority from the secretary of state if it changes:

(a) its corporate name;

(b) the period of its duration;

(c) the state or country of its incorporation; or

(d) its designation as a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation.

(2) The requirements of [section 149] for obtaining an original certificate of authority apply to obtaining an amended certificate under this section.

Section 151. Effect of certificate of authority. (1) A certificate of authority authorizes the foreign corporation to which it is issued the right to transact business in this state subject, however, to the right of the state to revoke the certificate as provided in [sections 1 through 168].

(2) A foreign corporation with a valid certificate of authority has the same rights and enjoys the same privileges as a domestic corporation of a similar character and, except as otherwise provided by [sections 1 through 168], is subject to the same duties, restrictions, penalties, and liabilities now or later imposed on a domestic corporation of a similar character.

(3) [Sections 1 through 168] do not authorize this state to regulate the organization or internal affairs of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state.

Section 152. Corporate name of foreign corporation. (1) If the corporate name of a foreign corporation does not satisfy the requirements of [section 31], the foreign corporation, to obtain or maintain a certificate of authority to transact business in this state, may use a fictitious name to transact business in this state if:

(a) its real name is unavailable; and

(b) it delivers to the secretary of state, for filing, a copy of the resolution of its board of directors, certified by its secretary, adopting the fictitious name.

(2) Except as authorized by subsections (3) and (4), the corporate name, including a fictitious name, of a foreign corporation must be distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from:

(a) the corporate name of a nonprofit or business corporation incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state;

(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under [section 32 or 33] or 35-1-302 or 35-1-303;

(c) the fictitious name of another foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state;

(d) the corporate name of a domestic corporation that has dissolved, but distinguishable only for a period of 120 days after the effective date of dissolution; and

(e) any assumed business name, limited partnership name, trademark, or service mark registered or reserved with the secretary of state.

(3) A foreign corporation may apply to the secretary of state for authorization to use in this state the name of another corporation, incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state, that is not distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name applied for. The secretary of state shall authorize use of the name applied for if:

(a) the other corporation consents to the use in writing and submits an undertaking in a form satisfactory to the secretary of state to change its name to a name that is distinguishable in the records of the secretary of state from the name of the applying corporation; or

(b) the applicant delivers to the secretary of state a certified copy of a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the applicant's right to use the name applied for in this state.

(4) A foreign corporation may use in this state the name, including the fictitious name, of another domestic or foreign business or nonprofit corporation that is used in this state if the other corporation is incorporated or authorized to transact business in this state and the foreign corporation:

(a) has merged with the other corporation;

(b) has been formed by reorganization of the other corporation; or

(c) has acquired all or substantially all of the assets, including the corporate name, of the other corporation.

(5) If a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state changes its corporate name to one that does not satisfy the requirements of [section 31], it may not transact business in this state under the changed name until it adopts a name satisfying the requirements of [section 31] and obtains an amended certificate of authority under [section 150].

Section 153. Registered office and registered agent of foreign corporation. Each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall continuously maintain in this state:

(1) a registered office with the same address as that of its registered agent; and

(2) a registered agent who may be:

(a) an individual who resides in this state and whose office is identical with the registered office;

(b) a domestic business or nonprofit corporation whose office is identical with the registered office; or

(c) a foreign business or nonprofit corporation authorized to transact business in this state whose office is identical with the registered office.

Section 154. Change of registered office or registered agent of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may change its registered office or registered agent by delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement of change that sets forth:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation;

(b) the street address and, if different, the mailing address of its current registered office;

(c) if the current registered office is to be changed, the street address and, if different, the mailing address of its new registered office;

(d) the name of its current registered agent;

(e) if the current registered agent is to be changed, the name of its new registered agent and the new agent's written consent to the appointment, either on the statement or attached to it; and

(f) the fact that after the change or changes are made, the street addresses of its registered office and the office of its registered agent will be identical.

(2) If a registered agent changes the street address of its business office, the agent may change the address of the registered office of any foreign corporation for which the agent is the registered agent by notifying the corporation in writing of the change and signing, either manually or in facsimile, and delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, a statement of change that complies with the requirements of subsection (1) and that states that the corporation has been notified of the change.

Section 155. Resignation of registered agent of foreign corporation. (1) The registered agent of a foreign corporation may resign as agent by signing and delivering to the secretary of state, for filing, the original and two copies of a statement of resignation. The statement of resignation may include a statement that the registered office is also discontinued.

(2) After filing the statement, the secretary of state shall attach the filing receipt to one copy and mail the copy and receipt to the registered office if the office has not been discontinued. The secretary of state shall mail the other copy to the foreign corporation at its principal office address shown in its most recent annual report.

(3) The agency is terminated, and the registered office discontinued if so provided, 31 days after the date on which the statement was filed.

Section 156. Service of process on foreign corporations. Service of process on a foreign corporation must be effected upon the persons and in the manner provided for by the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 157. Withdrawal of foreign corporation. (1) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may not withdraw from this state until it obtains a certificate of withdrawal from the secretary of state.

(2) A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state may apply for a certificate of withdrawal by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must set forth:

(a) the name of the foreign corporation and the name of the state or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(b) the fact that it is not transacting business in this state and that it surrenders its authority to transact business in this state;

(c) the fact that it revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf and appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was authorized to do business in this state;

(d) a mailing address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process served on him under subsection (2)(c); and

(e) a commitment to notify the secretary of state, in the future, of any change in the mailing address.

Section 158. Grounds for revocation. (1) The secretary of state may commence a proceeding under [section 159] to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state if:

(a) the foreign corporation does not deliver the annual report to the secretary of state within 90 days after it is due;

(b) the foreign corporation does not pay within 90 days after they are due any franchise taxes or penalties imposed by [sections 1 through 168] or other law;

(c) the foreign corporation is without a registered agent or registered office in this state for 90 days or more;

(d) the foreign corporation does not inform the secretary of state under [sections 154 or 155] that its registered agent or registered office has changed, that its registered agent has resigned, or that its registered office has been discontinued, within 90 days of the change, resignation, or discontinuance;

(e) an incorporator, director, officer, or agent of the foreign corporation signed a document that the person knew was false in any material respect, with the intent that the document be delivered to the secretary of state for filing; or

(f) the secretary of state receives a duly authenticated certificate from the secretary of state or other official having custody of corporate records in the state or country under whose law the foreign corporation is incorporated, which certificate states that the foreign corporation has been dissolved or disappeared as the result of a merger.

(2) The attorney general may commence a proceeding under [section 159] to revoke the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state if:

(a) the corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(b) the corporation is designated as a foreign public benefit corporation and its corporation assets in this state are being misapplied or wasted; or

(c) the corporation is designated as a foreign public benefit corporation and it is no longer able to carry out its purpose.

Section 159. Procedure for and effect of revocation. (1) The secretary of state upon determining that one or more grounds exist under [section 158] for revocation of a certificate of authority shall serve the foreign corporation with written notice of that determination under [section 156].

(2) The attorney general, upon determining that one or more grounds exist under [section 158(2)] for revocation of a certificate of authority, shall request the secretary of state to serve, and the secretary of state shall serve, the foreign corporation with written notice of that determination under [section 156].

(3) If the foreign corporation does not correct each ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the secretary of state or attorney general that each ground for revocation determined by the secretary of state or attorney general does not exist within 60 days after service of the notice is perfected under [section 156], the secretary of state may revoke the foreign corporation's certificate of authority by signing a certificate of revocation that states the ground or grounds for revocation and the effective date of the revocation. The secretary of state shall file the original of the certificate and serve a copy on the foreign corporation under [section 156].

(4) The authority of a foreign corporation to transact business in this state ceases on the date shown on the certificate revoking its certificate of authority.

(5) Revocation of a foreign corporation's certificate of authority does not terminate the authority of the registered agent of the corporation.

Section 160. Appeal from revocation. (1) A foreign corporation may appeal the secretary of state's revocation of its certificate of authority to the district court for the first judicial district within 30 days after the service of the certificate of revocation is perfected under [section 156]. The foreign corporation shall appeal by petitioning the court to set aside the revocation and attaching to the petition copies of its certificate of authority and the secretary of state's certificate of revocation.

(2) The court may summarily order the secretary of state to reinstate the certificate of authority or may take any other action the court considers appropriate.

(3) The court's final decision may be appealed as in other civil proceedings.

Section 161. Corporate records. (1) A corporation shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its members and board of directors, a record of all actions taken by the members or directors without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by committees of the board of directors as authorized by [section 90(4)].

(2) A corporation shall maintain appropriate accounting records.

(3) A corporation or its agent shall maintain a record of its members in a form that permits preparation of a list of the names and addresses of all members, in alphabetical order by class, showing the number of votes each member is entitled to cast.

(4) A corporation shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

(5) A corporation shall keep a copy of the following records at its principal office or a location from which the records may be recovered within 2 business days:

(a) its articles or restated articles of incorporation and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(b) its bylaws or restated bylaws and all amendments to them currently in effect;

(c) resolutions adopted by its board of directors relating to the characteristics, qualifications, rights, limitations, and obligations of members or any class or category of members;

(d) the minutes of all meetings of members and the records of all actions approved by the members for the past 3 years;

(e) the financial statements available to shareholders for the past 3 years under [section 166];

(f) a list of the names and business or home addresses of its current directors and officers; and

(g) its most recent annual report delivered to the secretary of state under [section 168].

Section 162. Inspection of records by members. (1) Subject to [section 163(3)] and subsection (5) of this section, a member is entitled to inspect and copy, at a reasonable time and location specified by the corporation, any of the records of the corporation described in [section 161(5)] if the member gives the corporation written notice or a written demand at least 5 business days before the date on which the member wishes to inspect and copy.

(2) Subject to subsection (5), a member is entitled to inspect and copy, at a reasonable time and reasonable location specified by the corporation, any of the following records of the corporation if the member meets the requirements of subsection (3) and gives the corporation written notice at least 5 business days before the date on which the member wishes to inspect and copy:

(a) excerpts from any records required to be maintained under [section 161(1)], to the extent not subject to inspection under subsection (1);

(b) accounting records of the corporation; and

(c) subject to [section 165], the membership list.

(3) A member may inspect and copy the records identified in subsection (2) only if:

(a) the member's demand is made in good faith and for a proper purpose;

(b) the member describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records the member desires to inspect; and

(c) the records are directly connected with this purpose.

(4) This section does not affect:

(a) the right of a member to inspect records under [section 66] or, if the member is in litigation with the corporation, to the same extent as any other litigant; or

(b) the power of a court, independent of [sections 1 through 168], to compel the production of corporate records for examination.

(5) The articles or bylaws of a religious corporation may limit or abolish the right of a member under this section to inspect and copy any corporate record.

Section 163. Scope of inspection rights. (1) A member's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the member the agent or attorney represents.

(2) The right to copy records under [section 162] includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies made by photographic, xerographic, or other means.

(3) The corporation may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of documents provided to the member. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production or reproduction of the records.

(4) The corporation may comply with a member's demand to inspect the record of members under [section 162(2)(c)] by providing the member with a list of its members that was compiled no earlier than the date of the member's demand.

Section 164. Court-ordered inspection. (1) If a corporation does not allow a member who complies with [section 162(1)] to inspect and copy any records required by that subsection to be available for inspection, the district court, for the judicial district of the county where the corporation's principal office, or, if none in this state, its registered office, is located may summarily order inspection and copying of the records demanded at the corporation's expense upon application of the member.

(2) If a corporation does not within a reasonable time allow a member to inspect and copy any other record, the member who complies with [sections 162(2) and (3)] may apply to the district court, for the judicial district of the county where the corporation's principal office or, if the principal office is not located in this state, the county where its registered office is located for an order to permit inspection and copying of the records demanded. The court shall dispose of an application under this subsection on an expedited basis.

(3) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it shall also order the corporation to pay the member's costs, including reasonable attorney fees, incurred to obtain the order unless the corporation proves that it refused inspection in good faith because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the member to inspect the records demanded.

(4) If the court orders inspection and copying of the records demanded, it may impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding member.

Section 165. Limitations on use of membership list. (1) Without consent of the board, a membership list or any part of it may not be obtained or used by a person for any purpose unrelated to a member's interest as a member.

(2) Without limiting the generality of the provisions of subsection (1), without the consent of the board a membership list or any part of it may not be:

(a) used to solicit money or property unless the money or property will be used solely to solicit the votes of the members in an election to be held by the corporation;

(b) used for any commercial purpose; or

(c) sold to or purchased by any person.

Section 166. Financial statements for members. Upon the written request of any member of the corporation, the corporation shall mail to the member its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of the operations.

Section 167. Report of indemnification to members. If a corporation indemnifies or advances expenses to a director under [sections 102 through 105] in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation, the corporation shall report the indemnification or advance in writing to the members with or before the notice of the next meeting of members.

Section 168. Annual report for secretary of state. (1) Each domestic corporation and each foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state shall deliver to the secretary of state, for filing, an annual report on a form prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state that sets forth:

(a) the name of the corporation and the state or country under whose law it is incorporated;

(b) the address of its registered office and the name of its registered agent at the office in this state;

(c) the address of its principal office;

(d) the names and business or residence addresses of its directors and principal officers;

(e) a brief description of the nature of its activities; and

(f) whether or not it has members.

(2) The information in the annual report must be current on the date the annual report is executed on behalf of the corporation.

(3) The first annual report must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15 of the year following the calendar year in which a domestic corporation was incorporated or a foreign corporation was authorized to transact business. Subsequent annual reports must be delivered to the secretary of state between January 1 and April 15.

(4) If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section, the secretary of state shall promptly notify the reporting domestic or foreign corporation in writing and return the report to it for correction. If the report is corrected to contain the information required by this section and delivered to the secretary of state within 30 days after the effective date of notice, it is considered to be timely filed.

Section 169. Section 15-1-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-1-101. Definitions. (1) Except as otherwise specifically provided, when terms mentioned in this section are used in connection with taxation, they are defined in the following manner:

(a) The term "agricultural" refers to the raising of livestock, poultry, bees, and other species of domestic animals and wildlife in domestication or a captive environment, and the raising of field crops, fruit, and other animal and vegetable matter for food or fiber.

(b) The term "assessed value" means the value of property as defined in 15-8-111.

(c) The term "average wholesale value" means the value to a dealer prior to reconditioning and profit margin shown in national appraisal guides and manuals or the valuation schedules of the department of revenue.

(d) (i) The term "commercial", when used to describe property, means any property used or owned by a business, a trade, or a ~~nonprofit~~ corporation as defined in ~~35-2-102~~ [section 1], or used for the production of income, except that property described in subsection (ii).

(ii) The following types of property are not commercial:

(A) agricultural lands;

(B) timberlands;

(C) single-family residences and ancillary improvements and improvements necessary to the function of a bona fide farm, ranch, or stock operation;

(D) mobile homes used exclusively as a residence except when held by a distributor or dealer of trailers or mobile homes as his stock in trade;

(E) all property described in 15-6-135; and

(F) all property described in 15-6-136.

(e) The term "comparable property" means property that has similar use, function, and utility; that is influenced by the same set of economic trends and physical, governmental, and social factors; and that has the potential of a similar highest and best use.

(f) The term "credit" means solvent debts, secured or unsecured, owing to a person.

(g) The term "improvements" includes all buildings, structures, fences, and improvements situated upon, erected upon, or affixed to land. When the department of revenue or its agent determines that the permanency of location of a mobile home or housetrailer has been established, the mobile home or housetrailer is presumed to be an improvement to real property. A mobile home or housetrailer may be determined to be permanently located only when it is attached to a foundation which cannot feasibly be relocated and only when the wheels are removed.

(h) The term "leasehold improvements" means improvements to mobile homes and mobile homes located on land owned by another person. This property is assessed under the appropriate classification and the taxes are due and payable in two payments as provided in 15-24-202. Delinquent taxes on such leasehold improvements are a lien only on such leasehold improvements.

(i) The term "livestock" means cattle, sheep, swine, goats, horses, mules, and asses.

(j) The term "mobile home" means forms of housing known as "trailers", "housetrailers", or "trailer coaches" exceeding 8 feet in width or 45 feet in length, designed to be moved from one place to another by an independent power connected to them, or any "trailer", "housetrailer", or "trailer coach" up to 8 feet in width or 45 feet in length used as a principal residence.

(k) The term "personal property" includes everything that is the subject of ownership but that is not included within the meaning of the terms "real estate" and "improvements".

(l) The term "poultry" includes all chickens, turkeys, geese, ducks, and other birds raised in domestication to produce food or feathers.

(m) The term "property" includes moneys, credits, bonds, stocks, franchises, and all other matters and things, real, personal, and mixed, capable of private ownership. This definition must not be construed to authorize the taxation of the stocks of any company or corporation when the property of such company or corporation represented by the stocks is within the state and has been taxed.

(n) The term "real estate" includes:

(i) the possession of, claim to, ownership of, or right to the possession of land;

(ii) all mines, minerals, and quarries in and under the land subject to the provisions of 15-23-501 and Title 15, chapter 23, part 8; all timber belonging to individuals or corporations growing or being on the lands of the United States; and all rights and privileges appertaining thereto.

(o) "Research and development firm" means an entity incorporated under the laws of this state or a foreign corporation authorized to do business in this state whose principal purpose is to engage in theoretical analysis, exploration, and experimentation and the extension of investigative findings and theories of a scientific and technical nature into practical application for experimental and demonstration purposes, including the experimental production and testing of models, devices, equipment, materials, and processes.

(p) The term "taxable value" means the percentage of market or assessed value as provided for in Title 15, chapter 6, part 1.

(q) The term "weighted mean assessment ratio" means the total of the assessed values divided by the total of the selling prices of all area sales in the stratum.

(2) The phrase "municipal corporation" or "municipality" or "taxing unit" shall be deemed to include a county, city, incorporated town, township, school district, irrigation district, drainage district, or any person, persons, or organized body authorized by law to establish tax levies for the purpose of raising public revenue.

(3) The term "state board" or "board" when used without other qualification shall mean the state tax appeal board."

Section 170. Section 33-17-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-17-211. General qualifications — application for license. (1) An individual applying for a license shall apply on a form specified by the commissioner and declare under penalty of refusal, suspension, or revocation of the license that statements made in the application are true, correct, and complete to the best of the individual's knowledge and belief. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that the individual:

(a) is 18 years of age or older;

(b) has not committed an act that is a ground for refusal, suspension, or revocation set forth in 33-17-1001;

(c) has paid the license fees stated in 33-2-708;

(d) has successfully passed the examinations for each kind of insurance for which the individual has applied;

(e) is a resident of this state or of another state that grants similar privileges to residents of this state;

(f) is competent, trustworthy, and of good reputation;

(g) has experience or training or otherwise is qualified in the kind or kinds of insurance for which he applies to be licensed and is reasonably familiar with the provisions of this code which govern his operations as an insurance producer; and

(h) if applying for a license as to life or disability insurance:

(i) is not a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state;

(ii) is not an officer, employee, or representative of a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state; or

(iii) does not hold an interest in or benefit from a business of a funeral director, undertaker, or mortician operating in this or any other state.

(2) A person acting as an insurance producer shall obtain a license. A person shall apply for a license on a form specified by the commissioner. Before approving the application, the commissioner shall verify that:

(a) the person meets the requirements listed in subsection (1);

(b) the person has paid the licensing fees stated in 33-2-708 for each individual licensed in conjunction with the person's license. A licensed person shall promptly notify the commissioner of each change relating to an individual listed in the license.

(c) the person has designated a licensed officer responsible for compliance by the person with the insurance laws and rules of this state;

(d) each member and employee of a partnership and each officer, director, stockholder, or employee of a corporation who is acting as an insurance producer in this state has obtained a license;

(e) (i) if the person is a partnership or corporation, the transaction of insurance business is within the purposes stated in the partnership agreement or the articles of incorporation; and

(ii) if the person is a corporation, the secretary of state has issued a certificate of incorporation under 35-1-203 or ~~35-2-203~~ filed articles of incorporation under [section 23].

(3) The commissioner may license as a resident insurance producer an association of licensed Montana insurance producers, whether or not incorporated, formed and existing substantially for purposes other than insurance. The license must be used solely for the purpose of enabling the association to place, as a resident insurance producer, insurance of the properties, interests, and risks of the state of Montana and of other public agencies, bodies, and institutions and to receive the customary commission for the placement. The president and secretary of the association shall apply for the license in the name of the association, and the commissioner shall issue the license to the association in its name alone. The fee for the license is the same as that required by 33-2-708 for the license of an insurance producer. The commissioner may, after a hearing with notice to the association, revoke the license if he finds that continuation of the license is not in the public interest or that a ground listed in 33-17-1001 exists.

(4) An insurance producer using an assumed business name shall register the name with the commissioner before using it."

Section 171. Section 35-6-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-6-104. Involuntary dissolution — procedure. (1) On or before April 1, August 1, and September 1 of each year, the secretary of state shall compile a list of defaulting corporations, together with the amount of any filing fee, penalty, or costs remaining unpaid.

(2) The secretary of state shall give notice to the defaulting corporations by causing such list to be posted in the state capitol for a period of at least 90 days and:

(a) by mailing a letter addressed to the corporation in care of its registered agent or any director or officer; or

(b) by publication of a general notice to all Montana corporations once a month for 3 consecutive months in a newspaper of general circulation in Lewis and Clark County.

(3) The notice referred to in subsection (2) shall specify the fact of the proposed dissolution and state that unless the grounds for dissolution described in 35-6-102 have been rectified within 90 days following the posting and mailing or publication of notice:

(a) the secretary of state will dissolve such defaulting corporations;

(b) such corporations will forfeit the amount of any tax, penalty, or costs to the state of Montana; and

(c) such corporations will forfeit their rights to carry on business within the state.

(4) After 90 days following posting and mailing or publication of each notice, the secretary of state may, by order, dissolve all corporations which have not satisfied the requirements of applicable law and compile a full and complete list containing the names of all corporations that have been so dissolved. The secretary of state shall immediately give notice to the dissolved corporation as specified in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In the case of involuntary dissolution, all the property and assets of the dissolved corporation shall be held in trust by the directors of such corporation and 35-1-921 or ~~35-2-711~~ [section 143], whichever is appropriate, is applicable to liquidate such property and assets if necessary."

Section 172. Section 35-6-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"35-6-201. Reinstatement of dissolved corporation. (1) The secretary of state may:

(a) reinstate any corporation which has been dissolved under the provisions of this chapter; and

(b) restore to such corporation its right to carry on business in this state and to exercise all its corporate privileges and immunities.

(2) A corporation applying for reinstatement shall submit to the secretary of state one original and one copy of the application, executed by a person who was an officer or director at the time of dissolution, setting forth:

(a) the name of the corporation;

(b) a statement that the assets of the corporation have not been liquidated pursuant to 35-1-921 or ~~35-2-711~~ [sections 140 and 141];

(c) a statement that not less than a majority of its directors have authorized the application for reinstatement; and

(d) if its corporate name has been legally acquired by another corporation prior to its application for reinstatement, the corporate name under which the corporation desires to be reinstated.

(3) The corporation shall submit with its application for reinstatement:

(a) a certificate from the department of revenue stating that all taxes imposed pursuant to Title 15 have been paid; and

(b) a filing fee in an amount equal to one-half of the filing and license fees which the corporation would be required to pay if the corporation were filing its articles of incorporation.

(4) When all requirements are met and the secretary of state reinstates the corporation to its former rights, he shall:

(a) conform and file in his office reports, statements, and other instruments submitted for reinstatement;

(b) immediately issue and deliver to the corporation so reinstated a certificate of reinstatement authorizing it to transact business; and

(c) upon demand, issue to the corporation one or more certified copies of such certificate of reinstatement.

(5) The secretary of state may not order a reinstatement if 5 years have elapsed since the dissolution."

Section 173. Interim designation. (1) Each domestic corporation not designated pursuant to [section 16] is designated as follows:

(a) a corporation that is organized primarily or exclusively for religious purposes is a religious corporation;

(b) a corporation that is not provided for under the provisions of subsection (1)(a) but that is recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any successor section, is a public benefit corporation;

(c) a corporation that is not provided for under the provisions of subsection (1)(a) or (1)(b), but that is organized for a public or charitable purpose and that, upon dissolution, shall distribute its assets to a public benefit corporation, the United States, a state, or a person that is recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or any successor section, is a public benefit corporation; and

(d) a corporation that is not provided for under the provisions of subsection (1)(a), (1)(b), or (1)(c) is a mutual benefit corporation.

(2) Foreign corporations authorized to transact business in this state but not designated pursuant to [section 16] are designated as a public benefit corporation, mutual benefit corporation, or religious corporation in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1).

Section 174. Repealer. Sections 35-2-102 through 35-2-112, 35-2-201 through 35-2-211, 35-2-301 through 35-2-304, 35-2-401 through 35-2-413, 35-2-501 through 35-2-509, 35-2-601 through 35-2-607, 35-2-701 through 35-2-706, 35-2-711 through 35-2-719, 35-2-801 through 35-2-819, 35-2-901 through 35-2-903, 35-2-1001, 35-2-1002, 35-2-1101 through 35-2-1106, and 35-2-1201 through 35-2-1203, MCA, are repealed.

Section 175. Codification. (1) [Sections 1 through 168] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 35, and the provisions of Title 35 apply to [sections 1 through 168].

(2) Section 35-2-101 is intended to be renumbered and codified as an integral part of [sections 1 through 168].

Section 176. Coordination. If House Bill No. 552 is passed and approved and if it includes a section that repeals sections 35-1-302 and 35-1-303, then [section 152(2)(b) of this act] is amended to read:

"(b) a corporate name reserved or registered under [section 32 or 33] of [sections 1 through 168] or [section 26 or 27 of House Bill No. 552]."

Section 177. Saving clause. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), the repeal of a statute by [this act] does not affect:

(a) the operation of the statute or any action taken under it before its repeal;

(b) any ratification, right, remedy, privilege, obligation, or liability acquired, accrued, or incurred under the statute before its repeal;

(c) any violation of the statute or any penalty, forfeiture, or punishment incurred because of the violation, before its repeal;

(d) any proceeding, reorganization, or dissolution commenced under the statute before its repeal. The proceeding, reorganization, or dissolution may be completed in accordance with the statute as if it had not been repealed.

(e) any meeting of members or directors or any action by written consent that is noticed or taken before its repeal as a result of a meeting of members or directors or action by written consent.

(2) If a penalty or punishment imposed for violation of a statute repealed by [this act] is reduced by [this act], the penalty or punishment, if not already imposed, must be imposed in accordance with [this act].

Section 178. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 179. Application to existing domestic corporations. (1) [This act] applies to all domestic corporations in existence on January 1, 1992, that were incorporated under Title 35, chapter 2, or any predecessor statute.

(2) [This act] applies to each domestic corporation in existence on January 1, 1992, that was incorporated under Title 35, chapter 3, upon the filing by the corporation of an irrevocable election with the secretary of state by January 1, 1992, electing to have all the provisions of [this act] applied to it or electing to have all the provisions of [this act] applied to it to the extent not inconsistent with the law then governing it.

Section 180. Application to qualified foreign corporations. A foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state on January 1, 1992, is subject to [this act] but is not required to obtain a new certificate of authority to transact business under [this act].

Section 181. Termination. [Section 16(3) and section 173] terminate January 1, 1996.

Section 182. Effective date. [This act] is effective January 1, 1992.

Approved April 10, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 412

[HB 926]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR VOLUNTARY FILING OF PERFORMANCE BONDS FOR PROJECTS AND ACTIVITIES AUTHORIZED BY WATER POLLUTION DISCHARGE PERMITS; AMENDING SECTIONS 75-5-401 AND 75-5-402, MCA; AND PROVIDING EFFECTIVE DATES.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill in order to provide guidance to the board of health and environmental sciences for the adoption of rules concerning the reclamation of sites disturbed by construction, modification, or operation of disposal systems for which a performance bond or other surety is voluntarily filed by a permit applicant or permittee pursuant to [section 3]. The board's rules should establish criteria that the department of health and environmental sciences shall apply in determining the requirements that are necessary for individual permittees to achieve acceptable site reclamation on a case-by-case basis and to prevent pollution of state waters. The board's rules should also establish procedures governing the release of bonds and other surety, including provisions for releasing a portion of a bond or other surety in situations in which acceptable reclamation and prevention of water pollution have been completed upon a portion of a site where a permitted pollutant discharge project has operated or a permitted activity has occurred.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-5-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-5-401. Board rules for permits. (1) The board shall adopt rules:

(a) governing application for permits to discharge sewage, industrial wastes, or other wastes into state waters, including rules requiring the filing of plans and specifications relating to the construction, modification, or operation of disposal systems;

(b) governing the issuance, denial, modification, or revocation of permits.

(2) The rules shall allow the issuance or continuance of a permit only if the department finds that operation consistent with the limitations of the permit will not result in pollution of any state waters, except that the rules may allow the issuance of a temporary permit under which pollution may result if the department insures that such permit contains a compliance schedule designed to meet all applicable effluent standards and water quality standards in the shortest reasonable period of time.

(3) The rules shall provide that the department may revoke a permit if the department finds that the holder of the permit has violated its terms, unless the department also finds that the violation was accidental and unforeseeable and that the holder of the permit corrected the condition resulting in the violation as soon as was reasonably possible.

(4) The board may adopt rules governing reclamation of sites disturbed by construction, modification, or operation of disposal systems for which a bond is voluntarily filed by a permittee pursuant to [section 3], including rules for the establishment of criteria and procedures governing release of the bond or other surety and release of portions of a bond or other surety."

Section 2. Section 75-5-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-5-402. Duties of department. The department shall:

(1) issue, suspend, revoke, modify, or deny permits to discharge sewage, industrial wastes, or other wastes into state waters, consistently with rules made by the board;

(2) examine plans and other information needed to determine whether a permit should be issued or suggest changes in plans as a condition to the issuance of a permit;

(3) clearly specify in any permit any limitations imposed as to the volume, strength, and other significant characteristics of the waste to be discharged; and

(4) establish as conditions to the issuance of permits for which a performance bond or other surety is filed under [section 3] certain reclamation requirements sufficient to prevent pollution of state waters during and after operation of the project or activity for which a permit is issued."

Section 3. Voluntary filing of performance bond — terms — hearing. (1) A person who holds or has applied for a permit pursuant to 75-5-401 may voluntarily file a performance bond or other surety with the department for an amount sufficient to enable the state to reclaim the land disturbed by the project or activity authorized by the permit in accordance with all permit requirements and as needed to prevent pollution of state waters.

(2) If the department determines that the bonding level does not represent the present cost of reclaiming the disturbed land according to the reclamation requirements specified in the permit and the present cost of preventing pollution of state waters, the department shall notify the permittee and the permittee may modify the amount of the bond to accurately reflect the present cost.

(3) The department may not release all or any portion of a performance bond or other surety filed pursuant to this section until reclamation of the disturbed land has been completed to the satisfaction of the department and the department has determined that pollution of state waters has not occurred. The department may initiate bond forfeiture proceedings if the permittee fails to satisfactorily reclaim the disturbed land or prevent pollution of state waters.

(4) The department may not release a bond or other surety filed pursuant to this section until the public has been provided an opportunity for a hearing.

Section 4. Codification instruction. [Section 3] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 75, chapter 5, part 4, and the provisions of Title 75, chapter 5, part 4, apply to [section 3].

Section 5. Effective dates. (1) [Section 3 and this section] are effective on passage and approval.

(2) [Sections 1, 2, and 4] are effective October 1, 1991.

Approved April 10, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 413

[HB 404]

AN ACT TO SUBMIT TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF MONTANA AN AMENDMENT TO ARTICLE X, SECTION 11, OF THE MONTANA CONSTITUTION TO PROVIDE THAT THE STATE MAY TRANSFER PUBLIC LANDS OF THE STATE THAT ARE NOT SUBJECT TO RESTRICTION BY A GRANT FROM THE UNITED STATES TO A LOCAL GOVERNMENT FOR LESS THAN FULL MARKET VALUE AS PROVIDED BY GENERAL LAWS; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Article X, section 11, of The Constitution of the State of Montana is amended to read:

"Section 11. Public land trust, disposition. (1) All lands of the state that have been or may be granted by congress, or acquired by gift or grant or devise from any person or corporation, shall be public lands of the state. They shall be held in trust for the people, to be disposed of as hereafter provided, for the respective purposes for which they have been or may be granted, donated or devised.

(2) ~~No~~ Except as provided in subsection (4), no such land or any estate or interest therein shall ever be disposed of except in pursuance of general laws providing for such disposition, or until the full market value of the estate or interest disposed of, to be ascertained in such manner as may be provided by law, has been paid or safely secured to the state.

(3) No land which the state holds by grant from the United States which prescribes the manner of disposal and minimum price shall be disposed of except in the manner and for at least the price prescribed without the consent of the United States.

(4) All public land shall be classified by the board of land commissioners in a manner provided by law. Any public land may be exchanged for other land, public or private, which is equal in value and, as closely as possible, equal in area. Any public land that is not subject to the restrictions of a grant from the United States may be transferred to a political subdivision of the state for less than full market value in pursuance of general laws providing for such disposition."

Section 2. Effective date. This amendment is effective on approval by the electorate.

Section 3. Submission to electorate. This amendment shall be submitted to the qualified electors of Montana at the general election to be held in November 1992 by printing on the ballot the full title of this act and the following:

☐ FOR allowing the state to transfer public land to local governments for less than full market value.

☐ AGAINST allowing the state to transfer public land to local governments for less than full market value.

CHAPTER NO. 414

[HB 301]

AN ACT REMOVING THE 1-YEAR RESIDENCY AND MONTANA CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS FOR HIGHWAY PATROL OFFICER APPOINTMENT; REPEALING THE REQUIREMENT THAT HIGHWAY PATROL OFFICERS BE APPOINTED IN EQUAL NUMBERS FROM THE FIVE HIGHWAY DISTRICTS; AMENDING SECTION 44-1-401, MCA; REPEALING SECTION 44-1-403, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 44-1-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"44-1-401. Qualifications of patrol officers. Patrol officers shall possess the following qualifications:

(1) sound and active physical and mental condition;

(2) good moral character;

(3) residency in Montana ~~for at least 1 year immediately prior to appointment~~;

(4) having passed a satisfactory test in the operation of automobiles; and

(5) citizenship in the United States ~~and state of Montana~~."

Section 2. Repealer. Section 44-1-403, MCA, is repealed.

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 415

[HB 487]

AN ACT PROTECTING SHOOTING RANGE LOCATIONS; EXEMPTING SHOOTING RANGES FROM CERTAIN LAWS RELATING TO LITTER CONTROL, COMMUNITY DECAY, DISORDERLY CONDUCT, AND PUBLIC NUISANCE; AMENDING SECTIONS 7-5-2109, 7-5-2110, 45-8-101, AND 45-8-111, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Policy. It is the policy of the state of Montana to provide for the health, safety, and welfare of the citizens of the state by promoting the safety and enjoyment of the shooting sports among the citizens of the state and by protecting the locations of and investment in shooting ranges for shotgun, archery, rifle, and pistol shooting.

Section 2. Prohibitions. (1) Standards adopted by a state agency or unit of local government to limit levels of noise that may occur in the outdoor atmosphere may not apply to shooting ranges.

(2) Standards adopted by a state agency or unit of local government promulgated pursuant to Title 75 and concerning pollution by lead, copper, or brass may not limit or prohibit the operation of a shooting range because of lead, copper, or brass deposition resulting from shooting activities.

Section 3. Planning — effect on shooting ranges. The laws of this state concerning planning, master plans, or comprehensive plans may not be construed to authorize an ordinance, resolution, or rule that would:

(1) prevent the operation of an existing shooting range as a nonconforming use;

(2) prohibit the establishment of new shooting ranges, but it may regulate the construction of shooting ranges to specified zones; or

(3) prevent the erection or construction of safety improvements on existing shooting ranges.

Section 4. Zoning — effect on shooting ranges. A planning district master plan, recommendation, resolution, rule, or zoning designation may not:

(1) prevent the operation of an existing shooting range as a nonconforming use;

(2) prohibit the establishment of new shooting ranges, but it may regulate the construction of shooting ranges to specified zones; or

(3) prevent the erection or construction of safety improvements on existing shooting ranges.

Section 5. Closure of shooting ranges — limitations — relocation cost. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), an established shooting range may not be prevented from operation by a state agency, unit of local government, or court unless the range presents a clear and provable safety hazard to the adjacent population.

(2) If a pressing public need exists because of incompatibility with nearby population or land use, an established shooting range may be relocated by an agency of state government, unit of local government, or court, but only if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) pressing public need is documented through hearings, testimony, and a clear and precise statement of need by the agency, unit of local government, or court involved;

(b) the agency or unit of local government obtaining the closure pays the appraised cost of the land together with improvements to the operators of the shooting range. In return the shooting range operators shall relinquish their interest in the property to the agency or unit of local government obtaining the closure.

(3) If a shooting range presents a clear and provable safety hazard to adjacent population, the range may be suspended from operation if:

(a) reasonable notice and opportunity to respond are afforded the range operators; and

(b) reasonable opportunity is afforded the range operators to correct any safety defects.

Section 6. Section 7-5-2109, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-5-2109. County control of litter. (1) (a) The governing body of a county may regulate, control, and prohibit littering on any county road and on land within the county by the adoption of an ordinance that substantially complies with the provisions of 7-5-103 through 7-5-107. The ordinance may apply to portions of the county and may apply to persons other than the owners of the property on which littering occurs.

(b) The ordinance may not apply to lead, copper, or brass deposits directly resulting from shooting activities at a shooting range.

(2) The governing body of a county may establish a fine not to exceed $200 as a penalty for violation of the ordinance referred to in subsection (1). A violation of the ordinance may not be punishable by imprisonment."

Section 7. Section 7-5-2110, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-5-2110. Community decay defined. (1) In 7-5-2111, "community decay" means a public nuisance created by allowing rubble, debris, junk, or refuse to accumulate resulting in conditions that are injurious to health, indecent, offensive to the senses, or obstruct the free use of property so as to interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property.

(2) "Community decay" as used in 7-5-2111 may not be construed or defined to apply to*:*

(a) normal farming, ranching, or other agricultural operations or to a farm, ranch, or other agricultural facility, and any appurtenances thereof, during the course of its normal operations*; or*

(b) normal activities at a shooting range."

Section 8. Section 45-8-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"45-8-101. Disorderly conduct. (1) A person commits the offense of disorderly conduct if he knowingly disturbs the peace by:

(a) quarreling, challenging to fight, or fighting;

(b) making loud or unusual noises;

(c) using threatening, profane, or abusive language;

(d) discharging firearms, except at a shooting range during established hours of operation;

(e) rendering vehicular or pedestrian traffic impassable;

(f) rendering the free ingress or egress to public or private places impassable;

(g) disturbing or disrupting any lawful assembly or public meeting;

(h) transmitting a false report or warning of a fire or other catastrophe in such a place that its occurrence would endanger human life;

(i) creating a hazardous or physically offensive condition by any act that serves no legitimate purpose; or

(j) transmitting a false report or warning of an impending explosion in such a place that its occurrence would endanger human life.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (3), a person convicted of the offense of disorderly conduct shall be fined not to exceed $100 or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 10 days, or both.

(3) A person convicted of a violation of subsection (1)(j) shall be fined not to exceed $1,000 or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both."

Section 9. Section 45-8-111, MCA, is amended to read:

"45-8-111. Public nuisance. (1) "Public nuisance" means:

(a) a condition which endangers safety or health, is offensive to the senses, or obstructs the free use of property so as to interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of life or property by an entire community or neighborhood or by any considerable number of persons;

(b) any premises where persons gather for the purpose of engaging in unlawful conduct; or

(c) a condition which renders dangerous for passage any public highway or right-of-way or waters used by the public.

(2) A person commits the offense of maintaining a public nuisance if he knowingly creates, conducts, or maintains a public nuisance.

(3) Any act which affects an entire community or neighborhood or any considerable number of persons (as specified in subsection (1)(a)) is no less a nuisance because the extent of the annoyance or damage inflicted upon individuals is unequal.

(4) No agricultural or farming operation, place, establishment, or facility or any of its appurtenances or the operation thereof is or becomes a public nuisance because of the normal operation thereof as a result of changed residential or commercial conditions in or around its locality if the agricultural or farming operation, place, establishment, or facility has been in operation longer than the complaining resident has been in possession or commercial establishment has been in operation.

(5) Noises resulting from the shooting activities at a shooting range during established hours of operation are not considered a public nuisance.

~~(5)~~(6) A person convicted of maintaining a public nuisance shall be fined not to exceed $500 or imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 6 months, or both. Each day of such conduct constitutes a separate offense."

Section 10. Applicability. [This act] applies to shooting ranges in operation on or after [the effective date of this act].

Section 11. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 12. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 416

[HB 543]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THAT THE ELIGIBILITY FOR THE CREDIT FOR DEPENDENT CARE ASSISTANCE APPLIES TO THE AMOUNT PAID OR INCURRED BY THE EMPLOYER THAT IS NOT PART OF A SALARY REDUCTION PLAN; INCREASING THE AMOUNT OF THE CREDIT TO 20 PERCENT; AMENDING SECTION 15-31-131, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE AND A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 15-31-131, MCA, is amended to read:

"15-31-131. Credit for dependent care assistance. (1) There is a credit against the taxes otherwise due under this chapter allowable to an employer for amounts paid or incurred during the taxable year by the employer for dependent care assistance actually provided to or on behalf of an employee if the assistance is furnished by a registered or licensed day-care provider and pursuant to a program that meets the requirements of section 89(k) and 129(d)(2) through (6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(2) (a) The amount of the credit allowed under subsection (1) is ~~15%~~ 20% of the amount paid or incurred by the employer during the taxable year, but the credit may not exceed $1,250 of day-care assistance actually provided to or on behalf of the employee.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection, marital status must be determined under the rules of section 21(e)(3) and (4) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) In the case of an onsite facility, the amount upon which the credit allowed under subsection (1) is based, with respect to any dependent, must be based upon utilization and the value of the services provided.

(3) An amount paid or incurred during the taxable year of an employer in providing dependent care assistance to or on behalf of any employee does not qualify for the credit allowed under subsection (1) if the amount was paid or incurred to an individual described in section 129(c)(1) or (2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(4) An amount paid or incurred by an employer to provide dependent care assistance to or on behalf of an employee does not qualify for the credit allowed under subsection (1):

(a) ~~if~~ to the extent the amount is paid or incurred pursuant to a salary reduction plan*;* or

(b) if the amount is paid or incurred for services not performed within this state.

(5) If the credit allowed under subsection (1) is claimed, the amount of any deduction allowed or allowable under this chapter for the amount that qualifies for the credit (or upon which the credit is based) must be reduced by the dollar amount of the credit allowed. The election to claim a credit allowed under this section must be made at the time of filing the tax return.

(6) The amount upon which the credit allowed under subsection (1) is based may not be included in the gross income of the employee to whom the dependent care assistance is provided. However, the amount excluded from the income of an employee under this section may not exceed the limitations provided in section 129(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. For purposes of Title 15, chapter 30, part 2, with respect to an employee to whom dependent care assistance is provided, "wages" does not include any amount excluded under this subsection. Amounts excluded under this subsection do not qualify as expenses for which a deduction is allowed to the employee under 15-30-121.

(7) Any tax credit otherwise allowable under this section that is not used by the taxpayer in a particular year may be carried forward and offset against the taxpayer's tax liability for the next succeeding tax year. Any credit remaining unused in the next succeeding tax year may be carried forward and used in the second succeeding tax year, and likewise through the fifth year succeeding the tax year in which the credit was first allowed or allowable. A credit may not be carried forward beyond the fifth succeeding tax year.

(8) If the taxpayer is an S corporation, as defined in section 1361 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the taxpayer elects to take tax credit relief, the election may be made on behalf of the corporation's shareholders. A shareholder's credit must be computed using the shareholder's pro rata share of the corporation's costs that qualify for the credit. In all other respects, the effect of the tax credit applies to the corporation as otherwise provided by law.

(9) For purposes of the credit allowed under subsection (1):

(a) The definitions and special rules contained in section 129(e) of the Internal Revenue Code apply to the extent applicable.

(b) "Employer" means an employer carrying on a business, trade, occupation, or profession in this state.

(c) "Internal Revenue Code" means the federal Internal Revenue Code as amended and in effect on January 1, 1989."

Section 2. Retroactive applicability. [This act] applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1990.

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 417

[HB 547]

AN ACT EXEMPTING CERTAIN NONPROFIT GROUPS AND STUDENT GROUPS FROM STORE LICENSE REQUIREMENTS; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Exemptions. A store that generates income used only for the purposes for which the operator is organized is not subject to the provisions of 15-57-102 if the store is operated by:

(1) an entity that is exempt from taxation under 15-31-102(1)(a) through (1)(g) and (1)(m); or

(2) an organization, supervised by faculty members or school administrators and consisting solely of students of an accredited school, the purpose of which is to raise funds for the students' educational or cultural benefit or lawful recreation.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 15, chapter 57, and the provisions of Title 15, chapter 57, apply to [section 1].

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 418

[HB 563]

AN ACT REVISING THE ELK LICENSE AND SPECIAL ELK PERMIT LANDOWNER PREFERENCE SYSTEM BY REQUIRING THAT A PERSON ISSUED A LICENSE OR PERMIT UNDER THE PREFERENCE SHALL OWN OR BE CONTRACTING TO PURCHASE THE LAND RATHER THAN THAT THE LAND BE HELD IN FEE TITLE; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 87-2-501 AND 87-2-705, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 87-2-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-501. Class A-3, A-4, A-5, A-6, A-7—resident deer, elk, and bear licenses — special Class A-7 resident and nonresident license requirements and preference. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a resident, as defined by 87-2-102, or a nonresident who wishes to purchase a Class A-7 elk license only, who will be 12 years of age or older prior to September 15 of the season for which the license is issued may, upon payment of the proper fee or fees, be entitled to purchase one each of the following licenses at the prescribed cost which will entitle the holder to pursue, hunt, shoot, and kill the game animal or animals authorized by the license held and to possess the carcasses of those game animals as authorized by department rules:

(a) Class A-3, deer A tag, $9;

(b) Class A-4, deer B tag, $6;

(c) Class A-5, elk tag, $10;

(d) Class A-6, black or brown bear tag, $8;

(e) Class A-7, antlerless elk tag, $10.

(2) (a) The holder of a Class A-7 antlerless elk license is entitled to take antlerless elk in areas designated by the commission and at such times and upon such terms as set forth by the commission.

(b) No person may take more than one elk during any license year, and a person holding a Class A-7 antlerless elk tag may not take an elk during the same license year with a Class A-5 license or nonresident elk tag. The use of Class A-7 antlerless elk licenses does not preclude the department's use of special elk permits.

(c) A nonresident shall hold a nonresident Class B-10 license as a prerequisite to application for a Class A-7 license.

(3) Subject to the limitation of subsection (5), a person who ~~holds fee title to~~ owns or is contracting to purchase 640 acres or more of contiguous land, at least some of which is used by elk, in a hunting district where Class

A-7 licenses are awarded under this section shall be issued, upon application, a Class A-7 license.

(4) An applicant who receives a Class A-7 license under subsection (3) may designate that the license be issued to an immediate family member or a person employed by the landowner. A corporation owning qualifying land under subsection (3) may designate one of its shareholders to receive the license.

(5) Fifteen percent of the Class A-7 licenses available each year under this section in a hunting district must be available to landowners under subsection (3)."

Section 2. Section 87-2-705, MCA, is amended to read:

"87-2-705. Drawing for special elk permits. (1) In the event the number of valid applications for special elk permits for a hunting district exceeds the quota set by the department for the district, these permits shall be awarded by a drawing. The department shall provide for those persons making valid application for special elk permits a method of selecting first, second, and third choice hunting districts for any drawing held pursuant to this section.

(2) Subject to the limitation of subsection (4), a person who ~~holds fee title to~~ owns or is contracting to purchase 640 acres or more of contiguous land, at least some of which is used by elk, in a hunting district where elk permits are awarded under this section shall be issued, upon application, a permit to hunt elk in the hunting district under the terms and conditions of the permit.

(3) An applicant who receives a permit under subsection (2) may designate that the permit be issued to an immediate family member or a person employed by the landowner. A corporation owning qualifying land under subsection (2) may designate one of its shareholders to receive the permit.

(4) Fifteen percent of the special elk permits available each year under this section in a hunting district must be available to landowners under subsection (2).

(5) The department may promulgate the rules necessary to implement this section."

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 419

[HB 570]

AN ACT TO REVISE VARIOUS DRIVER LICENSING STATUTES TO PROVIDE EITHER AN EXAMINATION OR AN INVESTIGATION IN CASES OF DRIVER'S LICENSE REEXAMINATION; TO REQUIRE THAT COURT ABSTRACTS OR REPORTS OF CONVICTION RECEIVED BY THE DEPARTMENT NAMING INDIVIDUALS LICENSED IN ANOTHER JURISDICTION BE FORWARDED TO THE JURISDICTION OF LICENSURE WITHOUT ACTION AGAINST THE DRIVER'S LICENSE OR DRIVING PRIVILEGE; TO CLARIFY AND SIMPLIFY THE RESPONSIBILITY OF PERSONS SIGNING DRIVER'S LICENSE APPLICATIONS FOR MINORS; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 37-2-311, 61-5-108, 61-5-207, AND 61-5-405, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-2-311, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-2-311. Report to department of justice by physician. (1) Any physician who diagnoses a physical or mental condition that, in the physician's judgment, will significantly impair a person's ability to safely operate a motor vehicle may voluntarily report the person's name and other information relevant to his condition to the department of justice. The department, upon receiving the report, shall require the person so reported to be examined ~~in the manner~~ or investigated as provided for in ~~61-5-110 and~~ 61-5-207.

(2) (a) The physician's report may be introduced as evidence in any proceeding involving the granting, suspension, or revocation of the person's driver's license, driving privilege, or commercial motor vehicle operator's endorsement before the department or a court.

(b) The physician's report may not be utilized in a criminal proceeding or in a civil proceeding, other than as provided in this subsection, without the consent of the patient."

Section 2. Section 61-5-108, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-108. Application of minors — *imputed liability. (1) The application of any person under the age of 18 years for an instruction permit or driver's license shall be signed and verified before a person authorized to administer oaths or an employee of the department by ~~both the father and mother~~ a parent of the applicant~~, if both are living and have custody of him, or by the surviving parent, or in the event neither parent is living or has custody, then by the person or guardian having such custody or by an employer of such minor, or in the event there is no guardian or employer then~~ or, if none is available, by some other responsible ~~person~~ adult who is willing to assume the obligation imposed under this chapter upon a person signing the application of a minor.

(2) Any negligence or willful misconduct of a minor under the age of 18 years when driving a motor vehicle upon a highway shall be imputed to a person who has signed the application of ~~such~~ the minor for a permit or license, which person shall be jointly and severally liable with ~~such~~ the minor for any damages caused by ~~such~~ the negligence or willful misconduct~~,~~ unless a motor vehicle liability policy, as provided for in chapter 6 of this title, covering the minor is in effect, in which case there is no imputed liability as described in this section. ~~except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section.~~

~~(3) In the event a minor deposits or there is deposited upon his behalf proof of financial responsibility in respect to the operation of a motor vehicle owned by him, or if not the owner of a motor vehicle, then with respect to the operation of any motor vehicle, in form and in amounts as required under the motor vehicle financial responsibility laws of this state, then the department may accept the application of such minor when signed by one parent or the guardian of such minor, and while such proof is maintained such parent or guardian shall not be subject to the liability imposed under subsection (2) of this section.~~"

Section 3. Section 61-5-207, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-207. Reexamination or investigation — when required. The department, having good cause to believe that a licensed driver is incompetent or otherwise not qualified to be licensed or to have a commercial vehicle operator's endorsement, may, based on information received, investigate the licensee's record, physical or mental condition, or need for a license or, upon written notice of at least 5 days to the licensee, require him to submit to an examination. Upon the conclusion of ~~such~~ the investigation or examination the department shall take action as may be appropriate considering the facts reported or discovered and may suspend or revoke the license and commercial vehicle operator's endorsement or just the commercial vehicle operator's endorsement of such person or permit him to retain such license~~,~~ or may issue a license subject to restrictions as permitted under 61-5-113. Refusal or neglect of the licensee to submit to such examination or investigation shall be ground for suspension or revocation of his license."

Section 4. Section 61-5-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-5-405. Offenses furnishing ground for suspension or revocation of license — *return to licensing jurisdiction of abstracts of court records and reports of conviction. (1) Items enumerated in Article IV(1), subsections (a), (b), (c), and (d) of 61-5-401 refer specifically to 45-5-103, 45-5-104, 61-8-401, 45-2-101(21), and 61-7-103, respectively.

(2) In addition to convictions mentioned above the department, for the purpose of suspension, revocation, or limitation of the license to operate a motor vehicle, shall give the same effect to the conduct reported as it would if such conduct had occurred in this state for:

(a) convictions of perjury or the making of a false affidavit relating to the ownership or operation of a motor vehicle (61-5-303); and

(b) three convictions of reckless driving committed within a period of 12 months (61-8-301).

(3) Court abstracts or reports of conviction received by the department that name an individual licensed in another jurisdiction must be forwarded to the jurisdiction of licensure. The department may not take action against the driver's license or driving privilege of the individual as may be required elsewhere in this title."

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 420

[HB 591]

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THAT A CONTRACT LET FOR A PROJECT COSTING MORE THAN $25,000 AND FINANCED IN WHOLE OR IN PART BY TAX-EXEMPT INDUSTRIAL REVENUE BONDS CONTAIN A PROVISION REQUIRING THE CONTRACTOR TO PAY THE STANDARD PREVAILING WAGE; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Tax exempt project — prevailing wage required. A contract let for a project costing more than $25,000 and financed in whole or in part by tax-exempt industrial revenue bonds must contain a provision requiring the contractor to pay the standard prevailing wage rate in effect and applicable to the district in which the work is being performed.

AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE FIRST WEEK OF MARCH AS AN OFFICIAL WEEK OF OBSERVANCE IN MONTANA OF THE RIGHT TO KEEP AND BEAR ARMS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Observance of right to keep and bear arms. The week beginning the first Monday in March is an official week of observance to commemorate Montana's valued heritage of the right of each person to keep and bear arms in the defense of his home, person, or property or in aid of civil power. During this week, all Montanans are urged to reflect on their right to keep and bear arms and to celebrate this right in lawful ways.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 1, chapter 1, part 2, and the provisions of Title 1, chapter 1, part 2, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 15 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 422

[HB 638]

AN ACT REPEALING THE REGULATORY POWERS OF THE BOARD OF AERONAUTICS; AND REPEALING SECTIONS 67-3-421, 67-3-422, 67-3-423, 67-3-424, 67-3-425, 67-3-426, 67-3-427, 67-3-428, AND 67-3-429, MCA.

WHEREAS, the Airline Deregulation Act of 1978, Public Law 95-504, has preempted the Board of Aeronautics' regulation of air carriers.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Repealer. Sections 67-3-421, 67-3-422, 67-3-423, 67-3-424, 67-3-425, 67-3-426, 67-3-427, 67-3-428, and 67-3-429, MCA, are repealed.

Section 2. Saving clause. [This act] does not affect rights and duties that matured, penalties that were incurred, or proceedings that were begun before [the effective date of this act].

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 423

[HB 659]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE LIMITED EXEMPTIONS FROM THE OFF-HIGHWAY DECAL REQUIREMENT OF SECTION 23-2-804, MCA, WHEN THE OFF-HIGHWAY VEHICLE IS OTHERWISE LICENSED UNDER SECTION 61-3-321, MCA, WHICH GOVERNS VEHICLE AND LICENSE FEES; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 23-2-802 AND 23-2-804, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 23-2-802, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-802. Exemptions. The provisions of this part do not apply to*:*

(1) an off-highway vehicle:

~~(1)~~(a) owned or used by the United States or another state or an agency or political subdivision thereof;

~~(2)~~(b) registered in a country other than the United States, temporarily used within this state for not more than 30 days; or

~~(3)~~(c) registered in another state of the United States, temporarily used within this state for not more than 30 days~~.~~; or

(2) a licensed motorcycle or licensed quadricycle used for fishing and hiking access, camping, or picnicking on a visible two-track trail or road within 1 mile of a designated road."

Section 2. Section 23-2-804, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-804. Decal required — fee — disposition. (1) Except as provided in 23-2-802~~, no~~, an off-highway vehicle may not be operated by any person for off-road recreation on public lands in Montana unless there is displayed in a conspicuous place a decal, in a form prescribed by the department of justice and issued by the county treasurer, as visual proof that the following fees have been paid for the current year:

(a) (i) the fee in lieu of tax provided for in 23-2-803; and

(ii) the registration fee provided for in 23-2-817; or

(b) when the vehicle will be used as provided in this section, the registration and taxation fees for motorcycles and quadricycles subject to licensure under 61-3-321, as evidenced by presentation of an owner's certificate of registration and payment receipt; and

(c) the off-highway decal fee provided for in this section.

(2) The decal will be serially numbered and have the expiration date of December 31 of the appropriate year printed thereon.

(3) The off-highway decal fee is $5, which the county treasurer shall collect and transmit to the state treasurer, who shall deposit the money in an interest-bearing account in the state special revenue fund to the credit of the department of fish, wildlife, and parks. The decal fee and the interest and income to the account must be spent as follows:

(a) 40% must be used to enforce the provisions of this section; and

(b) 60% must be spent to develop and implement a comprehensive program and to plan appropriate off-highway vehicle recreation use except that:

(i) no money may be spent for this purpose before January 1, 1991; and

(ii) evaluation for development of a program plan must begin January 1, 1991."

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 424

[HB 690]

AN ACT REVISING THE LAW REGARDING CRUELTY TO ANIMALS BY ADDING CRUEL CONFINEMENT AND FAILURE TO PROVIDE LICENSED VETERINARY OR MEDICAL CARE AS PUNISHABLE OFFENSES; ADDING AN EXCEPTION FOR SANCTIONED ENDURANCE RACES, COMMONLY ACCEPTED AGRICULTURAL AND LIVESTOCK PRACTICES, AND FOR HUMANE DESTRUCTION OF AN ANIMAL FOR JUST CAUSE; ESTABLISHING A PENALTY FOR REPEAT OFFENSES; AND AMENDING SECTION 45-8-211, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 45-8-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"45-8-211. Cruelty to animals — exception. (1) A person commits the offense of cruelty to animals if without justification he knowingly or negligently subjects an animal to mistreatment or neglect by:

(a) overworking, beating, tormenting, injuring, or killing any animal;

(b) carrying or confining any animal in a cruel manner;

(c) failing to provide an animal in his custody with*:*

(i) proper food, drink, or shelter*; or*

(ii) in cases of immediate, obvious, serious illness or injury, licensed veterinary or other appropriate medical care;

(d) abandoning any helpless animal or abandoning any animal on any highway, railroad, or in any other place where it may suffer injury, hunger, or exposure or become a public charge; or

(e) promoting, sponsoring, conducting, or participating in ~~a horse~~ an animal race of more than 2 miles, except a sanctioned endurance race.

(2) A person convicted of the offense of cruelty to animals shall be fined not to exceed $500 or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed

6 months, or both. A person convicted of a second or subsequent offense of cruelty to animals shall be fined not to exceed $1,000 or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed 1 year, or both. If ~~such~~ the person is the owner, he may be required to forfeit to the county in which he is convicted any animal affected. This provision does not affect the interest of any secured party or other person who has not participated in the offense.

(3) In addition to the sentence provided in subsection (2), the court may require the defendant to pay all reasonable costs incurred in providing necessary veterinary attention and treatment for any animal affected.

(4) Nothing in this section prohibits:

(a) a person from humanely destroying an animal for just cause; or

(b) the use of commonly accepted agricultural and livestock practices on livestock."

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 425

[HB 814]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THE LAW PROVIDING FOR THE DISPOSITION OF STATE-OWNED WATER PROJECTS BY THE DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND CONSERVATION; ESTABLISHING A DATE FOR THE DEPARTMENT TO ATTEMPT TO DISPOSE OF ITS CANAL PROJECTS; INCREASING THE PERCENTAGE OF AFFECTED WATER USERS REQUIRED TO VETO A DEPARTMENT DECISION TO DISPOSE OF A PROJECT; AMENDING SECTIONS 85-1-211 AND 85-6-109, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 85-1-211, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-1-211. Management of property — water contracts. (1) Subject to this chapter, the department may fix and establish the prices, rates, and charges at which the resources and facilities made available under this chapter may be sold and disposed of and enter into contracts and agreements and do those things which in its judgment are necessary, convenient, or expedient for the accomplishment of the purposes and objects of this chapter, under such general rules and upon such terms, limitations, and conditions as it prescribes.

(2) The department shall enter into the contracts and fix and establish the prices, rates, and charges so as to provide at all times funds which will be sufficient to pay all costs of operation and maintenance of the works authorized by this chapter, together with necessary repairs thereto, and which will provide at all times sufficient funds to meet and pay the principal and interest of all bonds or loans as they severally become due and payable.

(3) This chapter does not authorize any change, alteration, or revision of those rates, prices, or charges as established by any contract entered into under this chapter except as provided by the contract.

(4) A contract made by the department for the sale of water, use of water, water storage, or other service or for the sale of any property or facilities shall provide that, in the event of a failure or default in the payment of moneys specified in the contract to be paid to the department, the department may, upon notice as is prescribed in the contract, terminate the contract and all obligations thereunder. The act of the department in ceasing on default to furnish or deliver water, use of water, water storage, or other service under the contract does not deprive the department of or limit any remedy provided by the contract or by law for the recovery of moneys due or which may become due under the contract.

(5) Subject to the approval of the board under 85-1-202, the department may sell, transfer to water user associations, abandon, or otherwise dispose of any rights-of-way, easements, properties, or interests or lease or rent the same or otherwise take and receive the income or profit and revenue therefrom without regard to other laws providing for the disposition of state property. Prior to the department's sale, transfer, or other disposition, a determination shall be made by the department as to the market value of the rights-of-way, easements, properties, or interests to be sold, transferred, abandoned, or otherwise disposed of. The department's determination of market value shall consider all liens, encumbrances, and other limitations on the project properties or interests.

(6) (a) The department shall attempt to dispose of its canal projects by June 30, 1995. The canal projects to be disposed of include the:

(i) Columbus canal;

(ii) Delphia-Melstone canals;

(iii) Hysham pumping canals;

(iv) Livingston ditch;

(v) Florence canal;

(vi) Paradise canal;

(vii) Park Branch canal;

(viii) Sidney pumping canals;

(ix) South Side canal;

(x) Vigilante canal; and

(xi) West Bench canal.

(b) The department may dispose of a canal project by sale, transfer to a water users' association, abandonment, or other legal conveyance. If there is an existing water users' association on the canal project, the provisions of 85-6-109(5) must be complied with in the disposal of the canal project. The department shall give preference to existing water users' associations operating and maintaining the canal project.

(c) Upon the sale or transfer of a canal project, the department shall either cancel or write off from the accounts receivable carried on the books of the department a sum not to exceed any previous 1-year cost of operating and maintaining the canal project or make a payment not to exceed any previous 1-year cost of operating and maintaining the canal project. For a canal project not disposed of by June 30, 1995, the water users of the canal project are responsible for the department's administrative costs and the actual costs of operation and maintenance of the canal project.

(7) An employee or agent of the department authorized by the director may enter upon any land to carry out the purposes of this section, including but not limited to entry to make an inspection the department considers necessary of the canal project, entry to salvage or remove project property, and entry to make physical alterations to canal project property. The department shall give reasonable notice to the landowner of its intention to enter upon the land. The department is responsible for actual damages done to property."

Section 2. Section 85-6-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-6-109. Operation of projects with water users' association. (1) As used in this section, "department" means the department of natural resources and conservation provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 33, and "association" means a water users' association.

(2) Whenever the department proposes a program of maintenance, repair, operation, or alteration of a project in excess of $25,000, the cost of which will be borne by an association pursuant to the terms of a water marketing contract, the association shall be informed of the program and given an opportunity to comment. The department shall notify the association of its decision. If the association believes the program to be unnecessary or excessive in cost, it may appeal the department decision to the board of natural resources and conservation as provided for in 85-1-212. The board shall notify the association of its decision. If the board's decision is adverse to the association, the association may file within 30 days of receipt of notice of the board's decision a complaint to review the board's decision in the district court in any county where all or part of the project works is located or in Lewis and Clark County.

(3) If a complaint is filed under subsection (2), the court shall hold a trial de novo on the question of necessity of the department program and the question of excessive costs. If the association prevails, the court may award costs to the association. The court may specify an acceptable program of maintenance, repair, operation, or alteration or may order the department and the association to develop a program, subject to court approval.

(4) Whenever a program of maintenance, repair, operation, or alteration is proposed, the department shall assist the association in attempting to secure sources of financing, including federal funds.

(5) Whenever the department proposes to abandon, sell, or otherwise dispose of a project which involves a water users' association, the department shall notify the association. Before the department may take further action to abandon, sell, or otherwise dispose of a project which involves a water users' association, the department must receive a petition approving the abandonment, sale, or disposition which is signed by stockholders of the association representing 66 2/3% or more of the issued and outstanding stock of the association. If, within 30 days of receipt of the final proposal of abandonment, sale, or other disposal, stockholders of the association representing ~~15%~~ 30% or more of the issued and outstanding stock of the association file a petition of protest with the department, the project may not be abandoned, sold, or otherwise disposed of without the consent of the legislature."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 426

[HB 875]

AN ACT TO REQUIRE REPRESENTATION OF ORGANIZED LABOR ON THE STATE EMPLOYEE GROUP BENEFITS ADVISORY COUNCIL; AND AMENDING SECTION 2-15-1016, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-15-1016, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-15-1016. State employee group benefits advisory council — composition. (1) The department shall create a state employee group benefits advisory council under 2-15-122.

(2) The members of the advisory council ~~shall~~ must be selected from a diverse group in order to adequately represent the interests of state employees and retirees.

(3) ~~At least one~~ One member of the advisory council must be a retired state employee.

(4) Each labor organization, as defined in 39-31-103, representing more than 1,000 employees of the state of Montana is entitled to one representative on the advisory council."

AN ACT REVISING THE LAW RELATING TO THE FILING OF THRESHERS' LIENS; REQUIRING A STATEMENT OF AGRICULTURAL LIEN TO BE FILED WITHIN 30 DAYS OF PERFORMANCE; PROVIDING THAT A COPY OF THE STATEMENT OF LIEN SENT BY CERTIFIED MAIL IS SUFFICIENT NOTICE TO PRIVATE PURCHASERS; AND AMENDING SECTION 71-3-802, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 71-3-802, MCA, is amended to read:

"71-3-802. How lien obtained. (1) A person ~~intending to avail himself of the benefits of this part~~ entitled to a lien under 71-3-801 shall file with the office of the secretary of state a statement of agricultural lien, as provided in 71-3-125, within ~~10~~ 30 days after the last service was rendered or labor performed in the threshing of grain or other crops or the cutting and harvesting and threshing by the combined harvester and thresher~~, a notice that within 20 days a lien, as specified in 71-3-801, will be claimed~~.

(2) If the grain or other crops cut, harvested, and threshed are being hauled from the machine or combine direct to the elevator or to any other purchaser, the threshermen, swather, or owner of the combine desiring to claim a lien shall also serve written notices upon the elevatorman or other private purchaser that he will claim and file a lien upon the grain or other crops for his services or labor performed in threshing or combining and threshing the grain or crops. A copy of the statement of agricultural lien mailed by certified mail is sufficient notice to the elevatorman or other private purchaser."

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 428

[HB 899]

AN ACT TO EXPAND THE DEFINITION OF TRAFFIC EDUCATION TO INCLUDE INSTRUCTION IN BICYCLE, PEDESTRIAN, AND SCHOOL BUS TRAFFIC LAWS AND THE SAFE OPERATION OF BICYCLES IN ORDER TO INCREASE PUBLIC AWARENESS OF MOTOR VEHICLE, PEDESTRIAN, AND SCHOOL BUS SAFETY WITH REGARD TO PROTECTING SCHOOL-AGE CHILDREN; AMENDING SECTION 20-7-501, MCA; AND PROVIDING A TERMINATION DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-7-501, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-7-501. Definitions. As used in this title, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise the following definitions apply:

(1) "Traffic education" means instruction in ~~the~~ motor vehicle, bicycle, pedestrian, and school bus traffic laws, in the acceptance of personal responsibility on the public highways, in the causes and consequences of traffic accidents, and in the skills necessary for the safe operation of bicycles and motor vehicles. The instruction must be designed to improve public awareness of motor vehicle, pedestrian, and school bus safety with regard to protecting school-age children.

(2) "Traffic education course" means a course of traffic education which has been approved by the superintendent of public instruction.

(3) "Teacher of traffic education" means an instructor approved by the superintendent of public instruction to teach traffic education.

(4) "Traffic education account" means the state treasury account in the state special revenue fund for the deposit and disbursement of state traffic education revenue."

Section 2. Termination. [This act] terminates October 1, 1993.

CHAPTER NO. 429

[SB 105]

AN ACT AMENDING THE FORMULA PERTAINING TO FEDERAL AND STATE MATCHING FUNDS FOR MEDICAL RESEARCH FACILITY CONSTRUCTION, EQUIPMENT, AND STARTUP OPERATING COSTS; EXTENDING THE TERMINATION DATE OF THE APPROPRIATION OF FUNDS FROM THE COAL SEVERANCE TAX PERMANENT FUND TO BE USED FOR THE MEDICAL RESEARCH FACILITY PROJECTS TO JUNE 30, 1993; AMENDING SECTION 90-3-901, MCA, AND SECTION 1, CHAPTER 634, LAWS OF 1989; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 90-3-901, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-3-901. Medical research facility projects account — allocation of funds — goals and criteria — rulemaking. (1) There is a medical research facility projects account in the state special revenue fund into which must be deposited the money appropriated in section 1, Chapter 634, Laws of 1989.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of Title 90, chapter 3, the Montana science and technology development board may award grants of the money appropriated under section 1, Chapter 634, Laws of 1989, for the purposes described in that section.

(3) The board may award a grant to a medical research facility project if the project proposal meets the following goals:

(a) The project is designed to establish an advanced medical research facility that will be funded sufficiently to become an enduring research presence in the state.

(b) The project concentrates on fields of medical research that involve advanced technology applied to national medical concerns.

(c) The project is designed to recruit and retain in the state medical researchers of nationally recognized stature.

(4) The board, at a minimum, shall use the following criteria in awarding a medical research facility grant:

(a) State funds for construction, equipment, and startup operating costs must be matched on at least a ~~four-to-one~~ 2 1/2-to-1 federal-to-state matching basis with federal funds appropriated for the same purpose.

(b) The project proposal includes an effective construction and operating plan that provides a sound basis for ongoing operation of the facility.

(c) The personnel, equipment, and research operation of the facility are sufficient to earn and maintain a nationally recognized stature.

(5) The board may adopt rules to implement the purposes of section 1, Chapter 634, Laws of 1989, and this section."

Section 2. Section 1, Chapter 634, Laws of 1989, is amended to read:

"Section 1. Appropriation. There is appropriated from the income and earnings on the coal severance tax permanent fund that otherwise would be appropriated to the coal severance tax permanent fund under 17-5-704 the amount of $2 million to the medical research facility projects account established in [section 2] for the biennium ending June 30, ~~1991~~ 1993. The money is to be used to match federally appropriated funds on at least a ~~four-to-one~~ 2 1/2-to-1 federal-to-state matching basis for construction, equipment, and startup operating costs for medical research facility projects in the state. The Montana science and technology development board shall administer the appropriation."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1991.

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE OPENCUT MINING ACT; PROHIBITING MINING OF PREVIOUSLY RECLAIMED LAND WITHOUT AN OPENCUT CONTRACT; AUTHORIZING THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE LANDS TO SPEND MONEY FOR RECLAMATION OF LAND AND REHABILITATION OF WATER AFFECTED BY OPENCUT MINING; AUTHORIZING ACCEPTANCE OF LETTERS OF CREDIT AS BOND; PROVIDING ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURES FOR AND APPEALS OF ASSESSMENT OF CIVIL PENALTIES; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 82-4-424, 82-4-431, 82-4-433, AND 82-4-441, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 82-4-424, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-424. Receipt and expenditure of funds. (1) The board may receive any federal funds, state funds, or any other funds for the reclamation of land affected by opencut mining. The board may cause the reclamation work to be done by its own employees or by employees of other governmental agencies, soil conservation districts, or through contracts with qualified persons.

(2) Any funds or any public works programs available to the board shall be expended and used to reclaim and rehabilitate any lands that have been subject to opencut mining that have not been reclaimed and rehabilitated in accordance with the standards of this part.

(3) There is an opencut mining and reclamation account within the state special revenue fund established in 17-2-102. There must be deposited in the account all fees, fines, penalties, and other money that have been or will be paid under the provisions of this part. The money in the account is available to the department of state lands through appropriation and must be spent by the department for the reclamation and revegetation of land, research pertaining to the reclamation and revegetation of land, and the rehabilitation of water affected by opencut mining operations and for administration of this part. Any unspent or unencumbered money in the account at the end of a fiscal year must remain in the account until spent or appropriated by the legislature."

Section 2. Section 82-4-431, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-431. Contract for reclamation required. (1) After March 16, 1973, no operator may conduct opencut-mining operations ~~which~~ that will result in the removal of 10,000 cubic yards or more of product or overburden or that will result in the disturbance of land that was previously reclaimed pursuant to this part until he has entered into a contract with the board for the reclamation of the land affected. An operator conducting a number of operations, each of which results in the removal of less than 10,000 cubic yards of product or overburden but which result in the removal of 10,000 cubic yards or more of product or overburden in the aggregate, is subject to the provisions of this part, except as provided in this section.

(2) (a) Except as provided in or conditioned under subsections (2)(b) and (2)(c), an operator who holds a contract for reclamation may operate an opencut mine without first securing an additional contract or an amendment to the existing contract or bond if the mine meets the following criteria:

(i) the total amount of material and overburden removed does not exceed 1,000 cubic yards; and

(ii) the operator notifies the department of state lands prior to beginning such operations and, within 30 days of notifying the department, submits a completed site information form, salvages and stockpiles all root-bearing soil materials, regrades the affected area to 3:1 or flatter slope and blends the reclaimed area into the adjacent topography, and during the first appropriate growing season replaces all topsoil and reseeds or revegetates as required by the department.

(b) The department may refuse to allow the operator to operate an opencut mine under subsection (2)(a) if, at the time of notification by the operator to the department, the operator has a pattern of violations or is in current violation of this part or rules adopted under this part or provisions of a contract for reclamation.

(c) The department may require an additional bond as a condition for the operation of an opencut mine under subsection (2)(a).

(3) Opencut mines described in subsection (2) may not be placed in flowing, ephemeral, or intermittent streams, in the bottom or head of a confined drainage, in an area where the operation will intercept ground water or intercept any slope that is naturally steeper than 3:1, or in any area where mining would be restricted by other laws."

Section 3. Section 82-4-433, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-433. Bond. (1) A bond required to be filed in this part by the operator shall be in such form as the board prescribes, payable to the state of Montana and conditioned upon the operator's full compliance with all requirements of this part and all rules of the board. The bond shall be signed by the landowner or operator, as appropriate, as principal, and by a good and sufficient corporate surety licensed to do business in the state of Montana, as surety. The bond shall be in an amount not to exceed the costs of restoration required by this part as determined by the board. The amount of the bond may not be less than $200 or more than $1,000 per acre unless the department determines, in writing, that the cost of restoration of the land exceeds $1,000 per acre. Upon such a determination, the bond amount must be set by the board at the cost of restoring the land.

(2) In lieu of the bond, the operator may deposit with the board cash, ~~and~~ government securities, a letter of credit in a form acceptable to the department of state lands, or a bond with property sureties in an amount equal to that of the required bond on conditions as above prescribed. In the discretion of the board, surety bond requirements may be fulfilled by the operator's posting a bond with land and improvements and facilities thereon as security, in which event no surety may be required. The penalty of the bond or amount of cash and securities shall be increased or reduced from time to time as provided in this part. The bond or security remains in effect until the affected land has been reclaimed as provided under the contract and the reclamation has been approved and the bond or security has been released by the board. The bond or security shall cover only actual affected land and may be increased or reduced to cover only such acreages as remain unreclaimed.

(3) If the license of a surety upon a bond filed with the board pursuant to this part is suspended or revoked, the operator, within 30 days after receiving notice thereof from the board, shall substitute for that surety a good and sufficient surety licensed to do business in the state. Upon failure of the operator to make substitution of surety, the board may suspend the contract of the operator to conduct operations upon the land described in the contract until the substitution has been made.

(4) The board shall cause the reclamation of any affected land with respect to which a bond has been forfeited.

(5) Whenever an operator has completed all of the requirements under the provisions of this part as to any affected land, he shall notify the board thereof. If the board releases the operator from further obligation regarding such affected land, the penalty of the bond shall be reduced proportionately."

Section 4. Section 82-4-441, MCA, is amended to read:

"82-4-441. Penalty — enforcement. (1) A person who violates any of the provisions of this part or rules adopted thereunder or provisions of a contract for reclamation shall pay a civil penalty of not less than $100 or more than $1,000 for the violation and an additional civil penalty of not less than $100 or more than $1,000 for each day during which a violation continues following the service of notice of the violation, and the person may be enjoined from continuing such violation as provided in this section. ~~These penalties are recoverable in an action brought in the name of the state of Montana by the attorney general in the district court having jurisdiction of the defendant or by mutual agreement of the parties involved, in the district court of the first judicial district. Penalty money shall be credited to the general fund.~~

(2) ~~The attorney general shall, upon the request of the department, sue for the recovery of the penalties provided for in this section and bring an action for a restraining order or a temporary or permanent injunction against an operator or other person violating or threatening to violate an order adopted under this part.~~

~~(3)~~ The civil penalties provided for in this section may be waived for a minor violation if it is determined that the violation does not represent potential harm to public health, public safety, or the environment and does not impair the administration of this part. The board shall adopt rules to implement and administer a procedure for waiver of a penalty under this subsection.

(3) The department of state lands shall notify the person or operator of the violation. The person or operator is entitled, by filing a written request within 20 days of receipt of the notice of violation, to a hearing on the issues of whether the alleged violation has occurred and whether the penalty proposed to be imposed is proper. The department shall issue a statement of proposed penalty no more than 10 days after notice of violation. After the hearing or after the time for requesting a hearing has expired, the board shall make findings of fact, issue a written decision as to the occurrence of the violation and the amount of penalty warranted, and order the payment of a penalty in that amount. The person or operator shall remit the amount of the penalty within 30 days of the order. If the person or operator wishes to obtain judicial review of the assessment, he shall submit with the penalty a statement that the penalty is being paid under protest and the department shall hold the payment in escrow until judicial review is complete. A person or operator who fails to request and submit testimony at the hearing provided for in this subsection or who fails to pay the assessed penalty under protest within 30 days of the order assessing the penalty forfeits his right to seek judicial review of the violation or penalty determinations. These penalties are recoverable in an action brought by the department in the district court of the first judicial district of this state, in and for the county of Lewis and Clark, or the district court of the county in which the opencut mine is located.

(4) The department may bring an action to enjoin an operator or other person violating or threatening to violate this part, rules adopted pursuant to this part, or a contract made pursuant to this part in the district court of the first judicial district of this state, in and for the county of Lewis and Clark, or the district court of the county in which the opencut mine is located."

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 432

[SB 336]

AN ACT TO CLARIFY WHEN HEALTH CARE INFORMATION IN THE POSSESSION OF LOCAL HEALTH OFFICERS OR BOARDS OR THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES IS SUBJECT TO THE UNIFORM HEALTH CARE INFORMATION ACT, RATHER THAN THE GOVERNMENT HEALTH CARE INFORMATION ACT; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Correlation with Uniform Health Care Information Act. Health care information in the possession of a local board, local health officer, or the department because a health care provider employed by any of these entities provided health care to a patient, either individually or at a public health center or other publicly owned health care facility, is subject to the Uniform Health Care Information Act and not subject to this part.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 50, chapter 16, part 6, and the provisions of Title 50, chapter 16, part 6, apply to [section 1].

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 433

[SB 377]

AN ACT EXEMPTING UNDERGROUND STORAGE TANK INSTALLERS WHO ARE EMPLOYEES FROM CIVIL PENALTY PROVISIONS; AMENDING SECTION 75-11-223, MCA; AND PROVIDING A RETROACTIVE APPLICABILITY DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-11-223, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-11-223. Civil penalties. (1) Any person who violates any provision of this part, a rule adopted under this part, or an order of the department or the board is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $10,000 per violation. If an installer who is an employee is in violation, the employer of that installer is the entity that is subject to the provisions of this section unless the violation is the result of a grossly negligent or willful act. Each day of violation of this part, a rule adopted under this part, or an order constitutes a separate violation.

(2) The department may institute and maintain in the name of the state any enforcement proceedings under this section. Upon request of the department, the attorney general or the county attorney of the county where the violation occurred shall petition the district court to impose, assess, and recover the civil penalty.

(3) Action under this section does not bar:

(a) enforcement of this part, rules adopted under this part, orders of the department or the board, or terms of a license or permit by injunction or other appropriate remedy; or

(b) action under 75-11-224."

Section 2. Retroactive applicability. [This act] applies retroactively, within the meaning of 1-2-109, to proceedings beginning after March 31, 1990.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 434

[SB 335]

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH INDUSTRIES PROGRAMS AT STATE YOUTH CORRECTIONAL FACILITIES; TO GRANT THE DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY SERVICES RULEMAKING AUTHORITY; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because [section 2] grants the department of family services authority to adopt rules necessary for administration of the youth industries programs authorized in [section 1].

It is the intent of the legislature that the department adopt rules that may include but are not limited to rules on the subjects specified in [section 2].

In addition, it is intended that in adopting rules, the department examine the policies governing administration of state prison industries programs, and that the department design youth industries programs to provide training and rehabilitation of youth committed to state youth correctional facilities.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Youth industries programs. The department of family services may:

(1) establish industries programs in state youth correctional facilities that:

(a) assist in the training and rehabilitation of residents at state youth correctional facilities; and

(b) provide the production or manufacture of products and the rendering of services that may be needed by:

(i) a department or agency of the state of Montana or a unit of local government;

(ii) an agency of the federal government; or

(iii) an office or agency of another state or a political subdivision of another state;

(2) contract with private industry for the sale of goods produced or manufactured at state youth correctional facilities; and

(3) fix the purchase price for goods and services available under the industries program established in subsection (1).

Section 2. Rulemaking authority. The department of family services may adopt rules necessary for administration of industries programs authorized in [section 1]. Rules adopted by the department may include rules regarding:

(1) requirements for participation of youth in industries programs;

(2) the type of training and experience to be provided to youth under these programs;

(3) the type of goods and services to be sold under the industries programs;

(4) contracts with private industry for the sale of goods produced or manufactured at state youth correctional facilities; and

(5) payment of wages to youth working in industries programs.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Sections 1 and 2] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 53, chapter 30, part 2, and the provisions of Title 53, chapter 30, part 2, apply to [sections 1 and 2].

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 435

[SB 386]

AN ACT CLARIFYING THAT A WATER RIGHT MAY BE TEMPORARILY CHANGED; AND AMENDING SECTION 85-2-404, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

It is the declared policy of the state in 85-1-101 that water resources be put to optimum beneficial use to secure maximum economic and social prosperity for its citizens. The legislature recognizes that water supplies are limited and vary from year to year. As water supplies become fully appropriated, the reallocation of some water may be necessary to meet changing economic and social needs.

The appropriate means of reallocating water among competing demands is with the voluntary approval of water right holders. With sufficient innovation and economic incentives, water can be reallocated voluntarily, without loss of appropriation rights, and to the profit of prior appropriators, through the temporary change of water rights in anticipation of periods of water scarcity. This legislation clarifies that these types of arrangements are allowed, except when other appropriators might be adversely affected. Thus, water can be reallocated for optimum beneficial use and the maximum economic and social prosperity of all Montana citizens.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Temporary changes in appropriation right. (1) An appropriator may not make a temporary change in appropriation right for his use or another's use except with department approval in accordance with 85-2-402 and this section.

(2) A temporary change in appropriation right may be approved for a period not to exceed 10 years. A temporary change in appropriation right may be approved for consecutive or intermittent use.

(3) An authorization for a temporary change in appropriation right may be renewed by the department for a period not to exceed 10 years. Renewal of an authorization for a temporary change in appropriation right requires application to the department by the appropriator. Upon application, the department shall notify other appropriators potentially affected by the renewal and shall allow 30 days for submission of new evidence of adverse effects to other water rights. A temporary change authorization may not be renewed by the department if it determines that the right of an appropriator, other than an appropriator described in subsection (7), is adversely affected.

(4) During the term of the original temporary change authorization, the department may modify or revoke its authorization for a temporary change if it determines that the right of an appropriator, other than an appropriator described in subsection (7), is adversely affected.

(5) The priority of appropriation for a temporary change in appropriation right is the same as the priority of appropriation of the right that is temporarily changed.

(6) Neither a change in appropriation right nor any other authorization right is required for reversion of the appropriation right to the permanent purpose, place of use, point of diversion, or place of storage after the period for which a temporary change was authorized expires.

(7) A person issued a water use permit with a priority of appropriation after the date of filing of an application for a temporary change in appropriation right under this section may not object to the exercise of the temporary change according to its terms, the renewal of the authorization for the temporary change, or the reversion of the appropriation right to its permanent purpose, place of use, point of diversion, or place of storage. Persons described in this subsection must be notified of the existence of any temporary change authorizations from the same source of supply.

(8) If a water right for which a temporary change has been approved is transferred as an appurtenance of real property, the temporary change remains in effect unless another change in appropriation right is authorized by the department.

Section 2. Section 85-2-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"85-2-404. (Temporary) Abandonment of appropriation right. (1) If an appropriator ceases to use all or a part of his appropriation right with the intention of wholly or partially abandoning the right or if he ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions with the intention of not complying with those terms and conditions, the appropriation right shall, to that extent, be considered abandoned and shall immediately expire.

(2) If an appropriator ceases to use all or part of his appropriation right or ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions for a period of 10 successive years and there was water available for his use, there is a prima facie presumption that the appropriator has abandoned his right in whole or for the part not used.

(3) If an appropriator ceases to use all or part of his appropriation right because the land to which the water is applied to a beneficial use is contracted under a state or federal conservation set-aside program:

(a) the set-aside and resulting reduction in use of the appropriation right does not represent an intent by the appropriator to wholly or partially abandon the appropriation right or to not comply with the terms and conditions attached to the right; and

(b) the period of nonuse that occurs for part or all of the appropriation right as a result of the contract may not create or may not be added to any previous period of nonuse to create a prima facie presumption of abandonment.

(4) The lease of an existing right pursuant to 85-2-436 ~~does~~ or the temporary change pursuant to [section 1] does not constitute an abandonment ~~by the lessor~~ or serve as evidence that could be used to establish an abandonment ~~by the lessor~~ of any part of the right.

(5) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to existing rights until they have been determined in accordance with part 2 of this chapter. (Terminates June 30, 1993—sec. 11, Ch. 658, L. 1989.)

85-2-404. (Effective July 1, 1993) Abandonment of appropriation right. (1) If an appropriator ceases to use all or a part of his appropriation right with the intention of wholly or partially abandoning the right or if he ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions with the intention of not complying with those terms and conditions, the appropriation right shall, to that extent, be deemed considered abandoned and shall immediately expire.

(2) If an appropriator ceases to use all or part of his appropriation right or ceases using his appropriation right according to its terms and conditions for a period of 10 successive years and there was water available for his use, there shall be a prima facie presumption that the appropriator has abandoned his right in whole or for the part not used.

(3) If an appropriator ceases to use all or part of his appropriation right because the land to which the water is applied to a beneficial use is contracted under a state or federal conservation set-aside program:

(a) the set-aside and resulting reduction in use of the appropriation right does not represent an intent by the appropriator to wholly or partially abandon the appropriation right or to not comply with the terms and conditions attached to the right; and

(b) the period of nonuse that occurs for part or all of the appropriation right as a result of the contract may not create or may not be added to any previous period of nonuse to create a prima facie presumption of abandonment.

(4) A temporary change pursuant to [section 1] does not constitute an abandonment or serve as evidence that could be used to establish an abandonment of any part of the right.

~~(4)~~(5) Subsections (1) and (2) do not apply to existing rights until they have been determined in accordance with part 2 of this chapter."

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 85, chapter 2, part 4, and the provisions of Title 85, chapter 2, part 4, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 15, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 436

[HB 667]

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS TO FUND ADDITIONAL STAFF, HIRED BY THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, THROUGH AN INCREASE IN THE LICENSE FEES PAID BY LICENSED PHYSICIANS; AMENDING SECTION 37-3-203, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the workload of the Board of Medical Examiners has increased significantly; and

WHEREAS, additional staff is necessary for the Board to address the increased caseload, serve Montana's physicians and the public, and fulfill its statutory mandates; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature feels it is appropriate to allow the Department of Commerce to hire additional staff and fund any new position through an increase in the license fees charged to licensed physicians by the Board.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-3-203, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-3-203. Powers and duties. The board may:

(1) adopt rules necessary or proper to carry out parts 1 through 3 of this chapter; the rules shall be fair, impartial, and nondiscriminatory;

(2) hold hearings and take evidence in matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties vested in the board;

(3) aid the county attorneys of this state in the enforcement of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter and the prosecution of persons, firms, associations, or corporations charged with violations of parts 1 through 3 of this chapter;

(4) establish a program to assist and rehabilitate licensed physicians who are found to be physically or mentally impaired by habitual intemperance or the excessive use of narcotic drugs, alcohol, or any other drug or substance; ~~and~~

(5) select an executive secretary to be hired by the department to:

(a) provide services to the board in connection with the board's duties under this chapter;

(b) assist in prosecution and matters of license discipline under this chapter; and

(c) administer the board's affairs; and

(6) fund additional staff, hired by the department, to administer the provisions of this chapter, by increasing license fees as necessary."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 437

[HB 785]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE MONTANA HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATION ACT; TO ELIMINATE THE REQUIREMENT FOR CERTIFICATION BY THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES BEFORE A CERTIFICATE OF AUTHORITY IS ISSUED TO A HEALTH MAINTENANCE ORGANIZATION; TO ELIMINATE OTHER REQUIREMENTS RELATING TO THE DEPARTMENT; AMENDING SECTIONS 33-31-102, 33-31-103, 33-31-201, 33-31-202, 33-31-212, 33-31-401, 33-31-402, 33-31-404, AND 33-31-405, MCA; REPEALING SECTION 33-31-104, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 33-31-102, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-102. Definitions. As used in this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Basic health care services" means:

(a) consultative, diagnostic, therapeutic, and referral services by a provider;

(b) inpatient hospital and provider care;

~~(12)~~(10) "Plan" means a health maintenance organization operated by an insurer or health service corporation as an integral part of the corporation and not as a subsidiary.

~~(13)~~(11) "Provider" means a physician, hospital, hospital-related facility, long-term care facility, dentist, osteopath, chiropractor, optometrist, podiatrist, psychologist, licensed social worker, registered pharmacist, or nurse specialist as specifically listed in 37-8-202 who treats any illness or injury within the scope and limitations of his practice or any other person who is licensed or otherwise authorized in this state to furnish health care services.

~~(14)~~(12) "Uncovered expenditures" mean the costs of health care services that are covered by a health maintenance organization and for which an enrollee is liable if the health maintenance organization becomes insolvent."

Section 2. Section 33-31-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-103. Rules. ~~(1)~~ The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, make reasonable rules necessary to effectuate this chapter.

~~(2) The department of health may make reasonable rules necessary to effectuate this chapter.~~"

Section 3. Section 33-31-201, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-201. Establishment of health maintenance organizations. (1) Notwithstanding any law of this state to the contrary, a person may apply to the commissioner for and obtain a certificate of authority to establish and operate a health maintenance organization in compliance with this chapter. A person may not establish or operate a health maintenance organization in this state except as authorized by a subsisting certificate of authority issued to it by the commissioner. A foreign person may qualify for a certificate of authority if it first obtains from the secretary of state a certificate of authority to transact business in this state as a foreign corporation under 35-1-1001.

(2) Each health maintenance organization operating in this state as of October 1, 1987, shall submit an application for a certificate of authority under subsection (3) within 30 days after the effective date of rules adopted by the commissioner ~~and the department of health~~ as provided in 33-31-103. Each such applicant may continue to operate in this state until the commissioner acts upon the application. If an application is denied under 33-31-202, the applicant must be treated as a health maintenance organization whose certificate of authority has been revoked.

(3) Each application of a health maintenance organization, whether separately licensed or not, for a certificate of authority must:

(a) be verified by an officer or authorized representative of the applicant;

(b) be in a form prescribed by the commissioner;

(c) contain:

(i) the applicant's name;

(ii) the location of the applicant's home office or principal office in the United States (if a foreign person);

(iii) the date of organization or incorporation;

(iv) the form of organization (including whether the providers affiliated with the health maintenance organization will be salaried employees or group or individual contractors);

(v) the state or country of domicile; and

(vi) any additional information the commissioner may reasonably require; and

(d) set forth the following information or be accompanied by the following documents, as applicable:

(i) a copy of the applicant's organizational documents, such as its corporate charters or articles of incorporation, articles of association, partnership agreement, trust agreement, or other applicable documents, and all amendments thereto, certified by the public officer with whom the originals were filed in the state or country of domicile;

(ii) a copy of the bylaws, rules, and regulations, or similar document, if any, regulating the conduct of the applicant's internal affairs, certified by its secretary or other officer having custody thereof;

(iii) a list of the names, addresses, and official positions of the persons responsible for the conduct of the applicant's affairs, including all members of the board of directors, board of trustees, executive committee, or other governing board or committee; the principal officers in the case of a corporation; and the partners or members in the case of a partnership or association;

(iv) a copy of any contract made or to be made between:

(A) any provider and the applicant; or

(B) any person listed in subsection (3)(d)(iii) and the applicant. The applicant may file a list of providers executing a standard contract and a copy of the contract instead of copies of each executed contract.

(v) the extent to which any of the following will be included in provider contracts and the form of any provisions that:

(A) limit a provider's ability to seek reimbursement for basic health care services or health care services from an enrollee;

(B) permit or require a provider to assume a financial risk in the health maintenance organization, including any provisions for assessing the provider, adjusting capitation or fee-for-service rates, or sharing in the earnings or losses; and

(C) govern amending or terminating an agreement with a provider;

(vi) a financial statement showing the applicant's assets, liabilities, and sources of financial support. If the applicant's financial affairs are audited by independent certified public accountants, a copy of the applicant's most recent certified financial statement satisfies this requirement unless the commissioner directs that additional or more recent financial information is required for the proper administration of this chapter.

(vii) a description of the proposed method of marketing, a financial plan that includes a projection of operating results anticipated until the organization has had net income for at least 1 year, and a statement as to the sources of working capital as well as any other source of funding;

(viii) a power of attorney executed by the applicant, on a form prescribed by the commissioner, appointing the commissioner, his successors in office, and his authorized deputies as the applicant's attorney to receive service of legal process issued against it in this state;

(ix) a statement reasonably describing the geographic service area or areas to be served, by county, including:

(A) a chart showing the number of primary and specialty care providers, with locations and service areas by county;

(B) the method of handling emergency care, with the location of each emergency care facility; and

(C) the method of handling out-of-area services;

(x) a description of the way in which the health maintenance organization provides services to enrollees in each geographic service area, including the extent to which a provider under contract with the health maintenance organization provides primary care to those enrollees;

(xi) a description of the complaint procedures to be used as required under 33-31-303;

~~(xii) a description of the procedures and programs to be implemented to meet the quality of health care requirements in 33-31-202;~~

~~(xiii)~~(xii) a description of the mechanism by which enrollees will be afforded an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation under 33-31-222;

~~(xiv)~~(xiii) a summary of the way in which administrative services will be provided, including the size and qualifications of the administrative staff and the projected cost of administration in relation to premium income. If the health maintenance organization delegates management authority for a major corporate function to a person outside the organization, the health maintenance organization shall include a copy of the contract in its application for a certificate of authority. Contracts for delegated management authority must be filed with the commissioner in accordance with the filing provisions of 33-31-301(2); however, nothing in this subsection deprives the health maintenance organization of its right to confidentiality of any proprietary information, and the commissioner may not disclose that proprietary information to any other person. All contracts must include:

(A) the services to be provided;

(B) the standards of performance for the manager;

(C) the method of payment, including any provisions for the administrator to participate in the profits or losses of the plan;

(D) the duration of the contract; and

(E) any provisions for modifying, terminating, or renewing the contract;

~~(xv)~~(xiv) a summary of all financial guaranties by providers, sponsors, affiliates, or parents within a holding company system or any other guaranties that are intended to ensure the financial success of the plan, including hold harmless agreements by providers, insolvency insurance, reinsurance, or other guaranties;

~~(xvi)~~(xv) a summary of benefits to be offered enrollees, including any limitations and exclusions and the renewability of all contracts to be written;

~~(xvii)~~(xvi) evidence that it can meet the requirement of 33-31-216(10); and

~~(xviii)~~(xvii) any other information that the commissioner may reasonably require to make the determinations required in 33-31-202.

(4) Each health maintenance organization shall file each substantial change, alteration, or amendment to the information submitted under subsection (3) with the commissioner at least 30 days prior to its effective date, including changes in articles of incorporation and bylaws, organization type, geographic service area, provider contracts, provider availability, plan administration, financial projections and guaranties, and any other change that might affect the financial solvency of the plan. The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, disapprove any proposed change, alteration, or amendment to the business plan. The commissioner may make reasonable rules exempting from the filing requirements of this subsection those items he considers unnecessary.

(5) An applicant or a health maintenance organization holding a certificate of authority shall file with the commissioner all contracts of reinsurance and any modifications thereto. An agreement between a health maintenance organization and an insurer is subject to Title 33, chapter 2, part 12. A reinsurance agreement must remain in full force and effect for at least 90 days following written notice of cancellation by either party by certified mail to the commissioner.

(6) Each health maintenance organization shall maintain, at its administrative office, and make available to the commissioner upon request executed copies of all provider contracts.

(7) The commissioner may make reasonable rules exempting an insurer or health service corporation operating a health maintenance organization as a plan from the filing requirements of this section if information requested in the application has been submitted to the commissioner under other laws and rules administered by the commissioner."

Section 4. Section 33-31-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-202. Issuance of certificate of authority. ~~(1) Upon receipt of an application for issuance of a certificate of authority, the commissioner~~

~~shall transmit copies of the application and accompanying documents to the department of health. The department of health shall determine whether the applicant for a certificate of authority, with respect to health care services to be furnished, has:~~

~~(a) demonstrated the willingness and potential ability to assure that it will provide health care services in a manner assuring availability and accessibility of adequate personnel and facilities and enhancing availability, accessibility, and continuity of service;~~

~~(b) arrangements, established in accordance with the rules made by the department of health, for an ongoing quality assurance program concerning health care availability, accessibility, and continuity of service; and~~

~~(c) a procedure, established in accordance with rules of the department of health, to develop, compile, evaluate, and report statistics relating to the cost of its operations, the pattern of utilization of its services, the availability and accessibility of its services, and any other matters as may be reasonably required by the department of health.~~

~~(2) Within 60 days of receipt of the application from a health maintenance organization for issuance of a certificate of authority, the department of health shall certify to the commissioner that the proposed health maintenance organization meets the requirements of subsection (1) or shall, after notice and hearing, notify the commissioner that the health maintenance organization does not meet those requirements and specify in what respects it is deficient. The director may extend by not more than an additional 30 days the period within which he may certify to the commissioner that the proposed health maintenance organization meets or does not meet the requirements of subsection (1) by giving notice of the extension to the commissioner and the health maintenance organization before the expiration of the initial 60-day period.~~

~~(3)~~(1) The commissioner shall issue or deny a certificate of authority to any person filing an application pursuant to 33-31-201 within 180 days ~~of receipt of the certification from the department of health~~ after he receives the application. The commissioner shall grant a certificate of authority upon payment of the application fee prescribed in 33-31-212 if the commissioner is satisfied that each of the following conditions is met:

(a) The persons responsible for the conduct of the applicant's affairs are competent and trustworthy.

~~(b) The department of health certifies, in accordance with subsection (2), that the health maintenance organization's proposed plan of operation meets the requirements of subsection (1).~~

~~(c)~~(b) The health maintenance organization will effectively provide or arrange for the provision of basic health care services on a prepaid basis, through insurance or otherwise, except to the extent of reasonable requirements for copayments.

~~(d)~~(c) The health maintenance organization is financially responsible and can reasonably be expected to meet its obligations to enrollees and prospective enrollees. In making this determination, the commissioner may in his discretion consider:

(i) the financial soundness of the arrangements for health care services and the schedule of charges used in connection therewith;

(ii) the adequacy of working capital;

(iii) any agreement with an insurer, a health service corporation, a government, or any other organization for ensuring the payment of the cost of health care services or the provision for automatic applicability of an alternative coverage in the event of discontinuance of the health maintenance organization;

(iv) any agreement with providers for the provision of health care services;

(v) any deposit of cash or securities submitted in accordance with 33-31-216; and

(vi) any additional information as the commissioner may reasonably require.

~~(e)~~(d) The enrollees will be afforded an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation pursuant to 33-31-222.

~~(f)~~(e) Nothing in the proposed method of operation, as shown by the information submitted pursuant to 33-31-201 or by independent investigation, violates any provision of this chapter or rules adopted by the commissioner ~~or the department of health~~.

~~(g) Any deficiencies identified by the department of health have been corrected.~~

~~(4)~~(2) The commissioner may in his discretion deny a certificate of authority only if he complies with the requirements of 33-31-404."

Section 5. Section 33-31-212, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-212. Fees. (1) Each health maintenance organization shall pay to the commissioner the following fees:

(a) for filing an application for a certificate of authority or amendment thereto, $300;

(b) for filing an amendment to the organization documents that requires approval, $25;

(c) for filing each annual statement, $25;

(d) for annual continuation of certificate of authority, $300.

(2) All fees, miscellaneous charges, fines, penalties, and those amounts received pursuant to 33-31-211(3) and 33-31-405 collected by the commissioner pursuant to this chapter and the rules adopted thereunder must be deposited in the general fund.

~~(3) The director may assess fees necessary and adequate to cover the expenses of the director's functions under this chapter.~~"

Section 6. Section 33-31-401, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-401. Examination. (1) The commissioner may examine the affairs of a health maintenance organization as often as is reasonably necessary to protect the interests of the people of this state. The commissioner shall make an examination at least once every 3 years.

~~(2) The department of health may examine the availability, accessibility, and continuity of the health care services provided by any health maintenance organization and the providers with whom the health maintenance organization has contracts, agreements, or other arrangements as often as is reasonably necessary to protect the interests of the people of this state. The department of health shall make such an examination at least once every 3 years.~~

~~(3)~~(2) Each authorized health maintenance organization and provider shall submit its relevant books and records for the examinations and in every way facilitate the examinations. For the purpose of examination, the commissioner ~~and the department of health~~ may administer oaths to and examine the officers and insurance producers of the health maintenance organization and the principals of the providers concerning their business.

~~(4) (a) (i)~~(3) (a) Upon presentation of a detailed account of the charges and expenses of examinations by the commissioner, the health maintenance organization being examined shall pay to the examiner as necessarily incurred on account of the examination the actual travel expenses, a reasonable living-expense allowance, and a per diem, all at reasonable rates customary therefor and as established or adopted by the commissioner. The commissioner may present an account periodically during the course of the examination or at the termination of the examination as the commissioner considers proper. A person may not pay and an examiner may not accept any additional emolument on account of any examination.

~~(ii)~~(b) If a health maintenance organization fails to pay the charges and expenses as referred to in subsection ~~(4)(a)(i)~~ (3)(a), the commissioner shall pay them out of the funds of the commissioner in the same manner as other disbursements of funds. The amount so paid must be a lien upon all of the person's assets and property in this state and may be recovered by suit by the attorney general on behalf of the state of Montana and restored to the appropriate fund.

~~(b) The expenses of examination conducted by the director under this section must be assessed against the health maintenance organization and remitted to the director.~~

~~(5)~~(4) In lieu of an examination, the commissioner ~~or the director~~ may accept the report of an examination made by the commissioner ~~or the director~~ of another state."

Section 7. Section 33-31-402, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-402. Suspension or revocation of certificate of authority. (1) The commissioner may in his discretion suspend or revoke any certificate of authority issued to a health maintenance organization under this chapter if he finds that any of the following conditions exist:

(a) The health maintenance organization is operating in contravention of its basic organizational document or in a manner contrary to that described in any other information submitted under 33-31-201 and provided that such operation adversely affects the health maintenance organization's ability to provide benefits and operate under the application approved by the commissioner, unless amendments to such submissions have been filed with and approved by the commissioner.

(b) The health maintenance organization issues evidences of coverage or uses a schedule of charges for health care services that do not comply with the requirements of 33-31-301.

(c) The health maintenance organization does not provide or arrange for basic health care services.

~~(d) The director, after notice and hearing, certifies to the commissioner that:~~

~~(i) the health maintenance organization does not meet the requirements of 33-31-202(1); or~~

~~(ii) the health maintenance organization is unable to fulfill its obligations to furnish health care services.~~

~~(e)~~(d) The health maintenance organization is no longer financially responsible and may reasonably be expected to be unable to meet its obligations to enrollees or prospective enrollees.

~~(f)~~(e) The health maintenance organization has failed to implement a mechanism affording the enrollees an opportunity to participate in matters of policy and operation under 33-31-222.

~~(g)~~(f) The health maintenance organization has failed to implement the complaint system required by 33-31-303 to resolve valid complaints in a reasonable manner.

~~(h)~~(g) The health maintenance organization, or any person on its behalf, has advertised or merchandised its services in an untrue, misrepresentative, misleading, deceptive, or unfair manner.

~~(i)~~(h) The continued operation of the health maintenance organization would be hazardous to its enrollees.

~~(j)~~(i) The health maintenance organization has otherwise failed to substantially comply with this chapter.

(2) The commissioner may in his discretion suspend or revoke a certificate of authority only if he complies with the requirements of 33-31-404.

(3) When the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization is suspended, the health maintenance organization may not, during the period of such suspension, enroll any additional enrollees except newborn infants or other newly acquired dependents of existing enrollees and may not engage in any advertising or solicitation.

(4) If the commissioner revokes the certificate of authority of a health maintenance organization, the health maintenance organization shall proceed, immediately following the effective date of the order of revocation, to wind up its affairs and may not transact further business except as may be essential to the orderly conclusion of its affairs. It may not engage in further advertising or solicitation following the effective date of the order of revocation. The commissioner may by written order permit further operation of the health maintenance organization if he finds further operation to be in the best interest of enrollees to the extent that enrollees will be afforded the greatest practical opportunity to obtain continuing health care coverage."

Section 8. Section 33-31-404, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-404. Administrative procedures. (1) When the commissioner has cause to believe that grounds for the denial of an application for a certificate of authority exist or that grounds for the suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority exist, he shall give written notice to the health maintenance organization ~~and the department of health~~ specifically stating the grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation and fixing a time of at least 30 days after the notice for a hearing on the matter.

(2) ~~The director or his designated representative may attend the hearing and may participate in the proceeding. The recommendations and findings of the director with respect to matters relating to the availability, accessibility, and continuity of health care services provided in connection with any decision regarding denial, suspension, or revocation of a certificate of authority must be conclusive and binding upon the commissioner.~~ After the hearing, or upon the failure of the health maintenance organization to appear at the hearing, the commissioner shall make written findings and act as he considers advisable. The commissioner shall mail the written findings to the health maintenance organization ~~and submit a copy to the director~~. The action of the commissioner ~~and the recommendations and findings of the director are~~ is subject to review by the district court having jurisdiction. The court may, in disposing of the issue before it, modify, affirm, or reverse the order of the commissioner in whole or in part.

(3) Where notice and hearing are required with regard to actions taken by the commissioner under this chapter, the requirements of 33-1-314 through 33-1-316 and Title 33, chapter 1, part 7, apply, except that the formal rules of pleading and evidence must be observed. To the extent that 33-1-314 through 33-1-316 and Title 33, chapter 1, part 7, do not address the notice and hearing requirements of this chapter, the provisions of Title 2, chapter 4, parts 6 and 7, apply.

~~(4) Where notice and hearing are required with regard to actions taken by the director under this chapter, the provisions of Title 2, chapter 4, parts 6 and 7, apply.~~"

Section 9. Section 33-31-405, MCA, is amended to read:

"33-31-405. Penalties and enforcement. (1) The commissioner may, in addition to suspension or revocation of a certificate of authority under 33-31-402, after notice and hearing, impose an administrative penalty in an amount not less than $500 or more than $10,000 if he gives reasonable notice in writing of the intent to levy the penalty and the health maintenance organization has a reasonable time within which to remedy the defect in its operations that gave rise to the penalty citation.

(2) If the commissioner ~~or the director~~ has cause to believe that a violation of this chapter has occurred or is threatened, the commissioner ~~or the director~~ may:

(a) give notice to the health maintenance organization and to the representatives or other persons who appear to be involved in the suspected violation;

(b) arrange a conference with the alleged violators or their authorized representatives to attempt to ascertain the facts relating to the suspected violation; and

(c) if it appears that a violation has occurred or is threatened, arrive at an adequate and effective means of correcting or preventing the violation.

(3) (a) The commissioner may issue an order directing a health maintenance organization or its representative to cease and desist from engaging in an act or practice in violation of this chapter.

(b) Within 15 days after service of the cease and desist order, the respondent may request a hearing to determine whether acts or practices in violation of this chapter have occurred. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to Title 2, chapter 4, part 6, and judicial review must be available as provided by Title 2, chapter 4, part 7.

(4) If a health maintenance organization violates a provision of this chapter and the commissioner elects not to issue a cease and desist order or if the respondent does not comply with a cease and desist order issued pursuant to subsection (3), the commissioner may institute a proceeding to obtain injunctive or other appropriate relief in the district court of Lewis and Clark County."

Section 10. Repealer. Section 33-31-104, MCA, is repealed.

Section 11. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 438

[HB 849]

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR A REFERENDUM IN OCTOBER 1991 FOR MONTANA STUDENTS ENROLLED IN GRADES 7 THROUGH 12 TO DECIDE WHETHER RETAILERS SHOULD REFUSE TO SELL CIGARETTES AND TOBACCO TO PERSONS UNDER 18 YEARS OF AGE; PROVIDING FOR PROCEDURES AND SUPERVISION OF THE REFERENDUM BY THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION; PROVIDING FOR THE POSTING OF SIGNS BY RETAILERS WHO REFUSE TO SELL TOBACCO TO MINORS IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE REFERENDUM, IF APPROVED; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Student cigarette tobacco referendum. A referendum entitled the "Montana school tobacco referendum 1991", open to all Montana students enrolled in grades 7 through 12, must be held in the second week of October 1991 in a ballot form provided by the superintendent of public instruction. The referendum must be conducted as prescribed in this section.

(1) Students enrolled on the date of the referendum in grades 7 through 12 in each accredited public school and in each accredited nonpublic school whose principal notifies the superintendent of public instruction by September 20, 1991, of intent to participate may vote in the referendum.

(2) Not later than October 1, 1991, the superintendent of public instruction shall provide instructions for the referendum, as provided in this section, to each participating school that includes grades 7 through 12. The referendum must be conducted by secret ballot and be presented to students in school in the following ballot form:

☐ YES — I DO favor requesting that stores REFUSE to sell cigarettes and tobacco to persons under 18 years of age.

☐ NO — I DO NOT favor requesting that stores REFUSE to sell cigarettes and tobacco to persons under 18 years of age.

(3) Votes must be tabulated by the student governing body and the principal of each participating school. The principal shall transmit in writing the vote count for his school to the superintendent of public instruction not later than November 1, 1991, together with a statement by the principal that the referendum was conducted fairly and the vote count is genuine to the best of his knowledge and belief.

(4) The superintendent of public instruction shall tabulate the total vote in the referendum from all participating schools not later than November 15, 1991. If the number of students voting in the referendum is at least 50% of the number of students enrolled in public school grades 7 through 12 on October 1, 1991, and if a majority of students voting voted for the referendum, the superintendent of public instruction shall certify to the director of the department of revenue that the referendum has been approved. Otherwise, the superintendent shall certify that the referendum has been rejected.

(5) Within 60 days of receiving certification from the superintendent of public instruction that the referendum has been approved, the department of revenue shall inform each retailer who sells cigarettes and tobacco that the referendum has been approved and ask retailers to post prominently a sign where cigarettes and tobacco are sold, stating: "Out of respect for the wishes of Montana junior and senior high school students as expressed in the Montana School Tobacco Referendum 1991, this store voluntarily agrees not to sell cigarettes and tobacco to persons under 18 years of age. Your cooperation with our Montana students' vote against tobacco sales to minors is appreciated."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 439

[SB 120]

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THAT TRUSTEES OF A SCHOOL DISTRICT PROVIDE A NONTENURE TEACHER WITH A TRUE STATEMENT OF REASONS UPON TERMINATION; TO PROVIDE A NONTENURE TEACHER WITH A HEARING IF THE NONTENURE TEACHER BELIEVES THE REASONS ARE NOT TRUE; AMENDING SECTIONS 20-3-210 AND 20-4-206, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE AND AN APPLICABILITY PROVISION.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 20-3-210, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-3-210. Controversy appeals and hearings. (1) Except as provided under 20-3-211, the county superintendent shall hear and decide all matters of controversy arising in his county as a result of decisions of the trustees of a district in the county. When appeals are made under 20-4-204 relating to the termination of services of a tenure teacher or under 20-4-207 relating to the dismissal of a teacher under contract, the county superintendent may appoint a qualified attorney at law to act as a legal adviser who shall assist the superintendent in preparing findings of fact and conclusions of law. Subsequently, either the teacher or trustees may appeal to the superintendent of public instruction under the provisions for appeal of controversies in this title. Furthermore, he shall hear and decide all controversies arising under:

(a) section 20-5-304 or 20-5-311 relating to the approval of tuition applications; ~~or~~

(b) section 20-4-206(4); or

(c) any other provision of this title for which a procedure for resolving controversies is not expressly prescribed.

(2) The county superintendent shall hear the appeal and take testimony in order to determine the facts related to the controversy and may administer oaths to the witnesses that testify at the hearing. He shall prepare a written transcript of the hearing proceedings. The decision on the matter of controversy which is made by the county superintendent shall be based upon the facts established at such hearing.

(3) The decision of the county superintendent may be appealed to the superintendent of public instruction, and if it is appealed, the county superintendent shall supply a transcript of the hearing and any other documents entered as testimony at the hearing to the superintendent of public instruction.

(4) Cost incurred by the office of the county superintendent shall be paid from the general fund budget of the county in which the controversy is initiated."

Section 2. Section 20-4-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"20-4-206. Notification of nontenure teacher reelection — acceptance — termination and statement of reason. (1) The trustees shall provide written notice by May 1 to all nontenure teachers who have been reelected. ~~Any~~ A nontenure teacher who does not receive written notice of reelection or termination ~~shall be~~ is automatically reelected for the ensuing school fiscal year.

(2) ~~Any~~ A nontenure teacher who receives notification of his reelection for the ensuing school fiscal year shall provide the trustees with his written acceptance of the conditions of ~~such~~ reelection within 20 days after the receipt of the notice of reelection. Failure to so notify the trustees within 20 days may be considered nonacceptance of the tendered position.

(3) When the trustees notify a nontenure teacher of termination, the teacher may within 10 days after receipt of ~~such~~ the notice make written request of the trustees for a statement in writing of the reasons for termination of employment. Within 10 days after receipt of the request, the trustees shall furnish ~~such statement~~ to the teacher a true statement of reasons for termination.

(4) If a nontenure teacher believes the reasons provided by the trustees are not true, the teacher may request in writing within 10 days of receipt of the statement of reasons that the county superintendent hold a hearing in accordance with 20-3-210 to determine whether the reasons are true. A hearing must be scheduled within 10 days and held within 45 days after receipt of the request, except that the period may be extended upon agreement between the trustees and the teacher. The burden of proof that the reasons are not true rests with the teacher, and the showing must be demonstrated by clear and convincing evidence.

(5) If, after a hearing, the county superintendent determines that the reasons are not true, the county superintendent shall order the trustees to offer the teacher a contract for the ensuing school fiscal year.

(6) The provisions of this section do not apply to cases in which a nontenure teacher is terminated when the financial condition of the school district requires a reduction in the number of teachers employed and the reason for the termination is to reduce the number of teachers employed.

~~(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to cases in which a nontenure teacher is terminated when the financial condition of the school district requires a reduction in the number of teachers employed and the reason for the termination is to reduce the number of teachers employed.~~"

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective October 1, 1991.

Section 4. Applicability. [This act] does not apply to nontenure teachers who are considered temporary or substitute teachers.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 440

[SB 123]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT PROCEEDS IN THE NOXIOUS WEED MANAGEMENT TRUST FUND MAY BE GRANTED TO THE AGRICULTURAL EXPERIMENT STATION AND THE COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE FOR RESEARCH, EVALUATION, AND EDUCATION ON CROP WEED MANAGEMENT; REQUIRING ANNUAL REPORTS ON WEED CONTROL RESEARCH; AMENDING SECTIONS 80-7-508 AND 80-7-814, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 80-7-814, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-7-814. Administration and expenditure of funds. (1) Money deposited in the noxious weed management trust fund may not be committed or expended until the principal reaches $2,500,000, except as provided by 80-7-815 in case of a noxious weed emergency. Once this amount is accumulated, any interest or revenue generated by the trust fund and by other funding measures provided by this part must be deposited in the special revenue fund and may be expended for noxious weed management projects in accordance with this section, so long as the principal of the trust fund remains at least $2,500,000.

(2) The department may expend funds under this section through grants or contracts to communities, weed control districts, or other entities it considers appropriate for noxious weed management projects. A project is eligible to receive funds only if the county in which the project occurs has funded its own weed management program with a levy in an amount not less than 1.6 mills or an equivalent amount from another source or by an amount of not less than $100,000 for first class counties, as defined in 7-1-2111.

(3) The department may expend funds without the restrictions specified in subsection (2) for the following:

(a) employment of a new and innovative noxious weed management project or the development, implementation, or demonstration of any noxious weed management project that may be proposed, implemented, or established by local, state, or national organizations, whether public or private. Such expenditures must be on a cost-share basis with such organizations.

(b) cost-share noxious weed management programs with local weed control districts;

(c) special grants to local weed control districts to eradicate or contain significant noxious weeds newly introduced into the county. These grants may be issued without matching funds from the district.

(d) costs of collecting the surcharge imposed by 80-7-812, not to exceed 3% of the total surcharge proceeds;

(e) administrative expenses incurred by the noxious weed management advisory council; ~~and~~

(f) any project recommended by the noxious weed management advisory council, if the department determines the project will significantly contribute to the management of noxious weeds within the state*; and*

(g) grants to the agricultural experiment station and the cooperative extension service for crop weed management research, evaluation, and education.

(4) The agricultural experiment station and cooperative extension service shall submit annual reports on current projects and future plans to the noxious weed management advisory council.

~~(4)~~(5) In making ~~such~~ expenditures under subsections (2) and (3), the department must give preference to weed control districts and community groups.

~~(5)~~(6) If the noxious weed management trust fund is terminated by law, the money in the fund must be divided between all counties according to rules adopted by the department for that purpose."

Section 2. Section 80-7-508, MCA, is amended to read:

"80-7-508. Duties of the cooperative extension service. (1) The cooperative extension service within the department of education shall conduct investigations pertaining to insects and other arthropods affecting plants and animals. When an injurious infestation of an insect or other arthropod occurs in any part of the state, the authorized employees of the cooperative extension service shall go to the scene of the infestation, shall determine the extent and seriousness of the infestation, and make public the best remedies to be employed.

(2) The cooperative extension service shall cooperate with the agricultural experiment station in providing annual reports required under 80-7-814(4)."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 441

[SB 236]

AN ACT REVISING THE URBAN RENEWAL LAWS; CHANGING THE PERIOD OF THE ANNUAL REPORT; PROVIDING FOR CERTAIN REDEVELOPMENT ACTIVITIES TO BE UNDERTAKEN IN ACCORDANCE WITH A DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT; REVISING THE TERMINATION OF TAX INCREMENT FINANCING; PROVIDING FOR THE REDUCTION IN TAX INCREMENT DISTRIBUTIONS UNDER CERTAIN CONDITIONS; AMENDING SECTIONS 7-15-4237, 7-15-4258, 7-15-4286, AND 7-15-4292, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-15-4237, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-15-4237. Annual report. (1) An agency authorized to transact business and exercise powers under this part and part 43 shall file with the local governing body, on or before ~~March 31~~ September 30 of each year, a report of its activities for the preceding ~~calendar~~ fiscal year.

(2) The report shall include a complete financial statement setting forth its assets, liabilities, income, and operating expenses as of the end of ~~such calendar~~ the fiscal year.

(3) At the time of filing the report, the agency shall publish in a newspaper of general circulation in the community a notice to the effect that such report has been filed with the municipality and that the report is available for inspection during business hours in the office of the city clerk and in the office of the agency."

Section 2. Section 7-15-4258, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-15-4258. Acquisition and administration of real and personal property. (1) Every municipality shall have power to:

(a) acquire by purchase, lease, option, gift, grant, bequest, devise, eminent domain, or otherwise any real property and such personal property as may be necessary for the administration of the provisions contained in this part and part 43, together with any improvements thereon;

(b) hold, improve, clear, or prepare for redevelopment any such property;

(c) dispose of any real or personal property;

(d) insure or provide for the insurance of any real or personal property or operations of the municipality against any risks or hazards, including the power to pay premiums on any such insurance; and

(e) enter into a development agreement with the owner of real property within an urban renewal area and undertake activities, including the acquisition, removal, or demolition of structures, improvements, or personal property located on the real property, to prepare the property for redevelopment.

(2) A development agreement entered into in accordance with subsection (1)(e) must contain provisions obligating the owner to redevelop the real property for a specified use consistent with the urban renewal plan and offering recourse to the municipality if the redevelopment is not completed as determined by the local governing body. The development agreement may not constitute the acquisition of an interest in real property by the municipality within the meaning of 7-15-4262 or 7-15-4263.

~~(2)~~(3) However, no statutory provision with respect to the acquisition, clearance, or disposition of property by public bodies shall restrict a municipality in the exercise of such functions with respect to an urban renewal project.

~~(3)~~(4) A municipality shall not acquire real property for an urban renewal project or enter into a development agreement, as provided in subsection (1)(e), unless the local governing body has approved the urban renewal project plan in accordance with 7-15-4216(2) and 7-15-4217."

Section 3. Section 7-15-4292, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-15-4292. Termination of tax increment financing — exception — reduction in tax increment distribution. (1) The tax increment provision shall terminate upon the later of:

(a) the ~~10th~~ 15th year following its adoption or, if the tax increment provision was adopted prior to January 1, 1980, upon the ~~12th~~ 17th year following adoption; or

(b) the payment or provision for payment in full or discharge of all bonds for which the tax increment has been pledged and the interest thereon.

(2) Any amounts remaining in the special fund or any reserve fund after termination of the tax increment provision shall be distributed among the various taxing bodies in proportion to their property tax revenues from the district.

(3) After termination of the tax increment provision, all taxes shall be levied upon the actual taxable value of the taxable property in the urban renewal area or the industrial district and shall be paid into the funds of the respective taxing bodies.

(4) ~~No bonds with~~ Bonds secured in whole or in part by a tax increment ~~provisions for the repayment thereof~~ provision may not be issued ~~subsequent to~~ after the ~~10th~~ 15th anniversary of tax increment provisions adopted after January 1, 1980, and the ~~12th~~ 17th anniversary of tax increment provisions adopted prior to January 1, 1980. However, if bonds secured by a tax increment provision are outstanding on the applicable anniversary, additional bonds secured by the tax increment provision may be issued if the final maturity date of the bonds is not later than the final maturity date of any bonds then outstanding and secured by the tax increment provision.

(5) (a) If a municipality issues bonds secured in whole or in part by a tax increment provision after the 10th year following a tax increment provision adopted after January 1, 1980, or after the 12th year following a tax increment provision adopted before January 1, 1980, it is not entitled to the full distribution provided in 20-9-360(2).

(b) The state treasurer shall reduce the distribution to the municipality in each fiscal year after the fiscal year in which the bonds referred to in subsection (5)(a) are issued by an amount equal to the increased taxable value of the project property multiplied by the total number of mills levied and assessed for school district purposes against the property in the previous calendar year. The department of revenue shall certify to the state treasurer by September 1 of each year the increased taxable value of the project property.

(c) If the municipality issues more than one bond series after January 1, 1991, the distribution to the municipality as provided in 20-9-360(2) is reduced, as determined in subsection (5)(b), by the sum of the amounts of each bond issue.

(6) For the purposes of subsection (5):

(a) "project property" is the value of property within an urban renewal area affected by an urban renewal project to be financed in whole or in part from the proceeds of the bonds issued pursuant to subsection (5)(a), certified by the municipality to the department of revenue at the time the bonds are issued and identified by a tax identification number. Property is affected by an urban renewal project if the property:

(i) is to be acquired or improved as part of the urban renewal project;

(ii) is located on property that is to be acquired or improved as part of the urban renewal project;

(iii) is contiguous to or located on property contiguous to, property referred to in subsection (6)(a)(i) or (6)(a)(ii), including adjacent property separated by a road, stream, street, or railroad; or

(iv) is included in an agreement between a person and the municipality in connection with the urban renewal project for the issuance of the bonds and if under the agreement, the person undertakes to develop or redevelop the property; and

(b) "increased taxable value" means the difference between the taxable value of the project property for the current fiscal year and the taxable value of the project property for the fiscal year in which the bonds were issued."

Section 4. Section 7-15-4286, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-15-4286. Procedure to determine and disburse tax increment. (1) Mill rates of taxing bodies for taxes levied after the effective date of the tax increment provision shall be calculated on the basis of the sum of the taxable value, as shown by the last equalized assessment roll, of all taxable property located outside the urban renewal area or industrial district and the base taxable value of all taxable property located within the urban renewal area or industrial district. The mill rate so determined shall be levied against the sum of the actual taxable value of all taxable property located within as well as outside the urban renewal area or industrial district.

(2) (a) The tax increment, if any, received in each year from the levy of the combined mill rates of all the affected taxing bodies against the incremental taxable value within the urban renewal area or industrial district, except for the university system mills levied and assessed against property as defined in 7-15-4292(6)(a), shall be paid into a special fund held by the treasurer of the municipality and used as provided in 7-15-4282 through 7-15-4292.

(b) The balance of the taxes collected in each year shall be paid to each of the taxing bodies as otherwise provided by law."

Section 5. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 442

[SB 269]

AN ACT TO GENERALLY REVISE THE LAWS RELATING TO GENERAL RELIEF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE; TO LIMIT ELIGIBILITY FOR GENERAL RELIEF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE TO PERSONS WHO ARE CHRONICALLY ILL, HAVE AN ACUTE MEDICAL NEED, ARE CHILDREN LESS THAN 18 YEARS OF AGE, OR REQUIRE MEDICAL SERVICES IN ORDER TO OBTAIN OR RETAIN EMPLOYMENT; TO LIMIT GENERAL RELIEF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE TO THOSE SERVICES MEDICALLY NECESSARY TO TREAT CERTAIN SERIOUS MEDICAL CONDITIONS; TO AUTHORIZE A MANAGED-CARE SYSTEM; AMENDING SECTIONS 53-3-109, 53-3-206, AND 53-3-310, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 53-3-109, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-3-109. Definitions. For the purposes of this chapter, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Acute medical need" means an illness, injury, or other serious medical condition that:

(a) demands urgent medical attention; and

(b) is expected to last less than 12 months if treated.

~~(1)~~(2) "Basic necessities" means food, shelter, utilities, and personal needs.

~~(2)~~(3) "Children" means minor and adult children who reside in the same household with their parents. The term includes both adoptive and natural children.

(4) "Chronic illness" or "chronically ill" means the condition of a person who is diagnosed as having an illness, injury, or physical or mental impairment that:

(a) is expected to last for a continuous period of at least 12 months; and

(b) would be considered a disability under 42 U.S.C. 1382(c) if evaluated under criteria used to determine eligibility for the federal supplemental security income program.

~~(3)~~(5) "Department" means the department of social and rehabilitation services provided for in Title 2, chapter 15, part 22.

~~(4)~~(6) "Employable" means the condition of a person who is not unemployable. A person who is employable is transitionally needy and is not eligible for general relief for basic necessities except as provided in 53-3-215.

~~(5)~~(7) "General relief" or "general relief assistance" means a program of public assistance for basic necessities and medical needs for those persons determined to be eligible for such assistance.

~~(6)~~(8) "Household" means:

(a) a collective body of persons consisting of spouses or parents and their children who reside together in the same residence; or

(b) all other persons who by choice or necessity are mutually dependent upon each other for basic necessities and who reside in the same residence.

~~(7)~~(9) "Income" means the value of all property of any nature, earned, unearned, or in-kind, including benefits, that is reasonably certain to be received or is actually received during the month by members of a household.

~~(8)~~(10) "Lump-sum income" means a nonrecurring source of income received in a single payment by a household during any eligibility period, including but not limited to proceeds from a lawsuit, insurance settlement, inheritance, lump-sum retirement, veterans' or unemployment benefits; benefits received under the federal Social Security Act; prizes; and tax refunds.

~~(9)~~(11) "Presumptive income" means the amount of financial assistance that a person would have received under the aid to families with dependent children program, as provided for in Title 53, chapter 4, part 2, if the person had not been determined ineligible due to receipt of lump-sum income, overpayment, fraud, or failure or refusal to comply with requirements for continued participation in the program.

~~(10)~~(12) "Resource" means all real and personal property retained after the calendar month of its receipt and which the household or a member of the household has a legal right to sell or liquidate.

~~(11)~~(13) "Secure facility" means any facility in which a person may be lawfully held against his will by federal, state, or local authorities.

~~(12)~~(14) "Serious barrier to employment" means a limitation in obtaining employment that results from:

(a) a lack of work skills, experience, or training necessary to secure employment;

(b) the failure to attain a high school education or its equivalent; or

(c) illiteracy.

~~(13)~~(15) "Serious medical condition" means a mental or physical condition~~, including pregnancy,~~ that causes a serious health risk to a person and for which treatment is medically necessary. Diagnosis and determination of necessary treatment must be made by a licensed medical practitioner, and the department may confirm ~~it~~ the diagnosis through an expert medical review. Necessary treatment includes ~~prenatal~~ essential medical care and ~~such other elective treatments as~~ ~~determined by department rule~~ other services that the department determines, by rule, to be medically necessary. A serious medical condition is limited to chronic illness, an acute medical need, or a medical condition that requires services in order for a person to obtain or retain employment.

~~(14)~~(16) (a) "Unemployable" means the condition of a person who:

(i) is at least 55 years of age and has a limited ability to obtain or retain suitable employment because of advanced age;

(ii) has a serious physical, emotional, or mental handicap that prevents him from being employed in any substantial, gainful employment; or

(iii) suffers from a permanent or temporary illness, injury, or incapacity that prevents the person from working in any substantial, gainful employment.

(b) A person who is unemployable is chronically needy and must be provided general relief as provided in 53-3-215."

Section 2. Section 53-3-206, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-3-206. Eligibility for general relief medical assistance. (1) In order to be ~~considered~~ ~~for eligibility~~ eligible for general relief medical assistance, a person must ~~be found to~~ have a serious medical condition and must:

(a) be chronically ill;

(b) have an acute medical need;

(c) be a child less than 18 years of age; or

(d) require medical services in order to obtain or retain employment.

(2) A person described in subsection (1)(d) is eligible for general relief medical assistance only if:

(a) the person is participating in a job search, training, and workfare program established under 53-3-304; or

(b) an assessment by the department has determined that medical services are necessary in order for the person to obtain or retain employment. The department may require that the assessment be part of an individual case plan developed and intended to lead to employment.

~~(2)~~(3) Eligibility for general relief medical assistance must be determined as provided in 53-3-205 and this section. ~~A~~ In order to receive payment for medical services, a person ~~with a serious medical condition~~ must apply for general relief medical assistance prior to the provision of medical services or within 90 days of the date the medical service is first provided. Eligibility is determined as of the date medical service is first provided.

~~(3)~~(4) All persons who reside in the same residence and are either married to each other or are the parents or children of other persons living in the same residence are considered to be one household for purposes of determining general relief medical assistance.

~~(4)~~(5) All individual or household resources must be used to offset medical obligations except those resources excluded in 53-3-205(7) or used to offset nonmedical general relief payments during the same period.

~~(5)~~(6) A household is ineligible to receive general relief medical assistance if the household is ineligible for medicaid as a result of overpayment, fraud, or failure or refusal to comply with requirements for continued participation in the medicaid program.

~~(6)~~(7) To determine eligibility for county general relief medical assistance, a county welfare board may promulgate rules to establish the circumstances under which persons are unable to pay for their medical aid and hospitalization. However, no household with an income exceeding 300% of the amount set forth in 53-3-205(2) is eligible for such medical assistance.

~~(7)~~(8) In a county with state-assumed welfare services, a person is not eligible for medical services if the household in which he resides has an average monthly income after consideration of the earned income disregard provided for in 53-3-205(3), reasonably certain to be received in a 12-month period beginning with the month the medical service was provided, in excess of the amount established by the department by rule. The department shall establish the amount, taking into account the size of the household and the estimated number of eligible households. The amount must be 150% of the amount established in 53-3-205(2).

~~(8)~~(9) Notwithstanding the other provisions of this section, in a county with state-assumed welfare services, a person whose eligibility for general relief assistance is terminated because of earned income from employment may continue to receive general relief medical assistance for 1 month, subject to the limitations in the scope of services provided in 53-3-310."

Section 3. Section 53-3-310, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-3-310. Scope of general relief medical assistance — *limitations. (1) General relief medical assistance is limited to those services ~~determined~~ medically necessary to treat a person's serious medical condition. Assistance may not exceed the scope or duration of similar services provided under the Montana medicaid program pursuant to Title 53, chapter 6, part 1, and rules adopted by the department to administer the program.

(2) General relief medical assistance in a county without state-assumed welfare services must, within the limitations of subsection (1), be provided in amounts determined by the county welfare board.

(3) General relief medical assistance in counties with state-assumed welfare services must, within the limitations of subsection (1), be provided in amounts not to exceed payments under the medicaid program. Services must be limited to the least costly method of alleviating the serious medical condition.

(4) General relief medical assistance is limited to covered medical needs not met by other services or benefits available to the person. Available services or benefits include but are not limited to health and accident insurance, veterans' benefits, industrial accident benefits, medicare and medicaid benefits, and other liable third parties.

(5) A person who is chronically ill may receive general relief medical assistance for services limited to treatment of a serious medical condition related to chronic illness.

(6) A person who has an acute medical need but who is not chronically ill may receive general relief medical assistance but only for services necessary to treat a serious medical condition that requires immediate medical attention to alleviate a serious health risk.

(7) A child less than 18 years of age may receive the same scope and duration of services as provided under the Montana medicaid program provided for in Title 53, chapter 6.

(8) A person who requires medical services in order to obtain or retain employment may receive services similar to those provided under the Montana medicaid program but only for the duration of need.

(9) Except as provided in subsection (7), nothing in this chapter may be construed to require the same scope of medical services as provided under the Montana medicaid program."

Section 4. Managed care. (1) The department, in its discretion, may develop managed-care systems for general relief medical assistance recipients.

(2) A managed-care system is a program organized to serve the medical needs of persons in an efficient and cost-effective manner by managing the receipt of medical services for a geographical or otherwise defined population of recipients through primary physicians and other health care providers.

(3) The department may require recipients to participate in a managed-care system.

(4) Recipients who are required by the department to participate in a managed-care system shall participate as required in order to remain eligible for general relief medical assistance.

(5) The department may require the participation of recipients in managed-care systems based upon geographical, financial, social, medical, and other factors as the department may determine are relevant to the development and efficient management of managed-care systems.

Section 5. Codification instruction. [Section 4] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 53, chapter 3, part 3, and the provisions of Title 53, chapter 3, part 3, apply to [section 4].

Section 6. Severability. If a part of [this act] is invalid, all valid parts that are severable from the invalid part remain in effect. If a part of [this act] is invalid in one or more of its applications, the part remains in effect in all valid applications that are severable from the invalid applications.

Section 7. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 443

[SB 277]

AN ACT TO MODIFY THE MEMBERSHIP OF THE DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES PLANNING AND ADVISORY COUNCIL; AND AMENDING SECTION 2-15-2204, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 2-15-2204, MCA, is amended to read:

"2-15-2204. Developmental disabilities planning and advisory council. (1) The governor shall appoint a developmental disabilities planning and advisory council in accordance with the provisions of this section.

(2) The council is composed of ~~22~~ at least 24 but no more than 26 members and consists of the following:

(a) the directors of the departments of social and rehabilitation services, health and environmental sciences, ~~and~~ institutions, and family services or their designees;

(b) the superintendent of public instruction or a designee;

(c) ~~one~~ two recognized ~~private professional~~ professionals, one each in ~~each discipline~~ the disciplines of medicine~~,~~ and law~~, psychology, social work, and special education~~;

(d) ~~two members~~ one member of the state senate;

(e) ~~two members~~ one member of the state house of representatives;

(f) ~~four consumers or representatives of consumers or consumer organizations in the discipline of developmental disabilities; and~~ seven persons each of whom has a developmental disability or who is an immediate family member or guardian of a person with a developmental disability;

(g) one member of each of the five regional councils provided for in 53-20-207, who ~~shall also be consumers or representatives of consumers or consumer organizations in the discipline of developmental disabilities~~ has a developmental disability or is an immediate family member or guardian of a person with a developmental disability;

(h) the director of the university-affiliated or satellite program on developmental disabilities, created pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 6031, or a designee of the director;

(i) the director of the state protection and advocacy system, created pursuant to 42 U.S.C. 6012, or a designee of the director; and

(j) a representative of a statewide developmental disabilities service provider organization whose member agencies provide direct services to persons with developmental disabilities.

(3) (a) Each member or his designee who serves on the council pursuant to subsection (2)(a), ~~or~~ (2)(b), (2)(h), or (2)(i) ~~of this section~~ shall serve for a term concurrent with his respective term as a director or the superintendent of public instruction, as the case may be. Upon his removal from office, his or his designee's term as a member of the council is automatically terminated and his successor in office or his successor's designee is automatically a member of the council.

(b) Each member who serves on the council pursuant to subsection (2)(d) or (2)(e) ~~of this section~~ shall be appointed or reappointed annually by the governor.

(c) Eight of the members serving on the council pursuant to subsection (2)(c), (2)(f), ~~or~~ (2)(g), (2)(j), or (3)(d) ~~of this section~~ shall be appointed by the governor to serve for terms concurrent with the gubernatorial term and until their successors are appointed. The remaining ~~six~~ members serving on the council pursuant to subsection (2)(c), (2)(f), (2)(g), (2)(j), or (3)(d) shall be appointed by the governor to serve for terms ending on January 1 of the third year of the succeeding gubernatorial term and until their successors are appointed.

(d) Representatives named to the council pursuant to this section, in addition to fulfilling the requirements listed in subsections (2)(a) through (2)(j), may also be selected to represent the following areas: psychology, social work, special education, and minority groups, including Native Americans with developmental disabilities. A minimum of one member of the council shall represent each of these areas. In the event that the persons listed in subsections (2)(a) through (2)(j) do not represent all of the areas of psychology, social work, special education, and minority groups, including Native

Americans with developmental disabilities, up to two representatives may be added to the membership of the council to represent not more than two of these groups.

(4) The council is allocated to the department for administrative purposes only and, unless inconsistent with the provisions of this section and 53-20-206, the provisions of 2-15-121 apply."

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 444

[SB 287]

AN ACT TO RECOGNIZE RESPONSIBILITIES AND RIGHTS OF A PARENT WHO PROVIDES A HOME SCHOOL AND RIGHTS OF A CHILD IN HOME SCHOOL.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Responsibilities and rights of parent who provides home school — rights of child in home school. Subject to the provisions of 20-5-109, a parent has the authority to instruct his child, stepchild, or ward in a home school and is solely responsible for:

(1) the educational philosophy of the home school;

(2) the selection of instructional materials, curriculum, and textbooks;

(3) the time, place, and method of instruction; and

(4) the evaluation of the home school instruction.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 20, and the provisions of Title 20 apply to [section 1].

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 445

[SB 310]

AN ACT ALLOWING CONTRACT PHYSICIANS AT URBAN INDIAN CLINICS TO DISPENSE DRUGS; AND AMENDING SECTION 37-2-104, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-2-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-2-104. Dispensing of drugs by medical practitioners unlawful — exceptions. (1) Except as otherwise provided by this section, it is unlawful for a medical practitioner to engage, directly or indirectly, in the dispensing of drugs.

(2) Nothing in this section prohibits:

(a) a medical practitioner from furnishing a patient any drug in an emergency;

(b) the administration of a unit dose of a drug to a patient by or under the supervision of a medical practitioner;

(c) dispensing a drug to a patient by a medical practitioner whenever there is no community pharmacy available to the patient;

(d) the dispensing of drugs occasionally, but not as a usual course of doing business, by a medical practitioner;

(e) a medical practitioner from dispensing drug samples;

(f) the dispensing of factory prepackaged oral contraceptives by a registered nurse employed by a family planning clinic under contract with the department of health and environmental sciences if the dispensing is in accordance with:

(i) a physician's written protocol specifying the circumstances under which dispensing is appropriate; and

(ii) the drug labeling, storage, and recordkeeping requirements of the board of pharmacy*;*

(g) a contract physician at an urban Indian clinic from dispensing drugs to qualified patients of the clinic. The clinic may not stock or dispense any dangerous drug, as defined in 50-32-101, or controlled substance. The contract physician may not delegate the authority to dispense any drug for which a prescription is required under 21 U.S.C. 353b."

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 446

[SB 311]

AN ACT REVISING THE LAW REGARDING THE LICENSURE AND PRACTICE OF PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS-CERTIFIED; CLARIFYING METHODS AVAILABLE TO THE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS

FOR DISCIPLINING A SUPERVISING PHYSICIAN OR A PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT-CERTIFIED; ELIMINATING THE TIME RESTRICTION ON LOCUM TENENS PRACTICE; REQUIRING THE BOARD TO DEVELOP RULES REGARDING PHYSICIAN ASSISTANT STUDENTS; AMENDING SECTIONS 37-20-104, 37-20-202, AND 37-20-301, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is necessary for this bill because 37-20-202(5) requires the board of medical examiners to develop rules pertinent to the training of physician assistant students in Montana. It is intended that the rules address the kind and amount of supervision required for physician assistant students and other aspects of student training the board considers pertinent.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-20-104, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-20-104. Penalty — enforcement. (1) Any person who employs a physician assistant-certified or holds himself out to be a physician assistant-certified without the approval of the Montana state board of medical examiners is guilty of a misdemeanor and is punishable as provided in 46-18-212.

(2) In addition to seeking any criminal penalty available under this section, the board may ~~withdraw its approval of any utilization plan previously approved which is applicable to~~, in the manner set out in subsection (3) and after notice and opportunity for hearing, discipline any supervising physician or physician assistant-certified who:

(a) acts in violation of this section;

(b) obtained the approval of the board by fraud;

(c) acts in a manner contrary to the terms of the utilization plan; or

(d) violates any of the applicable provisions of this chapter or rules of the board adopted thereunder.

(3) If the board finds that the supervising physician or the physician assistant-certified has violated any provision of subsection (2), the board may:

(a) revoke his license or approval, as applicable;

(b) suspend his right to practice for a period not to exceed 1 year;

(c) suspend its judgment of revocation on terms and conditions determined by the board;

(d) place him on probation;

(e) impose a fine, not to exceed $500 for each violation; or

(f) take other action it considers proper.

~~(3)~~(4) The board may enforce the provisions of this section by the remedy of injunction."

Section 2. Section 37-20-301, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-20-301. Utilization plan required — contents — approval. (1) A physician, office, firm, state institution, or professional service corporation may not employ or make use of the services of a physician assistant-certified in the practice of medicine, as defined in 37-3-102, and a physician assistant-certified may not be employed or practice as a physician assistant-certified unless the physician assistant-certified:

(a) is supervised by a licensed physician;

(b) has been approved by the Montana state board of medical examiners; and

(c) has received board approval of a physician assistant-certified utilization plan.

(2) A physician assistant-certified utilization plan must set forth in detail the following information:

(a) the name and qualifications of the supervising physician, as provided in 37-20-101, and the name and approval number of the physician assistant-certified;

(b) the nature and location of the physician's medical practice;

(c) the duties to be delegated to the physician assistant-certified and the location in which those duties are to be performed;

(d) the name and qualifications of a second physician meeting the requirements of 37-20-101 to serve in the place of the supervising physician in the event that the supervising physician is unable to supervise the physician assistant-certified temporarily;

(e) necessary guidelines describing the intended availability of the supervising or alternate physician for consultation by the physician assistant-certified; and

(f) other information the board may consider necessary.

(3) The board shall approve the utilization plan if it finds that the duties to be delegated to the physician assistant-certified are:

(a) assigned by the supervising physician;

(b) within the scope of the training, knowledge, experience, and practice of the supervisory physician; and

(c) within the scope of the training, knowledge, education, and experience of the physician assistant-certified.

(4) A supervising physician and a physician assistant-certified may submit a new or additional utilization plan to the board for approval without reestablishing the criteria set out in 37-20-402, as long as the information requirements of subsection (2) have been met and the appropriate fee provided for in 37-20-302(1) has been paid.

(5) A utilization plan may provide that a physician assistant-certified be allowed to furnish services on a locum tenens basis at a location other than the physician assistant-certified's primary place of practice ~~for a period not to exceed 30 calendar days~~. A locum tenens utilization plan may be approved by a single board member."

Section 3. Section 37-20-202, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-20-202. Adoption of rules. The board of medical examiners shall adopt administrative rules to implement the provisions of this chapter that:

(1) address the issues of supervision and direction limitations and requirements;

(2) address the issue of protocols for interaction of medical personnel with differing responsibilities;

(3) specify that a physician may not utilize more than one physician assistant-certified unless he can demonstrate to the board the ability to supervise more than one assistant adequately;

(4) address other considerations pertinent to the approval of physician assistant-certified utilization plans and locum tenens utilization plans, and the health care needs of the public;

(5) address physician assistant training in Montana."

Section 4. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 447

[SB 330]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF HORSERACING, SUBJECT TO BOARD OF HORSERACING RULES, TO PRESCRIBE THE DUTIES AND SALARY OF INDIVIDUALS EMPLOYED AS STATE STEWARDS AT AUTHORIZED MONTANA RACE MEETS; EXEMPTING STATE STEWARDS FROM THE STATE COMPENSATION AND PAY PLAN; AMENDING SECTIONS 2-18-103 AND 23-4-106, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 23-4-106, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-4-106. Executive secretary — powers and duties — staff — prohibition on racing activities. (1) The department shall appoint an executive secretary for the board.

(2) The executive secretary, in accordance with rules adopted by the board and provisions of this chapter, shall:

(a) supervise race meets and activities of racing officials;

(12) four professional staff positions under the board of oil and gas conservation;

(13) assistant director for security of the Montana state lottery;

(14) executive director and senior investment officer of the Montana board of science and technology development; ~~and~~

(15) executive director and employees of the state compensation mutual insurance fund*; and*

(16) state racing stewards employed by the executive secretary of the Montana board of horseracing."

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 448

[HB 62]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE REQUIREMENT OF PARTICULAR TIRES, CHAINS, OR TRACTION EQUIPMENT FOR VEHICLES ON A DESIGNATED DANGEROUS OR UNSAFE HIGHWAY; PROVIDING A PENALTY; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-9-406, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is necessary for this bill because it amends 61-9-406 by adding subsection (5) that allows the department of highways to recommend or require the use of chains or other approved traction devices under certain conditions in conformance with rules authorized in subsection (6) to be established by the department of justice. It is the intent of the legislature that the recommendations or requirements of the department of highways or the rules established by the department of justice not require the installation of chains or approved traction devices on the driver wheels of more than one axle of a vehicle.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-9-406, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-9-406. Restrictions as to tire equipment — particular tires, chains, or traction equipment. (1) A solid rubber tire on a vehicle ~~shall~~ must have rubber on its entire traction surface at least 1 inch thick above the edge of the flange of the entire periphery.

(2) A person may not operate or move on a highway a motor vehicle, trailer, or semitrailer having a metal tire in contact with the roadway.

(3) A tire on a vehicle moved on a highway may not have on its periphery a block, stud, flange, cleat, or spike, or other protuberance of a material other than rubber ~~which~~ that projects beyond the tread of the traction surface of the tire, except that it is permissible to use farm machinery with tires having protuberances ~~which~~ that will not injure the highway. It is also permissible to use tire chains of reasonable proportions or pneumatic tires, the traction surfaces of which have been embedded with material, such as wood, wire, plastic or metal, ~~which~~ that may not protrude more than one-sixteenth of an inch beyond the tire tread or that are clearly marked by the manufacturer on the sidewall "all season m&s" (or "all season mud and snow"), upon a vehicle when required for safety because of snow, ice, or other conditions tending to cause a vehicle to skid. The use of pneumatic tires embedded as provided in this section is permitted only between October 1 and May 31 of each year, except that one of those tires may be used for a spare in case of tire failure. School buses equipped with such embedded pneumatic tires may operate from August 15 through the following June 15.

(4) The department of highways and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may in their discretion issue special permits authorizing the operation upon a highway of farm tractors or other farm machinery~~,~~ or of traction engines or tractors having movable tracks with transverse corrugations upon the periphery of the movable tracks, the operation of which upon the highway would otherwise be prohibited under this section.

(5) If the department of highways determines at any time that dangerous or unsafe conditions on a highway require particular tires, tire chains, or traction equipment for vehicles in addition to or beyond the ordinary pneumatic rubber tires, the department may establish the following recommendations or requirements with respect to the use of the equipment for all vehicles using the highway:

(a) chains or other approved traction devices recommended for driver wheels;

(b) chains or other approved traction devices required for driver wheels; or

(c) chains required for driver wheels.

(6) Equipment required by subsection (5)(b) or (5)(c) must conform to rules established by the department of justice.

(7) The department of highways shall place and maintain signs and other traffic-control devices on a highway designated under subsection (5) that indicate the tire, tire chain, or traction equipment recommendation or requirement determined for vehicles. The signs or traffic-control devices may not prohibit the use of pneumatic tires embedded as provided in subsection (3) between October 1 and May 31 of each year, but when the department of highways determines that chains are required and that no other traction equipment will suffice, the requirement is applicable to tires on driver wheels of one axle of a vehicle, including embedded tires. The signs or traffic-control devices may differentiate in recommendations or requirements for four-wheel-drive vehicles in gear."

Section 2. Penalty. (1) A person violating the provisions of 61-9-406(5) through (7) is guilty of the nonmoving offense of failure to use chains or approved traction devices when required and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of $25, and no jail sentence may be imposed. Bond for this offense shall be $25.

(2) A violation of 61-9-406(5) through (7) is not a misdemeanor subject to 45-2-101, 61-9-511, 61-9-512, or 61-9-519.

Section 3. Codification instruction. [Section 2] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 61, chapter 9, part 5, and the provisions of Title 61, chapter 9, part 5, apply to [section 2].

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 449

[HB 133]

AN ACT REVISING THE REQUIREMENTS THAT CERTAIN VEHICLES STOP AT RAILROAD GRADE CROSSINGS BY CLARIFYING THAT A RAILROAD GRADE CROSSING SIGNAL IS NOT A TRAFFIC-CONTROL SIGNAL; DELETING THE PROVISION FOR STREET-RAILWAY GRADE CROSSINGS IN BUSINESS OR RESIDENCE DISTRICTS; AND AMENDING SECTION 61-8-349, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-8-349, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-8-349. Certain vehicles to stop at all railroad grade crossings. (1) ~~All persons~~ A person driving a motor ~~vehicles~~ vehicle upon ~~the~~ a public ~~highways~~ highway of this state outside of corporate limits of incorporated cities or towns where the view is obscure or when a moving train is within sight or hearing shall bring ~~said~~ the vehicle to a full stop not less than 10 or more than 100 feet from ~~where said~~ the intersection of the highway ~~intersects~~ and the railroad tracks ~~within this state~~, before crossing the ~~same~~ railroad tracks, at all crossings where a flagman or a mechanical device is not maintained to warn the traveling public of approaching trains or cars.

(2) (a) ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (2)(b), the driver of ~~any~~ a motor vehicle carrying seven or more passengers for hire, ~~or of any~~ a school bus with or without passengers, or ~~of any~~ a vehicle carrying explosive substances or flammable liquids as a cargo or part of a cargo, before crossing at grade any track or tracks of a railroad, shall stop ~~such~~ the vehicle within 50 feet but not less than 15 feet from the nearest rail of ~~such~~ the railroad and while ~~so~~ stopped shall open the door (in the case of a school bus) and shall listen and look in both directions along ~~such~~ the track for ~~any~~ an approaching train~~;~~ and for signals indicating the approach of a train~~, except as hereinafter provided,~~ and ~~shall~~ may not proceed until he can do so safely. After stopping as required ~~herein~~ in this section and upon proceeding when it is safe to do so, the driver of ~~any said~~ a vehicle shall cross only in ~~such~~ a gear of the vehicle that ~~there will be no necessity for~~ requires no changing gears while traversing ~~such crossings~~ the crossing. ~~and the~~ The driver ~~shall~~ may not shift gears while crossing the track or tracks.

(b) ~~No~~ A stop ~~need be made~~ is not required at ~~any such~~ a crossing where a police officer, ~~or~~ highway patrol officer, or traffic-control signal directs traffic to proceed.

~~(c) This subsection (2) shall not apply at street railway grade crossings within a business or residence district.~~

(3) As used in this section, "traffic-control signal" does not include a railroad grade crossing signal."

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 450

[HB 150]

AN ACT TO ALLOW FOR REREGISTRATION OF MOTOR HOMES AND TRAVEL TRAILERS BY MAIL; TO ALLOW APPLICATION TO THE COUNTY TREASURER FOR CAMPER DECALS BY MAIL; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 61-3-525, 61-3-526, AND 61-3-535, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-3-525, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-3-525. Annual application for decals. Application may be made to the ~~department of revenue or~~ county treasurer for the issuance of camper decals annually when the motor vehicle to which the camper is customarily attached is registered. If the vehicle to which the camper is customarily attached may be reregistered by mail, application for the camper decals may also be made by mail in the manner provided in 61-3-535."

Section 2. Section 61-3-526, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-3-526. Registration of motor homes and travel trailers — ~~July 1 registration date~~ *reregistration by mail allowed. (1) All registrations of motor homes and travel trailers expire annually on April 30. Application for registration or reregistration must be made to the county treasurer not later than June 15. Reregistration may be made by mail in the manner provided in 61-3-535. If the ownership of a motor home or travel trailer is transferred during the registration year, it must be reregistered and relicensed as provided by statute.

(2) The owner of a motor home or travel trailer registered under the provisions of this section is entitled to operate such vehicle between May 1 and June 15 without displaying the registration certificate of the current registration year if the owner, during that period, displays upon the motor home or travel trailer the number plates, plate, or decal assigned thereto for the previous registration year."

Section 3. Section 61-3-535, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-3-535. Vehicle reregistration by mail — reregistration notice by mail. (1) The department shall permit the reregistration of light vehicles and other vehicles subject to tax under 61-3-504(2), the reregistration of motor homes and travel trailers, and the application for camper decals with the county treasurer by mail at the option of the owner ~~of the vehicle~~. The option to reregister by mail need only be made available for vehicles, motor homes, and travel trailers registered at the close of the expiring registration period in the name of the applicant for reregistration.

(2) In the case of light vehicles, the ~~The~~ form to be returned to the county treasurer by the applicant, with the appropriate tax and fees, is to contain a statement, to be subscribed to by the applicant, stating compliance with the financial liability requirements of 61-6-301.

(3) The procedure implemented by the department to permit reregistration or camper decal application by mail shall provide for a written reminder notice by mail to ~~a light vehicle~~ a light vehicle owner of the requirement to reregister ~~his vehicle~~ his vehicle with the county treasurer or to apply for the annual camper decal.

(4) The department shall adopt rules to implement the mail reregistration and decal application procedure."

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 451

[HB 176]

AN ACT INCREASING THE FEE FOR OBTAINING CERTIFIED COPIES OF BIRTH AND DEATH CERTIFICATES AND FOR FILING CERTAIN INSTRUMENTS REQUIRED BY LAW TO BE FILED WITH THE COUNTY CLERK; AMENDING SECTION 7-4-2631, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-4-2631, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-4-2631. Fees of county clerk. (1) Except as provided in 7-4-2632, the county clerks must charge, for the use of their respective counties:

(2) State agencies submitting documents to be put of record shall pay the fees provided for in this section. If a state agency or political subdivision has requested an account with the county clerk, any applicable fees must be paid on a periodic basis."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 452

[HB 303]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT IT IS LAWFUL FOR A TELEPHONE COMPANY TO RELEASE IN GOOD FAITH TO PERSONNEL OF EMERGENCY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEMS INFORMATION NOT IN THE PUBLIC RECORD, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO UNPUBLISHED OR UNLISTED TELEPHONE NUMBERS; PROVIDING IMMUNITY TO LOCAL EXCHANGE TELEPHONE COMPANIES WITH LESS THAN 15,000 SUBSCRIBERS THAT PROVIDE EMERGENCY COMMUNICATIONS SYSTEMS AND RELATED SERVICES; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, in order to further the purposes of Title 10, chapter 4, MCA, and to encourage the development of emergency telephone systems, the Legislature finds that telephone companies and telecommunications providers should be granted immunity when they provide emergency communications systems and related services and that they may lawfully provide to emergency communications systems information not in the public record, including but not limited to unpublished or unlisted telephone numbers, if the information is provided in good faith.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Emergency communications systems — lawful release of information. (1) It is lawful for a telephone company or telecommunications provider to release in good faith to personnel of emergency communications systems information not in the public record, including but not limited to unpublished or unlisted telephone numbers, provided that the subscriber information is released only in response to an emergency call involving an immediate threat to personal safety or property.

(2) A local exchange telephone company with less than 15,000 subscribers that provides emergency communications systems and related services and its employees and agents are not liable in tort to any person for damages alleged to have been caused by the design, development, installation, maintenance, or provision of emergency communications systems or related services unless the acts or omissions of the entities or persons constitute gross negligence or willful or wanton misconduct. This subsection does not provide immunity from liability in a products liability action.

(3) For the purposes of this section, "subscribers" means persons, partnerships, corporations, or other entities acquiring telecommunications services from a telecommunications provider. There is one subscriber for each billed line of a telecommunications provider.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 27, chapter 1, part 7, and the provisions of Title 27, chapter 1, part 7, apply to [section 1].

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 453

[HB 325]

AN ACT TO REVISE THE LAWS RELATING TO HOSPITAL DISTRICTS; TO EXPAND THE DEFINITION OF HOSPITAL FACILITIES TO INCLUDE HEALTH CARE FACILITIES; TO PROVIDE EDUCATION INCENTIVES FOR PERSONS IN EXCHANGE FOR PROVIDING SERVICES TO HOSPITAL DISTRICTS; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 7-34-2101, 7-34-2102, AND 7-34-2122, MCA.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent has been prepared for this bill to clarify the provisions of this bill that authorize the board of trustees of a hospital district to provide educational benefits to qualified individuals.

It is the intent of the legislature that, in providing educational benefits, the board of trustees follow current procedures established in the district bylaws governing decisions of the board in order to ensure:

(1) a fair assessment of the qualifications and financial need of individuals applying for educational benefits; and

(2) the equitable distribution of funds available for educational benefits offered by the hospital district.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-34-2101, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-34-2101. Purpose of part. The purpose of this part is to authorize the establishment of public hospital districts which shall have power to supply hospital facilities and services and health care facilities and services to residents of ~~such~~ districts and, as herein authorized, to others."

Section 2. Section 7-34-2102, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-34-2102. Definition. As used in this part, unless the context requires otherwise, "hospital facilities" means a hospital or a hospital-related facility, including out-patient facilities, public health centers, rehabilitation facilities, long-term care facilities, ~~and~~ infirmaries, and health care facilities, all as defined in 50-5-101."

Section 3. Section 7-34-2122, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-34-2122. Powers of district. A hospital district shall have all powers necessary and convenient to the acquisition, betterment, operation, maintenance, and administration of such hospital facilities as its board of trustees shall deem necessary and expedient. Without limitation on the foregoing general grant of powers, a hospital district, acting by its board of trustees, may:

(1) employ nursing, administrative, and other personnel, legal counsel, engineers, architects, accountants, and other qualified persons, who may be paid for their services by monthly salaries, hourly wages, and pension benefits or by such fees as may be agreed upon;

(2) cause reports, plans, studies, and recommendations to be prepared;

(3) lease, purchase, and contract for the purchase of real and personal property by option, contract for deed, conditional sales contract, or otherwise and acquire real or personal property by gift;

(4) lease or construct, equip, and furnish necessary buildings and grounds and maintain the same;

(5) adopt, by resolution, rules for the operation and administration of any and all hospital facilities under its control and for the admission of persons thereto;

(6) impose by resolution and collect charges for all services and facilities provided and made available by it;

(7) levy taxes as hereinafter prescribed;

(8) borrow money and issue bonds as hereinafter prescribed;

(9) procure insurance against liability of the district or its officers and employees, or both, for torts committed within the scope of their official duties, whether governmental or proprietary, and against damage to or destruction of any of its facilities, equipment, or other property;

(10) sell or lease any of its facilities or equipment as may be deemed expedient;

(11) cause audits to be made of its accounts, books, vouchers, and funds by competent public accountants~~.~~;

(12) provide educational benefits to qualified individuals, including the payment of tuition, room and board, educational materials, and stipends and the repayment of student loans in return for an agreement by those persons to provide services to the district."

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 454

[HB 596]

AN ACT PROHIBITING DISCRIMINATION IN PUBLIC ACCOMMODATIONS AND HOUSING ON THE BASIS OF MARITAL STATUS; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 49-2-304 AND 49-2-305, MCA.

WHEREAS, Article II, section 4, of the Montana Constitution prohibits discrimination by the state or any person, firm, corporation, or institution against any person on account of social condition; and

WHEREAS, the Legislature has previously defined social condition to include marital status; and

WHEREAS, an individual may be subjected to discrimination because of marital status in the enjoyment of public accommodations and access to housing.

THEREFORE, it is appropriate for the Legislature to prohibit such discrimination.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 49-2-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"49-2-304. Discrimination in public accommodations. (1) Except when the distinction is based on reasonable grounds, it is an unlawful discriminatory practice for the owner, lessee, manager, agent, or employee of a public accommodation:

(a) to refuse, withhold from, or deny to a person any of its services, goods, facilities, advantages, or privileges because of sex, marital status, race, age, physical or mental handicap, creed, religion, color, or national origin;

(b) to publish, circulate, issue, display, post, or mail a written or printed communication, notice, or advertisement which states or implies that any of the services, goods, facilities, advantages, or privileges of the public accommodation will be refused, withheld from, or denied to a person of a certain race, creed, religion, sex, marital status, age, physical or mental handicap, color, or national origin.

(2) Except when the distinction is based on reasonable grounds, it is an unlawful discriminatory practice for a licensee under Title 16, chapter 4, to exclude from its membership or from its services, goods, facilities, advantages, privileges, or accommodations any individual on the grounds of race, color, religion, creed, sex, marital status, age, physical or mental handicap, or national origin. This subsection does not apply to any lodge of a recognized national fraternal organization.

(3) Nothing in this section prohibits public accommodations from giving or providing special benefits, incentives, discounts, or promotions for the benefit of individuals based on age."

Section 2. Section 49-2-305, MCA, is amended to read:

"49-2-305. Discrimination in housing — exemptions. (1) Except when the distinction is based on reasonable grounds, it is an unlawful discriminatory practice for the owner, lessee, manager, or other person having the right to sell, lease, or rent a housing accommodation or improved or unimproved property:

(a) to refuse to sell, lease, or rent the housing accommodation or property to a person because of sex, marital status, race, creed, religion, color, age, familial status, physical or mental handicap, or national origin;

(b) to discriminate against a person because of sex, marital status, race, creed, religion, age, familial status, physical or mental handicap, color, or national origin in a term, condition, or privilege relating to the use, sale, lease, or rental of the housing accommodation or property;

(c) to make a written or oral inquiry or record of the sex, marital status, race, creed, religion, age, physical or mental handicap, color, or national origin of a person seeking to buy, lease, or rent the housing accommodation or property; or

(d) to refuse to negotiate for a sale or to make a housing accommodation or property unavailable because of sex, marital status, race, creed, religion, age, familial status, physical or mental handicap, color, or national origin.

(2) A private residence designed for single-family occupancy in which sleeping space is rented to guests and in which the landlord also resides is excluded from the provisions of subsection (1).

(3) It is also an unlawful discriminatory practice to make, print, or publish or cause to be made, printed, or published any notice, statement, or advertisement that indicates any preference, limitation, or discrimination that is prohibited by subsection (1) or any intention to make or have such a preference, limitation, or discrimination.

(4) The prohibitions of this section against discrimination because of age and familial status do not extend to housing for older persons. "Housing for older persons" means housing:

(a) provided under any state or federal program specifically designed and operated to assist elderly persons;

(b) intended for, and solely occupied by, persons 62 years of age or older; or

(c) intended and operated for occupancy by at least one person 55 years of age or older per unit in accordance with the provisions of 42 U.S.C. 3605(b)(2)(C) and (3) and 24 C.F.R. 100.304, as those sections read on October 1, 1989.

(5) The prohibitions of this section against discrimination because of age and familial status do not extend to rooms or units in dwellings containing living quarters occupied or intended to be occupied by no more than two families living independently of each other, if the owner actually maintains and occupies one of the living quarters as his residence.

(6) For purposes of this section, "familial status" means having a child or children who live or will live with a person. A distinction based on familial status includes one that is based on the age of a child or children who live or will live with a person."

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 455

[HB 613]

AN ACT ESTABLISHING THE THIRD WEEK OF SEPTEMBER AS AN OFFICIAL WEEK OF OBSERVANCE OF MONTANA'S HUNTING HERITAGE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Official observance of Montana's hunting heritage. The week beginning the third Monday in September is an official week of observance in Montana to commemorate this state's valued heritage of hunting game animals. During this week, all Montanans are urged to:

(1) reflect on hunting as an expression of our culture and heritage;

(2) acknowledge that it is our community of sportsmen, sportswomen, and hunters who have made the greatest contributions to the establishment of current game animal populations; and

(3) celebrate this culture and heritage in all lawful ways.

Section 2. Codification instruction. [Section 1] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 1, chapter 1, part 2, and the provisions of Title 1, chapter 1, part 2, apply to [section 1].

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 456

[HB 646]

AN ACT ALLOWING ADDITIONAL PARKING PRIVILEGE DISPLAY CARDS TO BE ISSUED TO A HANDICAPPED PERSON WHO OWNS MORE THAN ONE MOTOR VEHICLE; AND AMENDING SECTION 49-4-304, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 49-4-304, MCA, is amended to read:

"49-4-304. Special license plate or card to be provided and displayed — *additional cards allowed for owners of more than one vehicle. (1) The department of justice shall provide a special license plate under 61-3-445 or a card to be displayed on or in a motor vehicle to indicate a parking privilege granted under this part. The special license plate ~~shall~~ must be affixed to the vehicle according to 61-3-301, or the card ~~shall~~ must be prominently displayed in the windshield of a vehicle when the parking privilege is being used by the handicapped person in a vehicle other than the one to which his special license plate is affixed.

(2) Subject to the provisions of 49-4-301 through 49-4-305, a person who is eligible to receive a special parking permit and who owns more than one motor vehicle may request and the department of justice shall provide to him additional cards described in subsection (1) to equal the number of motor vehicles, other than commercial vehicles, owned by the person.

~~(2)~~(3) Upon application under 49-4-303, a handicapped person who does not hold a driver's license or does not own a vehicle may receive a card described in subsection (1) to be displayed in a vehicle in which the handicapped person is being conveyed when the parking privilege is being used.

~~(3)~~(4) The card must bear a representation of a wheelchair as the symbol of a handicapped person."

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 457

[HB 877]

AN ACT TO REMOVE THE REQUIREMENT THAT VOTER APPROVAL FOR AN ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT LEVY MUST HAVE OCCURRED PRIOR TO DECEMBER 31, 1990, FOR THE LEVY TO BE EXEMPT FROM THE PROPERTY TAX LIMITATIONS OF TITLE 15, CHAPTER 10, PART 4, MCA; AMENDING SECTION 90-5-112, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN IMMEDIATE EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 90-5-112, MCA, is amended to read:

"90-5-112. Economic development levy. (1) Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the qualified voters voting in a city, county, or town on the question of whether the governing body may levy a tax for economic development, the governing body of that city, county, or town is authorized to levy in any one election up to 1 mill upon the taxable value of all the property in the county, city, or town subject to taxation for the purpose of economic development for a period not to exceed 5 years.

(2) Funds derived from this levy may be used for purchasing land for industrial parks, constructing buildings to house manufacturing and processing operations, conducting preliminary feasibility studies, promoting economic development opportunities in a particular area, and other activities generally associated with economic development. These funds may not be used to directly assist an industry's operations by loan or grant or to pay the salary or salary supplements of government employees.

(3) The governing body of the county, city, or town may use the funds derived from this levy to contract with local development companies and other associations or organizations capable of implementing the economic development function.

(4) The authorization to levy up to 1 mill for the purpose of economic development, as provided in subsection (1), is not subject to the provisions of Title 15, chapter 10, part 4~~, if voter authorization for the levy occurred prior to December 31, 1990~~."

Section 2. Effective date. [This act] is effective on passage and approval.

Approved April 16, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 458

[HB 953]

AN ACT REQUIRING THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE TO CONDUCT ANNUAL INSPECTIONS OF ESTABLISHMENTS LICENSED BY THE BOARD OF COSMETOLOGISTS; PROVIDING AN APPROPRIATION; AMENDING SECTION 37-31-312, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 37-31-312, MCA, is amended to read:

"37-31-312. Inspection. (1) The department shall appoint one or more inspectors, each of whom shall devote his time to inspecting beauty parlors and performing other duties as the department, in cooperation with the board, may direct. The inspectors may enter a beauty parlor, manicuring shop, booth, school of cosmetology, or school of manicuring during business hours for the purpose of inspection, and the refusal of a licensee to permit the inspection during business hours is cause for revocation of the license.

(2) Upon application for a license, any cosmetological establishment or manicuring shop must pay an initial inspection fee prescribed by the board.

(3) The board may authorize the department to grant to a cosmetological establishment or manicuring shop, upon payment of the initial inspection fee, a temporary permit authorizing the cosmetological establishment or manicuring shop to operate for a period of not to exceed 90 days or until the inspector is able to make the inspection, whichever event occurs first. This temporary permit is not renewable.

(4) The ~~board~~ department shall cause an inspector, appointed as provided in subsection (1), to conduct an annual inspection of each cosmetological establishment and manicuring shop in the state."

Section 2. Appropriation. Supplemental to funds for this purpose provided in any other act, there is appropriated to the department of commerce, for the purpose stated in 37-31-312(4), from the fees deposited as provided in 37-31-324:

(1) $37,583, consisting of $21,689 for personal services, $14,828 for operations, and $1,066 for equipment, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1992; and

(2) $36,997 consisting of $22,130 for personal services and $14,867 for operations, for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1993.

Section 3. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

[SB 10]

AN ACT AUTHORIZING RURAL FIRE DISTRICTS TO SELL BONDS TO PROVIDE FUNDS FOR THE PURCHASE AND MAINTENANCE OF FIRE AND EMERGENCY RESPONSE EQUIPMENT AND FACILITIES; ESTABLISHING RESPONSIBILITY FOR BONDED INDEBTEDNESS IF MUNICIPAL ANNEXATION OCCURS; AND AMENDING SECTION 7-33-2109, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 7-33-2109, MCA, is amended to read:

"7-33-2109. Tax levy and bonds authorized. (1) At the time of the annual levy of taxes, the board of county commissioners may levy a special tax upon all property within ~~such districts~~ a rural fire district for the purpose of buying or maintaining fire protection facilities and apparatus, including emergency response apparatus, for ~~such districts~~ the district or for the purpose of paying to a city, town, or private fire service the consideration provided for in any contract with the council of ~~such~~ the city, town, or private fire service for the purpose of furnishing fire protection service to property within ~~such~~ the district. ~~Such~~ The tax must be collected as are other taxes.

(2) In addition to the levy authorized in subsection (1), a rural fire district may borrow money by the issuance of bonds to provide funds for the payment of all or part of the cost of buying or maintaining fire protection facilities and apparatus, including emergency response apparatus, for the district.

(3) The amount of the bonds issued pursuant to subsection (2) and outstanding at any time may not exceed 18% of the taxable value of the property in the district as ascertained by the most recent assessment for state and county taxes prior to issuance of the bonds.

(4) The bonds must be authorized, sold, and issued and provisions must be made for their payment in the manner and subject to the conditions and limitations prescribed for the issuance of bonds by counties under Title 7, chapter 7, part 22."

Section 2. Annexation of rural fire district property by municipality — responsibility for bonded indebtedness. (1) If a municipality annexes property from a rural fire district, the annexed property is liable for any bonded indebtedness of the rural fire district existing as of the date of annexation to the same extent as it would have been liable if not withdrawn.

(2) A municipality may:

(a) offset the municipal mills levied on the annexed property by the mills levied on the property for bonded indebtedness; or

(b) annually appropriate funds to the rural fire district in an amount equal to the mills levied on the annexed property for bonded indebtedness.

Approved April 17, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 460

[SB 391]

AN ACT TO PROVIDE INCREASED MANAGEMENT OF THE COST AND DELIVERY OF MEDICAL SERVICES UNDER THE MEDICAID AND GENERAL RELIEF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS; TO AUTHORIZE MANAGED-CARE SYSTEMS FOR THE MEDICAID AND GENERAL RELIEF MEDICAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS; TO AUTHORIZE CASE MANAGEMENT SERVICES UNDER THE MEDICAID PROGRAM; TO GRANT THE DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND REHABILITATION SERVICES AUTHORITY TO ADOPT RULES; AMENDING SECTIONS 53-6-101 AND 53-6-113, MCA; AND PROVIDING AN EFFECTIVE DATE.

STATEMENT OF INTENT

A statement of intent is required for this bill because it grants the department of social and rehabilitation services authority to adopt rules for the administration of medicaid managed-care systems.

It is the intent of the legislature that the department may adopt rules concerning:

(1) participation in managed care;

(2) selection and qualifications for providers of managed care; and

(3) standards for the provision of managed care.

It is also intended that rules adopted by the department comply with federal regulations governing administration of the medicaid program.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Medicaid managed care. (1) The department of social and rehabilitation services, in its discretion, may develop managed-care systems for medicaid recipients.

(2) A managed-care system is a program organized to serve the medical needs of medicaid recipients in an efficient and cost-effective manner by managing the receipt of medical services for a geographical or otherwise defined population of recipients through appropriate health care professionals.

(3) The provision of medicaid services through managed-care systems is not subject to the limitations provided in 53-6-101, 53-6-103, and 53-6-104.

Section 2. Participation requirements. (1) The department of social and rehabilitation services may require medicaid recipients to participate in a managed-care system.

(2) Recipients who are required by the department to participate in a managed-care system shall participate as required in order to remain eligible for medicaid.

(3) The department may require the participation of medicaid recipients in managed-care systems based upon geographical, financial, social, medical, and other factors as the department may determine are relevant to the development and efficient management of managed-care systems.

Section 3. Section 53-6-101, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-6-101. Montana medicaid program — authorization of services. (1) There is a Montana medicaid program established for the purpose of providing necessary medical services to eligible persons who have need for medical assistance. The Montana medicaid program is a joint federal-state program administered under this chapter and in accordance with Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended. The department of social and rehabilitation services shall administer the Montana medicaid program.

(2) Medical assistance provided by the Montana medicaid program includes the following services:

(a) inpatient hospital services;

(b) outpatient hospital services;

(c) other laboratory and x-ray services;

(d) skilled nursing services in long-term care facilities;

(e) physicians' services;

(f) nurse specialist services;

(g) early and periodic screening, diagnosis, and treatment services for persons under 21 years of age;

(h) services provided by physician assistants-certified within the scope of their practice and that are otherwise directly reimbursed as allowed under department rule to an existing provider;

(i) health services provided under a physician's orders by a public health department; and

(j) hospice care as defined in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(o).

(3) Medical assistance provided by the Montana medicaid program may, as provided by department rule, also include the following services:

(a) medical care or any other type of remedial care recognized under state law, furnished by licensed practitioners within the scope of their practice as defined by state law;

(b) home health care services;

(c) private-duty nursing services;

(d) dental services;

(e) physical therapy services;

(f) mental health center services administered and funded under a state mental health program authorized under Title 53, chapter 21, part 2;

(g) clinical social worker services;

(h) prescribed drugs, dentures, and prosthetic devices;

(i) prescribed eyeglasses;

(j) other diagnostic, screening, preventive, rehabilitative, chiropractic, and osteopathic services;

(k) inpatient psychiatric hospital services for persons under 21 years of age;

(l) services of professional counselors licensed under Title 37, chapter 23, if funds are specifically appropriated for the inclusion of these services in the Montana medicaid program;

(m) ambulatory prenatal care for pregnant women during a presumptive eligibility period, as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396a(a)(47) and 42 U.S.C. 1396r-1;

(n) case management services as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(a) and 1396n(g); and

~~(n)~~(o) any additional medical service or aid allowable under or provided by the federal Social Security Act.

(4) The department may implement, as provided for in Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended, a program under medicaid for payment of medicare premiums, deductibles, and coinsurance for persons not otherwise eligible for medicaid.

(5) The department may set rates for medical and other services provided to recipients of medicaid and may enter into contracts for delivery of services to individual recipients or groups of recipients.

(6) The services provided under this part may be only those that are medically necessary and that are the most efficient and cost effective.

(7) The amount, scope, and duration of services provided under this part must be determined by the department in accordance with Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended.

(8) Services, procedures, and items of an experimental or cosmetic nature may not be provided.

(9) If available funds are not sufficient to provide medical assistance for all eligible persons, the department may set priorities to limit, reduce, or otherwise curtail the amount, scope, or duration of the medical services made available under the Montana medicaid program.

(10) Community-based medicaid services, as provided for in part 4 of this chapter, must be provided in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and the rules adopted thereunder. (Subsection (2)(j) terminates June 30, 1991—sec. 4, Ch. 633, L. 1989; Subsection (3)(m) terminates June 30, 1991—sec. 15, Ch. 649, L. 1989.)"

Section 4. Section 53-6-113, MCA, is amended to read:

"53-6-113. Department to adopt rules. (1) The department of social and rehabilitation services shall adopt appropriate rules necessary for the administration of the Montana medicaid program as provided for in this part and as may be required by federal laws and regulations governing state participation in medicaid under Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as amended.

(2) The department shall adopt rules as are necessary to further define for the purposes of this part the services provided under 53-6-101 and to provide that services utilized are medically necessary and that these services are the most efficient and cost effective available. The rules may establish the amount, scope, and duration of services provided under the Montana medicaid program, including the items and components constituting the services.

(3) The department shall establish by rule the rates for reimbursement of services provided under this part. The department may in its discretion set such rates of reimbursement as it determines necessary for the purposes of the program. In establishing rates of reimbursement, the department may consider but is not limited to:

(a) the availability of appropriated funds;

(b) the actual cost of services;

(c) the quality of services;

(d) the professional knowledge and skills necessary for the delivery of services; and

(e) the availability of services.

(4) The department shall specify by rule those professionals who may deliver or direct the delivery of particular services.

(5) The department may provide by rule for payment by a recipient of a portion of the reimbursements established by the department for services provided under this part.

(6) The department may adopt rules consistent with this part to govern eligibility for the Montana medicaid program. Rules may include but are not limited to financial standards and criteria for income and resources, treatment of resources, nonfinancial criteria, family responsibilities, residency, application, termination, definition of terms, and confidentiality of applicant and recipient information.

(7) The department may adopt rules limiting eligibility based on criteria more restrictive than that provided in 53-6-131 if required by Title XIX of the federal Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1396, et seq.), as may be amended, or if funds appropriated are not sufficient to provide medical care for all eligible persons.

(8) The department may adopt rules necessary for the administration of medicaid managed-care systems. Rules to be adopted may include but are not limited to rules concerning:

(a) participation in managed care;

(b) selection and qualifications for providers of managed care; and

(c) standards for the provision of managed care."

Section 5. Managed care. (1) The department, in its discretion, may develop managed-care systems for general relief medical assistance recipients.

(2) A managed-care system is a program organized to serve the medical needs of recipients in an efficient and cost-effective manner by managing the receipt of medical services for a geographical or otherwise defined population of recipients through primary physicians and other health care providers.

(3) The department may require recipients to participate in a managed-care system.

(4) Recipients who are required by the department to participate in a managed-care system shall participate as required in order to remain eligible for general relief medical assistance.

(5) The department may require the participation of recipients in managed-care systems based upon geographical, financial, social, medical, and other factors as the department may determine are relevant to the development and efficient management of managed-care systems.

Section 6. Codification instruction. (1) [Sections 1 and 2] are intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 53, chapter 6, part 1, and the provisions of Title 53, chapter 6, part 1, apply to [sections 1 and 2].

(2) [Section 5] is intended to be codified as an integral part of Title 53, chapter 3, part 3, and the provisions of Title 53, chapter 3, part 3, apply to [section 5].

Section 7. Coordination instruction. (1) If House Bill No. 103 is passed and approved and if it includes a section amending 53-6-101, then the section in House Bill No. 103 amending 53-6-101 is void, and [section 3 of this bill] amending 53-6-101 which reads "case management services as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(a) and 1396n(g)" should read "case management services as provided in 42 U.S.C. 1396d(a) and 1396n(g), including targeted case management services for the mentally ill, but limited to services provided in crisis intervention programs".

(2) If Senate Bill No. 369 is passed and approved and if it includes a section authorizing the department of social and rehabilitation services to develop managed-care systems for general relief medical assistance recipients, then [section 5 of this bill] is void.

Section 8. Effective date. [This act] is effective July 1, 1991.

Approved April 17, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 461

[SB 400]

AN ACT IMPOSING ABSOLUTE LIABILITY ON THE OWNER OR FORMER OWNER OF SOLID WASTE DISPOSED OF IN VIOLATION OF STATE LAW; IMPOSING A CIVIL PENALTY FOR PERSONS FOUND ABSOLUTELY LIABLE; CLARIFYING THE PROHIBITION AGAINST DUMPING SOLID WASTE ON PUBLIC PROPERTY; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 75-10-212 AND 75-10-233, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 75-10-212, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-212. Disposal in unauthorized area prohibited — exception. (1) No person may dispose of solid waste except as permitted under this part.

(2) It shall be unlawful to dump or leave any garbage, dead animal, or other debris or refuse:

(a) in or upon any highway, road, street, or alley of this state;

(b) in or upon any public ~~recreational~~ property, highway, street, or alley under the control of the state of Montana or any political subdivision thereof or any officer or agent or department thereof;

(c) within 200 yards of such public highway, road, street, or alley or public ~~recreational~~ property;

(d) on privately owned property where hunting, fishing, or other recreation is permitted, provided this subsection shall not apply to the owner, his agents, or those disposing of debris or refuse with the owner's consent.

(3) Any person in violation of this section is absolutely liable, as provided in 45-2-104, and is subject to the civil penalties provided in 75-10-233."

Section 2. Section 75-10-233, MCA, is amended to read:

"75-10-233. Dumping penalty — enforcement. (1) ~~Any~~ A person found guilty of a violation of ~~75-10-212(2)~~ 75-10-212 shall be fined in the sum not exceeding $100 or imprisoned in the county jail for a period not exceeding 30 days or be punished by both ~~such~~ fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(2) A person found absolutely liable under 75-10-212 is subject to a civil penalty not to exceed $5,000.

(3) The provisions of ~~75-10-212(2)~~ 75-10-212 shall be enforced by all highway patrol officers, sheriffs, policemen, and all other enforcement agencies and officers of the state of Montana. In addition, game wardens ~~shall~~ have the right to enforce the provisions of ~~75-10-212(2)~~ 75-10-212 on public ~~recreational~~ property and on private property where public recreation is permitted."

Approved April 17, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 462

[HB 144]

AN ACT REQUIRING AGENCIES OF STATE GOVERNMENT TO TAKE ALL REASONABLE STEPS TO ENSURE THAT GASOHOL IS USED IN STATE VEHICLES; REQUIRING RECORDS TO BE KEPT ON THE USE OF GASOHOL; AND REQUIRING REVIEW OF THE RECORDS BY THE LEGISLATIVE AUDITOR.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. State vehicles to use gasohol — definition — record of purchase required — audit. (1) Each department, agency, institution, office, board, and commission of the executive, legislative, and judicial branches of state government and each state institution of higher education owning or operating a motor vehicle capable of burning gasohol shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that the operators of those vehicles use gasohol in the vehicles if gasohol is reasonably and commercially available within the operating area of the vehicle and is priced competitively with the motor vehicle fuel otherwise used by the vehicle.

(2) For purposes of this section, "gasohol" means all products commonly or commercially known or sold as gasohol and used for the purpose of effectively and efficiently operating internal combustion engines, consisting of not less than 10% anhydrous ethanol produced from agricultural products, including wood or wood products.

(3) An entity subject to the requirements of subsection (1) shall require that each purchase of gasohol by the operator of a motor vehicle using gasohol is reported to that entity by the motor vehicle operator.

(4) An entity subject to the requirements of subsection (1) may not take any disciplinary, judicial, administrative, or other adverse action against the operator of a motor vehicle for failing to purchase gasohol for the operation of the motor vehicle.

(5) An entity subject to the requirements of subsection (1) shall retain for the period of time required by law the record of the purchase of gasohol used. The purchase records must be reviewed by the legislative auditor during every financial audit of the entity.

Approved April 17, 1991.

CHAPTER NO. 463

[HB 209]

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT A SECURITY INTEREST IN A MOTOR VEHICLE, BOAT, SNOWMOBILE, OR OFF-HIGHWAY VEHICLE IS PERFECTED ON THE DATE THE LIEN NOTICE IS DELIVERED TO THE COUNTY TREASURER; AND AMENDING SECTIONS 23-2-508, 23-2-611, 23-2-811, AND 61-3-103, MCA.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Montana:

Section 1. Section 61-3-103, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-3-103. Filing of security interests, perfection, rights, procedure, fees. (1) No security interest in a motor vehicle shall be valid as against creditors, subsequent purchasers, or encumbrancers unless a lien notice, on a form approved by the department, that shows a security interest has been created, has been ~~filed with the department~~ perfected as provided in this section. The department shall not file any security interest or other lien unless it is accompanied by or specified in the application for a certificate of ownership of the vehicle encumbered. If the approved notice form is transmitted to the department, the security agreement or other lien instrument that creates the security interest must be retained by the secured party. A copy of the security agreement is sufficient as a lien notice if it contains the name and address of the debtor and the secured party, the complete vehicle description, amount of lien, and is signed by the debtor. The department shall file the security interest or lien by entering the name and address of the secured party upon the face of the certificate of ownership. The department shall mail a statement certifying to the filing of a security interest or lien to the secured party. The department shall mail the certificate of ownership to the owner at the address given on the certificate; however, if the transfer of ownership and filing of the security interest are paid for by a creditor or secured party, the department shall return the certificate of ownership to the county treasurer where the vehicle is to be registered. The owner of a motor vehicle is the person entitled to operate and possess such motor vehicle.

(2) A security interest in a motor vehicle held as inventory by a dealer licensed under the provisions of 61-4-101, must be perfected in accordance with Title 30, chapter 9, and no endorsement on the certificate of title is necessary for perfection.

(3) Whenever a security interest or lien is filed against a motor vehicle that is subject to two security interests previously perfected ~~by filing~~ under this section, the department shall endorse on the face of the certificate of ownership, "NOTICE. This motor vehicle is subject to additional security interests on file with the Department of Justice." No other information regarding such additional security interests need be endorsed on the certificate.

(4) Satisfactions or statements of release filed with the department under this chapter shall be retained by it for a period of 8 years after receipt, after which they may be destroyed.

(5) ~~The filing of a~~ A security interest or other lien, as ~~herein~~ provided in this section, ~~perfects a security interest which has attached at the time the certificate of ownership noting such interest is issued~~ is perfected on the date the lien notice and the certificate of ownership or manufacturer's statement of origin are delivered to the county treasurer. On that date, the county treasurer shall issue to the secured party a receipt evidencing the perfection. ~~Issuance of a certificate of ownership~~ Perfection under this section constitutes constructive notice to subsequent purchasers or encumbrancers, from the ~~time of filing~~ date of delivery of the lien notice to the county treasurer, of the existence of the security interest.

(6) Security interests or other lien filings that do not require transfer of ownership are perfected when received by the department. On that date, the department shall issue to the secured party a receipt evidencing the perfection. Perfection under this subsection constitutes constructive notice to subsequent purchasers or encumbrancers, from the date the lien notice is delivered to the department, of the existence of the security interest.

~~(6)~~(7) Upon default under a chattel mortgage or conditional sales contract covering a motor vehicle, the mortgagee or vendor has the same remedies as in the case of other personal property. In case of attachment of motor vehicles all the provisions of 27-18-413, 27-18-414, and 27-18-804 shall be applicable except that deposits must be made with the department.

~~(7)~~(8) A conditional sales vendor or chattel mortgagee or assignee who fails to file a satisfaction of a chattel mortgage, assignment, or conditional sales contract within 15 days after receiving final payment shall be required to pay the department the sum of $1 for each day thereafter that he fails to file such satisfaction.

~~(8)~~(9) Upon receipt of any liens, or notice of liens dependent on possession, or attachments, etc., against the record of any motor vehicle registered in this state, the department shall within 24 hours mail to the owner, conditional sale vendor, mortgagees, or assignees of any thereof a notice showing the name and address of the lien claimant, amount of the lien, date of execution of lien, and in the case of attachment the full title of the court and the action and the name of the attorneys for the plaintiff and/or attaching creditor.

~~(9)~~(10) It shall not be necessary to refile with the department any instruments on file in the offices of the county clerk and recorders at the time this law takes effect.

~~(10)~~(11) A fee of $4 must be paid to the department to file any security interest or other lien against a motor vehicle. The $4 fee shall include and cover the cost of filing a satisfaction or release of the security interest and also the cost of entering such satisfaction or release on the records of the department and deleting the endorsement of the security interest from the face of the certificate of ownership. A fee of $4 must be paid the department for issuing a certified copy of a certificate of ownership subject to a security interest or other lien on file in the office of the department, or for filing an assignment of any security interest or other lien on file with the department. All fees provided for in this section must be paid to the county treasurer for deposit in the state general fund in accordance with 15-1-504."

Section 2. Section 23-2-508, MCA, is amended to read:

"23-2-508. Certificate of ownership — filing of security interests. (1) Except as provided in subsection (9), a motorboat or sailboat 12 feet in length or longer may not be operated upon the waters of the state unless a certificate of ownership has first been obtained from the department of justice in accordance with the laws of this state.

(2) The owner of a motorboat or sailboat 12 feet in length or longer shall apply for a certificate of ownership and a certificate of number with the county treasurer of the county in which the owner resides, upon forms furnished by the department of justice. The forms must require the following information:

(a) name of the owner;

(b) residence of the owner, by town or county;

(c) business or home address of the owner;

(d) name and address of any lienholder;

(e) amount due under any contract or lien;
